Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986), and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Illinois State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 2,007 acres established for Illinois by the determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such committee at Room 232, U. S. Post Office and Court House, Springfield, Illinois, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Illinois. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.47 Illinois—(a) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC county office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(b) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares. For each farm in Illinois for which a request for proportionate share is filed, the proportionate share shall be established from the State allocation of 2,007 acres so as to coincide with the acreage of 1956-crop sugar beets planted on such farm.

(c) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be furnished a notice informing him that his proportionate share will coincide with his planted acreage.

(d) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

Statement of bases and considerations. This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Illinois State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in Illinois in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The acreage covered by bona fide requests for proportionate shares, as filed by both old and new producers, and the acreage of sugar beets actually planted are smaller than the State allocation. This situation makes unnecessary the carrying out of considerable detailed procedure which would otherwise be required. It is unnecessary to apply a specific formula in computing farm shares, to make set-asides of acreage for new producers and appeals, and to make adjustments in farm shares to reflect ability to produce or to distribute unused acreage. Accordingly, this supplement provides for a distribution of acreage within the State allocation by specifying that individual farm proportionate shares shall equal the acreages planted on the various farms.

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

NEW MEXICO FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation New Mexico State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 764 acres established for New Mexico by the determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such committee at 1015 Tijeras Avenue NW., Albuquerque, New Mexico, and at the office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee in Estancia, Torrance County, New Mexico. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.51 New Mexico—(a) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC county office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(b) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares. For each farm in New Mexico for which a request for proportionate share is filed, the proportionate share shall be established from the State allocation of 764 acres so as to coincide with the acreage of 1956-crop sugar beets planted on such farm.

(c) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be furnished a notice informing him that his proportionate share will coincide with his planted acreage.

(d) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

Statement of bases and considerations. This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation New Mexico State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in New Mexico in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The acreage covered by bona fide requests for proportionate shares, as filed by both old and new producers, and the acreage of sugar beets actually planted are significantly smaller than the State allocation. This situation makes unnecessary the carrying out of considerable detailed procedure which would otherwise be required. It is unnecessary to apply a specific formula in computing farm shares, to make set-asides of acreage for new producers and appeals, and to make adjustments in farm shares to reflect ability to produce or to distribute unused acreage. Accordingly, this supplement provides for a distribution of acreage within the State allocation by specifying that individual farm proportionate shares shall equal the acreages planted on the various farms.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 85]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

as amended (7 CFR Part 922; 21 F. R. 4392), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on September 6, 1956, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this regulation, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 9, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 16, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 970,200 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) All Valencia oranges handled during the period specified in this section are subject also to all applicable size restrictions which are in effect pursuant to this part during such period.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

[Lemon Reg. 658]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.765 Lemon Regulation 658—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on September 5, 1956, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this regulation, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 9, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 16, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 232,500 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

Chapter XI—Agricultural Conservation Program Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 1105—AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION; HAWAII

SUBPART—1957

Through the Agricultural Conservation Program, all people share in the cost of protecting the most vital of our natural resources—our farm and ranch lands. This program is one of the many forms of public assistance essential to this protection. Research, education, technical services, and cost-sharing all are designed to help preserve or restore the physical characteristics of our agricultural lands so that a stable agriculture will be assured. The need for achievements beyond those which come just from wise use of the land for crop production is very great.

CONSERVATION PRACTICES AND MAXIMUM RATES OF COST-SHARING

1105.641 Practice 1: Constructing continuous terraces and/or diversion ditches to control the flow of runoff water and check soil erosion on sloping land.
1105.642 Practice 2: Constructing interception ditches and/or outlet channels for disposing of, diverting, or collecting water to control erosion or for impounding livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grazing land management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover, and for irrigation.
1105.643 Practice 3: Establishing a protective sod lining in waterways to dispose of excess water without causing erosion.
1105.644 Practice 4: Building erosion control dams or stone or vegetative barriers to prevent or heal the gullying of farmland and reduce runoff of water.
1105.645 Practice 5: Constructing permanent riprap or revetment of stone to control erosion of streambanks, gullies, dam faces, or watercourses.
1105.646 Practice 6: Initial planting of orchards on the contour to help prevent erosion.
1105.647 Practice 7: Establishment of leguminous crops for use as stubble mulch, cover, or green manure for protection of soil from erosion.
1105.648 Practice 8: Establishment of adapted nonlegumes for stubble mulch, cover, filter strip, or green manure for protection of soil from erosion.
1105.649 Practice 9: Initial establishment of permanent pasture or initial improvement of an established permanent grass or grass-legume cover for soil or watershed protection by seeding, sodding, or sprigging adapted perennial grasses and/or legumes.
1105.650 Practice 10: Initial treatment of cropland, orchardland, or pasture for correction of soil acidity and addition of needed calcium to permit best use of legumes and/or grasses for soil improvement and protection.
1105.651 Practice 11: Initial controlling of competitive shrubs to permit growth of adequate grass cover for soil protection on range or pasture land by poisoning or hand grubbing.
1105.652 Practice 12: Initial application of organic mulch material to any to any cropland, orchardland, or eroded pasture areas for soil protection and moisture conservation.
1105.653 Practice 13: Installation of pipelines for livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover.
1105.654 Practice 14: Construction of permanent artificial watersheds for accumulating water to be used to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover.
1105.655 Practice 15: Construction of permanent artificial water tanks for accumulating water to be used to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover.
1105.656 Practice 16: Construction of permanent fences to obtain better distribution and control of livestock grazing on range or pasture land and to promote proper management for protection of established forage resources, or to protect farm woodland from grazing.
1105.657 Practice 17: Constructing or sealing dams, pits, or ponds for livestock water, including the enlargement of inadequate structures.
1105.658 Practice 18: Constructing or sealing dams, pits, or ponds for irrigation water.
1105.659 Practice 19: Constructing or enlarging permanent ditches, dikes, or laterals in reorganization of farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion.
1105.660 Practice 20: Lining ditches or reservoirs in reorganization of farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion.
1105.661 Practice 21: Constructing or installing permanent structures such as siphons, flumes, drop boxes or chutes, weirs, diversion gates, and permanently located pipe in reorganization of farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion.
1105.662 Practice 22: Installation of portable sprinklers or gated pipes in reorganizing farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion.
1105.663 Practice 23: Construction or enlargement of permanent open drainage systems to dispose of excess water on farmland under cultivation or on pastureland.
1105.664 Practice 24: Initial establishment of a stand of trees or shrubs on farmland for wind or water erosion control, watershed protection, or forestry purposes.
1105.665 Practice 25: Installation of facilities for sprinkler irrigation of permanent pasture for developing forage resources to encourage rotation grazing and better range management for protection of all grazing land in the farm against overgrazing and erosion.
1105.666 Practice 26: Constructing wells or developing seeps or springs for livestock water as a means of protecting established vegetative cover through proper distribution of livestock, rotation grazing, or better grassland management.
1105.667 Practice 27: Shaping or land grading to permit effective surface drainage.
1105.668 Practice 28: Leveling or grading land for more efficient use of irrigation water and to prevent erosion.
1105.669 Practice 29: Streambank or shore protection, channel clearance, enlargement or realinement, or construction of floodways, levees, or dikes, to prevent erosion or flood damage to farmland.
1105.670 Practice 30: Initial establishment of contour operations on nonterraced unirrigated land to protect soil from wind or water erosion.
1105.671 Practice 31: Initial establishment of cross-slope stripcropping to protect soil from water or wind erosion.
1105.672 Practice 32: Establishment of permanent vegetative strips between tree rows in young (less than 5 years old) coffee orchards as a protection against erosion.
1105.673 Practice 33: Subsurface tillage of cropland and/or orchardland protected by organic mulch, to avoid plowing under the surface cover of mulch which has been applied for soil protection and moisture conservation.
1105.674 Practice 34: Constructing channel lining, chutes, drop spillways, pipe drops, drop inlets, or similar structures for the protection of outlets and water channels that dispose of excess water.

INTRODUCTION

§ 1105.600 Introduction. (a) The United States Department of Agriculture offers every farmer in the Territory of Hawaii an opportunity to conserve and improve the productivity of his land through participation in the 1957 Agricultural Conservation Program.

(b) Under this program, part of the costs of the conservation practices is borne by the Government, and this represents the Nation's interest in what happens to its basic land and water resources.

(c) Costs will be shared on the performance of recommended practices at approved rates to the extent of available funds. Developed under the provisions of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, the program is designed to meet local conservation needs.

(d) The information contained in this subpart outlines the general provisions of the 1957 Agricultural Conservation Program for Hawaii and the general specifications and rates of Federal cost-sharing for practices.

GENERAL PROGRAM PRINCIPLES

§ 1105.601 General program principles. The 1957 Agricultural Conservation Program for Hawaii has been developed and is to be carried out on the basis of the following general principles:

(a) The program is confined to the conservation practices on which Federal cost-sharing is most needed in order to achieve the maximum conservation benefit in the Territory.

(b) The program is designed to encourage those soil and water conservation practices which provide the most enduring conservation benefits practicably attainable in 1957 on the lands where they are to be applied.

(c) Costs will be shared with a farmer or rancher only on satisfactorily performed soil and water conservation practices for which Federal cost-sharing was requested by the farmer or rancher before the conservation work was begun.

(d) Costs should be shared only on soil and water conservation practices which it is believed farmers or ranchers would not carry out to the needed extent without program assistance. In no event should costs be shared on practices except those which are over and above those farmers or ranchers would be compelled to perform in order to secure a crop.

(e) The rates of cost-sharing in the program are to be the minimum required to result in substantially increased performance of needed soil and water conservation practices within the limits prescribed.

(f) The purpose of the program is to help achieve additional conservation on land now in agricultural production rather than to bring more land into agricultural production. The program is not applicable to the development of new or additional farmland as a result of drainage. Such of the available funds that cannot be wisely utilized for this purpose will be returned to the public treasury.

(g) If the Federal Government shares the cost of the initial application of soil and water conservation practices which farmers and ranchers otherwise would not perform but which are essential to sound soil and water conservation, the farmers and ranchers should assume responsibility for the upkeep and maintenance of those practices through their life span.

DEFINITIONS

§ 1105.602 Definitions. For the purposes of the 1957 program:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the Department to whom authority has been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to act in his stead.

(b) "Administrator, ACPS," means the Administrator of the Agricultural Conservation Program Service.

(c) "State" means the Territory of Hawaii.

(d) "State Office" means the Hawaii Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office in Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii.

(e) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise, or other legal entity (and, wherever applicable, the Territory of Hawaii or a political subdivision or agency thereof) that, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, participates in the operation of a farm or ranch.

(f) "Farm" or "ranch" means all adjacent or nearby farm or range land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also (1) any other adjacent or nearby farm or range land which the State Office determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit in producing range livestock or with respect to the rotation of crops, and with work stock, machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other land; and (2) any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm or ranch, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops. Notwithstanding any limitation in this paragraph concerning the type or use of land, a farm may include or may consist entirely of woodland which is being operated for the production and sale of forest products. A farm or ranch shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated or, if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm or ranch is located.

(g) "Cropland" means farmland which in 1956 was tilled or was in regular crop rotation, including also land which was established in permanent vegetative cover, other than trees, since 1953 and which was classified as cropland at the time of seeding, but excluding (1) bearing orchards and vineyards (except the acreage of cropland therein), (2) plowable noncrop open pasture, and (3) any land which constitutes, or will constitute if tillage is continued, an erosion hazard to the community.

(h) "Orchardland" means the acreage in planted fruit trees, nut trees, coffee trees, papaya trees, banana plants, or vineyards.

(i) "Pastureland" means farmland, other than rangeland, on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and on which the spacing of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

(j) "Rangeland" means land which produces, or can produce, forage suitable for grazing by range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation.

(k) "Merchantable timber" means any processed or unprocessed timber which is sold for cash by the producer.

(l) "Forest Service" means the Division of Forestry, Territorial Board of Agriculture and Forestry.

ALLOCATION OF FUNDS

§ 1105.603 Allocation of funds. The amount of funds available for conservation practices under this program is $182,000. This amount does not include the amount set aside for administrative expenses and the amount required for increases in small Federal cost-shares in § 1105.618.

STATE AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM

§ 1105.604 Agencies participating in development of State program. This program was developed within the pattern of the national program authorized by the Congress under the provisions of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act of 1938, as amended. Adaptation to Hawaii's needs has been accomplished over a period of years through the cooperative assistance and advice of interested farmers, as well as Government agency representatives from the Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Board of Agriculture and Forestry, Farmers Home Administration, and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office. The program has been approved by the Administrator, ACPS, in Washington.

APPROVAL OF CONSERVATION PRACTICES

§ 1105.605 Method and extent of approval. The State Office will determine the extent to which program funds will be made available to share the cost of each approved practice on each farm or ranch, taking into consideration the available funds, the conservation problems of the individual farm or ranch and other farms and ranches, and the conservation work for which requested Federal cost-sharing is considered as most needed in 1957. The notice of approval shall show for each approved practice the number of units of the practice for which the Federal Government will share in the cost and the amount of the Federal cost-share for the performance of that number of units of the practice.

§ 1105.606 Section of practices. (a) The practices included in the program are only those practices for which cost-sharing is essential to permit accomplishment of needed conservation work which would not otherwise be carried out in the desired volume.

(b) Each farm or ranch operator shall be given an opportunity to request that the Federal Government share in the cost of those practices on which he considers he needs such assistance in order to permit their performance in adequate volume on his farm or ranch. The State Office, taking into consideration the farmer's or rancher's request and any conservation plan developed by the farmer or rancher with the assistance of any State or Federal agency, shall direct the available funds for cost-sharing to those farms and ranches and to those practices where cost-sharing is considered most essential to the accomplishment of the basic conservation objective of the Department—the use of each acre of agricultural land within its capabilities and the treatment of each acre in accordance with its needs for protection and improvement.

§ 1105.607 Pooling agreements. Farmers or ranchers in any local area may agree in writing, with the approval of the State Office, to perform designated amounts of practices which, by conserving or improving the agricultural resources of the community, will solve a mutual conservation problem on the farms of the participants. For purposes of eligibility for cost-sharing, practices carried out under such an approved written agreement will be regarded as having been carried out on the farms or ranches of the persons who performed the practices.

§ 1105.608 Prior request for cost-sharing. Costs will be shared only for those practices, or components of practices, for which cost-sharing is requested by the farm or ranch operator before performance thereof is started. For practices for which (a) approval was given under the 1956 Agricultural Conservation Program, (b) performance was started but not completed during the 1956 program year, and (c) the State Office believes the extension of the approval to the 1957 program is justified under the 1957 program regulations and provisions, the filing of the request for cost-sharing under the 1956 program may be regarded as meeting the requirement of the 1957 program that a request for cost-sharing be filed before performance of the practice is started.

§ 1105.609 Program year and technical aid. (a) Costs will be shared at the rates specified and within the limitations set forth in this subpart for carrying out during the period from October 1, 1956, through December 31, 1957, the conservation practices, or components thereof, included in this subpart which are approved for a farm or ranch.

(b) The Soil Conservation Service is responsible for the technical phases of the practices contained in §§ 1105.641, 1105.642, 1105.644, 1105.645, 1105.654, 1105.655, 1105.657 to 1105.663, 1105.665 to 1105.670, 1105.673, and 1105.674 (practices 1, 2, 4, 5, 14, 15, 17 to 23, 25 to 30, 33, and 34). This responsibility shall include (1) a finding that the practice is needed and practicable on the farm, (2) necessary site selection, other preliminary work, and layout work of the practice, (3) necessary supervision of the installation, and (4) certification of performance. For the practice contained in § 1105.643 (practice 3), the Soil Conservation Service is responsible (1) for determining that the practice is needed and practicable on the farm, and (2) for necessary site selection, other preliminary work, and layout work of the practice. For the practices contained in §§ 1105.646, 1105.653, and 1105.656 (practices 6, 13, and 16), the Soil Conservation Service is responsible for determining that the practice is needed and practicable on the farm. In addition, upon agreement of the State Office and the State Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, responsibility for all or part of the unassigned technical phases of these or other practices may be assigned to the Soil Conservation Service. The State Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service may utilize assistance from private, State, or Federal agencies in carrying out these assigned responsibilities.

(c) The Forest Service (Forestry Division, Territorial Board of Agriculture and Forestry) is responsible for the technical phases of the practice contained in § 1105.664 (practice 24). This responsibility shall include (1) providing necessary specialized technical assistance, (2) development of specifications for the practice, and (3) working through the State Office, determining compliance in meeting these specifications. The Forest Service may utilize assistance from private, State, or Federal agencies in carrying out these assigned responsibilities.

§ 1105.610 Practice specifications and approval. (a) Minimum specifications which practices must meet to be eligible for Federal cost-sharing are set forth in this subpart. Additional specifications may be secured from the State Office or the Soil Conservation Service Territorial Office in Honolulu.

(b) For those practices in this subpart which authorize Federal cost-sharing for minimum required applications of liming materials and commercial fertilizers, the minimum required application on which cost-sharing is authorized shall in each case be determined on the basis of current soil tests: Provided, however, That if the State Office determines available facilities are inadequate to provide the necessary tests, the minimum required applications of these materials shall be those recommended for the area by the Agricultural Extension Service. Liming materials contained in commercial fertilizers, phosphate rock, or basic slag will not qualify for Federal cost-sharing.

(c) Practice specifications shall provide minimum performance requirements which will qualify the practice for cost-sharing and, where applicable, may also provide maximum limits of performance which will be eligible for cost-sharing. The minimum performance requirements established for a practice shall represent those levels of performance which are necessary to assure a satisfactory practice. The maximum limits of performance for cost-sharing established for a practice shall represent those levels of performance which are needed in order for the practice to be most effective in meeting the conservation problem and which are not in excess of levels for which cost-sharing can be justified.

(d) Costs for the practices contained in §§ 1105.643, 1105.647 to 1105.649, and 1105.672 (practices 3, 7 to 9, and 32) may be shared even though a good stand is not established, if the State Office determines, in accordance with approved standards, that the practices were carried out in a manner which would normally result in the establishment of a good stand, and that failure to establish a good stand was due to weather or other conditions beyond the control of the farm or ranch operator. The State Office may require as a condition of cost-sharing in such cases that the area be reseeded, or that other needed protective measures be carried out.

§ 1105.611 Completion of practices. Federal cost-sharing for the practices contained in this subpart is conditioned upon the performance of the practices in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions. Except as provided in §§ 1105.612 and 1105.613, practices must be completed during the program year in order to be eligible for cost-sharing.

§ 1105.612 Practices substantially completed during program year. Approved practices may be deemed, for purposes of payment of cost-shares, to have been carried out during the 1957 program year, if the State Office determines that they are substantially completed by the end of the program year. However, no cost-shares for such practices shall be paid until they have been completed in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions.

§ 1105.613 Practices requiring more than one program year for completion. (a) Cost-sharing may be approved under the 1957 program for a component of a practice completed during the program year in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions, provided:

(1) The farmer or rancher agrees in writing to complete all remaining components of the practice in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions within the time prescribed by the State Office, if cost-sharing is offered to him therefor under a subsequent program; and

(2) The State Office determines that under the circumstances prevailing on the farm in 1957, completion of that component is a reasonable attainment in 1957 toward the ultimate completion of all components of the practice.

(b) Any advance cost-share so paid shall be refunded if the remaining components of the practice are not completed in accordance with all specifications and program provisions within the time prescribed by the State Office, provided the farmer or rancher is offered cost-sharing under a subsequent program for completing such components. The extension of the period for completion of the remaining components of the practice will not constitute a commitment to approve cost-sharing therefor under a subsequent program. Approval of cost-sharing for other practices under subsequent programs may be denied until the remaining components are completed.

§ 1105.614 Initial establishment or installation of practices. (a) Under the initial establishment principle as it applies to the 1957 program, cost-sharing may be authorized:

(1) For the first establishment or installation of a practice with cost-sharing since the 1953 program on a particular piece of land while under the control of the current operator. This will include reestablishment or replacement of (i) practices carried out without cost-sharing, (ii) practices carried out with cost-sharing prior to the 1954 program, and (iii) practices carried out while the land was under the control of a person other than the current operator.

(2) For the reestablishment or replacement of a practice which was carried out with cost-sharing under the 1954 or a subsequent program while the land was under the control of the current operator and which has served for its normal life span.

(3) For the reestablishment or replacement of a practice which was carried out with cost-sharing under the 1954 or a subsequent program while the land was under the control of the current operator and which has not served for its normal life span due to conditions other than lack of proper maintenance by the current operator, if both of the following conditions exist:

(i) Reestablishment or replacement of the practice is needed to meet the conservation problem.

(ii) The State Office believes that the reestablishment or replacement of the practice merits consideration under the program to an equal extent with other practices for which cost-sharing has not been allowed under a previous program.

(4) For the reestablishment or replacement of a practice which was carried out with cost-sharing under the 1954 or a subsequent program while the land was under the control of the current operator and which has not served for its normal life span due to lack of proper maintenance by the current operator, if all of the following conditions exist:

(i) Reestablishment or replacement of the practice is needed to meet the conservation problem.

(ii) The State Office believes that the reestablishment or replacement of the practice merits consideration under the program to an equal extent with other practices for which cost-sharing has not been allowed under a previous program.

(iii) The current operator has satisfied all refund demands under the applicable program provisions with regard to failure to maintain practices or practices defeating the purposes of programs arising from lack of proper maintenance of the practice.

(iv) The State Office determines that cost-sharing would be justified under the circumstances.

Cost-sharing may be authorized for the enlargement or restoration of a practice under the conditions set forth in this section.

(b) With normal upkeep and maintenance, practices contained in §§ 1105.641 to 1105.646, 1105.649 to 1105.651, 1105.653 to 1105.672, and 1105.674 (practices 1 to 6, 9 to 11, 13 to 32, and 34) carried out under the 1954 or a subsequent program would not have served their life spans by the end of the 1957 program year. Accordingly, cost-sharing for reestablishment or replacement of these practices may be authorized only under the conditions set forth in this section.

(c) The life span of practices contained in §§ 1105.647, 1105.648, and 1105.673 (practices 7, 8, and 33) will be considered to have ended before these practices will be reestablished under the 1957 program.

(d) For the purposes of the 1957 program, the practice contained in § 1105.652 (practice 12) will be considered to have a life span of 2 years.

§ 1105.615 Repair, upkeep, and maintenance of practices. Federal cost-sharing is not authorized for repairs or for normal upkeep or maintenance of any practice.

FEDERAL COST-SHARES

§ 1105.617 Division of Federal cost-shares—(a) Federal cost-shares. The Federal cost-share attributable to the use of conservation materials or services shall be credited to the person to whom the materials or services are furnished. Other Federal cost-shares shall be credited to the person who carried out the practices by which such other Federal cost-shares are earned. If more than one person contributed to the carrying out of such practices, the Federal cost-share shall be divided among such persons in the proportion that the State Office determines they contributed to the carrying out of the practices. In making this determination, the State Office shall take into consideration the value of the labor, equipment, or material contributed by each person toward the carrying out of each practice on a particular acreage, and shall assume that each contributed equally unless it is established to the satisfaction of the State Office that their respective contributions thereto were not in equal proportion. The furnishing of land or the right to use water will not be considered as a contribution to the carrying out of any practice.

(b) Death, incompetency, or disappearance. In case of death, incompetency, or disappearance of any person, any Federal share of the cost due him shall be paid to his successor, determined in accordance with the provisions of the regulations in ACP–122, as amended (Part 1108 of this chapter).

§ 1105.618 Increase in small Federal cost-shares. The Federal cost-share computed for any person with respect to any farm or ranch shall be increased as follows: Provided, however, That in the event legislation is enacted which repeals or amends the authority for making such increases, the Secretary may, in such manner and at such time as is consistent with such legislation, discontinue such increases:

(a) Any Federal cost-share amounting to $0.71 or less shall be increased to $1.

(b) Any Federal cost-share amounting to more than $0.71, but less than $1, shall be increased by 40 percent.

(c) Any Federal cost-share amounting to $1 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

Amount of cost-share computed	Increase in cost-share
$1 to $1.99	$0.40
$2 to $2.99	.80
$3 to $3.99	1.20
$4 to $4.99	1.60

$200 and over	(2)

[1] Increase to $200.

§ 1105.619 Maximum Federal cost-share limitation. (a) The total of all Federal cost-shares under the 1957 program to any person with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine places in the United States (including Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands) for approved practices which are not carried out under pooling agreements shall not exceed the sum of $1,500, and for all approved practices, including those carried out under pooling agreements, shall not exceed the sum of $10,000.

(b) All or any part of any Federal cost-share which otherwise would be due any person under the 1957 program may be withheld, or required to be refunded, if he has adopted, or participated in adopting, any scheme or device, including the dissolution, reorganization, revival, formation, or use of any corporation, partnership, estate, trust, or any other means, designed to evade, or which has the effect of evading, the provisions of this section.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO FEDERAL COST-SHARING

§ 1105.621 Maintenance of practices. The sharing of costs, by the Federal Government, for the performance of approved conservation practices on any farm or ranch under the 1957 program will be subject to the condition that the person with whom the costs are shared will maintain such practices throughout their normal life span in accordance with good farming practices as long as the land on which they are carried out is under his control.

§ 1105.622 Practices defeating purposes of programs. If the State Office finds that any person has adopted or participated in any practice which tends to defeat the purposes of the 1957 or any previous program, including, but not limited to, failure to maintain, in accordance with good farming practices, practices carried out under a previous program, it may withhold, or require to be refunded, all or any part of the Federal cost-share which otherwise would be due him under the 1957 program.

§ 1105.623 Depriving others of Federal cost-share. If the State Office finds that any person has employed any scheme or device (including coercion, fraud, or misrepresentation), the effect of which would be or has been to deprive any other person of the Federal cost-share due that person under the program, it may withhold, in whole or in part, from the person participating in or employing such a scheme or device, or require him to refund in whole or in part, the Federal cost-share which otherwise would be due him under the 1957 program.

§ 1105.624 Filing of false claims. If the State Office finds that any person has knowingly filed claim for payment of the Federal cost-share under the 1957 program for practices not carried out, or for practices carried out in such a manner that they do not meet the required specifications therefor, such person shall not be eligible for any Federal cost-share under the 1957 program and shall refund all amounts that may have been paid to him under the 1957 program. The withholding or refunding of Federal cost-shares will be in addition to and not in substitution of any other penalty or liability which might otherwise be imposed.

§ 1105.625 Federal cost-shares not subject to claims. Any Federal cost-share, or portion thereof, due any person shall be determined and allowed without regard to questions of title under State law; without deduction of claims for advances (except as provided in § 1105.626, and except for indebtedness to the United States subject to setoff under orders issued by the Secretary (Part 1109 of this chapter)); and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

§ 1105.626 Assignments. Any person who may be entitled to any Federal cost-share under the 1957 program may assign his right thereto, in whole or in part, as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1957, including the carrying out of soil and water conservation practices. No assignment will be recognized unless it is made in writing on Form ACP–69 and in accordance with the regulations issued by the Secretary (Part 1110 of this chapter).

§ 1105.627 Practices carried out with State or Federal aid. The total extent of any practice performed shall be reduced for the purpose of computing cost-shares by the percentage of the total cost of the items of performance on which costs are shared which the State Office determines was furnished by a State or Federal agency. Materials or services furnished through the program, materials or services furnished by any agency of a State to another agency of the same State, or materials or services furnished or used by a State or Federal agency for the performance of practices on its land shall not be regarded as State or Federal aid for the purposes of this section.

§ 1105.628 Compliance with regulatory measures. Persons who carry out conservation practices for cost-sharing under the 1957 program shall be responsible for obtaining the authorities, rights, easements, or other approvals necessary to the performance and maintenance of the practices in keeping with applicable laws and regulations. The person with whom the cost of the practice is shared shall be responsible to the Federal Government for any losses it may sustain because he infringes on the rights of others or fails to comply with applicable laws and regulations.

APPLICATION FOR PAYMENT OF FEDERAL COST-SHARES

§ 1105.630 Persons eligible to file application. Any person who, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper on a farm or ranch, bore a part of the cost of an approved conservation practice is eligible to file an application for payment of the Federal cost-share due him.

§ 1105.631 Time and manner of filing application and required information. (a) It shall be the responsibility of persons participating in the program to submit to the State Office forms and information needed to establish the extent of the performance of approved conservation practices and compliance with applicable program provisions. Time limits with regard to the submission of such forms and information shall be established where necessary for efficient administration of the program. Such time limits shall afford a full and fair opportunity to those eligible to file the forms or information within the period prescribed. At least 2 weeks' notice to the public shall be given of any general time limit prescribed. Such notice shall be given by mailing notice to each farm inspector and making copies available to the press. Other means of notification, including radio announcements and individual notices to persons affected, shall be used to the extent practicable. Notice of time limits which are applicable to individual persons, such as time limits for reporting performance of approved practices, shall be issued in writing to the persons affected. Exceptions to time limits may be made in cases where failure to submit required forms and information within the applicable time limits is due to reasons beyond the control of the farmer or rancher.

(b) Payment of Federal cost-shares will be made only upon application submitted on the prescribed form to the State Office. Any application for payment may be rejected if any form or information required of the applicant is not submitted to the State Office within the applicable time limit.

(c) If an application for a farm or ranch is filed within the time prescribed, any producer on the farm or ranch who did not sign the application may subsequently apply for his share of the cost-share, provided he does so on or before December 31, 1958.

APPEALS

§ 1105.633 Appeals. (a) Any person may, within 15 days after notice thereof is forwarded to or made available to him, request the State Office in writing to reconsider its recommendation or determination in any matter affecting the right to or the amount of his Federal cost-shares with respect to the farm or ranch. The State Office shall notify him of its decision in writing within 15 days after receipt of written request for reconsideration. If the person is dissatisfied with the decision of the State Office, he may, within 15 days after the decision is forwarded to or made available to him, request the Administrator, ACPS, to review the decision of the State Office. The decision of the Administrator, ACPS, shall be final. Written notice of any decision rendered under this section by the State Office shall also be issued to each other landlord, tenant, or sharecropper on the farm or ranch who may be adversely affected by the decision.

(b) Appeals considered under this section shall be decided in accordance with the provisions of this subpart on the basis of the facts of the individual case: Provided, That the Secretary, upon the recommendation of the Administrator, ACPS, and the State Office, may waive the requirements of any such provision, where not prohibited by statute, if, in his judgment, such waiver under all the circumstances is justified to permit a proper disposition of an appeal where the farmer, in reasonable reliance on any instruction or commitment of any member, employee, or representative of the State Office, in good faith performed an eligible conservation practice and such performance reasonably accomplished the purpose of the practice

AUTHORITY, AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS, AND APPLICABILITY

§ 1105.635 Authority. The program contained in this subpart is approved pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7–17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended (49 Stat. 1148, 16 U. S. C. 590g–590q), and the Department of Agriculture and Farm Credit Administration Appropriation Act, 1957.

§ 1105.636 Availability of funds. (a) The provisions of the 1957 program are necessarily subject to such legislation as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the paying of the Federal cost-shares provided in this subpart is contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purpose; and the amounts of such Federal cost-shares will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation.

(b) The funds provided for the 1957 program will not be available for paying Federal cost-shares for which applications are filed in the State Office after December 31, 1958.

§ 1105.637 Applicability. (a) The provisions of the 1957 program contained in this subpart are not applicable to (1) any department or bureau of the United States Government or any corporation wholly owned by the United States; (2) grazing lands owned by the United States which were acquired or reserved for conservation purposes, or which are to be retained permanently under Government ownership, including, but not limited to, grazing lands administred by the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, or by the Bureau of Land Management (including lands administered under the Taylor Grazing Act) or the Fish and Wildlife Service of the United States Department of the Interior; (3) nonprivate persons for performance on any land owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it; and (4) farmlands, the use of which the State Office determines will probably change within 2 years to nonagricultural use.

(b) The program is applicable to (1) privately owned lands; (2) lands owned by the Territory of Hawaii or a political subdivision or agency thereof; (3) lands owned by corporations which are partly owned by the United States, such as production credit associations; (4) lands temporarily owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it, which were not acquired or reserved for conservation purposes, including lands administered by the Farmers Home Administration, the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, the United States Department of Defense, or by any other Government agency designated by the Administrator, ACPS; and (5) any cropland farmed by private persons which is owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it.

CONSERVATION PRACTICES AND MAXIMUM RATES OF COST-SHARING

§ 1105.641 Practice 1: Constructing continuous terraces and/or diversion ditches to control the flow of runoff water and check soil erosion on sloping farmland. Cost-sharing will be allowed, provided the structures are properly laid out and constructed in accordance with specifications contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. If the land terraced is planted to clean-tilled crops, the crop rows should follow contour lines and the land surface must be protected during the rainfall season by cover crops, heavy crop residues, or organic mulches. Diversion ditches should be used on slopes between 16 percent and 20 percent and bench-type terraces on land of 20 percent or more slope. No cost-sharing will be allowed for reconstructing old terraces.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $2.50 per 100 linear feet of terrace constructed in clear soil.

(b) $5 per 100 linear feet of terrace constructed in very rocky soil or exposed rocky substratum.

(c) $10 per 100 linear feet for bench terraces.

(d) 50 percent of the cost, but not in excess of $0.25 per cubic yard of earth moved in diversion ditch construction. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.642 Practice 2: Constructing interception ditches and/or outlet channels for disposing of, diverting, or collecting water to control erosion or for impounding livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grazing land management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover, and for irrigation. This practice does not apply to infield surface water interception on farmlands. (See § 1105.641 (practice 1) for infield interception of runoff water.) Channels having an erosive grade must be protected against erosion damage by adequate sod or other lining. Outlets must be protected to discharge water without gullying. The amount of material moved in channel construction shall be that which is determined by direct measurement of ridge or berm material above normal ground level, or that determined by prior and subsequent sectional surveys. Cost-sharing will be allowed only once and that for the year of construction. Specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost, but not in excess of $0.25 per cubic yard of material moved. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.643 Practice 3: Establishing a protective sod lining in waterways to dispose of excess water without causing erosion. This practice is to prevent erosion in permanent waterways and is applicable only to waterways built or reshaped in the program year for use in removing excess water from farmland that is contoured, terraced, and/or trash-mulched. Satisfactory sod lining (dense enough to prevent soil cutting) must be established before cost-sharing may be allowed for this practice. Maximum width of waterway for which cost-sharing will be approved is 50 feet. Detailed specifications on species, seeding rates, sprig spacing's, soil preparation, and irrigation are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Bermuda, Giant Bermuda, Kikuyu, or any other locally adapted species approved by the State Office may be used.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $1 per 1,000 square feet of surface established by shaping and seeding, sodding, or sprigging.

(b) 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of the minimum required application of approved liming materials and commercial fertilizers, including nitrogen, for establishment of the cover. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.644 Practice 4: Building erosion control dams or stone or vegetative barriers to prevent or heal the gullying of farmland and reduce runoff of water. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of pipe and/or flume material and receipts or records showing payment for labor will be required by inspectors as evidence of accomplishment under (d) and (f) of this section. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost, but not in excess of $0.25 per cubic yard of earth moved in the construction of dams, wings, and walls.

(b) $14 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $8.50 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the average cost of pipe and/or flume material delivered to the farm.

(e) $2 per cubic yard of rock used, for rock or rock-and-brush dams.

(f) 50 percent of the cost of constructing stone barriers for diverting and spreading surface runoff.

(g) $0.30 per 100 linear feet for planting single line vegetative barriers to impede the flow of surface runoff.

(h) $2 per 1,000 square feet for planting suitable permanent masced vegetative barriers.

§ 1105.645 Practice 5: Constructing permanent riprap or revetment of stone to control erosion of streambanks, gullies, dam faces, or watercourses. Dams for purposes other than for impounding water for irrigation or for livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management are not eligible. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $0.60 per square yard of exposed riprap surface.

§ 1105.646 Practice 6: Initial planting of orchards on the contour to help prevent erosion. This practice is to conserve water and reduce erosion from irrigation or storm water, with orchard rows running on nonerosive grades across the main slope. Cost-sharing will be allowed for planting orchards on the contour on land having more than 2 percent slope. The land must be protected during the rainfall season by cover crops, stubble mulch, or mulch and terraces or diversion ditches.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $5 per acre.

	Minimum seeding rate (pounds per acre)
(a) Pigeon peas	30
(b) Velvetbeans	50
(c) Field beans	30
(d) Purple vetch	50
(e) Clover:
Large like Kaimi	10
Small like Alsike	5
(f) Kudzu	8
(g) Crotalaria juncea	10
(h) Crotalaria spectabilis	10
(i) Cowpeas	30

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost of seed at the farm, but not in excess of $5 per acre of area planted.

(b) 50 percent of the cost of the minimum required application of fertilizer, but not in excess of $7 per acre of area fertilized. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.648 Practice 8: Establishment of adapted nonlegumes for stubble mulch, cover, filter strip, or green manure for protection of soil from erosion. Para grass (Panicum purpurascens), molasses grass, Rhodes grass, feather fingergrass, acceptable small grains, and other nonlegumes determined by the State Office as suitable for this purpose, are eligible for cost-sharing. In order to qualify, a good stand and a good growth must be secured during the program year and be left on the land if for cover or turned under before year-end if for green manure. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Acreage harvested for seed or hay is not eligible for Federal cost-sharing. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of seed, or records of collecting, will be required by inspectors as evidence of seed used. In case of mixed seeding with acceptable legumes, see § 1105.647 (practice 7) for ratio specifications.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost of seed at the farm, but not in excess of $5 per acre actually planted.

(b) 50 percent of the cost of the minimum required application of fertilizer, but not in excess of $7 per acre of area fertilized. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.649 Practice 9: Initial establishment of permanent pasture or initial improvement of an established permanent grass or grass-legume cover for soil or watershed protection by seeding, sodding, or sprigging adapted perennial grasses and/or legumes. All equipment used to prepare land for seeding shall operate across the slope as near to the contour as practicable. In areas where long slopes are to be broken out of native vegetation, the land preparation shall be done in contour strips and established to improved pasture before the intermediate strips shall be broken out. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. The seed must be well distributed over the area sown to insure a good stand at maturity. Any locally adapted crops approved by the State Office may be used but must be seeded at not less than the minimum seeding rates per acre prescribed by the State Office. In order to meet minimum requirements, slips or stools of grasses may be planted in continuous rows. Grass and legume charts are available in the State Office. Costs will be shared only if a satisfactory stand of the seeded grass or legume-grass mixture is established within 6 months after clearing, unless natural circumstances recognized by the State Office as being beyond control of the farmer affect growth results adversely. No area seeded shall be grazed until grass and legume-grass mixtures are well established. Land cleared must be established in perennial grasses or a legume-grass mixture as soon as practicable and within the program year. This practice is not applicable to land occupied by a merchantable stand of timber or pulpwood, or to land which, if cleared, would be suitable for continued production of crops. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of seed, or records of collecting, will be required as evidence of cost. If liming materials must be applied in the quantity determined to be needed for successful establishment of the cover, cost-sharing for the minimum required application of liming materials may be authorized under § 1105.650 (practice 10).

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 75 percent of the cost of seed, but not in excess of $10 per acre, for seeding after land preparation.

(b) 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of the minimum required application of approved commercial fertilizers, including nitrogen, for the establishment of the cover, but not in excess of $18 per acre. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.650 Practice 10: Initial treatment of cropland, orchardland, or pasture for correction of soil acidity and addition of needed calcium to permit best use of legumes and/or grasses for soil improvement and protection. This practice is applicable to land which is devoted in 1957 to grasses or legumes or which will be devoted to grasses or legumes in the planned rotation for the farm. Treatment of land which is in pasture and which is to remain in pasture will be eligible for cost-sharing only if recent soil analysis and Agricultural Extension Service recommendations justify the use of lime and all measures needed to assure an improved vegetative cover which will provide adequate and extended soil protection are carried out. Liming material must contain at least 80 percent calcium carbonate equivalent and be fine enough to pass through a 20–mesh screen (unless the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Hawaii recommends otherwise) and must be evenly applied to the land. Receipts or invoices showing the purchase of lime, properly dated and signed by the vendor, will be required as evidence by the farm inspector at the time of inspection.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the average cost of the minimum required application of liming material delivered to the farm.

§ 1105.651 Practice 11: Initial controlling of competitive shrubs to permit growth of adequate grass cover for soil protection on range or pasture land by poisoning or hand grubbing. Costs will be shared for each treatment, but not in excess of three treatments during the year, made according to accepted practices. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of poisons used or grubbing labor employed will be required by inspectors as evidence of cost. Analysis of poisons will also be required. Competitive shrubs eligible under this practice are as listed below and described in Extension Bulletin 62, University of Hawaii, available at the State Office.

Guava (Psidium guajava).
Opiuma (Pithecellobium dulce).
Emex (Emex spinosa).
Melastoma (Melastoma malabathricum).
Firebush (Myrica faya).
Pepper tree (Schinus molle).
Cactus (Opuntia megaxantha).
Java plum (Eugenia cumini).
Christmas berry (Schinus terebinthifolius).
Cat's claw (Caesalpinia sepiaria).
Aalii (Dodonaea eriocarpa).
Joee (Stachytarpheta cayennensis).
Lantana (Lantana camara).
Waiawi (Psidium cattleianum var. lucidum).
Pamakani (Eupatorium adenophorum).
Puakeawe (Styphelia tamelameiae).
Sacramento bur (Triumfetta semitriloba).
Staghorn fern (Gleichenia linearis).
Apple of Sodum (Solanum sodomeum).
Black wattle (Acacia decurrens).
Gorse (Ulex europaeus).
Blackberry (Rubus penetrans).

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the average cost of State Office approved chemicals, but not in excess of $2 per acre per application.

(b) 50 percent of the cost of grubbing labor, but not in excess of $1 per acre per treatment.

§ 1105.652 Practice 12: Initial application of organic mulch material to any cropland, orchardland, or eroded pasture areas for soil protection and moisture conservation. Organic material must be of a fibrous nature and shredded, chopped, or crushed. Material such as sugarcane, bagasse, cane leaf trash, pineapple trash, tree fern stumps, coarse grasses, coffee husks, sawdust, and wood shavings or chips, as well as macadamia nut husks and shells, will be eligible. At time of application, finely shredded material like bagasse and sawdust should lie at least 2 inches thick, medium fine material like coffee husks and wood shavings should lie at least 3 inches thick, and coarse material like pineapple trash and cane leaf trash should lie at least 6 inches thick. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials and cost of transportation will be required by inspectors as evidence of compliance. For protection of mulch cover from damage by flowing water, terraces and/or diversion ditches must be installed where necessary and feasible.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost of organic material at the farm, but not in excess of $50 per acre treated with materials secured from outside the farm.

(b) $2.50 per acre treated with material produced on the farm.

(c) 50 percent of the cost of acceptable organic material grown for the purpose on the farm, but not in excess of $50 per acre.

§ 1105.653 Practice 13: Installation of pipelines for livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover. Installations in corrals, feed lots, and holding pens are not eligible. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of pipe used will be required to determine cost.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 25 percent of the average cost of pipe at the farm, except that the cost-share for pipe in excess of 2 inches in diameter may not exceed the cost which may be shared for 2-inch pipe.

§ 1105.654 Practice 14: Construction of permanent artificial watersheds for accumulating water to be used to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover. No cost will be shared if part of the water supplied is used for irrigation or domestic purposes. Construction for purposes of starting new grazing operations is not eligible. The practice is not applicable alone for corrals, feed lots, and holding pens. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials used will be required to determine cost. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 25 percent of the cost of material used, other than concrete and rubble masonry.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

§ 1105.655 Practice 15: Construction of permanent artificial water tanks for accumulating water to be used to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover. No cost will be shared if part of the water impounded is used for irrigation or domestic purposes. Construction for purposes of starting new grazing operations is not eligible. The practice is not applicable alone for corrals, feed lots, and holding pens. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials used will be required to determine cost. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 25 percent of the cost of material used, other than concrete and rubble masonry.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

§ 1105.656 Practice 16: Construction of permanent fences to obtain better distribution and control of livestock grazing on range or pasture land and to promote proper management for protection of established forage resources, or to protect farm woodland from grazing. No cost may be shared for the maintenance or repair of existing fences or for the construction of boundary fences including road fences. Required fencing of forest reserve land is not eligible. Any fencing necessary to the working of cattle (including pens, corrals, and feed lots) is ineligible. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials will be required to determine cost.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 25 percent of the average cost at the farm of posts, wire, poles, lumber, staples, or other similar fencing materials used.

(b) $0.05 per linear foot of rock wall, minimum dimensions of which shall be: Height, 4 feet; base width, 36 inches; top width, 24 inches.

§ 1105.657 Practice 17: Constructing or sealing dams, pits, or ponds for livestock water, including the enlargement of inadequate structures. The development must contribute to a better distribution of grazing or better pasture management. This practice is not applicable to new livestock enterprises. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of material used in construction will be required by inspectors as evidence of cost. Earth fills must be constructed in accordance with supplemental specifications for "Small Earth Storage Dams," provided on request by SCS or ASC offices.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost, but not in excess of $0.25 per cubic yard of earth material moved.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the cost of fencing materials, pipe, and seeding or sodding the dam and filter strips.

(e) 50 percent of the cost at site of sealing materials, other than concrete and rubble masonry.

§ 1105.658 Practice 18: Constructing or sealing dams, pits, or ponds for irrigation water. The purpose of this practice is to conserve agricultural water or to provide water necessary for the conservation of soil resources. No cost-sharing will be allowed for material moved in cleaning or maintaining a reservoir, or for dams, pits, or ponds, the primary purpose of which is to bring additional land into agricultural production. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials used will be required by inspectors as evidence of cost. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost, but not in excess of $0.25 per cubic yard of earth material moved.

(b) $14 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $8.50 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the average cost of pipe and outlet gates.

(e) 50 percent of the average cost of seeding or sodding dams or filter strips.

(f) 50 percent of the average cost of materials, other than concrete and rubble masonry, used in permanent structures, including soil sealing.

§ 1105.659 Practice 19: Constructing or enlarging permanent ditches, dikes, or laterals in reorganization of farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion. The reorganization (a change for the better in style or method of conveying water to and in the fields) must be carried out in accordance with a reorganization plan approved by the responsible SCS technician. Receipts or invoices showing records of employment of equipment and/or labor will be required by inspectors as evidence of installation costs. No cost-sharing will be allowed for cleaning a ditch. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost, but not in excess of $0.25 per cubic yard of earth material moved in the construction or enlargement of permanent ditches, dikes, or laterals.

§ 1105.660 Practice 20: Lining ditches or reservoirs in reorganization of farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion. The reorganization (a change for the better in style or method of conveying water to and in the fields) must be carried out in accordance with a reorganization plan approved by the responsible SCS technician. Receipts or invoices showing purchases of materials used will be required by inspectors as evidence of installation costs. No cost-sharing will be allowed for repairs or replacements of existing structures. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the average cost of approved material used, other than concrete and rubble masonry.

(b) $14 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $8.50 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

§ 1105.661 Practice 21: Constructing or installing permanent structures such as siphons, flumes, drop boxes or chutes, weirs, diversion gates, and permanently located pipe in reorganization of farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion. The reorganization (a change for the better in style or method of conveying water to and in the fields) must be carried out in accordance with a reorganization plan approved by the responsible SCS technician. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of material used will be required by inspectors as evidence of installation cost. No cost-sharing will be allowed for repairs or replacements of existing structures. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the average cost of material used in permanent structures, other than concrete and rubble masonry, but excluding forms.

(b) $14 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $8.50 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

§ 1105.662 Practice 22: Installation of portable sprinklers or gated pipes in reorganizing farm irrigation system to conserve water and prevent erosion. The reorganization (a change for the better in style or method of conveying water to and in the fields) must be carried out in accordance with a reorganization plan approved by the responsible SCS technician. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials or equipment will be required by inspectors as evidence of installation costs. No cost-sharing will be allowed for repairs or replacements of existing structures. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the average cost of portable pipe and fittings or gated pipe used for reorganized irrigation. The total cost-share for portable pipe or gated pipe shall not exceed $100 per acre of reorganized irrigation.

§ 1105.663 Practice 23: Construction or enlargement of permanent open drainage systems to dispose of excess water on farmland under cultivation or on pastureland. No cost will be shared for material moved in cleaning or maintaining a ditch, or for structures installed for crossings, or for other structures primarily for the convenience of the farm operator. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of seed or materials and records of labor employed and soil moved will be required by inspectors as evidence of construction work costs. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost, but not in excess of $0.25 per cubic yard of material moved.

(b) $14 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $8.50 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the average cost of seed or planting materials for establishing suitable cover for protection against erosion on ditch banks and rights-of-way, plus 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of the minimum required application of approved liming materials and commercial fertilizers, including nitrogen, for the establishment of the cover.

(e) 50 percent of the cost of materials and labor in dynamiting holes in pahoehoe type lava rock.

(f) 50 percent of the average cost of material used, other than concrete and rubble masonry.

§ 1105.664 Practice 24: Initial establishment of a stand of trees or shrubs on farmland for wind or water erosion control, watershed protection, or forestry purposes. Plantings must be protected from fire and grazing. Fencing newly planted trees under this practice for protection against grazing is eligible for cost-sharing only if the construction specifications in § 1105.656 (practice 16) are employed. Recommended species of trees are those listed in table 11 of Board of Agriculture and Forestry Biennial Report, June 30, 1952.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $4 per 100 trees.

§ 1105.665 Practice 25: Installation of facilities for sprinkler irrigation of permanent pasture for developing forage resources to encourage rotation grazing and better range management for protection of all grazing land in the farm against overgrazing and erosion. Installation of sprinkler irrigation facilities must be solely for irrigation of permanent pasture or area being established in permanent pasture. The installation must be in accordance with a written plan approved by the responsible technician.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost at the farm of all necessary pipe and fittings, but not in excess of $100 per acre irrigated by the installation. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.666 Practice 26: Constructing wells or developing seeps or springs for livestock water as a means of protecting established vegetative cover through proper distribution of livestock, rotation grazing, or better grassland management. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Receipts or invoices showing payment for labor and/or purchase of materials used will be required by inspectors. Pumping equipment must be installed for wells, except artesian wells, and adequate storage facilities must be provided. Cost-sharing will be allowed only for constructing or deepening wells and for water storage facilities. No cost-sharing will be allowed for wells constructed primarily for the use of headquarters.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost of construction or development, excluding pumping equipment.

§ 1105.667 Practice 27: Shaping or land grading to permit effective surface drainage. No Federal cost-sharing will be allowed for shaping or grading performed through farming operations connected with land preparation for planting or cultivating crops. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost of shaping or grading. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.668 Practice 28: Leveling or grading land for more efficient use of irrigation water and to prevent erosion. No Federal cost-sharing will be allowed for floating or restoration of grade; however, the leveling operation may be completed over a period of more than one program year on a component basis where the size and cuts of fills are such that a heavy leveling operation will be needed following settlement of the original fills. No Federal cost-sharing will be allowed for leveling land, if the primary purpose of the leveling is to bring new land into agricultural production. Leveling or grading must be carried out in accordance with a plan approved by the responsible SCS technician. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Receipts or invoices showing payment of labor and equipment will be required by inspectors.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost of earth moving, but not in excess of $15 per acre.

§ 1105.669 Practice 29: Streambank or shore protection, channel clearance, enlargement or realinement, or construction of floodways, levees, or dikes, to prevent erosion or flood damage to farmland. This practice shall not be approved in cases where there is any likelihood that it will create an erosion or flood hazard to other adjacent land, or where its primary purpose is to bring new land into agricultural production. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost of construction and protective measures. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105–670 Practice 30: Initial establishment of contour operations on nonterraced unirrigated land to protect soil from wind or water erosion. All cultural operations must be performed as nearly as practicable on the contour. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $3 per acre established in contour farming during the year.

§ 1105.671 Practice 31: Initial establishment of cross-slope stripcropping to protect soil from water or wind erosion. All cultural operations, including row crop planting, must be performed across the prevailing slope.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $3 per acre established in cross-slope stripcropping during the year.

§ 1105.672 Practice 32: Establishment of permanent vegetative strips between tree rows in young (less than 5 years old) coffee orchards as a protection against erosion. Federal cost-sharing will be limited to the establishment of vegetative strips not less than 3 feet wide across the slope.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost of seed at the farm, but not in excess of $5 per acre of area planted to grasses and legumes listed in §§ 1105.657 and 1105.658 (practices 7 and 8). (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

(b) 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of the minimum required application of approved commercial fertilizer, including nitrogen, and liming material for the establishment of the vegetative strip, but not in excess of $7 per acre of area treated. (Receipts, invoices, or other evidence of cost are required.)

§ 1105.673 Practice 33: Subsurface tillage of cropland and/or orchardland protected by organic mulch, to avoid plowing under the surface cover of mulch which has been applied for soil protection and moisture conservation. No cost-sharing will be allowed unless the soil surface is protected by a blanket of settled mulch not less than 1 inch thick.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $3 per acre subtilled, but not in excess of two subtilling operations a year. The total cost-share shall not be in excess of $300 per farm.

§ 1105.674 Practice 34: Constructing channel lining, chutes, drop spillways, pipe drops, drop inlets, or similar structures for the protection of outlets and water channels that dispose of excess water. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials will be required by inspectors as evidence of material used. Federal cost-sharing will not be allowed for forms or rebuilding or repair of existing structures.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost of material used.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 4th day of September 1956.

PART 485—SOIL BANK

SUBPART—ACREAGE RESERVE PROGRAM

DESIGNATION AND USE OF ACREAGE RESERVE

The regulations governing the 1957 acreage reserve part of the Soil Bank Program, 21 F. R. 6162, are hereby amended as set forth below:

1. The second sentence of § 485.212 is amended to read as follows: "The tract or tracts constituting the acreage reserve for wheat must have been planted to wheat at least one year during the period 1945–1956, inclusive, and be suitable for the production of wheat. Requirements relating to acreage reserve tracts for other commodities will be specified in regulations to be issued at a later date."

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Arch V. Shipman et al. t. a. Shipman Manufacturing Company, Los Angeles, Calif., Docket 6529, Aug. 22, 1956]

In the matter of Arch V. Shipman, Robert V. Shipman and Mildred Grosse, copartners trading and doing business as Shipman Manufacturing Company

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging three individuals engaged in Los Angeles, Calif., as partners in the manufacture and sale of vending machines and ball point pens dispensed thereby, with representing falsely in advertisements placed in newspapers by their agents and by oral statements of the agents to prospects that they turned over accounts for servicing to purchasers of their machines, to whom large benefits would accrue; that the purchase price of the machines was secured by merchandise; that a tremendous number of repeat purchases of the pens was assured; and that purchasers would be given exclusive sales territory and advantageous locations for the machines—and an agreement between the parties providing for entry of a consent order.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision[1] and order to cease and desist which became, on August 22, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Arch V. Shipman, Robert V. Shipman and Mildred Grosse, individually and trading and doing business under the firm name of Shipman Manufacturing Company, or under any other name or names, and their respective representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of pen vending machines, or other similar merchandise, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or by implication:

1. That accounts are turned over to their purchasers for servicing;

2. That large profits will accrue to the purchasers of their vending machines or that the profits are in excess of those usually and ordinarily arising through the use of their vending machines;

3. That the purchase price of their pen vending machines is secured by merchandise, or secured in any other manner that is not in accord with the facts;

4. That any number of repeat purchases of the pens dispensed by their vending machines is assured;

5. That purchasers are allotted exclusive sales territory unless such is the fact;

6. That locations for the pen vending machines will be secured for the use of the purchasers unless such locations are in fact supplied.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 22, 1956.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 27—CANNED FRUITS AND CANNED FRUIT JUICES; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; QUALITY; AND FILL OF CONTAINER

ORDER ACTING ON PROPOSAL TO ADOPT A DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR CANNED FIGS

In the matter of adopting a definition and standard of identity for canned figs:

A notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 10, 1956 (21 F. R. 5118), setting forth a proposal to adopt a definition and standard of identity for canned figs. No comments were received with respect to the notice of proposal within the 30-day period specified in that notice.

Therefore, after due consideration of the information furnished by the petitioner, together with other relevant information, it is concluded that it will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interests of consumers to adopt the definition and standard of identity proposed for canned figs, and, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, 70 Stat. 919; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 F. R. 6581): It is ordered, That Part 27 be amended by adding thereto the following new section:

§ 27.70 Canned figs; definition and standard of identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned figs is the food prepared from one of the optional fig ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section, to which citric acid or lemon juice or concentrated lemon juice is added, if necessary, in such quantity as to reduce the pH of the finished product to 4.9 or below. One or more of the following optional ingredients may be added to flavor, garnish, or season the canned figs:

(1) Spice.
(2) Flavoring, other than artificial flavoring.
(3) A vinegar.
(4) Unpeeled segments of citrus fruits.
(5) Salt.

Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional fig ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature figs of the light or dark varieties. Figs (or whole figs), split figs (or broken figs), or any combination thereof are optional fig ingredients. A fig (whole fig) is one that is whole or only slightly cracked and retains its natural conformation without exposing the interior. A split fig (or broken fig) is one that is open to such an extent that the seed cavity is exposed, the shape of the fruit may be distorted, and the fruit may or may not be broken apart into entirely separate pieces.

(c) (1) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(i) Water.
(ii) Light sirup.
(iii) Heavy sirup.
(iv) Extra heavy sirup.

(2) Each of the packing media in subparagraph (1) (ii) through (iv) of this paragraph, inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media in subparagraph (1) (ii) to (iv) of this paragraph, inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media in subparagraph (1) (ii) through (iv) of this paragraph, inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: Sugar; any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; any combination of sugar and corn sirup or glucose sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup or glucose sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup or glucose sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup or glucose sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used.

(3) The respective densities of packing media in subparagraph (1) (ii) to (iv), of this paragraph, inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer 15 days or more after the figs are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Name of packing medium:	Brix measurement
Light sirup	16° or more but less than 21°.
Heavy sirup	21° or more but less than 26°.
Extra heavy sirup	26° or more but less than 35°.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless, except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolyzed starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means a clarified, concentrated aqueous solution of the products obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup. The solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 40 percent by weight of reducing sugars calculated as anhydrous dextrose.

(4) The term "glucose sirup" means a clarified, concentrated aqueous solution of the products obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of any edible starch. The solids of glucose sirup contain not less than 40 percent by weight of reducing sugars calculated as anhydrous dextrose. "Dried glucose sirup" means the product obtained by drying "glucose sirup."

(e) The label shall name the optional fig ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section (where combinations of figs and split figs are used, the ingredient present in larger proportion by weight shall be named first), and the name whereby the optional packing medium is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in." When any of the optional ingredients permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used the label shall bear the words set forth, after the number of such subparagraph:

(a) (1) "Spiced" or "Spice added" or "With added spice," or, in lieu of the word "spice," the common name of the spice.

(a) (2) "Flavoring added" or "With added flavoring" or, in lieu of the word "flavoring" the common name of the flavoring.

(a) (3) "Seasoned with vinegar" or "Seasoned with -------- vinegar," the blank being filled in with the name of the vinegar used.

(a) (4) "With added --------," the blank being filled in with the name or names of the citrus segment or segments used.

(a) (5) "Seasoned with salt" or "Salt added."

When the addition of lemon juice (including concentrated lemon juice) or citric acid lowers the pH of the canned figs to less than 4.3, the label shall bear the statement "With added lemon juice" or "With added concentrated lemon juice" (if such is used) or "With added citric acid." When two or more of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "With added spices, orange slices, and lemon juice."

(f) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the figs may so intervene.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order, shall specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections, and shall request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall become effective 60 days from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except as to any of its provisions that may be stayed by the filing of objections thereto. Notice of the filing of objections, or lack thereof, will be announced by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 341)

Dated: August 31, 1956.

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1336]

[69358 & 72270]

OREGON

POWER SITE RESTORATION NO. 518; PARTIALLY REVOKING THE EXECUTIVE ORDERS OF DECEMBER 12, 1917, WHICH CREATED POWER SITE RESERVES NO. 661 AND NO. 664. POWER SITE CANCELLATION NO. 105; PARTIALLY REVOKING THE DEPARTMENTAL ORDER OF DECEMBER 12, 1917, CLASSIFYING LANDS AS WATER POWER DESIGNATION NO. 14

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910, c. 421 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141), and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, and sections 2 and 3 of the act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat. 218), it is ordered as follows:

The Executive orders of December 12, 1917, creating Power Site Reserves No. 661 and 664, and the departmental order of December 12, 1917, classifying certain lands as Water Power Designation No. 14, are hereby revoked so far as they affect the following-described lands:

POWER SITE RESERVE NO. 661

(Power Site Restoration No. 518)

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 9 S., R. 1 E.,
Sec. 17, lot 4;
Sec. 23, lot 1.
T. 9 S., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 13, lot 9;
Sec. 21, lot 6 and NW¼NE¼.

The areas described aggregate 146.36 acres.

POWER SITE RESERVE NO. 664

(Power Site Restoration No. 518)

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 9 S., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 13, lot 4.

The area described contains 20.93 acres.

WATER POWER DESIGNATION NO. 14

(Power Site Cancellation No. 105)

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 9 S., R. 1 E.,
Sec. 17, lot 4;
Sec. 23, lot 1.
T. 9 S., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 13, lot 9;
Sec. 21, lot 6 and NW¼NE¼.

The areas described aggregate 146.36 acres.

Lot 4, sec. 13, T. 9 S., R. 1 W., is patented land. The remaining lands are O & C lands currently managed for the production of timber on a sustained yield program. Each tract is completely isolated and there is no other Federal land in either of the two townships. The land is not agricultural in character. None of the tracts have value for homesites due to inaccessibility and annual flooding.

No application for the restored lands may be allowed under the homestead, small tract, or any other non-mineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the restored lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on October 6, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on January 5, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraph (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on January 5, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to location under the United States mining laws subject to the provisions of the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 682; 30 U. S. C. 621), the act of April 8, 1948 (62 Stat. 162), and to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws.

Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

The restored lands shall be subject until 10:00 a. m. on January 4, 1957, to application by the State of Oregon, under any statute or regulation applicable thereto, for rights-of-way for public highways or as a source of material for the construction and maintenance of such highways pursuant to section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U. S. C. 818) as amended.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Portland, Oregon.

FRED G. AANDAHL,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[FCC 56-823]

[Docket No. 11611; Rules Amdt. 4-6]

PART 4—EXPERIMENTAL, AUXILIARY, AND SPECIAL BROADCAST SERVICES

OPERATION OF TV TRANSLATOR STATIONS IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PRIMARY TRANSMITTER

1. At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its Offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of August, 1956;

2. On May 23, 1956, the Commission released its Report and Order in this proceeding adopting rules governing television broadcast translator stations. These rules provide that translator equipment must be submitted to the Commission for type approval, and specify the requirements which the equipment must meet. The rules also prescribe a method to be used in measuring power output of translator apparatus.

3. Tests performed by the Commission's Laboratory on equipment submitted for type approval reveal that certain requirements relating to spurious emissions and other matters are not fully complied with. It was also learned that the method of measuring power output prescribed by the rules does not accurately reflect the actual power output. Further research and development will be necessary in these regards.

4. TV translators are designed to provide a means of bringing television service to small, isolated communities at the earliest possible date. It would not be desirable, therefore, to delay the inauguration of TV translator service until all of the problems with respect to translator equipment can be fully resolved. TV translators are authorized to operate in the upper portion of the UHF television band, thus keeping the possibility of harmful interference to other stations and services to a minimum. In addition, the reduction of spurious emissions to the extent presently required by the rules can be accomplished more economically over a longer period of development. Accordingly, in the interest of expediting the establishment of TV translators, the Commission has concluded that the effective date of certain requirements for type approval of TV translator equipment should be postponed and that limited type approval should be given to equipment meeting certain minimum requirements.

5. Authority for the adoption of the amendments herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (f), (g) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. In light of the desirability of bringing television service to small, isolated communities at the earliest possible date, we find that prior notice of rule making in this matter would be impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest. The amendments herein represent a relaxation of the rules; and in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, they may be made effective less than 30 days after publication.

7. In view of the foregoing, It is ordered, That, effective August 30, 1956, Part 4 of the Commission's Rules is amended as follows:

(1) Section 4.735 (a) is amended by deleting the last sentence concerning power measurement.

(2) Section 4.736 (c) is amended by adding a footnote indicator and the following footnote:

[1] These requirements shall not be applicable to transmitters installed prior to January 1, 1958: Provided, however, That in the event that interference is caused to other radio stations, the licensee shall take such steps as may be necessary to eliminate the interference.

(3) Section 4.750 (c) is amended by adding a footnote designator to subparagraphs (2) and (4) and the following footnote:

[2] These requirements shall not be applicable to transmitters installed prior to January 1, 1958: Provided, however, That in the event that interference is caused to other radio stations, the licensee shall take such steps as may be necessary to eliminate the interference. Type approvals granted prior to September 1, 1957, will be designated as Limited Type Approval. Such approval will be granted only if it is found that reasonable precautions have been taken in the design of equipment, to minimize interference resulting from spurious emissions.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 303, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303.)

Released: September 5, 1956.

[Docket No. 11617; Rules Amdts. 7-13 and 8-18]

PART 7—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

In the matter of amendment of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's Rules to make the frequency 2482 kc (coast)-2430 kc (ship) available conditionally on a 24-hour basis in the Seattle, Washington, area.

1. On January 25, 1956, the Commission adopted a Notice of Proposed Rule Making to amend Parts 7 and 8 of the Rules to make available conditionally on a 24-hour basis the frequency pair 2482 kc (coast)-2430 kc (ship) for use in the Seattle, Washington, area. In view of the comments received, the Commission on May 9, 1956 adopted a Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this matter, which, in lieu of the 24-hour use of the frequencies, proposed to make the frequency pair available at Seattle under certain specified daily, seasonal and area limitations designed to minimize interference to current and future Alaskan operations on 2482 kc and 2430 kc under Part 14 of the rules. The Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 16, 1956 (21 F. R. 3232), and the period for filing comments has now expired.

2. The only comments filed to the Further Notice were those of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. Pacific acknowledged that the amendments proposed in the Further Notice, which provided for more than "day only" but less than 24-hour use of the frequency pair 2482-2430 kc, would assist Pacific to a limited extent in alleviating the "serious overload" on the present full-time working channel, 2522-2126 kc. Pacific was not, however, in complete agreement with the proposal and suggested that since, in its view, at the time of the original proposal to extend the use of the frequencies to 24 hours, no objection had been raised to such full time use between October and March 1 annually, the amendment limiting the use of 2482-2430 kc from 6:00 a. m. to 11:00 p. m. annually between October 1 and March 31 be modified to permit 24-hour use of the channel in the Seattle region during that part of each year. Pacific further recommended that the proposed geographic limitation which would be placed on vessels transmitting on 2430 kc to the Seattle coast station be deleted. It was asserted that such a geographic limitation would "unduly restrict the use of the frequency 2430 kc by ships wishing to correspond through KOW". In support of this allegation, Pacific stated that over 20 percent of the calls handled through station KOW in the heaviest traffic month of 1955 (August) were from ships operating north of the 51st parallel (the northern boundary of the proposed geographic limit).

3. In concluding its comments, Pacific stated that during the year 1955, most of the traffic was handled over the present full-time working channel 2522-2126 kc and that relatively little traffic was handled over the "day only" channel 2482-2430 kc. According to Pacific, this uneven distribution of traffic between the two channels is due to the small number of ships in the Seattle region which are equipped to use the daytime channel. In this connection, Pacific said: "Shipowners prefer and in most cases have need of a full-time channel and have therefore equipped their ships for use of the full-time channel, 2522-2126 kc. Most shipowners have not regarded the value of a second working channel which can be used only part time to be worth the additional cost of equipping their ships to correspond on such a channel. We believe that this situation will continue until the second channel is available on a full-time basis."

4. The Commission has fully considered the comments filed by Pacific, but, nevertheless, believes that the amendments should be adopted as proposed in the Further Notice for the following reasons.

5. Although the communication traffic problem at Seattle may not be completely solved by these amendments, the Commission believes that the ship operators themselves are in a position to bring about a more even traffic distribution by a greater use of the frequency pair 2482-

2. Section 7.306 (b)—Table footnote[5] to the frequency table in this section is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

B. Part 8 is amended as follows:

1. Section 8.354 (a) (1)—That portion of the frequency table dealing with Seattle, Washington is amended to read as follows:

Seattle, Wash.	2126 2430	None Authorized for use south of 51° north latitude and east of 142° west longitude exclusively during the following daily periods on condition that harmful interference is not caused to the service of any station in the Alaska area authorized in accordance with Part 14 of the Commission's Rules to which this carrier frequency is assigned for transmission: from Oct. 1, 1956, until May 1, 1957, from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., P. s. t., thereafter and annually from Apr. 1 to Sept. 30, inclusive, from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m., P. s. t., only; and annually from Oct. 1 to Mar. 31, inclusive, from 6 a. m. to 11 p. m., P. s. t., only.	2522 2482	None. Authorized for use during the following daily periods on condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any coast station located in the vicinity of New Orleans, La., nor to the service of any station in the Alaska area authorized in accordance with Part 14 of the Commission's Rules to which this carrier frequency is assigned for transmission: from Oct. 1, 1956, until May 1, 1957, from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., P. s. t., only; thereafter and annually from Apr. 1 to Sept. 30, inclusive, from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m., P. s. t., only; and annually from Oct. 1 to Mar. 31, inclusive, from 6 a. m. to 11 p. m., P. s. t., only.

2. Section 8.354 (a) (1)—Table footnote[5] to the frequency table in this section is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

[5] During certain hours within this time period ship stations (when north of Vancouver, B. C. and transmitting on 2430 kc to Seattle) may cause some interference to stations in southeastern Alaska.

PART 7—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's Rules to make the frequency pair 2490 kc (coast)–2031.5 kc (ship) available on a 24-hour basis in the Miami, Florida area and to make effective certain limitations on the use of the frequency pair 2514 kc (coast)–2118 kc (ship) in the same area.

1. On May 7, 1956, the Commission released a Notice of Proposed Rule Making in the above-entitled matter. The Notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 10, 1956 (21 F. R. 3123) and the time for filing comments has now expired. The proposed rule making had for its purpose the amendment of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's Rules to make the frequency pair 2490 kc (coast)–2031.5 kc (ship) available for assignment on a 24-hour basis in the Miami, Florida area and to make 2514 kc (coast)–2118 kc (ship) available for assignment on a 'day only" basis from April 1 to December 15, annually and on a 24-hour basis from December 15 to April 1, annually. In addition, the frequency 2514 kc at Miami would also be subject to the condition that harmful interference not be caused to the service of any coast station located in the vicinity of Miami, Florida, to which the carrier frequency 2490 kc is assigned for transmission.

2. Several comments were received in this proceeding. Almost all of the parties filing comments recommended that the proposal be modified in one respect or another. The essence of each comment is set forth below.

3. The Lorain County Radio Corporation expressed its support of the Commission's proposal on the assumption that the non-interference condition attached to the use of the frequency 2514 kc applied only to the protection of 2490 kc in the Miami area and was not intended to restrict the use of 2514 kc in the Great Lakes area. The assumption is, of course, correct.

4. Radiomarine Corporation of America filed comments stating that the proposed "day only" (April 1–December 15, annually) restriction on the use of the frequency pair 2514–2118 kc might not be adequate to protect operations on the Great Lakes against harmful interference especially during the early morning and late afternoon hours of the day. They proposed, therefore, that during the "day only" period (April 1–December 15, annually) when the frequency pair 2514–2118 kc is to be available at Miami, a further restriction should be imposed making the frequencies subject to the condition that harmful interference is not caused to the opertions of coast stations and ship stations in the Great Lakes area. As a basis for this recommendation, Radiomarine stated that the frequency pair 2514–2118 kc is used not only by United States stations on the Great Lakes, but also by Canadian stations in that area and that stations in the international service should obtain maximum protection from harmful interference. Radiomarine also felt that since coast stations in the Miami area would be able to use the pair 2490–2031.5 kc on an unrestricted basis, such coast stations' use of 2514–2118 kc should be on a secondary basis and subordinated to the use of this frequency pair on the Great Lakes. The Commission has considered Radiomarine's recommendation and has provided for the use of the frequency pair 2514–2118 kc on condition that harmful interference is not caused to the service of any coast station in the Great Lakes area which, in the discretion of the Commission, has priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

5. The City of San Diego, Department of Public Works, commented that its police radio system utilized the frequency 2490 kc and would continue to do so for at least the next five years. It suggested that the Miami coast station should be required to use an antenna system designed to minimize its radiation pattern in the direction of San Diego, California. It further recommended that the carrier of the cost station at Miami, Florida should be removed from the air except when absolutely necessary for communications or test purposes. These recommendations have been considered by the Commission and an appropriate non-interference condition has been attached to the use of 2490 kv at Miami, Florida which should furnish an adequate basis for the protection of the California police radio system operation in the event interference is experienced.

6. The Lake Carriers Association supported that portion of the Commission's proposal which would limit the use of the frequency pair 2514–2118 kc to "day only" during the Great Lakes shipping season from April 1 to December 15, annually, in the Miami area and stated that the propagation conditions on 2514 kc are such that at night strong signals are received on the Great Lakes from the Miami area.

7. Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company filed comments in support of the Commission's proposal. Southern Bell requested that full time operation on 2490 kc begin on September 1, 1956, and that the day only limitation on 2514 kc begin on April 1, 1957. They felt that such a schedule would afford an adequate transition period in which the necessary changeover to the new full time channel can be effected. The Commission believes that to have a changeover period is reasonable and has made provision for same in the rule amendments. Since several months have passed since Bell offered its suggestion, the date for full time operation to begin on 2490 kc has been set for December 15, 1956.

8. In view of the above and pursuant to Section 303 (f) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, It is Ordered, That effective December 15, 1956, Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's Rules are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Adopted: August 30, 1956.

Released: September 5, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
DEE W. PINCOCK,
Acting Secretary.

A. Part 7 is amended as follows:

1. Section 7.306 (b)—That portion of the frequency table in this section dealing with Miami, Florida, is amended to read as follows:

Miami, Fla.	2490	Available beginning Dec. 15, 1956, on a 24-hour basis, on condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the police radio service in southern California.	2031.5	Available beginning Dec. 15, 1956, on a 24-hour basis.
	2514	Unlimited hours of use from Dec. 15 to Apr. 1, annually, and beginning Apr. 1, 1957, day only from Apr. 1 to Dec. 15, annually, on condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any coast station located in the vicinity of Miami, Fla., to which the carrier frequency 2490 kc is assigned for transmission; and, also on condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any coast station in the Great Lakes area which in the discretion of the Commission has priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.	2118	Unlimited hours of use from Dec. 15 to Apr. 1, annually, and beginning Apr. 1, 1957, day only from Apr. 1 to Dec. 15, annually; and also on condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any ship station in the Great Lakes area which in the discretion of the Commission has priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.
	2550	Unlimited hours of use from Dec. 15 to Apr. 1, annually, and day only from Apr. 1 to Dec. 15, annually, on condition that harmful interference is not caused to the service of any coast station located in the vicinity of Tampa, Fla., to which this carrier frequency is assigned for transmission.	2158	Unlimited hours of use from Dec. 15 to Apr. 1, annually, and day only from Apr. 1 to Dec. 15, annually, on condition that harmful interference is not caused to the service of any ship station which is within 300 nautical miles of Tampa, Fla., and is transmitting on this frequency to a coast station located in the vicinity of that port.
	4427.6	None	4122.2	None.

B. Part 8 is amended as follows:

1. Section 8.354 (a) (1)—That portion of the frequency table in this section dealing with Miami, Florida, is amended to read as follows:

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 921]

[Docket No. AO-222-A8]

HANDLING OF MILK IN OZARKS MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Greene County Court House, Springfield, Missouri, beginning at 10:00 a. m. local time, September 24, 1956.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Ozarks marketing area. The proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposal number 3 refers to the standards under which supply plants may qualify as pool plants. And consideration of changes in this provision may involve corresponding changes in the standards under which distributing plants may qualify as pool plants. Accordingly, the hearing will be open to the consideration of all portions of the definition of pool plant and to such corollary provisions as the definitions of handler, producer, producer milk, and other source milk; and the reporting classification, pricing and payment provisions relating thereto.

Amendments to the order, as amended, for the Ozarks marketing area have been proposed as follows:

By the Producers Creamery Company:

1. Amend § 921.7 to read as follows:

§ 921.7 Producer. "Producer" means any person other than a producer handler who produces milk (a) under a dairy farm permit issued by a health authority duly authorized to administer regulations governing quality of milk disposed of in the marketing area, or (b) acceptable to agencies of the United States government for fluid consumption in its institutions or bases in the marketing area; which milk is:

(1) Delivered in cans from the farm to a pool plant, or diverted during the months of February through August from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler, or diverted for not more than 10 days during the months September through January from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the pool plant from which it was diverted, or by a qualified cooperative association which is a handler pursuant to § 921.8 (b).

(2) Delivered in bulk form from the farm to a pool plant or diverted during the months of February through August from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler, or diverted for not more than 10 days during the months September through January from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the pool plant from which it was diverted, or by a qualified cooperative association which is a handler pursuant to § 921.8 (c).

This definition shall not include a person who produces milk which is received at the plant of a handler partially exempt from the provisions of this order pursuant to § 921.62 with respect to milk received by such handler.

2. Amend § 921.8 to read as follows:

§ 921.8 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant or a pool plant; or (b) any qualified cooperative association with respect to the milk from any member producer as defined in § 921.7 (b) (1) or (2) of such association which is diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant by such cooperative association for its account; (c) any qualified cooperative association with respect to the milk from any member producer as defined in § 921.7 (b) (2) of such association which is transferred from a pool plant to another pool plant by such cooperative association for its account: Provided, however, That such a cooperative association shall notify the market administrator in writing of their intentions of becoming a handler for such milk and shall be deemed to be the handler for such milk for the full delivery period.

3. Amend § 921.11 (b) to read as follows:

(b) A supply plant from which at least 35 percent of the producer receipts are shipped to an approved plant for Class I use during the month: Provided, however, That if such a plant shall ship an average of 20 percent of its producer receipts to an approved plant for Class I use during the months of September, October, November and December it shall upon written application to the Market Administrator be designated as a pool plant until the end of the second succeeding January: Provided, further, Such plant shall during each of the months of August through March offer its producer receipts for Class I use by other handlers in the marketing area. Such milk shall be considered to have been offered if the operator of such plant files with the Market Administrator on or before the first day of each of the aforementioned months, a statement specifying the terms and conditions of sale of such milk. Such offer to be posted in the Market Administrator's office.

4. Amend § 921.14 to read as follows:

§ 921.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in: (a) Receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 921.41 (a), except (1) such products approved by the appropriate health authority for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area which are received from pool plants, or (2) producer milk; and (b) products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 921.41 (b) (1) from any source (including those from a plant's own production) which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

5. Amend § 921.15 to read as follows:

§ 921.15 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who produces milk and operates an approved plant but who receives no milk from producers or other source milk except in the form of butter, cheese, cottage cheese, aerated cream, ice cream, egg nog, flavored milk, or flavored milk drinks.

6. Amend § 921.41 (b) to read as follows:

§ 921.41 Classes of utilization. • • •

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce any product other than those specified as Class I in paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) In shrinkage allocated to receipts of milk from producers and in shrinkage allocated to receipts of other source milk but not to exceed an amount computed in accordance with § 921.42.

7. Amend § 921.42 to read as follows:

§ 921.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for each handler. Such shrinkage shall not exceed (except with respect to milk diverted to a nonpool plant pursuant to § 921.7) an amount computed as follows:

(a) From the total shrinkage subtract an amount equal to 0.5 percent of milk received in cans or in bulk tanks and disposed of in bulk tank lots of milk, skim milk or cream.

(b) From the amount of shrinkage remaining subtract an amount equal to 1.5 percent of milk received in bulk tanks and disposed of in some form other than bulk tank lots of milk, skim milk or cream.

(c) From the amount of shrinkage remaining subtract an amount equal to 2.0 percent of milk received in cans and disposed of in some form other than bulk tank lots of milk, skim milk or cream.

(d) The amount of shrinkage remaining shall be excess shrinkage. Provided, that shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat is not in excess of percentage specified herein shall be assigned pro-rata pursuant to this subparagraph to skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in approved milk and other source milk.

8. Amend § 921.45 to read as follows:

§ 921.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors the reports submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all the water originally associated with such solids.

9. Amend § 921.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. by renumbering 921.46 (a) (5), (6) and (7) and adding a new subparagraph (5) as follows:

(5) Subtract from pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of products designated as Class I milk in § 921.41 (a) on hand at the beginning of the month. Provided, that if the pounds of milk in such inventory shall exceed the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II, the balance shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class I.

10. Amend § 921.51 (b) (3) to read as follows:

(b) Class II milk. • • •

(3) From the sum of the result arrived at under paragraph one and two of this paragraph subtract 81 cents.

11. Amend § 921.84 to read as follows:

§ 921.84 Payments to the producer settlement fund. On or before the twelfth day after the end of each month, each handler shall pay to the Market Administrator the amount by which the value of the milk received by such handler as determined pursuant to § 921.70 is greater than the amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of such handlers milk by the uniform price adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials, provided, that to this amount shall be added one-half of one percent of any amount due the Market Administrator pursuant to this section for each month or any portion thereof that such payment is overdue. Such payment shall be considered to be overdue on the 15th day after the end of the month in which the obligation occurs.

12. Amend § 921.85 Payments to the producer-settlement fund by adding the following proviso: "Provided, further, That the Market Administrator may deduct from payments due handlers pursuant to this section any unpaid balance due the Market Administrator from such handler pursuant to §§ 921.86, 921.87 and 921.88."

By Ozarks Grade A Milk Producers Association:

13. Amend § 921.51 (a) to change the words and figures "fifteen cents (15¢)" in the last sentence of that paragraph to "twenty-five cents (25¢)", and to include Boone and Marion counties, Arkansas, in the proviso.

14. Delete § 921.71 (c) and renumber the present 921.71 (d) to (c).

15. Add a new § 921.71 (d) to read as follows:

§ 921.71 Computation of the uniform price. • • •

(d) Subtract an amount equal to the total utilization value, adjusted to 3.5 percent at the producer butterfat differential, of the handlers located in Benton, Washington, Boone, and Marion counties, Arkansas;

(1) Add an amount equivalent to the pro rata share (paragraph (e) of this section) and divide the resulting amount by the pounds of producer milk received by such handlers;

(2) Deduct an amount not less than 4 cents or more than 5 cents per hundredweight; the price resulting from this computation shall be the uniform price per hundredweight for 3.5 percent milk delivered by producers to handlers located in the Benton, Washington, Boone, and Carroll counties, Arkansas.

16. Delete § 921.82 (b).

By Lone Oak Dairy:

17. Amend § 921.6 by deleting Boone County, Arkansas.

By Dixie Dairy, Inc.:

18. Delete Benton, Washington, Marion and Boone Counties, Arkansas, from the Ozarks marketing area.

By Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service:

19. In § 921.51 (a) delete the no longer applicable phrase "and for the months of April, May, and June 1956, the price for Class I milk shall be the price for Class I milk computed pursuant to § 903.51 (a) of this chapter, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area for such month minus 10 cents", and reinstate the previously effective phrase, "and for the months of April, May, and June the price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month plus 63 cents".

20. Make such changes as may be required to make the entire marketing agreement and order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procured from the Market Administrator, 602 Chouteau Building, 4030 Chouteau Avenue, St. Louis 10, Missouri, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: September 5, 1956.

[7 CFR Part 969]

HANDLING OF AVOCADOS GROWN IN SOUTH FLORIDA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF RULES AND REGULATIONS

Notice is hereby given that the Department is considering the proposed amendment, as hereinafter set forth, of the supplementing rules and regulations (7 CFR 969.110 et seq.; Subpart—Rules and Regulations; 21 F. R. 78; 2409) currently in effect pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 69, as amended (7 CFR Part 969), regulating the handling of avocados grown in South Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with such proposed amendment should do so by forwarding the same to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 2077, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the tenth day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed amendment of the rules and regulations, which has been recommended by the Avocado Administrative Committee, the agency established under the said marketing agreement and order to administer the provisions thereof, is as follows:

1. Revise paragraph (a) § 969.140 Avocados not subject to regulation to read as follows:

(a) Any handler may handle avocados totaling not more than one bushel to any one person during any one day exempt from the provisions of §§ 969.41, 969.51, and 969.54: Provided, That the total quantity of avocados so handled by a handler shall not exceed 10 bushels during any week.

2. Amend § 969.150 Reports as follows: Immediately following the period after the title (§ 969.150 Reports.) insert the paragraph designation "(a)"; and add therein, after said paragraph (a), two new paragraphs reading as follows:

(b) Each handler registered with the Avocado Administrative Committee shall render a report to the committee of the disposition of each lot of noncertified avocados removed from the premises of his handling facilities during each week in which any avocados are handled subject to the provisions of §§ 969.41, 969.51, and 969.54, or exemptions therefrom pursuant to § 969.53. Such report shall be on forms prescribed by the committee and shall include (1) the quantity; (2) purpose for which removed; (3) date of removal; and (4) the name of the person or firm to which the avocados were delivered or consigned. Each such report shall be signed by the handler or his authorized representative, shall cover the period Sunday through Saturday, and shall be placed in the mail not later than one week after the close of business of the Saturday ending the period covered by the report.

(c) Each handler shall render a report to the Avocado Administrative Committee of each lot of noncertified avocados received from a district other than that in which his handling facilities are located. Such report shall be on forms prescribed by the committee and shall include: (1) The name of the handler; (2) the quantity of avocados received; (3) date received; (4) name and address of the person from whom the avocados were purchased; (5) the district from which the avocados were transferred; and (6) the district to which the avocados were transferred. Each such report shall cover the period Sunday through Saturday and shall be placed in the mail not later than one week after the close of business of the Saturday ending the period covered by the report.

Dated: September 5, 1956.

[Docket No. AO 198-A3]

HANDLING OF RAISINS PRODUCED FROM RAISIN VARIETY GRAPES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED FURTHER AMENDMENT OF AMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND AMENDED ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure governing procedures to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900; 19 F. R. 57), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed further amendments of Marketing Agreement No. 109, as amended, and Order No. 89, as amended (20 F. R. 6435), regulating the handling of raisins produced from raisin variety grapes grown in California. The amended marketing agreement and the amended order (hereinafter referred to as the "order") are effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and any further amendments which may be adopted as a result of this proceeding also will be effective pursuant to said act. Interested persons may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the seventh day after publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. A public hearing, on the record of which the proposed further amendments of the order are formulated, was held in Fresno, California, on June 18 and 19, 1956, pursuant to a notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 3903) on June 7, 1956. The notice of hearing contained proposed further amendments received from the Raisin Administrative Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "committee"), established pursuant to the order as the agency to administer the terms and provisions thereof. The notice also contained further amendments proposed by three raisin producers and one proposed by the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing involve amendatory proposals relating to:

(1) Mail or telegraphic voting;

(2) Reconditioning off-grade raisins, including disposition of residual material, storage of off-grade raisins received for reconditioning, and establishment of necessary rules and procedures;

(3) Exemption of shipments or other dispositions of any packed raisins to which the established or prescribed minimum grade standards are not applicable, and modification of the minimum grade and condition standards for natural condition raisins;

(4) The reporting of inter-plant transfers of raisins;

(5) The recovery of raisins from residual raisins obtained in the processing of standard raisins or from any raisins acquired as standard raisins;

(6) The latest date on which the committee must make its recommendation with respect to the free, reserve, and surplus percentages for any crop year;

(7) The procedure for allocating to handlers offers of surplus tonnage raisins for sale in export;

(8) The price at which reserve tonnage raisins may be offered to handlers, and sale of such raisins after the committee receives notice that the Secretary does not disapprove the making of an offer;

(9) Sale of surplus tonnage raisins after the committee receives notice that the Secretary does not disapprove the making of an offer;

(10) Payment to alternate members of the committee for expenses incurred in attending a meeting when the member also attends; and

(11) The making of such other changes in the order as may be necessary to make the entire order conform with the proposed amendments thereto.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

(1) The provisions of § 989.52 (a) of the order, relating to voting by the committee, should be amended by deleting the requirement for 14 concurring votes to reach a decision on a mail or telegraphic vote and substituting therefor a provision that a unanimous vote of all selected and eligible members or alternates acting in the place and stead of members shall be required to reach a decision on such vote. Since the full committee membership consists of 14 members and their respective alternates, the present requirement for 14 concurring votes prevents the committee from voting by mail or telegraph if vacancies exist in both the member and the respective alternate position. The proposed amendment would enable the committee to vote in that manner when there is no assembled meeting even though vacancies should reduce the committee to less than its full membership. However, a negative vote by any member, or by an alternate acting for a member, would prevent the adoption of a proposition, as is the case under the present provisions regarding mail and telegraphic voting. The proposal would make it clear that the alternate may vote when a member is unavailable, the same as if the action were taken in an assembled meeting. It is intended that voting may be by mail or telegraph only on routine matters where no extended discussion is necessary and the committee is in complete agreement. Failure of any member or alternate to vote within a reasonable time (not to exceed 10 days) as stated in the balloting notice would raise a question as to complete agreement. Hence, such failure to vote should be held to be a dissenting vote.

(2) The provisions of § 989.58 (e) entitled "options as to off-grade natural condition raisins" should be amended by deleting the last two sentences thereof and substituting therefor other provisions which would: (a) Provide that any off-grade raisins (including stemmer waste and raisin offal) accumulated as a final residual by a handler in reconditioning raisins shall, during or after reconditioning has been completed, be disposed of by the handler, without further inspection, for distillation, animal feed or uses other than for human consumption; (b) require a handler to keep off-grade raisins received by him for reconditioning separate and apart from all other raisins until after the raisins have been reconditioned and the quality of raisins is established by inspection and certification; and (c) require the committee to establish, with the approval of the Secretary, such rules and procedures as may be necessary to insure adequate control over the reconditioning of off-grade raisins and the use of the residual off-grade raisins from such reconditioning operations.

The present provisions of the order permit a handler to return the residual material from reconditioning to the tenderer (or producer) of the off-grade raisins, or dispose of it without further inspection, for distillation, animal feed, or uses other than for human consumption. In the operation of the order, producers who have tendered off-grade raisins to handlers for reconditioning have not requested the return of the residual material. The producer might use such residual material which consists of extremely low grade raisins, stems, and possibly foreign matter for fertilizer or animal feed. Evidently, the value of this material for such purposes does not warrant the producer taking it back to the farm. If the residual matter should be returned to producers, it is possible that some of them would blend it with above-minimum quality raisins and then be able to deliver the resulting blend to handlers as standard raisins. This would be contrary to good sanitation and could subject the producer to having the raisins condemned or seized by the California State authorities as a violation of State food and sanitary rules and regulations. Therefore, in proposing that return of the residual matter to producers be prohibited, official notice is taken of such State rules and regulations. The proposed amendment would place complete responsibility on the handler for the disposition of the residual matter for use in the prescribed outlets.

It is intended that the handler may employ whatever procedures are necessary in reconditioning, other than blending with raisins received or acquired as standard raisins, to recover all of the raisins that can be properly certified as standard raisins, and that the final residual material be disposed of as stated. It should be made clear that a handler shall dispose of any final residual material in the prescribed outlets during or after the reconditioning process has been completed. He should be permitted to make such disposition during the reconditioning process so as to enable him to maintain desirable sanitation and better utilize available space in his plant.

The proposed amendment would not prevent a handler from returning to the tenderer any lot of off-grade raisins in the same form as received, or the standard raisins from any lot turned over to the handler for reconditioning. Whenever off-grade raisins are turned over to a handler for reconditioning, the handler and the person tendering the raisins would consider the value of the residual material in arriving at the terms of the agreement under which the reconditioning is to be done.

Experience during the past season also has demonstrated that no useful purpose is served by requiring lots of off-grade raisins received for reconditioning to be held by the handler separate and apart from each other, as required in the present provisions of the order. In practice, handlers often find it necessary to group together lots of off-grade raisins having similar defects so as to conserve storage space and provide units large enough so that the raisins can be reconditioned economically. The cost of stopping and starting the machinery for individual lots could make the reconditioning of off-grade raisins unprofitable. In most instances, the handler settles with the producer for off-grade raisins received for reconditioning on the basis of the total standard raisins which may be obtained from the lot as determined by the information disclosed on the inspection certificate. Hence, it is not necessarily required that handlers keep particular lots of off-grade raisins received for reconditioning separate from other lots of similar raisins in order to determine the actual out-turn of standard raisins from the lot. If a producer desires that any lot of off-grade raisins tendered to a handler for reconditioning be kept separate from other lots for any reason, he may make arrangements with the handler for having this done. By relieving the handler from the order requirement of separate storage by lots, control of quality would not be impaired, and the resulting lower cost of reconditioning in the larger units should be reflected in lower reconditioning costs to the producer.

The handler would still be required to keep off-grade raisins received for reconditioning separate and apart from all other raisins until the quality of the reconditioned raisins is established by inspection and certification. This would not preclude a handler from mixing final residual material from the reconditioning of off-grade raisins with similar material from his processing of raisins acquired by him as standard raisins, which are to be disposed of for distillation, animal feed, or uses other than for human consumption.

A provision should be added to § 989.58 (e) requiring the committee to establish, with the approval of the Secretary, such fuels and procedures as may be necessary to insure adequate control over the reconditioning of off-grade raisins and the use of the residual material from such reconditioning operations. Although the order now authorizes the committee to make rules and procedures to effectuate the terms and provisions thereof, the added provision would require the committee to consider and establish, with the Secretary's approval, such rules and procedures as may be necessary in connection with the reconditioning of off-grade raisins.

(3) The provisions of § 989.59 (a) should be amended by adding a provision to make it clear that a handler is not prohibited from shipping or making disposition of any raisins to which the minimum grade standards established by or pursuant to § 989.59 (a) or (b) are not applicable. Section 989.59 (a) prescribes U. S. Grade C, as defined in the effective United States Standards for Grades of Processed Raisins, as the minimum grade standards for packed raisins other than Layer Muscats and Zante Currants. For Layer Muscats and Zante Currant raisins, U. S. Grade B is prescribed. Section 989.59 (b) provides for modification of these minimum grade standards.

During the past season, there were instances of handlers desiring to ship certain new or unusual varietal packs of raisins for which applicable minimum grade standards had not been described. These included, among others, packs of Soda Dipped Seeded (Valencia) raisins, and Unseeded, Uncapstemmed, Loose Muscat raisins. Soda Dipped raisins normally are unseeded, and Loose Muscat raisins normally are capstemmed. Such new or unusual varietal packs of raisins may be prepared to fill a special trade demand requiring raisins of good quality, and, in the absence of appropriate minimum grade standards under which they can be inspected, handlers should not be prevented from shipping them. The proposed amendment would enable handlers to ship such varietal packs of raisins without inspection until appropriate minimum grade standards can be established.

The question was considered at the hearing as to whether it would be desirable to amend § 989.97 (Exhibit B; minimum grade and condition standards for natural condition raisins) to include therein the changes of a relatively permanent nature which have been made in such standards during the 1955–56 crop year or to otherwise modify such standards in light of operations during such crop year. The only desirable change in this connection concerns lots of mixed varietal types. Growers sometimes have two or more varieties of grapes interplanted in the same vineyard. In these instances, the growers find it difficult or impossible to prevent commingling of different varietal types of raisins in the same container. Except in a few unusual situations, samples of the individual varieties can be drawn from the commingled raisins and the grade of each determined. To provide a basis for inspecting and certifying these commingled raisins, the first paragraph of § 989.97 should be amended by adding a provision that where the raisins in any lot consist of two or more varietal types commingled within their containers, the lot shall be considered as standard raisins if each varietal type in the lot meets the applicable minimum standards for that varietal type. Since Layer Muscat raisins and Natural (sun-dried) Muscat raisins are not readily distinguishable when commingled within a container, it should be provided that, in the event such raisins are commingled, the entire lot shall be considered as Natural (sun-dried) Muscat raisins and as standard raisins if the lot as a whole meets the minimum standards for Natural (sun-dried) Muscat raisins. Also, since the moisture content of all of the raisins in a container tends to equalize, it should be provided that, should the requirements with respect to moisture content differ as between two or more varietal types which are commingled, the lower (lowest) maximum moisture content requirement shall apply for each varietal type.

(4) The provisions of § 989.59 (e) relating to inter-plant and inter-handler transfers of free tonnage raisins should be amended to provide that transfers of raisins between plants owned or operated by the same handler need not be reported to the committee. The present provisions may be interpreted as requiring a handler who transfers raisins from one of his plants to another plant owned or operated by him to report the transfer. Reporting inter-plant transfers is an unnecessary burden to the handler and the information is not needed by the committee.

(5) The first sentence of § 989.59 (f) relating to disposition of off-grade raisins provides that any off-grade raisins (including stemmer waste and raisin offal) which may be received by a processor or accumulated by a handler by removing them from his standard raisins, and any raisins acquired as standard raisins by a handler which do not meet the applicable grade and condition standards for shipment or final disposition as raisins, shall be disposed of or marketed, without further inspection, for distillation, animal feed, or uses other than for human consumption. A question arose in the operation of the order as to whether these provisions preclude a packer from recovering raisins from any of such off-grade raisins, for shipment or disposition in normal trade channels if by further processing or reworking them they were made to meet the prescribed minimum grade standards. To clarify this situation, § 989.59 (f) should be amended by changing the period at the end of the first sentence to a colon and adding "Provided, That this shall not preclude a packer from recovering raisins from such accumulations or acquisitions."

Most handlers normally conduct their processing operations so as to pack several grades of raisins, the lowest of which would be equal to or better than the prescribed minimum grade. This is done to provide different trade outlets with the quality they desire. The raisins which remain from the processing to obtain raisins of high quality may fail to meet the prescribed minimum grade standards. By further processing, at least a part of these residual raisins may be made to meet the minimum grade standards. Also, a handler may hold raisins acquired by him as standard raisins, which have become off-grade. They may be raisins which had gone out of condition in trade channels and were returned to the handler, or raisins which were damaged while held by the handler. In his normal operations, the handler will process, reprocess, or rework these off-grade raisins, including the blending of them with standard raisins, if he finds that he can recover enough good raisins to make it profitable for him to do so. Prohibiting such recovery could cause financial hardship for the handler since he purchased such raisins as standard raisins. It is intended that the order should not interfere with a handler's normal operations in these respects. It is intended that a handler may ship in normal trade channels raisins which he obtains or recovers from raisins acquired as standard raisins if, after his final processing of them, they can be properly certified as meeting the prescribed minimum grade standards for shipment or final disposition.

Since food and sanitary regulations of city, county, state, federal or other agencies may apply to the handling of raisins, § 989.59 (f) should be amended also by adding a provision that this paragraph is not intended to excuse any failure to comply with all applicable food and sanitary rules and regulations of city, county, state, federal or other agencies having jurisdiction.

(6) The provisions of § 989.63 (a) should be amended by changing the date by which the committee's recommendations to the Secretary shall be made for the fixing of the initial free, reserve, and surplus percentages for any crop year from October 1 to October 5 of such year, with provision that this date may be extended by the committee not more than five days if warranted by a late crop. This change is proposed in order to permit the committee to have available more detailed information on which to base such recommendations. During the past year, the committee adopted a formula for arriving at the percentages that should be recommended. Information on production in the form of a raisin lay report normally is expected to be received by the committee from the California Crop and Livestock Reporting Service by October 1 of each year, on the basis of agreements with such agency. Approximately five days are required for the board and the committee to consider the latest available information, including the raisin lay report, and for the committee to formulate and submit to the Secretary its recommendation on free, reserve, and surplus percentages. However, in unusual seasons the grape crop may be so late in maturing that it would be impracticable for a reliable estimate of raisin production to be made by October 1. To provide for such an eventuality, provision should be made for the committee to extend the date for making its recommendation on the fixing of volume percentages not more than five days beyond October 5 if warranted by a late crop.

The date on which the committee makes its recommendation on volume percentages should be the earliest date possible with proper consideration of all available information concerning raisin production. In some years it may be practicable for the committee to make its recommendation before October 5. Only in the most unusual situations would it be necessary for the recommendation to be delayed beyond October 5. The committee's recommendation must be made as soon as practicable because raisin producers and handlers need to know what the free, reserve, and surplus percentages will be for the crop year so that field prices for raisins may be established and the season's trade in raisins begun.

(7) The first sentence of § 989.66 (e) (4) now provides that each handler's share of an offer of surplus tonnage raisins for sale in export shall be determined as the same proportion that the surplus tonnage raisins acquired by him is of the surplus tonnage raisins acquired by all handlers. As set forth in the notice of hearing, it was proposed that this formula be revised so as to change the allocation basis from that of handlers' current acquisitions of surplus tonnage to that of handlers' current acquisitions of free tonnage, and to provide more specific procedure for its application. At the hearing, it was further proposed that another formula based on handlers' acquisitions of free tonnage raisins during the preceding crop year be provided for use in conjunction with the formula as proposed in the notice to take care of an allocation problem which occurs in the first part of the crop year. This and other aspects of allocating surplus tonnage raisins to handlers throughout the crop year was considered at the hearing.

Handlers' acquisitions of free tonnage raisins, rather than their acquisitions of surplus tonnage, should be used in allocating surplus tonnage to them for sale in export. The same free tonnage percentage applies throughout the crop year. Under § 989.67 (c), any reserve tonnage held unsold on July 1 becomes surplus tonnage on that date. Also, any reserve tonnage acquired between July 1 and the end of the crop year becomes surplus tonnage at the time of acquisition. The proposed use of free tonnage acquisitions as a basis for allocating surplus tonnage to handlers would eliminate the apparent change in the base (from the standpoint of relation to total acquisitions) when reserve tonnage becomes surplus on and after July 1. It would not result in any material difference in a handler's share of an offer of surplus tonnage as compared with the use of surplus tonnage acquisitions as an allocation basis, because the quantity of any raisins acquired by handlers after July 1 is extremely small, and by definition (§ 989.17) the quantity of reserve tonnage held on July 1 which becomes surplus would not be an acquisition by reason of the transfer to surplus.

The demand for surplus tonnage raisins for sale in export usually is most active during the fall and early winter months. The respective handlers are concerned, therefore, that they receive their proper allocations of surplus tonnage offered during this period. Also, to the extent that each handler's allocation during this period is proportional to his normal volume of business during the crop year, a larger total quantity of surplus tonnage may be sold. A large cooperative marketing association and some of the other handlers acquire most, or all, of their raisins during the first part of the crop year. Other handlers, because of limited facilities or the effect on income taxes, acquire a substantial part of their raisins after the first of January. Hence, the use of current acquisitions of free tonnage raisins as an allocation basis would not permit some handlers to receive an allocation of surplus tonnage during the period of most active demand which would be proportional to their normal acquisitions of free tonnage raisins over the entire crop year. On the other hand, such basis permits other handlers to obtain, in the early part of the season, shares of surplus which are more than proportional to such acquisitions, and more than they may sell in export at the time. The use of total free tonnage acquisitions of the preceding crop year as an allocation basis prior to February 1, with subsequent adjustments of shares to a basis of current free tonnage acquisitions as set forth below, would overcome this problem and yet keep the allocations on a basis as nearly current as possible.

Therefore, § 989.66 (e) (4) should be amended so as to provide that, except for new handlers, each handler's share of surplus tonnage raisins offered for sale in export prior to February 1 of any crop year shall be determined as the same proportion of the quantity offered that the free tonnage raisins acquired by him during the preceding crop year is of the free tonnage raisins acquired by all handlers during the preceding crop year who remain handlers. The amendment should provide that subsequent to January 31 of any crop year, each handler's share shall be determined as the same proportion of the quantity offered that the free tonnage raisins acquired by him during the then current crop year is of the total free tonnage raisins acquired by all handlers during the then current crop year. It should provide also that with respect to any offer other than the initial offer, each handler's share of the total quantity offered as of that date (the then current offer plus all prior offers of that crop year) shall first be determined by the appropriate formula, and then his share of the current offer determined by subtracting from his share of the total quantity offered, the total of his share of prior offers from the beginning of the crop year. This would have the effect of establishing the shares of all handlers for the crop year on the basis of current acquisitions of free tonnage raisins. Yet, it would provide the necessary flexibility prior to February 1.

To provide for new handlers, provision should be added to § 989.66 (e) (4) that, if any handler did not acquire raisins during the preceding crop year, the basis for his share of surplus tonnage offered prior to February 1 shall be his acquisitions of free tonnage raisins during the then current crop year. The current free tonnage acquisitions of all of such handlers should, for the purpose of determining the shares of all handlers, be added to the total acquisitions of free tonnage raisins during the preceding crop year by all handlers. While a new handler's share by this formula would normally be relatively smaller than shares of handlers who acquired raisins during the preceding crop year, his relative share would be brought in line with those of the other handlers by adjustment after January 31, under the amendatory proposal stated above. In the past seven years, only a very few persons have entered the raisin packing business as new members.

Amendment of § 989.66 (e) (4) should provide also that, if prior to February 1 of any crop year a handler's share of any offer exceeds the quantity of surplus tonnage raisins held by him for the account of the committee (the shortage being for reasons other than deferment of his set-aside obligations pursuant to § 989.66 (c)), and upon the committee concluding that the handler's acquisitions of surplus as of January 31 will exceed the total of his shares or upon said handler furnishing the committee such written undertaking secured by a bond as the committee may require, the committee may permit the handler to borrow, for a period not to exceed 30 days (or ending not later than January 31) from the date of the acceptance of the offer, raisins from any reserve tonnage held by him for the account of the committee. Since failure to repay the reserve tonnage would seriously interfere with the operations of the order, and to further insure repayment, it should be provided that any handler who has not repaid all prior loans from the reserve pool by the end of the 30-day period or by January 31, whichever date is earlier, may not participate in any subsequent offers of surplus tonnage until the loan is repaid. Borrowing from the reserve tonnage in this way would eliminate or reduce the cost to the committee of transferring surplus tonnage from one handler to another during the period ending January 31. Most handlers' purchasing of raisins from producers is such that there would be no question of them subsequently acquiring enough surplus to repay any loan. However, if there are indications that a handler will complete his acquisitions early or will not continue in business, thus making it unlikely that he could repay a loan, the committee should obtain a bond from the handler to insure repayment to the reserve pool. The amount of the bond should be sufficient, considering the amount the handler pays the committee for his purchase of the raisins as surplus, to cover necessary expenses and enable the committee to purchase free tonnage raisins and repay the reserve pool. However, in case of recovery under a bond, the committee could, in its discretion, credit the reserve pool with the amount recovered, plus the return from the sale of the borrowed reserve tonnage as surplus.

In some crop years, essentially all of the surplus tonnage raisins acquired as surplus, or the reserve tonnage which becomes surplus on July 1, may have been offered to handlers on a share basis. In this event, some of the handlers probably would not be interested in further offers of any surplus tonnage which then remained unpurchased. To facilitate disposition of the remaining tonnage, amendment of § 989.66 (e) (4) should include a provision that, in such an event, approval of applications may be made in the same order in which the applications are filed with the committee.

Any handler's share or allocation of surplus tonnage raisins, determined in accordance with the conclusions stated above, could be less than or exceed his holdings by a minor quantity. Amendment of § 989.66 (e) (4) should provide that, in such an event, the committee may adjust the handler's share or allocation so as to avoid the cost of physical transfers of raisins. The maximum quantity by which a handler's share or allocation may properly be adjusted to avoid such a transfer of raisins could vary, depending on prevailing conditions, and should not be prescribed in the order. However, it should be provided in the proposed amendment that such maximum quantity shall be prescribed in rules and procedures with respect to the allocation of surplus tonnage raisins to handlers which the committee shall establish with the approval of the Secretary.

The present provisions of § 989.66 (e) (4), other than the first sentence, should remain unchanged, except for desirable clarification.

(8) The provisions of § 989.67 (b), which relate to the price at which reserve tonnage raisins may be sold to handlers, should be amended to provide that where the outlook for the next crop year or other factors have caused a downward trend in the prices received by producers for free tonnage raisins or in the prices received by handlers for free tonnage packed raisins, reserve tonnage may be sold to handlers at the currently prevailing or the approximate computed field price for free tonnage raisins, as determined by the committee. This proposal is similar to the present provisions in these respects, except that they do not specifically provide for any downward trend in prices to be determined on the basis of the prices received by handlers for free tonnage packed raisins, or for the field price for free tonnage raisins to be computed. Reserve tonnage is most often offered for sale to handlers during the latter part of the crop year. Usually, handlers' purchasing of raisins from producers is largely completed by February or March, and there may be no prevailing field price or one which is representative when the committee offers reserve tonnage. The committee should be permitted to use packers' prices for packed raisins for computing a field price or determining whether there has been a downward trend. The prices which handlers pay producers for their free tonnage raisins are determined by the market for packed raisins. Hence, prices received by handlers provide a reasonable basis for determining any downward trend in prices, and for computing a field price.

It was testified at the hearing that the committee should first determine the percentage decline in handler's prices for packed raisins and then apply the same percentage to the field price established earlier in order to arrive at the current field price. It was testified also that this would give a higher computed field price than if it were computed by deducting from handlers' current price for packed raisins the normal margin between the price for packed raisins and the field price. When there has been a downward trend in prices, the computed field price most desirable for use in offering reserve tonnage may vary according to trading conditions, including whether the trend is continuing downward, leveling off, or showing an upturn. Since reserve tonnage becomes surplus (for sale in surplus outlets usually at lower prices) if not purchased by handlers, the offering price for reserve tonnage should be such as to enable handlers to purchase their reasonable requirements and maximize pool returns. The committee would need to use a price which will best achieve that purpose. Therefore, in order to maintain some flexibility in this regard, no particular method of computing the field price should be prescribed in the order.

The provisions of § 989.67 (b) which relate to the review by the Secretary of the committee's offers of reserve tonnage raisins to handlers and his right to disapprove now require the committee to file the necessary information with the Secretary five days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) prior to making any offer to sell reserve tonnage raisins. This could be interpreted as preventing the committee from making the offer in less than the five days, even though the committee is advised earlier that the Secretary will not disapprove. Frequently, it is desirable that offers to handlers be made as soon as possible in order for them to have raisins to meet their requirements. If the committee is advised that the Secretary does not disapprove, it is unnecessary that it wait until the end of the five-day period before making the offer. Therefore, the provisions of § 989.67 (b) should be amended to provide that at any time prior to the expiration of the five-day period, the offer may be made to handlers upon the committee receiving from the Secretary notice that he does not disapprove the making of the offer.

(9) Those provisions of § 989.68 (d) and (e), which relate to the Secretary's review of proposals to sell surplus tonnage raisins and subsequent action by the committee if the Secretary does not disapprove, should be amended in the same manner and for the same reasons as specified in issue (8) for offers of reserve tonnage raisins.

(10) Section 989.48 now provides that members of the committee and the board, and alternate members when acting as members, shall serve without compensation but shall be allowed their necessary expenses as approved by the committee. This section should be amended to provide that whenever specifically authorized in advance by the committee, or when requested to attend due to the anticipated absence of a member, an alternate member of the committee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred by him in attending not to exceed three committee meetings per crop year when the committee member for whom he serves as alternate also attends such meetings. Some committee meetings, such as the annual marketing policy meeting, are of such importance that both members and alternates are justified in attending. By attending such meetings, the alternates will be better qualified to act when they are later required to serve for members. An alternate member who, upon request, attends a meeting to serve in place of the member, and the member subsequently attends unexpectedly, has acted in good faith and should be reimbursed for the expenses incurred by him in attending. However, there should be only a few meetings which both members and the alternates need to attend. To avoid unnecessary meeting expense, the number of meetings that an alternate may attend and be reimbursed for his expenses when the member also attends should be limited to not more than three in any one crop year.

(11) It was testified at the hearing that changes should be made in any other provisions of the order not directly involved in connection with specific amendments, but which are necessary to make such other provisions conform with any amended provisions which might result from this proceeding. Such changes should be made in §§ 989.79 and 989.54. The necessity for these results from the proposed amendment of § 989.63 (a) which would change the date by which the committee's recommendations to the Secretary shall be made for the fixing of the initial free, reserve, and surplus percentages for any crop year from October 1 to October 5 of such crop year, with provision that this date may be extended by the committee not more than five days if warranted by a late crop. This proposed amendment is discussed under issue (6).

The provision in § 989.79, which requires the committee to file with the Secretary not later than October 1 of each crop year a proposed budget of expenses for the maintenance of the committee and the board and a proposal as to the assessment rate to be fixed pursuant to § 989.80, should be amended to provide for the filing of such proposed budget and rate of assessment not later than October 5 of each crop year, with provision that this date may be extended by the committee not more than five days if warranted by a late crop. The free, reserve, and surplus percentages when applied to the estimated acquisitions of raisins by handlers during the crop year provide a basis for estimating the committee's budget. They provide a basis also for determining the probable assessable tonnage and the assessment rate. Because of this interrelationship between the percentages and the budget and assessment rate, it would be impracticable to require the committee to file its proposed budget and rate of assessment before the percentages to be recommended to the Secretary had been formulated. They should, in fact, be formulated and recommended at the same time, which is consistent with the existing provisions for dates of filing the respective recommendations with the Secretary.

It is now provided in § 989.54 that not later than August 20 preceding the beginning of each crop year, the committee shall hold a meeting to formulate and adopt a marketing policy for the marketing of raisins for the ensuing crop year and shall submit to the Secretary within 10 days a report setting forth its marketing policy for the regulation of the handling of raisins in each crop year. This provision of § 989.54 should be amended to provide that prior to or simultaneously with making its recommendation to the Secretary for fixing the initial free, reserve, and surplus percentages for any crop year (which would be not later than October 5 of such crop year unless this date should be extended by the committee not more than five days because of a late crop), the committee shall hold a meeting to formulate and adopt a marketing policy for the marketing of raisins for the crop year and shall submit promptly to the Secretary a report setting forth its marketing policy for the regulation of the handling of raisins in such crop year. As discussed under issue (6), a formula has been adopted for arriving at the free, reserve, and surplus percentages and the use of this formula depends upon the accuracy of estimates of raisin production. An official production estimate is expected to be received from a governmental agency, normally not later than October 1 of each year. In most years, volume regulation is the most important consideration in the adoption of a marketing policy. Since an official estimate of production on which volume regulation can be recommended will not be available on August 20, it would be impracticable to require the committee to adopt its marketing policy by that date. In fact, it would be inadvisable for the committee to adopt a policy based on unofficial estimates in view of forthcoming official estimates. Since the volume percentages provide a basis for trading in raisins, producer returns could be affected adversely if the committee used estimates in adopting its marketing policy which were later changed. These difficulties would be overcome by permitting the committee to delay its adoption of a marketing policy until it makes its recommendations for fixing the volume percentages.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. The period during which interested parties might file briefs with the Hearing Clerk of the Department with respect to testimony presented at the hearing and the conclusions to be drawn therefrom expired July 2, 1956. No briefs were filed.

General findings. (a) The findings hereinafter set forth are supplementary, and in addition, to the findings and determinations which were previously made in connection with the original issuance (14 F. R. 5136) of this marketing agreement and order, as supplemented by the findings and determinations which were made in connection with the amendment of such marketing agreement and order (20 F. R. 6435) which was issued on August 26, 1955, and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and confirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein;

(b) The amended marketing agreement and order, as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(c) The amended marketing agreement and order, as hereby proposed to be further amended, will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified or necessarily included in the proposals upon which the amendment hearing has been held; and

(d) There are no differences in the production and marketing of raisins in the production area covered by this amended marketing agreement and order, as hereby proposed to be further amended, which make necessary different terms applicable to different parts of such area.

Recommended amendments to the order. The following further amendment of the amended marketing agreement and order is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out:

1. Amend the provisions of § 989.52 (a) to read as follows:

§ 989.52 Procedure. (a) All decisions of the committee reached at an assembled meeting shall be by majority vote of the members present and a quorum must be present. All votes in an assembled meeting shall be cast in person. The presence of nine members shall be required to constitute a quorum. The committee may vote by mail or telegraph when there is no assembled meeting, but any proposition to be so voted upon first shall be explained accurately, fully, and identically in a notice by mail or telegraph to all members, or alternates acting in the place and stead of the members. Said notice shall contain a statement of a reasonable time not to exceed 10 days in which a member or alternate must vote by mail or telegraph in order that the vote may be counted. A unanimous vote of all selected and eligible members or alternates acting in the place and stead of members shall be required to reach a decision on a mail or telegraphic vote. Failure of any such member or alternate to vote within the prescribed time shall be held to be a dissenting vote. No action to recommend a marketing policy or volume regulation can be taken on the basis of a mail or telegraphic vote.

2. Amend the provisions of § 989.58 (e) to read as follows:

(e) Options as to off-grade natural condition raisins. Any natural condition raisins tendered to a handler which fail to meet the applicable minimum grade standards may at the option of either the handler or the person making the tender: (1) Be returned to the person tendering the raisins; (2) if storable, be turned over to the handler to be held by him as off-grade natural condition raisins for the account of the committee; or (3) be turned over to the handler for reconditioning under the terms of a written agreement between the person making the tender and the handler. If the handler is to acquire such raisins after they are reconditioned, his obligations with respect to such raisins shall be based on the weight of the raisins (if stemmed, adjusted to natural condition weight) after they have been reconditioned. If after such reconditioning, such raisins meet the minimum grade standards but are no longer natural condition raisins, any handler who acquires such raisins shall meet his surplus and reserve tonnage obligations from natural condition raisins acquired by him. Any off-grade raisins (including stemmer waste and raisin offal) accumulated as a final residual by a handler in reconditioning raisins shall, during or after reconditioning has been completed, be disposed of by the handler, without further inspection, for distillation, animal feed, or uses other than for human consumption. Off-grade raisins received by a handler for reconditioning shall be kept by him separate and apart from all other raisins until after the raisins have beeen reconditioned and the quality of the raisins is established by inspection and certification. The committee shall establish, with the approval of the Secretary, such rules and procedures as may be necessary to insure adequate control over the reconditioning of off-grade raisins and the use of the residual matter from such reconditioning operations.

3. Amend the provisions of § 989.59 (a) to read as follows:

§ 989.59 Regulation of the handling of raisins subsequent to their acquisition by handlers—(a) Regulation. Unless otherwise provided in this part, no handler shall: (1) Ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition raisins unless they meet the effective applicable minimum grade and condition standards for natural condition raisins; or (2) ship or otherwise make final disposition of packed raisins unless they at least meet the following minimum grade standards or such standards as modified pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section: (i) With respect to all raisins except Layer Muscats and Zante Currants, "U. S. Grade C" as defined in effective United States Standards for Grades of Processed Raisins; (ii) with respect to Golden Seedless and Sulfur Bleached raisins, the color requirements for "bleached color" (or "choice color") as defined in the said standards; (iii) with respect to Layer Muscat raisins, "U. S. Grade B" as defined in the said standards; and (iv) with respect to Zante Currant raisins, "U. S. Grade B" as defined in the effective United States Standards for Grades of Dried Currants: Provided, That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prohibit the shipment or final disposition of any raisins to which the prescribed standards are not applicable.

3 (a). Amend the provisions of the first paragraph of § 989.97 to read as follows:

Raisins meeting the varietal standards set forth hereinafter shall be considered as standard raisins and those failing to meet such standards shall be considered as off-grade raisins. Where the raisins in any lot consist of two or more varietal types commingled within their containers, the lot shall be considered as standard raisins if each varietal type in the lot meets the applicable minimum standards for that varietal type: Provided, That, in the event Layer Muscat raisins are commingled within their containers with Natural (Sun-dried) Muscat raisins, the entire lot shall be considered as Natural (sun-dried) Muscat raisins, and as standard raisins if the lot as a whole meets the minimum standards for Natural (sun-dried) Muscat raisins: Provided further, That, should the requirements with respect to the maximum moisture content differ as between any two or more varietal types which are commingled, the lower (lowest) maximum moisture content requirement shall apply for each varietal type. In each category, only those raisins which have been properly dried and cured in original natural condition, are free from active infestation, and are in such condition that they are capable of being received, stored, and packed without undue deterioration or spoilage, shall be considered as storable raisins.

4. Amend the provisions of § 989.59 (e) to read as follows:

(e) Inter-plant and inter-handler transfers. Any handler may transfer from his plant to his own or another handler's plant within the State of California any free tonnage raisins without having had such raisins inspected as provided in paragraph (d) of this section. The transferring handler shall transmit promptly to the committee a report of such transfer, except that transfers between plants owned or operated by the same handler need not be reported. Before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of such raisins, the receiving handler shall comply with the requirements of this section.

5. Amend the provisions of § 989.59 (f) to read as follows:

(f) Off-grade raisins accumulated by handlers. Any off-grade raisins (including stemmer waste and raisin offal) which may be received by a processor or accumulated by a handler by removing them from his standard raisins, and any raisins acquired as standard raisins by a handler which do not meet the applicable grade and condition standards for shipment or final disposition as raisins, shall be disposed of or marketed, without further inspection, for distillation, animal feed, or uses other than for human consumption: Provided, That this shall not preclude a packer from recovering raisins from such accumulations or acquisitions. The committee shall establish, with the approval of the Secretary, such rules and procedures as may be necessary to insure such uses. The provisions of this paragraph are not intended to excuse any failure to comply with all applicable food and sanitary rules and regulations of city, county, state, federal or other agencies having jurisdiction.

6. Amend the provisions of § 989.63 (a) to read as follows:

§ 989.63 Recommendation for designation of percentages. (a) If the committee concludes that the supply and demand conditions for raisins make it advisable to designate the percentages of standard raisins acquired by handlers in any crop year which shall be free tonnage, reserve tonnage, and surplus tonnage, respectively, it shall recommend such percentages to the Secretary. The committee may recommend such percentages separately, for each varietal type. The committee also shall submit, together with any recommendation with respect to percentages, the information on the basis of which such recommendation was made, and the recommendation of the board, and also shall specify for each varietal type of raisins the outlets which were considered in determining the free and surplus tonnages and the free and surplus percentages. In the event the committee subsequently deems it desirable to modify, suspend, or terminate any designation by the Secretary of such percentages, it shall submit to the Secretary its recommendation in that regard along with the information on the basis of which such modification, suspension or termination is recommended, and the recommendation of the board. The committee shall file with its recommendation to the Secretary, a verbatim record of that portion of its meetings, relating to the free, reserve, and surplus percentages. The recommendations of the committee for the fixing of the initial free, reserve, and surplus percentages for any crop year shall be made not later than October 5 of such year, but this date may be extended by the committee not more than five days if warranted by a late crop.

7. Amend the provisions of § 989.66 (e) (4) to read as follows:

(4) (i) Except as provided in subdivision (ii) for new handlers, each handler's share of surplus tonnage raisins offered for sale in export prior to February 1 of any crop year shall be determined as the same proportion of the quantity offered that the free tonnage raisins acquired by him during the preceding crop year is of the free tonnage raisins acquired by all handlers during the preceding crop year who remain handlers. Subsequent to January 31, each handler's share shall be determined as the same proportion of the quantity offered that the free tonnage raisins acquired by the handler during the then current crop year is of the total free tonnage raisins acquired by all handlers during the then current crop year. With respect to any offer other than the initial offer, each handler's share of the total quantity offered as of that date (the then current offer plus all prior offers of that crop year) shall first be determined by the appropriate formula. His share of the current offer shall then be determined by subtracting from his share of the total quantity offered, the total of his share of prior offers from the beginning of the crop year.

(ii) If any handler did not acquire raisins during the preceding crop year, the basis for his share of any quantity of surplus tonnage raisins offered prior to February 1 shall be his acquisitions of free tonnage raisins during the then current crop year. The current free tonnage acquisitions of all such new handlers shall, for the purpose of determining the shares of all handlers prior to February 1, be added to the total acquisitions of free tonnage raisins during the preceding crop year of all handlers in business at the time the offer is made.

(iii) If prior to February 1 of any crop year, a handler's share of any offer exceeds the quantity of surplus tonnage raisins held by him for the account of the committee (the shortage being for reasons other than deferment of his set aside obligations pursuant to § 989.66 (c)), and upon the committee concluding that the handler's acquisitions of surplus as of January 31 will exceed the total of his shares or upon said handler furnishing the committee such written undertaking secured by a bond as the committee may require, the committee may permit the handler to borrow, for a period not to exceed 30 days (or ending not later than January 31) from the date of the acceptance of the offer, raisins from any reserve tonnage held by him for the account of the committee. Any handler who has not repaid all prior loans from the reserve pool by the end of the required 30-day period or by January 31, whichever date is earlier, may not participate in any subsequent offers of surplus tonnage until the loan is repaid.

(iv) If prior to the close of any offer of surplus tonnage raisins for sale in export and subsequent to any share reservation period the entire offer has not been purchased, any handler who has purchased his entire share and makes application to the committee shall be allocated additional surplus tonnage raisins from such raisins held by him. In the event such handler no longer holds any surplus tonnage raisins for the account of the committee, the committee shall, subsequent to any period the committee may prescribe for handlers to purchase their holdings, allocate and deliver to the handler, surplus tonnage raisins held by other handlers. In making such allocation, the committee shall, insofar as is practicable, first withdraw surplus tonnage raisins from those handlers who have purchased for sale in export the smallest percentage of the surplus tonnage raisins acquired by them or who for other reasons are holding the largest percentage of their acquisitions of surplus tonnage. The cost of transporting any such surplus tonnage raisins from one handler to another shall be paid by the committee from surplus pool funds.

(v) Whenever essentially all of the surplus tonnage raisins acquired as surplus, or the reserve tonnage which becomes surplus on July 1, have been offered on a share basis, and any unpurchased or unoffered tonnage of surplus is offered to handlers, approval of applications may be made in the same order in which the applications are filed with the committee.

(vi) Whenever a handler's share or allocation pursuant to this subparagraph is less than or exceeds his holdings of surplus by a minor quantity, the committee may adjust the handler's share or allocation so as to avoid the cost of the physical transfer. The maximum quantity by which a handler's share or allocation may be so adjusted shall be prescribed in rules and procedures with respect to the allocation of surplus tonnage raisins to handlers which the committee shall establish with the approval of the Secretary.

8. Amend the provisions of § 989.67 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Reserve tonnage of any varietal type shall not be sold at a price below that which the committee concludes reflects the average price received by producers for free tonnage of the same varietal type purchased by handlers during the current crop year up to the time of any offer for sale of reserve tonnage by the committee, to which shall be added the costs incurred by the committee on account of the receiving, inspecting, storing, insuring, and holding of said raisins: Provided, That where the outlook for the next crop year or other factors have caused a downward trend in the prices received by producers for free tonnage raisins or in the prices received by handlers for free tonnage packed raisins, reserve tonnage may be sold to handlers at the currently prevailing or the approximate computed field price for free tonnage raisins, as determined by the committee. No offer to sell reserve tonnage raisins to handler shall be made by the committee until five days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) have elapsed from the time it files with the Secretary complete information as to varietal type, quantity, and price involved in such offer, and the Secretary may disapprove the offer or any term thereof: Provided, That at any time prior to the expiration of the five-day period, the offer may be made to handlers upon the committee receiving from the Secretary notice that he does not disapprove the making of the offer.

9. Amend the provisions of § 989.68 (d) and (e) to read as follows:

(d) Surplus tonnage raisins shall be sold to handlers at prices and in a manner intended to maximize producer returns and achieve complete disposition of such raisins by August 31 of the crop year. No offer to sell surplus tonnage raisins to handlers shall be made by the committee until five days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) have elapsed from the time it files with the Secretary complete information as to varietal type, quantity, and price involved in such offer, and the Secretary may disapprove the offer or any term thereof: Provided, That at any time prior to the expiration of the five-day period, the offer may be made to handlers upon the committee receiving from the Secretary notice that he does not disapprove the making of the offer.

(e) The committee may sell surplus tonnage raisins as provided in paragraph (b) (3) of this section only when such country is not included in the list of specified countries established pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section and may sell surplus tonnage raisins to foreign government agencies or foreign importers in any country removed from such list. No agreement to sell surplus tonnage raisins shall be entered into by the committee until five days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) have elapsed from the time it files with the Secretary complete information as to varietal type, quantity, price, and foreign country involved in any such proposed sale, and the Secretary may disapprove such sale or any term thereof: Provided, That at any time prior to the expiration of the five-day period, the sale may be made upon the committee receiving from the Secretary notice that he does not disapprove the making of the sale.

10. Amend the provisions of § 989.48 to read as follows:

§ 989.48 Compensation and expenses. The members of the committee and the board, and the alternate members when acting as members, shall serve without compensation but shall be allowed their necessary expenses as approved by the committee. Whenever specifically authorized in advance by the committee, or when requested to attend due to the anticipated absence of a member, an alternate member of the committee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred by him in attending not to exceed three committee meetings per crop year when the committee member for whom he serves as alternate also attends such meetings.

11. Amend the provisions of § 989.79 to read as follows:

§ 989.79 Expenses. The committee is authorized to incur such expenses (other than those specified in § 989.82) as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each crop year, for the maintenance and functioning of the committee and the board. The funds to cover such expenses shall be obtained by levying assessments as provided in § 989.80. The committee shall file with the Secretary for each crop year a proposed budget of these expenses and a proposal as to the assessment rate to be fixed pursuant to § 989.80, together with a report thereon. Such filing shall be not later than October 5 of the crop year, but this date may be extended by the committee not more than five days if warranted by a late crop. Also, it shall file at the same time a proposed budget of the expenses likely to be incurred during the crop year in connection with reserve, surplus, or off-grade raisins held for the account of the committee, exclusive of the receiving, storing, and handling expenses which are covered by a schedule of payments to handlers effective pursuant to § 989.66 (f) or any rules and procedures established by the committee, and exclusive of any expenses it may incur in connection with the disposition of such raisins and which are unknown at the time. The said report shall also cover this proposed budget.

11 (a) Amend the provisions of § 989.54 to read as follows:

§ 989.54 Marketing policy. Prior to or simultaneously with making its recommendation to the Secretary for fixing the initial free, reserve, and surplus percentages for any crop year (which shall be not later than October 5 of such crop year unless this date is extended by the committee not more than five days as provided in § 989.63 (a)), the committee shall hold a meeting to formulate and adopt a marketing policy for the marketing of raisins for the crop year and shall submit promptly to the Secretary a report setting forth its marketing policy for the regulation of the handling of raisins in such crop year. The report shall include the data and information used by the committee in formulating the marketing policy, and the recommendation of the board. In developing the marketing policy, the committee shall give consideration to the following factors with respect to each varietal type of raisins:

(a) The estimated tonnage of raisins held by producers and handlers;

(b) The estimated tonnage of raisins which will be produced during the crop year;

(c) An appraisal of the quality of raisins of the crop to be produced in such crop year, including the estimated tonnage of standard raisins and off-grade raisins, respectively;

(d) The tonnage of raisins marketed during recent crop years in the domestic market and in Canada;

(e) The tonnage of raisins marketed in recent crop years in foreign markets, segregated to show the quantities marketed from free and surplus tonnage raisins and the countries in which such raisins were marketed;

(f) The current price being received for raisins by producers and handlers;

(g) The estimated trade demand during the crop year for raisins in normal market channels both domestic and foreign;

(h) The trend and level of consumer income in the domestic market;

(i) The estimated probable market requirements for raisins during the crop year in foreign markets segregated by countries or groups of countries;

(j) Such factors, if any, which in the supplying of foreign markets, may tend to directly affect or burden the normal domestic market;

(k) Any other pertinent factors bearing on the marketing of raisins; and

(l) The conditions, including pricing formula, for the sale of surplus tonnage raisins in foreign markets pursuant to the provisions of § 989.68.

Dated: September 5, 1956.

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS, TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of Assignments, Television Broadcast Stations; Docket Nos. 11747, 11748, 11749, 11750, 11751, 11752, 11753, 11754, 11755, 11756, 11757, 11758, 11759, 11799.

1. On June 26, 1956 and July 23, 1956 the above-entitled rule making proposals were issued by the Commission proposing to make certain changes in the television Table of Assignments contained in Part 3, §3.606, of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. The Notices of Proposed Rule Making stated that offset carrier designations for the channels proposed would be specified in the final Reports and Orders. However, some parties have indicated that it would be helpful to have this information prior to the submission of comments.

2. Suggested offset carrier designations for the proposals made in the above listed dockets are as follows:

Docket No.	City	Channel No.

ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR FILING COMMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of Assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Springfield, Illinois-St. Louis, Missouri; Hartford, Connecticut-Providence, Rhode Island; Peoria, Illinois-Davenport, Iowa-Rock Island-Moline, Illinois; Norfolk-Portsmouth-Newport News, Virginia-New Bern, North Carolina; Albany-Schenectady-Troy, Vail Mills, New York; New Orleans, Louisiana-Mobile, Alabama; Charleston, South Carolina; Madison, Wisconsin; Duluth, Minnesota-Superior, Wisconsin; Miami, Florida; Evansville, Indiana; Elmira, New York; Fresno-Santa Barbara, California; Columbia, South Carolina); Docket Nos. 11747, 11748, 11749, 11750, 11751, 11752, 11753, 11754, 11755, 11756, 11757, 11758, 11759, 11799.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 30th day of August, 1956;

On June 26, 1956 the Commission released its Report and Order in the general television allocation proceeding in Docket No. 11532 outlining a long-range program to improve the television allocation structure and, at the same time, specifying the bases on which the Commission would consider interim channel changes designed to improve the immediate television situation in individual communities. As a part of this interim program of channel reassignments the Commission instituted the above-entitled separate rule making proceedings proposing channel changes in various communities. The notices of rule making specified that comments should be filed on or before September 10, 1956, with reply comments to be filed within 15 days thereafter.

The Commission requested parties intending to submit comments in the various rule making proceedings to prepare coverage data in accordance with procedures outlined in its Report and Order released in Docket No. 11532. Several questions have been raised concerning the prescribed method for the submission of such data and with respect to the assumptions employed. The Commission believes that further consideration should be given to this aspect of the matter.

Several parties have requested the Commission to extend the time for filing comments in a number of the above-entitled proceedings. The Commission has concluded that additional time should be afforded and that such extension will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

In view of the foregoing, It is ordered, That the time for filing comments in the above entitled proceedings is extended from September 10, 1956, to November 15, 1956; and that the time for filing reply comments is extended to 15 days thereafter.

Released: September 5, 1956.

TELEVISION ALLOCATION

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of Part 3 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations Governing Television Broadcast Stations; Docket No. 11532; in the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of Assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Springfield, Illinois-St. Louis, Missouri; Hartford, Connecticut-Providence, Rhode Island; Peoria, Illinois-Davenport, Iowa-Rock Island-Moline, Illinois; Norfolk-Portsmouth-Newport News, Virginia-New Bern, North Carolina; Albany-Schenectady-Troy, Vail Mills, New York; New Orleans, Louisiana-Mobile, Alabama; Charleston, South Carolina; Madison, Wisconsin; Duluth, Minnesota-Superior, Wisconsin; Miami, Florida; Evansville, Indiana; Elmira, New York; Fresno-Santa Barbara, California; Columbia, South Carolina); Docket Nos. 11747, 11748, 11749, 11750, 11751 11752, 11753, 11754, 11755, 11756, 11757, 11758, 11759, 11799.

1. On June 26, 1956, the Commission issued its Report and Order in the general television allocation proceeding in Docket No. 11532, outlining a long-range program designed to improve the television allocation structure and at the same time specifying the bases on which it would consider interim channel changes to improve the immediate television situation in individual communities. As a part of this interim program rule making proceedings were instituted in the above-entitled proceedings to consider channel changes in a number of communities. The time for filing comments in these proceedings was recently extended to November 15, 1956.

2. In order that the Commission might have information with which to evaluate the various assignment proposals, parties were requested to submit coverage data in accordance with procedures set out in Appendix A accompanying the above Report and Order. New propagation data available to the Commission was presented in the form of tables included in Appendix A, and the parties were requested to employ the tables in computing coverage and interference. Although we recognized the limitations in this method, as pointed out in the Appendix, we had hoped that it would be sufficiently accurate to provide comparisons of station coverage in the rule making proceedings. All the information and data upon which these tables are based are available for inspection at the Office of the Commission's Chief Engineer in Washington, D. C.

3. Several parties, including the Association of Federal Communications Commission Engineers, have raised problems concerning the proposed methods for computing coverage data. The Commission believes that it would be helpful in this regard to have the comments of all interested parties. Accordingly, all interested parties are invited to submit written comments with respect to this matter on or before September 15, 1956.

4. The comments should be directed to the engineering methods to be employed in the individual rule making proceedings for estimating coverage of VHF and UHF television stations. It should be emphasized that the coverage data submitted in the proceedings is to be employed by the Commission for the purpose of evaluating proposed changes in channel assignments on an interim basis as outlined in the above Report and Order. Comments should not be directed to the matter of whether the proposed engineering methods are suitable for precise determination of coverage of particular stations under specific conditions.

5. An original and 14 copies of any comments should be supplied.

Adopted: September 4, 1956.

Released: September 5, 1956.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE-MAKING

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule-making in the above-entitled matter.

2. This Notice is rooted in a petition (filed February 3, 1956) by Rothenbuhler Engineering Company of Sedro-Woolley, Washington looking toward amendment of § 11.554 (b) of the Commission's Rules governing the Low Power Industrial Radio Service. This Section presently reads as follows: "Emission shall be confined to voice radiotelephony only, which is construed as including tone signals or signalling devices whose sole function is to establish or maintain communication between associated stations and receivers: Provided, however, That other types of emission may be authorized on the frequency 27.255 Mc upon compliance with the provisions of § 11.103;"

In brief, petitioner requests that the above-quoted Section be amended by specifying the frequency 154.57 Mc as a frequency on which emission other than types A3 or F3 may be authorized upon compliance with the provisions of § 11.103.

3. In advancing the foregoing proposal, petitioner states a need of the logging industry for a radio signalling device "to replace the crude and primitive way of hand and mechanical signals" now used to control a certain phase of log-hauling activity known as "yarding". In this yarding operation, a large winch, commonly called a yarder, is used to pull cut logs to a road where they can be loaded on trucks for further transportation. In order to control this operation, it is necessary to rely upon predetermined signals of a manual-and-visual or mechanical nature. In practice, the rigging crew shouts or hand-signals directions to the signalman; the signalman then passes on the directions to the yarder operator through coded blasts of a horn mounted on the yarder but electrically connected to the signalman's position. Because of noise, terrain, weather and other factors, the directions from the rigging crew are sometimes misunderstood by the signalman, and this contributes to the high accident rate in the logging industry.

4. With an appropriate radio signalling device, contends the petitioner, the uncertainties of the above-described method of communicating could be largely eliminated. Thus, it is urged, the boss of the rigging crew could control the yarder horn, without relaying the information through the signalman, by simply depressing a switch on a transmitter equipped with tone-modulating components; propertly designed, the transmitter could be used for voice communications in situations not describable through the use of the predetermined horn signals.

5. As has been heretofore indicated, emission of the type here sought by petitioner for the frequency 154.57 Mc may be authorized on the frequency 27.255 Mc upon a satisfactory showing under § 11.103. Petitioner points out, however, that the latter frequency is a "catch-all" frequency, available to all Services for a variety of uses; thus, it is claimed, it is not satisfactory for a safety application for the reason that interference conditions could occasion false horn signals, with serious results. In addition, it is contended, the propagation characteristics of the frequency 27.255 Mc are not suitable for the radio purposes here proposed.

6. It appears that the persons who would be interested in using radio facilities of the type contemplated by the petitioner are eligible in the Forest Products Radio Service, where tone emission may be authorized upon satisfactory showings under the above § 11.103. In this connection, however, petitioner urges that the Forest Products frequencies, like the frequency 27.255 Mc, would not be satisfactory from the interference standpoint. Petitioner cites the heavy occupancy of the Forest Products frequencies and states that the only way in which such a frequency could be used for the above-described safety purposes would be to make it exclusively available for such purposes. It is contended that this would be wasteful of valuable spectrum space, and "petitioner neither desires not advocates such a course of action."

7. Petitioner concludes that the frequency 154.57 Mc is "ideally suited" for the proposed type of operation. In support of this proposition, petitioner states that this frequency, which is presently available for assignment only in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service, is being used, primarily, in areas other than those in which the logging operations previously discussed take place. Furthermore, it is argued, the three-watt power limitation prescribed for that Service not only would eliminate interference problems, but also would not pose a coverage problem for the logging operations in question for the reason that the communication distance would not exceed half a mile. Petitioner suggests that because the said logging operations "are concentrated in a clearly defined area" (i. e., the western slopes of the coast ranges from California to Alaska), and because "the need for this type of communications appears to be capable of being limited to the logging industry, there appears to be no danger that permitting this type of communications would result in overloading this frequency and disrupting other communications." Petitioner estimates that there are approximately 7,000 machines that could use the proposed signalling system and states that this number of units could easily be accommodated on 154.57 Mc without creating interference problems.

8. We are persuaded that the above-described petition contains good and sufficient grounds for the institution of a proceeding looking toward the adoption of a rule reflecting the substance of petitioner's overall proposal. However, because we find merit in the suggestion that the proposed usage (if allowed) of the frequency 154.57 Mc be confined to the logging industry, we think it more appropriate that any amendment in the above connections be contained in Subpart H of Part 11 (Forest Products Radio Service) rather than in Subpart L of that Part (Low Power Industrial Radio Service). This intention to limit the use of tone signalling on the frequency in question to Forest Products activities is dictated, primarily, by the fact that these activities appear to be concentrated in areas where the use of voice communication on the frequency by licensees in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service can be expected to remain at its present, comparatively negligible level. Although the above limitation could be written into Subpart L, the Commission foresees an administrative convenience in being able to classify stations resulting from the amendment here proposed as Forest Products rather than Low Power stations. In the foregoing connections, the Commission wishes to stress that it will not permit any deterioration of the Low Power Industrial Radio Service with respect to the purpose originally intended to be served thereby, namely, the establishment of a low power, mobile, voice communication service for industrial and commercial users. Accordingly, in addition to proposing what, in effect, would be a geographical limitation on the above new usage, the Commission also proposes to subject all operation in the Forest Products Radio Service on the frequency 154.57 Mc to the requirement that no harmful interference be caused to any station operating on this frequency in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service.

9. In view of the foregoing, the Commission proposes to amend Subpart H: Forest Products Radio Service of Part 11—Rules Governing the Industrial Radio Services, by the addition of the following section, to be known as § 11.355:

§ 11.355 Frequency available for mobile stations. The frequency 154.57 Mc is available for assignment on a secondary basis to Mobile Stations in the Forest Products Radio Service subject to the following limitations and requirements:

(a) The plate power input to the final radio frequency stage of any transmitter shall not exceed three watts.

(b) Without the necessity of the showing specified by § 11.103 (b), and notwithstanding the other provisions of that section, authorizations will be issued for type 2 emission for tone signalling (or for a combination of such emission and type 3 emission) with a maximum authorized bandwidth of 40 kilocycles.

(c) The maximum distance between any transmitter and the center of the radiating portion of its antenna shall not exceed 25 feet.

(d) All operation on the frequency 154.57 Mc in the Forest Products Radio Service is subject to the requirement that no harmful interference be caused to the service of any station authorized on this frequency in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service.

The authority for this amendment is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 (a–h) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

10. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth above, may file with the Commission, on or before October 17, 1956, written data, views or arguments setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to original comments may be filed on or before the tenth day following the last day for the filing of original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all timely filed comments prior to taking final action in this matter, and, if comments are submitted warranting oral argument, notice of the time and place of such oral argument will be given.

11. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's Rules, any statement, brief or comment filed in the above-entitled proceeding must be accompanied by 14 additional copies thereof.

Adopted: August 30, 1956.

Released: September 5, 1956.

APPLICATIONS RELATING TO CONSOLIDATION, ACQUISITION OR CONTROL OF TELEPHONE COMPANIES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of promulgation of Part 66, rules governing applications filed by telephone companies pursuant to section 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, to consolidate their properties or a part thereof into a single company, or for authority for one or more companies to acquire the whole or part of the property of another company or other telephone companies, or the control thereof by the purchase of securities, or in any other like manner.

1. Notice is hereby given of the proposed rule making in the above entitled matter.

2. The purpose of this proceeding is to delete from the present Part 1 of the Commission's Rules § 1.527 thereof which relates to the filing, by telephone companies, of applications pursuant to the provisions of section 221 (a) of the act, and to transfer the provisions of § 1.527, with certain amendments and additions, to a new part designated as Part 66. These amendments and additions are necessitated by a revision in section 221 (a) of the act, which became effective on August 2, 1956 (Public Law No. 914), making mandatory the holding of public hearings with respect to applications filed thereunder only when a request therefor is made by a telephone company, an association of telephone companies, a State commission, or local governmental authority.

3. The proposed rules, authority for which is contained in sections 4 (i) and 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, are set forth below.

4. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission, on or before October 1, 1956, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing original comments or briefs. The Commission will consider all such comments before taking action in this matter, and, if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

5. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: August 30, 1956.

Released: September 4, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] DEE W. PINCOCK,
Acting Secretary.

1. Delete from Part 1 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations, § 1.527 in its entirety.

2. Adopt new Part 66 as set forth hereinafter:

PART 66—APPLICATIONS RELATING TO CONSOLIDATION, ACQUISITION, OR CONTROL OF TELEPHONE COMPANIES

Sec.

66.11 Contents of applications.
66.12 Supporting data and exhibits required with application.
66.13 Publication and posting of notices.
66.14 General provisions.
66.15 Procedure.

§ 66.11 Contents of applications. Applications under section 221 (a) shall contain the following information:

(a) The exact name and address of each applicant and of each vendor;

(b) A statement as to whether each applicant and each vendor is a carrier subject to the act and what change or changes in status will result from the proposed transaction;

(c) The name, title and post office address of the person to whom correspondence in regard to the application should be addressed;

(d) The government, State, or territory, under the laws of which each corporate applicant and each vendor was organized;

(e) With respect to the property being acquired, a reasonable approximation of the principal plant items being acquired, such as:

(1) Number of poles;
(2) Miles of aerial wire;
(3) Miles of cable by size and type (e. g.—aerial);
(4) Number of telephones;
(5) Type and number of switchboards;
(6) Land and buildings;
(7) Vehicles;
(8) Other property;

(f) Specific information with respect to the proposed acquisition, consolidation or control, including but not limited to the following:

(1) The type of service currently being provided and the number of subscribers by classes of service;
(2) The quality of the service currently being provided;
(3) The adequacy of the service currently being provided;
(4) The condition of the plant;
(5) Criticisms regarding existing services;

(g) In a proposed consolidation or merger, the name of the company resulting therefrom, the capitalization proposed therefor, and the amount and class of capital stock and other securities proposed to be issued;

(h) The manner in which the properties, or control, will be acquired and the consideration, in money and otherwise, to be paid by each applicant;

(i) Statement of action of the stockholders or directors of each applicant and each vendor approving the proposed transaction, giving date and place of each meeting;

(j) Facts as to any intercorporate relations through holding companies, ownership of securities or otherwise, between the parties to the transaction;

(k) Statement as to whether applicant has extended any financial aid to the vendor during the past five years;

(l) The extent to which the facilities to be acquired or controlled (by purchase, lease, or otherwise) parallel or are competitive with the facilities of the proposed purchaser or others;

(m) Specific reasons why the proposed transaction will be of advantage to the persons to whom service is to be rendered and in the public interest, such as:

(1) Improvements in exchange service;
(2) Improvements in toll service;
(3) Improvements in private line service;
(4) Provision of extended area service;

(5) Use of different techniques, such as, conversion from magneto to common battery or manual to dial operation;
(6) Elimination of held orders and provisions for future growth requirements;
(7) Resolution of service criticisms;
(8) Integration with the other operations of the applicant(s);
(9) The approximate time within which the improvements in (1) to (8), above, will be realized;

(n) A statement as to whether the proposed transaction has been presented to the regulatory authority of each state in which the property is situated, and, if so, the status thereof;

(o) With respect to the full-time employees employed in the exchange area or exchange areas served by properties proposed to be acquired, a complete statement describing the manner by which the respective labor forces will be integrated or merged, and the treatment proposed to be accorded employees of the acquired company or companies by the acquiring company, with due regard to such matters as severance pay, if any, for employees discharged as a consequence of the transaction; accrued pension and benefit rights, if any; wages; location of employment; job assignments; seniority; and other conditions of employment.

(p) Any additional facts or reasons in support of the application.

§ 66.12 Supporting data and exhibits required with the application. There shall be filed with and made a part of the original of each application under section 221 (a) the following:

(a) One copy of the charter, articles of incorporation and the bylaws of each applicant, duly certified (such copies as are already on file with the Commission may be incorporated in the application by reference);

(b) In applications involving mergers or consolidations, one copy of resolutions of the stockholders or directors of each of the applicants approving the proposed transaction, such resolutions to be properly attested and accompanied by appropriate excerpts from the minutes, showing the number of votes cast for and against each such resolution;

(c) Map or sketch indicating the facilities of each telephone carrier in the area involved, and the location and ownership of exchange and toll properties before and after consummation of the proposed transaction;

(d) A recent balance sheet and an income statement of each party involved;

(e) A statement showing the original cost of the plant to be acquired and related reserve amounts with respect to the plant items to be acquired as shown on the books of the vendors, if available; estimated amounts shall be shown if actual amounts are not available and the purchase is in excess of $25,000;

(f) Statement justifying the proposed purchase price of the property to be acquired;

(g) Description of the plant to be acquired, which applicant expects to retire upon acquisition and the approximate date(s) thereof; estimated portion of total purchase price represented by such plant;

(h) Copy of any contract or contracts, exclusive of right-of-way and attachment contracts and traffic agreements, entered into between the parties to the transaction with respect to any of the telephone properties or service included in the proposed transaction;

(i) With respect to the full-time employees employed in the exchange area or exchange areas served by the properties proposed to be acquired, consolidated, or merged, a table showing for each such employee, by name, job classification, length of service, wage rate and location of employment; except that where twenty-five or more full-time employees are employed in any exchange area served by the properties to be acquired, consolidated or merged with another exchange area or exchange areas, such information with respect to those employees may be given on a group basis by job classification;

(j) Copies of any pension or benefit plans which are referred to in the statements supplied pursuant to § 66.11 (o);

(k) Classes of service currently rendered through the property to be acquired and rates therefor;

(l) Classes of service which applicant proposes to provide and rates therefor, if known, if not known, then estimated, in the following:

(1) Immediately upon acquisition;
(2) After completion of any planned rehabilitation of plant or conversion to dial.

(m) A copy of the action of any regulatory body referred to in § 66.11 (n).

§ 66.13 Publication and posting of notices. (a) Immediately upon the filing of an application under this section the applicant shall post a public notice at least twenty inches (20″) by twenty-four inches (24″), with letter of commensurate size, in a conspicuous place at each office where the subscribers, served by the property to be acquired, customarily transact telephone company business, for at least thirty (30) days, which notice shall contain the following information, as may be applicable:

(1) Date of first posting of notice;
(2) Name of applicant;
(3) A statement that application has been filed with the Federal Communications Commission;
(4) A general description of the areas wherein the property to be acquired, merged or consolidated, for which the certificate is being sought, is located;
(5) A statement that any member of the public desiring to protest or support the application may communicate in writing with the Federal Communications Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before a specified date which shall be thirty (30) days from the date of first posting of the notice.

(b) Immediately upon the filing of an application of the nature described in paragraph (a) of this section, the applicant shall also cause to be published a notice of not less than four (4) column inches in size containing information listed in paragraph (a) (1) through (5) of this section at least once during each of two consecutive weeks, in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the community or communities to be affected, or in lieu of causing a notice to be published, the applicant shall have the alternative of mailing or delivering by messenger a notification containing information similar to that specified in paragraph (a) (1) through (5) of this section, to each subscriber of telephone service in the areas affected.

(c) When the posting, as required by paragraph (a) of this section, has been completed, applicant shall certify such fact to the Commission, stating the dates and places of posting.

(d) When the publication or notification, as required in paragraph (b) of this section, has been completed, the applicant shall submit to the Commission an affidavit evidencing due publication or notification thereof.

§ 66.14 General provisions.—(a) Copies required. The original and five copies of the application shall be furnished to the Commission for its use.

(b) Additional information. The applicant shall furnish any additional information which the Commission may require after a preliminary examination of the application.

(c) Form. Applications under section 221 (a) of the Communications Act shall be submitted on paper not more than 8½ inches wide and not more than 14 inches long, with a left-hand margin of at least 1½ inches. This requirement shall not apply to original documents, or admissible copies thereof, offered as exhibits or to specially prepared exhibits. The impression shall be on one side of the paper only and shall be double-spaced, except that long quotations may be single-spaced and indented. All papers, except charts and maps, shall be typewritten or prepared by mechanical processing methods, other than letter press, or printed. The foregoing shall not apply to official publications. All copies must be clearly legible.

§ 66.15 Procedure. A public hearing is held with respect to each of these applications where a request therefor is made by a telephone company, an association of telephone companies, a State Commission, or a local governmental authority, or in such other cases as the Commission may determine. Where hearings are to be held, reasonable notice thereof is given by the Commission to the Governor of each State in which the physical property affected, or any part thereof, is situated, and to the State commission having jurisdiction over the telephone companies and to such other parties as the Commission may deem advisable.

W. WRIGHT ESCH

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

In re application of W. Wright Esch to assign the license of Station WMFJ, Daytona Beach, Florida, from W. Wright Esch to WMFJ, Inc., Docket No. 11808, File No. BAL-2029.

1 The Commission has before it for consideration (a) a "Protest and Petition for Reconsideration" filed on July 28, 1955, pursuant to Sections 309 (c) and 405 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, by Theodore Granik and William H. Cook, directed against the Commission's action of June 29, 1955, granting without hearing the above-entitled application; (b) oppositions thereto filed on August 16, 1955, by W. Wright Esch and on August 16, 1955 by WMFJ, Inc.; (c) the Commission's Memorandum Opinion and Order adopted August 29, 1955 (FCC 55-861) dismissing the protest on the grounds that the complainants were not parties in interest or persons aggrieved or adversely affected by the Commission's action; (d) the decision of the United States Courts of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in the case of Theodore Granik and William H. Cook v. Federal Communications Commission, decided May 31, 1956; and (e) letters from all parties concerned dated July 2, 1956, with respect to the stay provisions of Section 309 (c).

2. The factual situation involved in the instant protest and the arguments of the parties are set out in full in the Commission's Memorandum Opinion and Order of August 29, 1955, and need not be repeated herein. In essence, Messrs. Granik and Cook allege that they had entered into an option agreement with W. Wright Esch to purchase Station WMFJ; that they exercised this option; that Esch cancelled the option unilaterally; that Granik and Cook are suing Esch in the Florida courts to enforce the option contract; and that Esch's conduct with respect to said option agreement and his misrepresentation and concealment with respect to his ownership interest in Telrad, Inc., a television permittee, raise a substantial question as to whether he is lacking in the character qualifications necessary for a broadcast licensee and whether the transfer is in the public interest in these circumstances. On the basis of the pleadings before it, the Commission determined that Messrs. Granik and Cook, were not parties in interest or persons aggrieved or adversely affected within the meaning of Sections 309 (c) and 405 of the Communications Act and accordingly dismissed the July 28, 1955 "Protest and Petition for Reconsideration." Upon appeal the Court of Appeals in its decision of May 31, 1956 stated: "We think Granik and Cook had standing to protest under Section 309 (c) and to petition for reconsideration under Section 405. By contract, they had secured an interest in Esch's ownership of the license . . ."

3. In light of the above, we find that protestants are "parties in interest" and persons "aggrieved or whose interests are adversely affected" within the meaning of Sections 309 (c) and 405 of the Act. Granik, et al., v. FCC, supra. We find further that the protestants have specified with particularity the facts upon which they rely to show that the Commission's grant was not in the public interest. A question is thus presented as to the type of hearing which is required with respect to protestants' issues. Section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, states as follows: "The Commission shall, within thirty days of the filing of the protest, render a decision making findings as to the sufficiency of the protest in meeting the above requirements; and, where it so finds, shall designate the application for hearing upon issues relating to all matters specified in the protest as grounds for setting aside the grant, except with respect to such matters as to which the Commission, after affording protestant an opportunity for oral argument, finds, for reasons set forth in the decision, that, even if the facts alleged were to be proven, no grounds for setting aside the grant are presented."

The instant protest contains allegations of fact, and conclusions drawn therefrom by the protestants. The facts alleged, are, in substance, the same as facts which were alleged in correspondence filed by the protestants prior to the Commission's grant of the above-entitled application. Upon consideration of these facts, the Commission then found that a grant of the application would be in the public interest. We have given further consideration to the facts alleged in the protest and upon such consideration, it appears that even if these facts were proven, no grounds would be presented for setting aside our grant. Therefore, we shall afford the parties an opportunity at oral argument to discuss the question of how the facts alleged may bear upon the public interest in said grant. With respect to the litigation in the Florida Courts, it has been the general policy of the Commission not to deny applications because of the pendency of litigation primarily involving private disputes, and it appears to us, in any event, that the alleged breach of contract, if it occurred, would not warrant a denial of the application for transfer. As to the alleged unauthorized transfer of control, we pointed out in a letter to the protestants, dated April 25, 1956, that the Commission's records indicate that full information regarding Esch's ownership interest in Telrad, Inc., has been continuously on file with the Commisison; that there is no evidence that Esch attempted to conceal from the Commisison any pertinent facts concerning the ownership of the permittee corporation; that although Esch owned only 40 percent of the stock of the permittee and surrendered his rights to subscribe for a majority interest, all of the remaining shares of stock continued to be held by Esch's wife and attorney; and that, consequently, although a technical transfer of control may have taken place, there was not a violation of the Communications Act or the Commission's Rules sufficiently serious to warrant designating the application for hearing. These questions should be among those to which the parties should address themselves in the argument, as well as any others they deem relevant.[1]

5. The protest filed by Messrs. Granik and Cook requests, in addition that the Commission stay the effective date of its grant of the assignment application and, if such assignment has been actually consummated, require "that Station WMFJ be returned to the Assignor so that the relief requested above can apply." By letter dated June 22, 1956, the Commission requested all parties to this proceeding to submit their comments with respect to the stay provisions of Section 309 (c) as they apply to the matter in question. In the reply filed by Messrs. Granik and Cook, the protestants adopt the position which, they allege, the assignee WMFJ, Inc. took in its intervention in the Court of Appeals case, namely that Section 309 (c) requires the Commission to stay the effectiveness of the grant and that WMFJ, Inc. would be required to relinquish control of Station WMFJ pending a final hearing. In its reply, WMFJ, Inc. requests that the Commission authorize it to continue operating Station WMFJ pending the outcome of the proceeding.[2] In support of its request WMFJ, Inc. alleges that there is little likelihood that Messrs. Granik and Cook will succeed upon the merits; that they have alleged that Mr. Esch is not fit to be a broadcast licensee and if such is the case it is clear that the public interest would be served by WMFJ, Inc. operating the station, since it is a licensee whose qualifications have not been questioned; and that WMFJ, Inc. would be irreparably injured by the return of the license to Mr. Esch. It is argued that WMFJ, Inc. has changed its position substantially by spending money on the station, by reorganizing the staff and programs of the station, by moving the main studios of the station, and by adding considerable new equipment. It is further argued that the dislocation would impair the quality of the service provided to the public and that there is grave doubt whether Mr. Esch could in fact take over the station since he might not be able to secure a lease for the present WMFJ studios. Finally, it is pointed out that denial of the relief requested will in no way harm Messrs. Granik and Cook since the ultimate relief in the case must come in the Florida courts, which courts refused to enjoin the assignment. The reply filed by W. Wright Esch reiterated the arguments advanced by WMFJ, Inc.

6. Section 309 (c) provides, in part, as follows: ". . . pending hearing and decision the effective date of the Commission's action to which protest is made shall be postponed to the effective date of the Commission's decision after hearing, unless the authorization involved is necessary to the maintenance or conduct of an existing service, or unless the Commission affirmatively finds for reasons set forth in the decision that the public interest requires that the grant remain in effect, in which event the Commission shall authorize the applicant to utilize the facilities or authorization in question pending the Commission's decision after hearing."

We are of the opinion that the parties herein have not demonstrated that a denial of a stay of the effective date of the Commission's action granting the assignment "is necessary to the maintenance or conduct of an existing service."[3] Mr. Esch operated Station WMFJ for many years and his inability to resume control of the station has not been established, nor has cessation of the broadcast service of WMFJ been shown to be inevitable under the circumstances. We also conclude that a finding cannot be made "that the public interest requires that the grant remain in effect." The change in the position of the parties was a voluntary one, effectuated with full knowledge that an appeal had been filed on September 22, 1955, to the Commission's original denial of the protest. They were on notice that a change in the status quo might result in financial loss, confusion, inconvenience, personnel displacement or other problems. While we appreciate the extent to which private interests will be affected by a stay of our grant, we are of the view that such circumstance was not within the contemplation of Congress when it provided for a "public interest" finding by the Commission to support an avoidance of a stay. In re transfer of control of KTSA, 14 Pike and Fischer RR 85.

[1] In a related case involving basically the same issues and the same parties, filed May 21, 1956, the Commisison ordered an oral argument on a protest filed by Messrs. Granik and Cook to the transfer of control of Station WESH-TV from W. Wright Esch to WCOA, Inc. (BTC-2175).

[2] The Commission's files indicate that the assignment of the license for Station WMFJ to WMFJ, Inc. was consummated on October 1, 1955.

[3] In this regard, Messrs. Granik and Cook contend in their letter of July 2, 1956, concerning the stay provisions of Section 309 (c) that the January 20, 1956 amendment to Section 309 (c) is not controlling "since Congress made it quite clear that the amended section was not to be retroactive, and that the provisions of the older Section 309 (c) were to apply to all protests which were filed prior to the adoption of the amendment." We find this contention to be without merit. We have heretofore held that the amendment being remedial or procedural, it is immediately applicable to existing causes of action and not merely to those which may accrue in the future. In re WHEC, Inc., 13 Pike and Fischer RR 500; In re Cherry and Webb Broadcasting Co., FCC 56-731, released July 26, 1956.

7. In view of the foregoing, It is ordered, That, the petition for reconsideration filed under Section 405 of the Communications Act is granted to the extent provided for herein and is denied in all other respects; that pursuant to Section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled application is designated for oral argument at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., on the question whether, if the facts alleged in the protest were to be proven, grounds have been presented for setting aside the grant of said application; and that the effective date of the grant of the above-entitled application is postponed pending a final determination by the Commission in the proceeding described below.

8. It is further ordered, That the protestants and the Chief, Broadcast Bureau, are hereby made parties to the proceedings herein and that:

(1) The oral argument shall commence at 10:00 A. M. on the 17th day of September, 1956, and shall be held before the Commission en banc;

(2) The parties intending to participate in the oral argument shall file their appearances not later than September 10, 1956;

(3) The parties to the proceeding have until the date of the oral argument to file briefs or memoranda of law.

9. It is further ordered, That the parties to the above-entitled application have until October 1, 1956, to return control of Station WMFJ to W. Wright Esch.

Adopted: August 29, 1956.

Released: September 5, 1956.

CHIEF, COMMON CARRIER BUREAU

AUTHORIZATION TO ACT UPON CERTAIN APPLICATIONS FILED BY TELEPHONE COMPANIES

In the matter of amendment of section 0.255 of Part O, Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority and Other Information, to provide authorization for the Chief of the Common Carrier Bureau to act upon applications filed by telephone companies under section 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, where the proposed expenditure for consolidation, acquisition or control is less than $500,000, and where public hearings are not held with respect to such applications.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of August 1956;

The Commission, having under consideration the matter of expediting action on applications filed with it by domestic telephone companies for authority under section 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, to consolidate their properties or a part thereof into a single company, or for authority for one or more companies to acquire the whole or part of the property of another telephone company or other telephone companies or the control thereof by the purchase of securities, or by lease or in any other like manner; and the requirements of that section, as revised effective August 2, 1956, which provide that public hearings with respect to such applications are mandatory only where a request therefor is made by a telephone company, an association of telephone companies, a State commission or local governmental authority; and

It appearing, that, where public hearings are not held with respect to such applications, it would be conducive to the orderly dispatch of the Commission's business to authorize the Chief of the Common Carrier Bureau to act upon such applications, where the proposed expenditure for consolidation, acquisition or control is less than $500,000;

It further appearing, That Notice of Proposed Rule Making is not required by the provisions of Section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act since the amendments of the rules herein relate to internal Commission organization and procedure which is not substantive in nature;

It further appearing, that authority for the proposed rule is contained in sections 4 (i) and 5 (d) (1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is hereby ordered, That, effective September 6, 1956, section 0.255 of Part O—Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority and Other Information, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 0.255 Authority concerning section 221 (a) of the Act. The Chief of the Common Carrier Bureau or, in his absence, the Acting Chief of the Common Carrier Bureau, is delegated authority:

(a) To determine upon consideration of all relevant factors whether hearings shall be held on applications filed under Section 221 (a) where no request therefor has been made by a telephone company, an association of telephone companies, a State Commission or local government authority;

(b) To fix the time and place for hearings he determines shall be held under (a) above or where a request therefor has been made by a telephone company, an association of telephone companies, a State Commission or local government authority; and to give reasonable notice in writing to the Governor of each of the States in which the physical property affected, or any part thereof, is situated, to the State Commission having jurisdiction over telephone companies, and to such other persons as he may deem advisable; and

(c) To act in all other cases upon applications filed under section 221 (a) where the proposed expenditure for consolidation, acquisition or control is less than $500,000.

Released: September 4, 1956.

COMMON CARRIER BUREAU

AMENDMENT OF STATEMENT OF ORGANIZATION

In the matter of amendment of Part 0, Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority and Other Information, to reflect certain changes in the organization of the Common Carrier Bureau and delegation of authority to the Chief of the Bureau.

The Commission, having under consideration its Order of June 6, 1956, establishing a new Domestic Radio Facilities Division in the Common Carrier Bureau and transferring thereto certain functions of the Telephone Division of such Bureau, and having also under consideration certain other organizational changes heretofore effected in such Bureau, and the need for making appropriate non-substantive editorial amendments to Part 0 so as to set forth such organizational changes, and to clarify the delegation of authority to the Chief of the Bureau in the light of the adoption of Part 21 of our Rules; and

It appearing, that these changes may be made effective immediately, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act;

It is ordered, This 5th day of September, 1956, that, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 (i), 5 (d) (1) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.341 (a) of the Statement or Organization, Part 0 is amended, effectively immediately, as set forth below.

Released: September 5, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Section 0.21 is amended by adding new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) Appraises technological developments in the art and other innovations having applications in the communications common carrier field.

2. Section 0.23 is amended to read as follows:

0.23 Units in the Bureau. The Common Carrier Bureau is divided into the following units:

(a) Office of the Bureau Chief
(b) Telegraph Division
(c) Telephone Division
(d) International Division
(e) Domestic Radio Facilities Division

3. Section 0.24 is amended to read as follows:

0.24 The Office of the Bureau Chief. The Office of the Chief of the Bureau includes:

(a) Office of Accounting Systems which formulates uniform systems of accounts, regulations for preservation of records, annual report forms, and related rules and regulations, cooperates with Committees of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners dealing with the foregoing matters, collects, processes, compiles and publishes common carrier statistical data, and appraises on an across-industry basis technological developments in the art and other innovations having applications in the communications common carrier field. The Office of Acounting Systems includes an Accounting Branch and a Statistical Branch.

(b) Office of the Field Coordinator which supervises and coordinates the work of the Common Carrier Bureau Field Offices located at Room 604, 90 Church Street, New York 7, New York; Room 124, 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California, and Room 334, 815 Ohio Street, St. Louis, Missouri. The Field Offices are responsible for conducting investigations and studies on any problem assigned by the Office of the Chief of the Bureau; representing the Commission in contacts with the public and the carriers; and conducting compliance activities to assure that there is adherence to the Communications Act and Commission rules and regulations.

(c) Office of the Administrative Assistant which performs the administrative functions of the Bureau.

(d) License Branch which maintains files and records with respect to applications and petitions involving common carrier wire and radio services, and which issues the orders, authorizations, licenses and certificates appropriate thereto after approval of same by the Commission or staff.

4. Delete sections 0.25 and 0.26 and renumber sections 0.27, 0.28 and 0.29 as sections 0.25, 0.26 and 0.27, respectively.

5. Add a new section 0.28 to follow the above renumbered sections to read as follows:

0.28 Domestic Radio Facilities Division. The Domestic Radio Facilities Division is responsible for the Bureau's functions pertaining to the regulation of, establishment and implementation of, rules and regulations for, and policies for, and the processing of applications with respect to, the radio services and facilities of the domestic common carriers, including domestic telegraph radio carriers.

6. Section 0.26 (formerly section 0.28 and now renumbered above) is amended to read as follows:

0.26 Telephone Division. The Telephone Division is responsible for the Bureau's functions pertaining to telephone matters and telegraph operations of carriers engaged principally in nonrecord communication, including international telephone rate matters, except as delegated herein to the Domestic Radio Facilities Division. The Telephone Division shall include a Wire Services and Facilities Branch, an Accounting Compliance Branch, a Rates and Revenue Requirements Branch, and a Depreciation Rates Branch.

7. Section 0.30 is deleted.

8. Section 0.251 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) For developmental stations which render or propose to render a common carrier service.

THIRD PARTY MESSAGES BETWEEN AMATEUR STATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

AUGUST 24, 1956.

In accordance with an official communication from the Department of State, the Commission is today announcing that a bilateral agreement between the United States and the Republic of Panama directly affecting licensed amateurs of the two countries has been concluded by an exchange of notes. Effective as of 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., on September 1, 1956, under the terms of this agreement, amateur radio stations of the Republic of Panama and of the United States may exchange international messages or other communications from or to third parties, provided:

1. No compensation may be directly or indirectly paid on such messages or communications.

2. Such communications shall be limited to conversations or messages of a technical or personal nature for which, by reason of their unimportance, recourse to the public telecommunications service is not justified. To the extent that in the event of disaster, the public telecommunications service is not readily available for expeditious handling of communications relating directly to safety of life or property, such communications may be handled by amateur stations of the respective countries.

3. This arrangement shall apply to all the continental and insular territory of Panama and of the United States including Alaska, the Hawaiian Islands, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. It shall also be applicable to those cases concerning amateur stations licensed by the United States authorities to United States citizens in other areas of the world in which the United States exercises licensing authority.

4. This arrangement shall be subject to termination by either government on sixty days notice to the other government; by further arrangement between the two governments dealing with the same subject; or by the enactment of legislation in either country inconsistent therewith.

As a matter of related interest, amateur stations licensed by the Federal Communications Commission heretofore have been able, under and in accordance with the terms of previously effected arrangements, to exchange internationally, messages or other communications from or to third parties with amateur stations of Canada, Chile, Cuba, Peru, Ecuador, and Liberia.

PONCE DE LEON BROADCASTING CO., INC., OF PUERTO RICO, ET AL.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re applications of Ponce de Leon Broadcasting Co., Inc. of P. R., Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, Docket No. 11288, File No. BPCT-1906; Sucesion Luis Pirallo-Castellanos, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, File No. BPCT-2158; Department of Education of Puerto Rico, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, File No. BPCT-2159; For Construction Permits for New Television Stations (Channel 3).

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration a joint petition filed on August 30, 1956, on behalf of Sucesion Luis Pirallo-Castellanos and the Department of Education of Puerto Rico, requesting that the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding, now scheduled to be held on September 7, 1956, be postponed until October 29, 1956; and an opposition thereto, filed on August 31, 1956, on behalf of Ponce de Leon Broadcasting Company, Inc., of P. R.; and

It appearing, that a continuance of the hearing in the said proceeding is necessary in view of the fact that an order of designation has not yet been issued by the Commission defining the issues to be resolved therein, and in order to afford sufficient time to hold pre-hearing conferences and to effect an exchange of exhibits between the parties thereto, in compliance with §§ 1.813 and 1.841 of the Commission's rules; and that therefore sufficient good cause has been shown to warrant a grant of the relief requested herein;

It is ordered, This 5th day of September 1956, that the above petition be, and it is hereby, granted, and that the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding is hereby continued until 10:00 o'clock a. m. on Monday, October 29, 1956, in the offices of this Commission, Washington, D. C.

In re application of John Alexander, George B. Dent, Jr. and Townsend E. Dent d/b as Radio Station KODY (KODY) North Platte, Nebraska, Docket No. 11775, File No. BP-10333, for construction permit.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration the procedure to be followed in the above-entitled matter which is scheduled for hearing on September 24, 1956; and

It appearing that counsel for the applicant, the respondent, North Dakota Broadcasting Company, Inc., and the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau have informally consented to appear at the pre-hearing conference hereinafter ordered; now therefore,

It is ordered, This 4th day of September 1956, pursuant to §§ 1.813 and 1.841 of the Commission's Rules, that the parties or their attorneys shall appear at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C. at 10:00 a. m., on Tuesday, September 11, 1956 for a conference to consider:

1. The necessity or desirability of simplification, clarification, amplification, or limitation of the issues;

2. The possibility of stipulating with respect to facts;

3. The procedures to be followed prior to and at the hearing;

4. The limitation of the number of witnesses;

5. The procedures and schedules for the prior mutual exchange between the parties of prepared testimony and exhibits; and

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter IV—Commodity Stabilization Service and Commodity Credit Corporation, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Loans, Purchases, and Other Operations

PART 464—TOBACCO

SUBPART—1956 TOBACCO LOAN PROGRAM

DEDUCTIONS FROM ADVANCES; ELIGIBLE PRODUCER

The statement with respect to the tobacco price support loan program for the 1956–57 marketing year (21 F. R. 3863) is hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 464.804 is amended to read as follows:

§ 464.804 Deductions from advances. (a) The associations will be required to bear a portion of the overhead costs in connection with the loan operation. For this purpose, the associations in the auction marketing areas will be authorized to charge the producer a fee of 12 cents per hundred pounds and such other deductions as may be authorized or approved by CCC. Such charges may be collected by a deduction from the advance made to the producer on his tobacco or by arrangements with the auction warehouseman under which he will collect such charges and remit to the association. In the non-auction market areas, the fee will be established at a rate commensurate with the relative cost of the services performed by the association.

(b) If any producer on a farm is indebted to the United States and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, the Government will effect collection of the amount of the indebtedness by setoff from the amount of price support advance due the producer in the following manner: Any within-quota marketing card issued for such farm in accordance with the applicable regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to marketing quotas for the 1956–57 marketing year will bear the notation "Indebted to U. S." on the front cover thereof and on the County Office copy of each memorandum of sale, and the name of the debtor and the amount of the indebtedness will be shown on the inside back cover of the marketing card. The acceptance and use of a within-quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States by the producer named as debtor on such card will constitute an authorization by such producer to any tobacco warehouseman to pay to the United States the price support advance due the producer to the extent of his indebtedness set forth on such card but not to exceed that portion of the price support advance remaining after deduction of usual warehouse and authorized price support charges and amounts due prior lienholders. The acceptance and use of a within-quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States will not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the validity of such indebtedness by appropriate administrative appeal or legal action. Under the marketing quota regulations issude by the Secretary, if the producer named as debtor on the card objects to the issuance, or after issuance to the use, of a within-quota marketing card bearing the notation and information of indebtedness to the United States thereon, he may elect to receive an excess marketing card showing "zero percent" penalty, in which event the producer will be ineligible for price support loans.

2. Section 464.808 is amended to read as follows:

§ 464.808 Eligible producer. (a) An eligible producer is one for whom a within-quota marketing card has been issued under the applicable regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to tobacco marketing quotas for the 1956–57 marketing year. (In general, the regulations in this subpart provide for the issuance of a within-quota marketing card where the tobacco acreage harvested for each kind of tobacco pro-

AUTHORITY: §§ 52.3001 to 52.3012 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION, TYPES, STYLES, AND GRADES

§ 52.3001 Product description. "Frozen sweet peppers" is the frozen product prepared from fresh, clean, sound, firm pods of the common commercial varieties of sweet peppers, which have been properly prepared, may or may not be blanched and are then frozen in accordance with good commercial practice and maintained at temperatures necessary for the preservation of the product.

§ 52.3002 Types of frozen sweet peppers. (a) Type I, green.

(b) Type II, red.

(c) Type III, mixed (green and red).

§ 52.3003 Styles of frozen sweet peppers. (a) "Whole stemmed" means whole unpeeled pepper pods with stem and core removed.

(b) "Whole unstemmed" means whole unpeeled pepper pods with stems trimmed to not more than ½ inch length.

(c) "Halved" means whole stemmed, unpeeled, pepper pods which have been cut approximately in half from stem to blossom end.

(d) "Sliced" means whole stemmed, unpeeled pepper pods or pieces of pepper pods which have been cut into strips.

(e) "Diced" means whole stemmed, unpeeled pepper pods or pieces of pepper pods which have been cut into approximate square pieces measuring ½ inch or less.

(f) "Unit" means a whole unpeeled pepper pod or portion of a pepper pod in frozen sweet peppers.

§ 52.3004 Grades of frozen sweet peppers. (a) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of frozen sweet peppers that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a normal flavor; that possess a good color; that are practically uniform in size and symmetry; that are practically free from defects; that possess a good character; and for those factors which are scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart the total score is not less than 85 points: Provided, That the frozen sweet peppers may be reasonably uniform in size and symmetry if the total score is not less than 85 points.

(b) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Extra Standard" is the quality of frozen sweet peppers that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a normal flavor; that possess a reasonably good color; that are reasonably uniform in size and symmetry; that are reasonably free from defects; that possess a reasonably good character; and for those factors which are scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart the total score is not less than 70 points: Provided, That the frozen sweet peppers may be variable in size and symmetry if the total score is not less than 70 points.

(c) "Substandard" is the quality of frozen sweet peppers that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 52.3005 Ascertaining the grade—(a) General. In addition to considering other requirements outlined in the standards the following quality factors are evaluated:

(1) Factors not rated by score points.
(i) Varietal characteristics.
(ii) Flavor.

(2) Factors rated by score points. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

Factors:	Points
Color	20
Uniformity of size and symmetry	20
Defects	30
Character	30
Total score	100

The evaluation of the factors of quality are made immediately after thawing to the extent that the product is substantially free from ice crystals and can be handled as individual units.

(b) Normal flavor. "Normal flavor" means that the product is free from objectionable flavor and objectionable odors of any kind.

§ 52.3006 Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive. (For example, "27 to 30 points" means 27, 28, 29, or 30 points.)

§ 52.3007 Color—(a) General. The color of frozen sweet peppers has reference to the predominating and characteristic color of the exterior surface of the units of frozen sweet peppers.

(b) (A) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that possess a good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good color" means a good characteristic bright color for the type and with respect to type I and type II variations in color do not materially affect the appearance of the product.

(c) (B) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that possess a reasonably good color may be given a score of 14 to 16 points. Frozen sweet peppers that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good color" means a reasonably bright characteristic color for the type and with respect to Type I and Type II variations in color do not seriously affect the appearance of the product.

NOTE: When the appearance of the product is seriously affected by a mixture of Type I and Type II units consider as Type III.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section or are definitely dull or off color for any reason may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.3008 Uniformity of size and symmetry—(a) General. Uniformity of size and symmetry refers to the degree of variation in size and symmetry of the units in the respective styles of frozen sweet peppers.

(b) (A) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that are practically uniform in size and symmetry may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Practically uniform in size and symmetry" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles of frozen sweet peppers:

(1) Whole stemmed; whole unstemmed; halved. Not less than 90 percent, by count, of the pods shall be at least 2½ inches in length, exclusive of the stem, and 2½ inches in diameter and shall be practically uniform in size and symmetry.

(2) Sliced. The units are practically uniform in size and the aggregate weight of all strips less than 1¼ inches in length does not exceed 30 percent, by weight, of all the units.

(3) Diced. The units are practically uniform in size and the aggregate weight of all the units which are noticeably smaller than one-half the area of an average sized unit and of all markedly large and irregular-shaped units does not exceed 10 percent, by weight, of all the units.

(c) (B) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that are reasonably uniform in size and symmetry may be given a score of 14 to 16 points. "Reasonably uniform in size and symmetry" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles of frozen sweet peppers:

(1) Whole stemmed; whole unstemmed; halved. Not less than 80 percent, by count, of the pods shall be at least 2½ inches in length, exclusive of the stem, and 2½ inches in diameter and shall be reasonably uniform in size and symmetry.

(2) Sliced. The units are reasonably uniform in size and the aggregate weight of all strips less than 1¼ inches in length does not exceed 40 percent, by weight, of all the units.

(3) Diced. The units are reasonably uniform in size and the aggregate weight of all units which are noticeably smaller than one-half the area of an average sized unit and of all markedly large and irregular-shaped units does not exceed 20 percent, by weight, of all the units.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded below U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard regardless of the total score for the product.

§ 52.3009 Defects—(a) General. The factor of defects refers to the freedom from grit, sand, or silt; the trimming; and damaged and seriously damaged units.

(1) "Grit, sand, or silt" means any particle of earthy material.

(2) "Well trimmed" means that the unit is free from gouges or knife marks and with respect to whole untrimmed style that the stem is trimmed to not more than one-half inch length and with respect to whole trimmed and halved styles that the stem, core, seeds and placenta tissue are neatly removed so as to retain substantially the appearance of a whole or halved unit.

(3) "Reasonably well trimmed" means that the unit is practically free from gouges or knife marks and with respect to whole untrimmed style that the stem is trimmed to not more than one-half inch length and with respect to whole trimmed and halved styles the stem, core, seeds and placenta tissue have been removed so as to retain to a reasonable extent the appearance of a whole or halved unit.

(4) "Damage" means any injury or blemish which materially affects the appearance or eating quality of the unit.

(5) "Serious damage" means any injury or blemish which seriously affects the appearance or eating quality of the unit.

(b) (A) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 26 to 30 points. "Practically free from defects" means that the pods in whole unstemmed, whole stemmed, and halved styles are well trimmed; that no grit, sand, or silt may be present that affects the appearance and eating quality; and that damaged and seriously damaged units do not materially affect the appearance and eating quality of the product.

(c) (B) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that are reasonably free from defects may be given a score of 21 to 25 points. Frozen sweet peppers that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that the pods in whole unstemmed, whole stemmed and halved styles are reasonably well trimmed; that no grit, sand or silt may be present that affects the appearance or eating quality; and that damaged and seriously damaged units do not seriously affect the appearance and eating quality of the product.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 20 points and shall not be graded above Substandard regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.3010 Character—(a) (A) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that possess a good character may be given a score of 25 to 30 points. "Good character" means that the units are firm, full fleshed and tender.

(b) (B) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that possess a reasonably good character may be given a score of 21 to 24 points. Frozen sweet peppers that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the units are reasonably full fleshed, may lack firmness but are not soft or mushy.

(c) (SStd.) classification. Frozen sweet peppers that fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 20 points and shall not be graded above Substandard regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

LOT CERTIFICATION TOLERANCES

§ 52.3011 Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (a) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of frozen sweet peppers the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if, (1) such containers meet all of the applicable grade requirements of the factors of quality that are not rated by score points; (2) all containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification; and (3) with respect to those factors which are rated by score points:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the containers fails to meet the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(ii) None of the containers falls more than four points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(iii) None of the containers falls more than one grade below the grade indicated by the average of such total scores; and

(iv) The average score of all containers for any factor subject to a limiting rule is within the score range of that factor for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores of the containers comprising the sample.

PART 420—MULTIPLE CROP INSURANCE

SUBPART—REGULATIONS FOR THE 1956 AND SUCCEEDING CROP YEARS

Correction

In Federal Register Document 56-4959, appearing in the issue for June 23, 1956, at 21 F. R. 4473, paragraph 6 (a) (1) of the rider in § 420.63-2 should read: "(1) all the insurable acreage of all insured crops in the county in which the insured has 100 percent interest at the time of planting,".

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas and Acreage Allotments), Department of Agriculture

[1026 (Burley, Flue, Fire, Air; and Sun-56)-1, Amdt. 1]

MARKETING QUOTA REGULATIONS, 1956-57 MARKETING YEAR

The amendment contained herein is based on the marketing quota provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1311-1315) and the provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 1051). The burley, flue-cured, fire-cured, dark air-cured and Virginia sun-cured tobacco marketing quota regulations, 1956-57 marketing year, are amended to provide for listing indebtedness due the United States upon marketing cards issued pursuant to such regulations.

Since farmers are now marketing flue-cured tobacco at auction warehouses and price support advances are being made thereon, it is necessary that the provisions of this amendment become effective at the earliest possible date. Accordingly, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the notice, public procedure and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) is impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall become effective upon filing with the Division of Federal Register.

Section 725.738, paragraph (b) of the burley, flue-cured, fire-cured, dark air-cured and Virginia sun-cured tobacco marketing quota regulations, 1956-57 marketing year (21 F. R. 4502) is hereby amended by adding the following new subparagraph (3) at the end thereof:

(3) If any producer on a farm is indebted to the United States and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, any within quota marketing card issued for such farm in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall bear the notation "Indebted to U. S." on the front cover thereof and on the county office copy of each memorandum of sale, and the name of the debtor and the amount of the indebtedness shall be shown on the inside back cover of the marketing card: Provided, That if the producer named as debtor on the card objects to the issuance of or after issuance to the use of a within quota marketing card bearing the notation and information of indebtedness to the United States thereon as provided in this subparagraph, an excess marketing card (ineligible for price support loans) showing "zero percent" penalty shall be issued for such farm. The acceptance and use of a within quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States by the producer named as debtor on such card, shall constitute an authorization by such producer to any tobacco warehouseman to pay to the United States the price support advance due the producer to the extent of his indebtedness set forth on such card but not to exceed that portion of the price support advance remaining after deduction of usual warehouse and authorized price support charges and amounts due prior lien holders. The acceptance and use of a within quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States shall not constitute a waiver of any right by the producer to contest the validity of such indebtedness by appropriate administrative appeal or legal action.

[957.314 Amdt. 1]

PART 957—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR COUNTY, OREGON

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 57, as amended (7 CFR Part 957), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in certain designated counties in Idaho and Malheur County, Oregon, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by continuing the current regulation (§ 957.314, 21 F. R. 4910) governing the shipment of potatoes during the period September 20 through October 10, 1956; (iii) in the absence of such continuation, no regulation will be in effect subsequent to September 20, 1956; (iv) compliance with the said regulation during the extended period through October 10, 1956, will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by September 20, 1956; (v) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation; (vi) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area and all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to present their views thereon to the committee; and (vii) the extension of the provisions of the present regulation (§ 957.314, 21 F. R. 4910) from September 20 through October 10, 1956, as provided in this amendment, will allow the committee adequate time to meet and reappraise the supply and demand situation for fall crop potatoes grown in the production area in the light of the September 1 crop report of the Department which is to be issued September 11, 1956, and the views of interested parties that may be presented at that meeting, and will tend to continue the benefits accruing from the current regulation beyond the present expiration date of the regulation.

Order, as amended. The provisions of § 957.314 (b) (1) and (2) (FEDERAL REGISTER, July 3, 1956, 21 F. R. 4910) are hereby amended by deleting therefrom the date, "September 20, 1956," and by substituting in lieu thereof the date, "October 10, 1956."

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

[Departmental Reg. 108.297]

PART 40—DIPLOMATIC VISAS UNDER THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT

PART 41—VISAS: DOCUMENTATION OF NONIMMIGRANT ALIENS UNDER THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT

PART 42—VISAS: DOCUMENTATION OF IMMIGRANTS UNDER THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Parts 40, 41, and 42, Chapter I, Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations, are hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (b) of § 40.2 Officers authorized to issue diplomatic visas, is amended to read as follows:

(b) A consular officer assigned to a consular office may issue diplomatic visas if so authorized by the Department or by the chief of the United States diplomatic mission to the foreign country in which such consular office is located.

2. Section 40.7 Application for diplomatic visa, is amended to read as follows:

§ 40.7 Application for diplomatic visa—(a) Application form. Every alien applying for a diplomatic visa shall make application therefor on Form 257 consisting of an original and three copies, designated 257a, 257b, 257c, and 257d. The application shall be made at a United States diplomatic mission or at a United States consular office which is authorized to issue diplomatic visas, regardless of the nationality or residence of the applicant.

(b) Separate application for each alien. Every alien applying for a diplomatic visa shall make a separate application therefor. In the case of an alien under fourteen years of age, or an alien physically incapable of making an application, such application may be made by the alien's parent or guardian, and if the alien has no parent or guardian, by any person having legal custody of, or a legitimate interest in, such alien.

(c) Personal appearance. Application for a diplomatic visa shall be made in person unless this requirement is waived in the discretion of the diplomatic or consular officer. If a waiver of personal appearance is granted, the application form shall be completed by the diplomatic or consular officer from available information relating to the alien. No oath or affirmation shall be required in connection with the execution of an application for a diplomatic visa.

(d) Photographs. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, every alien applying for a diplomatic visa shall furnish with his application three identical photographs of himself. Each photograph shall be 2'' x 2'' in size, unmounted, without head covering, have a light background, and clearly show a full front view of the facial features of the alien, and shall reflect a reasonable likeness of the alien as of the time it is furnished. Each photograph shall be signed by the person making the application with the full name of the alien in such manner as not to obscure the alien's features. A child under ten years of age shall not be required to furnish photographs unless he is the bearer of a separate passport. The requirement of photographs may be waived in the discretion of the diplomatic or consular officer and, if waived, a signed notation to this effect shall be made in the space provided in the application form for the photograph.

3. Section 41.13 More than one person included in nonimmigrant visa, is amended to read as follows:

§ 41.13 More than one person included in nonimmigrant visa. A single nonimmigrant visa may be issued to include more than one eligible alien, provided each alien executes a separate application and the V-number of each application is inserted in the space provided in the visa stamp. In such a case, the visa fee to be collected shall be equal to the total of the fees prescribed by the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of section 281 of the act and § 41.14.

4. Paragraph (a) of § 41.14 Fees for nonimmigrant visas, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The fees for the furnishing and verification of applications for visas made by nonimmigrant nationals or stateless residents of each foreign country and for the issuance of visas to such nationals or residents shall be collected in the same amounts as are prescribed by the Secretary of State and shall correspond, as nearly as practicable, to the total of all similar visa, entry, residence, or other fees, taxes or charges assessed or levied against nationals of the United States, in connection with their entry or sojourn, by the foreign countries of which such nonimmigrants are nationals or stateless residents.

5. Paragraph (c) of § 41.16 Revalidation of nonimmigrant visa, is amended to read as follows:

(c) In revalidating a nonimmigrant visa, the consular officer shall follow the procedure prescribed in § 41.12, except that a new Form 257 need not be executed. The visa stamp shall be impressed in the alien's passport and all pertinent data, including the V-number, contained in the original visa shall be transferred to the revalidated visa. The word "Revalidated" shall be inserted above the words "Nonimmigrant Visa" in the visa stamp or inserted diagonally across the face of the visa. Following the revalidation of a nonimmigrant visa, an appropriate notation thereof, regardless of where the revalidation occurs, shall be made on the pertinent index card on file at the original visa-issuing office.

6. Part 41 is amended by the addition of the following new section immediately after § 41.20:

§ 41.21 Transfer of visa to new passport. (a) A valid nonimmigrant visa, including the V-number and other pertinent data contained therein, may be transferred from a passport which has expired or is about to expire to a new passport where (1) the alien is required to surrender the visaed passport to the foreign-issuing authority in exchange for a new passport, or (2) the alien is permitted to retain the expired or expiring passport containing a valid nonimmigrant visa but, nevertheless, requests a consular officer to transfer such visa to a new valid passport, and (3) the alien is found otherwise eligible to receive such a nonimmigrant visa.

(b) A formal application for the transfer of a nonimmigrant visa from one passport to another need not be required, and the consular officer may, in his discretion, waive the personal appearance of the alien if satisfied that the alien is physically present in the consular district. The issuance of a transferred visa shall, except as provided in § 41.12, be evidenced by placing the regular visa stamp in the alien's passport. The words "Transferred Visa" shall be inserted on the upper margin of the visa stamp.

(c) A transferred visa shall be validated with the same expiration date as the original visa and for the number of unused applications for admission remaining as of the date of the transfer. No visa fee shall be charged for the transfer of a valid nonimmigrant visa to a new passport. The visa in the expired or expiring passport shall be cancelled, if practicable.

7. Part 41 is amended by changing the the heading "Official Visas" which immediately precedes § 41.30 Officials of foreign governments, to read "Accredited Foreign-Government Officials."

8. Part 41 is amended by the addition of the following heading and section immediately after § 41.34:

OFFICIAL VISAS

§ 41.35 Classes of aliens eligible to apply for official visas. (a) The term "Official Visa" means a nonimmigrant visa which bears the title "Official Visa" or the designation "Official" and which is issued to a nonimmigrant within a class described or referred to in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Aliens within any of the following classes who seek to enter the United States as nonimmigrants may make application for an official visa in accordance with § 41.9:

(1) Aliens within a class described in § 40.4 of this chapter, other than paragraph (a) (14) thereof, who are otherwise ineligible to apply for a diplomatic visa by reason of the provisions of § 40.8 (a) of this chapter;

(2) Aliens classifiable under section 101 (a) (15) (A) (i) or (ii) of the act;

(3) Aliens classifiable under section 101 (a) (15) (G) (i), (ii) or (iv) of the act, or under section 101 (a) (15) (G) (iii) of the act if the government of which the alien is an accredited representative is recognized de jure by the United States but is not a member of the international organization to which the alien is destined;

(4) Aliens classifiable under section 101 (a) (15) (C) of the act as nonimmigrants described in section 212 (d) (8) of the act;

(5) Justices of the federal and the highest state tribunals of a foreign country;

(6) Members and members-elect of the national legislature of a foreign country;

(7) Officers of the national legislature of a foreign country;

(8) Members of the immediate family of a principal alien who is within one of the classes referred to or described in subparagraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of this paragraph;

(9) Any other class of aliens or individual alien in whose cases or case the Department may specifically authorize the consular officer to accept an application for an official visa.

(c) The issuance of an official visa shall be evidenced by placing the regular nonimmigrant visa stamp or an official visa stamp in the alien's passport in accordance with the provisions of § 41.12. The visa shall bear the title "Official Visa" or the word "Official" shall be stamped diagonally across the lower left-hand margin of the visa stamp in such manner as to be partially covered by the impression seal of the issuing diplomatic or consular office. The fee to be charged for an official visa and the validity thereof shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of §§ 41.14 and 41.15.

(d) No alien shall be considered to have acquired, by reason of the provisions of this section, any exemption under the immigration laws or regulations not otherwise specifically granted by such laws or regulations.

9. Section 41.64 Visa requirement for nonimmigrant crewmen, is amended by the revocation of paragraph (b) thereof and a rewording of the section to read as follows:

§ 41.64 Visa requirement for nonimmigrant crewmen. No crewman shall be considered as having complied with the provisions of section 212 (a) (26) (B) of the act relating to the requirement of valid nonimmigrant visas or border crossing identification cards unless (a) he is in possession of a valid individual nonimmigrant visa or a border crossing identification card, or (b) the requirement of a valid nonimmigrant visa or border crossing identification card has been waived in his case by the Secretary of State and the Attorney General pursuant to the authority contained in section 212 (d) (4) of the act, or (c) his name is included in a crew-list visa issued in accordance with § 41.65.

10. Subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) of § 41.71 Burden of proof and evidence of treaty-trader status, is amended to read as follows:

(3) He is employed or will be employed by a foreign person or organization of the same nationality as the alien, and will be engaged in duties of a supervisory or executive character, or if he is or will be employed in a minor capacity, he has special qualifications which make his services essential to the efficient operations of the employer's enterprise. An alien employed solely in a manual capacity shall not be entitled to classification as a treaty trader.

11. Section 41.90 Aliens coming to international organizations, is amended by revising paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) thereof to read as follows, and by the addition of paragraph (m) at the end thereof as follows:

(a) An alien applying for a nonimmigrant visa under the provisions of section 101 (a) (15) (G) (i) of the act shall be required to establish to the satisfaction of the consular officer that he seeks to enter the United States as:

(1) A designated principal resident representative of a foreign government recognized de jure by the United States, to an international organization of which the government he represents is a member; or

(2) An accredited resident member of the staff of such representative; or

(3) A member of the immediate family of such a representative, or of an accredited resident member of his staff.

(b) An alien applying for a nonimmigrant visa under the provisions of section 101 (a) (15) (G) (ii) of the act shall be required to establish to the satisfaction of the consular officer that he seeks to enter the United States as:

(1) An accredited representative, other than a designated principal resident representative described in paragraph (a) of this section, of a foreign government recognized de jure by the United States, to an international organization of which the government he represents is a member; or

(2) A member of the immediate family of such representative.

(c) An alien applying for a nonimmigrant visa under the provisions of section 101 (a) (15) (G) (iii) of the act shall be required to establish to the satisfaction of the consular officer that he seeks to enter the United States as:

(1) An accredited representative of a foreign government not recognized de jure by the United States, to an international organization of which the government he represents is a member; or

(2) An accredited representative of a foreign government recognized de jure by the United States, to an international organization of which the government he represents is not a member; or

(3) An accredited representative of a foreign government not recognized de jure by the United States, to an international organization of which the government he represents is not a member; or

(4) A member of the immediate family of a representative as described in subparagraph (1), (2) or (3) of this paragraph.

• • • • •

(m) An alien who applies for a visa as a nonimmigrant under the provisions of section 101 (a) (15) (G) of the act shall not be refused such visa solely on the ground that he is not a national of the country whose government he represents.

12. Paragraph (b) of § 42.3 Immigrant classification symbols, is amended by deleting from the chart which sets forth the symbols prescribed for use in issuing nonquota immigrant visas the ninth class listed therein reading as follows:

Person who lost United States citizenship through parent's foreign naturalization	101 (a) (27) (E) and 349 (a) (1)——P–3.

13. Paragraph (a) Burden of proof and paragraph (c) Authority to require supporting documents of § 42.5 Returning resident alien, are amended to read as follows:

(a) Burden of proof. An alien shall, regardless of ancestry, be issued an immigrant visa as a nonquota immigrant under the provisions of section 101 (a) (27) (B) of the act only if he sustains the burden of establishing through the presentation of appropriate evidence that (1) he has the status of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, (2) he is returning to the United States from a temporary visit abroad, and (3) he is otherwise eligible to receive an immigrant visa under the provisions of section 212 of the act and § 42.42.

• • • • •

(c) Authority to require supporting documents. The provisions of section 222 (b) of the act requiring an immigrant to furnish with his application for a visa certain records and documents shall be applicable, in the case of an alien who is classifiable as a nonquota immigrant under the provisions of section 101 (a) (27) (B) of the act, to the extent of requiring such alien to furnish those records and documents which relate to the period of his residence in the United States and the period of his temporary visit abroad, unless the consular officer has reason to question the legality of the alien's previous admission into the United States for permanent residence, or his eligibility otherwise to receive an immigrant visa. If any such record or document is not obtainable within the meaning of § 42.35 (c), the consular officer may permit the alien to submit, in lieu thereof, other satisfactory evidence of the fact to which the record or document would, if obtainable, pertain.

14. Paragraph (c) Children expatriates of § 42.7 Former United States citizens, is revoked.

15. Section 42.20 Immigrant waiting lists, is amended by the addition of the following paragraph (b) and by the redesignation of paragraphs (b) and (c) as paragraphs (c) and (d), respectively:

(b) Place of registration. Every alien who desires to have his name registered on a quota waiting list shall make application for registration at a United States consular office in the consular district in which he has his residence: Provided, That a consular officer shall, at the direction of the Secretary of State, or may in his discretion, accept an application for registration from nonresidents of the consular district, including aliens in the United States who are entitled to have their names entered on a quota or subquota waiting list.

16. Paragraph (b) Exceptions of § 42.36 Passport requirement for immigrants, is amended by redesignating subparagraph (7) as subparagraph (8), and by the addition of a new subparagraph (7) as follows:

(7) An immigrant who has been preexamined in the United States by the Immigration and Naturalization Service and who is applying for an immigrant visa in Canada;

17. Subparagraph (28) (v) War criminals of paragraph (a) of § 42.42 Classes of aliens ineligible to receive immigrant visas, is revoked, and subparagraph (29) Activities relating to espionage, sabotage, public disorder, or other subversive activity, of paragraph (a) of § 42.42 Classes of aliens ineligible to receive immigrant visas, is amended by deleting the text thereof and inserting the word "[Reserved]" immediately after the title of subparagraph numbered 29.

The regulations contained in this order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 103) relative to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date are inapplicable to this order because the regulations contained therein involve foreign affairs functions of the United States.

Dated: August 29, 1956.

GRADES

§ 51.1855 U. S. No. 1. "U. S. No. 1" consists of tomatoes of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, but not overripe or soft (except that mature green tomatoes shall be at least firm), which are clean, well developed, fairly well formed, fairly smooth, and which are free from decay, freezing injury and sunscald, and free from damage caused by bruises, cuts and broken skins, internal discoloration, sunburn, puffiness, catfaces, other scars, growth cracks, hail, insects, disease, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Tolerances. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling the following tolerances shall be permitted:

(1) At shipping point (or in shipments from points outside the continental United States when inspected at points of entry) not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for defects causing serious damage, and including in this latter amount not more than 1 percent for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay; and,

(2) En route or at destination, not more than a total of 15 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That included in this amount not more than the following percentages shall be allowed for the defects listed:

5 percent for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay;

10 percent for tomatoes which are damaged by shoulder bruises or by discolored or sunken scars on any parts of the tomatoes, and 10 percent for tomatoes which are otherwise defective: Provided, That not more than a total of 5 percent shall be allowed for tomatoes which are seriously damaged by any cause, exclusive of soft or decayed tomatoes.

§ 51.1856 U. S. Combination. "U. S. Combination" consists of a combination of U. S. No. 1 and U. S. No. 2 tomatoes: Provided, That at least 60 percent, by count, meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade.

(a) Tolerances. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling the following tolerances shall be permitted:

(1) At shipping point (or in shipments from points outside the continental United States when inspected at points of entry) not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade: Provided, That not more than one-tenth of this amount, or 1 percent, shall be allowed for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay; and,

(2) En route or at destination, not more than a total of 15 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade: Provided, That included in this amount not more than the following precentages shall be allowed for the defects listed:

5 percent for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay;

10 percent for tomatoes which are seriously damaged by shoulder bruises or by discolored or sunken scars on any parts of the tomatoes, and 10 percent for tomatoes which are otherwise defective: Provided, That not more than a total of 5 percent shall be allowed for tomatoes which are very seriously damaged by any cause, exclusive of soft or decayed tomatoes.

(b) No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce for the lot as a whole the percentage of U. S. No. 1 tomatoes required in the combination, but individual containers may have not more than 10 percent less than the percentage of U. S. No. 1 required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the required percentage.

§ 51.1857 U. S. No. 2. "U. S. No. 2" consists of tomatoes of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, but not overripe or soft (except that mature green tomatoes shall be at least firm), which are clean, well developed, reasonably well formed, which may be slightly rough, and which are free from decay, freezing injury and sunscald and free from serious damage caused by bruises, cuts and broken skins, internal discoloration, sunburn, puffiness, catfaces, other scars, growth cracks, hail, insects, disease, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Tolerances. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling the following tolerances shall be permitted:

(1) At shipping point (or in shipments from points outside the continental United States when inspected at points of entry) not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That not more than one-tenth of this amount, or 1 percent, shall be allowed for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay; and,

(2) En route or at destination, not more than a total of 15 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That included in this amount not more than the following percentages shall be allowed for the defects listed:

5 percent for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay;

10 percent for tomatoes which are seriously damaged by shoulder bruises or by discolored or sunken scars on any parts of the tomatoes, and 10 percent for tomatoes which are otherwise defective: Provided, That not more than a total of 5 percent shall be allowed for tomatoes which are very seriously damaged by any cause, exclusive of soft or decayed tomatoes.

§ 51.1858 U. S. No. 3. "U. S. No. 3" consists of tomatoes of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, but not overripe or soft (except that mature green tomatoes shall be at least firm), which are clean, well developed, which may be misshapen, which are free from decay and freezing injury and free from serious damage caused by sunscald and from very serious damage caused by bruises, cuts and broken skins, internal discoloration, sunburn, puffiness, catfaces, other scars, growth cracks, hail, insects, disease or mechanical or other means.

(a) Tolerances. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling the following tolerances shall be permitted:

(1) At shipping points (or in shipments from points outside the continental United States when inspected at points of entry) not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That not more than one-tenth of this amount, or 1 percent, shall be allowed for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay; and,

(2) En route or at destination, not more than a total of 15 percent, by count, for tomatoes in any lot which fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That included in this amount not more than the following percentages shall be allowed for the defects listed:

5 percent for tomatoes which are soft or affected by decay;

10 percent for tomatoes which are very seriously damaged by shoulder bruises or by discolored or sunken scars on any parts of the tomatoes; and,

10 percent for tomatoes otherwise defective.

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.1859 Unclassified. "Unclassified" consists of tomatoes which have not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

SIZE REQUIREMENTS

§ 51.1860 Size requirements. (a) Tomatoes when packed in Los Angeles lugs, or when packed in other types of containers and the size is specified according to the size arrangements customarily used in Los Angeles lugs, shall be within the ranges of diameters specified in Table I, except when designated as "Irregular sizing."

TABLE I

Los Angeles lug size arrangements	Minimum diameter	Maximum diameter
	Inches	Inches
4 x 4	3 5/16	3 15/16
4 x 5	3	3 9/16
5 x 5	2 15/16	3 5/16
5 x 6	2 13/16	3 1/16
6 x 6	2 5/16	2 15/16
6 x 7	2 1/16	2 9/16
7 x 7	2	2 5/16
7 x 8	1 15/16	2 1/16

(b) Size arrangements not listed in the above table but which meet the diameter requirements for one of the above Los Angeles lug size arrangements may be certified as meeting the Los Angeles lug size requirements for the specified size: Provided, That there shall not be a variation of more than 2 tomatoes in a layer between the two size arrangements, except that a variation of not more than 4 tomatoes in a layer shall be permitted in sizes smaller than 6 x 7. For example, a 4—4 x 6 offset pack has 24 tomatoes per layer and should be sized in accordance with the diameter requirements for 5 x 5 which has 25 tomatoes per layer. A 4—5 x 9 diagonal pack has 40 or 41 tomatoes per layer and should be sized in accordance with the requirements for 6 x 7 which has 42 tomatoes per layer.

(c) In determining compliance with the above size arrangements the measurement for minimum diameter shall be the largest diameter of the tomato measured at right angles to a line from the stem end to the blossom end. The measurement for maximum diameter shall be the smallest dimension of the tomato determined by passing the tomato through a round opening in any position.

(d) In lieu of specifying size according to the Los Angeles lug size arrangements, the size of tomatoes in any type of container may be specified in terms of minimum diameter or in terms of minimum and maximum diameters expressed in whole inches, or whole inches and not less than thirty-second inch fractions thereof, in accordance with the facts, with reference to Los Angeles lug size arrangements. Such minimum diameter, or minimum and maximum diameters, shall be the largest diameter of the tomato measured at right angles to a line from the stem end to the blossom end.

(e) In order to allow for variations incident to proper sizing, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the tomatoes in any lot may be smaller than the specified minimum diameter, or larger than the specified maximum diameter.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

§ 51.1861 Application of tolerances. (a) The contents of individual packages in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade:

(1) For packages which contain more than 5 pounds, and a tolerance of 10 percent or more is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified. For packages which contain more than 5 pounds and a tolerance of less than 10 percent is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one defective and one off-size specimen may be permitted in any package; and,

(2) For packages which contain 5 pounds or less, individual packages in any lot are not restricted as to the percentage of defects or off-size: Provided, That not more than one tomato which is soft, affected by decay or is otherwise seriously damaged, and one off-size specimen, may be permitted in any package.

U. S. STANDARD PACKS

§ 51.1862 "U. S. Standard Packs". (a) U. S. Standard Packs apply only to tomatoes packed in Los Angeles lugs and shall be designated according to the arrangement in the top layer of the lug, as 5 x 5, 5 x 6, etc., in accordance with the facts. The tomatoes shall meet the size requirements for the Los Angeles lug size specified. The tomatoes in all layers shall have a uniform type of arrangement, for example, square, offset or diagonal except as provided in the description of U. S. Straight Pack. The tomatoes shall be fairly tightly packed and, unless otherwise specified, the net weight of the tomatoes in the lug shall be not less than 30 pounds. The following terms shall be used to describe U. S. Standard Packs in lugs:

(1) "U. S. Straight Pack". When specified as "U. S. Straight Pack", all layers in any lug shall have the same number of tomatoes: Provided, That when an offset or a diagonal arrangement of tomatoes issued, a variation of not more than one tomato shall be permitted in different layers. For example, in a 5 x 5 pack the tomatoes in each layer shall be packed 5 rows wide with 5 tomatoes in each row. In a 4 - 5 x 9 diagonal pack the tomatoes shall be packed alternately 4 x 5 to the row the short way of the lug with 9 such rows in the layer and with either 40 or 41 tomatoes in each layer. When designated as "U. S. Straight Square-Offset Pack" or "U. S. Straight Square-Diagonal Pack" the top layer shall be packed with a square arrangement and all lower layers with either an offset or a diagonal arrangement and there may be a variation of not more than one tomato between the top layer and any of the lower layers. Not more than one tomato shall be placed in a wrapper;

(2) "U. S. Extra Row Pack". When specified as "U. S. Extra Row Pack", the lower layers shall not contain more than one additional row one way of the lug. For example, in a 5 x 5 pack, the tomatoes in the lower layers may be packed 5 x 6 but not 6 x 6 or 5 x 7. Not more than one tomato shall be placed in a wrapper;

(3) "U. S. Bridge Pack". When specified as "U. S. Bridge Pack", a part of one additional layer of tomatoes shall be packed in the lug and the remaining tomatoes in the lower layers shall not contain more than one additional row one way of the lug than is contained in the top layer. Not more than one tomato shall be placed in a wrapper;

(4) "U. S. Double Wrap Pack". When specified as "U. S. Double Wrap Pack", the tomatoes in the top layer shall be packed with not more than one tomato in a wrapper and the lower layer or layers shall be packed with not more than two tomatoes in a wrapper; and,

(5) "U. S. Double Wrap Bridge Pack". When specified as a "U. S. Double Wrap Bridge Pack", the tomatoes in the top layer shall be packed with not more than one tomato in a wrapper and the lower layer or layers shall be packed with not more than two tomatoes in a wrapper: Provided, That part of one additional layer which may have either one or two tomatoes in a wrapper shall be packed in the lug.

(b) Tolerances for Standard Packs. In order to allow for variations incident to proper packing, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the containers in any lot may not meet the requirements for Standard Pack: Provided, That when there are two or more size arrangements in any lot, not more than 20 percent of the lugs in any one size arrangement may not meet the requirements for Standard Pack: Provided further, That the average for the lot does not exceed 10 percent.

IRREGULAR PACK

§ 51.1863 "Irregular Pack". Lugs of tomatoes which are not packed in accordance with any of the methods of packing specified for 'Standard Packs" may be designated as "Irregular Pack."

COLOR CLASSIFICATION

§ 51.1864 Color classification. (a) The following terms may be used, when specified, in connection with the grade statement in describing the color of any lot of tomatoes which are characteristically red when ripe:

(1) Turning. "Turning" means that there is at least a definite break in color to yellow or pink at the blossom end but not more than one-half of the surface, in the aggregate, is yellow or pink;

(2) Pink. "Pink"- means that more than one-half but not more than three-fourths of the surface, in the aggregate, shows pink or red color;

(3) Hard ripe. "Hard ripe" means that more than three-fourths of the surface, in the aggregate, shows pink or red color;

(4) Firm ripe. "Firm ripe" means that more than three-fourths of the surface, in the aggregate, shows red color characteristic of a reasonably well ripened tomato; and,

(5) Ripe. "Ripe" means that practically the entire surface shows a good shade of red color characteristic of a well ripened tomato.

(b) Incident to proper color classification, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the tomatoes in any lot may fail to meet the color specified, including therein not more than 5 percent for tomatoes which are green in color, except that any lot of tomatoes which does not meet the requirements of any of the above color designations may be designated as "Mixed Color": Provided, That not more than 5 percent of the tomatoes are green in color.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.1865 Similar varietal characteristics. "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the tomatoes are alike as to firmness of flesh and shade of color (for example, soft-fleshed, early maturing varieties are not mixed with firm-fleshed, mid-season or late varieties, or bright red varieties mixed with varieties having a purplish tinge).

§ 51.1866 Mature. "Mature" means that the contents of two or more seed cavities have developed a jelly-like consistency and the seeds are well developed.

§ 51.1867 Soft. "Soft" means that the tomato yields readily to slight pressure.

§ 51.1868 Firm. "Firm" means that the tomato yields only slightly to moderate pressure.

§ 51.1869 Clean. "Clean" means that the tomato is practically free from dirt or other foreign material.

§ 51.1870 Well developed. "Well developed" means that the tomato shows normal growth. The following are not considered well developed:

(a) Tomatoes which are ridged and peaked at the stem end, contain dry tissue, and usually contain open spaces below the level of the stem scar; and,

(b) Tomatoes which have a high proportion of hard core, with little or no pulp, and few, if any, seeds.

§ 51.1871 Fairly well formed. "Fairly well formed" means that the tomato is not more than moderately kidney-shaped, lopsided, elongated, angular or otherwise deformed.

§ 51.1872 Fairly smooth. "Fairly smooth" means that the tomato is not conspicuously ridged or rough.

§ 51.1873 Damage. "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the tomato. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(a) Cuts and broken skins when not shallow (not penetrating into the flesh) and not well healed; or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a shallow, well healed cut one-half inch in length, or other shallow, well healed skin breaks having an aggregate area equivalent to that of a circle three-eighths inch in diameter;

(b) Sunburn when yellow color resulting from sunburn predominates over the green on a sufficient area that the appearance of the tomato is more than slightly affected or when the flesh is affected;

(c) Puffiness when the open space in one or more locules materially affects the appearance of the tomato when cut through the center at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end;

(d) Catfaces when scars are rough or deep, when channels are very deep or wide, when channels extend into a locule, or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a fairly smooth catface with an area equivalent to that of a circle three-eighths inch in diameter;

(e) Scars (other than catfaces) when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a scar with no depth which has an area equivalent to that of a circle three-eighths inch in diameter;

(f) Growth cracks when not well healed or when more than one-eighth inch in depth, when radial cracks affect the appearance or shipping quality of the tomato to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having radial cracks aggregating 1 inch in length, measured from the edge of the stem scar, when any radial crack exceeds one-half inch in length, or when cracks concentric to the stem scar affect the appearance to a greater extent than that permitted for radial cracks, except that tomatoes which are at least turning are permitted to have growth cracks which are not well healed: Provided, That such growth cracks are not leaking;

(g) Hail injury when deep, rough, or not well healed and corked over, or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having fairly smooth, shallow hail marks with an aggregate area equivalent to that of a circle three-eighths inch in diameter; and,

(h) Insect injury when the appearance, or the edible or the shipping quality of the tomato is materially affected or when any insect is present in the fruit.

§ 51.1874 Reasonably well formed. "Reasonably well formed" means that the tomato is not decidedly kidney-shiped, lop-sided, elongated, angular or otherwise deformed.

§ 51.1875 Slightly rough. "Slightly rough" means that the tomato is not decidedly ridged or grooved.

§ 51.1876 Serious damage. "Serious damage" means any defect which seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the tomato. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as serious damage:

(a) Cuts and broken skins when not shallow (not penetrating into the flesh) and not well healed, or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a shallow, well healed cut one-half inch in length, or other shallow, well healed skin breaks having an aggregate area equivalent to that of a circle one-half inch in diameter;

(b) Puffiness when the open space in one or more locules seriously affects the appearance of the tomato when cut through the center at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end;

(c) Catfaces when scars are rough or deep, when channels are very deep or wide, when channels extend into a locule, or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a fairly smooth catface with an area equivalent to that of a circle five-eighths inch in diameter;

(d) Scars (other than catfaces) when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a scar with no depth which has an area equivalent to that of a circle five-eighths inch in diameter;

(e) Growth cracks when not well healed or when more than one-eighth inch in depth, when radial cracks affect the appearance to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having radial cracks aggregating 1½ inches in length measured from the edge of the stem scar when any radial crack exceeds three-fourths inch in length, or when cracks concentric to the stem scar affect the appearance to a greater extent than that permitted for radial cracks, except that tomatoes which are at least turning are permitted to have growth cracks which are not well healed: Provided, That such growth cracks are not leaking;

(f) Hail injury when deep, rough, or not well healed and corked over, or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having fairly smooth, shallow hail marks with an aggregate area equivalent to that of a circle five-eighths inch in diameter; and,

(g) Insect injury when the appearance or the edible shipping quality of the tomato is seriously affected or when any insect is present in the fruit.

§ 51.1877 Misshapen. "Misshapen" means that the tomato is decidedly kidney-shaped, lop-sided, elongated, angular or otherwise deformed: Provided, That the shape is not affected to an extent that the appearance or the edible quality of the tomato is very seriously affected.

§ 51.1878 Very serious damage. "Very serious damage" means any defect which very seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the tomato. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as very serious damage:

(a) Cuts and broken skins when fresh, or when healed and extending through the tomato wall, or when the appearance of the tomato is very seriously affected;

(b) Puffiness when the open space in two or more locules very seriously affects the appearance of the tomato when cut through the center at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end;

(c) Catfaces when channels extend into the locule, when the wall has been weakened to the extent that slight pressure will cause the tomato to leak, or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a fairly smooth catface with an area equivalent to that of a circle 1 inch in diameter;

(d) Scars (other than catfaces) when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having a scar with no depth which has an area equivalent to that of a circle 1 inch in diameter;

(e) Growth cracks when not well healed or when more than one-fourth inch in depth, when radial cracks affect the appearance or the shipping quality of the tomato to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having radial cracks aggregating 2 inches in length, measured from the edge of the stem scar, when any radial crack exceeds 1 inch in length, or when cracks concentric to the stem scar affect the appearance to a greater extent than that permitted for radial cracks, except that tomatoes which are at least turning are permitted to have growth cracks which are not well healed: Provided, That such growth cracks are not more than one-eighth inch in depth and are not leaking;

(f) Hail injury when fresh or very deep, or when the appearance of the tomato is affected to a greater extent than that of a tomato 2½ inches in diameter having fairly smooth, shallow hail marks with an aggregate area equivalent to that of a circle 1 inch in diameter; and,

(g) Insect injury when the appearance or the edible or the shipping quality of the tomato is very seriously affected or when any insect is present in the fruit.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 10056; FCC 56-804]

MACKAY RADIO AND TELEGRAPH CO., INC. AND ALL AMERICA CABLES AND RADIO, INC.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REOPENING RECORD

In the matter of Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc. and All America Cables and Radio, Inc., Docket No. 10056; application for modification of license to delete certain conditional provisions relating to communication between New York, New York and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration a "Petition to Reopen the Record for Further Hearing" filed on July 2, 1956 by Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc. (Mackay) and All America Cables and Radio, Inc. (All America); a statement with respect to such petition filed on July 10, 1956 by the Chief of the Commission's Common Carrier Bureau; and an Opposition to said petition filed on July 12, 1956 by RCA Communications, Inc. (RCAC), intervenor herein.

2. Some background remarks are appropriate to an understanding of the history of this proceeding. The instant proceeding arose upon the filing of two applications with the Commission: (1) Mackay requests that the Commission delete from the license of its fixed public radio telegraph station in Brentwood, New York, a condition limiting said station's communication with San Juan, Puerto Rico, to periods when one or more of the normal cable circuits of All America in the Caribbean area are interrupted; and (2) All America seeks the deletion of a similar condition in its license restricting communication with New York by its fixed public radio telegraph station at Sabana Llana, Puerto Rico, and it requests authority for frequency shift-keying and 3 FI emission in connection with the regular or unconditional operation which it proposes. The applications were designated for hearing on September 19, 1951, upon specified issues. RCAC was permitted to intervene in the proceeding. Hearings were held commencing on March 18, 1952; they were concluded on March 28, 1952, with the record being closed on that date. An Initial Decision, proposing that the above-described applications be denied, was released on September 4, 1952. Oral argument in this proceeding was originally scheduled for February 24, 1953. By Memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 55–852) released July 29, 1955, the Commission scheduled the oral argument herein for September 12, 1955. In said Memorandum Opinion and Order, the Commission denied the petition of Mackay and All America filed on December 10, 1954, for further hearing in this proceeding. Oral argument, in which Mackay and All America, the Common Carrier Bureau and RCAC participated, was held before the Commission en banc on September 12, 1955.

Petition to Reopen the Record for Further Hearing

3. In support of their petition to reopen the record for further hearing, Mackay and All America point out that the record and Initial Decision in this proceeding are based upon conditions existing six years ago. It is stated that a reopening of the record is required so that the Commission may take into account certain changes, since the close of the record, bearing upon matters which were controlling considerations in the Initial Decision. Petitioners assert that material changes have occurred as follows: (a) Substantial increases in telegraph traffic with Puerto Rico and the Caribbean area have occurred which the Examiner found would not result. It is alleged that telegraph traffic to and from Puerto Rico has increased from the 1950 volume of 6,534,526 words to 8,461,846 words in 1955—an increase of 29 percent.[1] The petitioners also allege that traffic to and from four other Caribbean points (Virgin Islands, Dominican Republic, Netherlands West Indies and Venezuela) has increased by 23.6 percent; (b) Substantial increases in trade and commerce with Puerto Rico and the Caribbean area have occurred which the Examiner did not expect to result. In this connection, petitioners allege that accompanying the increase in telegraph traffic with Puerto Rico since the close of the hearing, the dollar volume of trade with the United States has increased by 57.2 percent. It is asserted that with respect to the above-mentioned four Caribbean points the dollar volume of trade has increased by 36 percent; and (c) Petitioners allege the introduction of nonmessage services (leased radio channel service and teletype writer exchange service) with Puerto Rico by RCAC, not rendered at the time of the 1952 hearings, resulting in a monopoly by RCAC without opportunity of petitioners to compete. Several other arguments are advanced by the petitioners in support of the instant pleading which relate to certain policy statements made by the Commission in proceedings not directly related to the one now before us. In view of this, we do not set forth here the nature of those arguments, nor will they be considered further in this document.

4. Petitioners request that the Commission reopen the record and remand the proceedings to a presiding officer to take further testimony or evidence, certifying the record to the Commission without decision, or, in the alternative, to reopen the record and remand the proceeding to a presiding officer to take further testimony or evidence and issue a supplemental Initial Decision, whichever may seem appropriate under the circumstances surrounding this case.

Statement of the Common Carrier Bureau

5. The Common Carrier Bureau asserts that it is of the opinion that the Commission should, in the exercise of its discretion, grant the instant petition and reopen the record herein to take further testimony and evidence before issuing a final decision. The Bureau states that in view of the need for administrative finality petitions to reopen for further hearing after the issuance of an Initial Decision and oral argument thereon should be granted only under unusual circumstances. The Bureau points out that the Commission has recognized that unusual circumstances might arise where the public interest would be served by reopening the record to take further testimony or evidence, and has provided for such procedure in § 1.853 (c) (3) of its rules.[2] It is stated by the Bureau that the facts and considerations set forth in the instant petition encompass unusual circumstances of the type which indicate that the public interest would be served by a reopening of the record herein to take further testimony and evidence. The Bureau asserts that the petitioners have set forth with particularity the facts which tend to indicate that some of the basic premises upon which conclusions in the Initial Decision were based are no longer valid, and that the public interest would be served by affording the petitioners an opportunity to present such facts for the record; to have them subjected to appropriate cross-examination; and to arrive at the conclusions based upon a proper evaluation of these facts in light of all the facts and considerations of record.

6. The Bureau adverts to the lengthy history of this proceeding. It points out that this proceeding arose as the result of applications filed in February, 1951; that hearings were held in March, 1952; and that the Initial Decision was issued by the Hearing Examiner in September, 1952. Thus, the Bureau states, reopening of the record would make available to the Commission data with respect to all developments which have taken place during this relatively long period of time.

7. The Bureau states that it is aware that in December, 1954, before this matter was set for oral argument, petitioners filed a petition similar to the petition now before the Commission. It is pointed out that such petition was denied by the Commission in a Memorandum Opinion and Order released on July 29, 1955. The Bureau states, however, that the Commission did not pass upon the merits of the petition, but instead stated: " • • • Such petition concerns itself only with generalities, and fails to allege any specific facts which demonstrate the necessity or advisability of a further hearing in this matter. Nothing in such petition persuades us that this proceeding should be set down for further hearing. We believe, therefore, that a determination of this matter should be made upon the record as presently constituted." The Bureau urges that in the instant petition the petitioners have remedied the difficulties found by the Commission in their previous petition and have set forth in detail the facts and considerations which were not present in the earlier petition.

8. The Bureau states that in the past it has opposed a grant of petitioners' applications at issue in the basic proceeding herein, and further states that in taking the position that it does in its present statement it does not mean to imply that it is necessarily altering such position. It is the Bureau's position, however, that the Commission should

[1] Traffic statistics not of record in this proceeding were taken by petitioners from Carriers' Responses to the Commission's Order 85.

[2] § 1.853 Appeal and review of initial decision. • • •

(c) In any case in which an initial decision is subject to further review in accordance with paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, the Commission may take any one or more of the following actions:

• • • • •

(3) Prior to or after oral argument or the filing of briefs, reopen the record and remand the proceedings to the presiding officer to take further testimony or evidence;

have before it current facts and considerations in reaching a decision in this matter. The Bureau asserts that if the petition is granted, it will re-examine its position in the light of all the evidence of record and take such position as appears to it to be in the public interest in the light of such evidence, facts, and considerations.

9. The Bureau urges that if the Commission does, in fact, determine that the record herein should be reopened, the Hearing Examiner to whom the proceedings are remanded for the taking of further testimony and evidence, should be instructed to prepare and issue a supplemental Initial Decision as provided in § 1.853 (c) (5) of the Commission's rules. It is asserted that such a course would make available to the Commission the judgment of the Hearing Examiner before whom the additional testimony and evidence are to be adduced, and would be consistent with the purpose and intent of section 409 (b) of the Communications Act, as amended, which requires the preparation and filing of an Initial Decision by the person before whom the matter was heard, except in those instances where the Commission finds that due and timely execution of its functions unavoidably and imperatively require the certification of the record to the Commission for decision.

The opposition of RCAC. 9. RCAC urges that the instant petition is a second request since the issuance of the Initial Decision to hold further hearing. RCAC adverts to the petition filed on December 10, 1954, by Mackay and All America. RCAC points out that again as before the applicants allege that (a) traffic volumes have increased and (b) non-message services have been introduced by RCAC. It is asserted that in denying the applicant's first request for rehearing, the Commission ruled that these allegations do not "demonstrate the necessity or advisability of a further hearing • • • [and] a determination of this matter should be made upon the record as presently constituted." RCAC points out that the applicants did not request the Commission to reconsider this order of July 29, 1955, denying the petition for further hearing, within the thirty day period for filing petitions for reconsideration, and that their failure to make a timely request constitutes a waiver of any right to seek reconsideration. Thus, RCAC urges, it has already been finally determined by the Commission that further hearing should not be held in this proceeding.

10. RCAC urges that, in any event, bare traffic statistics are of little significance where the applicants have not alleged or established that existing facilities are inadequate or insufficient to handle the traffic volume. It is asserted that to contend that facilities are inadequate would have to be rejected as frivolous, in the presence of the evidence showing the facilities of four telegraph carriers already available to serve Puerto Rico. In this connection, RCAC urges that its direct circuits serving this area are operated at only approximately 10 percent of their normal traffic handling potential. It is alleged that additional radio facilities can be placed in operation and normal operating hours extended if necessary or appropriate.

11. RCAC urges that the applicants' claim that non-message services have been introduced by RCAC with Puerto Rico and their claim of "monopoly" similarly do not warrant further hearings. RCAC states that the record of this proceeding already shows that RCAC has been ready and able to provide non-message services with Puerto Rico and that it provides these services with many countries. It is pointed out that the instant petition makes no claim or showing that any unsatisfied demand exists for non-message services, that existing facilities are inadequate, or that presently licensed carriers are unable to fulfill whatever requirement exists for these services.

12. RCAC asserts that it still has only one leased channel customer (15-word per minute channel) and knows of no other customer for this service, and that if any such customers exist, it is willing and able to provide the leased channel service. It is further asserted that demand for TEX service also remains confined to a limited number of calls, and that present facilities are more than ample to provide for whatever demands exist for TEX service. RCAC urges that any claims that it enjoys "a monopolistic" or preferred position with Puerto Rico must also be considered in light of the applicant's general competitive position in telegraph service between the United States and Puerto Rico and with the area involved. RCAC asserts that the applicants enjoy the substantially greater share of the total message telegraph traffic with Puerto Rico, as well as the revenue derived therefrom, and that not only do they occupy a dominant position, but their industry participation has been increasing. RCAC submits that to charge "monopoly" or preferred position in the face of this trend is very surprising, and that the trend assumes added significance when considered in the light of the Initial Decision's conclusion that, in the event of a grant of the applications to establish "joint cable and radio service by the AC and R system between New York and Puerto Rico, which is the practical effect of the instant proposal," the possibilities are that "the position of dominance among the carriers which [the AC & R system] presently occupies may become more severe."

13. With respect to the remainder of the instant petition, i. e., paragraphs 14–32, RCAC states that such matters are an obvious reargument on the merits of the Initial Decision not provided for by the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and RCAC requests that the Commission dismiss paragraphs 14–32 of the instant petition on the basis that they constitute an unwarranted and untimely reargument on the merits of the Initial Decision. We have considered this matter herein above, and RCAC's request is granted to the extent that we give no consideration herein to the argumentative matters advanced by the petitioners. In view of our disposition of the instant petition, the applicability of general policy statements will, of course, be reserved for discussion by the Hearing Examiner in the conclusions which will be made upon the basis of the supplemented record in this proceeding, and thereafter, if appropriate, by the Commission in its final determination.

14. RCAC submits that, in its opinion, the proceedings should not be reopened for further hearings except under the most unusual and compelling circumstances, and that if some new development should provide a basis to reopen and to remand a proceeding, a final decision can never be reached. In this connection, RCAC cites a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, Interstate Commerce Commission v. Jersey City, 322 U. S. 503, and cites language therefrom at page 512 as follows:

> Administrative consideration of evidence—particularly where the evidence is taken by an examiner, his report submitted to the parties, and a hearing held on their exceptions to it—always creates a gap between the time the record is closed and the time the administrative decision is promulgated. This is especially true if the issues are difficult, the evidence intricate, and the consideration of the case deliberate and careful. If upon the coming down of the order litigants might demand rehearing as a matter of law because some new circumstance has arisen, some new trend has been observed, or some new fact discovered, there would be little hope that the administrative process could ever be consummated in an order that would not be subject to reopening.

15. We are of the opinion that the record in this proceeding should be reopened for further hearing. We think that this is the appropriate course to follow in view of the present posture of the proceeding, i. e., the matter has reached the point of final decision, with the prospect that such decision would be based upon facts and conditions which obtained as of a period more than four years past. We believe that the ends of justice would be served more appropriately by issuing a final determination which would be based upon facts which are more current in point of time. In reaching this view, we are aware that RCAC presses the point that in July of 1955 we denied a petition for further hearing in this proceeding filed on December 10, 1954, by Mackay and All America, and that in view of their failure to petition within 30 days for reconsideration of such denial it must be said that the Commission has already finally determined that further hearing should not be held in this proceeding. We must disagree with RCAC's position for we are cognizant of no provision of an applicable statute or of our rules which would preclude the filing of a pleading such as that now before us because of the fact that no petition for reconsideration of a denial of a request for further hearing had been filed within 30 days of the date of such denial. In this connection, it is to be noted that our rules[3] expressly provide that prior to or after oral argument or the filing of briefs the Commission may reopen the record and remand the proceeding to the presiding officer to take further testimony or evidence, or it may remand the proceedings to the presiding officer to make further findings or conclusions.

16. We recognize that it is imperative in the orderly execution of the administrative process that a point of finality be reached. We believe, however, that the history of the present proceeding demonstrates that unusual and compelling circumstances require the reopening of the record herein to permit the record to reflect current data.

17. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That the petition to reopen the record for further hearing filed on July 2, 1956, by Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and All America Cables and Radio, Inc. is granted; and

It is further ordered, That the above-entitled matter is remanded to the Hearing Examiner,[4] who originally presided at this hearing, with the instructions to reopen the record for the adduction of evidence under the issues which previously controlled this proceeding for the purpose of permitting the record to reflect current data pertinent to the aforesaid issues; and

It is further ordered, That after the appropriate procedural steps have been taken, the Hearing Examiner shall issue a supplemental initial decision herein.

WARREN L. MOXLEY AND JONES T. SUDBURY

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Warren L. Moxley, Blytheville, Arkansas, Docket No. 11562, File No. BP-9922, and Jones T. Sudbury, Martin, Tennessee, Docket No. 11807, File No. BP-10575; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of August 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of Warren L. Moxley and Jones T. Sudbury, each for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1410 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts and one kilowatt, respectively, at Blytheville, Arkansas, and Martin, Tennessee, respectively;

It appearing, that each of the applicants is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate its proposed station, but that the operation of both stations as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicants were advised by letter dated June 29, 1956, of the aforementioned interference and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that a timely reply was filed by each applicant; and

It further appearing, that the Commission, after consideration of the replies, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the proposed operations, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine in the light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if either, of the applications should be granted.

BOSQUE RADIO

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of George H. Cook tr/as Bosque Radio, Clifton, Texas, Docket No. 11803, File No. BP-10,361; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of August, 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of George H. Cook tr/as Bosque Radio for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1420 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, directional antenna, daytime only at Clifton, Texas;

It appearing, that the applicant is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate the proposed station, but that interference to the proposed operation from Stations KGNB, New Braunfels, Texas (1420 kc, 1 kw, Day) and KFYN, Bonham, Texas (1420 kc, 250 w, Day), may affect more than 10 percent of the population in the proposed primary service area in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicant was advised by letter dated May 10, 1956, of the aforementioned interference and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that the applicant replied by letter dated June 29, 1956, and conceded that the loss in population would be 10.41 percent of the population within the normally protected primary service area, but stated that § 3.28 (c) of the rules should be waived and the application should be granted because neither Clifton, Texas, nor Bosque County has a radio station at this time, that the proposed operation will cause no interference to any existing station or pending application and that the area where interference will be received is remote and rural and already served by several stations; and

It further appearing, that the Commission is unable to make a determination in this matter on the basis of the data before it and is of the opinion that an evidentiary hearing is necessary to obtain complete information relative to the above-captioned application and the grounds advanced in support of the request for waiver of § 3.28 (c) of the rules to enable the Commission to determine whether the public interest would be served by a grant thereof;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operation, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether because of the interference received, the proposed operation would comply with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and if compliance with § 3.28 (c) is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section of the rules.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the subject application would serve the public interest.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of August 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of Radio Wayne County, Inc., and Radio Newark, Inc., each for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1420 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, daytime only, at Newark, New York; and

It appearing, that each of the applicants is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate its proposed station, but that the operation of both stations as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicants were advised by letter dated May 24, 1956, of the aforementioned interference and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that a timely reply was received from each subject applicant; and

It further appearing, that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the proposed operations, and the availability of other primary services to such areas and populations.

2. To determine which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants to own and operate the proposed stations.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed stations.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-mentioned applications.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if either, of the applications should be granted.

INDIAN CITY BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Odis L. Echols, Sr. and Odis L. Echols, Jr. d/b as Indian City Broadcasting Company, Anadarko, Oklahoma, Docket No. 11806, File No. BP-10413; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of August, 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of Odis L. Echols, Sr. and Odis L. Echols, Jr., d/b as Indian City Broadcasting Company, for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station at Anadarko, Oklahoma, to operate on 1250 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, daytime only, File No. BP-10413;

It appearing, that the applicant is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to construct and operate its proposed station, but that operation of the station as proposed would cause interference to Stations KWSH, Wewoka, Oklahoma (1260 kc, 1 kw, DA-2, U); KVSO, Ardmore, Oklahoma (1240 kc, 250 w, U); and KFTV, Paris, Texas (1250 kc, 500 w, D); and may receive interference from said stations which would affect more than 10 percent of the population in the proposed station's normally protected primary service area, so that the proposal would not be in compliance with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicant was advised by letter dated July 15, 1956, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that a timely reply was received from the applicant; and

It further appearing, that the Commission is of the opinion that a hearing on the subject application is necessary;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the instant proposal, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the instant proposal would involve interference with Stations KWSH, Wewoka, Oklahoma; KVSO, Ardmore, Oklahoma; and KFTV, Paris, Texas; or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether, because of the interference received, the instant proposal would comply with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and if compliance with § 3.28 (c) is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section of the rules.

4. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant proposal would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That Lamar Broadcasting Company, Inc.; Tri-Cities Broadcasting Co., Inc.; and John F. Easley; licensees of Stations KFTV, Paris, Texas; KWSH, Wewoka, Oklahoma; and KVSO, Ardmore, Oklahoma; respectively, are made parties to the proceeding.

REVISED TENTATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN FOR CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS

ORDER WITH RESPECT TO PATCHOGUE, N. Y., AND NEW YORK, N. Y.

In the matter of amendment of the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations, Docket No. 11778.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of August, 1956;

The Commission having under consideration a proposal to amend the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for class B FM Broadcast Stations; and

It appearing, that notice of proposed ruling making (FCC 56-671) setting forth the above amendment was issued by the Commission on July 16, 1956 and was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 5469), which notice provided that interested parties might file statements or briefs with respect to the said amendment on or before August 10, 1956; and

It further appearing, that no comments were received opposing the reallocation of a channel from New York City to Patchogue, New York; however, an objection was received to reallocation of Channel No. 282 as originally proposed because that channel was being considered for a new concert network station in New York City and that such channel was the most desirable of those available in New York City for the operation. Reallocation of Channel No. 278 to Patchogue was suggested, which channel appears to be equally usable in Patchogue;

It further appearing, that the immediate adoption of the proposed amendment would be desirable;

It further appearing, that authority for the adoption of the proposed amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

It is ordered, That effective immediately, the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations is amended as follows in respect to the cities of New York and Patchogue, New York:

OHIO EDISON CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ACQUISITION OF UTILITY ASSETS

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

Ohio Edison Company ("Company"), a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission an application pursuant to sections 9 (a) (1) and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") regarding the following proposed transaction:

Pursuant to a Sale Agreement dated August 9, 1956 between the Company and the Village of Plain City, Ohio ("Village"), the Company proposes to acquire, for a cash consideration of $410,000 (of which $102,500 has already been paid on account), the Village's generating plant other than land and buildings, and its electric distribution and street lighting systems including land and land rights necessary for the operation of such systems, together with materials and supplies and all related fixtures and appliances. The property includes five diesel engine generators with a total capacity of 1,500 Kw., 15 pole miles of overhead distribution facilities, 111 street lights, and 113 line transformers of 2,716 Kva. aggregate capacity. The property presently serves about 825 customers. The company estimates that operating revenues for the first full year of operation will approximate $110,000.

The Village is situated within the Company's service area and in close proximity to communities presently served by the Company. Upon consummation of the acquisition, the property will be physically connected with the Company's facilities, and integration of the acquired property with the Company's system is expected to result in improvement of the local service and an overall reduction in electric rates.

The Company proposes to record the property on its books on the basis of original cost, actual or estimated, and to dispose of the difference, if any, between the purchase price and such original cost in accordance with the accounting regulations and orders of The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and the Federal Power Commission, which will have jurisdiction with respect thereto.

Due notice of the filing of the application having been given in the manner provided by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act have been satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application be granted, to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application be, and hereby is, granted, effective forthwith, subject to the provisions of Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL PUBLIC UTILITY CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING RENEWAL OF GUARANTY OF SUBSIDIARY'S SHORT-TERM NOTE

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Central Public Utility Corporation ("Cenpuc"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 7 and 12 (b) thereof and Rule U-45 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

Cenpuc proposes to guarantee, for an additional period from September 24, 1956 to January 4, 1957, and thereafter for additional periods not exceeding nine months from September 24, 1956, payment of the renewal promissory note or notes of its wholly owned subsidiary The Islands Gas and Electric Company ("Islands") to the order of The Hanover Bank, New York, New York, in the principal amount of $2,000,000, with interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum. Cenpuc will pledge to said bank, as security for the due payment of Islands' note or notes, a Time Deposit Open Account in the amount of $2,000,000 bearing interest at the rate of 2 percent per annum.

The proposed renewal or renewals represent a further extension of Cenpuc's guaranties of the aforesaid obligation of Islands to said bank, originally authorized by the Commission on December 16, 1955, and renewed at 90-day intervals thereafter. It is stated that, although Islands anticipates the receipt of sufficient moneys to pay its note to the bank before January 4, 1957, Cenpuc seeks authority to extend its guaranty thereafter to a date not later than June 24, 1957, in the event of further delay.

Declarant represents that no other regulatory commission has jurisdiction in the matter. It estimates its expenses in connection with the renewal of its guaranty from September 24, 1956, to January 4, 1957, at not exceeding $400, including attorneys' fees of not more than $350; and in connection with renewals thereafter, if any, at not more than $200 for attorneys' fees and $25 for miscellaneous expenses.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 19, 1956 at 5:30 p.m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said declaration, as amended or as further amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

BLACKSTONE VALLEY GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER REGARDING PROPOSAL TO AUTHORIZE, ISSUE AND SELL SHARES OF NEW SERIES OF PREFERRED STOCK

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Company ("Blockstone"), a public utility subsidiary of Eastern Utilities Associates ("EUA"), a registered holding company, has filed an application-declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to sections 6 (b) and 12 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-62 thereunder, regarding the following proposed transactions:

Blackstone proposes, subject to appropriate approval of its stockholders, to authorize a new series of redeemable cumulative preferred stock ("new preferred stock"), consisting of 25,000 shares of $100 par value each, and ranking pari passu with the outstanding 4.25 percent preferred stock, except as to number of shares, rate of dividend, date from which such dividends commence to accumulate, and the redemption prices thereof.

Blackstone further proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, 25,000 shares of the new preferred stock, of which 1,430 shares will be subject to a subscription offer to be made, on a share for share basis, to the common stockholders other than EUA. EUA, the owner of 99.17 percent of Blackstone's outstanding common stock, has agreed to waive its right to subscribe for the new preferred stock. The dividend rate of the new preferred stock, and the price, exclusive of accumulated dividends, to be paid the company, and the subscription price (which shall be the initial offering price to the public) are to be fixed by the competitive bidding. Blackstone proposes to hold a special meeting of its stockholders to consider and act upon the foregoing proposals, and to solicit proxies to be voted in favor of the proposed authorization, issuance and sale of the new series of preferred stock.

The proceeds from the proposed issue and sale of new preferred stock will be used to retire in part Blackstone's short-term bank notes outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $3,050,000.

The proposed issue and sale of preferred stock have been authorized by the Public Utility Administrator, Department of Business Regulation, of the State of Rhode Island, the appropriate regulatory authority of the State in which Blackstone is organized and doing business.

Blackstone's estimate of the fees and expenses to be incurred and to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions, other than the fees and expenses of accountants and counsel for the company and independent counsel for the underwriters as to which jurisdiction is being reserved herein, is as follows:

Federal stamp tax	$2,750.00
Securities and Exchange Commission fee	257.50
State taxes and fees	3,500.00
Blue Sky Law qualification expense	1,000.00
Printing and engraving costs	10,000.00
Registrar and transfer agent fees and costs	5,000.00
Telephone, telegraph, travel, and miscellaneous	1,992.50
Total	24,500.00

Due notice of the filing of the application-declaration having been given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23, and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and

It appearing that there is no basis for adverse findings or the imposition of special terms and conditions, and it also appearing that the fees and expenses set forth above to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions are not unreasonable if they do not exceed the estimates herein stated; and the Commission finding in respect of the application-declaration that the applicable provision of the act, and, of the rules and regulations thereunder, are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application- declaration be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that the application-declaration, as amended, be, and it hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the conditions prescribed by Rules U-24 and U-50 and subject to the further condition that jurisdiction is reserved over the fees and expenses of accountants and counsel for the company and the independent counsel for the underwriters with respect to said transactions.

By the Commission.

NORWOOD GAS CO. AND NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER APPROVING INCREASE OF AUTHORIZED CAPITAL STOCK AND RIGHTS OFFERING BY SUBSIDIARY, AND OFFER OF PARENT TO PURCHASE ALL SHARES UNSUBSCRIBED BY MINORITY STOCKHOLDERS AND ALL SHARES HELD BY THEM

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidary, Norwood Gas Company ("Norwood"), have filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to sections 6 (a), 6 (b), 7 (e), 9 (a) and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following proposed transactions:

The authorized capital stock of Norwood consists of 3,010 common shares (par value $100 per share), of which 2,810 shares are outstanding. Norwood proposes to reduce its authorized capital stock to the 2,810 shares presently outstanding, and thereupon to increase its capital stock by the issue and sale of 1405 additional shares offering such shares to its stockholders at the price of $100 per share on the basis of one new share for each two shares held. Rights to subscribe will be evidenced by full and half-share warrants, exercisable during a subscription period of 21 days; but only full shares will be issued.

NEES, which now owns 2,791 shares (99.324 percent) of Norwood's outstanding stock, proposes to exercise its rights to subscribe for the 1,395 full shares of additional stock to which it will be entitled. The minority public holders (four in number, owning 19 shares) will be entitled to subscribe for 9 full shares. NEES also proposes, during the subscription period, to offer to purchase the present holdings of the minority stockholders, together with their rights to subscribe for additional shares, on the basis of $120 a share, and at the end of the subscription period to purchase from Norwood all unsubscribed shares at the subscription price. The price of $100 per share for the additional capital stock to be issued by Norwood and the price of $120 per share to be offered by NEES for the present minority holdings together with rights to subscribe for additional shares, are stated to have been determined by the directors of the respective companies after consideration of the earnings and book value of the Norwood stock and other comparable utility company stocks.

NEES will use treasury funds for its proposed acquisitions. Norwood will apply the proceeds from the sale of the additional capital stock, $140,500, to the discharge of a like amount of short-term notes payable to NEES, reducing its note indebtedness to NEES from $590,000 to $449,500.

The Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities has authorized and approved the increase of Norwood's authorized capital stock from 2,810 to 4,215 shares, the issuance of 1,405 additional shares, the acquisition by NEES of any shares unsubscribed by the minority stockholders, and the application by Norwood of the proceeds of the sale.

Due notice of the filing of said application-declaration having been given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, and that the application-declaration should be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

MISSOURI EDISON CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF DECLARATION REGARDING ISSUANCE OF SHORT-TERM NOTES

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Missouri Edison Company ("Missouri Edison"), a public-utility subsidiary of Union Electric Company, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and has designated sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to the declaration on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Missouri Edison proposes to borrow from The Boatmen's National Bank of St. Louis, Missouri amounts not to exceed, in the aggregate, $1,400,000. Such borrowings will be evidenced by promissory notes, which notes will mature not later than August 31, 1957, and which will bear interest at the prime rate effective in St. Louis at the time of the particular borrowing.

Missouri Edison had contemplated that permanent financing, through the issue and sale of additional First Mortgage Bonds, would be effected during the second half of 1956 to repay previous borrowings and obtain additional funds for the continuation of its construction program, but after a review of its present cash position, its requirements to August 31, 1957, and present bond market conditions, has concluded that it would be advisable to defer permanent financing until next year. Accordingly, Missouri Edison has arranged for said $1,400,000 of short-term borrowings, which, together with cash available in its treasury, will be used to repay the $1,000,000 of promissory notes maturing on September 28, 1956, and to finance its necessary construction program. Missouri Edison expects to repay such borrowings and obtain additional funds for the continuation of its construction program through the issue and sale of securities in 1957, the type and amount to depend upon conditions at that time.

The declaration states that no State commission and no Federal commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions. The declaration further states that no fees, commissions or expenses, other than nominal fees, will be involved.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 20, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said filing which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the declaration, as filed or as it may hereafter be amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

WILLIAM TELL PRODUCTIONS, INC.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

I. William Tell Productions, Inc., a Delaware corporation, 135 Central Park West, New York, N. Y. (formerly known as Telerad Corporation of America), having filed with the Commission on November 4, 1955, a Notification on Form 1-A and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to a proposed public offering of 295,000 shares of common stock, par value $.10, at $1.00 per share for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission having reasonable grounds to believe that:

A. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

(1) The issuer failed to disclose in Item 4 of Form 1-A that W. T. Clemons Associates was, and is, an affiliate within the meaning of Rule 215 (a) and (b);

(2) The $300,000 maximum aggregate offering price limitations of Rule 217 (a) with respect to the issuer were exceeded in that W. T. Clemons Associates, an affiliate of the issuer and a person as contemplated by Rule 217 (a) (iii), offered and sold securities within the meaning of Rule 217 (a) (3) in an amount which when combined with the issuer's present offering exceeded the above maximum;

(3) The issuer failed to disclose in Item 3 of Form 1-A sales of securities by W. T. Clemons Associates, an affiliate of the issuer, within one year prior to the date of the filing of such Form 1-A;

(4) The issuer, through its underwriter, Rutledge Irvine & Co., Inc., sold securities of the issuer and in connection with such sales failed to give or deliver to the purchasers an offering circular as required by Rule 219 (a) (2);

(5) The issuer, through its underwriter, Rutledge Irvine & Co., Inc. offered and sold its securities prior to the filing of an amended offering circular disclosing information with respect to the underwriting agreement with said Rutledge Irvine & Co., Inc., as required by Rule 219 (c) (4) and (5).

(6) The issuer, through its underwriter, Rutledge Irvine & Co., Inc., sold its securities prior to and during the waiting period, following the filing of amending material to the offering as prescribed by Rule 219 (e).

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) and Rule 261 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933 that the exception under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP. AND TEXAS EASTERN PRODUCTION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

In the matters of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–9635; Texas Eastern Production Corporation, Docket No. G–9023 and G–9634.

Take notice that Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Shreveport, Louisiana, filed on November 9, 1955, as supplemented on November 22, 1955, and April 6, 1956, in Docket No. G–9635 an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing it to acquire and operate facilities of Texas Eastern Production Corporation (Texas Production) as hereinafter described subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection. Texas Eastern, with approval of the directors and share holders and of both Texas Eastern and Texas Production (a subsidiary of Texas Eastern in which it owns 93 percent of the outstanding common stock) proposes to merge said Texas Production into Texas Eastern; Texas Production an independent producer, is selling gas to Texas Eastern in interstate commerce for resale pursuant to the orders of this Commission issued in Docket No. G–2775, G–2778, and temporary authorization granted in Docket No. G–9023. Said Texas Production is selling gas in interstate commerce for resale to Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company, pursuant to order of this Commission issued December 23, 1954, in Docket No. G–2776.

Texas Eastern seeks authority to acquire and operate the properties of Texas Production, and to continue to sell to Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company as Texas Production was authorized to do in Docket No. G–2776. Concurrently with this filing, Texas Production by application docketed No. G–9634 and as more fully hereinafter described, requests authority to abandon all service it proposed and was authorized to perform in Docket Nos. G–2775, G–2776, G–2777, G–2778; and G–9023.

Texas Eastern alleges that the proposed merger is in the interest of the present and future public convenience and necessity since by utilizing its own production of natural gas it will improve flexibility of its pipeline operation, improve its bargaining power, with independent producers in its purchase of additional supplies of natural gas, and reduce overhead expenses by combining the operation of the two corporations under one management.

Take further notice that Texas Production, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Houston, Texas, filed an application pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, on November 9, 1955, as supplemented on November 22, 1955, in Docket No. G–9634 requesting authorization to abandon services as hereinafter described and subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission and as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Pursuant to the plan of the merger filed by Texas Eastern in Docket No. G–9635, as hereinbefore described, Texas Production filed an application for authority to abandon service proposed by it in Docket Nos. G–2775, G–2776, G–2777, G–2778, and G–9023. Texas Production alleges that there will be no interruption of service for the reason that in Docket Nos. G–2775, G–2778 and G–9023, Texas Eastern, under the proposed merger would become operator and take the gas, since it is the buyer named in contracts which were the subject of these proceedings. In Docket No. G–9635 Texas Eastern requests authority to continue to render the service proposed in Docket No. G–2776; that the service proposed in Docket No. G–2777 has been discontinued due to depletion of wells to the extent that there is insufficient pressure to permit delivery into the pipeline.

Texas Production, as an independent producer, filed on June 9, 1955, in Docket No. G–9023, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act authorizing it to render services as hereinafter described, or as more fully represented in its application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Texas Production in said application is requesting authority to sell natural gas produced by it from the Cherokee Lake area in Rusk, Gregg, and Harrison Counties, Texas, to its parent, Texas Eastern. In Docket No. G–9634, Texas Production requested authority to abandon this service because of its proposed merger into its parent-buyer. On January 6, 1956, this case was consolidated with Docket No. G–9066, and set for hearing on February 15, 1956. On February 6, 1956, W. H. Bryant, et al., co-owners of working interests and parties seller under said contract filed a "Motion of Non-Operators to be Substituted for Texas Eastern Production Corporation (Operator)." By order issued February 29, 1956, Docket No. G–9023 was severed and continued subject to further order of the Secretary, because of the filings in Docket No. G–9634 by Texas Production and in this Docket by W. H. Bryant, et al.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 3, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure provided for, under the procedure herein unless otherwise advised it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 21, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

WEST TENNESSEE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

Take notice that West Tennessee Gas Company (Applicant), a Florida corporation with principal place of business at P. O. Box 611, Jackson, Mississippi, filed, on July 16, 1956, pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, an application for an order directing Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) to establish physical connection of its natural gas transportation facilities with recently constructed natural gas facilities owned by the Town of Gates (Gates), a municipal corporation located in Lauderdale County, Tennessee, which were leased by Gates to Applicant on May 26, 1956 and which will be operated and maintained by Applicant for the purpose of enabling Applicant to render retail natural gas service in Gates. Applicant will not require any additional allocation of natural gas in order to render this service. The gas supply requested by and allocated to Applicant in Docket No. G–10062 anticipated the instant operation and is adequate to meet the requirements of Gates.

The Gates system consists of approximately 2.2 miles of 3-inch lateral transmission line extending from the 26-inch transmission line of Texas Gas to a regulator station in or near Gates and a distribution system within Gates.

The estimated daily gas requirement for Gates is stated to be 220 Mcf and the estimated annual gas requirements for the first four years of operation are stated to be 9,700 Mcf (1956), 11,650 Mcf, 11,950 Mcf and 12,250 Mcf.

Texas Gas Transmission Company (Texas Gas) filed on August 6, 1956, pursuant to § 1.9 (a) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, an answer to the aforesaid application wherein it stated that it has no objection to rendering the service requested by Applicant, provided that Texas Gas shall not be obligated to render the proposed service until completion of the facilities authorized in Docket No. G–10062.

The proposed project hereinabove described is more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection. Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 24, 1956.

[Docket No. G–9886]

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 4, 1956.

Take notice that Cities Service Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, filed, on January 19, 1956 as amended March 9, 1956 and June 25, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate, as an integral part of its existing natural gas system, certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described which are necessary to the delivery and sale of natural gas in interstate commerce by Applicant, and to sell and deliver natural gas in interstate commerce to the Gas Service Company (Gas Service) under Applicant's existing F–2, C–2 and I–2 Rates Schedules for resale and distribution by Gas Service via its proposed lateral transmission line and proposed distribution system in the City of Corder (Corder), Lafayette County, Missouri.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated by Applicant at an estimated cost of $1,350 for which amount Applicant will be reimbursed in full by Gas Service as a contribution in aid of construction, consist of a meter setting with a metric 250–B meter, together with appurtenant regulator equipment to be located in Lafayette County, Missouri, near Applicant's existing 10 inch line serving Springfield, Missouri.

The estimated peak day and annual requirements for the City of Corder, Missouri, in Mcf at 14.73 psia for the first three years of operation are as follows:

Year	Peak day	Annual
1956	182	20,317
1957	212	23,393
1958	244	25,780

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Wednesday, October 10, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the preceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 24, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket Nos. G–9981, G–9993]

H. J. CHAVANNE AND TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 4, 1956.

In the matter of H. J. Chavanne, Trustee, Docket No. G–9981; Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–9993.

Take notice that on February 21, 1956, H. J. Chavanne, Trustee (Chavanne) filed at Docket No. G–9981 an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity covering the sale of gas to Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern) for transportation in interstate commerce for resale from the Nada Field under a 20 year contract dated January 27, 1956, between Texas Eastern and Chavanne.

On February 23, 1956, Texas Eastern with its principal place of business located at Shreveport, Louisiana, filed at Docket No. G–9993 an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain facilities as hereinafter described all as more fully represented in its application, which is on file with the Commission, and open for public inspection.

Texas Eastern seeks authorization to construct and operate a main line tap and appurtenant facilities on its existing 16-inch Provident City transmission line in the vicinity of the Nada Field, Colorado County, Texas. This proposed tap will received gas from Chavanne, produced in the Nada Field, Colorado County, Texas. The estimated total cost of the proposed facilities is $675. The cost is to be financed from corporate funds. No additional markets are proposed to be served by Texas Eastern, other than those previously authorized by the Commission.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 3, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C. concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 18, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Project No 1258]

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF MODIFICATION OF LAND WITHDRAWAL; CALIFORNIA

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956.

By Commission's letters of December 11, 1933, May 13, 1939, and October 19, 1942, the General Land Office (now the Bureau of Land Management) was notified of the reservation of approximately 278.66 acres of land of the United States, pursuant to the filing by the Great Western Power Company, now the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, on November 8, 1933, May 21, 1936 and August 12, 1942, of applications for amendment of transmission line licenses, Project No. 1258.

On April 2, 1956, the Licensee filed an application to further amend its license to include revised exhibits showing minor relocations of part of the line and its relation to latest United States Surveys. The revised exhibits showing the transmission line as constructed, indicate that certain additional lands are being occupied for project purposes.

In accordance with the provision of section 24, of the act of June 10, 1920, as amended, notice is hereby given that the hereinafter described lands of the United States are included in the aforesaid power project, as licensed.

Under said section 24, these lands are from the date of filing for amendment (April 2, 1956) reserved from entry, location or other disposal under the laws of the United States until otherwise directed by the Commission or by Congress.

All portions of the following subdivisions lying within 25 feet of the center line survey of the transmission line location as delineated on maps designated "Exhibits K–1C, K–2Ca, K–2Cb, and K–3C. (FPC Nos. 1258–27 to 1258–30 inclusive) entitled "44 kv transmission line from Big Bend P. H. to Quincy and Walker and U. S. Mines. Pacific Gas and Electric Co." and filed in the office of the Federal Power Commission on April 2, 1956.

[No. 32035]

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY

INCREASED EXPRESS CHARGES IN EASTERN TERRITORY

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 31st day of August, A. D. 1956.

The Railway Express Agency filed, on August 21, 1956, a petition for authority to increase its less-than-carload charges on shipments moving by express within eastern territory, as described in the appendix hereto, by assessing a surcharge of 15 percent of the charge provided under existing tariffs for such transportation. It requests the Commission to institute an investigation to determine whether such increases will be just and reasonable and will result in rates not in excess of maximum reasonable rates, and to enter a general order modifying outstanding orders of the Commission to the extent necessary to enable the petitioner promptly to make effective, on less than statutory notice, the rates and charges proposed. It further requests that where the establishment of the rates and charges herein proposed would result in departures from section 4 of the Interstate Commerce Act, the Commission authorize such departures. The basis for all the relief sought is more specifically set forth in the said petition.

Upon consideration of the petition:

It is ordered, That an investigation of the matters presented in such petition be, and it is hereby, instituted; and that a copy of this order be served upon the petitioner and upon the Governors and regulatory bodies of the several States concerned, as listed in the appendix;

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for hearing at such times and places as hereafter may be designated;

And it is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the general public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] HAROLD D. McCOY, Secretary.

APPENDIX

1. Increases requested. A surcharge of 15 percent of the charges provided under existing tariffs for transportation by express of less-than-carload shipments moving within eastern territory, except on less-than-carload shipments of milk and cream, newspapers and human remains.

2. Territory involved. Eastern Group. Includes generally the territory embraced in the following limits: The Atlantic seaboard from the Canadian border to Norfolk, Va.; the main line of Norfolk and Western Railway from Norfolk, Va., to Kenova, W. Va.; the main line of Chesapeake and Ohio Railway from Kenova, W. Va., to Cincinnati, Ohio; the Ohio River to Cairo, Ill.; the Mississippi River to the mouth of the Illinois River at or near Grafton, Ill.; the Illinois River from Grafton, to Pekin, Ill., a line south and east of Atchison, Topeka and Sante Fe Railway from Pekin, through Streator and Joliet, to Chicago, Ill.; a line north from Chicago, to include the southern peninsula of Michigan, and thence following the international boundary to the Atlantic seaboard; and including also (1) carriers operating within that portion of Canada north of the territory described above, or between that area and said territory (2) those portions of Norfolk and Western Railway and of Virginian Railway extending south of the southern boundary, and (3) any other carriers located in the territory designated as Eastern Group over which the Express Company may hereafter operate; but excluding those portions of Southern Railway, Atlantic and Danville Railway, Louisville & Nashville Railroad, Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and Seaboard Air Line Railroad extending north of the southern boundary and that portion of Gulf, Mobile and Ohio Railroad between Cairo, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo.

3. States involved. Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Virginia, Vermont, and West Virginia.

FRUIT AND VEGETABLE JUICES BETWEEN LOS ANGELES AND OREGON, WASHINGTON

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION WITH RESPECT TO RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Board of Suspension, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of August, A. D. 1956.

There being under consideration the matter of rates and charges, and the rules, regulations and practices affecting such rates and charges, applicable on interstate or foreign commerce, of fruit and vegetable juices from or to Los Angeles, to or from Salem and Portland, Oreg., and Seattle and Tacoma, Wash., as set forth on 24th revised page 118-B of tariff MF-I. C. C. No. 20 of Pacific Inland Tariff Bureau, Agent, Portland, Oreg., as follows: the rates of 169, 123, 113 and 101 cents from Salem and Portland to Los Angeles; the rate of 146 cents from Los Angeles to Salem and Portland; the rates of 124 and 110 cents from Seattle and Tacoma to Los Angeles; the rates of 212 and 173 cents from Los Angeles to Seattle and Tacoma; also as set forth in Item 630 on original page No. 66 of tariff MF-I. C. C. No. 2 of Exley Produce, Inc., Portland, Oreg., or as the same may be amended or reissued;

It appearing, that upon consideration of the tariff schedules, there is reason to institute an investigation to determine whether they result in rates and charges, rules and regulations or practices that are unjust or unreasonable in violation of the Interstate Commerce Act; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, upon the Commission's own motion, into and concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices contained in said schedules, with a view to making such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances shall warrant.

It is further ordered, That the investigation in this proceeding shall not be confined to the matters and issues hereinbefore stated as the reason for instituting this investigation, but shall include all matters and issues with respect to the lawfulness of the said rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices under the Interstate Commerce Act.

It is further ordered, That the carriers parties to the said schedules be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be forthwith served upon the said respondents; and that a notice of this proceeding be given to the public by posting a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

And it is further ordered, That this matter be assigned for hearing at a time and place to be hereafter fixed.

By the Commission, Board of Suspension.

The regulations governing the 1956 acreage reserve part of the Soil Bank Program, 21 F. R. 4379, as amended in 21 F. R. 5205, 21 F. R. 5685, and 21 F. R. 5959, are hereby further amended as indicated below:

1. Paragraph (b) of § 485.111 is amended to read as follows:

(b) Reduction of the acreage for purposes of the acreage reserve program may be accomplished by plowing the crop under or otherwise physically incorporating it into the soil or by clipping, mowing, or cutting it to prevent maturing, subsequent to May 27, 1956, but not later than August 31, 1956: Provided, That (1) if the final disposition date fixed for the area for compliance with allotments for purposes of price support and marketing quotas is on or before May 27, 1956, reduction for purposes of the acreage reserve program may be accomplished at any time subsequent to such final disposition date and on or before August 31, 1956; (2) in those areas where the Secretary, pursuant to the provisions of § 485.112, permits grazing of the acreage reserve beyond August 31, 1956, the crop growing on the acreage reserve, if it will produce grain, shall be disposed of not later than September 15, 1956, either by grazing, or by plowing the crop under or otherwise physically incorporating it into the soil, or by clipping, mowing, or cutting it to prevent the crop from maturing; and (3) in any case, the farm was in compliance with its allotments for purposes of price support and marketing quotas on the final date fixed for the area for compliance with such allotments.

2. The second sentence of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (c) of § 485.112 is amended to read as follows: "Disposition of grain or seed crops, other than grasses and legumes, must be accomplished not later than a date fixed by the State Committee, which date shall not be later than 30 days before harvest of the crop begins in the area, except that it shall not be earlier than August 31, 1956: Provided, That in those areas where the Secretary, pursuant to the provisions of this section permits grazing of the acreage reserve beyond August 31, 1956, the crop growing on the acreage reserve, if it will produce grain, shall be disposed of not later than September 15, 1956, either by grazing, or by plowing the crop under or otherwise physically incorporating it into the soil, or by clipping, mowing, or cutting it to prevent the crop from maturing."

3. The fourth sentence of paragraph (d) of § 485.112 is amended to read as follows: "In the case of other crops, disposal must be accomplished on or before August 31, 1956: Provided, That in those areas where the Secretary, pursuant to the provisions of this section, permits grazing of the acreage reserve beyond August 31, 1956, the crop growing on the acreage reserve, if it will produce grain, shall be disposed of not later than September 15, 1956, either by grazing, or by plowing the crop under or otherwise physically incorporating it into the soil, or by clipping, mowing, or cutting it to prevent the crop from maturing."

REDEMPTION OF CERTIFICATES IN GRAINS

Sec.

485.251 Purpose.
485.252 Redemption in CCC-owned grains or loan grain.
485.253 Redemption in grains limited to producers.
485.254 Grains obtainable in redemption.
485.255 Value of certificates.
485.256 Value of grains.
485.257 Where to apply.
485.258 No redemptions during normal harvesting season.
485.259 Place of delivery of CCC-owned grain.
485.260 Delivery of CCC-owned grain from warehouses.
485.261 Delivery of CCC-owned grain from CCC bins sites.
485.262 Repayment of price support loans.
485.263 Issuance of balance certificates.
485.264 Grains obtained ineligible for price support.

AUTHORITY: §§ 485.201 through 485.264 issued under sec. 124, Pub. Law 540, 84th Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 105 (a), Pub. Law 540, 84th Cong.

§ 485.251 Purpose. The purpose of the regulations in §§ 485.251 to 485.264 is to set forth the terms and conditions under which certificates issued to producers with respect to wheat, corn, and rice for participation in the acreage reserve part of the Soil Bank Program will be redeemed by Commodity Credit Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "CCC") in grains in lieu of cash. Until further notice, the following terms and conditions shall govern the redemption of such certificates in grains. The Secretary reserves the right upon notice to modify, amend or revise any of the provisions of the regulations in §§ 485.251 to 485.264 at any time.

§ 485.252 Redemption in CCC-owned grains or loan grain. Certificates will be redeemed in grains either (a) through the delivery of grains owned by CCC, or (b) by accepting the certificates in repayment of price support loans and releasing the grain pledged or mortgaged to secure the loans. The certificates will be accepted in repayment of either warehouse-storage or farm-storage loans, including reseal loans. Interest will be charged on the loan on the same basis as if repayment were made in cash.

§ 485.253 Redemption in grains limited to producers. Only a producer to whom a certificate is issued for participating in the acreage reserve program may obtain the redemption of such certificate in grain. Assignees to whom certificates are issued and holders in due course of certificates are not entitled to obtain redemption of such certificates in grain.

§ 485.254 Grains obtainable in redemption. (a) (1) Certificates issued with respect to wheat may be redeemed in wheat, oats, rye, barley or grain sorghums.

(2) Certificates issued with respect to corn may be redeemed in corn, oats, rye, barley or grain sorghums.

(3) Certificates issued with respect to rice may be redeemed in rice, oats, barley, rye or grain sorghums.

(b) The right of a producer to obtain redemption of certificates in CCC-owned grain shall be subject to the availability of such grain in the county in which the producer desires delivery. CCC shall not be obligated to make stocks of grain available in any particular county.

§ 485.255 Value of certificates. For purposes of redemption in grains hereunder, certificates shall be valued at 105 per centum of the cash value thereof.

§ 485.256 Value of grains. CCC-owned grains delivered in redemption of certificates shall be valued at the current price support rate, including premiums and discounts, established for the class, grade and quality of the commodity at the location where delivery is to be made. In the case of wheat, oats, rye, barley and grain sorghums, the price support rate in effect on July 1 of each year shall for purposes of this section remain in effect through June 30 of the following year. In the case of rice, the price support rate in effect on August 1 of each year shall for purposes of this section remain in effect through July 31 of the following year. In the case of corn, the price support rate in effect on October 1 of each year shall for purposes of this section remain in effect through September 30 of the following year.

§ 485.257 Where to apply. (a) Producers who wish to obtain redemption of certificates in CCC-owned grain must apply at the County ASC Committee Office of the county in which delivery of the grain is desired.

(b) Producers who wish to obtain redemption of certificates in grain under price support loan must apply at the office of the County ASC Committee which approved the loan.

§ 485.258 No redemptions during normal harvesting season. Certificates shall not be redeemable in a grain during the normal harvesting season for such grain in the area where delivery is desired or the area where the grain under price support loan is stored. The normal harvesting season for each area will be published at a later date as Appendix A to the regulations in §§ 485.251 to 485.264.

§ 485.259 Place of delivery of CCC-owned grain. Delivery of CCC-owned grain will be made from warehouses where such grain is stored or at CCC bins sites, at the option of CCC. Grain will be delivered at CCC bins sites only if CCC is unable to make delivery from a warehouse.

§ 485.260 Delivery of CCC-owned grain from warehouses. (a) If delivery is to be made of warehouse-stored CCC-owned grain, the county committee shall issue a Delivery Order to the producer setting forth the quantity, grade and quality of the commodity to be delivered to the producer, and the warehouse from which the grain is to be delivered. Delivery will be made either "in store" or f. o. b. the producer's conveyance, at the producer's option, as shown on the Delivery Order. The producer may obtain the grain by presenting the Delivery Order to the warehouseman. Such Delivery Orders shall not be transferable and may be presented to the warehouseman only by the producer to whom issued.

(b) CCC shall be responsible for all warehouse charges (except load out charges if the redemption is made on an "in store" basis) accruing through the 15th day following the date of issuance of the Delivery Order unless such 15th day falls on a holiday, in which case CCO shall be responsible for the charges through the next succeeding business day. The producer shall be responsible for all warehouse charges accruing thereafter, except load out charges if the redemption is made on the basis of delivery f. o. b. the producer's conveyance.

(c) In the case of an "in store" delivery, title and risk of loss to the grain specified in the Delivery Order shall pass to the producer upon delivery to him of the Delivery Order. In the case of delivery f. o. b. the producer's conveyance, title and risk of loss to the grain specified in the Delivery Order shall pass to the producer either (1) at the time of load out, or (2) at the time, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, that the producer becomes responsible for warehouse charges, whichever is earlier.

§ 485.261 Delivery of CCC-owned grain from CCC bins sites. (a) Deliveries of CCC-owned grain from CCC bins sites will be made f. o. b. the producer's conveyance.

(b) In the event of the inadvertent delivery to the producer of a quantity of grain in excess of that agreed upon, the producer shall pay CCC for such excess quantity at the price support loan rate applicable to the redemption.

§ 485.262 Repayment of price support loans. The release of grain mortgaged or pledged to secure price support loans, in redemption of certificates, shall be handled in the same manner as if repayment were made in cash.

§ 485.263 Issuance of balance certificates. In the event that the full amount of the face value of a certificate is not redeemed in grain, a Balance Certificate shall be issued to the producer for the unused amount, except that if the amount is $3.00 or less no Balance Certificate will be issued unless requested by the producer. Balance Certificates will be redeemed in cash or in grains in the same manner as other certificates.

Issued this 7th day of September 1956 at Washington, D. C.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

GENERAL

§ 727.811 Basis and purpose. The regulations contained in §§ 727.811 to 727.828 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the establishment of 1957 farm acreage allotments and normal yields for Maryland tobacco. The purpose of the regulations in §§ 727.811 to 727.828 is to provide the procedure for allocating on an acreage basis, the national marketing quota for Maryland tobacco for the 1957–58 marketing year among farms and for determining normal yields. Prior to preparing the regulations in §§ 727.811 to 727.828, public notice (21 F. R. 5192) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). The data, views, and recommendations pertaining to the regulations in §§ 727.811 to 727.828, which were submitted have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 727.812 Definitions. As used in §§ 727.811 to 727.828, and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) Committees:

(1) "Community committee" means the persons elected within a community as the community committee pursuant to regulations governing the selection and functions of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county and community committees.

(2) "County committee" means the persons elected within a county as the county committee pursuant to regulations governing the selection and functions of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county and community committees.

(3) "State committee" means the group of persons within any State designated by the Secretary of Agriculture to act as the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee.

(b) "County office manager" means the person employed by the county committee to execute the policies of the county committee and be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the ASC county office, or the person acting in such capacity.

(c) "Deputy Administrator" means the Deputy Administrator or the Acting Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(d) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm land which the county committee determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery and labor substantially separate from that for any other lands; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(e) "New farm" means a farm on which tobacco will be harvested in 1957 for the first time since 1951. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1955 or 1956 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any acreage of tobacco harvested in 1955 or 1956, respectively, shall not be considered as harvested acreage in determining whether the farm is a new farm. The term "harvested" as used herein shall include the meaning described in paragraph (b) of § 727.816 with respect to 1956 harvested acreage.

(f) "Old farm" means a farm on which tobacco was harvested in one or more of the five years 1952 through 1956. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1955 or 1956 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any acreage of tobacco harvested in 1955 or 1956, respectively, shall not be considered as harvested acreage in determining whether the farm is an old farm. The term "harvested" as used herein shall include the meaning described in paragraph (b) of § 727.816 with respect to 1956 harvested acreage.

(g) "Cropland" means farm land which in 1956 was tilled or was in regular crop rotation, including also land which was established in permanent vegetative cover, other than trees, since 1953 and which was classified as cropland at the time of seeding, but excluding (1) bearing orchards and vineyards (except the acreage of cropland therein), (2) plowable noncrop open pasture, and (3) any land which constitutes or will constitute, if tillage is continued, an erosion hazard to the community.

(h) "Community cropland factor" means that percentage determined by dividing the total cropland for all old farms in the community in 1956 into the total of the 1956 tobacco acreage allotment for such old farms: Provided, That (1) if it is determined that the cropland factors for all communities in the county are substantially the same, the county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may consider the entire county as one community, and (2) if there is only one farm in the county on which tobacco is grown, the community cropland factors of the nearest community in which tobacco is grown shall be used in determining the acreage indicated by cropland.

(i) "Acreage indicated by cropland" means that acreage determined by multiplying the number of acres of cropland in the farm by the community cropland factor.

(j) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(k) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate or trust or other business enterprise or other legal entity, and whenever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(l) "Producer" means a person who, as owner, landlord, tenant, sharecropper, or laborer is entitled to share in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm or in the proceeds thereof.

(m) "State administrative officer" means the person employed by the State committee to execute the policies of the State committee and be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the ASC State office, or the person acting in such capacity.

(n) "Tobacco" means Maryland tobacco, type 32, as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 (Part 30 of this title) of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. Tobacco which has the same characteristics and corresponding qualities, colors, and lengths, shall be treated as one type, regardless of any factors of historical or geographical nature which cannot be determined by an examination of the tobacco.

§ 727.813 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions. All acreage allotments shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth acre. The rule of fractions will be to round upward fractions of more than five-thousandths and to round downward fractions of five-thousandths or less (i. e., 0.0050 would be 0.00 and 0.0051 would be 0.01).

§ 727.814 Instructions and forms. The Director, Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary, and shall cause to be prepared such instructions for internal management as are necessary, for carrying out the regulations in this part. The forms and instructions shall be approved by, and the instructions shall be issued by, the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment of the Commodity Stabilization Service.

§ 727.815 Applicability of §§ 727.811 to 727.828. Sections 727.811 to 727.828 shall govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for tobacco in connection with farm marketing quotas for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1957.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 727.816 Determination of 1957 preliminary acreage allotments for old farms. The 1957 preliminary acreage allotment for an old tobacco farm shall be the 1956 farm acreage allotment with the following exceptions:

(a) If the harvested acreage (as that term is explained in paragraph (b) of this section) of tobacco on the farm in each of the three years 1954–56 was less than 75 percent of the 1956 farm acreage allotment, the preliminary allotment shall be the larger of (1) the largest acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in any one of such three years, or (2) the average acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in the five years 1952–56: Provided, That any 1957 preliminary allotment shall not exceed the 1956 farm acreage allotment or be less than 0.01 acre.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of this section, the 1956 harvested acreage shall include any acreage on the farm applicable to tobacco which is devoted in 1956 to participation in the Acreage Reserve Program or the Conservation Reserve Program. Also, for such purposes, the 1956 harvested acreage shall be deemed to be the 1956 farm acreage allotment in any case in which (1) the tobacco planted acreage in 1956 was less than the acreage allotment for such farm, (2) the owner or operator of such farm notified the county committee not later than August 1, 1956, that he desired to preserve such allotment; and (3) no quantity of excess tobacco produced on the farm prior to January 1, 1956, and carried over or stored to postpone or avoid payment of penalty, has been reduced because the 1956 acreage allotment was not fully planted.

(c) If the county and State committees determine that a farm has been retired from agricultural production, no 1957 preliminary acreage allotment (or 1957 farm tobacco acreage allotment) shall be determined for such farm: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary acreage allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production.

(d) For the purpose of determining 1957 preliminary acreage allotments, the 1956 farm acreage allotment shall mean the correctly determined 1956 farm acreage allotment prior to reduction, if any, because of a violation of the tobacco marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year, except that the 1956 farm acreage allotment as referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall mean the 1956 allotment after any such reduction.

§ 727.817 1957 old farm tobacco acreage allotment. The preliminary allotments calculated for all old farms in the State pursuant to § 727.816 shall be adjusted uniformly so that the total of such allotments plus the acreage available for adjusting acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors made in old farm allotments, and allotments for over-looked old farms pursuant to § 727.818 shall not exceed the State acreage allotment.

§ 727.818 Adjustment of acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors made in old farm allotments, and allotments for over-looked old farms. Notwithstanding the limitations contained in § 727.816, the farm acreage allotment for an old farm may be increased if the community and county committees find (with the approval of the State committee) that such increase is necessary to establish an allotment for such farm which is fair and equitable in relation to the allotments for other old farms in the community, on the basis of the past acreage of tobacco, making due allowances for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. The acreage available for increasing allotments under this section, correction of errors made in old farm allotments, and allotments for over-looked old farms shall not exceed one-percent of the total acreage allotted to old tobacco farms by the State for the 1956–57 marketing year.

§ 727.819 Reduction of acreage allotment for violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year. (a) If tobacco was marketed or was permitted to be marketed in any marketing year as having been produced on the acreage allotment for any farm which in fact was produced on a different farm, the acreage allotments established for both such farms for 1957 shall be reduced, as provided in this section, except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if the county committee determines that no person connected with such farm caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing.

(b) The operator of the farm shall furnish complete and accurate proof of the disposition of all tobacco produced on the farm at such time and in such manner as will insure payment of the penalty due at the time the tobacco is marketed and, in the event of failure for any reason to furnish such proof, the acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced, except that if the farm operator establishes to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that failure to furnish such proof of disposition was unintentional on his part and that he could not reasonably have been expected to furnish accurate proof of disposition, reduction of the allotment will not be required if the failure to furnish proof of disposition is corrected and payment of all additional penalty is made.

(c) If any producer files, or aids or acquiesces in the filing of any false report with respect to the acreage of tobacco grown on the farm in 1956, the acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced, as provided in this section, except that if each producer on the farm establishes to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that the filing of, or aiding or acquiescing in the filing of, the false report was unintentional on his part and that he could not reasonably have been expected to know that the report was false, reduction of the allotment will not be required if the report is corrected and payment of all additional penalty is made.

(d) Any such reduction shall be made with respect to the 1957 farm acreage allotment, provided it can be made no later than May 1, 1957. If the reduction canont be so made effective with respect to the 1957 allotment, such reduction shall be made with respect to the farm acreage allotment next established for the farm where the reduction can be made no later than a corresponding date to be specified in a subsequent year. This section shall not apply if the allotment for any prior year was reduced on account of the same violations.

(e) The amount of reduction in the 1957 allotment shall be that percentage which the amount of tobacco involved in the violation is of the respective farm marketing quota for the farm for the year in which the violation occurred. Where the amount of such tobacco involved in the violation equals or exceeds the amount of the farm marketing quota, the amount of reduction shall be 100 percent. The amount of tobacco determined by the county committee to have been falsely identified or for which satisfactory proof of disposition has not been furnished, or with respect to which a false acreage report was filed, shall be considered the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual production of tobacco on the farm is not known, the county committee shall estimate such actual production, taking into consideration the condition of the tobacco crop during production, if known, and the actual yield per acre of tobacco on other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar: Provided, That the estimate of such actual production of tobacco on the farm shall not exceed the harvested acreage of tobacco on the farm multiplied by the average actual yield on farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar. The actual yield of tobacco on the farm as so estimated by the county committee multiplied by the farm acreage allotment shall be considered the farm marketing quota for the purposes of this section. In determining the amount of tobacco for which satisfactory proof of disposition has not been shown or with respect to which a false acreage report was filed in case the actual production of tobacco on the farm is not known, the amount of tobacco involved in the violation shall be deemed to be the actual production of tobacco on the farm, estimated as above, less the amount of tobacco for which satisfactory proof of disposition has been shown.

(f) If the farm involved in the violation is combined with another farm prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be supplied to that portion of the allotment for which a reduction is required under paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section.

(g) If the farm involved in the violation has been divided prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied to the allotments for the divided farms as required under paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section.

§ 727.820 Reallocation of allotments released from farms removed from agricultural production. (a) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which is removed from agricultural production for any purpose because of acquisition by any Federal, State, or other agency having a right of eminent domain shall be placed in a State pool and shall be available to the State committee for use in providing equitable allotments for farms owned or purchased by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farms by such agencies. Upon application to the county committee, within five years from the date of such acquisition of the farm, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any other farm owned or purchased by him equal to an allotment which would have been determined for such other farm plus the allotment which would have been determined for the farm so acquired: Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 20 percent of the acreage of cropland on the farm.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable if (1) there is any marketing quota penalty due with respect to the marketing of tobacco from the farm or by the owner of the farm at the time of its acquisition by the Federal, State, or other agency; (2) any tobacco produced on such farm has not been accounted for as required by the Secretary; or (3) the allotment next to be established for the farm acquired by the Federal, State, or other agency would have been reduced because of false or improper identification of tobacco produced on or marketed from such farm or due to a false acreage report.

§ 727.821 Farms divided or combined. (a) If land operated as a single farm in 1956 will be operated in 1957 as two or more farms, or is otherwise required under the definition of a farm to be divided for 1957, the 1957 tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland available for the production of tobacco in each such tract in such year bore to the total number of acres of cropland available for the production of tobacco on the entire farm in such year, except that, upon recommendation of the county committee, and with State committee approval and agreement of the interested parties in writing, the tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm may be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the 1952–56 five-year average acreage of tobacco harvested on each such tract bore to the 1952–56 five-year average acreage of tobacco harvested on the entire farm: Provided, That with the recommendation of the county committee and approval of the State committee and with the written agreement of all interested persons, the tobacco acreage allotment determined for a tract under the provisions of this paragraph may be increased or decreased by not more than the larger of one-hundredth acre or 10 percent of the 1957 acreage allotment determined for the entire farm with corresponding increases or decreases made in the acreage allotment apportioned to the other tract or tracts.

(b) If two or more farms operated separately in 1956 are combined and operated in 1957 as a single farm, the 1957 allotment shall be the sum of the 1957 allotments determined for each of the farms comprising the combination.

(c) If a farm is to be divided in 1957 in settling an estate, the allotment may be divided among the various tracts in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, or on such other basis as the State committee determines will result in equitable farm allotments.

§ 727.822 Determination of normal yields for old farms. The county committee will determine by appraisal a normal yield for each farm for which a 1957 tobacco acreage allotment was established on the basis of the best yield information available for the years 1950–55. The yield so appraised shall not exceed 125 percent or be less than 80 percent of the county check yield (to be ascertained as hereafter provided). Any yield may be also adjusted for drought, flood or other abnormal conditions affecting the yield, but the yield so adjusted shall not exceed 125 percent or be less than 80 percent of the county check yield. If the total production extension for all farms in the county in 1956 obtained by multiplying the 1956 acreage allotment for each farm by the yield so computed for such farm varies more than one percent from the total production extension obtained by multiplying the county check yield by the total of all allotted tobacco acreage in the county for 1956, the yield for each farm will then be factored to the extent required to eliminate any variance. Subject to the approval of the State committee, the yields may be further factored to provide a yield for each farm in the county that is not more than 125 percent or less than 80 percent of the county check yield. The yield for the farm thus determined shall be the normal yield for the farm. The county check yield shall be determined by the Deputy Administrator on the basis of the average of the three highest yields in the county in any three years during the period 1950–55 adjusted where necessary so as to conform with and, except for factoring, to not exceed 125 percent or be less than 80 percent of the State check yields; such State check yield to be determined by the Deputy Administrator on the basis of the average of the three highest yields in the State in any three years during the period 1950–55, but not to exceed 125 percent or be less than 80 percent of the average of the three high year averages of all States.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 727.823 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms. (a) The acreage allotment, other than an allotment made under § 727.820, for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration the past tobacco experience of the farm operator; the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall not exceed 50 percent of the allotments for old tobacco farms which are similar with respect to land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless each of the following conditions has been met:

(1) The farm operator shall have had experience during two of the past five years in Maryland tobacco and such experience shall have been for the entire crop year beginning with the preparation of the plant bed and extending through preparation of the tobacco for market: Provided, That a farm operator who was in the armed services after September 16, 1940, shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this subparagraph if he has had such experience during one year either within the five years immediately prior to his entry into the armed services or within the five years immediately following his discharge from the armed services and if he files an application for an allotment within five crop years from date of discharge: And provided further, That production of tobacco on a farm in 1955 or 1956 for which in accordance with applicable law and regulations no 1955 or 1956 tobacco acreage allotment, respectively, was determined shall not be deemed such experience for any producer.

(2) The farm operator shall live on and receive 50 percent or more of his livelihood from the farm covered by the application.

(3) The farm shall not have a 1957 allotment for any kind of tobacco other than that for which application is made under this part.

(4) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator for which a Maryland tobacco acreage allotment is established for the 1957–58 marketing year.

(5) The farm shall be operated by the owner thereof.

(6) The farm or any portion thereof shall not have been a part of another farm during any of the five years 1952–56 for which an old farm tobacco acreage allotment was determined, except that this provision shall not of itself make a farm ineligible for a new farm allotment (i) if it is the same farm or a portion of the same farm for which an old farm allotment was cancelled since 1951 due to no tobacco being produced thereon for five years, or (ii) if it was a portion of an old farm during any of the years 1952–56 and at time of division of the farm contained cropland but received no part of the allotment due (a) to division of the allotment on a contribution basis, or (b) to agreement and approval of all interested parties as provided in the section of these regulations governing divisions and combinations of allotments.

(c) The acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new farms. One-fourth of one percent of the 1957 national marketing quota shall, when converted to an acreage allotment by the use of the national average yield be available for establishing allotments for new farms. The national average yield shall be the average of the several State yields used in converting the State marketing quota into State acreage allotments.

§ 727.824 Time for filing application. An application for a new farm allotment shall be filed with the ASC county office no later than February 15, 1957, unless the farm operator was discharged from the armed services subsequent to December 31, 1956, in which case such application shall be filed within a reasonable period prior to planting tobacco on the farm.

§ 727.825 Determination of normal yields for new farms. The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines by appraisal, taking into consideration available yield data for the land involved and yields established as provided in § 727.822 for similar farms in the community.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 727.826 Determination of acreage allotments and normal yields for farms returned to agricultural production. (a) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of §§ 727.811 to 727.825, the acreage allotment for any farm which was acquired by any Federal, State, or other agency having the right of eminent domain for any purpose and which is returned to agricultural production in 1957 or which was returned to agricultural production in 1956 too late for the 1956 allotment to be established shall be determined by one of the following methods:

(1) If the land is acquired by the original owner, any part of the acreage allotment which was or could have been established for such farm prior to its retirement from agricultural production which remains in the State pool (adjusted to reflect the uniform increases and decreases in comparable old farm allotments since the farm was acquired) may be established as the 1957 allotment for such farm by transfer from the pool, and if any part of the allotment for such land was transferred by the original owner through the State pool to another farm now owned by him, such owner may elect to transfer all or any part of such allotment (as adjusted) to the farm which is returned to agricultural production.

(2) If the land is acquired by a person other than the original owner, or if all of the allotment was transferred through the State pools to another farm and the original owner does not now own the farm to which the allotment was transferred, the farm returned to agricultural production shall be regarded as a new farm.

(b) The normal yield for any such farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines by appraisal, taking into consideration available yield data for the land involved and yields established as provided in § 727.822 for similar farms in the community.

§ 727.827 Approval of determinations made under §§ 727.811 to 727.826, and notices of farm acreage allotments. (a) All farm acreage allotments and yields shall be determined by the county committee of the county in which the farm is located and shall be reviewed by or on behalf of the State committee, and the State committee may revise or require revision of any determinations made under §§ 727.811 to 727.826. All acreage allotments and yields shall be approved by or on behalf of the State committee, and no official notice of acreage allotment shall be mailed to a grower until such allotment has been approved by or on behalf of the State committee.

(b) The county committee shall mail a written notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota to the operator of each farm shown by the records of the county committee to be entitled to such allotment. Insofar as practical all allotment notices shall be mailed in time to be received prior to the date of any tobacco marketing quota referendum. The notice to the operator of the farm shall constitute notice to all persons who as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper are interested in the farm for which the allotment is established. A copy of such notice, containing thereon the date of mailing, shall be kept among the records of the county committee, and, upon request, a copy of such notice certified as true and correct shall be furnished without charge to any person interested in the farm in respect to which the allotment is established.

(c) If the records of the county committee indicate that the allotment established for any farm may be changed because of (1) a violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year, (2) removal of the farm from agricultural production, (3) division of the farm, or (4) combination of the farm, no notice of such allotment shall be mailed until the proper allotment is determined for the farm by the county committee with the approval of the State committee: Provided, That the notice of allotment for any farm shall, insofar as practicable, be mailed no later than May 1, 1957.

(d) If the county committee determines with the approval of the State committee that the official written notice of the farm acreage allotment issued for any farm erroneously stated the acreage allotment to be larger than the correct allotment, and the county committee also determines that the error was not so gross as to place the operator on notice thereof, and that the operator, relying upon such notice and acting in good faith, planted an acreage of tobacco in excess of the correct farm acreage allotment, the acreage allotment shown on the erroneous notice shall be deemed to be the tobacco acreage allotment for the farm for all purposes in connection with the tobacco marketing quota program for the 1957–58 marketing year, provided the acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm is not in excess of the acreage shown on the erroneous notice. In the event the acreage of tobacco harvested exceeds the farm acreage allotment shown on the erroneous notice, the acreage allotment for the farm as correctly determined and shown on a revised notice of farm acreage allotment and marketing quota shall be the tobacco acreage allotment for the farm for all purposes in connection with the tobacco marketing quota program for the 1957–58 marketing year.

§ 727.828 Application for review. Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota established for his farm, may within fifteen days after mailing of the official notice of farm acreage allotment and marketing quota, file application in writing with the ASC county office to have such allotment reviewed by a review committee. The procedures governing the review of farm acreage allotments and marketing quotas are contained in the regulations issued by the Secretary (Part 711 of this chapter) which are available at the ASC county office.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of September 1956. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 942—MILK IN NEW ORLEANS, LA., MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and of the order, as amended (7 CFR Part 942), regulating the handling of milk in the New Orleans, Louisiana, marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order", it is hereby found and determined that:

(a) The provisions in § 942.82 do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, from the effective date hereof to November 1, 1956. Section 942.82 provides for a marketing services deduction. Each handler, in making payments to producers for milk is required to deduct five cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding five cents per hundredweight. Such deductions are paid to the market administrator, and used to provide market information and check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association. The market administrator, in undertaking a "pilot program" in preparing to effectuate the provisions of § 942.82 (effective August 1, 1956) has advised the Department that unique conditions in the marketing area make it advisable to defer the adoption of a marketing services program until November 1, 1956.

(b) Notice of proposed rulemaking, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of the effective date hereof, are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest for reason stated under (a) above and in that:

1. The information upon which this action is based did not become available in time for such compliance.

2. This suspension order does not require persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to its effective date.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective immediately.

It is therefore ordered, That the provisions of § 942.82 are hereby suspended from the effective date hereof to November 1, 1956.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of September 1956 to be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Acting Secretary.

[Lemon Reg. 657, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 19 F. R. 7175; 20 F. R. 2913; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 953.764 (Lemon Regulation 657; 21 F. R. 6607) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 255,750 cartons.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: September 7, 1956.

[959.314 Amdt. 1]

PART 959—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MODOC AND SISKIYOU COUNTIES, CALIF., AND IN ALL COUNTIES IN OREGON, EXCEPT MALHEUR COUNTY

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 114, as amended, and Order No. 59, as amended (7 CFR Part 959; 20 F. R. 7068), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in Modoc and Siskiyou Counties in California and in all counties in Oregon, except Malheur County, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Oregon-California Potato Committee, established pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and amended order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this amendment, (iii) compliance with this amendment will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

Order, as amended. The provisions of § 959.314 (b) (2) (FEDERAL REGISTER July 4, 1956; 21 F. R. 4945) are hereby amended, effective on and after September 17, 1956, to read as follows:

(2) During the period from September 17, 1956 through June 30, 1957, and subject to the requirements set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the following maturity limitations shall be effective: no handler shall ship any lot of potatoes of any variety grown in Districts 1, 2, and 4, as such districts are defined in Order No. 59, if such potatoes are more than "slightly skinned," as such term is defined in said United States Standards, which means that not more than 10 percent of the potatoes in any lot have more than one-fourth of the skin missing or "feathered;" with respect to potatoes grown in District No. 3, as such district is defined in said order, no handler shall ship (i) any lot of potatoes of the round varieties (including, but not limited to Kennebec, Irish Cobbler, Bliss Triumph, and Pontiac varieties) if more than 20 percent of the potatoes in such lot have more than one-half of the skin missing or "feathered," as such terms are used in the said United States Standards, (ii) any lot of potatoes of the White Rose variety if more than 35 percent of the potatoes in such lot have more than one-half of the skin missing or "feathered," as such terms are used in the said United States Standards, or (iii) any lot of potatoes of the Netted Gem varieties (including, but not limited to Russet Burbank and Early Gem varieties) if such potatoes are more than "moderately skinned," as such term is defined in the said United States Standards, which means that not more than 10 percent of such potatoes have more than one-half of the skin missing or "feathered": Provided, That during such period, not to exceed 100 hundredweight of each variety of such potatoes may be handled every seven days without regard to the aforesaid skinning requirements if the handler thereof reports, prior to such handling, the name and address of the producer of such potatoes and each shipment hereunder is handled as an identifiable entity.

PART 964—DRIED FIGS PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

ESTABLISHMENT OF SALABLE AND SURPLUS PERCENTAGE FOR THE 1956–57 CROP YEAR

Notice was published in the August 9, 1956 issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 5970) that the Secretary of Agriculture was considering a proposed rule to establish a salable percentage of 80 percent and a surplus percentage of 20 percent for each variety of dried figs which is produced in California and acquired by handlers during the 1956–57 crop year. These percentages were proposed after consideration of the recommendation of the Dried Fig Administrative Committee and other available information, in accordance with the applicable provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 123 and Order No. 64 (20 F. R. 1685), regulating the handling of dried figs produced in California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). In said notice, opportunity was afforded interested persons to file written data, views, or arguments with respect thereto.

After consideration of the data, views, or arguments which were submitted, and other available information, it is hereby found and determined that to establish salable and surplus percentages as set forth in the aforesaid notice will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the aforesaid act.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the salable and surplus percentages for dried figs for the 1956–57 crop year shall be as follows:

§ 964.200 Dried fig salable and surplus tonnage regulation for the 1956-57 crop year. The salable percentage of natural condition dried figs acquired by handlers during the crop year beginning August 1, 1956, and ending July 31, 1957, shall be 80 percent, and the surplus percentage of such dried figs for the said crop year shall be 20 percent, and such percentages shall be applicable to each variety separately.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated September 7, 1956, to become effective November 1, 1956.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 146—GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR THE CERTIFICATION OF ANTIBIOTIC AND ANTIBIOTIC-CONTAINING DRUGS

EXEMPTION FROM CERTIFICATION OF SALTS OF ANTIBIOTIC DRUGS

Pursuant to the authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507 (c), 59 Stat. 463; 21 U. S. C. 357 (c)) vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (20 F. R. 1996), Part 146 of the regulations for the certification of antibiotics and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR Part 146) is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 146.30 Exemption for the salts of antibiotic drugs for use in teaching, law enforcement, research, and analysis. The salts of antibiotic drugs subject to section 507 of the act shall be exempt from the requirements of section 502 (l) if shipped or sold to, or in the possession of, persons regularly and lawfully engaged in instruction in pharmacy, chemistry, or medicine not involving clinical use; or in law enforcement; or in research not involving clinical use; or in chemical analysis or physical testing, provided they are to be used only for such instruction, law enforcement, research, analysis, or testing, and provided further that their labels bear the statement "Not for drug use."

I find that when salts of antibiotic drugs are distributed and labeled in conformity with this regulation, no question of safety or efficacy of such salts, within the meaning of section 507 (c) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, is presented, and they need not comply with sections 502 (l) and 507 of the act. I further find that, since the amendment incorporated in this order provides relief from existing requirements, notice and public procedure thereon are unnecessary.

Effective date. This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Subtitle A—Office of the Secretary of Labor

PART 4—CHILD LABOR REGULATIONS, ORDERS AND STATEMENTS OF INTERPRETATION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to authority under sections 3 and 11 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 201 et seq.), the Secretary of Labor has heretofore issued regulations, interpretations and orders (29 CFR Part 4) applicable to the employment of children under the act. A review of this part has indicated a need for several editorial revisions in the portions dealing with interpretations.

Accordingly, Part 4 of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

1. In the sixth sentence of § 4.56 (d), after "N. C." delete the comma and words ", or the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry, St. Paul, Minn."

2. In the sentence preceding the chart "Hazardous Occupations Order No. 4" in § 4.56 (e), delete the date "October 31, 1945" and insert in place thereof the date "November 24, 1951".

3. In the fifth sentence of § 4.120 delete the word "Twelve" and insert in place thereof the word "Thirteen".

4. In § 4.120, after order No. 12, identify a new order as follows:

No. 13. Occupations involved in the manufacture of brick, tile, and kindred products. (Secs. 3, 11, 52 Stat. 1060, as amended, 1066, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 203, 211)

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of September 1956.

ARTHUR LARSON,
Acting Secretary of Labor.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR Part 18]

MAINTENANCE, REPAIR, AND ALTERATION OF AIRFRAMES, POWERPLANTS, PROPELLERS, AND APPLIANCES

EXTENSION OF PROVISIONS OF SPECIAL CIVIL AIR REGULATION NO. SR-377—MECHANICAL WORK PERFORMED ON UNITED STATES REGISTERED AIRCRAFT BY CERTAIN CANADIAN MECHANICS

Pursuant to authority delegated by the Civil Aeronautics Board to the Bureau of Safety Regulation, notice is hereby given that the Bureau will propose to the Board the issuance of a Special Civil Air Regulation to extend the authority contained in Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR-377 as hereinafter set forth.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in duplicate to the Civil Aeronautics Board, attention Bureau of Safety Regulation, Washington 25, D. C. In order to insure their consideration by the Board before taking further action on the proposed rule, communications must be received by Oct. 12, 1956. Copies of such communications will be available after Oct. 17, 1956, for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section of the Board, Room 5412, Department of Commerce Building, Washington, D. C.

Currently effective Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR-377 permits maintenance, repair, and alteration operations on aircraft of United States registry to be performed in Canada by or under the direct supervision of mechanics holding a certificate of competence and appropriate ratings issued by the Canadian Government subject to the condition that such operations be performed in a manner and on a form prescribed by the Administrator, and subject to the further condition that all such operations be performed in conformance with the requirements of Part 18 of the Civil Air Regulations. This special regulation which was made effective on November 13, 1951, will terminate on November 1, 1956.

The preamble material to SR-377 is still pertinent and is incorporated herein for easy reference.

Under the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, foreign individuals who are directly in charge of inspection, maintenance, overhauling, or repair of aircraft, aircraft engines, propellers, or appliances are prohibited from serving as such in connection with any civil aircraft of United States registry used in air commerce unless properly certificated by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. As this prohibition also applies to work performed in foreign countries, Canadian mechanics fully authorized by the Canadian Department of Transport to serve in connection with transport aircraft would be required to possess appropriate United States mechanic certificates to serve in connection with such United States aircraft.

Section 1 (6) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, authorizes the Board to exclude a mechanic employed outside the United States from the definition of "airman" and thus from the necessity of holding a United States airman certificate. The Canadian Government presently recognizes the validity of United States airman certificates issued to mechanics in connection with work performed in the United States on Canadian aircraft.

Since the Canadian Government recognizes the validity of the United States airman certificate in connection with work performed in the United States on Canadian aircraft and is desirous of extending this reciprocal arrangement for the performance of mechanical work on United States registered aircraft by Canadian mechanics, and because the Civil Aeronautics Administration advises that the Canadian standards with respect to maintenance continue to be high and compare favorably with our own, it is proposed to extend this Special Civil Air Regulation for an additional five-year period.

In view of the foregoing, notice is hereby given that the Bureau will propose to the Board a Special Civil Air Regulation to read as follows:

1. An individual holding a valid mechanic certificate of competence and appropriate ratings issued by the Canadian Government shall not be deemed an airman within the meaning of section 1 (6) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, with respect to inspection, maintenance, overhaul, or repair operations conducted in Canada in connection with aircraft of United States registry, and such individual, notwithstanding any contrary provisions of the Civil Air Regulations, may perform such operations in connection with United States aircraft in Canada: Provided, That in the case of repair, alteration, and maintenance, each operation performed is listed and certified to by him in a manner and on a form prescribed by the Administrator: And provided further, That all such repairs, alterations, and maintenance operations shall be performed in conformance with the requirements of Part 18 of the Civil Air Regulations.

2. An aircraft, aircraft engine, or propeller on which any major repair or major alteration has been performed as authorized herein shall not be flown in air commerce until examined, inspected, and approved by a Canadian Department of Transport Inspector of Aircraft. Such approval shall be indicated in a manner and on a form prescribed by the Administrator.

It is proposed that this regulation shall supersede Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR-377 and shall be effective for a period of five years.

This regulation is proposed under the authority of Title VI of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended. The proposal may be changed in the light of comment received in response to this notice of proposed rule making.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 1 (6), 601, 602, 605, 610, 52 Stat. 977, 1007, 1008, 1010, 1012; 49 U. S. C. 401, 551, 552, 555, 560)

REVISED UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS AND REPORTS FOR CERTIFICATED AIR CARRIERS; PRESCRIPTION OF DEPRECIATION ACCOUNTING PRACTICES

NOTICE OF POSTPONEMENT OF ORAL ARGUMENT

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, that oral argument in the above-entitled matter which is now set for September 19 is postponed to September 27, 1956, 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., Room 5042, Commerce Building, Constitution Avenue, between 14th and 15th Streets, NW., Washington, D. C., before the Board.

Attention is directed to the fact that the issues to be argued are limited to the following:

Should the Board, as proposed in Draft Release No. 82, adopt

(a) The general accounting requirement that the depreciable component of the cost of property and equipment be spread, under the straight-line method, on an annual basis; and

(b) The further accounting requirement that a 7-year service life and residual value including 15 percent of cost be used in calculating the depreciation of certain classes of flight equipment.

REIMBURSEMENT OF COMPENSATION

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to authority contained in sections 161 and 251 of the Revised Statutes, and section 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (5 U. S. C. 22; 19 U. S. C. 66, 1624), it is proposed to amend §§ 11.12 and 11.12a of the Customs Regulations relating to the labeling of wool and fur products

Compensation and expenses of customs officers and employees assigned to supervise the marking of country of origin are required to be reimbursed to the Government, section 304 (c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and § 11.8 (m) of the Customs Regulations. It is proposed to establish a similar requirement in connection with the labeling of wool and fur products. This is in accord with the sense of the Congress as expressed in section 501 of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1952 (5 U. S. C. 140). Therefore, it is proposed to amend the regulations as tentatively set forth below:

1. Sections 11.12 (b) and 11.12a (b) are amended by adding to each the following sentence: "The compensation and expenses of customs officers and employees assigned to supervise the labeling shall be reimbursed to the Government and shall be assessed in the same manner as in the case of marking of country of origin, § 11.8 (m)."

2. Section 24.17 (a) containing a listing of reimbursable services will be amended to add the above item.

This notice is published pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). Prior to the issuance of the proposed amendment, consideration will be given to any relevant data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Commissioner of Customs, Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D. C., and received not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. No hearing will be held.

HOLDING OF REFERENDA ON MARKETING QUOTAS

Notice is hereby given under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority contained in the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, is considering amending the regulations governing the holding of referenda on marketing quotas as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 9 and June 29, 1956 (21 F. R. 3960, 4799) to permit peanut producers who planted more than one acre of peanuts for nuts, but harvested less than one acre for nuts through no neglect on their part to vote by amending subparagraph (6) of § 717.3 (a) to read as follows:

(6) Peanuts. Farmers eligible to vote in a referendum with respect to peanuts will be those farmers who engaged in the production of peanuts in the calendar year in which the referendum is held, as owner-operator, cash tenant, standing rent or fixed rent tenant, landlord of a share tenant, share tenant, or sharecropper, on a farm on which the acreage of peanuts planted for harvest for nuts in such year is more than one acre. A landlord of a standing rent, cash rent, or fixed rent tenant shall not be eligible.

Prior to issuance of such amendment, consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations relating thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Oils and Peanut Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All submissions must be postmarked not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PEANUTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROCLAMATION WITH RESPECT TO 1957 NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA AND APPORTIONMENT OF NATIONAL ACREAGE ALLOTMENT TO STATES

Pursuant to Title III of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1301-1393 and Sups.), the Secretary of Agriculture is required by section 358 (a) thereof to proclaim, between July 1 and December 1 of each calendar year, the amount of the national marketing quota for peanuts for the crop produced in the next succeeding calendar year. The amount of such quota is the total quantity of peanuts which will make available for marketing a supply of peanuts from the crop with respect to which the quota is proclaimed equal to the average quantity of peanuts harvested for nuts during the five years immediately preceding the year in which such quota is proclaimed, adjusted for current trends and prospective demand conditions.

Section 358 (a) of the act further provides that the national marketing quota for peanuts shall be converted to a national acreage allotment by dividing such quota by the normal yield per acre of peanuts for the United States determined by the Secretary on the basis of the average yield per acre of peanuts in the five years preceding the year in which the quota is proclaimed, with such adjustment as may be found necessary to correct for trends in yields and for abnormal conditions of production affecting yields.

Section 358 (a) of the act further provides that the national marketing quota established for any year subsequent to 1951 shall be a quantity of peanuts sufficient to provide a national acreage allotment of not less than that established for the crop produced in the calendar year 1941, which was 1,610,000 acres.

Section 358 (c) (1) of the act provides that for any year subsequent to 1951, the national acreage allotment for that year, less the acreage to be allotted to new farms under section 358 (f) of the act, shall be apportioned among the States on the basis of their share of the national acreage allotment for the most recent year in which such apportionment was made. Pursuant to this provision of the act, the national acreage allotment for the 1957 crop of peanuts will be apportioned to States on the basis of their shares of the 1956 national acreage allotment.

Prior to proclaiming the national marketing quota, establishing the national acreage allotment, apportioning the national acreage allotment among the States and determining the percentage of the national acreage allotment to be reserved for new farms consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations relating thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Oils and Peanut Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All written submissions must be postmarked not later than 15 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR SUBMITTING COMMENTS ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO REGULATION A

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced today that it has extended the time for submitting written comments on the proposed amendments to Regulation A from September 15, 1956 to October 15, 1956.

The proposed amendments were published July 23, 1956, in release No. 3664. They would have the effect of making the exemption provided by Regulation A available only to issues and offerings meeting specified standards based either upon the existence of a record of net earnings on the part of the issuer or upon a limitation of the number of securities which might be issued pursuant to the exemption.

The extension has been granted at the request of certain persons who desire further time in which to consider the proposed amendments and also in view of the substantial number of issuers which would be affected by such amendments.

By the Commission.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1956.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management will be noted accordingly.

1. The land in sec. 34 is situated approximately seven miles from Hermiston and is two miles east of the Cold Springs cutoff road. It is slightly rolling and at an elevation of 600 feet above sea level. The soil is Rupert coarse sand. Precipitation is about 8.2 inches annually. The land is not suitable for agriculture.

2. No application for the land in sec. 34 may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the land in sec. 34 is hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10 a. m. on October 10, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10 a. m. on January 9, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10 a. m. on January 9, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

4. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

5. Lots 2 and 3 in sec. 3 are embraced in a valid desert land entry, Oregon 0754, and are, therefore, not subject to the provisions of the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284) as amended, granting preference rights to veterans of World War II, the Korean Conflict, and others.

6. The lands in sec. 34 have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10 a. m. on January 9, 1957.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Portland, Oregon.

EDWARD WOOZLEY,
Director,
Bureau of Land Management.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E–6706]

NORTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION SEEKING ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUE OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

Take notice that an application was filed on August 30, 1956, and an amendment thereto on September 4, 1956, with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, by Northwestern Public Service Company (Applicant), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, and doing business as a qualified foreign corporation in the States of South Dakota and Nebraska, with its principal business office in Huron, South Dakota, seeking an order authorizing the issuance and sale of not to exceed $1,300,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, and the issuance of not to exceed $1,500,000 principal amount of short term bank notes (promissory), maturing not more than 360 days from the date of issuance, or in the alternative, for dismissal of its application and amendment for want of jurisdiction.

Applicant requests exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of the Commission's rules with respect to the proposed bond issue, and written authorization to engage in negotiations for the private sale of the bonds prior to Commission action on its application for exemption.

The promissory notes will be issued to evidence a loan or loans from a commercial bank or banks; no underwriter will participate in the transaction, and the notes will not be for resale to the public.

The proceeds obtained from the proposed issuance will be used by applicant to pay $1,200,000 principal amount of bank notes presently outstanding and maturing March 6, 1957; approximately $300,000 will be applied to defray the cost of routine additions to applicant's existing electric system in South Dakota and gas distributing systems in Nebraska; approximately $700,000 will be expended to convert boilers in its electric system generating plants in Aberdeen and Mitchell, South Dakota, for burning either natural gas or coal, and the balance of the proceeds will be applied to convert and extend its existing gas distribution systems in Aberdeen, Huron and Mitchell, South Dakota, and to construct new gas distribution systems in certain other communities in South Dakota, in which it proposes to distribute natural gas when made available to it by Northern Natural Gas Company.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 26th day of September, 1956, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file and available for public inspection.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

[Docket No. G–9811]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

Take notice that Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at Texas Eastern Building, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed, on December 22, 1955, as amended January 3, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to have constructed and to operate, as an integral part of its existing natural gas system, certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described for the purpose of enabling Applicant to take natural gas produced from the Alco-Mag Field and the Aldine Field, Harris County, Texas, for transportation and sales in interstate commerce.

The facilities proposed to be constructed for and operated by Applicant consist of approximately 17 miles of 8-inch pipe line reducing to 3 miles of 6-inch pipe line extending in a northwesterly direction from a point of interconnection with Applicant's existing 20-inch Baytown-Hankamer pipe line to a point within the Alco-Mag Field, Harris County, Texas.

The estimated cost of construction of the proposed facilities is $653,000 which will be financed by Applicant from funds on hand.

Applicant, in seeking the instant authorization, states that no new sales are proposed by the instant application and that it is the policy of Applicant to purchase and add to its gas supply all available gas reserves adjacent to its system.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Thursday, October 11, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 26, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket Nos. G–10654, G–10659]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

In the matters of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation, and New York State Natural Gas Corporation, Docket No. G–10654; Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–10659.

Take notice that on June 27, 1956, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern), Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco), and New York State Natural Gas Corporation (New York State) (Applicants) filed a joint application in Docket No. G–10654, as amended on July 11, 1956, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity permitting them to carry out a short-term arrangement to supply off-peak gas to companies of the Consolidated Natural Gas Sytsem [1] for the period ending October 31, 1956.

Applicants state that no additional or new facilities are required or proposed as all the deliveries involved will be made through existing facilities and connections between the companies involved.

Applicants further state that it is proposed that until October 31, 1956, Consolidated Edison Company of New York, an existing customer of Transco, will cut back on its purchases from Transco to the extent of a maximum of 5,000,000 Mcf. This gas would normally be burned under Consolidated Edison's boilers during this period for generating electricity. Transco proposes to sell this gas to companies of the Consolidated Natural system, with deliveries to be made for Transco's account by Texas Eastern to such companies as are customers of Texas Eastern. Transco will deliver the released gas to Texas Eastern under an exchange arrangement through existing interconnections between the two systems or through mutual customers of the two companies. Texas Eastern will return the exchange gas in equivalent volumes to the Consolidated companies for Transco's account.

Applicants also state that the 5,000,000 Mcf delivery will be made by Transco and Texas Eastern at an average rate of 50,000 Mcf per day, subject to Consolidated Edison's right not to release the gas on any day when it finds it will need such gas for its gas consumers.

Applicants allege that the Consolidated Natural system experienced a severe winter in 1955–56 and also did not receive as much gas from Tennessee Gas Transmission Company as it expected to receive in 1955 and early 1956. As a result, its storage balances are far below those required to enable it to meet its estimated requirements next winter. Those requirements include large volumes of industrial gas although boiler fuel is not a substantial portion of the industrial load. Consolidated estimates that at the end of May 1956 its storage balances totalled about 23,000,000 Mcf less than it had anticipated as of that date. The system has requested authorizations for several arrangements, to enable it to receive additional storage gas, that are the subject of various filings before the Commission.

Applicants also allege that during the period between November 16, 1956, and April 15, 1957, New York State Natural proposes to sell to Transco ⅛ of the gas purchased by the Consolidated Natural companies during the period ending October 31, 1956 for resale by Transco to Consolidated Edison. The latter would not agree to the entire proposal unless it receives this return gas. The return gas will be made at the average rate of about 24,000 Mcf per day, for a total maximum of 625,000 Mcf.

Take further notice that in Docket No. G–10659, Texas Eastern filed an application on June 28, 1956, as amended July 12, 1956, proposing to sell to the Consolidated companies 24,000 Mcf per day and a winter contract quantity of 1,812,000 Mcf under its Winter Peaking Service Rate Schedule (50 cents per Mcf) during the period November 16, 1956 to April 15, 1957. This will enable New York Natural to sell 24,000 Mcf per day and a total of 625,000 Mcf to Transco for resale to Consolidated Edison during the same period. Texas Eastern shows that it has the gas supply and capacity available to make this sale without adverse effect to its other customers.

Texas Eastern states that it will deliver the 24,000 Mcf per day to Transco for the account of New York Natural at interconnections between the two companies or through mutual customers. Transco will then deliver and sell equivalent quantities to Consolidated Edison over and above its other authorized deliveries. Texas Eastern states it will file another application to effectuate the arrangement with Transco.

Transco states that it proposes to charge the Consolidated companies 34.23 cents per Mcf for the released gas, which is the present 100% load factor price to Consolidated Edison. These payments by Consolidated Natural will reduce pro tanto the demand charge and minimum bill obligations of Consolidated Edison under its service agreement with Transco.

For the return gas Transco proposes to pay New York Natural 34.23 cents per Mcf and Consolidated Edison would pay Transco 36.23 cents per Mcf, or an additional 2 cents per Mcf for Transco's services.

Texas Eastern alleges that it would make no charge for the service it would render in delivering the released gas to the Consolidated Natural companies and Consolidated Edison shows that by releasing 5,000,000 Mcf to Transco, as proposed, it will bear increased costs of $280,000 for alternate fuel used in generating electricity. However, it expects to recover about $269,000 when it purchases the return gas from Transco because it will save that much in not manufacturing 625,000 Mcf of peaking gas next winter and in paying only 36.23 cents per Mcf for peaking natural gas.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 4, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 19, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[File No. 24D-2075]

WING E-E, INC.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

I. Wing E-E, Inc., a Colorado Corporation, 609 Equitable Building, Denver 2, Colorado, filed with the Commission April 10, 1956, a notification on Form 1-A and offering circular, and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to a proposed public offering of 299,900 shares of common stock, par value 10 cents, at $1 per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder. Columbia Securities Company, 1 Equitable Building, Denver, Colorado, is named as the principal underwriter of the securities proposed to be offered by Wing E-E, Inc.

II. The Commission has been advised:

(a) That Columbia Securities Company, the principal underwriter for Wing, is an instrumentality of Arnold L. Kimmes, its director, chairman of the board and controlling stockholder;

(b) That said Arnold L. Kimmes was indicted, with certain other persons, on or about August 3, 1956, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York on charges of violating and conspiring to violate the Mail Fraud Statute and violating and conspiring to violate sections 5 and 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the sale of securities;

The indictment alleges among other things that Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants did knowingly, willfully and unlawfully devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the purchasers of certain securities, and did obtain money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises well knowing at the time the pretenses, representations and promises would be false when made;

The aforesaid indictment, in alleging a scheme and artifice to defraud, charges Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants, among other things, with:

(1) Establishing and operating firms engaged in the sale of securities by means of television, radio and newspaper advertising, mail circularization, telephone calls and by salesmen employed under their supervision;

(2) Forming certain corporations for creating a source for securities for distribution to the public and for subsequent trading with the public;

(3) Procuring various men to serve as dummy promoters, officers and directors of said corporations;

(4) Acquiring properties for little or no consideration and having little or no real value and arranging for the transfer of such properties to such corporations and also arranging for the advancing of funds to organize such corporations;

(5) Issuing and causing to be issued to themselves, using the names of dummy promoters, officers and directors, large blocks of so-called promoter's shares, and thereafter causing to be sold through the aforesaid broker-dealer firms such shares; and

(6) Causing an increase in the market price of the shares of said companies far above and beyond any real value thereof, and selling to the public large quantities of so-called promoter's shares for shares exchanged and received therefor through broker-dealer firms and by means of television, radio, newspaper, mail and telephone advertising.

(c) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular have not been amended to reflect the facts with respect to the indictment of said Arnold L. Kimmes and his relationship with Columbia Securities Company;

(d) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular, in omitting to disclose the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment of Arnold L. Kimmes and his control of, and relationship to, Columbia Securities Company omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and

(e) That the offer and sale of Wing securities without disclosing the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment and the control of Columbia Securities Company by Arnold L. Kimmes would operate as a fraud or deceit upon purchasers.

It, therefore, appears necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors temporarily to suspend the Regulation A exemption under said act.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rules 223 (a) and 261 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any interested person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time on its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension shall be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and, that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be given promptly by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That this order and notice shall be served upon Wing E-E, Inc., Columbia Securities Company, and Arnold L. Kimmes, personally or by registered mail confirmed by telegraphic notice, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

(c) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular have not been amended to reflect the facts with respect to the indictment of said Arnold L. Kimmes and his relationship with Columbia Securities Company.

(d) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular in omitting to disclose the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment of Arnold L. Kimmes and his control of, and relationship to, Columbia Securities Company omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and

(e) That the offer and sale of Teton securities without disclosing the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment and the control of Columbia Securities Company by Arnold L. Kimmes would operate as a fraud or deceit upon purchasers.

It, therefore, appears necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors temporarily to suspend the Regulation A exemption under said act.

NATIONAL LITHIUM CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

I. National Lithium Corporation (National), a Colorado corporation, 310 Denver Club Building, Denver, Colorado, filed with the Commission on December 27, 1955, a notification on Form 1-A and offering circular, and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to a proposed public offering of 2,999,000 shares of common stock, par value 1 cent, at 10 cents per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder. By amendment filed May 29, 1956, Columbia Securities Company, No. 1 Equitable Building, Denver, Colorado, is named as the principal underwriter of the securities proposed to be offered by National.

II. The Commission has been advised:

(a) That Columbia Securities Company, the principal underwriter for National, is an instrumentality of Arnold L. Kimmes, its director, chairman of the board and controlling stockholder;

(b) That said Arnold L. Kimmes was indicted, with certain other persons, on or about August 3, 1956, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York on charges of violating and conspiring to violate sections 5 and 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the sale of securities;

The indictment alleges among other things that Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants did knowingly, willfully and unlawfully devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the purchasers of certain securities, and did obtain money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, well knowing at the time the pretenses, representations and promises would be false when made;

The aforesaid indictment, in alleging a scheme and artifice to defraud, charges Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants, among other things, with:

(1) Establishing and operating firms engaged in the sale of securities by means of television, radio and newspaper advertising, mail circularization, telephone calls and by salesmen employed under their supervision;

(2) Forming certain corporations for creating a source for securities for distribution to the public and for subsequent trading with the public;

(3) Procuring various men to serve as dummy promoters, officers and directors of said corporations;

(4) Acquiring properties for little or no consideration and having little or no real value and arranging for the transfer of such properties to such corporations and also arranging for the advancing of funds to organize such corporations;

(5) Issuing and causing to be issued to themselves, using the names of dummy promotors, officers and directors, large blocks of so-called promotor's shares, and thereafter causing to be sold through the aforesaid broker-dealer firms such shares; and

(6) Causing an increase in the market price of the shares of said companies far above and beyond any real value thereof, and selling to the public large quantities of so-called promoter's shares for shares exchanged and received therefor through broker-dealer firms and by means of television, radio, newspaper, mail and telephone advertising.

(c) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular have not been amended to reflect the facts with respect to the indictment of said Arnold L. Kimmes and his relationship with Columbia Securities Company;

(d) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular, in omitting to disclose the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment of Arnold L. Kimmes and his control of, and relationship to, Columbia Securities Company omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and

(e) That the offer and sale of National securities without disclosing the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment and the control of Columbia Securities Company by Arnold L. Kimmes would operate as a fraud or deceit upon purchasers.

It, therefore, appears necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors temporarily to suspend the Regulation A exemption under said act.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rules 223 (a) and 261 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any interested persons having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time on its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension shall be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and, that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be given promptly by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That this Order and Notice shall be served upon National Lithium Corporation, Columbia Securities Company, and Arnold L. Kimmes, personally or by registered mail confirmed by telegraphic notice, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

IOLA URANIUM CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

I. Iola Uranium Corporation (Iola), a Colorado corporation, 1414 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago 5, Illinois, filed with the Commission on July 26, 1955, a notification on Form 1-A and offering circular, and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to a proposed public offering of 1,200,000 shares of common stock, 1 cent par value, at 25 cents per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder. Columbia Securities Company, No. 1 Equitable Building, Denver, Colorado, is named as principal underwriter of the securities to be offered by Iola.

II. The Commission has been advised:

(a) That Columbia Securities Company, the principal underwriter for Iola, is an instrumentality of Arnold L. Kimmes, its director, chairman of the board and controlling stockholder;

(b) That said Arnold L. Kimmes was indicted, with certain other persons, on or about August 3, 1956, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York on charges of violating and conspiring to violate the Mail Fraud Statute and violating and conspiring to violate sections 5 and 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the sale of securities;

The indictment alleges among other things that Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants did knowingly, willfully and unlawfully devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the purchasers of certain securities, and did obtain money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises well knowing at the time the pretenses, representations and promises would be false when made;

The aforesaid indictment, in alleging a scheme and artifice to defraud, charges Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants among other things, with:

(1) Establishing and operating firms engaged in the sale of securities by means of television, radio and newspaper advertising, mail circularization, telephone calls and by salesmen employed under their supervision;

(2) Forming certain corporations for creating a source for securities for distribution to the public and for subsequent trading with the public;

(3) Procuring various men to serve as dummy promoters, officers and directors of said corporations;

(4) Acquiring properties for little or no consideration and having little or no real value and arranging for the transfer of such properties to such corporations and also arranging for the advancing of funds to organize such corporations;

(5) Issuing and causing to be issued to themselves, using the names of dummy promoters, officers, and directors, large blocks of so-called promoter's shares, and thereafter causing to be sold through the aforesaid broker-dealer firms such shares; and

(6) Causing an increase in the market price of the shares of said companies far above and beyond any real value thereof, and selling to the public large quantities of so-called promoter's shares for shares exchanged and received therefor through broker-dealer firms and by means of television, radio, newspaper, mail and telephone advertising.

(c) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular have not been amended to reflect the facts with respect to the indictment of said Arnold L. Kimmes and his relationship with Columbia Securities Company;

(d) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular, in omitting to disclose the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment of Arnold L. Kimmes and his control of, and relationship to, Columbia Securities Company omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading; and

(e) That the offer and sale of Iola securities without disclosing the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment and the control of Columbia Securities Company by Arnold L. Kimmes would operate as a fraud or deceit upon purchasers.

It, therefore, appears necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors temporarily to suspend the Regulation A exemption under said act.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rules 223 (a) and 261 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any interested person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time on its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension shall be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and, that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be given promptly by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That this order and notice shall be served upon Iola Uranium Corporation, Columbia Securities Company, and Arnold L. Kimmes, personally or by registered mail confirmed by telegraphic notice, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

DIVERSIFIED RESOURCES, INC.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASON THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

I. Diversified Resources, Inc. (Diversified), a Colorado corporation, Suite 16, Uranium Center Building, Grand Junction, Colorado, filed with the Commission on July 5, 1956, a notification on Form 1-A and offering circular, and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to a proposed offering of 6,000,000 shares of common stock, par value 1 cent, at 5 cents per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder. Columbia Securities Company, No. 1 Equitable Building, Denver, Colorado, is named as the principal underwriter of the securities proposed to be offered by Diversified.

II. The Commission has been advised:

(a) That Columbia Securities Company, the principal underwriter for Diversified, is an instrumentality of Arnold L. Kimmes, its director, chairman of the board and controlling stockholder;

(b) That said Arnold L. Kimmes was indicted, with certain other persons, on or about August 3, 1956, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York on charges of violating and conspiring to violate the Mail Fraud Statute and violating and conspiring to violate Sections 5 and 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the sale of securities;

The indictment alleges among other things that Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants did knowingly, willfully and unlawfully devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the purchasers of certain securities, and did obtain money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises well knowing at the time the pretenses, representations and promises would be false when made;

The aforesaid indictment, in alleging a scheme and artifice to defraud, charges Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants, among other things, with:

(1) Establishing and operating firms engaged in the sale of securities by means of television, radio and newspaper advertising, mail circularization, telephone calls and by salesmen employed under their supervision;

(2) Forming certain corporations for creating a source for securities for distribution to the public and for subsequent trading with the public;

(3) Procuring various men to serve as dummy promoters, officers and directors of said corporation;

(4) Acquiring properties for little or no consideration and having little or no real value and arranging for the transfer of such properties to such corporations and also arranging for the advancing of funds to organize such corporations;

(5) Issuing and causing to be issued to themselves, using the names of dummy promoters, officers and directors, large blocks of so-called promoter's shares, and thereafter causing to be sold through the aforesaid broker-dealer firms such shares; and

(6) Causing an increase in the market price of the shares of said companies far above and beyond any real value thereof, and selling to the public large quantities of so-called promoter's shares for shares exchanged and received therefor through broker-dealer firms and by means of television, radio, newspaper, mail and telephone advertising.

(c) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular have not been amended to reflect the facts with respect to the indictment of said Arnold L. Kimmes and his relationship with Columbia Securities Company;

(d) That the aforesaid notification and offering circular, in omitting to disclose the facts relating to the aforesaid indictment of Arnold L. Kimmes and his control of, and relationship to, Columbia Securities Company omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading; and

(e) That the offer and sale of Diversified securities without disclosing the facts relating to the aforeasid indictment and the control of Columbia Securities Company by Arnold L. Kimmes would operate as a fraud or deceit upon purchasers.

It, therefore, appears necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors temporarily to suspend the Regulation A exemption under said Act.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rules 223 (a) and 261 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any interested person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time on its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension shall be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and, that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be given promptly by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That this order and notice shall be served upon Diversified Resources, Inc., Columbia Securities Company, and Arnold L. Kimmes, personally or by registered mail confirmed by telegraphic notice, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

DALMID OIL & URANIUM, INC.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

I. Dalmid Oil & Uranium, Inc. (Dalmid) a Delaware corporation, 1730 North 7th Street, Grand Junction, Colorado, filed with the Commission on April 16, 1956, a notification on Form 1-A, and subsequently filed an amendment thereto, together with an offering circular relating to a proposed public offering of 2,700,000 shares of common stock, par value 1 cent, at 10 cents per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements, of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder. Columbia Securities Company, 1 Equitable Building, Denver, Colorado, is named as the principal underwriter of the securities proposed to be offered by Dalmid.

II. The Commission has been advised:

(a) That Columbia Securities Company, the principal underwriter for Dalmid, is an instrumentality of Arnold L. Kimmes, its director, chairman of the board and controlling stockholder;

(b) That said Arnold L. Kimmes was indicted, with certain other persons, on or about August 3, 1956, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York on charges of violating and conspiring to violate the Mail Fraud Statute and violating and conspiring to violate sections 5 and 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the sale of securities;

The indictment alleges among other things that Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants did knowingly, willfully and unlawfully devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the purchasers of certain securities, and did obtain money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises well knowing at the time the pretenses, representations and promises would be false when made;

The aforesaid indictment, in alleging a scheme and artifice to defraud, charges Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants, among other things, with:

(1) Establishing and operating firms engaged in the sale of securities by means of television, radio and newspaper advertising, mail circularization, telephone calls and by salesmen employed under their supervision;

(2) Forming certain corporations for creating a source for securities for distribution to the public and for subsequent trading with the public;

BEEHIVE URANIUM CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956.

I. Beehive Uranium Corporation (Beehive), a Utah corporation, 156 Third South Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, filed with the Commission on May 26, 1955, a notification, Form 1-A, and offering circular, and subsequently filed an amendment thereto, relating to a proposed offer of 20,000,000 shares of common stocks, 1 cent par, at par, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder. Columbia Securities Company, No. 1 Equitable Building, Denver, Colorado, is named as the principal underwriter of the securities proposed to be offered by Beehive.

II. The Commission has been advised:

(a) That Columbia Securities Company, the principal underwriter for Beehive, is an instrumentality of Arnold L.

Kimmes, its director, chairman of the board and controlling stockholder;

(b) That said Arnold L. Kimmes was indicted, with certain other persons, on or about August 3, 1956, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York on charges of violating and conspiring to violate the Mail Fraud Statute and violating and conspiring to violate sections 5 and 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the sale of securities.

The indictment alleges among other things that Arnold L. Kimmes and certain other defendants did knowingly, willfully and unlawfully devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the purchasers of certain securities, and did obtain money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, well knowing at the time the pretenses, representations and promises would be false when made;

[Notice 129]

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS

SEPTEMBER 7, 1956.

Protests, consisting of an original and two copies, to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and a copy of such protest served on the applicant. Each protest must clearly state the name and street number, city and state address of each protestant on behalf of whom the protest is filed (49 CFR 1.240 and 1.241). Failure to seasonably file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding unless an oral hearing is held. In addition to other requirements of Rule 40 of the general rules of practice of the Commission (49 CFR 1.40), protests shall include a request for a public hearing, if one is desired, and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests containing general allegations may be rejected. Requests for an oral hearing must be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence cannot be submitted in the form of affidavits. Any interested person not a protestant, desiring to receive notice of the time and place of any hearing, pre-hearing conference, taking of depositions, or other proceedings shall notify the Commission by letter or telegram within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Except when circumstances require immediate action, an application for approval, under section 210a (b) of the act, of the temporary operation of Motor Carrier properties sought to be acquired in an application under section 5 (2) will not be disposed of sooner than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If a protest is received prior to action being taken, it will be considered.

For authority to operate as a contract carrier, over irregular routes, transporting: Airplane parts and equipment (except airplane engines), which because of their delicate nature require special handling and equipment, from Litchfield Park, Ariz., to Wichita, Kans.; and empty containers or other such incidental facilities (not specified) used in transporting the commodities specified, on return. Applicant is authorized to conduct operations throughout the United States.

No. MC 20207 Sub 29, filed August 28, 1956, CONTINENTAL TRANSPORTATION LINES, INC., Continental Square, Graham Street, McKees Rocks, Pa. Applicant's representative: Delisi and Wick, 1211 Berger Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa. For authority to operate as a common carrier, transporting: General commodities, except those of unusual value, Class A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk and those requiring special equipment, serving the site of the plant of the Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corporation, located in Lordstown Township, Trumbull County, Ohio, approximately one (1) mile beyond the limit of the Commercial Zone of Warren, Ohio, as an off-route point in connection with applicant's authorized regular route operations between Pittsburgh, Pa., and Cleveland, Ohio, over U. S. Highways 19 and 422, also over Pennsylvania Highway 8 and U. S. Highway 422. Applicant is authorized to conduct operations in Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

No. MC 26739 Sub 17, filed August 21, 1956, WAGNER FREIGHT LINES, INCORPORATED, Transport Building, St. Joseph, Mo. Applicant's representative: Charles W. Singer, 1825 Jefferson Place NW., Washington 6, D. C. For authority to operate as a common carrier, over irregular routes, transporting: General commodities, except those of unusual value, Class A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and those requiring special equipment, between St. Joseph, Mo., and Chicago, Ill. Applicant is authorized to conduct regular route operations in Iowa, Kansas and Missouri, and irregular route operations in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, and Nebraska.

NOTE: Applicant states it now holds authorities, among others, to handle general freight between points on its regular routes, including St. Joseph, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in the State of Illinois, by operating through the gateway of Maryville, Mo., or points within ten miles thereof. The purpose of the instant application is to eliminate the necessity of operating through that gateway on movements between St. Joseph and Chicago and other points on its regular routes. Since the gateway will be used in connection with other operations, it is proposed to retain the irregular route authority which applicant now holds between Maryville and points within ten miles thereof, on the one hand, and, on the other, the States of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. Applicant further states no new service will result from the granting of the application.

No. MC 26739 Sub 18, filed August 21, 1956, WAGNER FREIGHT LINES, INCORPORATED, Transport Building, St. Joseph, Mo. Applicant's representative: Charles W. Singer, 1825 Jefferson Place NW., Washington 6, D. C. For authority to operate as a common carrier, over irregular routes, transporting: (1) Contractors machinery and equipment, from Sprinfigeld, Ill., to points in Kansas west of U. S. Highway 75, (2) farm implements and machinery, from Canton, Chicago, Libertyville, Moline and Rock Island, Ill., and Dubuque and Waterloo, Iowa, to points in Kansas west of U. S. Highway 75, and (3) farm supplies, from Joliet, Sterling and Rock Falls, Ill., to points in Kansas. Applicant is authorized to conduct regular route operations in Iowa, Kansas, and Missouri, and irregular route operations in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska.

NOTE: Applicant states that it now holds the authority requested above by tacking or combining its operating authorities through the gateway of Maryville, Mo., or points within ten miles thereof. The purpose of the instant application is to eliminate the necessity of operating through this gateway in connection with the transportation described above. Since the gateway will be used in connection with other operations, it is proposed to retain the irregular route authority which applicant now holds between Maryville and points within ten miles thereof, on the one hand, and, on the other, the States of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, and Nebraska.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 970—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MAINE

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 970.303 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 122 and Order No. 70 (7 CFR Part 970), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Maine, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Maine Potato Marketing Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

(b) Order. (1) During the period from September 17, 1956, through July 13, 1957, and except as otherwise provided in this section, no handler shall ship: (i) potatoes of the round white or red skin varieties unless at least 90 percent of such potatoes are "fairly clean" and such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1, or better, grade, 2¼ inches minimum diameter and 4 inches maximum diameter; or (ii) potatoes of the long varieties (including, but not being limited to, the Russet Burbank variety) unless such potatoes meet the requirements of (a) the U. S. No. 1, or better, grade, Size A, 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight, or (b) the U. S. No. 2, or better, grade, 5 ounces minimum weight.

(2) No handler shall ship potatoes for chipping unless the potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1, or better, grade, 2 inches minimum diameter and 4 inches maximum diameter, except that U. S. No. 1, Size B, potatoes may also be shipped: Provided, That each handler making any such shipments for chipping shall file an application for, and obtain, a Certificate of Privilege pursuant to §§ 970.56 and 970.130 and, at the same time, or at such time subsequent thereto as the Maine Potato Administrative Committee may require, provide the administrative committee with appropriate evidence that such potatoes were, or are being, treated and conditioned for use for potato chipping and that such potatoes, except for damage resulting from shriveling or sprouting, meet the applicable grade and size requirements set forth in this subparagraph.

(3) No handler shall ship potatoes for export unless such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1 grade.

(4) Pursuant to § 970.54, each handler may ship not in excess of thirty (30) hundredweight of potatoes per week free from regulations effective pursuant to §§ 970.45 and 970.65: Provided, That handlers making such shipments report such shipments to the administrative committee on the 16th and last day of each month.

(5) The limitations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of certified seed potatoes or to shipments of potatoes for the following purposes: (i) For grading or storing in the production area; (ii) for distribution by the Federal Government; (iii) for charitable purposes; (iv) for manufacture or conversion into starch, flour, or alcohol; (v) for canning or freezing; (vi) for livestock feed; (vii) for planting within the production area; and (viii) for dehydration.

(6) Each handler making shipments of potatoes for export, charitable purposes, dehydration, potato chipping, canning or freezing, or livestock feed shall: (i) File an application pursuant to § 970.56 with the administrative committee for a Certificate of Privilege for such shipments; (ii) pay assessments pursuant to § 970.45 with respect to the shipments of certified seed potatoes; and (iii) pay assessments pursuant to § 970.45 and have inspection pursuant to § 970.65 with respect to each shipment for export, potato chipping, distribution by the Federal Government, and for charitable purposes. Further, each handler who ships potatoes for export, potato chipping, distribution by the Federal Government, charitable purposes, dehydration, canning, freezing (or livestock feed, shall furnish a record of such shipments to the administrative committee. In addition, each application for a Certificate of Privilege to ship potatoes for export, potato chipping, charitable purposes, dehydration, or canning or freezing shall be accompanied by the applicant handler's certification and the buyer's or receiver's certification that the potatoes to be shipped for the purpose stated in the application are to be used for such purpose. The buyer's or receiver's certification shall be furnished to the administrative committee within 10 days from the date of shipment by said applicant handler. Handlers making shipments of potatoes for export to Canada may furnish the administrative committee with a copy of the Freight Delivery Receipt issued by Canadian customs officials upon entry of such shipment into Canada in lieu of the buyer's or receiver's certification required in this subparagraph. The limitations set forth in this subparagraph shall not apply to shipments of potatoes of less than 15,000 pounds for canning or freezing, for dehydration, or for livestock feed when shipped in barrels, in bulk, or in unsewn 100-pound burlap bags within the production area.

(7) No handler shall ship potatoes under a Certificate of Exemption issued pursuant to §§ 970.70 to 970.75, inclusive, and which are exempted from the grade and size limitations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, unless such potatoes are packed in 50-pound or larger packs.

(8) No handler shall ship any potatoes for which inspection is required unless an appropriate inspection certificate had been issued with respect thereto and the certificate is valid at the time of shipment. For purposes of operation under this part, each inspection certificate is hereby determined, pursuant to paragraph (c) of § 970.65, to be valid for a period not to exceed 48 hours following completion of inspection as shown in the certificate.

(9) The term "fairly clean" and the grades and sizes used in this section shall have the same meanings assigned these terms in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1559 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein; and all other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 122 and Order No. 70 (§§ 970.1 to 970.92).

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter I—Commodity Exchange Authority (Including Commodity Exchange Commission), Department of Agriculture

PART 1—GENERAL REGULATIONS UNDER THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT

HEDGING ANTICIPATED REQUIREMENTS FOR PROCESSING OR MANUFACTURING UNDER SECTION 4a (3) OF COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U. S. C. 1–17a), as amended by Public Law 778, 84th Congress, 2d session, approved July 24, 1956, and pursuant to notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 2, 1956 (21 F. R. 5780), Part 1 of Chapter I, Title 17, Code of Federal Regulations (17 CFR Part 1), is hereby amended by inserting the following section immediately after § 1.47:

§ 1.48 Hedging anticipated requirements for processing or manufacturing under section 4a (3) (C) of the Commodity Exchange Act—(a) Form and manner of reporting. Any person who desires to avail himself of the provisions of section 4a (3) (C) of the Commodity Exchange Act, and to acquire a long futures position in any commodity with respect to which trading and position limits established by the Commodity Exchange Commission, pursuant to section 4a of the act, shall be then in effect, shall, at least ten days prior to acquiring any position in excess of any such limit, file with the Commodity Exchange Authority, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., a statement showing such person's unfilled anticipated requirements for processing or manufacturing for a specified operating period not in excess of one year. Such statement shall set forth in detail such person's unfilled anticipated requirements and explain the method of determination thereof, and shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(1) Annual requirements of such commodity for processing or manufacturing for the three fiscal years next preceding;

(2) Anticipated requirements of such commodity for processing or manufacturing for a specified operating period not in excess of one year;

(3) Inventory and forward purchases of such commodity, including quantity in process of manufacture and finished goods and byproducts (in terms of such commodity);

(4) Anticipated unfilled requirements of such commodity for processing or manufacturing for a specified period not in excess of one year.

(b) Supplemental reports. Whenever such person's anticipated requirements as set forth in paragraph (a) (2) of this section or any statement supplemental thereto shall change, such person shall immediately file with the Commodity Exchange Authority a supplemental statement reporting and explaining such change. Such person shall also file with the Commodity Exchange Authority, at least once each year, a statement setting forth the information described in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Purchases and liquidation. All purchases of any commodity for future delivery pursuant to the provisions of section 4a (3) (C) of the act shall be made and liquidated in an orderly manner and in accordance with sound commercial practice. No such purchase shall be made or liquidated in a manner calculated to cause sudden or unreasonable fluctuations or unwarranted changes in the price of such commodity.

This regulation implements the amendment to section 4a of the Commodity Exchange Act approved July 24, 1956, which becomes effective September 22, 1956. It is being promulgated pursuant to the notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 2, 1956, affording interested persons an opportunity to present data, views, or arguments with reference thereto, and after consideration of all pertinent matters so presented. It is necessary that this regulation become effective on September 22, 1956, the effective date of Public Law 778, in order for it to be of maximum benefit to processors and manufacturers who trade in commodity futures on or subject to the rules of contract markets. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that other procedure with respect to the regulation is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to public interest, and good cause is found for making the regulation effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This regulation shall become effective September 22, 1956.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Acting Secretary.

PART 12—SPECIAL CLASSES OF MERCHANDISE

PART 14—APPRAISEMENT

DECLARATIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN SPECIAL CLASSES OF MERCHANDISE, ELIMINATION OF CONSULAR CERTIFICATION; APPRAISEMENT OF MERCHANDISE

In order to ease the requirements under the Customs Regulations for the conditionally free-entry of certain merchandise, to conform a provision of such regulations with a recently amended provision of the Joint Regulations for the enforcement of the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, and to delete an obsolete provision of the Customs Regulations, the Customs Regulations are amended as follows:

1. Section 10.48 (b) (1) is amended by substituting "declaration in the following form by the artist who produced" for "certificate on foreign service Form 253 by the artist who executed", by changing the period to a colon, and by adding the following material after the colon:

I, _____, do hereby declare that I am the painter or producer of certain works of art, viz:

covered by the annexed invoice dated _____; that the said paintings, pastels, drawings and/or sketches are originals; that the said sculptures or statuary are originals or the first or second replicas; and that the said etchings, engravings, or woodcuts were printed by hand from hand-etched or hand-engraved plates or blocks and are artists' proofs _____

_____ _____
(Place and date) (Signature of artist)

2. Section 10.48 (b) (2) is amended by substituting "declaration" for "certificate".

3. Section 10.48 (c) is amended by substituting "declaration" for "certificate".

(Secs. 201 (par. 1807), 624, 46 Stat. 684, 759; 19 U. S. C. 1201 (par. 1807), 1624)

4. Section 10.50 is amended by substituting the following for all material after "importer shall file": "a declaration of the artist which shall be on or attached to the invoice and shall state:

I, _____, do hereby declare that I am a citizen of the United States of America, and by profession _____; in the invoice herewith were produced by me during my temporary residence abroad at _____, during the year 19__.

The declaration may be made by the artist on customs Form 3307."

(Sec. 201 (par. 1810), 46 Stat. 685; 19 U. S. C. 1201 (par. 1810))

5. Section 10.66 (a) (2) is amended to read:

(2) A declaration by the foreign shipper, irrespective of the value of the shipment, stating:

I, _____, do hereby declare that the merchandise herein described was imported from the United States, and that it was sent to _____ for temporary use at the Exhibition entitled _____, held at _____ on _____, 19__.

Appendix—Canal Zone Orders

[Canal Zone Order 44]

ESTABLISHING UNITED STATES NAVAL RESERVATION, BALBOA, CANAL ZONE

By virtue of the authority vested in the President of the United States by section 5 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code, as amended by section 1 of the Act of September 26, 1950, 64 Stat. 1038, and delegated to me by Executive Order No. 9746 of July 1, 1946, as amended by Executive Order No. 10101 of January 31, 1950, and after consultation with the Secretary of the Navy, it is ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. Setting apart of reservation; boundary. The area of land in the Canal Zone hereinafter described as United States Naval Reservation, Balboa, Canal Zone, is hereby set apart and assigned to the uses and purposes of a naval reservation and to be under the control and jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy, subject to the provisions of section 2 of this order:

UNITED STATES NAVAL RESERVATION, BALBOA CANAL ZONE

Beginning at monument "V", which is an iron rail set in concrete, located on the northwesterly side of a cyclone fence, on the northwesterly boundary of Ft. Amador Military Reservation. The geodetic position of monument "V", referred to the Panama-Colon datum of the Canal Zone triangulation system, is in latitude 8°56' N. plus 3,602.80 feet and longitude 79°33' W., plus 1,556.90 feet from Greenwich.

Thence from said initial point by metes and bounds:

S. 37°39'10" W., 1,314.31 feet, along the northwesterly boundary of the Ft. Amador Military Reservation, through monument "Z", which is an iron rail set in concrete, located on the southeasterly side of a cyclone fence, to monument No. 2, which is a 1½-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located on the northwesterly side of a cyclone fence, at the northeasterly corner of Panama Canal Post No. 1, the American Legion, License No. 756-A, the distances being 765.02 feet and 549.29 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

Northwesterly and southwesterly, following the boundary of the American Legion, License No. 756-A, through monuments No. 1 and "A", and southwesterly, following the boundary of the Balboa Yacht Club, License No. 756-B, through monuments Nos. 3-A and 3, to unmarked point called "C", as follows:

N. 52°49'00" W., 441.68 feet, to monument No. 1, which is a 1½-inch iron pipe set in concrete;

S. 39°55'30" W., 91.3 feet, more or less, through monument "A", which is a ¾-inch iron rod set in concrete, monuments Nos. 3-A and 3, which are 1½-inch iron pipes set in concrete, to an unmarked point called "C", located at the extreme high water mark on the shore of Balboa Harbor, the distances being 44.96 feet, 13.04 feet, 28.52 feet and 4.8 feet, more or less, successively, from beginning of the course;

Northwesterly, 1,450 feet, more or less, following the extreme high water mark along the shore of Balboa Harbor, to an unmarked point called "D", located 29.00 feet northwesterly and at right angles from the centerline of Navy Pier No. 2, and S. 47°02'30" W., 6.0 feet, more or less, from monument "E";

N. 47°02'30" 68.8 feet, more or less, through monument "E", which is a 2-inch iron pipe, to monument "F", which is a 2-inch iron pipe, located 2.0 feet southwesterly from the face of Balboa Tank Farm cyclone fence, the distances being 6.0 feet, more or less, and 62.79 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

Southeasterly, northeasterly and northwesterly, along the outside of the Balboa Tank Farm cyclone fence, through monuments "G" to "P", inclusive, as follows:

S. 53°21'45" E., 505.16 feet, through monument "G", which is a 2-inch iron pipe, to monument "H", which is a 2-inch iron pipe, the distances being 86.42 feet and 418.74 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

N. 45°52'00" E., 380.50 feet, to monument "I", which is a 2-inch iron pipe;

N. 52°06'30" E., 91.53 feet, to monument "J", which is a 2-inch iron pipe;

N. 33°11'30" E., 107.28 feet, to monument "K", which is a 2-inch iron pipe;

N. 11°09'30" E., 387.33 feet, to monument "L", which is a brass plug in a concrete monument;

N. 46°45'30" E., 98.67 feet, to monument "M", which is a 2-inch iron pipe;

N. 21°25'30" W., 1,083.69 feet, through monument "N", which is a bronze plug in a concrete monument, monument "O", which is a 2-inch iron pipe, to monument "P", which is a 1½-inch iron pipe, located on the northwesterly side of the Navy cyclone fence, the distances being 333.41 feet, 370.00 feet and 380.28 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

N. 68°34'30" E., 400.00 feet, along the northwesterly side of the Navy cyclone fence to monument "Q", which is a brass plug in a concrete monument, located 11.9 feet southwesterly and at right angles from the face of the southwesterly curb of Amador Road;

S. 21°25'30" E., 1,120.33 feet, along the southwesterly side of Amador Road, to monument "R", which is a brass plug in a concrete monument, located 12.2 feet southwesterly and at right angles from the face of the southwesterly curb of Amador Road;

N. 68°34'00" E., 388.2 feet, more or less, through monument "S", which is an iron rail set in concrete, located on the northwesterly side of the Navy cyclone fence, to an unmarked point called "T", located at the extreme high water mark on the shore of Panama Bay, the distances being 353.18 feet and 35.0 feet, more or less, from beginning of the course;

S. 34°58'40" E., 1,080 feet, more or less, to an unmarked point called "U", located at the extreme high water mark on the shore of Panama Bay and N. 37°39'10" E., 63.8 feet, more or less, from monument "V";

S. 37°39'10" W., 63.8 feet, more or less, to monument "V", the point of beginning.

The directions of the lines refer to the true meridian.

The area of the above described tract is 60.50 acres, more or less, and is as shown on Canal Zone Government drawing M-6117-60, entitled "Map Showing United States Naval Reservation, Balboa, Canal Zone," scale 1:2000, dated March 2, 1956, on file in the Office of the Governor of the Canal Zone, Balboa Heights.

GENERAL

The surveys of the boundary were made in February 1931, May 1946, July 1951 and February 1956, and are recorded in notebooks M-21, M-405 and M-478, and the geodetic positions of all points, referred to the Panama-Colon datum of the Canal Zone triangulation system, are on file in the office of the Surveys Branch, Engineering and Construction Bureau, Panama Canal Company.

Any discrepancies in bearings or distances between this and any previous order, are due to more accurate horizontal control rather than changes in positions of monuments.

SEC. 2. Conditions and limitations. The reservation established by section 1 of this order shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) The area comprising this reservation shall continue to be subject to the civil jurisdiction of the Government of the Canal Zone in conformity with the provisions of the Canal Zone Code as amended and supplemented.

(b) The Canal Zone Government and the Panama Canal Company, their agents, employees, contractors, licensees, and permittees shall enjoy access to the reserved area in carrying out the operations of such agencies, subject, however, to necessary security measures.

SEC. 3. This order supersedes Executive Order No. 7387 of June 15, 1936 (1 F. R. 601), establishing reservation of Naval Station, Balboa, Canal Zone, as modified by Executive Order No. 7862 of April 7, 1938 (3 F. R. 734).

WILBER M. BRUCKER,
Secretary of the Army.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—Management of Wildlife Conservation Areas

PART 31—PACIFIC REGION

SUBPART—TULE LAKE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, CALIFORNIA

HUNTING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, it has been determined that additional waterfowl hunting privileges can be authorized without interfering with the primary purpose for which the refuge was established. It has also been determined that there is need to clarify provisions relating to the use of boats, blinds, and decoys as well as certain other features that relate to public hunting.

Since the following amendments are in part relaxations of existing restrictions applicable to hunting on the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuge and in part definitive of existing administrative control, notice and public procedure are not required (60 Stat. 237; U. S. C. 1001, et seq.).

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, §§ 31.346 to 31.350, inclusive, are added, and § 31.342 is revised to read as follows:

§ 31.342 Shooting areas. The following are the public hunting areas:

Area I. That part of the refuge, as posted by the refuge officer in charge, north of a line beginning on the east boundary of the refuge at the E¼ corner of section 20, T. 47 N., R. 5 E., M. D. M., thence west along the centerline of sections 20 and 19, T 47 N., R. 5 E., and the centerline of sections 24, 23, 22, 21, 20, and 19, T. 47 N., R. 4 E., to the point of intersection with the west boundary of the refuge.

Area II. That part of the refuge known as the Panhandle buffer strip as posted by the refuge officer in charge, west of the west bank of the N Canal in the S½N½ Section 16, T. 46 N., R. 5 E., M. D. M., and east of the west perimeter road around the Panhandle area in the S½N½ Section 17.

§ 31.346 Use of hunting blinds. Any person may construct and use a hunting blind in the public hunting areas except that entry for the construction of such blind shall not be permitted during the period from September 16 to the opening day of the waterfowl hunting season. Any blind not removed from the refuge on or before January 15 shall be deemed to have been abandoned, and it shall become the property of the United States. Where a blind is constructed in open water, such blind shall be placed at least 200 yards from emergent vegetation. The construction of a blind shall not be deemed to establish priority of use by the person who constructs such blind except that the construction of a blind by any guide under a special permit issued by the refuge officer in charge shall entitle such guide to the exclusive use of such blind. The digging of a pit for use as a hunting blind or for any other purpose is prohibited except in such areas as may be designated by posting by the refuge officer in charge.

§ 31.347 Use of boats. The use of boats for the purpose of hunting subject to the provisions of the regulations under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act is permitted only during the period from 2½ hours before sunrise to one hour after sunset, provided that the use of air-thrust and scull boats is prohibited.

§ 31.348 Use of artificial decoys. Artificial decoys may be placed on and used in the public hunting areas only during the period from 1½ hours before sunrise to ½ hour after sunset.

§ 31.349 Abandonment of personal property. The abandonment of boats, decoys, or other items of personal property on the public hunting areas or elsewhere on the refuge is prohibited.

§ 31.350 Access to the hunting areas. Hunters may not enter the public hunting areas earlier than 2½ hours before sunrise.

(Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 7151)

Dated: September 6, 1956.

Acting Director.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 11—INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

Because of the number of outstanding amendments to Part 11 since it was last published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (August 4, 1953, 18 F. R. 4558), Part 11 is recapitulated as of August 15, 1956, to read as set forth below.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] DEE W. PINCOCK,
Acting Secretary.

Subpart A—General Information

Sec.
11.1 Basis and purpose.
11.2 General limitations on use.
11.3 Definition of terms.
11.4 General citizenship restrictions.
11.5 Transfer and assignment of station authorization.
11.6 Cooperative arrangements.
11.7 Relay stations.
11.8 Policy governing the assignment of frequencies.

Subpart B—Applications, Authorizations and Notifications

11.51 Station authorization required.
11.52 Procedure for obtaining a radio station authorization and for commencement of operation.
11.53 Procedure for obtaining special temporary authority.
11.54 Filing of applications.
11.55 Who may sign applications.
11.56 Standard forms to be used.
11.57 [Reserved.]
11.58 Supplemental information to be submitted with application.
11.59 Partial grant.
11.60 Defective applications.
11.61 Amendment or dismissal of application.
11.62 Construction period.
11.63 License term.
11.64 Changes in authorized stations.
11.65 Report of temporary location.
11.66 Discontinuance of station operation.

Subpart C—Technical Standards

11.101 Frequencies.
11.102 Frequency stability.
11.103 Types of emission.
11.104 Emission limitations.
11.105 Modulation requirements.
11.106 Power and antenna height.
11.107 Transmitter control requirements.
11.108 Transmitter measurements.
11.109 Acceptability of transmitters for licensing.
11.110 Type acceptance of equipment.

Subpart D—Station Operating Requirements

11.151 Permissible communications.
11.152 Station identification.
11.153 Suspension of transmissions required.
11.154 Operator requirements.
11.155 Posting of operator license.
11.156 Transmitter identification card and posting of station license.
11.157 Inspection of stations.
11.158 Inspection and maintenance of tower marking and associated control equipment.
11.159 Answers to notices of violations.
11.160 Station records.

Subpart E—Developmental Operation

11.201 Eligibility.
11.202 Showing required.
11.203 Limitations on use.
11.204 Frequencies available for assignment.
11.205 Interference.
11.206 Special provisions.
11.207 Required supplementary statement.
11.208 Report of operation.

Subpart F—Power Radio Service

11.251 Eligibility.
11.252 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations.
11.253 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations.
11.254 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations.

Subpart G—Petroleum Radio Service

11.301 Eligibility.
11.302 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations.
11.303 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations.
11.304 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations.

Subpart H—Forest Products Radio Service

11.351 Eligibility.
11.352 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations.
11.353 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations.
11.354 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations.

Subpart I—Motion Picture Radio Service

11.401 Eligibility.
11.402 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations.
11.403 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations.
11.404 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations.

Subpart J—Relay Press Radio Service

11.451 Eligibility.
11.452 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations.
11.453 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations.
11.454 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations.

Subpart K—Special Industrial Radio Service

11.501 Scope of service.
11.502 Availability of service.
11.503 Agricultural activities.
11.504 Heavy construction activities.
11.505 Building construction activities.
11.506 Manufacturing activities.
11.507 Mining activities.
11.508 Specialized industrial service and trade activities.
11.509 General industrial service and trade activities.
11.510 Engineering service activities.
11.511 Miscellaneous public service activities.
11.512 Permissible communications.
11.513 Station limitations.
11.514 Mobile Service frequencies for use at temporary locations.
11.515 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations.
11.516 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations.
11.517 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile and Operational Fixed Stations.
11.518 License renewals, modifications, assignments and transfers.
11.519 Modifications of license to shift frequencies.

Subpart L—Low-Power Industrial Radio Service

Sec.
11.551 Eligibility.
11.552 Classification of stations.
11.553 Frequencies available for Mobile Stations.
11.554 Special restrictions.
11.555 Exemption from technical standards.

Subpart M—Industrial Radiolocation Service

11.601 Nature of service.
11.602 Eligibility.
11.603 Service authorized.
11.604 Showing required for authorization.
11.605 Report of operation.
11.606 Policy governing assignment of frequencies in the band 1750–1800 kc.
11.607 Frequencies available.
11.608 Special restrictions applicable to 1750–1800 kc only.
11.609 Special exemptions.
11.610 License term.
11.611 Control of interference, 1750–1800 kc only.

AUTHORITY: §§ 11.1 to 11.611 issued under sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 303, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303.

SUBPART A—GENERAL INFORMATION

§ 11.1 Basis and purpose. (a) The basis for the rules following in this part is the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and applicable treaties and agreements to which the United States is a party. The rules in this part are issued pursuant to the authority contained in Title III of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which vests authority in the Federal Communications Commission to regulate radio transmissions and to issue licenses for radio stations.

(b) The purpose of the rules in this part is to prescribe the manner in which parts of the radio spectrum may be made available for radio communication and control facilities to various industrial enterprises which, for safety purposes or other necessity, require radio transmitting facilities in order to function efficiently.

§ 11.2 General limitations on use. The radio facilities authorized under this part shall not be used to render a communications common carrier service or to carry program material of any kind for use in connection with radio broadcasting.

§ 11.3 Definition of terms. For the purpose of this part, the following definitions shall be applicable. For other definitions, refer to Part 2 of this chapter, Frequency Allocations and Treaty Matters; General Rules and Regulations.

(a) Radio service. An administrative subdivision of the field of radiocommunication. In an engineering sense, the subdivisions may be made according to the method of operation, as, for example, mobile service and fixed service. In a regulatory sense, the subdivisions may be descriptive of particular groups of licensees, as, for example, the groups of persons licensed under this part.

(b) Mobile service. A service of radiocommunication between mobile and land stations, or between mobile stations.

(c) Fixed service. A service of radiocommunication between specified points.

(d) Land station. A station in the mobile service not intended for operation while in motion. (Of the various types of land stations, only the Base Station is pertinent to this part, and the term will be used interchangeably with the term Land Station.)

(e) Base station. See Land Station, paragraph (d) of this section.

(f) Mobile station. A station in the mobile service intended to be used while in motion or during halts at unspecified points. (For purposes of this part, the term includes hand-carried and pack-carried units.)

(g) Operational fixed station. A Fixed Station not open to public correspondence, operated by, and for the sole use of those agencies operating their own radiocommunication facilities in the Public Safety, Industrial, Land Transportation, Aviation or Marine Services. (This term includes all stations licensed in the fixed service under this part.)

(h) Control station. An Operational Fixed Station, the transmissions of which are used to control automatically the emissions or operation of another radio station at a specified location.

(i) Fixed relay station. An Operational Fixed Station in the fixed service, established to receive radio signals directed to it from any source and to retransmit them automatically on a fixed service frequency for reception at one or more fixed points.

(j) Mobile relay station. A Base Station in the mobile service, authorized primarily to retransmit automatically on a mobile service frequency communications originated by mobile stations.

(k) Assigned frequency. The frequency appearing on a station authorization, from which the carrier frequency may deviate by an amount not to exceed that permitted by the frequency tolerance.

(l) Carrier frequency. The frequency of the carrier.

(m) Authorized bandwidth. The frequency band, specified in kilocycles and centered on the carrier frequency, containing those frequencies upon which a total of 99 percent of the radiated power appears, extended to include any discrete frequency upon which the power is at least 0.25 percent of the total radiated power.

(n) Station authorization. Any construction permit, license, or special temporary authorization issued by the Commission.

(o) Person. An individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, trust, or corporation.

(p) Public correspondence. Any telecommunication which the offices and stations, by reason of their being at the disposal of the public, must accept for transmission.

(q) Harmful interference. Any radiation or any induction which endangers the functioning of a radionavigation service or of a safety service or obstructs or repeatedly interrupts a radio service operating in accordance with the regulations in this part. (For purposes of this definition only, a safety service is any radio service whose operation is directly related, whether permanently or temporarily, to the safety of human life and the safeguarding of property.)

(r) Telemetering. Automatic radiocommunication, in a fixed or mobile service, intended to indicate or record a measurable variable quantity at a distance.

(s) Signalling. Intermittent or periodic transmission (excluding radiotelephony or any type of Morse code) or intelligence by means of prearranged tones, impulses, or combinations thereof, designed to actuate a mechanism at the point of reception.

(t) Landing area. A landing area means any locality, either of land or water, including airports and intermediate landing fields, which is used, or approved for use for the landing and take-off of aircraft, whether or not facilities are provided for the shelter, servicing, or repair of aircraft, or for receiving or discharging passengers or cargo.

NOTE: Consideration of aeronautical facilities not in existence at the time of the filing of the application for radio facilities will be given only when proposed airport construction or improvement plans are on file with the CAA as of the filing date of the application for such radio facilities.

(u) Antenna structures. The term antenna structures includes the radiating system, its supporting structures and any surmounting appurtenances.

(v) Land radiopositioning station. A Station in the radiolocation service other than a radionavigation station, not intended for operation while in motion.

(w) Mobile radiopositioning station. A station in the radiolocation service other than a radionavigation station, intended to be used while in motion or during halts at unspecified points.

(x) Standard Metropolitan Area. Any or all of the areas within the continental limits of the United States described and enumerated as Standard Metropolitan Areas in the U. S. Census of Population, 1950; Vol. I, Number of Inhabitants; Chapter 1, U. S. Summary; Bureau of the Census, United States Department of Commerce. (The Standard Metropolitan Areas in the United States are listed in that publication in Table 26, beginning on page 1–66.) The publication is sold by the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 11.4 General citizenship restrictions. A station license may not be granted to or held by:

(a) Any alien or the representative of any alien;

(b) Any foreign government or the representative thereof;

(c) Any corporation organized under the laws of any foreign government;

(d) Any corporation of which any officer or director is an alien;

(e) Any corporation of which more than one-fifth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by: Aliens or their representatives; a foreign government or representative thereof; or any corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country;

(f) Any corporation directly or indirectly controlled by any other corporation of which any officer or more than one-fourth of the directors are aliens, if the Commission finds that the public interest will be served by the refusal or revocation of such license; or

(g) Any corporation directly or indirectly controlled by any other corporation of which more than one-fourth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by: Aliens or their representatives; a foreign government or representatives thereof; or any corporation organized under the laws of a foreign government, if the Commission finds that the public interest will be served by the refusal or revocation of such license.

§ 11.5 Transfer and assignment of station authorization. A station authorization, the frequencies authorized to be used by the grantee of such authorization, and the rights therein granted by such authorization shall not be transferred, assigned, or in any manner either voluntarily or involuntarily disposed of, or indirectly by transfer of control of any corporation holding such authorization, to any person, unless the Commission shall, after securing full information, decide that said transfer is in the public interest. Requests for authority to assign a station authorization may be submitted in accordance with § 11.56 (b) while a request for authority to transfer control of a corporation, as by sale of controlling stock interest, shall be submitted in accordance with § 11.56 (d).

§ 11.6 Cooperative arrangements. (a) Arrangements may be made between two or more persons for the cooperative use of radio station facilities, provided all such persons are eligible to hold station licenses in one of the radio services established under this part, and provided further that all such persons are eligible for the same radio service. Such arrangements shall be governed by the following:

(1) Mobile service. A group of persons eligible for a license in the same industrial radio service may share the use of a Base Station licensed to one member of that group in either of the following two ways:

(i) A person who is to receive service from a Base Station licensed to a person other than himself may obtain a license for his own mobile radio units: Provided, however, That the application for such license shall be accompanied by an application from the licensee of the base station, for modification of his license, to permit rendition of the desired service. The application for modification of the base station license shall name the persons to be served, shall be notarized, and may be filed either on FCC Form 400 or by letter, in duplicate; or to the orders and instructions of the base station operator: And provided still further, That the licensee shall at all times have such access to, and control of, the mobile radio equipment as will enable him to discharge his responsibilities under the Communications Act.

(ii) A person who is to furnish base station service to mobile radio units installed in vehicles owned and operated by persons other than himself may, if he desires, be licensee of said mobile radio units: Provided, however, That each person owning and operating such mobile radio units shall enter into a written agreement giving the licensee thereof the sole right of control over such units, said agreement to be kept as a part of the records of the base station: And provided further, That the operator of each vehicle shall operate the radio units subject

(2) Fixed service. A group of persons eligible to operate in the same industrial radio service may share the use of a fixed station licensed to one member of that group.

(b) A base station licensee who enters into a cooperative arrangement in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) (ii) of this section shall obtain prior approval from the Commission for each person who proposes to enter into said arrangement.

(c) All cooperative arrangements entered into under the provisions of this section shall be governed by the following requirements as to costs and charges:

(1) The arrangement may be without charge. If so, the records of the base station or fixed station licensee shall so indicate.

(2) Contributions to capital and operating expenses may be accepted only on a cost-sharing, non-profit basis, said costs to be prorated on an equitable basis among all persons who are parties to the cooperative arrangement. Records which reflect the cost of the service and its non-profit, cost-sharing nature shall be maintained by the base station licensee and held available for inspection by Commission representatives. An audited financial statement reflecting the non-profit cost-sharing nature of the arrangement shall be submitted annually to the Commission's Washington office no later than three months after the close of the licensee's fiscal year.

§ 11.7 Relay stations—(a) General. Relay stations are used to extend the range of communication between another radio station and the point with which it is desired to communicate. For the purposes of the rules in this part, there are two types of relay stations: Mobile Relay Stations and Fixed Relay Stations. For definitions see § 11.3.

(b) Mobile relay stations. The policies governing authorization and operation of this type of relay station are as follows:

(1) Each application for a new mobile relay station authorization shall be accompanied by a satisfactory showing that the applicant has a substantial requirement for prompt mobile-to-mobile communication over ranges greater than can be realized consistently by direct communication on the frequency presently assigned, or, in the case of a proposed new radio system, on any available frequency. (Measurements obtained by use of low-power transmitters of the hand-carried or pack-carried type will not be accepted in satisfaction of the requirements of this subparagraph.)

(2) A Mobile Relay Station may be authorized to operate on any mobile service frequency available for assignment to base stations.

(3) Each Mobile Relay Station shall be so designed and installed that it normally will be activated only by means of a coded signal or signals or such other means as will effectively prevent its activation by undesired signals: Provided, however, That this requirement may be waived when both of the following conditions are met:

(i) The radio system is shown to be so designed that the Mobile Relay Station normally is capable of activation only by signals received on frequencies above 50 Mc; and

(ii) The applicant for a mobile relay station authorization either verifies that no person having equal rights to the frequency in question is operating on the mobile station frequency within a radius of seventy-five miles of the proposed mobile relay station location, or, alternatively, obtains and submits with the application the written consent of each such person to installation of the proposed mobile relay station and its operation on a regular basis for a trial period of one year from the date a station license is granted by the Commission.

In any event, a waiver granted under the provisions of this subparagraph may be cancelled after ninety days notice by the Commission if it develops that the mobile relay station is in fact consistently activated by undesired signals and thereby causes harmful interference to other licensees.

(4) Each Mobile Relay Station shall be so designed and installed that it will be deactivated automatically when its associated receivers are not receiving a signal on the frequency or frequencies which normally activate it.

(5) Each Mobile Relay Station required by the terms of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph to be activated by a coded signal shall be so designed and installed that it will be deactivated upon receipt or cessation of a coded signal or signals and, in addition, shall be provided with an automatic time-delay or clock device which will deactivate the station not more than three minutes after its activation.

(6) A Mobile Station associated with one or more mobile relay stations may be authorized to operate only on a mobile service frequency above 47.0 Mc which is available for assignment to mobile stations.

(7) An Operational Fixed (control) Station associated with one or more Mobile Relay Stations may be assigned any frequency available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations or, at the option of the applicant, the mobile service frequency assigned to the associated Mobile Station. Use of the mobile service frequency by such operational fixed (control) stations is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to stations of other licensees operating in the mobile service in accordance with the table of frequency allocations as set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(8) In any radio system which employs more than one Mobile Relay Station, where there is a requirement that stations in the vicinity of one Mobile Relay Station be able to communicate automatically with stations in the vicinity of other Mobile Relay Stations, any necessary circuits for interconnection of the Mobile Relay Stations shall be provided by means of wire lines or radio stations operating on fixed service frequencies.

(9) Mobile Relay Stations will not be authorized in the low power industrial radio service.

(10) A Base Station which is used intermittently as an Operational Fixed (control) Station for one or more associated Mobile Relay Station of the same licensee will be authorized to operate only on the mobile service frequencies assigned to the associated Mobile Relay Station and/or Mobile Station. Special authority for such dual station classification and use must be shown in the instrument of station authorization.

(c) Fixed Relay Stations. Fixed Relay Stations will be authorized to operate only on frequencies available for use by Operational Fixed Stations.

§ 11.8 Policy governing the assignment of frequencies. (a) The frequencies which may be assigned to stations operating in any one of the several Industrial Radio Services are listed in the applicable subpart of this part. All applicants for, and licensees of, stations in these services shall cooperate in the selection and use of the frequencies assigned in order to minimize interference and thereby obtain the most effective use of the authorized facilities. Each frequency, or band of frequencies, available for assignment to stations in these services is available on a shared basis only, and will not be assigned for the exclusive use of any one applicant; such use may also be restricted to one or more specified geographical areas.

(b) Each applicant shall use the highest order of frequencies available, compatible with the operational requirements of the particular radio system involved, and the actual channel loading of the bands in each area. Differentials in first cost and maintenance expense are factors which will not be considered as conclusive by the Commission in approving a choice between the ranges 1.6–6.0, 25–50, 152–174, and 450–460 Mc.

(c) The operational requirements of applicants for land mobile radio systems as authorized under this part dictate that the single frequency simplex method of operation be employed, and frequencies have been made available to each of the services largely on that basis. Consequently, in no case will more than one frequency, or band of frequencies, be assigned for the use of a single applicant until it has been demonstrated conclusively to the Commission that the assignment of an additional frequency, or band of frequencies, is essential to the operation of the radio system.

(d) With respect to fixed point-to-point circuits, simultaneous two-way communication will be required in most cases; consequently, it will be customary to assign two frequencies, or bands of frequencies, to such systems and, where possible, with such frequency separation that full duplex operation may be accomplished.

(e) Outside the continental limits of the United States and waters adjacent thereto, frequencies above 152 Mc, listed elsewhere in this part as available for assignment to Base Stations or Mobile Stations in particular Services are also available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the same Service on condition that no harmful interference be caused to mobile service operations.

(f) Frequencies assigned to Federal Government radio stations under Executive order of the President may be authorized for use by stations licensed under this part upon appropriate showing by the applicant that such assignment is necessary for inter-communication with Federal Government stations or required for coordination with activities of the Federal Government, provided the Commission determines, after consultation with the appropriate government agency or agencies, that such assignment is necessary.

(g) The following criteria shall govern the authorization and use of frequencies within the band 72–76 Mc to and by fixed stations:

(1) All authorizations are subject to the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to television reception on Channels 4 and 5.

(2) The applicant agrees to eliminate any harmful interference caused by his operation to TV reception on either Channel 4 or 5 that might develop by whatever means are found necessary within 90 days of the time knowledge of said interference is first brought to his attention by the Commission. If said interference is not cleared up within the 90-day period, operation of the fixed station will be discontinued.

(3) Vertical polarization is used.

(4) Whenever it is proposed to locate a 72–76 Mc fixed station less than 80, but more than 10 miles from the site of a TV transmitter operating on either Channel 4 or 5, or from the post office of a community in which such channels are assigned but are not in operation, the fixed station shall be authorized only if:

(i) There are fewer than 100 family dwelling units[1] located within a circle centered at the location of the proposed fixed stations[2] the radius of which shall be determined by use of the chart entitled, "Chart for Determining Radius From Fixed Station in 72–76 Mc Band to Interference Contour Along Which 10 Percent of Service From Adjacent Channel Television Station Would be Destroyed." Two charts are provided, one for Channel 4 and one for Channel 5:

Provided, however, That the Commission may, in a particular case, authorize the location of a fixed station within a circle as determined under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph containing 100 or more family dwelling units upon a showing that:

(a) The proposed site is the only suitable location.

(b) It is not feasible, technically or otherwise, to use other available frequencies.

(c) The applicant has a plan to control any interference that might develop to TV reception from his operations.

(d) The applicant is financially able and agrees to make such adjustments in the TV receivers affected as may be necessary to eliminate interference caused by his operations.

(5) All applications seeking authority to operate with a separation of less than 10 miles will be returned without action.

[1] As defined by the U. S. Bureau of Census.

[2] Family dwelling units 70 or more miles distant from the TV antenna site are not to be counted.

SUBPART B—APPLICATIONS, AUTHORIZATIONS AND NOTIFICATIONS

§ 11.51 Station authorization required. No radio transmitter shall be operated in the Industrial Radio Services except under and in accordance with a proper station authorization granted by the Federal Communications Commission.

§ 11.52 Procedure for obtaining a radio station authorization and for commencement of operation. (a) Persons desiring to install and operate radio transmitting equipment should first submit an application for a radio station authorization in accordance with § 11.56.

(b) When construction permit only has been issued for a Base, Operational Fixed or Mobile Station and installation has been completed in accordance with the terms of the construction permit and the applicable rules of the Commission, the permittee shall proceed further as follows:

(1) Notify the Engineer-in-Charge of the local radio district of the date on which the transmitter will first be tested in such manner as to produce radiation, giving name of the permittee, station location, call sign, and frequencies on which tests are to be conducted. This notification shall be made in writing at least two days in advance of the test date. FCC Form 456 may be used for this purpose. No reply from the radio district office is necessary before the tests are begun.

(2) After testing, but on or before the date when the station is first used for operational purposes, mail to the Commission in Washington, D. C. an application on FCC Form 400 for license or modification of license, as appropriate in the particular case. The station may thereafter be used as though licensed, pending Commission action on the license application.

(c) When a construction permit and license for a new Base, Operational Fixed or Mobile Station are issued simultaneously the licensee shall notify the Engineer-in-Charge of the local radio district of the date on which the transmitter will be placed in operation, giving name of licensee, station location, call sign, and operating frequencies. This notification shall be made in writing on or before the day on which operation is commenced. FCC Form 456 may be used for this purpose.

(d) When a construction permit and modification of license for a Base Operational Fixed or Mobile Station are issued simultaneously, operation may be commenced without notification to the Engineer-in-Charge of the local radio district, except where operation on a new or different frequency results by reason of such modification, in which event the notification procedure set forth in paragraph (c) of this section must be observed.

§ 11.53 Procedure for obtaining special temporary authority. (a) (1) In cases of emergency found by the Commission involving danger to life or property, or due to damage to equipment, temporary authorization for the construction and operation of a radio station may be granted for the duration of such emergency. Requests for such temporary authorization may be filed without regard to the provisions of § 11.56 in letter form or by telegram, but shall contain the following information:

(i) Name, address, and citizenship status of applicant;

(ii) Statement of facts upon which the request for emergency authorization is based, including estimated duration of emergency, and explanation why a formal application could not have been submitted in time to get a regular license;

(iii) Class of station and nature of service;

(iv) Location of station including, when appropriate, geographical coordinates;

(v) Equipment to be used, specifying manufacturer, model number and number of units, frequencies desired, plate power input to final radio frequency stage, and type of emission.

If any of the foregoing information is presently on file with the Commission, such information may be included by reference. The applicant may be required, whenever such action may be considered necessary by the Commission, to supplement the information enumerated above by filing as soon as practicable a formal application on the prescribed form.

(2) In cases where an urgent need is shown for operation of an authorized station for a limited time only, in a manner other than that specified in the existing authorization, but not in conflict with the Commission's rules; or

(3) For the purpose of conducting a field survey to determine necessary data in connection with the filing of formal applications for installation of a radio system in some service under this part. In this case, the authority, if issued, will be for developmental operation only, and the applicable sections of Subpart E of this part shall also apply to the grant.

(b) An application for special temporary authority other than that to which paragraph (a) (1) of this section applies may be filed as an informal application in the manner prescribed by § 11.56 and shall contain the following information:

(1) Name, address, and citizenship status of applicant.

(2) Need for special action.

(3) Type of operation to be conducted.

(4) Purpose of operation.

(5) Time and date of operation desired.

(6) Class of station and nature of service.

(7) Location of station.

(8) Equipment to be used, specifying manufacturer, model number, and number of units.

(9) Frequency(s) desired.

(10) Plate power input to final radio frequency stage.

(11) Type of emission.

§ 11.54 Filing of applications. (a) To assure that necessary information is supplied in a consistent manner by all persons, standard forms are prescribed for use in connection with the majority of applications and reports submitted for Commission consideration. Standard numbered forms applicable to the Industrial Radio Services are discussed in § 11.56, and may be obtained from the Washington, D. C., office of the Commission, or from any of its engineering field offices. Concerning matters where no standard form is applicable, the informal application procedure outlined in § 11.56 should be followed.

(b) Any application for radio station authorization and all correspondence relating thereto shall be submitted to the Commission's office at Washington 25, D. C., and should be directed to the attention of the Secretary. An application for commercial radio operator permit or license may be submitted to any of the Commission's engineering field offices, or to the Commission's office at Washington 25, D. C.

(c) Unless otherwise specified, an application shall be filed at least sixty days prior to the date on which it is desired that Commission action thereon be completed.

(d) Failure on the part of the applicant to provide all the information required by the application form, or to supply the necessary exhibits or supplementary statements may constitute a defect in the application.

(e) Applications involving operation at temporary locations:

(1) When one or more individual transmitters are intended to be operated as a base station or as a fixed station at unspecified or temporary locations for indeterminate periods, such transmitters may be considered to comprise a single station intended to be operated at temporary locations. An application for authority to operate a base station or a fixed station at temporary locations shall specify the general geographic area within which the operation will be confined. The area specified may be a city, a county or counties, or a state or states. Sufficient data must be submitted to show the need for the proposed area of operation.

(2) When any unit or units of a base station or fixed station authorized to be operated at temporary locations actually remains or is intended to remain at the same location for a period of over a year, application for a separate authorization specifying the fixed location, shall be made as soon as possible but not later than 30 days after the expiration of the one year period.

§ 11.55 Who may sign applications. One copy of each application for an authorization shall be signed under oath or affirmation by the applicant if the applicant be an individual, or any one of the partners if an applicant be a partnership, by an officer if the applicant be a corporation, or by a member who is an officer if the applicant be an unincorporated association: Provided, however, That applications may be signed by the attorney for an applicant (a) in case of physical disability of the applicant, or (b) his absence from the continental United States. If it be made by a person other than the applicant, he must set forth in the verification the grounds of his belief as to all matters not stated upon his knowledge and the reason why it is not made by the applicant. Applications filed on behalf of eligible governmental entities such as states and territories of the United States and political subdivisions thereof, the District of Columbia, and units of local government including incorporated municipalities, shall be signed by such duly elected or appointed officials as may be competent to do so under the law of the jurisdiction.

§ 11.56 Standard forms to be used. (a) A separate application shall be submitted on FCC Form 400 for the following:

(1) New station authorization for a Base or Operational Fixed Station.

(2) New station authorizations for any required number of mobile units (including hand-carried or pack-carried units) or any required number of units of a base station or fixed station to be operated at temporary locations in the same service.

NOTE: An application for mobile units may be combined with an application for a single base station for such mobile units as will operate with that base station only.

(3) License for any class of station upon completion of construction or installation in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the construction permit.

(4) Modification of combined construction permit and station license for changes outlined in § 11.64 (a).

(5) Modification of construction permit.

(6) Modification of station license.

Any of the foregoing applications will, upon approval and authentication by the Commission, be returned to the applicant as a specifically-designated type of authorization.

(b) When the holder of a station authorization desires to assign to another person the privilege to construct or use a radio station, he shall submit to the Commission a letter setting forth his desire to assign all right, title, and interest in and to such authorization, stating the call sign and location of station. This letter shall also include a statement that the assignor will submit his current station authorization for cancellation upon completion of the assignment. Enclosed with this letter shall be an application for Assignment of Authorization on FCC Form 400 prepared by and in the name of the person to whom the station is being assigned.

(c) A separate application may be submitted on FCC Form 400–A for certain changes to authorized stations as specified in § 11.64 (b).

(d) A separate application shall be submitted on FCC Form 703 whenever it is proposed to change, as by transfer of stock ownership, the control of a corporate permittee or licensee.

(e) Informal application. (1) An application not submitted on a standard form prescribed by the Commission is considered to be an informal application. Each informal application shall be submitted in duplicate, normally in letter form, and with the original signed under oath or affirmation. Each application shall be clear and complete within itself as to the facts presented and the action desired.

(2) A request for special temporary authorization must include full particulars as to the purpose for which the request is made and such request should be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the proposed operation. A request received within less than 10 days may be accepted upon due showing of sufficient reason for the delay in submitting the request. The information necessary for Commission action on requests for Special Temporary Authority is set forth in § 11.53.

(f) FCC Form 456 "Notification of Completion of Radio Station Construction" may be used to advise the Engineer-in-Charge of the local district office that construction of the station is complete and that operational tests will begin.

(g) Application for renewal of station license shall be submitted on FCC Form 405–A. Unless otherwise directed by the Commission, each application for renewal of license shall be filed during the last 60 days of the license term. In any case in which the licensee has, in accordance with the Commission's rules made timely and sufficient application for renewal of license, no license with reference to any activity of a continuing nature shall expire until such application shall have been finally determined.

§ 11.57 [Reserved.]

§ 11.58 Supplemental information to be submitted with application. Each application for station authorization shall be accompanied by such supplemental information listed below as may be required.

(a) Any statements or showings required by the applicable subpart of this part, in connection with the use of the frequency requested.

(1) Each application for authority to operate on one of the frequencies in the range 1.6–6.0 Mc must be fully justified, and shall be accompanied by: A satisfactory showing that the safety of human life will be jeopardized by failure of the Commission to authorize the use of a frequency in the requested range; a description in detail of the particular activity involved; and the manner in which radio will be used in the activity. The circumstances must be such that the activity, by reason of its nature or location, is hazardous to personnel engaged therein, or to the public in the vicinity thereof; that the radiocommunication facilities requested will materially reduce such hazard; and that it is impossible to use a higher order of frequencies for accomplishment of the same purposes.

(b) Statements justifying the need for more than one frequency, as required by § 11.8.

(c) Statement describing the type of emission to be used if it cannot be described as "8A3" or "40F3" pursuant to Subpart C of this part.

(d) Description of the antenna system, on FCC Form 401–A in triplicate in all cases when:

(1) The antenna structures proposed to be erected will exceed an over-all height of 170 feet above ground level, except that where the antenna is mounted on top of an existing man-made structure, other than an antenna structure, and does not increase the over-all height of such man-made structure by more than 20 feet, no Form 401–A need be filed; or

(2) The antenna structures proposed to be erected will exceed an over-all height of one foot above the established airport (landing area) elevation for each 200 feet of distance, or fraction thereof, from the nearest boundary of such landing area, except that where the antenna does not exceed 20 feet above the ground or if the antenna is mounted on top of an existing man-made structure, other than an antenna structure, or natural formation and does not increase the over-all height of such man-made structure or natural formation by more than 20 feet, no Form 401–A need be filed.

(e) A functional system diagram and a detailed description of the manner in which the interrelated stations will operate when the station is, or will be, part of a system involving two or more stations at different fixed locations.

(f) Copies of all agreements and statements which may be required under § 11.6 if operation is desired in connection with any cooperative use of the proposed radio communication facilities.

(g) Statements required by the rules in connection with developmental operation. See §§ 11.202, 11.203, and 11.207.

(h) Description of any equipment, proposed to be used, which does not appear on the Commission's List of Equipments Acceptable for Licensing, and designated for use in the Public Safety, Industrial, and Land Transportation Radio Service.

(i) Any statements or other data required under special circumstances as set forth in the applicable subpart of this part, or required upon request by the Commission.

(j) Data required by the rules in connection with operation of base or fixed stations at temporary locations. See § 11.54 (e) (1).

§ 11.59 Partial grant. Where the Commission, without a hearing, grants an application in part, or with any privileges, terms or conditions other than those requested, the action of the Commission shall be considered as a grant of such application unless the applicant shall, within 20 days from the date on which public announcement of such grant is made, or from its effective date if a later date is specified, file with the Commission a written request, rejecting the grant as made. Upon receipt of such request, the Commission will vacate its original action upon the application and, if necessary, set the application for hearing.

§ 11.60 Defective applications. (a) An application which is not prepared in accordance with the Commission's rules or other requirements will be considered defective and will be returned to the applicant.

(b) If an applicant is requested by the Commission to file any documents or information not included in the prescribed application form, a failure to comply with such request will constitute a defect in the application.

(c) When an application is considered to be incomplete or defective, the Secretary of the Commission will return it to the applicant, unless the Commission may otherwise direct.

§ 11.61 Amendment or dismissal of application. Any application may be amended or dismissed without prejudice upon request of the applicant prior to the time the application is granted or designated for hearing. Each amendment to, or request for dismissal of, an application shall be signed, authenticated, and submitted in the same manner and with the same number of copies as required for the original application. All related correspondence or other material which is to be considered as a part of an application already filed shall be submitted in the form of an amendment to the application concerned.

§ 11.62 Construction period. (a) Each radio station construction permit issued by the Commission will specify the date of grant as the earliest date of commencement of construction and installation, and a maximum of eight months thereafter as the time within which construction shall be completed and the station ready for operation, unless otherwise determined by the Commission in any particular case.

(b) In cases where the station is not ready for operational use on or before the expiration date of the construction permit, application for extension of time to construct shall be filed on FCC Form 400–A.

§ 11.63 License term. (a) For all stations in the Industrial Radio Services, except those engaged in developmental operation and those authorized under § 11.501 (a) (2), the license period shall be as follows:

(1) The initial station license will be issued for a term of from one to five years from the effective date of grant, the term varying as may be necessary to permit the orderly scheduling of renewal applications.

(2) Each station license normally will be renewed, upon proper application, for a term of four years from the effective date of renewal.

(b) Instruments of authorization for stations engaged in developmental operation and those issued under § 11.501 (a) (2) will be made upon a temporary basis for a specific period of time, but in no event to extend beyond one year from date of grant.

§ 11.64 Changes in authorized stations. Authority for certain changes in authorized stations must be obtained from the Commission before these changes are made, while other changes do not require prior Commission approval. The following paragraphs describe the conditions under which prior Commission approval is or is not necessary:

(a) Proposed changes which will result in operation inconsistent with any of the terms of the current authorization require that an application for modification of construction permit and/or license be submitted to the Commission and, except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, shall be on Form 400 and shall be accompanied by exhibits and supplementary statements as required by § 11.58.

(b) Any of the following changes to authorized stations may be made upon approval by the Commission of a "Request for Amendment of Radio Station Authorization" submitted on FCC Form 400–A:

(1) Change in presently authorized location of transmitter control point.

(2) Addition or deletion of control point(s) for presently authorized transmitter.

(3) Reduction in antenna height. If painting and/or lighting of the antenna supporting structure is required, FCC Form 401–A must also be submitted.

(4) A reduction in the overall number of transmitters authorized for mobile use, or for use at base or fixed stations authorized to be operated at temporary locations.

(5) An increase in the overall number of transmitters authorized for mobile use, or for use at base stations or fixed stations to be operated at temporary locations within the authorized area of operation. This form may be used only when adding transmitters which are included in the Commission's "List of Equipment Acceptable for Licensing" and designated for use in the Industrial Radio Services.

(6) An extension of the time limit specified in a construction permit.

(c) Proposed changes which will not depart from any of the terms of the outstanding authorization for the station involved may be made without prior Commission approval. Included in such changes is the substitution of various makes of transmitting equipment at any station provided the particular equipment to be installed is included in the Commission's "List of Equipments Acceptable for Licensing" and designated for use in the Public Safety, Industrial, and Land Transportation Radio Services and provided the substitute equipment employs the same type of emission and does not exceed the power limitations as set forth in the station authorization.

§ 11.65 Report of temporary location. When a Base Station or Operational Fixed Station is authorized to operate in an area encompassing two or more Radio Districts, the following notification procedure shall be followed:

(a) When the station is placed in operation for the first time, the Engineer in Charge of the Radio District involved shall be notified.

(b) When the station is moved from one Radio District to another, the Engineer in Charge of each of the two Radio Districts involved shall be notified.

§ 11.66 Discontinuance of station operation. In case of permanent discontinuance of operation of a station licensed under this part, the licensee shall forward the station license to the Washington, D. C. office of the Commission for cancellation. A copy of the request for cancellation of the license shall be forwarded to the Commission's Engineer in Charge of the district in which the station is located. For purposes of this section, a station which is not operated for a period of one year is considered to have been permanently discontinued.

SUBPART C—TECHNICAL STANDARDS

§ 11.101 Frequencies. The frequencies available for use in these services, in accordance with the policy set forth in § 11.8, are listed in the applicable subpart of the rules in this part. The separation between assignable frequencies in the various bands does not necessarily indicate the actual amount of separation required for the operation of two or more systems within the same geographical area.

§ 11.102 Frequency stability. (a) A permittee or licensee in these services shall maintain the carrier frequency of each authorized transmitter within the following percentage of the assigned frequency, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section:

Frequency range:	Frequency tolerance (percent)
Below 50 Mc	0.01
From 50–220 Mc	.005

[1] To be specified in the authorization.

(b) For transmitters authorized to operate with a maximum plate power input to the final radio frequency stage of 3 watts or less, the frequency may be maintained as shown in the table below in lieu of the requirements in paragraph (a) of this section:

Frequency range:	Frequency tolerance (percent)
Below 50 Mc	0.02
From 50–220 Mc	.01

§ 11.103 Types of emission. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, stations in these services will be authorized to use only A3 or F3 emission for radiotelephony. The authorization to use A3 or F3 emission will be construed to include the use of tone signals or signaling devices whose sole function is to establish and maintain communication between stations.

(b) Other types of emission not described in paragraph (a) of this section may be authorized upon a satisfactory showing of need therefor. An application requesting such authorization shall fully describe the emission desired, shall indicate the bandwidth required for satisfactory communication, and shall state the purpose for which such emission is required. For information regarding the classification of emissions and the calculation of the bandwidth, reference should be made to Part 2 of this chapter.

§ 11.104 Emission limitations. (a) Each authorization issued to a station operating in these services will show, as the prefix to the emission classification, a figure specifying the maximum authorized bandwidth in kc to be occupied by the emission. The specified band shall contain those frequencies upon which a total of 99 percent of the radiated power appears, extended to include any discrete frequency upon which the power is at least 0.25 percent of the total radiated power. Any radiation in excess of the limits specified in paragraph (c) of this section is considered to be an unauthorized emission.

(b) The emission prefix figures referred to in paragraph (a) of this section for the types of emission covered by § 11.103 (a) are listed in the table below:

Type of emission:	Authorized bandwidth (kc)
A-3	8
F-3	40

(c) For purpose of demonstrating compliance with paragraph (a) of this section, the following limits apply:

(1) Any emission appearing on any frequency removed from the carrier frequency by at least 50 percent, but not more than 100 percent, of the maximum authorized bandwidth shall be attenuated not less than 25 db below the unmodulated carrier.

(2) Any spurious or harmonic emission appearing on any frequency removed from the carrier frequency by at least 100 percent of the maximum authorized bandwidth shall be attenuated below the unmodulated carrier by not less than the amount indicated in the following table:

Maximum authorized plate power input to the final radio frequency stage	Attenuation (db)
3 watts or less	40
Over 3 watts and including 150 watts	60
Over 150 watts and including 600 watts	70
Over 600 watts	80

(d) When an unauthorized emission results in harmful interference, the Commission may, in its discretion, require appropriate technical changes in equipment to alleviate the interference.

§ 11.105 Modulation requirements. (a) The maximum audio frequency required for satisfactory radiotelephone intelligibility in these services is considered to be 3000 cycles per second, and the transmission of higher frequencies is unauthorized.

(b) When amplitude modulation is used for telephony, the modulation percentage shall be sufficient to provide efficient communication and shall be normally maintained above 70 percent on peaks, but shall not exceed 100 percent on negative peaks.

(c) When phase or frequency modulation is used for telephony, the deviation arising from modulation shall not exceed plus or minus 15 kc from the unmodulated carrier.

(d) Each transmitter authorized or installed after July 1, 1950, shall be provided with a device which will automatically prevent modulation in excess of that specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section which may be caused by greater than normal audio level: Provided, however, That this requirement shall not be applicable to transmitters authorized to operate with a maximum plate power input to the final radio frequency stage of 3 watts or less.

§ 11.106 Power and antenna height. (a) The power which may be used by a station in these services shall be no more than the minimum required for satisfactory technical operation commensurate with the size of the area to be served and local conditions which affect radio transmission and reception. In cases of harmful interference, the Commission may order a change in power, or antenna height, or both.

(b) Except where the power that may be used on a designated frequency is specifically limited to a lower value, plate power input to the final radio frequency stage in excess of the following tabulation will not be authorized:

Frequency:	Maximum plate power input to the final radio frequency stage (watts)
1.6–6.0 Mc	2,000
25–100 Mc	500

[1] To be specified in the authorization.

(c) The plate power input to the final r. f. stage under actual operation shall not exceed by more than 10 percent the plate power input shown in the Radio Equipment List, Part C, for transmitters included in this list, or the manufacturer's rated plate power input for the particular transmitter specifically listed on the authorization.

§ 11.107 Transmitter control requirements. (a) Each transmitter shall be so installed and protected that it is not accessible to or capable of operation by persons other than those duly authorized by the licensee.

(b) A control point is an operating position which meets all of the following conditions:

(1) The position must be under the control and supervision of the licensee;

(2) It is a position at which the monitoring facilities required by this section are installed; and

(3) It is a position at which an operator responsible for the operation of the transmitter is stationed.

(c) Each station shall be provided with a control point, the location of which will be specified in the license. It will be assumed that the location of the control point is the same as that of the transmitting equipment unless the application includes a request for a different location. Authority must be obtained from the Commission for the installation of additional control points.

(d) A dispatch point is a position from which messages may be transmitted under supervision of a control point operator. Dispatch points may be installed without authorization from the Commission.

(e) At each control point, the following facilities shall be installed:

(1) A carrier operated device which will provide continuous visual indication when the transmitter is radiating; or, in lieu thereof, a pilot lamp or meter which will provide continuous visual indication when the transmitter control circuits have been placed in a condition to produce radiation: Provided, however, That the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to hand-carried or pack-carried transmitters;

(2) Equipment to permit the operator to aurally monitor all transmissions originating at dispatch points under his supervision;

(3) Facilities which will permit the operator either to disconnect the dispatch point circuits from the transmitter or to render the transmitter inoperative from any dispatch point under his supervision; and

(4) Facilities which will permit the operator to turn the transmitter carrier on and off at will.

§ 11.108 Transmitter measurements. (a) The licensee of each station shall employ a suitable procedure to determine that the carrier frequency of each transmitter, authorized to operate with a plate input power to the final radio frequency stage in excess of three watts, is maintained within the tolerance prescribed in the rules in this part. This determination shall be made, and the results thereof entered in the station records, in accordance with the following:

(1) When the transmitter is initially installed;

(2) When any change is made in the transmitter which may affect the carrier frequency or the stability thereof;

(3) At intervals not to exceed six months, for transmitters employing crystal-controlled oscillators;

(4) At intervals not to exceed one month, for transmitters not employing crystal-controlled oscillators.

(b) The licensee of each station shall employ a suitable procedure to determine that the plate power input to the final radio frequency stage of each base station or fixed station transmitter, authorized to operate with a plate input power to the final radio frequency stage in excess of three watts, does not exceed the maximum figure specified on the current station authorization. Where the transmitter is so constructed that a direct measurement of plate current in the final radio frequency stage is not practicable, the plate input power may be determined from a measurement of the cathode current in the final radio frequency stage. When the plate input to the final radio frequency stage is determined from a measurement of the cathode current, the required record entry shall indicate clearly the quantities that were measured, the measured values thereof, and the method of determining the plate power input from the measured values. This determination shall be made, and the results thereof entered in the station records, in accordance with the following:

(1) When the transmitter is initially installed;

(2) When any change is made in the transmitter which may increase the transmitter power input;

(3) At intervals not to exceed six months.

(c) The licensee of each station shall employ a suitable procedure to determine that the modulation of each transmitter, authorized to operate with a plate input power to the final radio frequency stage in excess of three watts, does not exceed the limits specified in the rules in this part. This determination shall be made and the results thereof entered in the station records, in accordance with the following:

(1) When the transmitter is initially installed;

(2) When any change is made in the transmitter which may affect the modulation characteristics;

(3) At intervals not to exceed six months.

(d) The determinations required by paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section may, at the option of the licensee, be made by any qualified engineering measurement service, in which case the required record entries shall show the name and address of the engineering measurement service as well as the name of the person making the measurements.

(e) In the case of mobile transmitters, the determinations required by paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section may be made at a test or service bench: Provided, That the measurements are made under load conditions equivalent to actual operating conditions: And provided further, That after installation in the mobile unit the transmitter is given a routine check to determine that it is capable of being received satisfactorily by an appropriate receiver.

§ 11.109 Acceptability of transmitters for licensing. (a) From time to time the Commission will publish a list of equipment entitled "Radio Equipment List, Part C, List of Equipment Acceptable for Licensing." Copies of this list are available for inspection at the Commission's Offices in Washington, D. C., and at each of its field offices. This list will include type approved and type accepted equipment and equipment which was included in this list on May 16, 1955. Such equipment will continue to be included on the list unless it is removed therefrom by Commission action.

(b) Except for transmitters used at developmental stations, each transmitter utilized by a station authorized for operation under these rules must be of a type which is included on the Commission's current "List of Equipment Acceptable for Licensing" and designated for use in this service or be of a type which has been type accepted by the Commission for use in this service. Until January 1, 1965, however, equipment presently in use may continue to be used by the licensee, his successors, or assigns in business provided the operation of such equipment does not result in harmful interference due to the failure of such equipment to comply with the current technical standards of the rules.

§ 11.110 Type acceptance of equipment. (a) Any manufacturer of a transmitter to be built for use in this service may request "type acceptance" for such transmitter following the type acceptance procedure set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(b) Type acceptance for an individual transmitter may also be requested by an applicant for a station authorization by following the type acceptance procedure set forth in Part 2 of this chapter. Such transmitters, if accepted, will not normally be included on the Commission's "Radio Equipment Acceptable for Licensing" but will be individually enumerated on the station authorization.

(c) Additional rules with respect to type acceptance are set forth in Part 2 of this chapter. These rules include information with respect to withdrawal of type acceptance, modification of type accepted equipment and limitations on the findings upon which type acceptance is based.

SUBPART D—STATION OPERATING REQUIREMENTS

§ 11.151 Permissible communications. (a) Stations licensed under this part may transmit the following types of communications:

(1) Any communication related directly to the safety of life or the protection of property; and

(2) Communications considered essential to the efficient conduct of that portion of the enterprise for which the licensee is eligible to hold a station license under this part, subject to the condition that harmful interference is not caused to safety communications of stations licensed under this part.

(b) A station licensed under this part may communicate with other stations without restriction as to type, service, or licensee when the communications to be transmitted are of the type described in paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(c) For transmission of all communications other than those described in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, a station licensed under this part shall communicate only as follows:

(1) Each unit of a Mobile Station is authorized primarily to communicate with other units of the Mobile Station, and with associated base stations. Secondarily, each unit of a Mobile Station is authorized to communicate with associated Operational Fixed Stations.

(2) Each Base Station is authorized primarily to communicate with the units of an associated Mobile Station. Secondarily, each Base Station may communicate with an associated Base Station, Operational Fixed Station, or fixed receiver when:

(i) The messages to be transmitted are of immediate importance to mobile units; or

(ii) Wireline communication facilities between such points are inoperative, economically impracticable or unavailable from communications common carrier sources: Provided, however, That temporary unavailability due to a busy wireline circuit is not considered to be within the provisions of this subparagraph.

(3) Each Operational Fixed Station is authorized primarily to communicate with associated Operational Fixed Stations and fixed receivers. Secondarily, each Operational Fixed Station is authorized to communicate with units of an associated Mobile Station, and, subject to the limitations of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, with associated Base Stations.

(4) Subject to the other conditions of this paragraph, stations licensed under this part may communicate with other licensed stations and with U. S. Government stations in those cases which require cooperation or co-ordination of activities: Provided, however, That where communication is desired with stations authorized to operate under the authority of a foreign jurisdiction, prior approval of this Commission must be obtained: And provided further, That the authority under which such other stations operate does not prohibit the intercommunication.

(d) All communications, regardless of their nature, shall be restricted to the minimum practicable transmission time, and some type of standard operating procedure shall be employed by each licensee. Continuous radiation of an unmodulated carrier is prohibited, except when necessary for test purposes, or when specifically authorized in writing by the Commission.

(e) The licensee of any station in these services may, during a period of emergency in which the normal communication facilities are disrupted as a result of hurricane, flood, earthquake, or similar disaster, utilize such station for emergency communication without regard to provisions of this section other than the following:

(1) As soon as possible after the beginning of such emergency use, notice be sent to the Commission in Washington, D. C., and to the Engineer in Charge of the Radio District in which the station is located, stating the nature of the emergency and the use to which the station is being put;

(2) The emergency use of the station be discontinued as soon as substantially normal communication facilities are again available, and the Commission in Washington, D. C., and the Engineer in Charge be notified immediately when such special use of the station is terminated; and

(3) The Commission may at any time order discontinuance of such special use of the authorized facilities.

(f) Tests may be conducted by any licensed station as required for proper station and system maintenance, but such tests shall be kept to a minimum and precautions shall be taken "to avoid interference to other stations."

§ 11.152 Station identification. (a) Each station in these services which is capable of being identified by transmission of its assigned call signal shall transmit such call signal at the end of each transmission or exchange of transmissions, or once each fifteen minutes of the operating period, as the licensee may prefer.

(b) In lieu of the requirement of paragraph (a) of this section, mobile units communicating with a Base Station which transmits on the same frequency may transmit, once during each exchange of transmissions, any unit identifier which is on file in the station records of such Base Station.

(c) In lieu of the requirement of paragraph (a) of this section, mobile units communicating with a Base Station which transmits on a different frequency may transmit, once during each exchange of transmissions, any unit identifier which is on file in the station records of such Base Station and the assigned call signal of either the Mobile Station or the Base Station.

(d) A station which is transmitting for telemetering purposes or retransmitting by self-actuating means a radio signal received from another radio station or stations will be considered for exemption from the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section in specific instances, upon request.

(e) A unit designator may be used in addition to the station identification required by this section, to identify an individual unit or transmitter of a base station or a fixed station which is authorized to be operated at temporary locations.

§ 11.153 Suspension of transmissions required. The radiation of the transmitter shall be suspended immediately upon detection or notification of a deviation from the technical requirements of the station authorization until such deviation is corrected, except for transmissions concerning the immediate safety of life or property, in which case the transmissions shall be suspended as soon as the emergency is terminated.

§ 11.154 Operator requirements. (a) All transmitter adjustments or tests during or coincident with the installation, servicing, or maintenance of a radio station, which may affect the proper operation of such station, shall be made by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of a person holding a first or second class commercial radio operator license, either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph, who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the station equipment: Provided, however, That only persons holding a first or second class commercial radiotelegraph operator license shall perform such functions at radiotelegraph stations transmitting by any type of the Morse Code.

(b) Except under the circumstances specified in paragraph (a) of this section, only a person holding a commercial radiotelegraph operator license or permit of any class issued by the Commission shall operate a station during the course of normal rendition of service, when transmitting radiotelegraphy by any type of the Morse Code.

(c) Except under the circumstances specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, and except as limited by paragraphs (g) through (j) of this section, Base Stations and Operational Fixed Stations shall be operated in accordance with the following when transmitting during the course of normal rendition of service:

(1) From a control point, only a person holding a commercial radio operator license or permit of any class issued by the Commission shall operate a base station or fixed station.

(2) From a dispatch point, an unlicensed person may operate a Base Station or Operational Fixed Station after being authorized to do so by the station licensee: Provided, however, That such operation shall be under the direct supervision and responsibility of a person who (i) holds a commercial radio operator license or permit of any class issued by the Commission, and who (ii) is on duty at a control point meeting the requirements of Subpart C of this part.

(f) Except under the circumstances specified in paragraph (a) of this section, and except as limited by paragraphs (g) through (j) of this section, no person, whether or not a licensed operator, is required to be in attendance at a station when transmitting during the course of normal rendition of service and when either: (1) transmitting for telemetering purposes or (2) retransmitting by self-actuating means a radio signal received from another radio station or stations.

(g) The provisions of this section, authorizing certain unlicensed persons to operate certain stations when transmitting during the course of normal rendition of service, shall be applicable only to stations in the domestic service except that the provisions of paragraph (e) (2) of this section shall be applicable to stations in either the domestic or international service. For the purpose of this section, a station in the domestic service is one which is located within the United States, its territories or possessions and which, when communicating with other stations, is in communication exclusively with one or more other United States stations which are also located in the United States, its territories or possessions; a station in the international service is one which is not in the domestic service as just defined.

(h) The provisions of this section authorizing certain unlicensed persons to operate mobile stations shall not be construed to change or diminish in any respect the responsibility of station licensees to have and to maintain control over the stations licensed to them (including all transmitter units thereof), or for the proper functioning and operation of those stations (including all transmitter units thereof) in accordance with the terms of the licenses of those stations.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, unless the transmitter is so designed that none of the operations necessary to be performed during the course of normal rendition of service may cause off-frequency operation or result in any unauthorized radiation, such transmitter shall be operated by a person holding a first or second class commercial radio operator license (either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph as may be appropriate for the type of emission being used) issued by the Commission.

(j) Any reference in this section to a commercial radio operator license or permit of any class issued by the Commission shall not be construed to include Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorizations.

§ 11.155 Posting of operator license. (a) The original license of each base or fixed station operator, other than an operator exclusively performing service and maintenance duties, shall be posted or kept immediately available at the place where he is on duty as an operator: Provided, however, That if an operator who is on duty holds a restricted radiotelephone operator permit of the card form (as distinguished from such document of the diploma form) or holds a valid license verification card (FCC Form 758–F) attesting to the existence of any other valid commercial radio operator license, he may have such permit or verification card, as the case may be, in his personal possession.

(b) Whenever a licensed operator is required for a Mobile Station, the original license of each such operator, other than an operator exclusively performing service and maintenance duties, shall be kept in his personal possession whenever he performs the duties of an operator at such station: Provided, That in lieu of an original license of the diploma form (as distinguished from such document of the card form) he may have in his personal possession a valid verification card attesting to its existence.

(c) The original license of every station operator who exclusively performs service and maintenance duties at that station shall be posted at the transmitter involved whenever the transmitter is in actual operation while service or maintenance work is being performed by him or under his immediate supervision and responsibility: Provided, That in lieu of posting his license, he may have on his person his license or a valid verification card.

§ 11.156 Transmitter identification card and posting of station license. (a) The current authorization for each mobile station and each base or fixed station authorized to be operated at temporary locations shall be retained as a permanent part of the station record, but need not be posted. An executed Transmitter Identification Card (FCC Form 452–C) shall be affixed to each mobile transmitter or associated control equipment and each transmitter of a base station or fixed station authorized to be used at temporary locations or associated control equipment. When the transmitter is not in view of and readily accessible to the operator, it is preferred that the Identification Card be affixed to the control equipment at the transmitter operating position. The following information shall be entered on the card by the permittee or licensee:

(1) Name of permittee or licensee;

(2) Station call signal assigned by the Commission;

(3) Exact location or locations of the transmitter records;

(4) Frequency or frequencies on which the transmitter to which attached is adjusted to operate; and

(5) Signature of the permittee or licensee, or a designated official thereof.

(b) The current authorization for each base or fixed station, except those authorized to be used at temporary locations, shall be posted at what the licensee considers to be the principal control position of that station. At all other control points listed on the station authorization, a photocopy of the authorization shall be posted. In addition, an executed Transmitter Identification Card (FCC Form 452–C, Revised) shall be affixed to each transmitter operated at a fixed location, when such transmitter is not in view of, and readily accessible to, the operator at the principal control position.

(c) In lieu of the Transmitter Identification Card, FCC Form 452–C, Revised, as required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a permittee or licensee may at his option employ a plate of metal or other substantial material which shall bear the title "Radio Transmitter Identification," and shall clearly display all the information required to be shown on the FCC Form 452–C, Revised, with the exception of the signature.

§ 11.157 Inspection of stations. All stations and records of stations in these services shall be made available for inspection by an authorized representative of the Commission at any time while the station is in operation, and, when not in operation, shall be made available for inspection upon reasonable request of such representative.

§ 11.158 Inspection and maintenance of tower marking and associated control equipment. The licensee of any radio station which has an antenna structure required to be painted or illuminated pursuant to the provisions of section 303 (q) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and/or Part 17 of this chapter, shall operate and maintain the tower marking and associated control equipment in accordance with the following:

(a) The tower lights shall be observed at least once each 24 hours, either visually or by observing an automatic and properly maintained indicator designed to register any failure of such lights, to insure that all such lights are functioning properly as required; or, alternatively, there shall be provided and properly maintained an automatic alarm system designed to detect any failure of the tower lights and to provide indication of such failure to the licensee.

(b) Any observed or otherwise known failure of a code or rotating beacon light or top light not corrected within thirty minutes, regardless of the cause of such failure, shall be reported immediately by telephone or telegraph to the nearest Airways Communication Station or office of the Civil Aeronautics Administration. Further notification by telephone or telegraph shall be given immediately upon resumption of the required illumination.

(c) All automatic or mechanical control devices, indicators, and alarm systems associated with the tower lights shall be inspected at intervals not to exceed three months, to insure that such apparatus is functioning properly.

(d) All lighting shall be exhibited from sunset to sunrise unless otherwise specified in the instrument of station authorization.

(e) A sufficient supply of spare lamps shall be maintained for immediate replacement purposes at all times.

(f) All towers shall be cleaned or repainted as often as is necessary to maintain good visibility.

§ 11.159 Answers to notices of violations. Any licensee receiving official notice of a violation of the terms of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, any legislative act, treaty to which the United States is a party, or the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, shall, within 3 days from such receipt, send a written answer to the office of the Commission originating the official notice. If an answer cannot be sent, or an acknowledgment made within such 3-day period, acknowledgment and answer shall be made at the earliest practicable date with a satisfactory explanation of the delay. The answer to each notice shall be complete in itself and shall not be abbreviated by reference to other communications or answers to other notices. The reply shall set forth the steps taken to prevent a recurrence of such lack of attention or improper operation.

§ 11.160 Station records. Each licensee of a station in these services shall maintain records as required elsewhere in this part and in accordance with the following:

(a) For all stations, the results and dates of the transmitter measurements required by § 11.108, and the name of the person or persons making the measurements.

(b) For all stations, when service or maintenance duties are performed which may affect their proper operation, the responsible operator shall sign and date an entry in the station record concerned, giving:

(1) Pertinent details of all duties performed by him or under his supervision;

(2) His name and address; and

(3) The class, serial number, and expiration date of his license: Provided, however, That the information called for under subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, so long as it remains unchanged, is not required to be repeated in the case of a person who is regularly employed as operator on a full-time basis at the station.

(c) For Base Stations and Operational Fixed Stations only, the name or names of persons responsible for the operation of the transmitting equipment each day, together with the period of their duty.

(d) For Base Stations only, when they communicate with other Base Stations or with Operational Fixed Stations:

(1) Call sign of other stations; and

(2) Date, time, and approximate duration of each transmission.

(e) When a Base Station or Operational Fixed Station has an antenna structure which is required to be illuminated, appropriate entries shall be made as follows:

(1) The time the tower lights are turned on and off each day, if manually controlled.

(2) The time the daily check of proper operation of the tower lights was made.

(3) In the event of any observed or otherwise known failure of a tower light:

(i) Nature of such failure.

(ii) Date and time the failure was observed or otherwise noted.

(iii) Date, time and nature of the adjustments, repairs, or replacements made.

(iv) Identification of Airways Communication Station (Civil Aeronautics Administration) notified of the failure of any code or rotating beacon light not corrected within thirty minutes, and the date and time such notice was given.

(v) Date and time notice was given to the Airways Communication Station (Civil Aeronautics Administration) that the required illumination was resumed.

(4) Upon completion of the three-month periodic inspection required by § 11.158:

(i) The date of the inspection and the condition of all tower lights and associated tower lighting control devices, indicators and alarm systems.

(ii) Any adjustments, replacements, or repairs made to insure compliance with the lighting requirements and the date such adjustments, replacements, or repairs were made.

(f) The records shall be kept in an orderly manner, and in such detail that the data required are readily available. Key letters or abbreviations may be used if proper meaning or explanation is set forth in the record.

(g) Each entry in the records of each station shall be signed by a person qualified to do so, having actual knowledge of the facts to be recorded.

(h) No record or portion thereof shall be erased, obliterated, or wilfully destroyed within the required retention period. Any necessary correction may be made only by the person originating the entry, who shall strike out the erroneous portion, initial the correction made and indicate the date of correction.

(i) Records required by this part shall be retained by the licensee for a period of at least one year.

SUBPART E—DEVELOPMENTAL OPERATION

§ 11.201 Eligibility. An authorization for developmental operation in any of the services under this part will be issued only to those persons who are eligible to operate stations in such service on a regular basis.

§ 11.202 Showing required. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, each application for developmental operation shall be accompanied by a showing that:

(1) The applicant has an organized plan of development leading to a specific objective;

(2) A point has been reached in the program where actual transmission by radio is essential to the further progress thereof;

(3) The program has reasonable promise of substantial contribution to the expansion or extension of the radio art, or is along lines not already investigated;

(4) The program will be conducted by qualified personnel;

(5) The applicant is legally and financially qualified, and possesses adequate technical facilities for conduct of the program as proposed; and

(6) The public interest, convenience, or necessity will be served by the proposed operation.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section do not apply when an application is made for developmental operation solely for the reason that the frequency requested is restricted to such developmental use.

§ 11.203 Limitations on use. Stations used for developmental operation shall be constructed and used in such a manner as to conform with all of the technical and operating requirements of Subparts C and D of this part, unless deviation therefrom is specifically provided in the instrument of authorization.

§ 11.204 Frequencies available for assignment. Stations engaged in developmental operation may be authorized to use a frequency, or frequencies, available for the service in which they propose to operate. The number of channels assigned will depend upon the specific requirements of the developmental program itself, and the number of frequencies available in the particular area where the station will be operated.

§ 11.205 Interference. The operation of any station engaged in developmental work shall be subject to the condition that no harmful interference is caused to the operation of stations licensed on a regular basis under any part of the Commission's rules.

§ 11.206 Special provisions. (a) The developmental program as described by the applicant in the application for authorization shall be substantially followed unless the Commission shall otherwise direct.

(b) Where some phases of the developmental program are not covered by the general rules of the Commission and the rules in this part, the Commission may specify supplemental or additional requirements or conditions in each case, as deemed necessary in the public interest, convenience, or necessity.

(c) The Commission may, from time to time, require a station engaged in developmental work to conduct special tests which are reasonable and desirable to the authorized developmental program.

§ 11.207 Required supplementary statement. Every application for authority to engage in developmental operation shall be accompanied by a statement signed by the applicant in which it is agreed that any authorization issued pursuant thereto will be accepted with the express understanding of the applicant that it is subject to change in any of its terms or to cancellation in its entirety at any time, upon reasonable notice but without a hearing, if, in the opinion of the Commission, circumstances should so require.

§ 11.208 Report of operation. A report on the results of the developmental program shall be filed with and made a part of each application for renewal of authorization or in cases where no renewal is requested, such report shall be filed within 60 days of the expiration of such authorization. Matters which the applicant does not wish to disclose publicly may be so labeled; they will be used solely for the Commission's information, and will not be publicly disclosed without permission of the applicant.

The report shall include comprehensive and detailed information on the following:

(a) The final objective.
(b) Results of operation to date.
(c) Analysis of the results obtained.
(d) Copies of any published reports.
(e) Need for continuation of the program.
(f) Number of hours of operation on each frequency.

SUBPART F—POWER RADIO SERVICE

§ 11.251 Eligibility. (a) The following persons are eligible to hold authorizations to operate radio stations in the Power Radio Service:

(1) Persons primarily engaged in the generation, transmission or distribution of electrical energy, for use by the general public or by the members of a cooperative organization.

(2) Persons primarily engaged in the distribution of artificial or natural gas by means of pipe line, for use by the general public or by the members of a cooperative organization, or in a combination of that activity with the production, transmission or storage of artificial or natural gas preparatory to such distribution.

(3) Persons primarily engaged in the distribution of water or steam by means of pipe line or, in the case of water, by means of canal or open ditch, for use by the general public or by the members of a cooperative organization, or in a combination of that activity with the collection, transmission, storage, or purification of water or the generation of steam preparatory to such distribution.

(4) A non-profit corporation or association, organized for the purpose of furnishing a radio communication service to persons who are actually engaged in one or more of the activities set forth in the preceding subparagraphs. Such a corporation or association shall render service only on a non-profit cost-sharing basis, said costs to be prorated on an equitable basis among all persons to whom service is rendered. Records which reflect the cost-sharing non-profit nature of the arrangement shall be maintained and held available for inspection by Commission representatives.

(b) Each application for authority to operate in the Power Radio Service shall be accompanied by a statement in detail sufficient to indicate clearly the applicant's eligibility under paragraph (a) of this section. In addition, each person licensed under the provisions of paragraph (a) (4) of this section shall obtain prior approval from the Commission for each person who proposes to participate in the licensee's service.

§ 11.252 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Power Radio Service only:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
37.46	47.70	48.14	153.41
37.50	47.74	48.18	153.47

(b) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base Stations and Mobile Stations in the Power Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Frequency (kc)	Frequency (Mc)
[1] 2292	[3] 35.06
[1] 2398	[3] 35.10
[1] [4] 4637.5	[3] 35.14
	[3] 35.18

[1] Use of this frequency by stations licensed in the Power Radio Service is on a shared basis with other stations in the Industrial Radio Services, but is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any station not in these services which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

[2] The use of these frequencies by stations in the Power Radio Service is subject to causing no harmful interference to the Maritime Mobile Service.

[3] This frequency is limited to daytime use only, with a maximum plate power input to the final radio frequency stage not to exceed 100 watts.

[4] This frequency may be subject to change when the Atlantic City table of frequency allocations between 4 Mc and 27.5 Mc comes into force.

(c) In addition to the frequencies listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a person eligible in the Power Radio Service who is engaged in the distribution of natural gas directly to consumers and who has a substantial requirement for mobile service communication with his gas supplier may be authorized to operate on the Petroleum Radio Service frequency or frequencies assigned to that supplier: Provided, however, That such operation shall be limited to communications in the local area common to both parties and shall relate only to gas supply and distribution activities. The application of any person seeking a frequency assignment under the provisions of this paragraph shall be accompanied by a written statement from the natural gas supplier which: (1) Concurs in the need for such intercommunication; and (2) consents to the use by the natural gas distributor of the frequency or frequencies involved.

(d) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Power Radio Service on a shared basis with other services, under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization.

Mc.	Mc.
2450–2500 [1]	6425– 6575
3500–3700	11700–12200

[1] Use of frequencies in the band 2450–2500 Mc. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 2450 Mc.

§ 11.253 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations. (a) Subject to the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to reception of television channel number 4 or 5, the following frequencies are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the Power Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
72.02	72.82	73.62	74.42
72.06	72.86	73.66	74.46

[1] Use of frequencies in the bands 890–940, 2450–2500, and 17850–18000 Mc. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequencies 915, 2450 and 18000 Mc.

(c) Pursuant to the provisions of § 11.8, and for the specific purpose of transmitting hydrological or meteorological data, the frequencies listed in this paragraph are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in this Service: Provided, however, That harmful interference shall not be caused to Federal Government stations: And provided further, That the hydrological or meteorological data is made available to interested government agencies. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 11.151, Operational Fixed Stations authorized to operate on frequencies listed in this paragraph shall not communicate with or accept communications from any Mobile Station or Base Station unless written authorization to do so has been obtained from the Commission. Persons who desire to operate stations in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph should communicate with the Commission prior to filing formal application and request instructions concerning the procedure to be followed. The following frequencies are available for assignment:

[2] 40.68	171.025	[3] 406.150

170.375	[3] 406.050

[1] Primarily for use by Fixed Relay Stations.

[2] Use of the frequency 40.68 Mc is limited to stations located in the states of Pennsylvania and West Virginia only, and is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the same frequency.

§ 11.254 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations. (a) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available for assignment to stations in the Power Radio Service for Developmental Operation only (see Subpart E of this part), and are shared with other radio services.

(b) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available primarily for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations, and secondarily for assignment to certain classes of Operational Fixed Stations (Fixed Relay and Control Stations only). Not more than one pair of those frequencies, to consist of one frequency in the band 451–452 Mc and one frequency in the band 456–457 Mc (normally to be separated by exactly 5.0 Mc), will be assigned for use by the stations of any single mobile service radio system, except upon adequate showing of need. Only one frequency of such pair will ordinarily be assigned to any Mobile Station, and the lower frequency of that pair will not be assigned to such Mobile Station unless the system is designed for the single frequency method of operation and the same frequency is also assigned to an associated Base Station. Base Stations in this service will not be assigned frequencies in the band 456–457 Mc. An Operational Fixed Station to be operated as a part of a mobile service radio system may be assigned either of the paired frequencies available to the Base or Mobile Stations of the same mobile service radio system, subject however, to the following additional restrictions and limitations on assignment and use:

(1) All use by Operational Fixed Stations is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to stations operating in the mobile service on frequencies in the 450–460 Mc. band, in accordance with the table of frequency allocations as set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(2) The frequencies are available for assignment only to those Operational Fixed Stations which function as integral and essential parts of a mobile service radio system. Such Operational Fixed Stations include only those which are operated as part of a radio circuit over which messages normally are sent to or from a Mobile Station without interruption for manual relaying at intermediate points.

(3) Operational Fixed Relay Stations may be used to provide two automatic retransmissions of a mobile service message. Additional automatic retransmissions on these frequencies by means of such stations is prohibited.

(c) Frequencies available for assignment as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are as follows:

Base and Mobile (Mc)	Mobile (Mc)
451.05	456.05
451.15	456.15
451.25	456.25
451.35	456.35
451.45	456.45
451.55	456.55
451.65	456.65
451.75	456.75
451.85	456.85

(d) The frequency 27.255 Mc is available for assignment to Base, Mobile and Operational Fixed stations in this service, on a shared basis with other services, subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 27.12 Mc.

SUBPART G—PETROLEUM RADIO SERVICE

§ 11.301 Eligibility. (a) The following persons are eligible to hold authorizations to operate radio stations in the Petroleum Radio Service:

(1) A person who is engaged in prospecting for, producing, collecting, refining, or transporting by means of pipelines, petroleum or petroleum products (including natural gas).

(2) A non-profit corporation or association, organized for the purpose of furnishing a radiocommunication service solely to persons who are actually engaged in one or more of the activities set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such a corporation or association shall render service only on a non-profit cost-sharing basis, said costs to be prorated on an equitable basis among all persons to whom service is rendered. Records which reflect this cost-sharing non-profit basis shall be maintained and held available for inspection by Commission representatives.

(b) Each application for authority to operate in the Petroleum Radio Service shall be accompanied by a statement in detail sufficient to indicate clearly the applicant's eligibility under paragraph (a) of this section. In addition, each person licensed under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall obtain prior approval from the Commission for each person who proposes to participate in the licensee's service.

§ 11.302 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Petroleum Radio Service only:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
25.02	33.18	48.66	48.98
25.06	33.22	48.70	49.02

25.14	33.30	48.78	49.10
25.18	33.34	48.82	49.14
25.22	33.38	48.86	49.18
25.26	48.58	48.90
25.30	48.62	48.94

(b) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base Stations and Mobile Stations in the Petroleum Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Frequency (kc.)	Frequency (Mc.)	Frequency (Mc.)
1614	30.66	153.23
1628	30.70	153.29

[1] 2292	153.05	158.43
[1] 2398	153.11
[1] [2] 4637.5	153.17

[1] Use of this frequency by stations licensed in the Petroleum Radio Service is on a shared basis with other stations in the Industrial Radio Services, but is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any station not in these services which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

[2] This frequency is limited to daytime use only, with a maximum plate power input to the final radio frequency stage not to exceed 100 watts.

[3] This frequency may be subject to change when the Atlantic City table of frequency allocations between 4 Mc. and 27.5 Mc. comes into force.

(c) In addition to the frequencies listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a person eligible in the Petroleum Radio Service who is engaged in the transportation of natural gas by pipeline and who has a substantial requirement for mobile service communication with a public utility company purchasing such gas for distribution to the consumer may be authorized to operate on the Power Radio Service frequency or frequencies assigned to such distributors: Provided, however, That such operation shall be limited to communications in the local area common to both parties and shall relate only to gas supply and distribution activities. The application of any person seeking a frequency assignment under the provisions of this paragraph shall be accompanied by a written statement from the natural gas distributor which: (1) Concurs in the need for such intercommunication; and (2) consents to the use by the natural gas supplier of the frequency or frequencies involved.

(d) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Petroleum Radio Service on a shared basis with other services, under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization.

Mc.	Mc.
[1] 2450–2500	6425– 6575
3500–3700	11700–12200

[1] Use of frequencies in the band 2450–2500 Mc. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 2450 Mc.

§ 11.303 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations. (a) Subject to the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to reception of television channel number 4 or 5, the following frequencies are available for assignment to fixed stations in the Petroleum Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
72.02	72.82	73.62	74.42

2500–2700

[1] Use of frequencies in the bands 890–940, 2450–2500, and 17850–18000 Mc. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequencies 915, 2450 and 18000 Mc.

(c) Pursuant to the provisions of § 11.8, and for the specific purpose of transmitting hydrological or meteorological data, the frequencies listed in this paragraph are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in this Service: Provided, however, That harmful interference shall not be caused to Federal Government stations: And provided further, That the hydrological or meteorological data is made available to interested government agencies. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 11.151, Operational Fixed Stations authorized to operate on frequencies listed in this paragraph shall not communicate with or accept communications from any Mobile Station or Base Station unless written authorization to do so has been obtained from the Commission. Persons who desire to operate stations in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph should communicate with the Commission prior to filing formal application and request instructions concerning the procedure to be followed. The following frequencies are available for assignment:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.

[1] Primarily for use by Fixed Relay Stations.

[2] Use of the frequency 40.68 Mc is limited to stations located in the States of Pennsylvania and West Virginia only, and is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the same frequency.

§ 11.304 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations. (a) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available for assignment to stations in the Petroleum Radio Service for Developmental Operation only (see Subpart E of this part), and are shared with other radio services.

(b) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available primarily for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations, and secondarily for assignment to certain classes of Operational Fixed Stations (Fixed Relay and Control Stations only). Not more than one pair of those frequencies, to consist of one frequency in the band 451–452 Mc and one frequency in the band 456–457 Mc (normally to be separated by exactly 5.0 Mc), will be assigned for use by the stations of any single mobile service radio system, except upon adequate showing of need. Only one frequency of such pair will ordinarily be assigned to any Mobile Station, and the lower frequency of that pair will not be assigned to such Mobile Station unless the system is designed for the single frequency method of operation and the same frequency is also assigned to an associated Base Station. Base Stations in this service will not be assigned frequencies in the band 456–457 Mc. An Operational Fixed Station to be operated as a part of a mobile service radio system may be assigned either of the paired frequencies available to the Base or Mobile Stations of the same mobile service radio system, subject however, to the following additional restrictions and limitations on assignment and use:

(1) All use by Operational Fixed Stations is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to stations operating in the mobile service on frequencies in the 450–460 Mc. band, in accordance with the table of frequency allocations as set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(2) The frequencies are available for assignment only to those Operational Fixed Stations which function as integral and essential parts of a mobile service radio system. Such Operational Fixed Stations include only those which are operated as part of a radio circuit over which messages normally are sent to or from a Mobile Station without interruption for manual relaying at intermediate points.

(3) Fixed Relay Stations may be used to provide two automatic retransmissions of a mobile service message. Additional automatic retransmissions on these frequencies by means of such stations is prohibited.

(c) Frequencies available for assignment as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are as follows:

451.75	456.75
451.85	456.85
451.95	456.95

(d) The frequency 27.255 Mc is available for assignment to Base, Mobile and Operational Fixed Stations in this service, on a shared basis with other services, subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 27.12 Mc.

SUBPART H—FOREST PRODUCTS RADIO SERVICE

§ 11.351 Eligibility. (a) The following persons are eligible to hold authorizations to operate radio stations in the Forest Products Radio Service:

(1) A person who is engaged in tree logging, tree farming, or related woods operations.

(2) A non-profit corporation or association, organized for the purpose of furnishing a radio communication service solely to persons who are actually engaged in one or more of the activities set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such a corporation or association shall render service only on a non-profit cost-sharing basis, said costs to be prorated on an equitable basis among all persons to whom service is rendered. Records which reflect this cost-sharing, non-profit basis shall be maintained and held available for inspection by Commission representatives.

(b) Each application for authority to operate in the Forest Products Radio Service shall be accompanied by a statement in detail sufficient to indicate clearly the applicant's eligibility under paragraph (a) of this section. In addition, each person licensed under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall obtain prior approval from the Commission for each person who proposes to participate in the licensee's service.

§ 11.352 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Forest Products Radio Service only:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
29.73	49.26	49.38	49.50
29.77	49.30	49.42

[1] Use of frequencies in the bands 890–940, 2450–2500, and 17850–18000 MC, is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequencies 915, 2450 and 18000 MC.

(c) Pursuant to the provisions of § 11.8, and for the specific purpose of transmitting hydrological or meteorological data, the frequencies listed in this paragraph are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in this Service: Provided, however, That harmful interference shall not be caused to Federal Government stations: And provided further, That the hydrological or meteorological data is made available to interested government agencies. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 11.151, Operational Fixed Stations authorized to operate on frequencies listed in this paragraph shall not communicate with or accept communications from any Mobile Station or Base Station unless written authorization to do so has been obtained from the Commission. Persons who desire to operate stations in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph should communicate with the Commission prior to filing formal application and request instructions concerning the procedure to be followed. The following frequencies are available for assignment:

Mc	Mc	Mc
[2] 40.68	171.025	[1] 406.150
189.425	171.075	[1] 406.250
189.475	171.125	[1] 406.350
189.525	171.175	[1] 412.450
189.575	171.825	[1] 412.550
170.225	171.875	[1] 412.650
170.275	171.925	[1] 412.750
170.325	171.975
170.375	[2] 406.050

[1] Primarily for use by Fixed Relay Stations.
[2] Use of the frequency 40.68 Mc is limited to stations located in the states of Pennsylvania and West Virginia only, and is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the same frequency.

§ 11.354 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations. (a) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available for assignment to stations in the Forest Products Radio Service for Developmental Operation only (see Subpart E of this part), and are shared with other radio services.

(b) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available primarily for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations, and secondarily for assignment to certain classes of Operational Fixed Stations (Fixed Relay and Control Stations only). Not more than one pair of those frequencies, to consist of one frequency in the band 451–452 Mc and one frequency in the band 456–457 Mc (normally to be separated by exactly 5.0 Mc), will be assigned for use by the stations of any single mobile service radio system, except upon adequate showing of need. Only one frequency of such pair will ordinarily be assigned to any Mobile Station, and the lower frequency of that pair will not be assigned to such Mobile Station unless the system is designed for the single frequency method of operation and the same frequency is also assigned to an associated Base Station. Base Stations in this service will not be assigned frequencies in the band 456–457 Mc. An Operational Fixed Station to be operated as a part of a mobile service radio system may be assigned either of the paired frequencies available to the Base or Mobile Stations of the same mobile service radio system, subject however, to the following additional restrictions and limitations on assignment and use:

(1) All use by Operational Fixed Stations is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to stations operating in the mobile service on frequencies in the 450–460 Mc. band, in accordance with the table of frequency allocations as set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(2) The frequencies are available for assignment only to those Operational Fixed Stations which function as integral and essential parts of a mobile service radio system. Such Operational Fixed Stations include only those which are operated as part of a radio circuit over which messages normally are sent to or from a Mobile Station without interruption for manual relaying at intermediate points.

(3) Fixed Relay Stations may be used to provide two automatic retransmissions of a mobile service message. Additional automatic retransmissions on these frequencies by means of such stations is prohibited.

(c) Frequencies available for assignment as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are as follows:

Base and Mobile (Mc)	Mobile (Mc)
451.05	456.05
451.15	456.15
451.25	456.25
451.35	456.35
451.45	456.45
451.55	456.55
451.65	456.65
451.75	456.75
451.85	456.85
451.95	456.95

(d) The frequency 27.255 Mc is available for assignment to Base, Mobile and Operational Fixed Stations in this service, on a shared basis with other services, subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 27.12 Mc.

SUBPART I—MOTION PICTURE RADIO SERVICE

§ 11.401 Eligibility. (a) The following persons are eligible to hold authorizations to operate radio stations in the Motion Picture Radio Service:

(1) A person who is engaged in the production or filming of motion pictures.

(2) A non-profit corporation or association, organized for the purpose of furnishing a radiocommunication service solely to persons who are actually engaged in one or more of the activities set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such a corporation or association shall render service only on a non-profit cost-sharing basis among all persons to whom service is rendered. Records which reflect this cost-sharing non-profit basis shall be maintained and held available for inspection by Commission representatives.

(b) Each application for authority to operate in the Motion Picture Radio Service shall be accompanied by a statement in detail sufficient to indicate clearly the applicant's eligibility under paragraph (a) of this section. In addition, each person licensed under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall obtain prior approval from the Commission for each person who proposes to participate in the licensee's service.

§ 11.402 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base Stations and Mobile Stations in the Motion Picture Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Frequency (kc.)	Frequency (Mc.)	Frequency (Mc.)
1628	49.70	152.99
1652	49.74	173.225
[1] 2292	49.78	173.275
[1] 2398	49.82	173.325
	152.93

[1] Use of this frequency by stations licensed in the Motion Picture Radio Service is on a shared basis with other stations in the Industrial Radio Services, but is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any station not in these services which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.
[2] This frequency is limited to daytime use only, with a maximum plate power input to the final radio frequency stage not to exceed 100 watts.
[3] This frequency may be subject to change when the Atlantic City table of frequency allocations between 4 Mc and 27.5 Mc comes into force.

(b) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Motion Picture Radio Service on a shared basis with other services, under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization:

Mc.	Mc.
[1] 2450–2500	6425– 6575
3500–3700	11700–12200

[1] Use of frequencies in the band 2450–2500 Mc. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 2450 Mc.

§ 11.403 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations. (a) Subject to the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to reception of television channel number 4 or 5, the following frequencies are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the Motion Picture Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
72.02	72.82	73.62	74.42
72.06	72.86	73.66	74.46

72.58	73.38	74.18	75.78
72.62	73.42	74.22	75.82
72.66	73.46	74.26	75.86
72.70	73.50	74.30	75.90
72.74	73.54	74.34	75.94
72.78	73.58	74.38	75.98

(b) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the Motion Picture Radio Service on a shared basis with other services under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization:

Mc.	Mc.
[1] 890– 940	6575– 6875
952– 960	9800– 9900
1850–1990	12200–12700
2110–2200	[1] 16000–18000
[1] 2450–2500	26000–30000
2500–2700

[1] Use of frequencies in the bands 890–940, 2450–2500, and 17850–18000 MC. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequencies 915, 2450 and 18000 MC.

§ 11.404 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations. (a) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available for assignment to stations in the Motion Picture Radio Service for Developmental Operation only (see Subpart E of this part), and are shared with other radio services.

(b) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available primarily for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations, and secondarily for assignment to certain classes of Operational Fixed Stations (Fixed Relay and Control Stations only). Not more than one pair of those frequencies, to consist of one frequency in the band 451–452 Mc and one frequency in the band 456–457 Mc (normally to be separated by exactly 5.0 Mc), will be assigned for use by the stations of any single mobile service radio system, except upon adequate showing of need. Only one frequency of such pair will ordinarily be assigned to any Mobile Station, and the lower frequency of that pair will not be assigned to such Mobile Station unless the system is designed for the single frequency method of operation and the same frequency is also assigned to an associated Base Station. Base Stations in this service will not be assigned frequencies in the band 456–457 Mc. An Operational Fixed Station to be operated as a part of a mobile service radio system may be assigned either of the paired frequencies available to the Base or Mobile Stations of the same mobile service radio system, subject however, to the following additional restrictions and limitations on assignment and use:

(1) All use by Operational Fixed Stations is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to stations operating in the mobile service on frequencies in the 450–460 Mc. band, in accordance with the table of frequency allocations as set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(2) The frequencies are available for assignment only to those Operational Fixed Stations which function as integral and essential parts of a Mobile Service radio system. Such Operational Fixed Stations include only those which are operated as part of a radio circuit over which messages normally are sent to or from a Mobile Station without interruption for manual relaying at intermediate points.

(3) Fixed Relay Stations may be used to provide two automatic retransmissions of a mobile service message. Additional automatic retransmissions on these frequencies by means of such stations is prohibited.

(c) Frequencies available for assignment as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are as follows:

Base and Mobile (Mc)	Mobile (Mc)
451.05	456.05
451.15	456.15
451.25	456.25

451.45	456.45
451.55	456.55
451.65	456.65
451.75	456.75
451.85	456.85
451.95	456.95

(d) The frequency 27,255 Mc is available for assignment to Base, Mobile and Operational Fixed Stations in this service, on a shared basis with other services, subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 27.12 Mc.

SUBPART J—RELAY PRESS RADIO SERVICE

§ 11.451 Eligibility. (a) The following persons are eligible to hold authorizations to operate radio stations in the Relay Press Radio Service:

(1) A person who is engaged in the publication of a newspaper or in the operation of an established press association.

(2) A non-profit corporation or association, organized for the purpose of furnishing a radiocommunication service solely to persons who are actually engaged in one or more of the activities set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such a corporation or association shall render service only on a non-profit cost-sharing basis, said cost to be prorated on an equitable basis among all persons to whom service is rendered. Records which reflect this cost-sharing non-profit basis shall be maintained and held available for inspection by Commission representatives.

(b) Each application for authority to operate in the Relay Press Radio Service shall be accompanied by a statement in detail sufficient to indicate clearly the applicant's eligibility under paragraph (a) of this section. In addition, each person licensed under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall obtain prior approval from the Commission for each person who proposes to participate in the licensee's service.

§ 11.452 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Relay Press Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Mc.	Mc.
173.225	173.325
173.275	173.375

(b) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Relay Press Radio Service on a shared basis with other services, under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization:

Mc.	Mc.
[1] 2450–2500	6425– 6575
3500–3700	11700–12200

[1] Use of frequencies in the band 2450–2500 Mc. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 2450 Mc.

§ 11.453 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations. (a) Subject to the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to reception of television channel number 4 or 5, the following frequencies are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the Relay Press Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
72.02	72.82	73.62	74.42
72.06	72.86	73.66	74.46
72.10	72.90	73.70	74.50
72.14	72.94	73.74	74.54
72.18	72.98	73.78	74.58
72.22	73.02	73.82	75.42
72.26	73.06	73.86	75.46
72.30	73.10	73.90	75.50
72.34	73.14	73.94	75.54
72.38	73.18	73.98	75.58
72.42	73.22	74.02	75.62
72.46	73.26	74.06	75.66
72.50	73.30	74.10	75.70
72.54	73.34	74.14	75.74
72.58	73.38	74.18	75.78
72.62	73.42	74.22	75.82
72.66	73.46	74.26	75.86
72.70	73.50	74.30	75.90
72.74	73.54	74.34	75.94
72.78	73.58	74.38	75.98

(b) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the Relay Press Radio Service on a shared basis with other services, under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization:

Mc.	Mc.
[1] 890– 940	6575– 6875
952– 960	9800– 9900
1850–1990	12200–12700
2110–2200	[1] 16000–18000
[1] 2450–2500	26000–30000
2500–2700

[1] Use of frequencies in the bands 890–940, 2450–2500, and 17850–18000 Mc. is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequencies 915, 2450 and 18000 Mc.

§ 11.454 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations. (a) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available for assignment to stations in the Relay Press Radio Service for Developmental Operation only (see Subpart E of this part), and are shared with other radio services.

(b) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available primarily for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations, and secondarily for assignment to certain classes of Operational Fixed Stations (Fixed Relay and Control Stations only). Not more than one pair of those frequencies, to consist of one frequency in the band 451–452 Mc and one frequency in the band 456–457 Mc (normally to be separated by exactly 5.0 Mc), will be assigned for use by the stations of any single mobile service radio system, except upon adequate showing of need. Only one frequency of such pair will ordinarily be assigned to any Mobile Station, and the lower frequency of that pair will not be assigned to such Mobile Station unless the system is designed for the single frequency method of operation and the same frequency is also assigned to an associated Base Station. Base Stations in this service will not be assigned frequencies in the band 456–457 Mc. An Operational Fixed Station to be operated as a part of a mobile service radio system may be assigned either of the paired frequencies available to the Base or Mobile Stations of the same mobile service radio system, subject however, to the following additional restrictions and limitations on assignment and use:

(1) All use by Operational Fixed Stations is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to stations operating in the mobile service on frequencies in the 450–460 Mc. band, in accordance with the table of frequency allocations as set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(2) The frequencies are available for assignment only to those Operational Fixed Stations which function as integral and essential parts of a mobile service radio system. Such Operational Fixed Stations include only those which are operated as part of a radio circuit over which messages normally are sent to or from a mobile station without interruption for manual relaying at intermediate points.

(3) Fixed Relay Stations may be used to provide two automatic retransmissions of a mobile service message. Additional automatic retransmissions on these frequencies by means of such stations is prohibited.

(c) Frequencies available for assignment as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are as follows:

Base and Mobile (Mc)	Mobile (Mc)
451.05	456.05
451.15	456.15
451.25	456.25
451.35	456.35
451.45	456.45
451.55	456.55
451.65	456.65
451.75	456.75
451.85	456.85
451.95	456.95

(d) The frequency 27.255 Mc is available for assignment to Base, Mobile and Operational Fixed stations in this service, on a shared basis with other services, subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 27.12 Mc.

SUBPART K—SPECIAL INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICE

§ 11.501 Scope of service. (a) The rules set forth in this subpart are designed to make available to a variety of individual industrial enterprises mobile radiocommunication systems which can contribute materially to the safety and efficiency of the operations involved. The limited number of frequencies available for assignment in this service precludes making it available to all classes of persons who might have a need for mobile radiocommunication, particularly in or near large population centers. Accordingly, the Commission has been obliged to adopt strict eligibility limitations on industrial radio usage in such areas and, in addition, other limitations have been placed on the use of licensed stations. Nevertheless, those persons who do qualify for their own radio systems in this service are cautioned that a substantial amount of interference can be expected and are urged to cooperate in the solution of mutual interference problems.

(b) Certain frequencies are available for assignment for fixed service operations in this service on a limited basis; however, extensive licensing of point-to-point systems must await further development of the Commission's microwave program. Accordingly, requests for point-to-point facilities will be considered on a case-by-case basis. In general, requests for such point-to-point facilities should clearly establish either (1) that a number of Fixed Stations at permanent locations are required to provide communications between isolated establishments or from such establishments to points at which established communication facilities are available, or (2) that the use of a remotely located Base Station, with which a requested fixed control and fixed relay link is proposed to be used, is necessary to maintain communications with mobile units for the conduct of authorized communications. Point-to-point facilities will not be authorized for the transmission of any type of signal or communication between two locations within the same Standard Metropolitan Area except for the purpose of providing a fixed control and fixed relay link where the remote placement of a Base Station has been justified.

(c) The initial application from a person claiming eligibility under the provisions of this subpart shall be accompanied by a full description of the type, location and extent of the particular activity in which engaged and the proposed use of radio in connection therewith, together with a full description of any other activities in connection with which the radio-equipped vehicles will be used and the extent of such use.

§ 11.502 Availability of service. (a) Authorizations to operate stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service are available only to the extent and for the purposes set forth in this subpart. To the extent that the provisions of this subpart may be at variance with those contained in Subpart A, B, C, D, or E of this part, the provisions of this subpart shall be controlling.

(b) Authorizations to operate stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service are not available to conduct operations for which specific provision is made elsewhere in this chapter.

(c) A subsidiary corporation furnishing a non-profit communications service to its parent corporation or its subsidiaries may be considered eligible in the Special Industrial Radio Service, if the parent or its subsidiaries are engaged in one of the activities set forth in this subpart. The use of any radio system authorized pursuant to this paragraph will be subject to all the limitations and conditions applicable to the particular activity upon which eligibility is predicated.

(d) The classification of certain industries and activities into specified categories for the purposes of this subpart is based upon the general classification of all industrial activities contained in the Standard Industrial Classification Manual (Executive Office of the President, Bureau of the Budget: Volume I, Manufacturing Industries, 1945; and Volume II, Nonmanufacturing Industries, 1949) with certain specific additions to and exclusions from the general categories for the purposes of these rules. To determine whether or not a particular industrial activity falls within one of the categories delineated in this subpart, reference to that manual is recommended. (The manual is available from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.)

§ 11.503 Agricultural activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, agricultural activities are defined as the activities directly involved in the operation of farms or ranches for the production of crops or plants, vines or trees (excluding forestry operations), or for the keeping, grazing or feeding of livestock for animal products, animal increase, or value enhancement. Included as farms are such agricultural enterprises as orchards, vineyards, nurseries, greenhouses, hothouses, fur farms, mushroom cellars, apiaries, cranberry bogs, fish ponds, fish hatcheries, oyster farms and frog farms. The processing (curing, packing, canning, smoking, freezing, etc.) of food or other agricultural products on a farm is classed as an agricultural rather than a manufacturing activity if the raw materials are grown on that farm.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in agricultural activities, as that term is defined in this section, are eligible in this service when it is shown that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of the agricultural activities involved.

(c) Limitation on station locations. Each station authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be located and operated at all times in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission upon a showing that transmitting equipment will in fact be used in an area of low population density removed from the urbanized sections of the standard metropolitan area involved.

§ 11.504 Heavy construction activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, heavy construction activities are defined as the activities directly involved in the construction of engineering projects, such as highways and streets, bridges, sewers, railroads, utility rights-of-way, irrigation projects, flood control projects and marine construction, and miscellaneous types of construction work other than buildings. Not included as heavy construction activities are the functions performed by general contractors engaged in the construction of residential, farm, industrial, commercial, public, or other similar building, or by establishments specializing in plumbing, painting, electrical work, masonry, plastering, carpentry, or other special construction trades. Although marine construction is included as a heavy construction activity, dredging solely for the recovery of sand, gravel, fuels, minerals or metals shall be classed as a mining activity.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in heavy construction activities, as that term is defined in this section, are eligible in this service when it is shown that the use of the Low Power Industrial Radio Service does not meet their operational requirements and that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of the heavy construction activities involved and either (1) that all such activities take place exclusively in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population, or (2) that the use of radio will be exclusively for on-the-job communications at the site of a particular heavy construction project within such Standard Metropolitan Area.

(c) Limitation on station locations. Each station authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be located and operated at all times in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population. Exceptions to the above may be made by the Commission in specific cases and for limited periods of time when it is shown that one or more Base Stations, to be associated with a specified heavy construction project and to be located within one-quarter mile thereof, will be used exclusively in the conduct of that project; however, each authorization so issued, for the operations of Base Stations or mobile units within such Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population, will be limited in term to one year, renewable on the same showing in the event the particular project continues beyond that period.

§ 11.505 Building construction activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, building construction activities are defined as the functions directly performed by general building contractors primarily engaged in construction (including new work, additions, alterations, and repair) of buildings such as houses; apartment buildings; farm buildings; industrial, commercial, institutional, and public buildings; light and power plants; natural gas compressing stations; oil pumping stations; and refuse disposal plants. Not included as building construction activities are the functions performed by establishments specializing in plumbing, painting, electrical work, masonry, plastering, carpentry, or other special construction trades.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in building construction activities, as that term is defined in this section, are eligible in this service when it is shown (1) that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of building construction activities, (2) that the use of radio will be exclusively for on-the-job communications at the site of and between members working on a single project, and (3) that the use of the Low Power Industrial Radio Service does not meet the operational requirements of the building construction activity involved.

(c) Limitation on station locations. No Base Station for operation at any location and no Operational Fixed Station of any class shall be authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section. Exceptions to the above may be made by the Commission in specific cases and for limited periods of time when it is shown that not more than one Base Station, to be associated with a specified building construction project and to be located within one quarter mile thereof, is necessary for the conduct of that project; however, each authorization so issued for the operation of a Base Station will be limited in term to one year renewable on the same showing in the event the particular project continues beyond that period.

§ 11.506 Manufacturing activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, manufacturing activities are defined as the activities directly involved in the mechanical or chemical transformation of organic or inorganic substances into new products within establishments usually described as plants, factories, shipyards, or mills and which employ, in that process, power-driven machines and materials-handling equipment. Establishments engaged in assembling components of manufactured products in plants, factories, shipyards or mills are also engaged in manufacturing activities if the new product is neither a new structure nor other fixed improvement. Establishments primarily engaged in the wholesale or retail trade, or in service activities, even though they fabricate or assemble any or all of the products or commodities handled, shall not be considered to be engaged in manufacturing activities.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in manufacturing activities, as that term is defined in this section, are eligible in this service when it is shown that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of the manufacturing activities involved and either (1) that those activities take place exclusively in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population, or (2) that the use of radio will be within the yard area for mobile service communications within such Standard Metropolitan Area and that the use of the Low Power Industrial Radio Service does not meet the operational requirements of the manufacturing activity otherwise found eligible under this paragraph.

(c) Limitation on station location. (1) Each station authorized in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of this section shall be located and operated at all times in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population.

(2) Each Base Station authorized in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) of this section shall be permanently located at a point within the yard area to be served by it, and the mobile units associated therewith shall not be operated beyond the boundaries of that yard area except that, upon specific authorization by the Commission after adequate showing that such operation is necessary in the interest of national defense, mobile units may be operated outside of such yard area for the purpose of maintaining plant security only. The term "yard area" as used in this section may include one or more sites, whether contiguous or non-contiguous, on which plant or plants of the applicant are located, if the plant or plants are operated as an integrated manufacturing unit, and if the sites, when physically non-contiguous, lie within close proximity of each other. In determining whether non-contiguous areas lie within such close proximity of each other as to be considered a "yard area", the Commission will consider the extent to which such sites are separated by streets, highways, railroad tracks, rivers or similar obstacles. Where the "yard area" in which the applicant wishes to communicate includes more than one plant, each plant to be included shall be listed on the application and the instrument of authorization.

§ 11.507 Mining activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, mining activities are defined as the activities directly involved in the process of recovery of solid fuels, minerals or metals or water, from the earth or from the sea by means of mining, quarrying, dredging, chemical extraction, deep-well operation, or similar processes. The operations involved in the exploration for and development of mining properties are considered mining activities. The process of crushing, washing, sorting, grading, dressing, or other beneficiation or preparation for delivery as raw material to smelting, refining or other manufacturing processes or to the wholesale market is considered a part of the mining activity only when carried on by the same person who recovers the basic materials from the earth or from the sea. The operations involved in the drilling of disposal wells for the disposal of industrial waste materials are considered mining activities.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in mining activities, as that term is defined in this section, are eligible in this service when it is shown that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of the mining activities involved.

(c) Limitation on station location. Each station authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be located and operated at all times in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission upon a showing that transmitting equipment will in fact be used in an area of low population density removed from the urbanized sections of the Standard Metropolitan Area involved.

§ 11.508 Specialized industrial service and trade activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, specialized industrial service and trade activities are defined as those commercial or industrial activities directly involved in providing specialized functions, services or materials, under contract, to persons who are themselves eligible in the Industrial Radio Services to use radio in connection with the performance of the same functions. Activities normally classed as building trade or special construction trade activities are not included. Only the following are recognized as specialized industrial service and trade activities in accordance with the foregoing:

(1) Plowing, spraying, dusting, soil conditioning, seeding, fertilizing, or harvesting for agricultural or forestry activities.

(2) Livestock breeding service.

(3) Cleaning and repair of oil, gas, water or other transmission pipe lines, or tank cars.

(4) Acidizing, cementing, logging, perforating, or shooting activities, and services of a similar nature incident to the drilling of new oil or gas wells, or the maintenance of production from established wells.

(5) Activities incident to the drilling of water or industrial waste disposal wells or the maintenance of such wells.

(6) Supplying of chemicals, mud, tools, pipe and other special materials or equipment to the petroleum production industry, other than to refining, cracking or processing plants.

(7) Clearing and maintaining rights-of-way for public utilities.

(8) Crushing, washing, sorting, grading, dressing or other beneficiation or preparation of ores, minerals or solid fuels, when performed by a person who is not engaged in either a mining or a manufacturing activity and when all such operations, including all use of radio in connection therewith, are confined to a single yard area.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in specialized industrial service and trade activities, as that term is defined in this section, are eligible in this service when it is shown (1) that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of such specialized industrial service and trade activities, (2) that every basic industrial activity served would be eligible for a station authorization in the Industrial Radio Services at the station locations proposed by the applicants in this service, (3) that the persons engaged in the specialized industrial service and trade activities are not otherwise eligible under this Part for the use of radio in connection with those activities except in the Low Power Industrial Radio Services, and (4) that the use of the Low Power Industrial Radio Service would not meet the operational requirements of these activities.

(c) Limitation on station locations. Except for stations which exclusively serve the Petroleum, Power, Forest Products or Motion Picture Industries, as defined in Subparts F, G, H, or I of this part, each station authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be located and operated at all times in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission upon a showing that transmitting equipment will in fact be used in an area of low population density removed from the urbanized sections of the Standard Metropolitan Area involved.

§ 11.509 General industrial service and trade activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, general industrial service and trade activities are defined as those commercial or industrial activities directly involved in providing specialized functions, services or materials which are essential to the efficient conduct of miscellaneous industrial or agricultural processes. Only the following are recognized as general industrial service and trade activities in accordance with the foregoing.

(1) Servicing, repairing and maintaining heavy machinery (not including automobiles or trucks) exclusively in connection with agricultural, heavy construction, manufacturing or mining activities, as those terms are defined in this subpart, or in connection with activities conducted by persons who are eligible for license in the Power, Petroleum, Forest Products or Motion Picture Radio Services.

(2) Delivering and pouring ready-mixed concrete, hot asphalt mix, and similar perishable mixtures.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in general industrial service and trade activities, or in a combination of general and specialized industrial service and trade activities, as those terms are defined in this subpart, are eligible in this service when it is shown that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of those activities.

(c) Limitation on station locations. Each station authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be located and operated at all times in areas other than Standard Metropolitan Areas of 500,000 or more population, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission upon a showing that transmitting equipment will in fact be used in an area of low population density removed from the urbanized sections of the Standard Metropolitan Area involved.

§ 11.510 Engineering service activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, engineering service activities are defined as those activities directly involved in the conduct of certain engineering field activities by professional engineers or consulting engineering firms. Only the following are recognized as engineering service activities in accordance with the foregoing:

(1) The conduct of geophysical, geomagnetic, natural resource, topographical, geological or similar surveys.

(2) Surveys and tests in connection with the siting, construction and adjustment of the antennas of commercial, educational, Federal, State or Local Government radio transmitting and receiving stations, including field intensity and proof of performance surveys of such stations.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in engineering service activities, as that term is defined in this section, are eligible in this service when it is shown (1) that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of such engineering service activities, and (2) that the use of radio will be exclusively for on-the-job communications between members of the same engineering field party working on a single project.

(c) Limitation on station locations. Except in areas outside of the city limits of cities of 50,000 or more population, no Base Station or Operational Fixed Station shall be authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section for operation at any permanent location.

§ 11.511 Miscellaneous public service activities—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this part, miscellaneous public service activities are defined as those activities directly involved in the conduct of commercial or industrial enterprises which are considered essential to the health or immediate welfare of a large segment of the general public and are not classes among those commercial or industrial activities for which other specific provision has been made in the Commission's rules. Only the following are recognized as miscellaneous public service activities.

(1) The servicing and repair of heating or refrigerating equipment.

(2) The delivery of ice or fuel to the consumer in solid, liquid or gaseous form for heating, lighting, refrigerating or power generation purposes, by means other than pipelines or railroad.

(3) The spraying or dusting of insecticides, herbacides or fungicides but not including the fumigation or other treatment of buildings (or other structures) of their contents for the control of rodents, pests, parasites or plant diseases.

(b) Eligibility. Persons engaged in miscellaneous public service activities, or in a combination of those activities with general and specialized industrial service and trade activities, as those terms are defined in this subpart, are eligible in this service when it is shown that the use of radio will be exclusively in connection with the conduct of those activities which take place exclusively outside the city limits of cities of 50,000 or more population.

(c) Limitation on station locations. Each station authorized in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be located and operated at all times outside the city limits of cities of 50,000 or more population.

§ 11.512 Permissible communications. (a) Except for the transmission of communications relating directly to the safety of life or to the protection of property, stations licensed to persons in the Special Industrial Radio Service may be used only for the transmission of communications relating to the specific activity or activities in connection with which eligibility has been established.

(b) Communications relating directly or indirectly to the following shall not be transmitted by any base or mobile stations licensed in the Special Industrial Radio Services:

(1) Sales reports, or the dispatch of salesmen;

(2) Payrolls, accounts, or inventory control; or

(3) Any message or information where the time element is not of immediate importance.

§ 11.513 Station limitations. (a) After November 1, 1955, Mobile Relay stations will not be licensed in the Special Industrial Radio Service within the continental limits of the United States, except when such stations and all associated base and mobile stations applied for are proposed to be operated exclusively on frequencies above 450 Mc; Provided, however, that the provision of this subjection shall not apply to Mobile Relay stations authorized prior to November 1, 1955.

(b) Where a radio station authorization in the Special Industrial Radio Service is held by a person or organization engaged in activities beyond those indicated in the eligibility provisions of this service, the operation of such station shall be confined to those activities on which eligibility has been established, except for messages relating to the safety of life or to the protection of property.

(c) Except for the transmission of communications relating directly to the safety of life or to the protection of property, or except upon specific authorization by the Commission, no base station in the Special Industrial Radio Service shall be used for the transmission of communications addressed to, or to be relayed by, any other base station. Requests for authority for such nonsafety interbase communications must show either (1) that the nature of the applicant's operations requires an occasional transmission of messages between base stations for the express purpose of communicating with mobile units beyond the communication range of the station originating the call and that such communications will be limited to those of an urgent nature requiring immediate transmission by radio, or (2) that, for each base station involved, the applicant has a need for base-to-base communications in accordance with the provisions of § 11.151 (c) (2) (ii) and that other communication facilities between the points involved are not available and are impractical to construct from an engineering standpoint.

§ 11.514 Mobile Service frequencies for use at temporary locations. (a) Subject to the applicable provisions of § 11.54 of this part, authorization to operate a Base Station in this Service at temporary locations will be granted only on the frequencies 27.31, 27.35, 27.39, 43.02, 43.06, 43.10, 43.14, 49.70, or 152.87 Mc: Provided, however, That this paragraph shall not be applicable in the case of such stations when they are to be operated only within direct communication range of one or more permanently located Base Stations operated by the same licensee.

(b) A Mobile Station not associated with one or more Base Stations installed at permanent locations will be authorized to operate on the frequencies 27.31, 27.35, 27.39, 43.02, 43.06, 43.10, 43.14, 49.70 or 152.87 Mc only.

§ 11.515 Frequencies available for Base and Mobile Stations. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base Stations and Mobile Stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service only:

Mc	Mc	Mc	Mc
27.31	30.62	35.94	49.86
27.35	35.74	43.02	49.90
27.39	35.78	43.06	49.94
27.43	35.82	43.10	49.98
27.47	35.86	43.14	154.49
30.58	35.90	43.18

(b) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Base Stations and Mobile Stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

kc.	Mc	Mc
[1] 2292	49.54	49.78
[1] 2398	49.58	49.82
[2] [3] 4637.5	49.62	152.87
	49.66	152.93
	49.74

[1] Use of this frequency by stations licensed in the Special Industrial Radio Service is on a shared basis with other stations in the Industrial Radio Services, but is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to the service of any station not in these services which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

[2] This frequency is limited to daytime use only, with a maximum plate power input to the final radio frequency stage not to exceed 100 watts.

[3] This frequency may be subject to change when the Atlantic City table of frequency allocations between 4 Mc and 27.5 Mc comes into force.

(c) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service on a shared basis with other services under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization:

Mc	Mc
[1] [2] 2450–2500	[3] 6425–6575
[3] 3500–3700	[3] 11700–12200

[1] Use of frequencies in the band 2450–2500 Mc is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 2450 Mc.

[2] Subject to the proceedings in Docket No. 10797.

(d) In addition to the frequencies listed in this section, mobile service frequencies above 152 Mc listed elsewhere in this part as available to the Petroleum, Forest Products, Motion Picture or Relay Press Radio Services also are available for assignment in this Service for use outside the continental limits of the United States and waters adjacent thereto: Provided, however, That operation on such frequencies is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to licensees operating in the other Services.

§ 11.516 Frequencies available for Operational Fixed Stations. (a) Subject to the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to reception of television channel No. 4 or 5, the following frequencies are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Mc	Mc	Mc	Mc
72.02	72.82	73.62	74.42
72.06	72.86	73.66	74.46
72.10	72.90	73.70	74.50
72.14	72.94	73.74	74.54
72.18	72.98	73.78	74.58
72.22	73.02	73.82	75.42
72.26	73.06	73.86	75.46
72.30	73.10	73.90	75.50
72.34	73.14	73.94	75.54
72.38	73.18	73.98	75.58
72.42	73.22	74.02	75.62
72.46	73.26	74.06	75.66
72.50	73.30	74.10	75.70
72.54	73.34	74.14	75.74
72.58	73.38	74.18	75.78
72.62	73.42	74.22	75.82
72.66	73.46	74.26	75.86
72.70	73.50	74.30	75.90
72.74	73.54	74.34	75.94
72.78	73.58	74.38	75.98

(b) Frequencies in the bands listed below are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service on a shared basis with other services, under the terms of a developmental grant only; the exact frequency and the authorized bandwidth will be specified in the authorization:

Mc	Mc
[1] [2] 890–940	6575–6875
952–960	9800–9900
1850–1990	12200–12700

[1] 2450–2500	26000–30000
2500–2700

[1] Use of frequencies in the bands 890–940, 2450–2500, and 17850–18000 Mc is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequencies 915, 2450 and 18000 Mc.

[2] Subject to the proceedings in Docket No. 10797.

(c) Pursuant to the provisions of § 11.8, and for the specific purpose of transmitting hydrological or meteorological data, the frequencies listed in this paragraph are available for assignment to Operational Fixed Stations in this service: Provided, however, That harmful interference shall not be caused to Federal Government stations; And provided further, That the hydrological or meteorological data is made available to interested government agencies. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 11.151, Operational Fixed Stations authorized to operate on frequencies listed in this paragraph shall not communicate with or accept communications from any Mobile Station or Base Station unless written authorization to do so has been obtained from the Commission. Persons who desire to operate stations in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph should communicate with the Commission prior to filing formal application and request instructions concerning the procedure to be followed. The following frequencies are available for assignment:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
169.425	171.025	[1] 406.050	[2] 40.68
169.475	171.075	[1] 406.150

170.325	171.925	[1] 406.650
170.375	171.975	[1] 406.750

[1] Primarily for use by Fixed Relay Stations.

[2] Use of the frequency 40.68 Mc is limited to stations located in the states of Pennsylvania and West Virginia only, and is subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the same frequency.

§ 11.517 Frequencies available for Base, Mobile, and Operational Fixed Stations. (a) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available for assignment to stations in the Special Industrial Radio Service for Developmental Operation only (see Subpart E of this part), and are shared with other radio services.

(b) The frequencies listed in paragraph (c) of this section are available primarily for assignment to Base and Mobile Stations, and secondarily for assignment to certain classes of Operational Fixed Stations (Fixed Relay and Control Stations only). Not more than one pair of those frequencies, to consist of one frequency in the band 451–452 Mc and one frequency in the band 456–457 Mc (normally to be separated by exactly 5.0 Mc), will be assigned for use by the stations of any single mobile service radio system, except upon adequate showing of need. Only one frequency of such pair will ordinarily be assigned to any Mobile Station, and the lower frequency of that pair will not be assigned to such Mobile Station unless the system is designed for the single frequency method of operation and the same frequency is also assigned to an associated Base Station. Base Stations in this service will not be assigned frequencies in the band 456–457 Mc. An Operational Fixed Station to be operated as a part of a mobile service radio system may be assigned either of the paired frequencies available to the Base or Mobile Stations of the same mobile service radio system, subject however, to the following additional restrictions and limitations on assignment and use:

(1) All use by Operational Fixed Stations is subject to the condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to stations operating in the mobile service on frequencies in the 450–460 Mc band in accordance with the table of frequency allocations as set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

(2) The frequencies are available for assignment only to those Operational Fixed Stations which function as integral and essential parts of a mobile service radio system. Such Operational Fixed Stations include only those which are operated as part of a radio circuit over which messages normally are sent to or from a Mobile Station without interruption for manual relaying at intermediate points.

(3) Fixed Relay Stations may be used to provide two automatic retransmissions of a mobile service message. Additional automatic retransmissions on these frequencies by means of such stations is prohibited.

(c) Frequencies available for assignment as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are as follows:

Base and Mobile		Mobile
Mc.		Mc.
451.05	451.55	456.05	456.55
451.15	451.65	456.15	456.65
451.25	451.75	456.25	456.75
451.35	451.85	456.35	456.85
451.45	451.95	456.45	456.95

(d) The frequency 27.255 Mc is available for assignment to Base, Mobile and Operational Fixed stations in this service, on a shared basis with other services, subject to no protection from interference due to the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on the frequency 27.12 Mc.

§ 11.518 License renewals, modifications, assignments and transfers. No renewal or modification of license or consent to assignment or transfer shall be granted unless the applicant is able to establish eligibility under this subpart: Provided, however, That persons eligible and properly authorized to operate in this service prior to November 1, 1955, but unable to meet the eligibility provisions of this subpart, may continue to operate under the term of their current authorizations. All such valid authorizations shall be subject, upon proper application therefor, to renewal, modification and, in the event of a change in the ownership of the licensee's business, assignment or transfer with the business for which they were granted.

§ 11.519 Modification of licenses to shift frequencies. After November 1, 1956, or after the expiration date appearing in any authorization issued prior to November 1, 1955, whichever date occurs later, no licensee shall operate in the Special Industrial Radio Service, except on the frequencies specified in this Subpart for the type of operation involved. Applications for license modification, or for combined modification and renewal shall be made not later than 60 days prior to the date on which this frequency change must be accomplished: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to Mobile Relay stations authorized prior to November 1, 1955. The licensees of such stations may continue to operate under the terms of their current authorizations. All such valid authorizations shall be subject, upon proper application therefor, to renewal, modification and, in the event of a change in the ownership of the licensee's business, assignment or transfer with the business for which they were granted.

SUBPART L—LOW-POWER INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICE

§ 11.551 Eligibility. Subject to the general restrictions of § 11.4, any person engaged in a commercial activity or an industrial enterprise is eligible for station authorizations in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service for radio facilities to be used in conjunction with such activity or enterprise. For purposes of establishing eligibility under the terms of this section only, persons in the following classifications also are considered to be qualified: Educational or philanthropic institutions; and instrumentalities of State or local governments when the radio facility is to be used primarily for purposes not directly related to public safety.

§ 11.552 Classification of stations. Each station authorized for operation in this service will be classified and licensed as a Mobile Station: Provided, however, Any station so licensed may be used as a Base Station in the mobile service. Notwithstanding such possible dual use, the only rules in this part applicable to stations in this service are those applying to Mobile Stations.

§ 11.553 Frequencies available for Mobile Stations. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Mobile Stations, other than those aboard aircraft, in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service only:

Mc.	Mc.	Mc.
33.14	35.02	42.98

(b) The following frequency is available for assignment to Mobile Stations including those aboard aircraft, in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service only:

Mc.
27.51

(c) The following frequency is available for assignment to Mobile Stations other than those aboard aircraft, in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service on a shared basis with other services:

Mc.
154.57

(d) The following frequency is available for assignment to Mobile Stations including those aboard aircraft, in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service on a shared basis with other services.

Mc.
27.255

§ 11.554 Special restrictions. Each radio station authorization issued in the Low Power Industrial Radio Service is subject not only to the applicable requirements appearing in other subparts of this part and on the station authorization, but also to the following:

(a) Plate power input to the final radio frequency stage of each transmitter shall not exceed three watts, nor shall the radio frequency power output of each transmitter exceed the same figure;

(b) Emission shall be confined to voice radiotelephony only, which is construed as including tone signals or signaling devices whose sole function is to establish or maintain communication between associated stations and receivers: Provided, however, That other types of emission may be authorized on the frequency 27.255 Mc upon compliance with the provisions of § 11.103;

(c) The maximum distance between the transmitter and the center of the radiating portion of the antenna shall not exceed twenty-five feet: Provided, however, That this restriction shall not be applicable to stations aboard aircraft;

(d) When a transmitter licensed in this Service is used as a Base Station, the distance from any transmitter control point to the center of the radiating portion of the antenna shall not exceed twenty-five feet: Provided, however, That dispatch points may be installed without regard to this limitation;

(e) An antenna having radiation in any direction greater than the maximum from a simple half wave dipole antenna shall not be used;

(f) No transmitter licensed in this Service shall be used as a Mobile Relay Station, nor shall such transmitter be used as a station in the fixed service for any purpose;

(g) Except as provided in § 11.151 (e), no station licensed in this Service shall be used for communication with stations operating in another service; and

(h) A transmitter licensed in this Service shall not be used as an experimental or demonstration device.

§ 11.555 Exemption from technical standards. Transmitters licensed in this Service which have a plate power input to the final radio frequency stage not exceeding 200 milliwatts are exempt from the technical requirements set out in Subpart C of this part: Provided, however, That the sum of the bandwidth occupied by the emitted signal plus the bandwidth required for frequency tolerance shall be so adjusted that any emission appearing on a frequency 40 kc. or more removed from the assigned frequency is attenuated at least 30 db below the unmodulated carrier.

SUBPART M—INDUSTRIAL RADIOLOCATION SERVICE

§ 11.601 Nature of service. The rules in this subpart are designed to facilitate the eventual establishment, on a regular basis, of an Industrial Radiolocation Service to be used primarily in connection with geographical, geological, or geophysical activities. Since there does not appear to be any single radiolocation system which is satisfactory in all respects, all stations licensed under this subpart will be authorized only on a developmental basis. To encourage further development of radiolocation techniques, deviation from the rules in this subpart may be authorized on request where it appears to the Commission that the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served thereby.

§ 11.602 Eligibility. The following persons are eligible to hold authorizations to operate radio stations in the Industrial Radiolocation Service:

(a) Any person engaged in a commercial or industrial enterprise who has a substantial need in connection therewith to establish a position, distance, or direction by means of radiolocation devices for purposes other than navigation.

(b) A corporation or association organized for the purpose of furnishing a radiolocation service to persons eligible under paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 11.603 Service authorized. (a) Stations licensed under this subpart to operate on frequencies within the band 1750–1800 kc shall provide service without discrimination to all persons eligible under the provisions of § 11.602 (a).

(b) Stations licensed under this subpart to operate on frequencies in bands other than 1750–1800 kc. may be required by the Commission to provide service without discrimination to all persons eligible under the provisions of § 11.602 (a).

§ 11.604 Showing required for authorization. (a) Applications to operate stations in the Industrial Radiolocation Service will be granted only in these cases where it is shown: That the applicant is financially, legally and technically qualified to render the proposed service; and that a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience or necessity. A showing with respect to technical qualifications should include information which indicates the applicant's ability to construct and operate the proposed facilities; the availability of qualified operating and maintenance personnel; and complete details as to the manner in which the service will be made available to those seeking it under the provisions of § 11.603.

(b) Each application for a new station in this service shall be accompanied by:

(1) A functional description of the manner in which the system will operate, including the interrelationship and function of each unit in the system;

(2) A complete technical description of the equipment to be used, including:

(i) Emission bandwidth;

(ii) Modulation;

(iii) Plate power input to final radio frequency stage;

(iv) For equipment employing pulse modulation, the pulse width, pulse repetition rate, and peak power output;

(v) Physical and radiation characteristics of the antenna system; and

(3) A map of the area which it is proposed to serve, showing location of each station.

§ 11.605 Report of operation. A report of the results of the operation of developmental stations in this service shall be filed within 60 days of the expiration of such authorization. Matters which the licensee does not wish to disclose publicly may be so labeled and submitted as separate documents; they will be used solely for the Commission's information, and will not be disclosed publicly without permission of the licensee. The report shall include comprehensive and detailed information covering the system and equipment, including the following:

(a) Results of operation to date, including:

(1) Maximum and minimum usable range;

(2) Maximum and average accuracy in various parts of the service area;

(3) Approximate number of hours of operation;

(4) Approximate number of position readings taken;

(5) Emission bandwidth;

(6) Type(s) of modulation;

(7) Minimum practical operating power (input to final stage);

(8) For equipment employing pulse modulation, the pulse width, pulse repetition rate and peak power output;

(9) Physical and radiation characteristics of the antenna systems employed;

(b) Copies of any reports published by the licensee; and

(c) Schedule of charges; reports of revenues received and sums disbursed.

§ 11.606 Policy governing assignment of frequencies in the band 1750–1800 kc. (a) Notwithstanding contrary provisions elsewhere in this part, each frequency assignment in the band 1750–1800 kc. will be on an exclusive basis within the daytime primary service area of the station to which assigned. The normal minimum geographical separation between stations of two different radiolocation systems shall be not less than 360 miles when the stations are operated on the same frequency or on different frequencies separated by less than 5 kc. Any person desiring geographical separations of less than 360 miles under these circumstances will be required to show that the desired separation will result in a protection ratio of at least 20 db throughout the daytime primary service area of other stations.

(b) For purposes of this section, the daytime primary service area of an Industrial Radiolocation Service station operating in the 1750–1800 kc. band is defined as the area within which the signal intensities are adequate for satisfactory use by the petroleum industry for radiolocation purposes during the hours from sunrise to sunset from all stations in the radiolocation system of which the station in question is a part, i. e., the primary service area of the station coincides with the primary service area of the system.

(c) Where the number of applicants requesting authority to serve an area exceeds the number of frequencies available for assignment; or where it appears to the Commission that fewer applicants or licensees than the number before it should be given authority to serve a particular area; or where it appears that an applicant, either directly or indirectly, seeks to use more than 25 kc. of the available spectrum space in this band, the applications may be designated for hearing.

§ 11.607 Frequencies available. (a) Land Radiopositioning Stations and Mobile Radiopositioning Stations in this service, excluding speed measuring devices, may be authorized to use frequencies in the band 1750–1800 kc. Such use shall be in connection with petroleum industry activities only and shall be at locations within 150 miles of the shore line of the Gulf of Mexico. These frequencies are shared with the Disaster Communications Service and are subject to a number of special restrictions set forth elsewhere in this subpart.

(b) Land Radiopositioning Stations and Mobile Radiopositioning Stations in this service, including speed measuring devices, may be authorized to use frequencies in the band 2450–2500 Mc. on the condition that harmful interference will not be caused to the fixed and mobile services. Stations in the Industrial Radiolocation Service operating in this band also must accept any harmful interference that may be experienced from the operation of industrial, scientific and medical equipment operating in accordance with Part 18 of this chapter, Rules and Regulations Relating to Industrial, Scientific and Medical Service.

(c) Land Radiopositioning Stations and Mobile Radiopositioning Stations in this Service, excluding speed measuring devices, may be authorized to use frequencies in the following bands on the condition that harmful interference will not be caused to stations in the Radionavigation Service:

2900–3246 Mc.	5460–5650 Mc.
3266–3300 Mc.	9000–9300 Mc.
5250–5440 Mc.	9320–9500 Mc.

(d) Land Radiopositioning Stations and Mobile Radiopositioning Stations in this service may be authorized on request to use frequencies allocated exclusively to Federal Government Stations in those instances where the Commission finds, after consultation with the appropriate Government agency or agencies, that such assignment is necessary or required for coordination with Government activities.

(e) Land Radiopositioning Stations (SHORAN) and Mobile Radiopositioning Stations (SHORAN) in this service may be authorized the use of the frequencies 230 Mc, 250 Mc and 310 Mc at locations within 150 miles of the shoreline of the Gulf of Mexico and the shoreline of the State of California for radiolocation operations of the petroleum industry only, provided that no harmful interference is caused to services operating in accordance with the Table of Frequency Allocations contained in Part 2 ("Rules Governing Frequency Allocations and Radio Treaty Matters") and provided that SHORAN operations are coordinated locally in advance with Federal Government authorities making use of frequencies in the band 225–328.6 Mc in the same area.

(f) Land Radiopositioning Stations and Mobile Radiopositioning Stations in this service, including speed measuring devices, may be authorized to use frequencies in the band 10500–10550 Mc, for CW emission only, on a shared basis with stations in other services.

§ 11.608 Special restrictions applicable to 1750–1800 kc. only. Each station authorized to operate in the Radiolocation Service on frequencies between 1750–1800 kc. is subject to the following restrictions in addition to the other requirements in this part:

(a) Such stations shall be located within 150 miles of the shore line of the Gulf of Mexico;

(b) Such stations shall be used in connection with petroleum industry activities only;

(c) Plate power input to the final radio frequency stage shall not exceed 500 watts;

(d) In the absence of a satisfactory showing that the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served thereby, stations in this band will be restricted to a maximum authorized bandwidth of 3 kc.; and

(e) Land Radiopositioning Stations will not be authorized for operation at temporary locations.

§ 11.609 Special exemptions. Stations licensed under this subpart are exempt from the requirements of §§ 11.8, 11.151, 11.201, 11.202, 11.207, and 11.208.

§ 11.610 License term. (a) The license for each station authorized to operate on frequencies below 1800 kc in this service will expire on July 1st of the calendar year following the year in which action is taken on the license application.

(b) The license for each station authorized to operate on frequencies above 1800 kc in this service will expire one year from the date of final action on the license application.

§ 11.611 Control of interference, 1750–1800 kc. only.—(a) Nighttime protection. Operation of stations in the Industrial Radiolocation Service on frequencies in the 1750–1800 kc. band is subject to the condition that during the hours from sunset to sunrise no harmful interference be caused to any proper operation of stations licensed to operate in the same band under Part 20 of this chapter, Rules Governing Disaster Communications Service.

(b) Daytime protection. Operation of stations in the Industrial Radiolocation Service on frequencies in the 1750–1800 kc. band is subject to the condition that during the hours from sunrise to sunset no harmful interference be caused to operation of stations licensed to operate in the same band under Part 20 of this chapter, Disaster Communications Service, when such stations are transmitting during an imminent or actual disaster in any area in connection therewith. (Except during such an imminent or actual disaster, operation of stations in the Disaster Communications Service shall not cause harmful interference during the hours from sunrise to sunset to operation of stations in the Industrial Radiolocation Service. See Part 20 of this chapter.)

(c) Times of sunrise and sunset. For purposes of this section, irrespective of the time zones involved, it shall be assumed that the times of sunrise and sunset at each actual station location are the monthly average Central Standard times of sunrise and sunset at New Orleans, Louisiana, as set forth in the following table:

	Jan.	Feb.	Mar.	Apr.	May	June
Sunrise	7:00	6:45	6:15	5:30	5:15	5:00
Sunset	5:15	5:45	6:15	6:30	6:45	7:00
	July	Aug.	Sept.	Oct.	Nov.	Dec.
Sunrise	5:15	5:30	5:45	6:00	6:30	6:45
Sunset	7:00	6:45	6:00	5:30	5:00	5:00

(d) Notification and liaison system. To carry into effect the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, including a positive means whereby operation in this service can be suspended to protect against harmful interference, there shall be established an adequate and reliable system of notification and liaison between licensees in this service and licensees in the Disaster Communications Service. The extent and division of responsibility for various phases of the notification and liaison system shall be as follows:

(1) Organization and establishment of a system of liaison within the Industrial Radiolocation Service; the devising of a system for the receipt and distribution of notification information; and the installation, operation and maintenance of such a system shall be the responsibility of licensees in the Industrial Radiolocation Service authorized to operate in the band 1750–1800 kc.

(2) Organization and establishment of a system of liaison within the Disaster Communications Service; and the devising of a method for the dispatch of notification information to the person or persons designated by licensees in the Industrial Radiolocation Service shall be the responsibility of licensees in the Disaster Communications Service authorized to operate in the band 1750–1800 kc.

(3) The responsibility for the initiation of liaison between licensees in the Industrial Radiolocation Service and the licensees in the Disaster Communications Service shall be the responsibility of the former.

(4) Once initiated, the maintenance, review and improvement of liaison between licensees in the two Services shall be the joint responsibility of both groups.

(5) Issuance of notification to suspend operation in the Industrial Radiolocation Service due to an impending or actual disaster shall be the responsibility of licensees in the Disaster Communications Service. Such notification shall be by those means which have been mutually agreed upon as sufficiently adequate, prompt and reliable to effectuate the purpose of this section. Any desired communication method or combination of methods may be utilized.

(6) Prompt suspension of operation of the radiopositioning station or stations upon receipt of disaster notification shall be the responsibility of licensees in the Industrial Radiolocation Service.

(7) When stations in the Industrial Radiolocation Service have discontinued transmitting to protect disaster communications in connection with an imminent or actual disaster, and when the point has been reached where there is no reasonable possibility that radiolocation transmissions will cause harmful interference to the disaster communications, it shall be the responsibility of licensees in the Disaster Communications Service to communicate this information promptly to the licensee in the Industrial Radiolocation Service so that they may resume operation at will.

(8) Although the prearranged notification procedure required to be established by the terms of this section shall be the primary means by which licensees in the Industrial Radiolocation Service receive information necessary for compliance with the requirements of this section, it shall be the further responsibility of licensees in this Service to suspend operation upon receipt of any reliable intelligence which indicates a reasonable possibility that harmful interference is being caused to actual disaster transmissions.

(9) The notification and liaison procedure hereby required to be established shall be limited to that geographical area within which there is a reasonable anticipation, determined by actual tests wherever practicable, that harmful interference may be caused by a licensee in the Industrial Radiolocation Service to licensees in the Disaster Communications Service.

(10) All construction permits for radiopositioning stations in this band are granted subject to the condition that the permittee, at the time of filing for station licenses, accompany such applications with a comprehensive plan defining in detail the means of notification which have been agreed upon by the permittee and the licensees of Disaster Communications Service stations in the area. The notification plan shall be kept current by the licensee, through successive modifications as may be necessary, to incorporate stations in the Disaster Communications Service which subsequently may be authorized to operate in the same interference area. A copy of this notification plan and of all subsequent modifications shall be filed at the following points: The Commission's offices at Washington 25, D. C.; the offices of the Engineer in Charge of the Radio District in which the radiopositioning station is located; and the offices of the Engineer in Charge of the Radio District or Districts in which are located the Disaster Communications Service stations involved in the plan.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 909]

HANDLING OF ALMONDS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

BUDGET OF EXPENSES OF ALMOND CONTROL BOARD AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR CROP YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 1956

Notice is hereby given that the Department is considering the issuance of the proposed administrative rule herein set forth pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 119 and Order No. 9 regulating the handling of almonds grown in California (7 CFR Part 909), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Prior to the issuance of such rule, consideration will be given to data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., and which are received not later than the close of business on the tenth day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except that if such tenth day after publication should fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, such submission must be received by the Director not later than the close of business on the next following work day.

Pursuant to the aforesaid agreement and order, the Almond Control Board, which administers the program, transmitted to the Secretary of Agriculture its recommendations regarding the budget of expenses and rate of assessment for the crop year beginning July 1, 1956. The Board's recommendations and other pertinent information and data have been considered by the Department and on the basis of such consideration it is proposed that the budget of expenses be fixed at $28,300. The proposed budget is more than expenses of about $27,000 incurred during the 1955–56 crop year but somewhat less than the cost of program operations in the three preceding years. It is believed that the proposed budget is reasonable and that expenses in such amount are likely to be incurred by the Board.

The Board expects that the quantity of assessable almonds during the 1956–57 crop year will approximate 50 million pounds of edible kernels. An assessment rate of eight hundredths (0.08) of a cent per pound of edible kernels would result in the collection of sufficient funds to meet the budget and provide a reasonable excess to defray expenses during the first four months of the 1957–58 crop year. The proposed rate compares with a rate of twelve and one-half hundredths (0.125) of a cent per pound of edible kernels during the last crop year.

As is provided in the agreement and order, such funds as are collected in excess of expenditures for a crop year may be used temporarily by the Board to defray expenses during the first four months of the succeeding crop year but must be refunded to handlers from whom collected within five months from the beginning of such crop year.

Therefore, the proposed rule is as follows:

§ 909.306 Budget of expenses of the Almond Control Board and rate of assessment for the crop year beginning July 1, 1956.—(a) Budget of expenses. For the crop year beginning July 1, 1956, expenses in the amount of $28,300 are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Almond Control Board for its maintenance and functioning and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of the agreement and order, determine to be appropriate.

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment for the crop year beginning July 1, 1956, shall be, in lieu of the rate of assessment specified in § 909.121 (a) of said agreement and order, eight hundredths (0.08) of a cent for each pound of edible almond kernels received by each handler for his own account, except as to receipts from other handlers on which assessments have been paid.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of September 1956.

[SEAL] S. R. SMITH,
Director,
Fruit and Vegetable Division.

MINNESOTA

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAT OF SURVEY AND ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

SEPTEMBER 7, 1956.

1. Plat of survey of omitted lands described will be officially filed in the Eastern States Land Office, Washington 25, D. C., effective at 10:00 a. m., on the 35th day after the date of this notice.

FIFTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, MINNESOTA

T. 109 N., R. 24 W.,
Sec. 5, Lot 5;
Sec. 8, Lot 5.

The land described is an island in German Lake, containing 24.70 acres.

2. Available information indicates that the outer horseshoe shaped portion of the island is high sandy ground varying from a few feet above lake level on the west side to 30–40 feet above on the east side. The central and southern portion of the island is swamp and bog subject to overflow at times of high water. There is enough high ground present for several cottages. The tract is suitable as a Recreation area. The lake in which it is located is highly developed for recreational purposes.

3. The above-described land is hereby opened to disposal only under the Recreation Act of June 14, 1926 (44 Stat. 741), as amended by the Act of June 4, 1954 (68 Stat. 173; 43 U. S. C. 869).

4. Inquiries concerning the above-described land should be addressed to the Acting Manager, Eastern States Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

ALASKA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WITHDRAWAL AND RESERVATION OF LANDS

The Department of the Air Force has filed an application, Serial No. Anchorage 032838, for the withdrawal of the lands described below, from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining and mineral leasing laws.

The applicant desires the land for military communications purposes.

For a period of 60 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause may present their objections in writing to the undersigned official of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Box 480, Anchorage, Alaska.

If circumstances warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

ILIAMNA AREA

Parcel 1

Commencing at U. S. C. & G. S. Station "Big Mountain," Latitude 59°23'27.316" N., Longitude 155°13'29.204" W. (North America 1927 datum), East 160 feet to Point of Beginning; thence South 200 feet; thence West 1,100 feet; thence North 500 feet; thence East 1,100 feet; thence South 300 feet to Point of Beginning and containing 12.63 acres, more or less.

Parcel 2

Commencing at U. S. C. & G. S. Station "Big Mountain," Latitude 59°23'27.316" N., Longitude 155°13'29.204" W. MONTANA

ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

SEPTEMBER 7, 1956.

1. In exchanges of lands made under the provisions of section 8 of the Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1272) as amended by section 3 of the Act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976) the following described lands have been reconveyed to the United States:

MONTANA PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 26 N., R. 39 E.,
Sec. 7, SW¼NE¼, SE¼NW¼, NE¼SW¼;
Sec. 18, W½NE¼, NW¼SE¼.
T. 4 N., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 4, SW¼NE¼, SE¼NW¼, E½SW¼, W½SE¼;
Sec. 9, E½NW¼.
T. 13 N., R. 12 W.,
Sec. 9, lots 1, 2, 3, 4, SW¼SW¼, N½SE¼;
Sec. 15, all;
Sec. 21, all;
Sec. 23, NW¼NE¼, NW¼, NW¼SW¼;
Sec. 27, all;
Sec. 29, all;
Sec. 31, lots 1, 2, 3, 4, E½, E½W½;
Sec. 33, N½, SW¼.

2. The areas described above total 4,707.74 acres of lands. The lands in T. 26 N., R. 39 E., and T. 4 N., R. 1 W., produce grass and other forage that are used for support of livestock and wildlife. The topography of these tracts is rolling to rough and broken. All the tracts in these two townships are classified as grazing lands and are unsuited to more intensive type of agricultural use. The lands in T. 13 N., R. 12 W., produce timber and grass. The topography is rolling to rough and steep. All the tracts in this township are classified as timber land suitable for sustained yield timber production and they are unsuited to intensive use.

3. No application for these lands will be allowed under the homestead, desert land, small tract, or other nonmineral public land law, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

4. The lands described in Sections 4 and 9, T. 4 N., R. 1 W., have been open for location and entry under the general mining laws and mineral leasing laws. The minerals on lands in T. 13 N., R. 12 W., have been acquired by the United States through exchange and will be opened to entry under the general mining laws and mineral leasing laws as provided below in paragraph 5. On lands in T. 26 N., R. 39 E., the minerals have been reserved to the former owner of the land.

5. Subject to any existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described in paragraph 1, above, are hereby opened to filing of applications and selections in accordance with the following:

(a) Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws on all lands described in paragraph 1 and offers under the mineral leasing laws as to lands in T. 13 N., R. 12 W., may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the Act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 474; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10 a. m. on October 13, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10 a. m. on January 12, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10 a. m. on January 12, 1957, will be considered simultaneously filed at that hour.

(b) The lands in T. 13 N., R. 12 W., will be open to location under the United States Mining laws, beginning at 10 a. m. on January 12, 1957.

Persons claiming veterans' preference rights under paragraph (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photo-copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable clams must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries regarding the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Billings, Montana.

THEO E. ANHDER,
Manager, Land Office.

GOVERNMENT OF RUMANIA

In re: Debt owing to the Government of Rumania. F–57–964.

Under the authority of Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended (69 Stat. 562), Executive Order 10644, November 7, 1955 (20 F. R. 8363), Department of Justice Order No. 106–55, November 23, 1955 (20 F. R. 8993), and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found and determined:

1. That the property described as follows: That certain debt or other obligation of The Chase Manhattan Bank, 18 Pine Street, New York 15, New York, arising out of an account entitled, "Wm. H. Muller & Co., Inc., Special Account," maintained at the aforesaid bank, together with any and all rights to demand, enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States which was blocked in accordance with Executive Order 8389, as amended, and remained blocked on August 9, 1955, and which is, and as of September 15, 1947, was, owned directly or indirectly by the Government of Rumania as defined in said Executive Order 8389, as amended.

2. That the property described herein is not owned directly by a natural person.

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be administered, sold, or otherwise liquidated, in accordance with the provisions of Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended.

It is hereby required that the property described above be paid, conveyed, transferred, assigned and delivered to or for the account of the Attorney General of the United States in accordance with directions and instructions issued by or for the Assistant Attorney General, Director, Office of Alien Property, Department of Justice.

The foregoing requirement and any supplement thereto shall be deemed instructions or directions issued under Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended. Attention is directed to section 205 of said Title II (69 Stat. 562) which provides that:

Any payment, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery of property made to the President or his designee pursuant to this title, or any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued under this title, shall to the extent thereof be a full acquittance and discharge for all purposes of the obligation of the person making the same; and no person shall be held liable in any court for or in respect of any such payment, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery made in good faith in pursuance of and in reliance on the provisions of this title, or of any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued thereunder.

GOVERNMENT OF RUMANIA

In re: Debt owing to the Government of Rumania. F–57–964; F–57–871.

Under the authority of Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended (69 Stat. 562), Executive Order 10644, November 7, 1955 (20 F. R. 8363), Department of Justice Order No. 106–55, November 23, 1955 (20 F. R. 8993), and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found and determined:

1. That the property described as follows: That certain debt or other obligation of Wm. H. Muller & Co., Inc., 122 East 42nd Street, New York 17, New York, in the sum of $20,532.36, arising out of an account payable entitled, "Servicul Maritim Roman," maintained by the aforesaid company, together with any and all rights to demand, enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States which was blocked in accordance with Executive Order 8389, as amended, and remained blocked on August 9, 1955, and which is, and as of September 15, 1947, was, owned directly or indirectly by the Government of Rumania as defined in said Executive Order 8389, as amended.

2. That the property described herein is not owned directly by a natural person.

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be administered, sold, or otherwise liquidated, in accordance with the provisions of Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended.

It is hereby required that the property described above be paid, conveyed, transferred, assigned and delivered to or for the account of the Attorney General of the United States in accordance with directions and instructions issued by or for the Assistant Attorney General, Director, Office of Alien Property, Department of Justice.

The foregoing requirement and any supplement thereto shall be deemed instructions or directions issued under Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended. Attention is directed to section 205 of said Title II (69 Stat. 562) which provides that:

Any payment, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery of property made to the President or his designee pursuant to this title, or any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued under this title, shall to the extent thereof be a full acquittance and discharge for all purposes of the obligation of the person making the same; and no person shall be held liable in any court for or in respect of any such payment, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery made in good faith in pursuance of and in reliance on the provisions of this title, or of any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued thereunder.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on September 6, 1956.

For the Attorney General.

STATE CONSERVATIONIST AND PROJECT SUPERVISOR

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO ADMINISTRATION, DEVELOPMENT AND SALE OF LANDS IN EDEN VALLEY PROJECT, ROCK SPRINGS, WYOMING

Pursuant to the delegation of authority to me by the Secretary of Agriculture, effective January 2, 1954 (19 F. R. 74), the authorities listed below are hereby delegated to the State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Casper, Wyoming, and the Project Supervisor, Soil Conservation Service, for the Eden Valley Project, Rock Springs, Wyoming.

The State Conservationist is delegated authority to:

1. Obtain and approve appraisals.
2. Approve the sale price of units and the terms of payment.
3. Execute leases, licenses, permits and other forms of contracts permitting the construction and maintenance of telephone lines, pipe lines, roads, irrigation and drainage ditches, and other rights of way (but not those power lines licenses for which are required by law to be granted by the Federal Power Commission).
4. Execute, on behalf of the United States of America, all deeds or other instruments necessary in the sale of project lands or interests therein.
5. Execute contracts for development work on private lands and irrigation distribution systems under $20,000.
6. Exercise all rights and privileges of the United States under shares of stock in any company or association organized to provide water, irrigation, drainage, ditch, canal, reservoir, or similar facilities, provided such stock concerns lands of the United States under the administrative jurisdictions of the Soil Conservation Service.
7. Participate in negotiations, sign petitions, vote in elections, and take other action incident to the organization, operation, or dissolution of irrigation, drainage, soil conservation, and weed control districts, or similar types of organizations, insofar as they shall deem necessary for the successful administration of lands of the United States under the administrative jurisdictions of the Soil Conservation Service.

The Project Supervisor is delegated authority to:

1. Execute farm leases and permits.
2. Execute contracts for development and improvement work on private lands, costing $5,000 or less, and paid for in cash upon contract completion, and $500 or less, when payments are made in installments.

Issued at Washington, D. C. August 1, 1956.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 6515]

REEVE ALEUTIAN AIRWAYS, INC.; ACQUISITION OF REEVE ALASKA AIRMOTIVE

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of interlocking and control relationships involving Reeve Aleutian Airways, Inc. and Reeve Alaska Airmotive.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, that a hearing in the above-entitled proceeding will be held on September 25, 1956, at 10 a. m., e. d. t., in Room No. 1851, Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., before Examiner Paul N. Pfeiffer.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented in this proceeding attention will be directed to the following matters:

1. Whether the acquisition of Reeve Alaska Airmotive by Reeve Aleutian Airways, Inc., would result in creating a monopoly or monopolies and thereby restrain competition or jeopardize a third air carrier and would not be consistent with the public interest pursuant to section 408 of the act?
2. Whether the interlocking relationships that will remain, if any, after the proposed acquisition will not adversely affect the public interest within the meaning of section 409 (a) of the act?

For further details of the issues involved in this proceeding interested persons are referred to the material in Docket No. 6515 on file with the Docket Section of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Notice is further given that any person, other than parties of record desiring to be heard in this proceeding should file with the Board on or before September 25, 1956, a statement setting forth the issues of fact or law which he desires to controvert.

Dated at Washington, D. C., September 7, 1956.

NOTICE OF RECONVENING OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 7, 1956.

By its order issued June 28, 1956, the Commission ordered that the record herein be reopened for further hearings at a time to be fixed by Notice of the Secretary for the purpose of receiving further evidence pertinent to the subject matter of the application and to enable the Presiding Examiner to determine the jurisdictional status of the Applicant. The jurisdictional status of the Applicant was specifically raised by the Applicant by its filing, on June 29, 1956, of a "Notice of Withdrawal of Application" on the ground that it "makes no sales and performs no transportation subject to the Commission's jurisdiction."

Due notice of the application filed herein was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 10, 1956 (21 F. R. 3135–36). The last day for filing protests or petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) was May 22, 1956.

On August 27, 1956, counsel for Applicant filed a request for resumption of the hearings herein at the same general time as hearings are reconvened on November 27, 1956, in the related case of its parent company, United Carbon Company, Docket No. G–9572.

Take notice that pursuant to the provisions of said Order issued June 28, 1956, and to the authority contained in the Natural Gas Act and to the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Tuesday, November 27, 1956, at 10 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., for the presentation of further evidence pertinent to the subject matter of the application and to the jurisdictional status of the Applicant.

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

[Declaration of Disaster Area 116]

DECLARATION OF DISASTER AREA

UTAH

Whereas it has been reported that on or about July 23, 1956, because of the disastrous effects of a cloudburst, damage resulted to residences and business property located in certain areas in the State of Utah;

Whereas the Small Business Administration has investigated and has received other reports of investigations of conditions in the areas affected; and

Whereas after reading and evaluating reports of such conditions, I find that the conditions in such areas constitute a catastrophe within the purview of the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended:

Now, therefore, as Administrator of the Small Business Administration, I hereby determine that:

1. Applications for disaster loans under the provisions of section 207 (b) (1) of the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended, may be received and considered by the Office below indicated from persons or firms whose property situated in the county of San Juan (including any areas adjacent to said county) suffered damage or other destruction as a result of the catastrophe above referred to:

Small Business Administration Regional Office, New Customhouse, Room 235, 19th and Stout Streets, Denver 2, Colo.

2. No special field office will be established at this time.

3. Applications for disaster loans under the authority of this Declaration will not be accepted subsequent to March 31, 1957.

Dated: September 5, 1956.

WENDELL B. BARNES, Administrator.

PART 6—EXCEPTIONS FROM COMPETITIVE SERVICE

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, paragraph (a) (1) of § 6.111 is amended and paragraph (i) (1) is added as set out below.

§ 6.111 Department of Agriculture—(a) General. (1) Agents employed in field positions the work of which is financed jointly by the Department and cooperating persons, organizations, or governmental agencies outside the Federal service. This authority is not applicable to positions in the Agricultural Research Service.

• • • • •

(i) Agricultural Research Service. (1) Field employees on programs conducted under the terms of cooperative agreements or memorandums of understanding with States, or other non-Federal cooperating organizations, provided the employees are jointly selected and their salary is supplied by the cooperators on the basis of not less than a 40 percent contribution by each of the cooperators. This authority shall also be applicable to positions where the Department of Agriculture's share is less than 40 percent under a current cooperative agreement until such time as the agreement has been renegotiated; but in any event, it will not be applicable in such situations after June 30, 1957.

Subchapter B—Loans, Purchases, and Other Operations

[1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, Supp. 1, Amdt. 1, Grain Sorghums]

PART 421—GRAINS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

SUBPART—1956-CROP GRAIN SORGHUMS LOAN AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT PROGRAM

SETTLEMENT

The regulations issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation and the Commodity Stabilization Service, published in 21 F. R. 4248 and 4790, and containing the specific requirements of the 1956-crop grain sorghums price support program are amended to prescribe additional purchase agreement provisions under the program.

Section 421.1835 (a) is amended by deleting subparagraph (2) and inserting a new subparagraph (2) which reads as follows:

§ 421.1835 Settlement—(a) Settlement value. • • •

(2) The provisions of this subparagraph, together with applicable provisions of the 1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, and Supplements 1 and 2, Grain Sorghums, constitute the regulations applicable to purchase agreement operations under the 1956-crop grain sorghum price support program.

(i) The producer who signs a purchase agreement (Commodity Purchase Form 1) will not be obligated to sell any quantity of the grain sorghums to CCC. However, he may sell to CCC any quantity of the eligible grain sorghums not in excess of the quantity stated in the purchase agreement. If the producer who signs a purchase agreement wishes to sell the grain sorghums to CCC, he will have a 30-day period during which he must notify the county committee in writing of his intentions to sell. Such period shall end on the loan maturity date or such earlier date as may be prescribed by the Executive Vice President, CCC.

(ii) In the case of eligible grain sorghums stored commingled in an approved warehouse, the producer must, not later than the day following the final date of such 30-day period, or during such period of time thereafter as may be specified by the county committee, submit to the office of county committee warehouse receipts under which the warehousemen guarantees quality and quantity, for the quantity of grain sorghums he elects to sell to CCC. Such grain sorghums will be purchased, on the basis of the weight, grade, and other quality factors shown on the warehouse receipts and/or accompanying documents at the applicable support rate determined in accordance with § 421.1618 (d).

(iii) Where the producer has given written notice within the 30-day period prior to the loan maturity date of his intent to sell his grain sorghums stored in other than an approved warehouse under purchase agreement to CCC, an inspection of the grain sorghums shall be made and a sample taken and submitted for grade analysis within the 30-day period and, in any event, prior to delivery of the grain sorghums. If the grain sorghums, on the basis of the pre-delivery inspection, are of a quality which meets the requirements for a farm-storage loan, the county committee will issue delivery instructions on or after the final date of the 30-day period or the date of inspection, whichever is later. The producer must then complete delivery within the 15-day period immediately following the date the county committee issues delivery instructions, unless the county committee determines that more time is needed for delivery. Upon delivery of eligible grain sorghums to CCC, the grain sorghums shall be reinspected, and settlement shall be made at the applicable support rate for the grade and quality of the quantity of grain sorghums eligible for delivery on the basis of such reinspection. Such support rate shall be determined in accordance with § 421.1618 (d). If grain sorghums which were eligible at the time of the pre-delivery inspection are, upon delivery, of a grade or quality for which no support rate has been established, the settlement value shall be computed at the support rate established for the grade and quality of the eligible grain sorghums as determined at the time of the pre-delivery inspection, less the difference, if any, at the time of delivery, between the market price for the grade and quality of the grain sorghums determined by the pre-delivery inspection and the market price of the grain sorghums delivered, as determined by CCC: Provided, however, That if such grain sorghums are sold by CCC in order to determine their market price, the settlement value shall not be less than such sales price: And provided further, That if upon delivery the grain sorghums contain mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals, such grain sorghums shall be sold for seed (in accordance with applicable State seed laws and regulations), fuel, or industrial uses where the end product will not be consumed by man or animals, and the settlement value shall be the same as the sales price, except that if CCC is unable to sell such commodity for the use specified above, the settlement value shall be the market value, if any, as determined by CCC, as of the date of delivery.

(iv) The producer, whose grain sorghums stored in other than an approved warehouse are not of a quality eligible for a loan at the time of pre-delivery inspection, shall be notified in writing by the county committee that his grain sorghums are not eligible for purchase by CCC. If, nevertheless, the producer informs the county office that he will condition the grain sorghums or otherwise take action to make them eligible and insists upon delivery of the grain sorghums, the county committee will issue delivery instructions and will determine upon delivery of the grain sorghums and before purchase, on the basis of a sample taken at that time, whether or not the grain sorghums are actually of an eligible grade and quality. If the grain sorghums are inadvertently accepted by CCC and are of a grade and quality below the eligibility requirements for obtaining a loan, the settlement value for such grain sorghums shall be the market price as determined by CCC for the quality of the grain sorghums delivered. If, however, the grain sorghums are of an eligible grade and quality as determined at the time of delivery, settlement shall be made at the applicable support rate, determined in accordance with § 421.1618 (d), for the grade and quality of the quantity eligible for delivery.

(v) The settlement value on any quantity of grain sorghums in excess of that stated in the purchase agreement which is delivered to, and inadvertently accepted by CCC, shall be the market price for the grade and quality of the quantity delivered, as determined by CCC.

(vi) When delivery of the grain sorghums is completed, payment will be made by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office. The producer shall direct on Commodity Purchase Form 4 to whom payment of the proceeds shall be made.

(vii) The producer may be required to retain the grain sorghums stored in other than approved warehouse storage for a period of 60 days after the loan maturity date without any cost to CCC. CCC will not assume any loss in quantity or quality of the grain sorghums covered by a purchase agreement occurring prior to delivery to CCC, except for quality deterioration under the following circumstances. If a producer has properly requested delivery instructions for grain sorghums which were of an eligible grade and quality at the time of the pre-delivery inspection, and CCC cannot accept delivery within the 60-day period following the loan maturity date, the producer may notify the county committee at any time after such 60-day period that the grain sorghums are going out of condition or are in danger of going out of condition. Such notice must be confirmed in writing. If the county committee determines that the grain sorghums are going out of condition or are in danger of going out of condition and that the grain sorghums cannot be satisfactorily conditioned by the producer, and delivery cannot be accepted within a reasonable length of time, the county committee shall obtain an inspection and grade and quality determination. When delivery is completed, settlement shall be made on the basis of such grade and quality determination or on the basis of the grade and quality determination made at the time of delivery, whichever is higher, and on the basis of the quantity actually delivered.

(viii) The provisions of § 421.1618 (f) shall be applicable in cases where a producer is ordered by the county committee to deliver his grain sorghums to a shipping point of greater distance than his customary shipping point.

PART 421—GRAINS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

SUBPART—1956-CROP RYE LOAN AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT PROGRAM

SETTLEMENT

The regulations issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation and the Commodity Stabilization Service, published in 21 F. R. 4040, 4796 and 5031, and containing the specific requirements of the 1956-crop rye price support program are amended to prescribe additional purchase agreement provisions under the program.

Section 421.1985 (a) is amended by deleting subparagraph (2) and inserting a new subparagraph (2) which reads as follows:

§ 421.1985 Settlement—(a) Settlement value. * * *

(2) The provisions of this subparagraph, together with applicable provisions of the 1956 CCC Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, and Supplements 1 and 2, Rye, constitute the regulations applicable to purchase agreement operations under the 1956-crop rye price support program.

(i) The producer who signs a purchase agreement (Commodity Purchase Form 1) will not be obligated to sell any quantity of the rye to CCC. However, he may sell to CCC any quantity of the eligible rye not in excess of the quantity stated in the purchase agreement. If the producer who signs a purchase agreement wishes to sell the rye to CCC, he will have a 30-day period during which he must notify the county committee in writing of his intentions to sell. Such period shall end on the applicable loan maturity date or such earlier date as may be prescribed by the Executive Vice President, CCC.

(ii) In the case of eligible rye stored commingled in an approved warehouse, the producer must, not later than the day following the final date of such 30-day period, or during such period of time thereafter as may be specified by the county committee, submit to the office of the county committee warehouse receipts under which the warehouseman guarantees quality and quantity, for the quantity of rye he elects to sell to CCC. Such rye will be purchased, on the basis of the weight, grade, and other quality factors shown on the warehouse receipts and/or accompanying documents at the applicable support rate determined in accordance with § 421.1618 (d).

(iii) Where the producer has given written notice within the 30-day period prior to the applicable loan maturity date of his intent to sell his rye stored in other than an approved warehouse under purchase agreement to CCC, an inspection of the rye shall be made and a sample taken and submitted for grade analysis within the 30-day period and, in any event, prior to delivery of the rye. If the rye, on the basis of the pre-delivery inspection, is of a quality which meets the requirements for a farm-storage loan, the county committee will issue delivery instructions on or after the final date of the 30-day period or the date of inspection, whichever is later. The producer must then complete delivery within the 15-day period immediately following the date the county committee issues delivery instructions, unless the county committee determines that more time is needed for delivery. Upon delivery of eligible rye to CCC, the rye shall be reinspected and settlement shall be made at the applicable support rate for the grade and quality of the quantity of rye eligible for delivery on the basis of such reinspection. Such support rate shall be determined in accordance with § 421.1618 (d). If rye which was eligible at the time of the pre-delivery inspection is, upon delivery, of a grade or quality for which no support rate has been established, the settlement value shall be computed at the support rate established for the grade and quality of the eligible rye as determined at the time of the pre-delivery inspection, less the difference, if any, at the time of delivery, between the market price for the grade and quality of the rye determined by the pre-delivery inspection and the market price of the rye delivered, as determined by CCC: Provided, however, That if such rye is sold by CCC in order to determine its market price, the settlement value shall not be less than such sales price: And provided further, That if upon delivery the rye contains mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals, such rye shall be sold for seed (in accordance with applicable State seed laws and regulations), fuel or industrial uses where the end product will not be consumed by man or animals, and the settlement value shall be the same as the sales price, except that if CCC is unable to sell such rye for the use specified above, the settlement value shall be the market value, if any, as determined by CCC, as of the date of delivery.

(iv) The producer, whose rye stored in other than an approved warehouse is not of a quality eligible for a loan at the time of the pre-delivery inspection, shall be notified in writing by the county committee that his rye is not eligible for purchase by CCC. If, nevertheless, the producer informs the county office that he will condition the rye or otherwise take action to make the rye eligible and insists upon delivery of the rye, the county committee will issue delivery instructions and will determine upon delivery of the rye and before purchase, on the basis of a sample taken at that time, whether or not the rye is actually of an eligible grade and quality. If the rye is inadvertently accepted by CCC and is of a grade and quality below the eligibility requirements for obtaining a loan, the settlement value for such rye shall be the market price as determined by CCC for the quality of the rye delivered. If, however, the rye is of an eligible grade and quality as determined at the time of delivery, settlement shall be made at the applicable support rate, determined in accordance with § 421.1618 (d), for the grade and quality of the quantity eligible for delivery.

(v) The settlement value on any quantity of rye in excess of that stated in the purchase agreement which is delivered to, and inadvertently accepted by CCC, shall be the market price for the grade and quality of the quantity delivered, as determined by CCC.

(vi) When delivery of the rye is completed, payment will be made by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office. The producer shall direct on Commodity Purchase Form 4 to whom payment of the proceeds shall be made.

(vii) The producer may be required to retain the rye stored in other than approved warehouse storage for a period of 60 days after the applicable loan maturity date without any cost to CCC. CCC will not assume any loss in quantity or quality of the rye covered by a purchase agreement occurring prior to delivery to CCC, except for quality deterioration under the following circumstances. If a producer has properly requested delivery instructions for rye which was of an eligible grade and quality at the time of the pre-delivery inspection, and CCC cannot accept delivery within the 60-day period following the applicable loan maturity date, the producer may notify the county committee at any time after such 60-day period that the rye is going out of condition or is in danger of going out of condition. Such notice must be confirmed in writing. If the county committee determines that the rye is going out of condition or is in danger of going out of condition and that the rye cannot be satisfactorily conditioned by the producer, and delivery cannot be accepted within a reasonable length of time, the county committee shall obtain an inspection and grade and quality determination. When delivery is completed, settlement shall be made on the basis of such grade and quality determination or on the basis of the grade and quality determination made at the time of delivery, whichever is higher, and on the basis of the quantity actually delivered.

(viii) The provisions of § 421.1618 (f) shall be applicable in cases where a producer is ordered by the county committee to deliver his rye to a shipping point of greater distance than his customary shipping point.

(Sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 301, 401, 63 Stat. 1053, 1054, as amended; sec. 308, 70 Stat. 206; 15 U. S. C. 714c; 7 U. S. C. 1447, 1421)

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54186]

PART 26—DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

SUSPENSION OF DISCLOSURE

Certain commercial data relating to imports and exports is made available to accredited representatives of the press under the terms and conditions set forth in §§ 26.5, 26.6, and 26.7 of the Customs Regulations. Section 26.7 provides that upon the written application of an importer or exporter information and data concerning merchandise imported or exported by the applicant shall not be allowed to be copied from vessel manifests. However, applications by masters or owners of vessels for the withholding of information and data contained in manifests of vessels under their control are required to be supported by evidence that the publication of such data has been or will be detrimental to the applicant.

In order that the same conditions shall govern the granting of such applications made by importers or exporters as now apply to applications made by masters or owners of vessels § 26.7 (a) of the Customs Regulations is amended to read as follows:

(a) Upon written application of any importer, exporter, or master or owner of any vessel, the collector of customs shall refuse to permit any person, except as provided for in § 26.4, to copy from manifests any information or data concerning merchandise imported or exported by the applicant, or carried by the vessel or vessels controlled by the applicant, provided in each case that the collector is satisfied by evidence presented to him that publication of the information or data has been or will be detrimental or prejudicial to the applicant.

(R. S. 161, 251, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 5 U. S. C. 22, 19 U. S. C. 66, 1624)

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 212]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

NOTE: Where the general classification (LFR, VAR, ADF, ILS, GCA, or VOR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The low frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.6 are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Hiatt LFR instrument approach is contucted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. Initial approaches shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

TITLE 15—COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Department of Commerce

Subchapter B—Export Regulations

[8th Gen. Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 9]

PART 371—GENERAL LICENSES

SURPLUS AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES AND MANUFACTURES THEREOF

Section 371.8 General License GRO; shipments of non-Positive List commodities, paragraph (c) Surplus agricultural commodities and manufactures thereof is amended to read as follows:

(c) Surplus agricultural commodities and manufactures thereof[1]—(1) Contracts of sale in excess of $10,000. (i) Prior to or at the time of entering into a contract to sell for export or otherwise dispose of for exportation to other than Group O countries: (a) Any commodity obtained directly or indirectly from the Commodity Credit Corporation, either in the form acquired or in processed form; (b) any commodity being sold in substitution for a commodity acquired from the CCC under an export disposal program; or (c) any commodity which is subsidized for export by the CCC, either by cash payment or payment in kind; an exporter shall, where the contract is entered into prior to exportation of the commodity under this general license, either in the contract of sale or in connection therewith, obtain from the foreign purchaser, where the contract is in excess of $10,000, a written acknowledgement of the purchaser's understanding of (1) the prohibition without prior BFC approval against exportation or reexportation by any person set forth in this section and in § 371.4, of any such commodities, to Macao, Hong Kong and destinations in Subgroup A (see § 371.3) and (2) the sanction of denial of export privileges which may be imposed for violation of the export regulations. Where a contract of sale involving more than $10,000 is not to be entered into until after exportation under this general license, the exporter shall, either in the contract of sale or in connection therewith, obtain the same type of acknowledgement from the foreign purchaser prior to, or at the time of entering into the contract of sale.

[1] This procedure is also applicable to such shipments under General License GHK (§ 371.23).

(ii) Exporters who have a continuing and regular relationship with a foreign purchaser may obtain a blanket acknowledgement from such purchaser covering all transactions involving surplus agricultural commodities and manufactures thereof purchased from CCC or subsidized for export by that agency.

(2) Exportations. (i) Exporters making shipment under this section need not comply with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section regarding shipments to redistribution points. However, for all exportations of commodities under this paragraph, the following statement shall be placed on all copies of the Shipper's Export Declaration and all copies of bills of lading and commercial invoices.

U. S. law prohibits disposition of these commodities to the Soviet Bloc, Communist China, North Korea, Communist controlled areas of Viet Nam and Laos, Macao or Hong Kong, except as authorized by the U. S.

(ii) In connection with any exportation, regardless of value, of the following commodities, the exporter shall file an additional copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration with the Collector of Customs and send one copy of the on-board ocean Bill of Lading (for exportation by rail, one copy of the Railroad Bill of Lading) to the BFC, Washington 25, D. C.:

(a) A commodity obtained directly or indirectly from CCC in a purchase from that agency amounting to $100,000 or more;

(b) A commodity exported in substitution for a commodity acquired from CCC under an export disposal program in a purchase from that agency amounting to $100,000 or more; or

(c) A commodity which is subsidized for export by the CCC either by cash payment or by payment in kind where such exportation is based on a sales or consignment contract with a foreign party amounting to $100,000 or more, except that for exportations of cotton textiles, other than cotton waste, the sales or consignment contract amounts to $10,000 or more. For exportations of cotton textiles, other than cotton waste, no additional copies of Shipper's Export Declaration or Bills of Lading are required for sales to foreign purchasers located in Group O countries.

(iii) The additional copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration and the copy of the Bill of Lading shall bear the notation FC–2610 in the upper right hand corner. In addition, the Bill of Lading shall show in the lower left hand portion the number of the corresponding Shipper's Export Declaration and the CCC identification number (CCC sales contract number or CCC subsidy registration number).

(3) Retention of records. The document of acknowledgment required to be obtained from the foreign purchaser, (subparagraph (1) of this paragraph), and the documents constituting evidence of the contract of purchase and sale must be kept available by the exporter for inspection, upon demand, by the BFC for a period of three years from the date of exportation.

NOTE: Where commodities are to be exported by a party other than the original purchaser of the commodities from the Commodity Credit Corporation, the original purchaser shall inform the exporter in writing of the requirement for (1) obtaining the signed acknowledgment from the foreign purchaser and (2) for submitting the additional copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration and Bill of Lading.

This amendment shall become effective as of September 19, 1956.

(Sec. 3, 63 Stat. 7, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 2023, E. O. 9630, 10 F. R. 12245, 3 CFR, 1945 Supp., E. O. 9919, 13 F. R. 59, 3 CFR, 1948 Supp.)

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 141c—CHLORTETRACYCLINE (OR TETRACYCLINE) AND CHLORTETRACYCLINE- (OR TETRACYCLINE-) CONTAINING DRUGS; TESTS AND METHODS OF ASSAY

PART 146a—CERTIFICATION OF PENICILLIN AND PENICILLIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

PART 146c—CERTIFICATION OF CHLORTETRACYCLINE (OR TETRACYCLINE) AND CHLORTETRACYCLINE- (OR TETRACYCLINE-) CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Under the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463; 21 Stat. 11, 63 Stat. 409, 67 Stat. 389; sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U. S. C. 357, 371) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (20 F. R. 1996), the regulations for tests and methods of assay for antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR Part 141c) and certification of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR Parts 146a, 146c) are amended as indicated below:

1. In § 141c.218 Tetracycline hydrochloride, the concluding sentence of paragraph (a) Potency is amended by changing the words "for intravenous use" to read "intended for use by injection".

2. Part 141c is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 141c.230 Chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical; tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical—(a) Potency—(1) Dry powder. Using a 3.0-gram sample or the entire contents of the immediate container for each determination, prepare the sample as follows: Using a high-speed blender, blend a 3.0-gram sample in a glass blending jar containing 500 milliliters of 0.01 N HCl, or reconstitute in the immediate container as directed in the labeling of the drug. Transfer an appropriate aliquot of 1.0 milliliter to 5.0 milliliters to a 100-milliliter volumetric flask and make to mark with 0.01 N HCl. Withdraw an aliquot from the volumetric flask, and if it is chlortetracycline hydrochloride dilute to 0.06 μg. per milliliter, using 0.1 M potassium phosphate buffer, pH 4.5, and proceed as directed in § 141c.201 (a). If it is tetracycline hydrochloride, dilute to 0.24 μg. per milliliter, using 0.1 M potassium phosphate buffer, pH 4.5, and proceed as directed in § 141c.218 (a). The average potency is satisfactory if it contains not less than 85 percent of the number of milligrams of chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride per gram or per immediate container that it is represented to contain.

(2) Powder packaged with inert gases. Proceed as directed in § 141c.201 (a) if it is chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder or § 141c.218 (a) if it is tetracycline hydrochloride powder, except prepare the sample as follows: Place a representative number of containers in a suitable sharp freezing unit having a temperature not higher than −30° C. After freezing, cut open the containers and transfer the contents of each to a suitable beaker and allow gas to evaporate. After the gas has evaporated, wash the dry residue remaining in the container into the beaker with approximately 400 milliliters of 0.1 N HCl, stir vigorously, and after the sample has dissolved wash the entire contents of the beaker into a 500-milliliter volumetric flask and make to mark with 0.1 N HCl. Use an appropriate aliquot of each of these solutions and proceed as directed in § 141c.201 (a) if it is chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder, or § 141c.218 (a) if it is tetracycline hydrochloride powder, to determine the total quantity of chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride in each container. Expel the drug from a like number of containers as directed in its labeling. After all gas (with drug) has been expelled, cut open the containers and place each in a large beaker containing 500 milliliters of 0.01 N HCl. Let stand for not less than 15 minutes, with frequent agitation. Remove an aliquot and proceed as directed in § 141c.201 (a) if it is chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder or § 141c.218 (a) if it is tetracycline hydrochloride powder, to determine the quantity of chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride that remains in each container. The quantity of chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride expelled is determined by subtracting the average amount of the residue found from the average total amount contained in the containers. Its potency is satisfactory if it contains not less than 85 percent of the number of milligrams of chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride that it is represented to contain.

(b) Moisture. Proceed as directed in § 141a.5 (a) of this chapter, except if it is packaged with inert gases proceed as directed in § 141b.117 (c) of this chapter.

3. Section 146a.47 Procaine penicillin for aqueous injection is amended in the following respects:

a. In paragraph (a) Standards of identity * * *, the second sentence is changed to read: "If it is an aqueous suspension of the drug, it may contain procaine hydrochloride in a concentration not exceeding 2.0 percent, one or more suitable and harmless stabilizing agents, and, if it is intended solely for veterinary use, it may contain cortisone or a suitable derivative of cortisone."

b. In paragraph (c) Labeling, subparagraph (1) (v) is amended to read as follows:

(v) If the drug contains preservatives or added procaine hydrochloride or cortisone or a derivative of cortisone, the name and quantity of each such added ingredient.

c. Paragraph (c) (3) is amended by renumbering subdivision (iii) as (iv) and inserting a new subdivision (iii), reading as follows, between subdivision (ii) and renumbered subdivision (iv):

(iii) If it is intended solely for veterinary use and it contains cortisone or a derivative of cortisone, the statement "Caution: Federal law restricts this drug to sale by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian."

d. Paragraph (c) (4) is amended by changing the period at the end of the first sentence to a comma and adding the following new clause: "unless it contains cortisone or a derivative of cortisone."

e. Paragraph (c) is further amended by adding new subparagraphs (5) and (6), reading as follows:

(5) On the circular or other labeling within or attached to the package, if it is intended solely for veterinary use and it contains cortisone or a derivative of cortisone, adequate directions and warnings for the veterinary use of such drug by a veterinarian licensed by law to administer it.

(6) On the label and labeling, if it contains cortisone or a derivative of cortisone, after the name "procaine penicillin for aqueous injection," wherever it appears, the words "with ------," in juxtaposition with such name, the blank being filled in with the common or usual name of each such ingredient.

4. In § 146a.86 Benzathine penicillin G and procaine penicillin for aqueous injection, paragraph (c) is amended by inserting after the words "18 months" the parenthetical clause, "(except that the blank may be filled in with the date that is 24 months, if the person who requests certification has submitted to the Commissioner results of tests and assays showing that after having been stored for such period of time such drug as prepared by him complies with the standards prescribed for it)".

5a. In § 146c.205 Chlortetracycline powder * * *, paragraph (a) Standards of identity * * * is amended by inserting the word "and" after the word "colorings," changing the comma after "flavorings" to a period, and deleting the remainder of the sentence.

b. Section 146c.205 (c) (1) (iv) is amended by deleting ", a local anesthetic,".

6. Section 146c.218 Tetracycline hydrochloride is amended in the following respects:

a. In paragraph (a) Standards of identity * * *, subparagraph (1) is amended by changing the words "for intravenous use" to read "intended for use by injection", and subparagraph (8) is changed to read:

(8) Its extinction coefficient $E^{1\%}_{1\,Cm.}$, and the extinction coefficient of the tetracycline hydrochloride used in the manufacture of tetracycline hydrochloride intended for use by injection, is 372±15 at 380 millimicrons.

b. In paragraph (b) Packaging * * *, subparagraph (2) is amended by changing the words "intravenous use" to read "use by injection".

c. Paragraph (b) (3) is amended by changing the words "for intravenous use" to read "intended for use by injection".

7. Part 146c is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 146c.230 Chlortetracycline . hydrochloride powder topical; tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical—(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical and tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical are chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride, with or without suitable and harmless preservatives, diluents, and local anesthetics. The moisture content is not more than 2 percent. The chlortetracycline hydrochloride used conforms to the requirements of § 146c.201 (a), except § 146c.201 (a) (2), (4), and (5). The tetracycline hydrochloride used conforms to the requirements of § 146c.218 (a), except § 146c.218 (a) (2), (4), and (5). Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

(b) Packaging. In all cases the immediate container shall be a tight container as defined by the U. S. P. The composition of the immediate container shall be such as will not cause any change in the strength, quality, or purity of the contents beyond any limit therefor in applicable standards, except that minor changes so caused that are normal and unavoidable in good packaging, storage, and distribution practice shall be disregarded. Each such container may contain one or more suitable and harmless inert gases.

(c) Labeling. Each package shall bear on its label or labeling, as hereinafter indicated, the following:

(1) On the outside wrapper or container and the immediate container:

(i) The batch mark.

(ii) The number of milligrams of chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride per gram or per immediate container.

(iii) The statement "Expiration date ------," the blank being filled in with the date that is 48 months after the month during which the batch was certified if it is chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical, except that if it is packaged with inert gases or it is tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical the blank shall be filled in with the date that is 24 months after the month during which the batch was certified: Provided, however, That such expiration date may be omitted from the immediate container if such immediate container is packaged in an individual wrapper or container.

(iv) If it contains preservatives or local anesthetics, the name and quantity of each such ingredient.

(2) On the circular or other labeling within or attached to the package, if it is packaged for dispensing, adequate directions and warnings for prophylactic use by man, or for the veterinary use of such drug. Such circular or other labeling may also bear a statement that a brochure or other printed matter containing information for other uses of such drug by practitioners licensed by law to administer it will be sent to such practitioners on request.

(d) Request for certification; samples. (1) In addition to complying with the requirements of § 146.2 of this chapter, a person who requests certification of a batch shall submit with his request a statement showing the batch mark, the number of packages of each size in such batch, the batch mark and (unless it was previously submitted) the date on which the latest assay of the chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride used in making such batch was completed, the number of milligrams in each immediate container, the quantity of each ingredient used in making the batch, the date on which the latest assay of the drug comprising such batch was completed, and a statement that each ingredient used in making the batch conforms to the requirements prescribed therefor by this section.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, such person shall submit in connection with his request results of the tests and assays listed after each of the following, made by him on an accurately representative sample of:

(i) The batch: Potency and moisture.

(ii) The chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride used in making the batch: Potency, toxicity, moisture, pH, crystallinity, and extinction coefficient if it is tetracycline hydrochloride.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, such person shall submit in connection with his request, in the quantities hereinafter indicated, accurately representative samples of the following:

(i) The batch: One immediate container for each 5,000 containers in the batch, but in no case less than 5 immediate containers (or if it is packaged with inert gases, not less than 7 immediate containers) or more than 12 immediate containers. Such sample shall be collected by taking single immediate containers at such intervals throughout the entire time of packaging the batch that the quantities packaged during the intervals are approximately equal.

(ii) The chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride used in making the batch: 10 packages, each containing approximately equal portions of not less than 60 milligrams, packaged in accordance with the requirements of § 146c.201 (b).

(iii) In case of an initial request for certification, each other ingredient used in making the batch: One package of each, containing approximately 5 grams.

(4) No result referred to in subparagraph (2) (ii) of this paragraph, and no sample referred to in subparagraph (3) (ii) of this paragraph, is required if such result or sample has been previously submitted.

(e) Fees. The fee for the services rendered with respect to each batch under the regulations in this part shall be:

(1) § 4.00 for each immediate container in the samples submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) of this section.

(2) If the Commissioner considers that investigations, other than examination of such immediate containers, are necessary to determine whether or not such batch complies with the requirements of § 146.3 of this chapter for the issuance of a certificate, the cost of such investigations.

The fee prescribed by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall accompany the request for certification unless such fee is covered by an advance deposit maintained in accordance with § 146.8 (d) of this chapter.

(f) Exemption of chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical and tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical for veterinary use from certification. Chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical and tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical that conform to the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall be exempt (unless they are packaged with inert gases) from the requirements of sections 502 (1) and 507 of the act, if they comply with all the following conditions:

(1) They are intended solely for veterinary use and are conspicuously so labeled.

(2) The labels bear an expiration date that is not more than 48 months, if it is chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical, or 24 months, if it is tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical, after the month in which the batch was last assayed and released by the manufacturer.

(3) The circular or other labeling within or attached to the package bears information that the drug is intended solely for the prevention of infection in superficial cuts and abrasions and for the treatment of pinkeye in veterinary animals, and further, bears directions and warnings adequate for such use.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, since it relaxes existing requirements, and since it would be contrary to public interest to delay providing for the amendments set forth above.

I further find that chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical and tetracycline hydrochloride powder topical, intended solely for veterinary use and conspicuously so labeled, need not comply with sections 502 (1) and 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, in order to ensure their safety and efficacy, provided they are labeled in compliance with the regulations set forth in amendment 6 of this order.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(54 Stat. 150, as amended; 33 U. S. C. 180, 258, 319)

§ 202.214 Los Angeles and Long Beach Harbors, Calif.—(a) The anchorage grounds—(1) Commercial and Naval Anchorage B (Los Angeles Harbor). North of a line 200 feet from and parallel to the axis of the San Pedro Breakwater; southeast of a line ranging from U. S. 101 towards U. S. 115; southwest of a line bearing 125° from the tall concrete stack south of Fort MacArthur lower reservation; south of a line bearing 75° from U. S. 100 (white cross near the west end of the San Pedro Breakwater); and west of a line bearing 172° from Fish Harbor 2 Light and passing through the east white cross on the San Pedro Breakwater.

(i) In this area the requirements of commercial ships will predominate. In case of Navy requirements, see subparagraph (2) (iii) of this paragraph.

(ii) Vessels requiring examination by quarantine, customs, or immigration authorities may anchor in this area when quarantine anchorage F is not available for this purpose.

(iii) Fixed mooring piles or stakes and floats or buoys for marking anchors or moorings in place are prohibited.

(2) Commercial Anchorage C (Los Angeles Harbor). North of a line 200 feet from and parallel to the axis of the Middle Breakwater; north of a line about 3,000 feet long, bearing 293° from Los Angeles entrance East Light; east of a line bearing 152° from Fish Harbor 2 Light; west of a line bearing 338° from the white cross near the west end of the Middle Breakwater; and bayward of the line of mean high water; excepting therefrom non-anchorage Area I and the Navy restricted area for degaussing ranges.

(i) In this area the requirements of commercial ships will predominate. Vessels requiring examination by quarantine, customs, or immigration authorities may anchor in this area when quarantine anchorage F is not available for this purpose.

(ii) Fixed mooring piles or stakes and floats or buoys for marking anchors or moorings in place are prohibited.

(iii) The established anchorages for naval vessels having been found inadequate at times, when an especially large number of naval vessels are gathered in the harbor, a special anchorage chart overlay for naval anchorages superimposed on U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey Chart No. 5148 (not published in this section) will be prepared showing a numbered series of anchorages in order that a naval vessel may be ordered to proceed to a designated numbered anchorage in the harbor. Those designated anchorages, with the exception of those in naval anchorages D and E, which are primarily for naval vessels, are not set aside for the exclusive use of naval vessels, but permission will be given for naval vessels to use them when available. When the Captain of the Port receives notification from the proper naval authorities that it is desired to utilize the specially numbered naval anchorages in anchorages B, C, F, or G, he will authorize the use by naval vessels of the required numbers if they can be made available, the commercial conditions at the time being given proper consideration. If, in the opinion of the Captain of the Port, there are sufficient reasons why the numbers first asked for should not be used, he will confer with the naval officer making the request and if other numbers can be agreed upon he will authorize their use.

(3) Naval Anchorage D. East of a line bearing 338° from a white cross near the west end of the Middle Breakwater, said line being the easterly boundary line of Commercial Anchorage C; north of a line parallel to and 200 feet from the axis of the Middle Breakwater; southwest of a line bearing 310° from Long Beach entrance West Light and passing through the east end of the Navy Mole; south of the bayward side of the Navy Mole; and south of the south line of the navy restricted area for degaussing ranges.

(i) In this area the requirements of the naval service will predominate. Vessels other than those of the Navy may anchor temporarily in this area when necessary and space permits. Whenever this area is required for the anchoring of naval vessels, it shall be immediately cleared of commercial vessels by the Captain of the Port upon request of the appropriate naval authority.

(ii) The southeast and southwest portions of this anchorage are reserved for use as Explosives Anchorages Nos. 1 and 2 whenever a necessity arises therefor. See subparagraph (8) (i) and (ii) of this paragraph.

(iii) Floats or buoys for marking anchors or moorings in place and fixed mooring piles or stakes are prohibited, except those which may be required by the Navy and approved by the Captain of the Port.

* * * * *

(5) Quarantine Anchorage F. * * *

(i) Vessels arriving at quarantine and awaiting inspection will anchor in this anchorage, except that if space in this anchorage is not available then any available anchorages in Anchorages B and C may be temporarily occupied for examination. In case of Navy requirements, see subparagraph (2) (iii) of this paragraph.

* * * * *

(6) Commercial Anchorage G (Long Beach Harbor). * * *

(i) In this area the requirements of commercial ships will predominate. In case of Navy requirements, see subparagraph (2) (iii) of this paragraph.

(Sec. 7, 38 Stat. 1053, as amended; 33 U. S. C. 471)

2. Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U. S. C. 1), § 207.616 establishing and governing the use and navigation of a naval restricted area in Los Angeles and Long Beach Harbors, California, is hereby amended extending the boundaries to include an additional area for installation of a degaussing facility, as follows:

§ 207.616 Los Angeles and Long Beach Harbors, Calif.; naval restricted area—(a) The area. The waters of Los Angeles and Long Beach Harbors lying westerly of the Naval Base Mole and extending north from the westerly prolongation of the southern side of the mole and east from the eastern side and the southerly prolongation of the eastern side of non-anchorage Area I.

(b) The regulations. (1) No vessels, other than vessels operated by or for the United States, shall anchor within the area at any time.

(2) Dredging, dragging, seining, other fishing operations, and other activities not under the direction of the United States which might foul underwater installations are prohibited.

(3) All vessels entering the area, other than vessels operated by or for the United States, shall proceed across the area by the most direct route and without unnecessary delay.

(4) Only naval vessels and seaplanes shall enter the basin lying inside the jetty in front of the Naval Air Station, except as authorized by the enforcing agency.

(5) The regulations in this section shall be enforced by the Commander, U. S. Naval Base Los Angeles, Long Beach, California, and such agencies as he may designate.

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS

FLORIDA COAST LINE CANAL, LAKE MABEL TO BISCAYNE CREEK, FLORIDA

Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 362; 33 U. S. C. 499), § 203.446a is hereby prescribed to govern the operation of the Hollywood Boulevard bridge across the Intracoastal Waterway at Hollywood, Florida, as follows:

§ 203.446a Intracoastal Waterway, Fla.; Hollywood Boulevard bridge, Hollywood, Fla. (a) During the period November 15 to May 15, inclusive, the owner of or agency controlling the Hollywood Boulevard bridge will not be required to open the drawspan between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 6:00 p. m., except on half-hour intervals, on the hour and half-hour when the bridge shall be opened to allow all accumulated vessels to pass, and except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Upon receipt of proper signal the draw shall be opened at any time to allow the passage of a tow, sailing vessel, vessel in distress, and cruise boats operating on regular schedules.

(c) The owner of or agency controlling the bridge shall keep a copy of the regulations of this section conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides thereof in such manner that it can be easily read at any time.

ASPHALT LEASES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the act of June 28, 1944 (58 Stat. 463, 483-485), it is proposed to issue regulations implementing the said act so far as is necessary. One of the provisions of the act permits mineral leasing of asphalt deposits in certain lands situated in Oklahoma which the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation of Indians in Oklahoma agreed to convey to the United States pursuant to the terms of a contract ratified by the act of June 24, 1948 (62 Stat. 596), under which equitable title to the lands and mineral deposits vested in the United States upon the appropriation of the purchase price by the act of May 24, 1949 (63 Stat. 76, 84).

The proposed regulations and form of lease[1] are set forth below.

Interested persons may submit, in triplicate, written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed regulations or form to the Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days from date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: September 10, 1956.

FRED A. SEATON,
Secretary of the Interior.

A new Part 188, is added to Chapter 1, Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, reading as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 188.1 to 188.21, issued under sec. 32, 41 Stat. 450; 30 U. S. C. 189. Interpret or apply 58 Stat. 463, 483-485, 63 Stat. 76, 84.

GENERAL

§ 188.1 Authority to lease. The act of June 28, 1944 (58 Stat. 463, 483-485), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to lease asphalt deposits in certain lands situated in Oklahoma, acquired under the provisions thereof.

§ 188.2 Lands applicable. The lands or asphalt deposits subject to the regulations in this part are those situated in Oklahoma which were (a) sold to the United States under the terms of a contract executed October 8, 1947, by and between the Secretary of the Interior and officials of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of Indians in Oklahoma, which contract was ratified by the act of June 24, 1948 (62 Stat. 596), and (b) acquired when the purchase price provided in the contract was appropriated by the act of May 24, 1949 (63 Stat. 76, 84).

§ 188.3 Definitions. The following terms, as used in this part, or in any lease approved under the regulations in this part, shall have the meanings here given:

(a) Secretary. The Secretary of the Interior or any person duly authorized to exercise the powers vested in that officer.

(b) Land Office. The Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Santa Fe, New Mexico, for lands covered by a lease or application therefor, situated in the State of Oklahoma.

(c) Manager. The Manager of the Land Office as defined in paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Mining Supervisor. The Regional Mining Supervisor of the Geological Survey for the State in which the lands under lease or application therefor are situated.

§ 188.4 Area and limitation on holdings. Except where the rule of approximation applies, a lease may not include over 640 acres in reasonably compact form. No person, association or corporation may hold, either directly or indirectly, leases for an area that exceeds in the aggregate 2,560 acres.

§ 188.5 Qualifications of applicant. (a) As used in this section, "applicant" means an applicant for lease under § 188.12, the successful bidder to whom a lease is awarded under § 188.15, or an assignee or transferee under § 188.20.

(b) Leases may be issued to citizens of the United States, association of citizens, and corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any State or Territory thereof.

(c) All applicants must file with the Manager statements and evidence as follows (unless previously filed, in which event a reference by serial number to the record and where it is filed, together with a statement as to any amendment, will be accepted):

(1) As to citizenship, whether native born or naturalized.

(2) If applicant is an association (including a partnership), it must submit a certified copy of the articles of association and the same showing as to the citizenship and holdings of its members as required of an individual.

(3) A corporation must submit a statement showing:

(i) The State in which it is incorporated.

(ii) That it is authorized to hold leases for asphalt deposits and that the person executing an instrument on behalf of the corporation is authorized to act in such matters.

(iii) The percentage of voting stock, of all the stock owned by aliens and of all the stock owned by those having addresses outside of the United States. When the stock owned by aliens is over 10 percent, additional information may be required.

(iv) The name, address, citizenship, and acreage holdings of any stockholder owning or controlling 20 percent or more of the stock of any class, of the corporation.

(4) That holdings do not exceed the acreage limitations specified in § 188.4.

§ 188.6 Leases for lands disposed of with reservation of asphalt deposits. Where lands included in a lease have been or may be disposed of with reservation of the asphalt deposits, rights of surface use are subject to the provisions of the law under which such reservation was made. See the act of February 19, 1912 (37 Stat. 67), and the act of August 3, 1955 (69 Stat. 445), and the regulations thereunder, in Part 119 of this chapter.

§ 188.7 Requirements when lands are within a withdrawal. Where any part of the lands embraced in an application for asphalt lease is within a withdrawal which does not preclude disposition of the asphalt deposits, the head of the Government agency having control will be called upon for a report as to whether there is any objection to the granting of an asphalt lease. Where he recommends that a special stipulation be required to protect the interest of the United States, an appropriate stipulation may be included in the lease.

ASPHALT LEASES

§ 188.8 Form of lease. Leases shall be issued on Form 4–1320.[1]

§ 188.9 Lease bond. A compliance bond, in no event less than $1,000, with approved corporate surety (Form 4–1113), or the lessee's personal bond in similar amount (Form 4–1114), will be required prior to the issuance of a lease. Personal bonds must be secured by negotiable Federal securities in the amount of the bond. If the amount of the bond is fixed at $1,000, the lessee may, instead, furnish a bond on Form 4–1113 with two qualified individual sureties, as provided in § 191.13 of this chapter. The right is reserved at any time before or after issuance of the lease to require an increase of the amount of the bond, whether a corporate, personal or individual surety bond, in any case where the Bureau of Land Management deems it proper to do so.

§ 188.10 Royalty and rental. (a) The rate of royalty shall be fixed prior to the issuance of the lease but in no event shall it be less than 25 cents per ton of two thousand pounds of marketable production.

(b) Beginning with the date of the lease, annual rental payable in advance for each acre or part thereof covered by the lease shall be 25 cents for the first calendar year or fraction thereof, 50 cents for the second, third, fourth and fifth calendar years, respectively, and $1 for each calendar year thereafter during the continuance of the lease, such rental for any year to be credited against royalties accruing under the lease during the year for which the rental was paid.

§ 188.11 Minimum production. (a) Each lease will provide for the mining of asphalt deposits from the lands involved and the payment of royalty thereon to a value of not less than $1 an acre or fraction thereof each year, beginning with the sixth full calendar lease year, except when operations are interrupted by strikes, the elements, or casualties not attributable to the lessee or unless operations are suspended upon a showing that the lease can not be operated except at a loss because of unfavorable market conditions.

(b) Applications by lessees for relief from the production requirement of leases shall be filed, in triplicate, with the Mining Supervisor, who is authorized to grant such relief. A copy of each application shall be filed in the land office. Complete information must be furnished showing the necessity for such relief.

§ 188.12 Application for lease by competitive bidding. (a) An application for lease must be filed in duplicate in the land office. A filing fee of $10, which will be retained as a service charge in any event, must accompany the application. No specific form is required, but the application should include the following:

(1) The applicant's name and address.

(2) If the requested lands are surveyed, they should be described by legal subdivisions, showing meridian, township, range, and section; if not surveyed, by metes and bounds connected by courses and distance with some corner of the public land survey. When possible, the approximate legal subdivisions of unsurveyed lands should be stated.

(3) Evidence that the land is valuable for its asphalt content, with a statement as to the character, extent, and mode of occurrence of the asphalt deposits.

(b) The application must be signed by applicant, or by his attorney in fact, supported by the power of attorney.

(c) If it be found that the area applied for is not available for leasing, the applicant will be so informed.

§ 188.13 Notice of lease offer. Notice of offer of lands or deposits for lease will be by publication once a week for four consecutive weeks or for such other period as may be determined, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the lands or deposits are situated. The notice will state the time and place of sale, whether the sale will be at public auction or by sealed bids, the description of the lands and the place where a detailed statement of the terms and conditions of the lease offer and the obligations of the successful bidder to pay for publication of that notice may be obtained. A copy of the notice will be posted in the land office during the period of publication. The detailed statement will set forth the terms and conditions of the sale, including the manner in which bids may be submitted, and statements (a) that the successful bidder will be required, prior to the issuance of a lease, to pay his proportionate share of the total cost of publication of the notice of lease offer, and that the successful bidder's share shall be that proportion of the total advertising cost, that the number of parcels of land awarded to him bears to the number of parcels for which high bidders are declared, and (b) that the Government reserves the right to reject any and all bids. If any bid be rejected, the deposit will be returned. The commission of any act of intimidation of bidders, or the combination of bidders to hinder or prevent bidding, is unlawful. See 18 U. S. C. 1860.

§ 188.14 Bid deposits. The successful bidder at a sale by public auction must deposit with the Manager of the Land Office, or the officer conducting the sale, on the date of the sale, and each bidder at a sale by sealed bids, must submit with his bid, certified check, cashier's check, bank draft, money order, or cash for one-fifth of the amount of the bid, and evidence of qualifications as required by § 188.5 (c).

§ 188.15 Award of lease. (a) Upon receipt of the high bid at, and at the close of, an oral auction, or the opening of the sealed bids, the Manager, subject to his right to reject any and all bids, will award the lease to the successful bidder, who will be notified accordingly. Four copies of the lease will be sent to the successful bidder, who will be required, within 30 days from receipt thereof, to execute them, pay the balance of the bonus bids, the first year's rental, and the cost of publication of the notice of lease offer as specified in § 188.13, and file a bond as required by § 188.9. If a bidder, after being awarded a lease, fails to execute it or otherwise comply with the applicable regulations, his deposit will be forfeited and deposited in the general fund of the Treasury of the United States. (See act of June 28, 1944, 58 Stat. 463, 485). If the lease awarded to the successful bidder is executed by an attorney acting in behalf of the bidder, the lease must be accompanied by evidence that the bidder authorized the attorney to execute the lease.

(b) If the bidder dies before the lease is issued, the lease will be issued to the executor or administrator of the estate if probate of the estate has not been completed; if probate has been completed, or is not required, to the heirs or devisees; and if there are minor heirs or devisees, to their legal guardian or trustee in his name, provided there is filed in all cases the following information:

(1) Where probate of the estate has not been completed:

(i) Evidence that the person, who as executor or administrator submits forms of lease and bond, has authority to act in that capacity and to sign such forms.

(ii) Evidence that the heirs or devisees are the heirs or devisees of the deceased lessee and are the only heirs or devisees of the deceased.

(iii) A statement over the signature of each heir or devisee concerning citizenship and holdings similar to that required by § 188.5 (c) (1) and (4).

(2) Where the executor or administrator has been discharged or no probate proceedings are required:

(i) A certified copy of the will or decree of distribution, if any, and if not, a statement signed by the heirs that they are the only heirs of the lessee and citing the provisions of the law of the deceased's last domicile showing no probate is required.

(ii) A statement over the signature of each of the heirs or devisees with reference to citizenship and holding similar to that required by § 188.5 (c) (1) and (4), except that if the heir or devisee is a minor, the statement must be over the signature of the guardian or trustee.

(3) Where there is a legal guardian or trustee:

(i) A certified copy of the court order authorizing the guardian or trustee to act as such and to fulfill in behalf of the minor or minors all obligations of the lease or arising thereunder; statements by the guardian or trustee as to the citizenship and holding of each of the minors and as to his own citizenship and holdings, including his holdings for the benefit of other minors similar to that required by § 188.5 (c) (1) and (4).

§ 188.16 Modification and leasing of additional lands or asphalt deposits. A lessee may obtain modification of his lease to include asphalt lands or asphalt deposits contiguous to those embraced in his lease if the Manager shall determine, after consultation with the Mining Supervisor, that it will be to the advantage of the lessee and the United States, but in no event shall the area embraced in such modified lease exceed in the aggregate 640 acres, except where the rule of approximation applies. The lessee must file his application for modification in duplicate in the land office describing the additional land desired, the reasons for and the advantage to the lessee of such modification. Upon determination by the Manager that the modification is justified and the interest of the United States is protected, the lease will be modified without competitive bidding to include such part of the land or deposits as he shall prescribe. If, however, it is determined that the additional lands or deposits can be developed as part of an independent operation or that there is a competitive interest in them, they may be offered as provided in § 188.13. Each application for modification must be accompanied by a filing fee of $10 which will not be returnable.

§ 188.17 Renewal leases. An application for a renewal lease must be filed in duplicate in the land office within 90 days prior to the expiration of the lease term. Thereafter, the lessee will be notified of the terms and conditions to be prescribed in the renewal lease. Unless the lessee filed written objections to the proposed terms, or files a relinquishment of the lease within 30 days after receipt of such notice, he will be deemed to have agreed to such terms and to the renewal of the lease. Prior to the issuance of a renewal lease, the lessee will be required to submit a satisfactory bond as prescribed in § 188.9. Each application for renewal must be accompanied by a filling fee of $10 which will not be returnable.

§ 188.18 Relinquishment of lease. Upon a satisfactory showing that the public interest will not be impaired, the lessee may surrender the entire lease or any legal subdivision thereof. A relinquishment must be filed in duplicate in the land office. Upon its acceptance it shall be effective as of the date it is filed, subject to the continued obligation of the lessee and his surety to make payment of all accrued rental and royalties and provide for the preservation of any mines or productive works or permanent improvements on the lands relinquished in accordance with the regulations and terms of the lease.

§ 188.19 Cancellation of lease. If the lessee fails to comply with the general regulations in force at the date of the lease, or defaults with respect to any of the terms, covenants, or stipulations of the lease, and such failure or default continues for 30 days after service of written notice thereof by the lessor, then the lessor may bring appropriate court proceedings to forfeit and cancel the lease as provided in section 31 of the Mineral Leasing Act of February 25, 1920, as amended (30 U. S. C. 188). A waiver of any particular cause of forfeiture shall not prevent the cancellation and forfeiture of the lease for any other cause, or for the same cause occurring at any other time.

TRANSFERS OF LEASES

§ 188.20 Transfers, including subleases. (a) Leases may be transferred in whole or in part. The approval of a transfer of part of the land in a lease will create a new lease for the transferred portion. A discovery made before or after the partial assignment, either on the retained or the assigned portions will not inure to the benefit of the other, nor will approval of a transfer extend the renewal periods of the lease. Transfers, whether by direct assignments, operating agreements, subleases, working or royalty interests, or otherwise, must be filed for approval in duplicate at the land office within 90 days after execution. Evidence of the qualifications of the assignee or transferee to hold the lease, as required by § 188.5 must be submitted simultaneously. Before a transfer of a lease will be approved, the transferee must submit a new bond, or the consent of the surety on the lease bond to the substitution of the transferee as principal thereon, and the lease account must be in good standing. If the transfer is for part of the land only, it must be for a legal subdivision and (1) the consent of the surety to the transfer and its agreement to remain bound as to the interest retained by the lessee must be submitted, as well as (2) a new bond with the transferee as principal covering the portion of the lands transferred. A transfer will take effect the first day of the month following its approval, or if the transferee requests, in writing, the first day of the month of the approval.

(b) An application for approval of any instrument transferring a lease, or interest therein, must be accompanied by a service fee of $10. An application not accompanied by such a fee will not be accepted. The fee will not be returned even though the application is later withdrawn or rejected.

(c) No transfer will be approved if the transferee is not qualified to take and hold a lease or if his bond is insufficient. A minor, except a minor heir or devisee of a lease, is not qualified to hold a lease and a transfer to a minor will not be approved.

(d) In order for the heirs or devisees of a deceased holder of a lease, an operating agreement, or a royalty interest in a lease, to be recognized by the Department as the holder of the lease, agreement or interest, there must be furnished the appropriate showing required under § 188.15 (b).

(e) The assignor or sublessor and his surety will continue to be responsible for the performance of any obligation under the lease until the assignment or sublease is approved. If the assignment or transfer is not approved, their obligations to the United States shall continue as though no such assignment or transfer had been filed for approval. After approval the assignee or sublessee and his surety will be responsible for the performance of all lease obligations notwithstanding any terms in the assignment or sublease to the contrary.

§ 188.21 Limitation on overriding royalties. An overriding royalty interest shall not be created by assignment or otherwise exceeding 50 percent of the rate of royalty first payable to the United States under the lease or an overriding royalty interest which when added to any other overriding royalty interest exceeds that percentage, excepting that where an interest in the leasehold, or operating agreement is assigned, the assignor may retain an overriding royalty interest in excess of the above limitation if he shows to the satisfaction of the Bureau of Land Management, that he has made substantial investments for improvements on the land covered by the assignment.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 11288 etc.; FCC 56-85]

PONCE DE LEON BROADCASTING CO., INC., OF P. R. ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Ponce de Leon Broadcasting Co., Inc., of P. R., Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, Docket No. 11288, File No. BPCT-1906; Sucesion Luis-Pirallo Castellanos, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, Docket No. 11811, File No. BPCT-2158; Department of Education of Puerto Rico, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, Docket No. 11812, File No. BPCT-2159; for construction permits for new Television Stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of September 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 3 in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico; and

It appearing that the above-captioned applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by more than one of the three applicants would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that Ponce de Leon Broadcasting Co., Inc. of P. R. is already in hearing status pursuant to an order adopted by the Commission on February 23, 1955; that the applications of Sucesion Luis-Pirallo Castellanos and Department of Education of Puerto Rico were accepted for filing by the Commission pursuant to a Memorandum Opinion and Order adopted July 11, 1956 (FCC 56-654); and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing and of all objections to their applications; and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing that upon due consideration of the above-captioned applications, the amendments filed thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that Sucesion Luis-Pirallo Castellanos and Department of Education of Puerto Rico are legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station; that, as found previously, Ponce de Leon Broadcasting Co., Inc., of P. R., is legally, technically and financially qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station, and is otherwise qualified except as to issues "1" and "2" below;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned applications of Sucesion Luis-Pirallo Castellanos and Department of Education of Puerto Rico are designated for hearing and consolidated with the application of Ponce De Leon Broadcasting Co., Inc., of P. R. already in hearing which hearing is presently scheduled to commence at 10:00 a. m. on the 29th day of October 1956 upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether the program service proposed to be rendered by Ponce De Leon Broadcasting Co., Inc., of P. R. would meet the requirements of the community to be served.

2. To determine whether a grant to Ponce De Leon Broadcasting Co., Inc. of P. R. of authority to maintain main studios outside Mayaguez would be consistent with the provisions of § 3.613 of the Commission's rules.

3. To determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would best serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of record made with respect to the significant differences among the applications as to:

a. The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants having a bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television station.

b. The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

c. The programming service proposed in each of the above-entitled applications.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon a sufficient allegation of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue:

To determine whether the funds available to the applicants will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

It is further ordered, That this hearing order hereby supersedes the order adopted on February 23, 1955 in Docket No. 11288 (FCC 55-235).

Released: September 11, 1956.

AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO. AND WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In the matter of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, charges, classifications, regulations and practices for and in connection with Multiple Private Line Services and Channels, Docket No. 11518; American Telephone and Telegraph Company, charges, classifications, regulations and practices for and in connection with private line services and channels, Docket No. 11645; The Western Union Telegraph Company, charges, classifications, regulations, and practices for and in connection with Domestic Leased Facility Service, Docket No. 11646.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 6th day of September 1956;

The Commission having under consideration Transmittal No. 5231 and certain new tariff schedules filed therewith on July 30, 1956, by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T), effective September 1, 1956, establishing new rates and regulations for multiple private line services and channels furnished for communication by means of telephone, teletypewriter, or Morse equipment, for transmission of picture material by means of telephotograph equipment provided by the customer, and for operation of remote metering, supervisory control or miscellaneous signaling devices provided by the customer, said tariff schedules being designated as Tariff FCC No. 231; and also having under consideration the record of the proceedings in Docket No. 11518—an investigation of the lawfulness under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, of AT&T Tariff FCC No. 227 and related tariffs, also providing for new rates and regulations for multiple private line services and channels; the Commission's action of August 30, 1956 granting an application of AT&T for Special Permission to cancel said Tariff FCC No. 227, effective September 1, 1956; a Protest filed on August 17, 1956 by The Western Union Telegraph Company against the new Tariff FCC No. 231 requesting suspension and investigation thereof; and a reply to said protest filed by AT&T on August 24, 1956; and also having under consideration the Commission's Order of March 7, 1956, providing for a general investigation into the lawfulness of effective tariff schedules of AT&T applicable to private line services and channels (Docket No. 11645) and effective tariff schedules of The Western Union Telegraph Company applicable to leased facility services (Docket No. 11646) and directing that the proceedings therein be consolidated with the proceedings in Docket No. 11518;

It appearing that Tariff FCC No. 231 is intended to replace Tariff FCC No. 227, and to make it possible for the public and the Government to receive as soon as practicable the benefit of the reduced charges that the multiple channel offering will provide; that many of the features of the new offering proposed in Tariff FCC No. 231 are the same as those included in Tariff FCC No. 227 and that the information submitted to the Commission in support of the latter tariff applies to a large extent to the filing of Tariff FCC No. 231; that the rates for multiple private line services and channels contained in Tariff FCC No. 231 are related directly to the rates for the individual private line services and channels contained in presently effective tariffs which are subject to investigation in Docket No. 11645; and that in the event that future changes are made in the individual service rates, it is expected that corresponding changes would be made in the multiple channel rates;

It further appearing that questions are presented as to the lawfulness, under the provisions of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, of AT&T Tariff FCC No. 231 and that such questions, together with the questions raised by the aforementioned protest of The Western Union Telegraph Company, should be resolved as part of and in connection with the aforementioned general investigation of the lawfulness of presently effective tariff schedules applicable to private line services and channels in Dockets Nos. 11645 and 11646;

It further appearing that pursuant to the aforementioned Special Permission issued by the Commission on August 30, 1956, AT&T has cancelled its Tariff FCC No. 227 and, consequently, further proceedings with respect to Docket No. 11518 are unnecessary;

It is ordered, That the proceedings in Docket No. 11518, herein, are hereby terminated and dismissed; and that the record of the proceedings in Docket No. 11518 is hereby made part of the record of the proceedings in Dockets Nos. 11645 and 11646;

It is further ordered, That pursuant to the provisions of sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 205 and 403 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the issues in Docket Nos. 11645 and 11646, as specified in the Commission's Order of March 7, 1956, herein, are hereby amended to include consideration and investigation of the lawfulness under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, of the charges, classifications, regulations and practices contained in AT&T Tariff FCC No. 231;

It is further ordered, That the issues in Dockets Nos. 11645 and 11646 are further amended to include the following:

The effects of the tariff schedules subject to investigation herein on competition in the field of private line communications services and channels, and whether any such effects render any of the charges, classifications, regulations or practices contained in such tariff schedules unjust or unreasonable within the meaning of section 201 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise unlawful.

POLK RADIO, INC., ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Polk Radio, Incorporated, Lakeland, Florida, Docket No. 11685, File No. BP-10136; Duane F. McConnell, Winter Haven, Florida, Docket No. 11686, File No. BP-10400; E. D. Covington, Jr., Winter Garden, Florida, Docket No. 11813, File No. BP-10571; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of September 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of E. D. Covington, Jr. for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station at Winter Garden, Florida, to operate on 1330 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, daytime only, File No. BP-10571;

It appearing that the applicant is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified except as may appear from the issues indicated below, to operate his proposed station, but that operation of the station as proposed would involve mutually destructive interference with the above-captioned proposal of Polk Radio, Incorporated, for a new standard broadcast station at Lakeland, Florida, to operate on 1330 kilocycles with a power of 1 kilowatt, daytime only, File No. BP-10136, Docket No. 11685; and

It further appearing that said application of Polk Radio, Incorporated, and the above-captioned application of Duane F. McConnell for a new standard broadcast station at Winter Haven, Florida, to operate on 1320 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, daytime only, File No. BP-10400, Docket No. 11686 are mutually exclusive and were designated for hearing by an order adopted on April 25, 1956, and released on May 1, 1956; and

It further appearing that the above-captioned application of E. D. Covington, Jr., was filed on May 11, 1956, within ten days of the public notice of the Commission's said order, and is, therefore, entitled to be consolidated in the proceeding in Dockets Nos. 11685 and 11686 pursuant to § 1.724 (b) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, E. D. Covington, Jr., was advised by letter dated July 13, 1956, of the foregoing; and

It further appearing that a timely reply was filed by E. D. Covington, Jr.; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the reply the Commission is of the opinion that a hearing on the application of E. D. Covington, Jr., is necessary and that it should be consolidated in the proceeding in Dockets Nos. 11685 and 11686;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application of E. D. Covington, Jr., is designated for hearing and is consolidated in the proceeding ordered on April 25, 1956, in Dockets Nos. 11685 and 11686, upon the issues specified in said Order, which are as follows:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the proposed operations, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine in the light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would best provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if any, of the applications should be granted.

GREAT WESTERN RADIO CO. AND JOHN JACK BENTLEY

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of George Wayne Inglis and Elvis Leo Roberts, d/b as Great Western Radio Company, Midland, Texas, Docket No. 11814, File No. BP-10466; John Jack Bentley, Stanton, Texas, Docket No. 11815, File No. BP-10613; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of September 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of George Wayne Inglis and Elvis Leo Roberts, d/b as Great Western Radio Company, for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station at Midland, Texas, to operate on 1580 kilocycles with a power of 1 kilowatt, daytime only, File No. BP-10466; and of John Jack Bentley for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station at Stanton, Texas, to operate on 1600 kilocycles with a power of 1 kilowatt, daytime only, File No. BP-10613;

It appearing that the Great Western Radio Company is financially qualified, and each of the applicants is legally, technically and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to construct and operate its proposed station, but that operation of both stations as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference, and that insufficient information has been submitted from which to make a determination of whether John Jack Bentley is financially qualified to construct and operate his proposed station; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicants were advised by letter dated July 27, 1956, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that a timely reply was received from each applicant; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the replies the Commission is of the opinion that a hearing on the applications is necessary;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the proposed operations, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether John Jack Bentley is financially qualified to construct and operate his proposed station.

3. To determine in the light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the operations proposed in the above-described applications would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

4. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues whether a grant of either of the two applications would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

HOWARD C. NIESEN AND SOUTH GATE DEVELOPMENT CO., INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Howard C. Niesen, Sarasota, Florida, Docket No. 11816, File No. 684-C2-P-56; South Gate Development Company, Inc., Sarasota, Florida, Docket No. 11817, File No. 1327-C2-P-56; for construction permits for stations in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 6th day of September 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications for two-way stations in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service at Sarasota, Florida; and

It appearing, that, Mr. Niesen and South Gate Development Company, Inc. have each expressed a belief that the authorization of two such facilities at Sarasota, Florida would not serve the public interest, convenience or necessity because it is not economically practical to operate two such services in that area; and

It is further appearing, that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters as to the reasons why the applications cannot be granted without a hearing; and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing that, upon due consideration of the above-entitled applications, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that, under section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is required; and

It further appearing that, each of the above-named applicants in legally, financially and technically qualified to construct, own and operate a two-way station in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service, as proposed in the instant applications;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to the provisions of section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding to be held at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 8th day of November 1956, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the area and population which may be expected to receive service from each of the proposed stations and the need for such service in the area proposed to be served.

2. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced on Issue No. 1, whether any public benefit or disadvantage will be derived from the establishment of more than one facility in this service in the area proposed to be served.

3. To determine the facts with respect to the proposed facilities, personnel, rates, regulations, practices and services of each of the applicants.

4. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced on the foregoing issues, whether public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant of one or both of the applications.

It is further ordered, That, the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau, is made a party to the proceeding herein.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70–3510]

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUANCE AND SALE AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF DEBENTURES

SEPTEMBER 10, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that The Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission a declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 6 and 7 thereof and Rule U-50 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction, which is summarized as follows:

Columbia proposes to issue and sell, subject to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $25,000,000 principal amount of ____ percent Debentures, Series G, due 1981 ("New Debentures"). The interest rate to be borne by the New Debentures and the price to the company (to be not less than 99 percent nor more than 101½ percent of the principal amount) will be determined by competitive bidding.

The New Debentures will be issued under the Indenture between Columbia and Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, dated as of August 1, 1950, as heretofore supplemented and as to be further supplemented by a Sixth Supplemental Indenture, dated as of October 1, 1956.

The proceeds of the New Debentures together with other funds will be applied to Columbia's 1956 construction program, involving total expenditures of approximately $73,000,000. It is estimated that the additional $25,000,000 to be raised by the sale of the New Debentures will enable Columbia to complete this program.

A statement of the fees and expenses paid or to be paid in connection with the proposed transaction will be filed by amendment.

It is stated that no other regulatory commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 25, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

PHILADELPHIA CO. AND STANDARD GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING RENEWAL OF PROMISSORY NOTE

SEPTEMBER 10, 1956.

Philadelphia Company ("Philadelphia"), a subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard Gas") and a registered holding company, and Standard Gas, a registered holding company and subsidiary of Standard Shares, Inc., a registered holding company in the process of conversion into an investment company, have filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to sections 7 and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") regarding the following proposed transaction:

Philadelphia will issue and deliver to Standard Gas a renewal promissory note in replacement of a promissory note in the principal amount of $2,500,000 which will mature on September 10, 1956 and which bears interest at the rate of 3¼ percent per annum, payable monthly. The renewal note, in the same principal amount, will bear interest payable monthly at the prime interest rate prevailing at the date of the new note for short-term commercial bank loans, and will mature September 10, 1957, with the right of the issuer to anticipate at any time the payment of all or any part of the principal thereof.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application-declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 85, Amdt. 1]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922; 21 F. R. 4392), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 922.385 (Valencia Orange Regulation 85, 21 F. R. 6813) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 1,062,600 cartons.

cumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on September 13, 1956, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 16, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 23, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 970,200 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) All Valencia oranges handled during the period specified in this section are subject also to all applicable size restrictions which are in effect pursuant to this part during such period.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.799 Grapefruit Regulation 247—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than September 17, 1956. Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until September 17, 1956; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to September 16, 1956, were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on September 11, 1956; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 17, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., October 1, 1956, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(ii) Any seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(iii) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 112 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; the terms "U. S. No. 2 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title); and the term "mature" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 601.16 Florida Statutes, Chapters 26492 and 28090, known as the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as supplemented by section 601.17 (Chapters 25149 and 28090) and also by section 601.18, as amended on June 2, 1955 (Chapter 29760).

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 19 F. R. 7175; 20 F. R. 2913; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 953.765 (Lemon Regulation 658; 21 F. R. 6814, are hereby amended to read as follows:

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.766 Lemon Regulation 659—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on September 12, 1956, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 16, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 23, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 186,000 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 997—FILBERTS GROWN IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON

SALABLE SURPLUS, AND WITHHOLDING PERCENTAGES FOR MERCHANTABLE FILBERTS DURING FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING AUGUST 1, 1956

Pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 115 and Order No. 97, as amended (7 CFR, Part 997) regulating the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington, the salable, surplus, and withholding percentages for the fiscal year beginning August 1, 1956, are herein established.

The Filbert Control Board has estimated net trade demand for inshell filberts certified as merchantable during the 1956–57 fiscal year at 8,634,200 pounds and the supply available to meet such demand at 4,716,800 pounds. These estimates and other information available to the Department indicate that the supply of filberts will not be sufficient to meet anticipated trade demand.

Therefore, after consideration of all relevant information the following administrative rule is issued:

§ 997.206 Salable, surplus, and withholding percentages for merchantable filberts. For the fiscal year beginning August 1, 1956, the salable percentage for merchantable filberts shall be 100 percent, the surplus percentage shall be zero percent, and the withholding percentage shall be zero percent.

It is hereby found and determined that notice of proposed rule making, public participation therein, and the delaying of the effective date of this order later than the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest for the reasons that (1) the harvesting season for filberts is about to begin and it is desirable that the percentages be fixed as early as practicable in the fiscal year, and (2) this order imposes no obligation and compliance with this administrative rule will not require handlers to make any advance preparation of a special nature.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of September 1956, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

Cozart, Stephen E. Griffin, and Alton B. Boswell, individually and as officers

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging an association of dealers in leaf tobacco, including the warehousemen operating the 19 warehouses on the Wilson, North Carolina, tobacco market, together with its officers and members, with unreasonably restraining trade through collectively (1) allotting selling time for the ensuing year on the basis of the proportion of pounds sold by each warehouse to the total pounds sold by all, instead of on a basket basis; (2) limiting the amount of tobacco which might be resold by speculators or rehandlers other than warehousemen, and restricting the time when tobacco might be so resold; and (3) allotting to a newcomer on the Wilson market for his ensuing first year of operation the same amount of time as the last previous entrant had for that year, providing he built as large a warehouse, otherwise in proportion to the size built.

Following 22 hearings held at intervals in Wilson, N. C., resulting in over 3,000 pages of testimony and numerous exhibits, the hearing examiner made his initial decision, including findings of fact, conclusions, and order to cease and desist, from which both counsel filed cross-appeals.

After hearing the matter on the whole record, including briefs and oral argument, the Commission denied the cross-appeals, and after modifying the preamble so that the order not run against the respondents in their individual capacities, on August 23 adopted the initial decision as its own decision.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Wilson Tobacco Board of Trade, Inc., a corporation, and James I. Miller, Ula H. Cozart, Paul C. Darden and Alton B. Boswell, as officers; Banner Warehouse of Wilson, Inc., a corporation, and Herbert H. Harriss, William Cecil Thompson, Joseph C. Eagles, Jr. and Ula H. Cozart, as officers and directors; Harriss Sales Corporation, a corporation, and Herbert H. Harriss, John R. Harriss and John M. W. Crute, as officers and directors; Big Dixie Warehouse Company, Inc., a corporation, and William Cecil Thompson and Elvin B. Hicks, as officers and directors; Wainwright's, Inc., a corporation, and George L. Wainwright, Susan M. Wainwright and H. S. Askew, as officers and directors; William Boyd Clark, Sr., William Boyd Clark, Jr. and Robert Clark, co-partners trading under the name and style of Clark's Warehouse, a partnership; S. Grady Deans, an individual operating under the name and style of Farmers Warehouse and Boyette & Deans; Bryan W. Carr, Eliza Carr Smith and Will C. Smith, co-partners trading under the name and style of New Planters Warehouse, a partnership; Joseph C. Eagles, Jr., Ula H. Cozart, Sydnor M. Cozart and Fred M. Eagles, co-partners trading under the name and style of Cozart-Eagles and Co., a partnership; Watson Warehouse Company, Inc., a corporation, and Ula H. Cozart, J. Henry Thompson, Paul C. Darden, H. W. Anderson, D. W. Woodward, Fred M. Eagles, Sydnor M. Cozart, Joseph C. Eagles, Jr., W. S. Lane, Jr., J. R. Edmundson, T. P. Sharpe, G. C. Cobb, J. R. Hunt, S. E. High, M. V. Wilkerson, J. N. Whitley and N. G. Blackman, Jr., as officers and directors; Growers Cooperative Warehouse, Inc., a corporation, and J. Roy Wilkerson, R. F. Speight, Stephen E. Griffin, H. B. Nichols, Van D. High, Ray B. Williams, F. W. Scott, Robert S. Griffin, L. S. Farmer, Jr. and W. W. Taylor, as officers and directors; Bryan W. Carr and Eliza Carr Smith, co-partners trading under the name and style of Smith-Carr, a partnership; Wilson Warehouse Association, an unincorporated association, and H. H. Harriss, W. B. Clark, Jr. and Alton B. Boswell, as officers, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with procuring, purchasing, offering to purchase or selling or offering for sale, leaf tobacco, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from entering into, participating, continuing, cooperating in, or carrying out, or directing or instigating any planned common course of action, agreement, understanding, combination or conspiracy between and among any two or more of said respondents or between any one or more of said respondents and others not parties hereto to do or perform any of the following acts or practices:

1. Adopting, using, adhering to, or maintaining any system or plan for the allocation of selling time to tobacco auction warehouses on the Wilson tobacco market on a poundage rather than a "basket" basis.

2. Adopting, using, adhering to, or maintaining any system or plan for the allocation of selling time to tobacco auction warehouses on the Wilson tobacco market, which puts any limit, or otherwise restricts the amount of tobacco, which may be resold by speculators or rehandlers, other than warehousemen, or which restricts the time when such tobacco may be so resold.

3. Adopting, using, adhering to, or maintaining, or attempting to adopt, use, adhere to or maintain any plan, system, method, policy or practice, which allots sales time to any new entrant warehouse on the Wilson market on the sole basis of the sales time allotted to any other single warehouse already operating on said market, or on the basis of the latter's size, or sales, or performance, on that market in any given year, or which has the purpose and effect of foreclosing or preventing any such new entrant or prospective entrant from participating in the tobacco business on the Wilson market, on a fair and equitable basis or opportunity.

4. Engaging in any act or practice, the purpose or intention of which is to effectuate any understanding, agreement or combination prohibited herein.

5. Effectuating or accomplishing any act, practice, policy or method, prohibited by any provision, or part of this order, through respondent Board or any other instrumentality, agent, agency, medium or representative.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and the same hereby is, dismissed as to James I. Miller Tobacco Company, Inc., a corporation, Thomas D. Miller, James I. Miller, and W. B. Waddill, individually and as officers and directors thereof, and as to Wilson Tobacco Company, Inc., a corporation, and Charles P. Lyles, John G. Boatwright, Charles A. Carr, Carl H. Lane, and J. Wilbur Turner, individually and as officers and directors thereof.

By "Final Order", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is further ordered, That the respondents named in the aforesaid preamble shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist contained in the initial decision as modified.

Issued: August 23, 1956.

By the Commission.

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

NOTE: Where the general classification (LFR, VAR, ADF, ILS, GCA, or VOR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The automatic direction finding procedures prescribed in § 609.8 are amended to read in part:

ADF STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, and courses are magnetic. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation.

If an ADF instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 368.1 Import certificate and delivery verification on selected imports to the United States, paragraph (b) United States Import Certificate, subparagraph (2) Where to file is amended by deleting "El Paso" from the list of Department of Commerce field offices.

2. Section 373.40 Iron and steel, paragraph (d) Iron and steel scrap is amended to read as follows:

(d) Iron and steel scrap—(1) General. A license application to export iron and steel scrap, Schedule B Nos. 601010, 601040, 601050, 601070, and 601090, except where the ultimate destination of the exportation is in Mexico or where "offshore" scrap (scrap located in American possessions outside the continental United States) is to be exported, will be considered by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce only where the application contains the certification described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Evidence of Availability required. The following certification shall appear on each application:

I (We) certify that the iron and steel scrap commodities in the quantities described on this license application are in my (our) possession or will be in my (our) possession for export not later than ----------.

(Date)

(3) Validity period. A license to export iron and steel scrap, except where the ultimate destination of the exportation is in Mexico or where "offshore" scrap is to be exported, will be issued for a maximum validity period ending on the last day of the third month following the month during which the license is validated, e. g., a license issued on September 15, 1956, would expire on December 31, 1956. All licenses for iron and steel scrap destined for Mexico and all licenses for "offshore" scrap to be exported to any destination shall bear the usual six-month validity period.

(4) Documentation. Exporters are advised that in accordance with the provisions of § 372.10, of this subchapter it may be necessary in some instances to require additional documentation in support of license applications. Where this occurs, the applicant will be advised after review of the application by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce.

[1] This amendment was published in Current Export Bulletin No. 769, dated September 13, 1956.

NOTE: In accordance with the provisions of § 379.3 (c) (3) of this subchapter, in all cases where a Shippers Export Declaration is required by the Export Regulations or the Regulations for the collection of Statistics of Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States, the shipper shall present to the Collector of Customs an additional copy of the Declaration for exportations of iron and steel scrap, Schedule B Nos. 601010 through 601090.[1] The additional copy shall bear the following notation in the upper right corner: "COMM-8."

This amendment shall become effective as of September 13, 1956.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 958]

IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

EXPENSES AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of the expenses and rate of assessment hereinafter set forth, which were recommended by the area committee for Area No. 1 established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR Part 958) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, issued under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Consideration will be given to any data, views or arguments pertaining thereto, which are filed with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposals are as follows:

§ 958.222 Expenses and rate of assessment. (a) The reasonable expenses that are likely to be incurred by the area committee for Area No. 1, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58, to enable such committee to perform its functions pursuant to the provisions of aforesaid marketing agreement and order, during the fiscal period ending May 31, 1957, will amount to $1,000.00.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler, pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58, shall be one cent ($0.01) per hundredweight of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof during said fiscal period.

(c) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58.

(49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: September 12, 1956.

[Docket No. AO-182-A6]

MILK IN TOPEKA, KANS. MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS THERETO WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the act, and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and proposed amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Topeka, Kansas marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to the decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 7th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and order were formulated was conducted at Topeka, Kansas, on July 10 and 11, 1956, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued June 20, 1956 (21 F. R. 4517). The material issues of record related to:

1. Extension of the marketing area;
2. Definition of pool plants;
3. Location adjustments;
4. Base-rating provisions; and
5. The Class II price.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions are based on the evidence received at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Marketing area. The Topeka, Kansas, marketing area should be extended to include all of Lyon County, in which Emporia is the county seat and largest city.

There is very extensive competition between Topeka and Emporia handlers in the sale of milk. Two of the three handlers whose plants are located at Emporia have been the successful bidders on contracts within the Topeka marketing area. During the period July 1954 through March 1955, this contract business was so extensive that at each of the plants it accounted for more than 25 percent of their total receipts of Grade A milk (more than 20 percent in March 1955), thus qualifying them as Topeka pool plants during the 9-month period. During the months of April through December 1955, the operators of these two plants still retained sufficient contract business to qualify as handlers under the Topeka order but not as pool plants.

Some Topeka handlers also have extensive sales in Emporia and Lyons Counties. One of them maintains a distributing point in Emporia from which wholesale and retail routes are operated throughout the county and into such additional territory as can more conveniently be served from the Emporia distributing point than from the bottling plant at Topeka.

The two groups of handlers also compete extensively with each other in sales territory outside of Shawnee or Lyon Counties including competitive bidding on the large contracts for Fort Riley, near Manhattan, Kansas.

In view of such extensive direct competition, the two groups of handlers should be on a strictly comparable basis in their purchase of milk from producers. Their supplies of milk should be classified in accordance with use and priced uniformly. A great majority of the producers shipping Grade A milk to the three distributors in Emporia are members of an unincorporated cooperative association. This association actively supported expansion of the order to include Lyon County. The Topeka procurement area almost entirely overlaps the Emporia milkshed and extension of the order would assure producers of the same uniform price regardless of the particular handlers to which they deliver their milk. The producers delivering to Emporia plants would also participate in the same seasonal incentive (the base and excess plan), have the same services of checking weights and tests, and have the same access to complete market information as provided under the present order to producers delivering to Topeka plants.

A proposal that Morris County, Kansas, be included in the marketing area was not supported at the hearing and that county should not be included in the marketing area.

2. Pool plants. Under the present Topeka order, only distributing plants are defined as pool plants. Distributing plants are those at which milk is received from producers, pasteurized, and bottled and from which the bottled milk is distributed to wholesale and retail customers. In most of the medium-sized cities of the country these are the only types of milk plants involved in the distribution of fluid milk.

In the larger metropolitan areas, however, the milksheds have become too extensive for farmers to deliver their milk directly to city plants. Instead, it is more economical for the milk to be assembled at country points, cooled, and shipped to the distributing plants in tank truck lots. It is also common for these country supply plants to be equipped with manufacturing facilities. The daily and seasonal surpluses of milk not needed for bottling can then be processed at the country plants instead of being transported into the distributing plants.

There is now such a supply plant serving the Topeka market. It supplies milk to a distributing plant whose supply of direct-delivered milk is far short of its bottling needs. The country supply plant furnishes milk to the distributor whenever it is needed. Commonly, of course, the supply plant milk is called upon most extensively during the late summer and fall months when production is seasonably low. If a substantial volume of such plant's supply of milk is called in by the distributing plant during the fall months, the supply plant should be considered as a regular part of the market supply. Those producers should participate in the equalization pool throughout the year. At the hearing extensive consideration was given to providing objective standards in the order for determining whether a supply plant was sufficiently associated with the market through its performance to become fully regulated under the order and to participate in the marketwide pool. The experience of the supply plant which is already serving the market was described in some detail and furnishes a valuable guide to the development of standards. However, it is essential that the standards accommodate any other supply plant operations which may become closely associated with the market in the future.

A supply plant should qualify as a year-round pool plant if 50 percent of its available supply is shipped to distributing plants in each of the months of August through December. These are the months of shortest supply in the Topeka market and are, therefore, the months in which distributing plants would be most likely to require milk from supply plants. Producers proposed that July be included as one of the qualifying months. It has been a shortage period in recent years, but is still a base-operating month and producers testified that, in their judgment, it should remain in that category. Accordingly, it should not be included in the supply plant qualification period. Since the hearing was not held early enough to permit an amendment to be effective throughout the 1956 shipping period, the requirement should apply only from the effective date of the order through December 31 of 1956 and to the entire August-December period in subsequent years. It was testified that the supply plant presently serving the market would probably ship 70 percent or more of its available supply in each of the specified months. However, the increasingly common practice of bottling milk only 5 or 6 days per week and unforeseeable fluctuations in Class I sales and, more particularly, in receipts from producers would make it exceedingly difficult for a country plant to average so high a rate of shipment in each of the specified months. A 50 percent standard will assure the market that any supply plant which qualifies thereunder will, in fact, be a major supplier to distributing plants.

Any supply plant should qualify as a pool plant in the first month in which it ships 50 percent of its available supply. Commonly, any new supply plant would become associated with the market during one of the fall months, but it is entirely conceivable that rearrangement of receiving facilities could occur even during the months of flush production. It is, therefore, provided that the supply plant qualify for the first and each succeeding month that it ships the 50 percent, but that it would not stay qualified without making shipments during the flush months unless it had been part of the market supply during the preceding short months.

The shipping percentages are computed on the basis of the "available" supply. The operator of the supply plant currently serving the Topeka market with bulk milk also has a sizeable bottling and distribution operation in local areas outside of the Topeka marketing area. The volume of such sales is, of course, fairly constant throughout the year and the quantity of milk so disposed of is not, as a practical matter, available to Topeka distributors. The bottling of milk for local sale is a rather common operation at supply plants. These sales would be reported as Class I utilization and would be fully subject to the order. Such sales should be deducted from the total receipts of milk at a supply plant to determine the total quantity which is available for the Topeka market. The quantities shipped to Topeka distributors should then be divided by the available supply rather than by the total supply to determine whether the 50 percent requirement has been met.

On the other hand, this particular supply plant has also sold bulk supplemental milk to distributors at plants in Texas and other markets outside of Topeka. The purpose of the supply plant definition is to determine whether any given operation is primarily associated with Topeka or with some other market. Obviously, any plant which ships more of its available bulk supply of milk to Texas or other markets than to Topeka cannot logically be considered a part of the Topeka supply and should not be carried in the Topeka pool during the succeeding flush period.

It was further proposed that supply plant shipments be directly related to the need for Class I milk at the distributing plant through an allocation procedure. It appears, however, that the present standards for distributing plants provide a degree of Class I identification. The order now requires that a distributing plant must keep 50 percent of its total receipts in Class I during the months of July through February and 40 percent during the months of March, April, May and June in order to qualify as a pool plant. This requirement should be broadened to include not only the milk received at the distributing plant directly from producers' farms but also that shipped in from supply plants. Another safeguard against the possibility that country plants will ship milk without regard to Class I needs, merely to participate in the marketwide pool, is provided by denying a location adjustment on milk shipped in excess of Class I use.

The addition of a supply plant definition does not significantly affect those provisions of the order relating to unpriced milk. These now provide that if other source milk is received at a pool plant and allocated to Class I, there will be compensatory payments except in circumstances when producer milk is not available. In the past, during the months when supplemental milk has been obtained by handlers, producer milk has not been available, and compensatory payments have not been assessed. The nearby plant which has performed a supply plant function has furnished milk to a distributing plant under these circumstances. If this plant, or others performing similar functions, qualify as pool plants, their total supply of milk will be priced.

Review of the order provisions relating to pool plant definitions and unpriced milk disclose that if supplemental milk was received from a plant regulated under another Federal order and allocated to Class I, it would be subject to any compensatory payments which might apply. Apparently such a situation has not arisen, but it should be provided for. Since such milk would already have been priced under the original order in accordance with use, no further payment should be assessed. This can be accomplished by providing a separate step in the allocation provisions for milk from sources regulated under another order and by specifically exempting from compensatory payments any of such milk as may be classified as Class I under the Topeka order.

At present, the definitions of "approved dairy farmer" and "approved plant" refer both to health standards and to physical operations in the distribution of milk in the marketing area. Further operational requirements are then specified in the "pool plant" and "handler" definitions. In revising these latter definitions, it appears administratively desirable to confine the approved definition to health standards and to cover the standards for physical operations in the handler and pool plant definitions.

3. Location adjustments. Location adjustments are not provided for under the present Topeka order. Until recently, the procurement, bottling, and sale of milk was carried on exclusively by distributing plants located in or near the marketing area and location adjustments were not applicable. Only these distributing plants were defined as pool plants.

The development of supply plants makes it necessary to consider location adjustments, since such facilities are commonly located at considerable distances from the market. It is also widely recognized that distributing plants are serving much wider sales territories than they did a few years ago. It is quite possible that milk may be distributed directly in the Topeka marketing area from plants located at substantial distances from the market. If so, a location adjustment should be allowed in order to equalize the cost of such milk, at the marketing area, with the cost of milk to handlers whose plants are physically located in the area.

The location adjustments to handlers should be at the same rates as the location adjustments provided under the Kansas City order. Kansas City is the closest other Federal order market and hauling conditions are approximately the same in the two areas. The Kansas City rates appropriately reflect transportation costs.

One modification which should be made in the Kansas City location adjustment structure is occasioned by extension of the Topeka marketing area to include Lyon County and the City of Emporia. Distances should be measured from the City Hall in Emporia or in Topeka, whichever is closer.

The location adjustment to handlers should apply only on milk utilized for Class I purposes. In the case of bulk milk transferred from a supply plant to a distributing plant, an allocation procedure is necessary to determine what proportion of milk so transferred can be considered as having been used for Class I purposes at the distributing plant. This can be accomplished by deducting from the distributing plant's total Class I use the quantity of milk received at such plant directly from producers' farms. The remaining Class I utilization would be assigned to the milk received from supply plants. In case a distributing plant receives milk from more than one supply plant, the milk received from the nearest location would be assigned first to the Class I use.

The location adjustments to producers should be at the same rates as to handlers, but should apply to all the milk delivered by producers to any plant at which the location adjustments apply. Producers delivering milk to supply plants are pooled throughout the year, even though their milk may physically be received in the market only during the summer and fall months. Whenever the milk is physically needed, transportation charges are incurred for the haul from the distant plant to the marketing area. It follows that its potential value to the market, whether or not it is physically moved, is reduced by the amount of the location adjustment.

4. Base-rating. The order should not be amended to provide a base for producers entering the market after the base-setting months of September through December. A handler proposed that producers entering during any of the base-operating months of January through July be provided a base proportionate to the market average percentage of base deliveries.

In all markets where new producers are allowed to establish bases, old producers (those who had established bases during the regular base-setting months) are allowed to relinquish their old bases and establish new ones under the same conditions as apply to new producers. This is done in the interest of equity since old producers may have changed their operations or recovered from some adversity which prevailed during the base-setting period to an extent that they are almost as much new shippers as producers who had not previously been associated with the market. At the Topeka hearing, producers testified that a new producer provision coupled with one for relinquishing old bases would greatly reduce the effectiveness of the base plan in leveling production.

The extensive intermingling of Topeka and Kansas City shippers must also be considered in this connection. The base-rating plans in the two markets are now identical. Any substantial change in the operation of the plan, particularly in the smaller of the two markets, might seriously disrupt competitive relationships and affect the relative supply of milk in the two markets.

The base-rating provisions should be changed, however, to accommodate shippers to any plants which may qualify as supply plants this fall. This can be accomplished in the same fashion as bases were established in the fall of 1954 when these provisions of the order first became effective. Producers shipping to newly qualified supply plants should be permitted either to establish bases on their deliveries during the period from the effective date of the amending order through December 1956 or to have a base computed from verifiable delivery records for the entire period September through December 1956.

5. Class II price. Producers testified that they did not consider the present Class II price provisions of the order appropriate to the marketing area as proposed to be extended.

The most obvious deficiency concerns the list of local manufacturing plants on which the Class II price has been based. One of the three plants has discontinued operations entirely. Another plant is operated in conjunction with a Grade A receiving station which is a regulated supply plant under the Kansas City order. The third plant is operated by the major handler under the Topeka order. In addition to its manufacturing plant at Topeka, this handler also maintains a receiving station at Emporia which frequently accepts surplus milk from fluid handlers in that locality in addition to milk from ungraded shippers. This milk is then transported to the Topeka plant for processing.

There are manufacturing plants in Kansas which are not associated with fluid milk operations under Federal orders, and the local plant price should be based upon a representative number of such plants. Three such plants are already used for similar purposes under other Federal orders. These are the Borden Company plant at Ft. Scott, Kansas; the Pet Milk Company plant at Iola, Kansas; both condenseries; and the Arkansas City Cooperative Milk Association plant at Arkansas City, Kansas, a plant which specializes in the manufacture of butter and nonfat dry milk. Other plants which appear appropriate for this use include the Carnation Company plant at Girard, Kansas, a condensery, and the Swift and Company plant at Parsons, Kansas, which specializes in the manufacture of American cheese.

The Class II price should be strengthened by using a butter-powder formula as an alternative to the local plant price during the months of lowest production, August through January. To date, the Topeka handlers do not appear to have acquired supplies in excess of Class I needs. During 1955, substantial quantities of milk were imported for Class I purposes in the months of September, October, and November. However, either the present handlers or the prospective new ones may in the future be encouraged to build up Grade A supplies in excess of bottling needs if Class II prices are too low in relation to the values of the resulting products.

One indication that the local plant prices are not fully representative of the value of milk for Class II uses during the short season is that they have been substantially lower than those prevailing in nearby markets. The Kansas City Class II price for the 6 months of low production (September through February in that market) are established by the basic formula price. During the period September 1955 through February 1956 they averaged 35.7 cents above the Topeka Class II price. In the Wichita and Southwest Kansas markets, the Class II price is the average price paid at manufacturing plants throughout the United States. In the same 6-month period these averaged 10.5 cents higher than Topeka. For the 12-month period March 1955 through February 1956 the Topeka Class II price averaged 21.6 cents below the Kansas City price and 10.3 cents below Wichita and Southwest Kansas. Clearly, the Topeka Class II prices are substantially below those applying to similar uses in adjacent Federal order markets and below the U. S. average price for manufacturing grade milk.

Another indication that the Class II price does not fully reflect manufacturing values is the payment by manufacturing plants of premiums over the reported prices on which the Class II price is based. A research study by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, cited at the hearing, disclosed that during the years 1951 through 1953 supplemental payments were substantial. They consisted mainly of hauling subsidies and quality payments. It was testified that the latter are still in effect. Also, it was pointed out that these premiums are of such magnitude that producers can gain a price advantage by marketing their excess milk directly at manufacturing plants rather than through their regular handlers.

In the months of August through January, only a comparatively small proportion of Topeka receipts are utilized for Class II purposes. In the period August 1955 through January 1956 the percentage of producer milk in Class II ranged from lows of 2 percent in August and September to a high of 26 percent in January and averaged 16 percent. During these months a substantial portion of such producer milk as is classified as Class II is utilized for cottage cheese or ice cream in the handler's plants. It is commonly recognized that milk for these uses commands a premium over milk for other manufacturing uses. For example, in mid-June 1956, a plant at Emporia was paying 31 cents per hundredweight over the Topeka Class II price for milk for use in the manufacture of ice cream. Moreover, during this period, there is little or no need to incur the expense of transporting surplus milk from handlers' plants to manufacturing plants for processing.

The butter-powder formula should be computed by subtracting 3 cents from the price of 92-score butter at Chicago, adding a 20 percent yield factor, multiplying by 3.8, the standard test of milk, and adding a value of the nonfat portion obtained by deducting 5.5 cents from the average prices of spray and roller process nonfat dry milk at Chicago area plants and multiplying by a yield factor of 7. This formula does not result in as high a level of prices as that proposed by producers. However, from August 1955 through January 1956 it would have increased the Class II price by an average of 21.2 cents per hundredweight. In view of the available outlets for Class II milk, it is concluded that the increases provided herein are appropriate to conditions as they exist in the market at this time.

The local plant price should be used during the months of February through July and the butter-powder alternative should be applied during the remaining months of August through January. The February through July period is the same as that used for operation of the base-excess plan. Producers specifically testified that the base-operating months should not be changed. It is noted, however, that the records of receipts and utilization for recent years shows that July through December are the 6 months of lowest supply in relation to sales and that January through June are the months of highest production. If interested parties in the market consider it likely that July will continue to be one of the short months instead of one of the months of flush production, it would be appropriate to change the months of the base-operating period, those applying to pool plant qualification, and those in which the butter-powder price is part of the Class II formula.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of interested parties in the market. The briefs contained suggested findings of fact, conclusions, and argument with respect to the proposals discussed at the hearing. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions herein set forth. To the extent that such suggested findings and conclusions contained in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied.

Recommended marketing agreement and amendment to the order. The following order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Topeka, Kansas, marketing area, is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The proposed marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as amended, and as proposed here to be further amended.

1. Revise § 980.5 to read as follows:

§ 980.5 Topeka, Kansas, marketing area. The "Topeka, Kansas, marketing area," hereinafter called the "marketing area", means the cities of Topeka and Emporia, and all of the territories included within the counties of Shawnee and Lyon, all in the state of Kansas.

2. Revise § 980.6 to read as follows:

§ 980.6 Approved dairy farmer. "Approved dairy farmer" means any person who delivers to an approved plant milk:

(a) Approved under a permit or rating issued by the health authority of any municipal or State government for the production of milk to be disposed of as Grade A milk; or

(b) Acceptable to agencies of the United States Government for fluid consumption in its institutions or bases as Type I; Type II, No. 1, or Type III, No. 1.

3. Revise § 980.8 to read as follows:

§ 980.8 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means any milk plant or portion thereof which is:

(a) Approved by the health authority of any municipal or State government for the handling of milk for consumption as Grade A milk in the marketing area; or

(b) Approved for the supplying of milk to any agency of the United States Government located within the marketing area.

4. Revise § 980.9 to read as follows:

§ 980.9 Pool plant. A "pool plant" shall be any plant meeting the conditions of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, except the plant of a producer-handler:

(a) Any approved plant, hereinafter referred to as a "distributing plant", from which during the month the quantity of milk disposed of as Class I milk on a route(s) in the marketing area is equal during April, May, June, or July to 20 percent of the receipts at such plant of milk from approved dairy farmers or from other approved plants, or during August through March to 25 percent of such receipts: Provided, That the total quantity of milk disposed of as Class I milk on routes from such plants is equal during April, May, June, or July to 40 percent of the receipts at such plant of milk from approved dairy farmers or from other approved plants, or during August through March to 50 percent of such receipts; or

(b) Any approved plant, hereinafter referred to as a "supply plant," from which, during the month not less than 50 percent of its supply of milk from approved dairy farmers, less any milk regularly disposed of as Class I on routes other than transfers to other handlers, is moved to a distributing plant(s): Provided, That any supply plant which has shipped to a distributing plant(s) the required percentage of its supply of milk from approved dairy farmers during each of the months of October, November, and December 1956, and, in subsequent years, during each of the months of August through December, shall be a pool plant for each of the following months of January through July.

(c) For the purpose of this definition, the following shall apply:

(1) Milk diverted from an approved plant for the account of the handler operating such approved plant shall be considered a receipt at the approved plant from which it was diverted; and

(2) Milk diverted from an approved plant to another milk plant for the account of a cooperative association which does not operate a plant shall be deemed to have been received by such cooperative association at a pool plant.

5. Revise § 980.10 to read as follows:

§ 980.10 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person in his capacity as operator of a pool plant, (b) any person who operates an approved plant from which Class I products are disposed of on a route(s) in the marketing area, or (c) any cooperative association with respect to the milk of any producer which such cooperative association causes to be diverted from a pool plant to another milk plant for the account of such cooperative association.

6a. In § 980.46 (a), add the following new subparagraphs (2) and (3) to read as follows:

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk other than that to be subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph;

(3) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act;

b. In § 980.46 (a) change the designation of the existing subparagraphs "(3)", "(4)", "(5)", and "(6)" to "(4)", "(5)", "(6)" and "(7)", respectively.

7. Revise § 980.50 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Class II milk. The price of Class II milk in delivery periods during the months of February through July shall be equal to the price specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and during the months of August through January shall be the higher of the prices specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) The average price ascertained by the market administrator to have been paid for ungraded milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received during such delivery period at the following plants:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Ft. Scott, Kansas;
Carnation Co., Girard, Kansas;
Pet Milk Co., Iola, Kansas;
Arkansas City Cooperative Milk Association, Arkansas City, Kansas;
Swift & Co., Parsons, Kansas; or

(2) A price equal to the sum of the plus values of the following computations:

(i) From the simple average, as computed by the market administration, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the mid-point of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 3.8.

(ii) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b., manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the United States Department of Agriculture, deduct 5.5 cents, and multiply by 7.

8. Add a § 980.52 as follows:

§ 980.52 Location adjustments to handlers. (a) For milk which is received from producers at a pool plant located more than 50 miles by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the City Hall in either Topeka or Emporia, whichever is closer, and which is classified as Class I milk the prices computed pursuant to § 980.51 (a) shall be reduced by 16 cents if such plant is located more than 50 miles, but not more than 70 miles from such city hall and by an additional one-half cent for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 70 miles.

(b) Milk moved in bulk from a supply plant as defined in § 980.9 (b) to a distributing plant as defined in § 980.9 (a) shall be considered to be Class I milk to the extent that the Class I milk disposed of from the distributing plant exceeds receipts of milk from producers' farms: Provided, That if milk is received by a distributing plant from more than one supply plant, the milk so classified as Class I shall be deemed to have been transferred from the supply plants in the order of their least distance from the applicable city hall.

9. Delete the proviso in § 980.66 (a) and substitute therefor the following: "Provided, That the daily base applicable during the delivery periods of February through July 1957 for producers delivering milk to any plant qualifying as a pool plant pursuant to § 980.9 (b) shall be the higher of that resulting from such computation or that resulting from an identical computation with respect to milk received from such producer during the delivery periods from the effective date hereof through December 1956."

Filed at Washington, D. C. this 12th day of September 1956.

FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

RHODODENDRONS UNDER POSTENTRY QUARANTINE

Notice is hereby given under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that the Administrator of the Agricultural Research Service, pursuant to sections 5 and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 159, 162), is considering the amendment of § 319.37-19 (c) of the regulations supplemental to the quarantine relating to the importation of nursery stock, plants, and seeds (7 CFR 319.37-19 (c); 21 F. R. 2589) by revising the item therein relating to "Rhododendron spp., including azaleas (evergreen plants of all species and varieties; and any deciduous species or varieties in foliage)" to read as follows:

Plants to be grown under postentry quarantine	Where imported from
Rhododendron spp., including azaleas (evergreen plants of all species and varieties; and any deciduous species or varieties in foliage).	Europe (except The Netherlands), Asia, New Zealand, and North America north of the United States-Canadian border. (If the United States Department of Agriculture acquires evidence it considers to be conclusive, indicating that the rust, Chrysomyxa ledi (Alb. & Schw.) d By. var. rhododendri (DC.) Savile (formerly known as C. rhododendri (DC.) d By.), does not occur within any country in the areas named and that it is being prevented entry therein by adequate plant quarantine measures, such plants shall be permitted entry in accordance with the provisions of § 319.37–6.)

This amendment would exempt Rhododendron spp. (including azaleas) of the categories designated, imported from The Netherlands, from the list of restricted material that is to be grown under postentry quarantine.

The United States Department of Agriculture has acquired evidence which it considers to be conclusive that the rust, Chrysomyxa ledi (Alb. & Schw.) d By. var. rhododendri (DC.) Savile, does not occur in The Netherlands and that the rust is being prevented entry therein by adequate plant quarantine measures. Therefore, such Rhododendron spp. would be permitted entry in accordance with the provisions of § 319.37–6.

The acquired evidence that is considered to be conclusive includes negative rust surveys in Holland during 1948, 1955 and 1956 by plant pathologists of the Department. Furthermore, the disease has not been observed by either Federal or State inspectors in any Holland-grown azaleas or rhododendrons grown here under post-entry quarantine. There are no known authentic reports in world literature of occurrence of the rust in The Netherlands, nor has the rust ever been observed in Holland-grown Rhododendron spp. offered for import into the United States. Also, a formal statement has been received from the Phytopathological Service of The Netherlands affirming that this species of rust does not occur in that country and citing the quarantine measures adopted to prevent its entry from other countries. These quarantine measures are deemed adequate.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments in connection with this matter should file the same with the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch, Agricultural Research Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after the date of the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA ET AL.

ORDER AMENDING ORDER REOPENING PROCEEDINGS

In the matters of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, Docket No. G-4280, Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation, Docket No. G-4281, Warren Petroleum Corporation, Docket No. G-4282, Oil Drilling, Inc., et al., Docket No. G-4283, Lone Star Gas Company, Docket No. G-8763.

The proceedings in the above matters were reopened by order issued July 26, 1956, upon a joint petition to reopen proceedings in the first three dockets listed for the purpose of allowing petitioners to offer in evidence amendments to their gas purchase contracts entered into subsequent to the conclusion of the hearings thereon. By subsequent notice from the Secretary, the further hearing was scheduled for October 15, 1956, to be held in the hearing room of the Commission, 441 G Street NW.

Question has been raised as to the scope of the further hearing, and the matter should be clarified as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceedings in Docket Nos. G-4280, G-4281, G-4282, G-4283, and G-8763 are hereby reopened for the purpose of allowing the submission in evidence of amendments to those gas purchase contracts entered into subsequent to the conclusion of the hearings thereon.

(B) The hearing heretofore scheduled for October 15, 1956, shall commence instead on October 1, 1956, at 10 a. m. (e. d. s. t.) in a hearing room of the Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C.

H. L. HUNT

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

H. L. Hunt (Applicant) on August 13, 1956, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate is contained in the following designated filing which is proposed to become effective on the date shown.

Description; Purchaser; Rate Schedule Designation; and Effective Date [1]

Notice of change (undated); Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation; Supplement No. 7 to Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 7; November 1, 1956.

Applicant states that the proposed change covers a periodic rate increase for gas sold to the purchaser in Bienville Parish, Louisiana. The rate proposed to be increased was suspended by Order issued October 28, 1955, in Docket No. G-9553 and was permitted to become effective subject to refund by Order issued May 4, 1956.

The increased rates and charges proposed by the aforesaid filing of Supplement No. 7 have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

[1] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice, or the effective date proposed by Applicant, if later.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed changed rates and charges; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement be and the same hereby is suspended and the use thereof deferred until April 1, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

MIDSTATES OIL CORP.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

Midstates Oil Corporation (Applicant) on August 8, 1956, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change which constitutes an increased rate is contained in the following designated filing which is proposed to become effective on the date shown.

Description; Purchaser; Rate Schedule Designation; and Effective Date [1]

Notice of change dated August 6, 1956; United Fuel Gas Company; Supplement No. 2 to Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 36; November 1, 1956.

Applicant states that the proposed change covers a periodic rate increase for gas sold to the purchaser in Acadia Parish, Louisiana. The rate proposed to be increased was suspended by Order issued September 23, 1955 in Docket No. G-9387 and was permitted to become effective subject to refund by Order issued May 10, 1956.

The increased rates and charges proposed by the aforesaid filing of Supplement No. 2 have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of said proposed changed rates and charges; and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement be and the same hereby is suspended and the use thereof deferred until April 1, 1957, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(B) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Issued: September 11, 1956.

Subchapter B—Loans, Purchases, and Other Operations

[1956 C. C. C. Corn Bulletin A]

PART 421—GRAINS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

SUBPART—1956-CROP CORN PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM

COMPLIANCE WITH ACREAGE REQUIREMENTS

Sec.
421.1726 Administration.
421.1727 Applicability of §§ 421.1726 through 421.1734.
421.1728 Definitions (other than corn acreage).
421.1729 Definition of corn acreage and provisions relating thereto.
421.1730 Compliance requirements; producers.
421.1731 Effect of unknowingly exceeding farm acreage limitations; method of determination.
421.1732 Appeals.

AUTHORITY: §§ 421.1726 to 421.1732 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070 as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 401, 408, 63 Stat. 1054, 68 Stat. 904; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1421, 1428, 7 U. S. C. 1374.

§ 421.1726 Administration. The 1956-crop corn price support program will be administered by the Commodity Stabilization Service, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, Commodity Credit Corporation, and will be carried out in the field by the State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees (hereinafter referred to as State and county committees). State and county committees do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments or supplements thereto.

§ 421.1727 Applicability of §§ 421.1726 through 421.1732. Sections 421.1726 through 421.1732 state the eligibility requirements of producers of corn under the 1956-crop Corn Price Support Program in the 1956 commercial corn producing area, and are in addition to other regulations to be issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation governing eligibility for price support.

§ 421.1728 Definitions (other than corn acreage). As used in this subpart, and in all instructions, forms and documents in connection herewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meaning herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm or range land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm or range land which the county committee determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit in producing range livestock or with respect to the rotation of crops, and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other land; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(b) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, trust, or other business enterprise or legal entity, and wherever applicable, a State, political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(c) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and control of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(d) "Producer" means any person having an interest in the corn crop as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper.

(e) "Corn acreage allotment" means that corn acreage allotment established for the farm under 7 CFR Part 721, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER under date of January 26, 1956 (21 F. R. 574), and any amendments thereto.

(f) "Soil bank corn base" means that base acreage established for the farm after applying the factor of 117.8 to the 1956 corn acreage allotment under Part 485 of this chapter as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER June 22, 1956 (21 F. R. 4379) and amendments thereto.

(g) The higher level of price support for counties in the commercial corn-producing area means the county price support rate established on the basis of the higher of the $1.50 per bushel minimum national average price support level, or 82½ percent of the parity price for corn as of October 1, 1956, the beginning of the marketing year.

(h) The lower level of price support for counties in the commercial corn-producing area means the county price support rate which is 25 cents per bushel lower than the higher rate.

(i) "Commercial corn-producing area" means the area designated by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to section 301 (b) (4) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The designation of the commercial corn-producing area for 1956 appears in 7 CFR 721.702 (20 F. R. 8666).

§ 421.1729 Definition of corn acreage and provisions relating thereto—(a) Corn acreage. "Corn acreage" means the number of acres of land on which field corn, including sweet corn produced for feed or silage, is planted alone or interplanted with other crops except that acreage planted to field corn, in excess of the corn acreage allotment or in excess of the soil bank corn base if the producer participates in the Soil Bank Program, will not be considered to be corn acreage if, on or before a date established by the county committee and approved by the State committee, the product of such excess acreage (1) is plowed or disced under, or (2) is totally destroyed by causes beyond the control of the operator, unless the operator indicates in writing to the county committee, or an authorized representative thereof, that such destroyed acreage should be classified as corn acreage. Such date to be established by the county committee shall not be later than the date that corn normally starts to tassle in the county or areas within the county. The State committee shall notify the Director, Grain Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, of the date(s) so established.

(b) Provisions. (1) The acreage planted to corn shall be measured by the county committee's authorized representatives. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corn acreage planted to corn may be estimated rather than measured where the operator or his representative has not entered into a Soil Bank agreement, the operator estimates on form CSS–578 the corn acreage to be larger than the farm allotment, the operator indicates in writing on such form that he will not apply for price support at the higher level for the county, and the county office manager determines, after discussion with the operator, that the other producer(s) interested in the 1956 corn crop on the farm will not apply for price support on corn at the higher level for the county. The above measurements or estimates shall be made without cost to the operator or producers.

(2) In the event that corn acreage is estimated, it shall be measured, (i) if the operator or one of the other interested producers, or a representative of either, subsequently enters into a Soil Bank agreement in which event the measurement shall be without cost to the operator, or (ii) if he indicates in writing he will apply for the higher level of price support for the county, adjust the acreage to the corn acreage allotment not later than the date established by the county for adjusting planted acreage to the corn acreage allotment, and if he pays the cost of measurement. The acreage in excess of the allotment must be adjusted to the allotment not later than the above described date, even though the acreage has not been measured by the county committee's authorized representatives or the operator notified of the measured acreage on or before such date. It shall be solely the responsibility of the interested producer to ascertain from the county ASC office the date established by the county committee for adjusting planted acreage and to assure that the acreage is adjusted to the corn acreage allotment. The acreage determined by measurement of the county committee's authorized representatives shall be the corn acreage for the farm. In the event none of the interested producers requests measurement, the corn produced on such farm shall be eligible for price support at the lower level for the county. Subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph shall not apply in cases covered by this subparagraph and in cases where the producer has entered into a Soil Bank agreement.

(3) If measurement of the acreage planted to corn establishes that the acreage on such farm is in excess of the corn acreage allotment, the operator shall be mailed a written notice on Form CSS–599, showing the measured acreage and the aforementioned final date for adjusting planted acreage at least 15 days in advance thereof: Provided, That if such notice is not mailed at least 15 days prior to such established date, the period during which such planted acreage may be adjusted to the corn acreage allotment either by plowing or discing, or by destruction by causes beyond the control of the operator, shall be extended until 15 days from the date the notice is mailed.

(4) The acreage of corn stated on Form CSS–599 shall be deemed to be the corn acreage for the purpose of determining the operator's eligibility for the higher level of price support, except that if the operator or other interested producers notifies the county ASC office on or before the date specified on Form CSS–599 of his intention to adjust the planted acreage to the corn acreage allotment, the acreage determined on remeasurement shall be the corn acreage. The date specified on the Form CSS–599 for notifying the county ASC office of an intention to adjust shall be the last date on which the adjustment may be made.

§ 421.1730 Compliance requirements; producers—(a) Commercial corn-producing area. (1) A producer shall be eligible for the higher level of price support for the county on corn produced in 1956 on a farm in the commercial corn-producing area—(i) if the county committee determines that the 1956-crop corn acreage on such farm is not in excess of the corn acreage allotment established under the provisions of §§ 721.710 to 722.722 inclusive, of 7 CFR Part 721, or (ii) if the producer during 1956 devotes an acreage of land equal to 15 percent of the farm Soil Bank corn base to the acreage reserve program for corn under the provisions of §§ 485.101 to 485.132 of this chapter (21 F. R. 4379), and amendments thereto or to the conservation reserve program under the provisions of §§ 485.150 to 485.182 of this chapter (21 F. R. 6289) and amendments thereto, or to a combination of the two, and if his 1956 corn acreage does not exceed the farm Soil Bank corn base for 1956.

(2) Any producer in the commercial corn-producing area who does not qualify under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for the higher level of price support shall be eligible for the lower level of price support for the county on corn produced on a farm in 1956.

(b) Outside the commercial corn-producing area. Any producer outside of the commercial corn-producing area shall be eligible for price support at the applicable rate for the respective county.

§ 421.1731 Effect of unknowingly exceeding farm acreage limitations; method of determination. The corn acreage on a farm shall not be considered to be in excess of the corn acreage allotment or the farm Soil Bank corn base, whichever is applicable, unless the operator knowingly exceeded such acreage limitation. If the corn acreage limitation is in fact exceeded, it shall be considered as having been knowingly exceeded unless the operator of a farm establishes, to the satisfaction of CCC, any of the following conditions:

(a) Through no fault of the operator, the corn acreage was not measured or he was not notified of the measured acreage(s) in time to dispose of the excess acreage in the manner specified in § 421.1729 (a) on or before the date established pursuant to such section;

(b) The operator received an erroneous notice of his measured acreage and acted in good faith on the basis of such notice, and was not notified of the corrected acreage in time to dispose of the excess acreage in the manner specified in § 421.1729 (a) on or before the date established pursuant to such section, and with respect to both paragraph (a) of this section and this paragraph, the operator made a reasonable effort by measuring or otherwise to comply with the corn acreage allotment or the Soil Bank corn base, whichever is applicable. (Paragraph (a) of this section and this paragraph do not apply to a producer whose corn acreage was first estimated under § 421.1729 (b) and later measured pursuant to the provisions of said section); or

(c) The operator received an erroneous notice of the corn acreage allotment and acted in good faith on the basis of such notice. The operator will be considered to have acted in good faith on the basis of the erroneous notice if the acreage planted to corn on the farm was adjusted to the allotment contained in the erroneous notice within the time limits for adjustment of excess acreage as provided in § 421.1729, and the operator did not have good cause to believe that the acreage allotment notice was in error. To determine this fact, the date of any corrected notice in relation to the time of planting; the size of the farm; the amount of corn customarily planted, and all other pertinent facts shall be taken into consideration. If the county committee determines that the operator was justified in relying on the erroneous notice of corn acreage allotment for the farm, such determination shall be subject to review and approval by the State committee before the erroneous allotment is used by the county committee to determine the corn acreage for the farm.

§ 421.1732 Appeals. Any producer who is dissatisfied with any determination of the county committee respecting his compliance or eligibility, may, within 15 days after notification to him of such determination by the county committee, appeal to the State committee in writing. Such appeal should contain all the facts constituting the basis of his claim that the county committee determination is improper.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 12th day of September 1956.

Acting Secretary.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar) Department of Agriculture

Subchapter G—Determination of Proportionate Shares

[Sugar Determination 850.30, Supp. 2]

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

IDAHO PROPORTIONATE SHARE AREAS AND FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Idaho State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for dividing the State into proportionate share areas and establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 80,054 acres established for Idaho by the determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such committee at 1524 Vista Street, Boise, Idaho, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Idaho. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.32 Idaho—(a) Proportionate share areas. Idaho shall be divided into five proportionate share areas as served by beet sugar companies. These areas shall be designated as follows: Amalgamated, Nampa-Nyssa; Amalgamated, Twin Falls-Burley-Rupert, and Layton; Utah-Idaho; Franklin County; and American Crystal. Acreage allotments for these areas shall be computed by applying to the planted sugar beet acreage records for each area a weighting of 80 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production" and a weighting of 20 percent to the largest acreage of any of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce", with a floor of 93.3 percent of the 1953–54 average acreage and with pro-rata adjustments to a total of 80,054 acres, except that the 1956-crop allotment for any area shall not be less than the 1955-crop allotment established for the area. Acreage allotments computed as aforestated are established as follows: Amalgamated, Nampa-Nyssa Area—28,854 acres; Amalgamated, Twin Falls-Burley-Rupert, and Layton Area—32,352 acres; Utah-Idaho Area—13,781 acres; Franklin County Area—4,851 acres; and American Crystal Area—216 acres.

(b) Set-asides of acreage. Set-asides of acreage shall be made from each area allotment of 1 percent for new producers and 1 percent for appeals. In addition, acreages for making adjustments in initial proportionate shares shall be set aside as follows: Amalgamated, Nampa-Nyssa Area—0 acres; Amalgamated, Twin Falls-Burley-Rupert and Layton Area—1,116.3 acres; Utah-Idaho Area—260.3 acres; Franklin County Area—171.4 acres; and American Crystal Area—125.3 acres.

(c) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC County Office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(d) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares—(1) For new producers. Within the acreage set aside for new producers in each proportionate share area, proportionate shares shall be established in an equitable manner for farms to be operated during the 1956-crop year by new producers (as defined in § 850.30) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(2) For second-year producers. For each farm operated in the 1956-crop year by a second-year producer (as defined in § 850.30), an initial proportionate share shall be established equal to the initial 1955-crop share established for such farm.

(3) For old producers—(i) Farm bases. For each farm operated by an old producer (any producer except a new producer or a second-year producer) the farm base shall be established as follows:

(a) Amalgamated, Nampa-Nyssa Area. For each farm in the Amalgamated, Nampa-Nyssa Area whose operator is not a tenant in the 1956-crop season, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm, and for each farm in such area whose operator is a tenant in the 1956-crop season, a farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm, or the planted sugar beet acreage record of the producer, whichever gives the higher base. Such farm base shall be computed by giving a weighting of 80 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production" and a weighting of 20 percent to the largest acreage of the crops 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce".

(b) Amalgamated, Twin Falls-Burley-Rupert, and Layton Area. For each farm in the Amalgamated, Twin Falls-Burley-Rupert, and Layton Area, the farm base shall be computed from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm by giving a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954 as a measure of "past production" and a weighting of 25 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1953–54, as a measure of "ability to produce".

(c) Utah-Idaho Area. For each farm in the Utah-Idaho Area, the farm base shall be computed from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm by giving a weighting of 70 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 30 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1953–54 as a measure of "ability to produce".

(d) Franklin County Area. For each farm in the Franklin County Area, the farm base shall be computed from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm by giving a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 25 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1953–54 as a measure of "ability to produce".

(e) American Crystal Area. For each farm in the American Crystal Area, the farm base shall be established at the average planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm for the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of both "past production" and "ability to produce", except that minimum bases shall be effective as follows: 85 percent of the 1954 acreage, if beets were planted in 1953 and 1954; 80 percent of the 1954 acreage, if beets were planted in 1954 only; and 70 percent of the 1953 acreage if beets were planted in 1953 only.

(ii) Initial proportionate shares. Initial proportionate shares shall be established from farm bases in each area on a pro rata basis so that the total of the farm shares equals the area allotment less the prescribed set-asides and the initial shares of second-year producers, provided that in the Amalgamated, Nampa-Nyssa Area for each farm on which the 1954 acreage was four acres or less, the proportionate share shall be not less than the 1954 acreage.

(4) Adjustments in initial shares. Within the acreage available from the set-aside for adjustments, and from acreage of initial shares in excess of requested acreages in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in initial farm proportionate shares for old producers and second-year producers so as to establish a proportionate share for each farm which is fair and equitable as compared with proportionate shares for all other farms in the area by taking into consideration availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(5) Adjustments under appeals. Within the acreage set aside for making adjustments under appeals and any other acreage remaining unused in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in proportionate shares under appeals to establish fair and equitable farm shares in accordance with the provisions of § 850.30 applicable to appeals.

(6) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the exent of acreage available within the allotment for each proportionate share area from underplanting and failure to plant, and unused acreage from setasides and other sources, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season. Insofar as practicable, acreage remaining unused in any area shall be reallotted to the other areas wherein it may be used.

(7) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none", and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on another form SU–103 if the adjustment results from an appeal, otherwise on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(8) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Idaho State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in Idaho in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

In general, the bases and procedures specified herein are the same as those which were effective in the State for the 1955 crop. Idaho is again divided into five areas, which division is considered reasonable and appropriate considering geographical locations, the operation of sugar beet processing plants and the organization of advisory committees including grower and processor representatives. Farm proportionate shares of old producers are established under formulas which measure "past production" and "ability to produce" sugar beets. These standards are reflected in the initial farm shares established for second-year producers, which coincide with their initial 1955-crop shares, as provided under § 850.30. The procedure for establishing farm shares for new producers meets the related requirements of such section.

The bases and procedure for making adjustments in initial proportionate shares and for adjusting shares subsequently because of unused acreage and appeals are designed to provide a fair and equitable proportionate share for each farm of the total acreage of sugar beets required to enable the domestic sugar area to meet its quota and provide a normal carryover inventory.

[Sugar Determination 850.30, Supp. 5]

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

MINNESOTA PROPORTIONATE SHARE AREAS AND FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Minnesota State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for dividing the State into proportionate share areas and establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 67,263 acres established for Minnesota by the Determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such Committee at Room 1104, Main Post Office Building, St. Paul, Minnesota, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Minnesota. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.35 Minnesota—(a) Proportionate share areas. Minnesota shall be divided into two proportionate share areas comprising the East Grand Forks-Crookston-Moorhead and the Chaska-Mason City factory districts of the State. These areas shall be designated the "Northwestern Area" and the "Southern Area", respectively. Acreage allotments for these areas shall be computed by applying to the planted sugar beet acreage record for each area a weighting of 90 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 10 percent to the largest acreage of any of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce", with pro rata adjustments to a total of 67,263 acres. Acreage allotments computed as aforestated are established as follows: Northwestern Area—54,355 acres and Southern Area—12,908 acres.

(b) Set-asides of acreage. Set-asides of acreage shall be made from area allotments as follows: Northwestern Area—543.6 acres for new producers, 543.6 acres for appeals; and 331.2 acres for adjustments in initial shares; Southern Area—644 acres for new producers, 129.1 acres for appeals and 0 acre for adjustments in initial shares.

(c) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC County Office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(d) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares—(1) For new producers. Within the acreage set aside for new producers in each proportionate share area, proportionate shares shall be established in an equitable manner for farms to be operated during the 1956-crop year by new producers (as defined in § 850.30) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(2) For second-year producers. For each farm operated in the 1956-crop year by a second-year producer (as defined in § 850.30) an initial proportionate share shall be established equal to the initial 1955-crop share established for such farm.

(3) For old producers—(i) Farm bases—(a) Northwestern Area. For each farm in the Northwestern Area whose operator is not a tenant in the 1956-crop season, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm accruing to the landowner under the effective cropping arrangements. For each farm in such area whose operator is a tenant in the 1956-crop season, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the operator, provided that if both the person who was a crop-share tenant of land on which beets were planted in any year of such period and the person who was the owner of the same land file requests for proportionate shares, the acreage history of such land shall be divided between such tenant and owner on the basis of the effective crop shares. Such farm base shall be computed by giving a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 25 percent to the largest acreage of the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce", with minimum acreages as follows: If sugar beets were planted in all three years of the 1952–54 period, or in 1953 and 1954 only, the larger of 90 percent of the 1953–54 average acreage and 75 percent of the 1954 acreage; and if sugar beets were planted in 1952 and 1954 or 1954 only, 75 percent of the 1954 acreage.

(b) Southern Area. For each farm in the Southern Area whose operator is not a tenant in the 1956-crop season, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm accruing to the land owner under the effective cropping arrangements. For each farm in such area whose operator is a tenant in the 1956-crop season, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the operator, provided that if both the person who was a crop-share tenant of land on which beets were planted in any year of such period and the person who was the owner of the same land file requests for proportionate shares, the acreage history of such land shall be divided between such tenant and owner on the basis of the effective crop shares. Such farm base shall be computed by giving a weighting of 50 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 50 percent to the largest acreage of the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce", with minimum acreages as follows: If sugar beets were planted in 1952 or 1953 only, 50 percent of the acreage for such one year; and if sugar beets were planted in 1954 only, 75 percent of the acreage for such year.

(ii) Initial proportionate shares. Initial proportionate shares shall be established from farm bases in each area on a pro rata basis so that the total of the farm shares equals the area allotment less the prescribed set-asides and the initial shares of second-year producers.

(4) Adjustments in initial shares. Within the acreage available from the set-aside for adjustments, and from acreage of initial shares in excess of requested acreages in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in initial farm proportionate shares for old producers and second-year producers so as to establish a proportionate share for each farm which is fair and equitable as compared with proportionate shares for all other farms in the area by taking into consideration availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(5) Adjustments under appeals. Within the acreage set aside for making adjustments under appeals and any other acreage remaining unused in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in proportionate shares under appeals to establish fair and equitable farm shares in accordance with the provisions of § 850.30 applicable to appeals.

(6) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the extent of acreage available within the allotment for each proportionate share area from underplanting and failure to plant, and unused acreage from set-asides and other sources, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season. Insofar as practicable, acreage remaining unused in any area shall be reallotted to the other area wherein it may be used.

(7) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none", and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on another form SU–103 if the adjustment results from an appeal, otherwise on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(8) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

[Sugar Determination 850.30, Supp. 7]

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

MONTANA PROPORTIONATE SHARE AREAS AND FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Montana State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for dividing the State into proportionate share areas and establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 51,248 acres established for Montana by the Determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such Committee at 211 North Grand Avenue, Bozeman, Montana, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Montana. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.37 Montana—(a) Proportionate share areas. Montana shall be divided into three proportionate share areas as served by beet sugar companies. These areas shall be designated as follows: American Crystal, Great Western and Holly. Acreage allotments for these areas shall be computed by applying to the planted sugar beet acreage record for each area a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production," and a weighting of 25 percent to the largest acreage of any of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce," with a minimum of 97.4 percent of the 1954–55 average and pro rata adjustments to a total of 51,248 acres. Acreage allotments computed as aforestated are established as follows: American Crystal Area—4,707 acres, Great Western Area—24,406 acres, and Holly Area—22,135 acres.

(b) Set-asides of acreage. Set-asides of acreage shall be made from each area allotment of 1 percent each for new producers and appeals, and for making adjustments in initial proportionate shares as follows: American Crystal Area—0 acres, Great Western Area—3,534.3 acres, and Holly area—0 acres.

(c) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC County Office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(d) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares—(1) For new producers. Within the acreage set aside for new producers in each proportionate share area, proportionate shares shall be established in an equitable manner for farms to be operated during the 1956-crop year by new producers (as defined in § 850.30) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(2) For second-year producers. For each farm operated in the 1956-crop year by a second-year producer (as defined in § 850.30) an initial proportionate share shall be established equal to the initial 1955-crop share established for such farm.

(3) For old producers—(i) Farm bases. For each farm operated by an old producer (any producer except a new producer or a second-year producer) a farm base shall be established at the average planted sugar beet acreage of the farm for the crops of 1950 through 1954 (total planted acreage divided by 5 in each case) as a measure of both "past production" and "ability to produce".

(ii) Initial proportionate shares. Initial proportionate shares shall be established from farm bases in each area on a pro rata basis so that the total of the farm shares equals the area allotment less the prescribed set-asides and the initial shares of second-year producers.

(4) Adjustments in initial shares. Within the acreage available from the set-aside for adjustments, and from acreage of initial shares in excess of requested acreages in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in initial farm proportionate shares for old producers and second-year producers so as to establish a proportionate share for each farm which is fair and equitable as compared with proportionate shares for all other farms in the area by taking into consideration availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(5) Adjustments under appeals. Within the acreage set aside for making adjustments under appeals and any other acreage remaining unused in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in proportionate shares under appeals to establish fair and equitable farm shares in accordance with the provisions of § 850.30 applicable to appeals.

(6) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the extent of acreage available within the allotment for each proportionate share area from underplanting and failure to plant, and unused acreage from set-asides and other sources, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season. Insofar as practicable, acreage remaining unused in any area shall be reallotted to the other areas wherein it may be used.

(7) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none", and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on another form SU–103 if the adjustment results from an appeal, otherwise on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(8) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Montana State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in Montana in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

In general, the bases and procedures specified herein are the same as those which were effective in the State for the 1955 crop. Montana is again divided into three areas, which division is considered reasonable and appropriate considering geographical locations, the operation of sugar beet processing plants and the organization of advisory committees including grower and processor representatives. Farm proportionate shares of old producers are established under formulas which measure "past production" and "ability to produce" sugar beets. These standards are reflected in the initial farm shares established for second-year producers, which coincide with their initial 1955-crop shares, as provided under § 850.30. The procedure for establishing farm shares for new producers meets the related requirements of such section.

The bases and procedures for making adjustments in initial proportionate shares and for adjusting shares subsequently because of unused acreage and appeals are designed to provide a fair and equitable proportionate share for each farm of the total acreage of sugar beets required to enable the domestic beet sugar area to meet its quota and provide a normal carryover inventory.

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

OREGON PROPORTIONATE SHARE AREAS AND FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Oregon State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for dividing the State into proportionate share areas and establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 17,805 acres established for Oregon by the Determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such Committee at the Ross Building, 209 S. W. 5th Avenue, Portland, Oregon, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Oregon. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.39 Oregon—(a) Proportionate share areas. Oregon shall be divided into two proportionate share areas comprising beet sugar factory districts as served by two beet sugar companies. These areas shall be designated as follows: Nampa-Nyssa and Toppenish. Acreage allotments for these areas shall be computed by applying to the planted sugar beet acreage record for each area a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 25 percent to the largest acreage of any of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce", with a floor of 99.06 percent of the 1953–54 average acreage and pro rata adjustments to a total of 17,805 acres. Acreage allotments computed as aforestated are established as follows: Nampa-Nyssa Area—15,567 acres and Toppenish Area—2,238 acres.

(b) Set-asides of acreage. Set-asides of acreage shall be made from area allotments as follows: Toppenish Area—44 acres for new producers, 22 acres for appeals, and 49 acres for adjustments in initial shares; Nampa-Nyssa Area—155.7 acres each for new producers and appeals, and 0 acres for adjustments in initial shares.

(c) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC County Office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(d) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares—(1) For new producers. Within the acreage set aside for new producers in each proportionate share area, proportionate shares shall be established in an equitable manner for farms to be operated during the 1956-crop year by new producers (as defined in § 850.30) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(2) For second-year producers. For each farm operated in the 1956-crop year by a second-year producer (as defined in § 850.30), an initial proportionate share shall be established equal to the initial 1955-crop share established for such farm.

(3) For old producers—(i) Farm bases—(a) Nampa-Nyssa Area. For each farm in the Nampa-Nyssa area whose operator is not a tenant in the 1956-crop season, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm, and for each farm in such area whose operator is a tenant in the 1956-crop season, a farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm, or the planted sugar beet acreage record of the producer, whichever gives the higher base. Such farm base shall be computed by giving a weighting of 80 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 20 percent to the largest acreage of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce".

(b) Toppenish Area. For each farm in the Toppenish area whose operator is not a tenant in the 1956-crop season or whose operator is a tenant without a personal sugar beet production record in the 1952–54 period, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm accruing to the land owner under the effective cropping arrangements. For each farm in such area whose operator is a tenant in the 1956-crop season with respect to all of the land in the farm, the farm base shall be established from the personal sugar beet acreage production record of the operator. For each farm in such area whose operator for the 1956-crop season is an owner with respect to part of the land in the farm and a tenant with respect to the balance of such land, the farm base shall be established from a combination of farm and personal acreage production records. The farm base shall be one-third of the total of the planted sugar beet acreages for the years 1952, 1953 and 1954, except that: Where there is a planted sugar beet acreage record for each of the years 1952, 1953 and 1954, the farm base shall not exceed 100 percent of the 1954 acreage nor be less than 90 percent of the 1954 acreage; where there is a planted sugar beet acreage record for 1954 and either 1952 or 1953, the farm base shall not be less than 85 percent of the 1954 acreage; and where there is a planted sugar beet acreage record for 1954 only, the farm base shall not be less than 80 percent of the 1954 acreage.

(ii) Initial proportionate shares. Initial proportionate shares shall be established from the farm bases in each proportionate share area on a pro rata basis so that the total of the farm shares equals the area allotment less the prescribed set-asides, except that for each farm in the Toppenish area with a base of 8.0 acres or less, the initial share shall coincide with the base, and for each farm in the Nampa-Nyssa area with 4.0 acres of sugar beets or less in 1954, the initial farm share shall not be less than the 1954 planted acreage.

(4) Adjustments in initial shares. Within the acreage available from the set-aside for adjustments, and from acreage of initial shares in excess of requested acreages in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in initial farm proportionate shares for old producers and second-year producers so as to establish a proportionate share for each farm which is fair and equitable as compared with proportionate shares for all other farms in the area by taking into consideration availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(5) Adjustments under appeals. Within the acreage set aside for making adjustments under appeals and any other acreage remaining unused in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in proportionate shares under appeals to establish fair and equitable farm shares in accordance with the provisions of § 850.30 applicable to appeals.

(6) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the extent of acreage available within the allotment for each proportionate share area from underplanting and failure to plant, and unused acreage from set-asides and other sources, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season. Insofar as practicable, acreage remaining unused in any area shall be reallotted to the other area wherein it may be used.

(7) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none", and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on another form SU–103 if the adjustment results from an appeal, otherwise on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(8) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

WASHINGTON PROPORTIONATE SHARE AREAS AND FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Washington State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for dividing the State into proportionate share areas and establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 30,813 acres established for Washington by the Determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such Committee at the Hutton Building, South 9, Washington Street, Spokane, Washington, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Washington. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.40 Washington—(a) Proportionate share areas. Washington shall be divided into three proportionate share areas as served by beet sugar companies. These areas shall be designated as follows: Utah-Idaho, Amalgamated and American Crystal. Acreage allotments for these areas shall be computed by applying to the planted sugar beet acreage record for each area a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 25 percent to the largest acreage of any of the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce", with a ceiling of 100 percent of the 1954 acreage, a floor of 88.7 percent of the 1954 acreage and pro rata adjustments to a total of 30,813 acres. Acreage allotments computed as aforestated are established as follows: Utah-Idaho Area—29,027 acres, Amalgamated Area—1,692 acres, and American Crystal Area—94 acres.

(b) Set-asides of acreage. Set-asides of acreage shall be made from area allotments as follows: Utah-Idaho Area—290.0 acres each for new producers and appeals and 461.0 acres for adjustments in initial shares; Amalgamated Area—25.0 acres for new producers, 18.4 acres for appeals and 0 acres for adjustments in initial shares; and American Crystal Area—1.0 acre for new producers, 1.0 acre for appeals and 28.0 acres for adjustments in initial shares.

(c) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC County Office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(d) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares—(1) For new producers. Within the acreage set aside for new producers in each proportionate share area, proportionate shares shall be established in an equitable manner for farms to be operated during the 1956-crop year by new producers (as defined in § 850.30) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(2) For second-year producers. For each farm operated in the 1956-crop year by a second-year producer (as defined in § 850.30), an initial proportionate share shall be established equal to the initial 1955-crop share established for such farm.

(3) For old producers—(i) Farm bases. Farm bases shall be established as follows:

(a) For each farm whose operator is not a tenant in the 1956-crop season or whose operator is a tenant without a personal sugar beet record in the 1952–54 period, the farm base shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm accruing to the land owner under the effective cropping arrangements; for each farm whose operator is a tenant in the 1956-crop season with respect to all of the land in the farm, the farm base shall be established from the personal sugar beet acreage record of the operator; and for each farm whose operator in the 1956-crop season is an owner with respect to part of the land in the farm and a tenant with respect to the balance of such land, the farm base shall be established from a combination of the farm and personal acreage records for the respective parts of the farm.

(b) The farm base shall be one-third of the total of the planted sugar beet acreages for the years 1952, 1953 and 1954, except that: Where there is a planted sugar beet acreage record for each of the years 1952, 1953 and 1954, the farm base shall not exceed 100 percent of the 1954 acreage nor be less than 90 percent of the 1954 acreage; where there is a planted sugar beet acreage record for 1954 and either 1952 or 1953, the farm base shall not be less than 85 percent of the 1954 acreage; and where there is a planted sugar beet acreage record for 1954 only, the farm base shall not be less than 80 percent of the 1954 acreage.

(ii) Initial proportionate shares. Initial proportionate shares shall be established from farm bases in each area on a pro rata basis so that the total of the farm shares equals the area allotment less the prescribed set-asides and the initial shares of second-year producers.

(4) Adjustments in initial shares. Within the acreage available from the set-aside for adjustments, and from acreage of initial shares in excess of requested acreages in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in initial farm proportionate shares for old producers and second-year producers so as to establish a proportionate share for each farm which is fair and equitable as compared with proportionate shares for all other farms in the area by taking into consideration availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(5) Adjustments under appeals. Within the acreage set aside for making adjustments under appeals and any other acreage remaining unused in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in proportionate shares under appeals to establish fair and equitable farm shares in accordance with the provisions of § 850.30 applicable to appeals.

(6) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the extent of acreage available within the allotment for each proportionate share area from underplanting and failure to plant, and unused acreage from set-asides and other sources, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season. Insofar as practicable, acreage remaining unused in any area shall be reallotted to the other areas wherein it may be used.

(7) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none," and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on another form SU–103 if the adjustment results from an appeal, otherwise on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(8) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

SOUTH DAKOTA FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation South Dakota State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 5,478 acres established for South Dakota by the Determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such Committee at 56 Third Street, S. E., Huron, South Dakota, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of South Dakota. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.43 South Dakota—(a) Set-asides of acreage. From the State allocation there is set aside 3 percent for use in establishing farm proportionate shares for new producers and 2 percent for adjusting individual farm proportionate shares under appeals.

(b) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC county office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(c) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares—(1) For new producers. Within the acreage set aside for new producers, proportionate shares shall be established in an equitable manner for farms to be operated during the 1956-crop year by new producers (as defined in § 850.30) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(2) For second-year producers. For each farm operated in the 1956-crop year by a second-year producer (as defined in § 850.30) an initial proportionate share shall be established equal to the initial 1955-crop share established for such farm.

(3) For old producers—(i) Farm bases. The farm base for each farm shall be established from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm by giving a weighting of 40 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "past production" and a weighting of 60 percent to the largest acreage of the crops of 1952 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce".

(ii) Initial proportionate shares. Initial proportionate shares shall be established from farm bases on a pro rata basis so that the total of the farm shares equals the State allotment less the prescribed set-asides and the initial shares of second-year producers.

(4) Adjustments in initial shares. Within the acreage of initial shares in excess of requested acreages, adjustments shall be made in initial farm proportionate shares for old producers and second-year producers, so as to establish a proportionate share for each farm which is fair and equitable as compared with proportionate shares for all other farms in the locality by taking into consideration availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(5) Adjustments under appeals. Within the acreage set aside for making adjustments under appeals and any other acreage remaining unused, adjustments shall be made in proportionate shares under appeals to establish fair and equitable farm shares in accordance with the provisions of § 850.30 applicable to appeals.

(6) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the extent of acreage available within the State allocation from underplanting and failure to plant, and unused acreage from set-asides and other sources, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season.

(7) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none", and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on another form SU–103 if the adjustment results from an appeal, otherwise on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(8) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation South Dakota State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in South Dakota in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

In general, the bases and procedures specified herein are the same as those which were effective in the State for the 1955 crop. The establishment of individual farm proportionate shares directly from the State allocation, without subdividing the State into proportionate share areas, is reasonable considering that the sugar beet producing region of the State is relatively small and only one beet sugar company contracts for acreage in South Dakota. Farm proportionate shares of old producers are established under a formula which measures "past production" and "ability to produce" sugar beets. These standards are reflected in the initial farm shares established for second-year producers, which coincide with their initial 1955–crop shares, as provided under § 850.30. The procedure for establishing farm shares for new producers meets the related requirements of such section.

The bases and procedures for making adjustments in initial proportionate shares and for adjusting shares subsequently because of unused acreage and appeals are designed to provide a fair and equitable proportionate share for each farm of the total acreage of sugar beets required to enable the domestic beet sugar area to meet its quota and provide a normal carryover inventory.

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

MICHIGAN FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Michigan State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 77,803 acres established for Michigan by the determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such committee at the Cahill Building, 200 N. Capitol Avenue, Lansing, Michigan, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Michigan. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.49 Michigan—(a) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC county office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(b) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares. For each farm in Michigan for which a request for proportionate share is filed, the proportionate share shall be established from the State allocation of 77,803 acres so as to coincide with the acreage of 1956-crop sugar beets planted on such farm.

(c) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be furnished a notice informing him that his proportionate share will coincide with his planted acreage.

(d) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Michigan State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in Michigan in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The acreage covered by bona fide requests for proportionate shares, as filed by old producers, second-year producers, and new producers, and the acreage of sugar beets actually planted are significantly smaller than the State allocation. This situation makes unnecessary the carrying out of considerable detailed procedure which would otherwise be required. It is unnecessary to apply a specific formula in computing farm shares, to make set-asides of acreage for new producers and appeals, and to make adjustments in farm shares to reflect ability to produce or to distribute unused acreage. Accordingly, this supplement provides for a distribution of acreage within the State allocation by specifying that individual farm proportionate shares shall equal the acreages planted on the various farms.

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

IOWA FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Iowa State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for establishing individual farm proportionate share from the allocation of 1,485 acres established for Iowa by the determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such committee at the Iowa Building, 505 Sixth Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Iowa. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.50 Iowa—(a) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC county office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filing, as provided in § 850.30.

(b) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares. For each farm in Iowa for which a request for proportionate share is filed, the proportionate share shall be established from the State allocation of 1,485 acres so as to coincide with the acreage of 1956-crop sugar beets planted on such farm.

(c) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be furnished a notice informing him that his proportionate share will coincide with his planted acreage.

(d) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Iowa State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in Iowa in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The acreage covered by bona fide requests for proportionate shares, as filed by new producers, second year producers and old producers, and the acreage of sugar beets actually planted are significantly smaller than the State allocation. This situation makes unnecessary the carrying out of considerable detailed procedure which would otherwise be required. It is unnecessary to apply a specific formula in computing farm shares, to make set-asides of acreage for new producers and appeals, and to make adjustments in farm shares to reflect ability to produce or to distribute unused acreage. Accordingly, this supplement provides for a distribution of acreage within the State allocation by specifying that individual farm proportionate share shall equal the acreages planted on the various farms.

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

NEVADA FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772), (21 F. R. 986) and (21 F. R. 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Nevada State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 500 acres established for Nevada by the determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such committee at 1479 Wells Avenue, Reno, Nevada, and at the office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee for Churchill County, in the Federal Building, Fallon, Nevada. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.52 Nevada—(a) Set-aside of acreage. From the State allocation there is set aside one percent for use in adjusting individual farm proportionate shares under appeals.

(b) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC county office on form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed as provided in § 850.30.

(c) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares. Proportionate shares shall be established from the State allocation of 500 acres in an equitable manner for farms as operated during the 1956-crop year (all producers-operators of such farms will be new producers, as defined in § 850.30, because no sugar beets were produced in Nevada in the crop years 1950–55) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator, except that no proportionate share shall exceed 20 acres.

(d) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the extent of acreage available within the State allocation from underplanting and failure to plant, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season, but no share shall exceed 20 acres.

(e) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none", and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(f) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Nevada State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in Nevada in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The original determination did not establish an allocation for the State of Nevada, since sugar beets were not planted in that State during the period of 1950–55. However, to carry out the intent of paragraph (a) (2) of the determination, an allotment of 500 acres was subsequently established for Nevada by amendment 3 to § 850.30. Under these circumstances, all the farm shares established from the State allocation are new producer shares. The procedure established by the ASC Nevada State Committee meets the related requirements of § 850.30. This procedure provides for a maximum acreage of 20 acres per farm, an acreage which is deemed to be reasonable under the circumstances, and it also provides for the reallotment of unused acreage subject to this maximum.

These bases and procedures are designed to provide a fair and equitable proportionate share for each farm of the total acreage of sugar beets required to enable the domestic beet sugar area to meet its quota and provide a normal carryover inventory.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 951—TOKAY GRAPES GROWN IN SAN JOAQUIN AND SACRAMENTO COUNTIES, CALIF.

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO EXPENSES AND FIXING OF RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1956–57 SEASON

Notice was published in the August 24, 1956, daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 6394) that consideration was being given to proposals regarding the expenses and the fixing of the rate of assessment for the 1956–57 season under the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 51, as amended (7 CFR Part 951), regulating the handling of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin and Sacramento Counties in California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice which were submitted by the Industry Committee (established pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 951.211 Expenses and rate of assessment for the 1956–57 season—(a) Expenses. Expenses that are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Industry Committee, established pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, to enable such committee to perform its functions, in accordance with the provisions thereof, during the season beginning April 1, 1956, and ending on March 31, 1957, both dates inclusive, will amount to $27,050.00.

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment, which each handler who first ships Tokay grapes shall pay as his pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of said amended marketing agreement and order is hereby fixed at six mills ($0.006) per standard package, or the equivalent thereof in weight, of Tokay grapes shipped by such handler during said season.

It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to postpone the effective time hereof until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (1) in accordance with the provisions of said amended marketing agreement and order, the rate of assessment is applicable to all Tokay grapes shipped during the 1956–57 fiscal period; (2) shipments of such Tokay grapes are now being made; and (3) it is essential that the specification of the assessment rate be issued immediately so that the aforesaid assessments may be collected and thereby enable said Industry Committee to perform its duties and functions in accordance with said amended marketing agreement and order.

As used herein, the terms "handler," "ships," "shipped," and "season" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued this 13th day of September 1956, to become effective on the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 1003—DOMESTIC DATES PRODUCED OR PACKED IN LOS ANGELES AND RIVERSIDE COUNTIES, CALIF.

APPROVAL OF BUDGET OF EXPENSES OF DATE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE FOR 1956–57 CROP YEAR AND FIXING RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR SUCH CROP YEAR

Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 127 and Order No. 103 (20 F. R. 5056) regulating the handling of domestic dates produced or packed in Los Angeles and Riverside Counties of California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the unanimous recommendation of, and information supplied by the Date Administrative Committee, the administrative agency for program operations, and other available information, it is hereby found and determined, and it is, therefore, ordered, that the budget of expenses of the Date Administrative Committee, and the rate of assessment, for the crop year which began on August 1, 1956, shall be as follows:

§ 1003.301 Budget of expenses of the Date Administrative Committee and rate of assessment for the 1956–57 crop year—(a) Budget of expenses. Expenses in the amount of $39,225 are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Date Administrative Committee for its maintenance and functioning for the crop year beginning August 1, 1956, and ending July 31, 1957.

(b) Rate of assessment. Each handler shall pay to the Date Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 1003.72 and 1003.73 of the marketing agreement and order, an assessment of 15 cents per hundredweight of dates handled or certified for handling by him during the crop year beginning August 1, 1956, and ending July 31, 1957, which assessment rate is hereby fixed as each handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

It is hereby found and determined that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making, or postpone the effective time of this action later than the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that: (1) The rate of assessment hereby fixed is applicable to all dates handled or certified for handling during the current crop year; (2) handlers are beginning to receive deliveries of dates from producers and which receipts are, by the terms of the marketing agreement and order, subject to the assessment set forth hereinabove; (3) the Date Administrative Committee must be enabled to obtain assessment revenues promptly to defray expenses of administering the program; (4) compliance with the foregoing rules will require no advance preparation by date handlers. In these circumstances, this document should be made effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: September 13, 1956, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 6545]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

OCTA-GANE, INC., ET AL.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly:

§ 13.170 Qualities or properties of product or service.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. 45.) [Cease and desist order, Octa-Gane, Inc. (San Gabriel, Calif.), et al., Docket 6545, Aug. 30, 1956]

In the Matter of Octa-Gane, Inc., a Corporation, and Lucile M. Hursh and Fred Ellers, Alexander Hursh and Thelma Moore, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation, and Ernest J. Newhouse and Don Forrester, Individuals Trading as Newhouse Automotive Industries

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging a corporate manufacturer and its officers and two individual distributors of the "Gane Air Flow Needle", a device intended for use as a replacement for the conventional type of idling pin in the carburetors of gasoline motors, with representing falsely in advertisements in newspapers and periodicals that use of the device would save gas and reduce fuel consumption in gasoline engines, improve engine performance generally, prevent formation of carbon deposits, prevent stalling, etc.—and an agreement between the parties for consent order.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision [1] and order to cease and desist which became on August 30 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Octa-Gane, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, its successor, Gane Economy Club, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, respondents Lucile M. Hursh and Fred Ellers, individually and as officers of either or both of said corporations, Alexander Hursh, individually and as an officer of Octa-Gane, Inc., and as sales manager and as a principal stockholder of Gane Economy Club, Inc., and respondents Ernest J. Newhouse and Don Forrester, individuals trading as Newhouse Automotive Industries, or under any other name or names, and said respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of the device designated as "Gane Air Flow Needle" or "Gane Air Jet Needle" or any other substantially similar device, whether sold under the same names or any other name or names, do forthwith cease and desist from representing directly or by implication:

1. That the use of said product in carburetors of gasoline engines will result in any reduction in gasoline consumption, increase the mileage per unit of gasoline, produce smoother or better idling, prevent an over-rich mixture of gasoline and air from entering the engine or improve the gas and air ratio unless such representations are expressly limited to those cases in which the fuel mixture, due to improper adjustment of the carburetor, is excessively rich and a small amount of additional air may serve to lean such mixture only when the carburetor is in idling operation, and unless in immediate conjunction with such representations an affirmative disclosure is made that said product will be of no benefit in those instances where the carburetor is in proper adjustment.

2. That the use of said product in carburetors of gasoline engines will:

(a) Cause engines to start quicker or easier;

(b) Result in faster pickup;

(c) Prevent formation of carbon deposits;

(d) Prevent stalling;

(e) Prevent the oil from being diluted by unburned fuel;

(f) Provide the proper gas and air mixture.

3. That the use of said product in carburetors of gasoline engines will perform any useful service in the carburetion of gasoline in an automobile engine, or in the improvement of engine performance in excess of such effect as it may have in leaning the fuel mixture in those cases referred to in paragraph 1.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and the same hereby is, dismissed as to respondent Thelma Moore.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Octa-Gane, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, its successor, Gane Economy Club, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, respondents Lucile M. Hursh and Fred Ellers, individually and as officers of either or both of said corporations, Alexander Hursh, individually and as an officer of Octa-Gane, Inc., and as sales manager and as a principal stockholder of Gane Economy Club, Inc., and respondents Ernest J. Newhouse and Don Forrester, individuals trading as Newhouse Automotive Industries, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 30, 1956.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

AUTHORITY: §§ 511.101 to 511.123, incl., issued under secs. 894, 7805, 68A Stat. 356, 917; 26 U. S. C. 894, 7805.

§ 511.101 Introductory. The income tax convention between the United States and Finland, signed March 3, 1952, and proclaimed by the President of the United States on December 22, 1952, hereinafter referred to as the convention, provides as follows, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952:

ARTICLE I

(1) The taxes referred to in this Convention are:

(a) In the case of the United States of America:

The Federal income tax, including surtaxes and excess profits taxes.

(b) In the case of Finland:

The State (National) income tax.

(2) The present Convention shall also apply to any other taxes of a substantially similar character imposed by either contracting State subsequently to the date of signature of the present Convention.

ARTICLE II

(1) As used in this Convention:

(a) The term "United States" means United States of America, and when used in a geographical sense includes only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(b) The term "Finland" means the Republic of Finland.

(c) The term "permanent establishment" means a branch office, factory, warehouse or other fixed place of business, but does not include the casual and temporary use of merely storage facilities, nor does it include an agency unless the agent has and exercises a general authority to negotiate and conclude contracts on behalf of an enterprise or has a stock of merchandise from which he regularly fills orders on its behalf. An enterprise of one of the contracting States shall not be deemed to have a permanent establishment in the other State merely because it carries on business dealings in such other State through a bona fide commission agent, broker or custodian acting in the ordinary course of his business as such. The fact that an enterprise of one of the contracting States maintains in the other State a fixed place of business exclusively for the purchase of goods or merchandise shall not of itself constitute such fixed place of business a permanent establishment of such enterprise. The fact that a corporation of one contracting State has a subsidiary corporation which is a corporation of the other State or which is engaged in trade or business in the other State shall not of itself constitute that subsidiary corporation a permanent establishment of its parent corporation.

(d) The term "enterprise" includes every form of undertaking whether carried on by an individual, partnership, corporation, or any other entity.

(e) The term "enterprise of one of the contracting States" means, as the case may be, "United States enterprise" or "Finnish enterprise".

(f) The term "United States enterprise" means an enterprise carried on in the United States by a resident or partnership of the United States or by a United States corporation or other entity; the term "United States corporation or other entity" means a corporation or other entity created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States.

(g) The term "Finnish enterprise" means an enterprise carried on in Finland by a resident or partnership of Finland or by a Finnish corporation or other entity; the term "Finnish corporation or other entity" means a corporation or other entity created or organized in Finland or under Finnish law.

(h) The term "competent authorities" means, in the case of the United States the Commissioner of Internal Revenue as authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury; and in the case of Finland, the Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance.

(2) In the application of the provisions of the present Convention by one of the contracting States any term not otherwise defined shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning which such term has under the tax laws of that State.

ARTICLE III

(1) An enterprise of one of the contracting States shall not be subject to taxation in the other contracting State in respect of its industrial and commercial profits unless it is engaged in trade or business in such other State through a permanent establishment situated therein. If it is so engaged such other State may impose its tax upon the entire income of such enterprise from sources within such other State.

(2) In determining the industrial or commercial profits from sources within the territory of one of the contracting States of an enterprise of the other contracting State, no profits shall be deemed to arise from the mere purchase of goods or merchandise within the territory of the former contracting State by such enterprise. In the determination of the net industrial and commercial profits of the permanent establishment there shall be allowed as deductions all expenses, wherever incurred, reasonably allocable to the permanent establishment, including executive and general administrative expenses so allocable.

(3) Where an enterprise of one of the contracting States is engaged in trade or business in the territory of the other contracting State through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall be attributed to such permanent establishment the industrial or commercial profits which it might be expected to derive if it were an independent enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing at arm's length with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment and the profits so attributed shall, subject to the law of such other contracting State, be deemed to be income from sources within the territory of such other contracting State.

(4) The competent authorities of the two contracting States may lay down rules by agreement for the apportionment of industrial and commercial profits.

ARTICLE IV

Where an enterprise of one of the contracting States, by reason of its participation in the management or the financial structure of an enterprise of the other contracting State, makes with or imposes on the latter, in their commercial or financial relations, conditions different from those which would be made with an independent enterprise, any profits which would normally have accrued to one of the enterprises but by reason of those conditions have not so accrued, may be included in the profits of that enterprise and taxed accordingly.

ARTICLE V

(1) Income which an enterprise of one of the contracting States derives from the operation of ships or aircraft registered in that State shall be exempt from taxation in the other contracting State.

(2) The present Convention shall be deemed to have superseded, as of the effective date of this Convention, the arrangement between the United States and Finland providing for relief from double income taxation on shipping profits, effected by exchange of notes dated June 6, 1946, and January 7, 1947.

ARTICLE VI

(1) The rate of United States tax on dividends derived from a United States corporation by a resident or corporation or other entity of Finland, not engaged in trade or business in the United States through a permanent establishment therein, shall not exceed 15 percent: provided that such rate of tax shall not exceed 5 percent if such Finnish corporation controls, directly or inidirectly, at least 95 percent of the entire voting power in the corporation paying the dividend, and not more than 25 percent of the gross income of such paying corporation is derived from interest and dividends, other than interest and dividends from its own subsidiary corporation. Such reduction of the rate to 5 percent shall not apply if the relationship of the two corporations has been arranged or is maintained primarily with the intention of securing such reduced rate.

(2) The rate of Finnish tax on dividends derived from a Finnish corporation by a resident or corporation or other entity of the United States, not engaged in trade or business in Finland through a permanent establishment therein, shall not exceed 15 percent: provided that such rate of tax shall not exceed 5 percent if such United States corporation controls, directly or indirectly, at least 95 percent of the entire voting power in the corporation paying the dividend, and not more than 25 percent of the gross income of such paying corporation is derived from interest and dividends, other than interest and dividends from its own subsidiary corporation. Such reduction of the rate to 5 percent shall not apply if the relationship of the two corporations has been arranged or is maintained primarily with the intention of securing such reduced rate. For the purposes of this paragraph the combined Finnish tax on such dividends and the Finnish property tax on the capital stock of a Finnish corporation owned by such resident or corporation of other entity shall not exceed an amount computed at such rates as applied to dividends, if any, so derived.

ARTICLE VII

(1) Interest on bonds, securities, notes, debentures, or on any other form of indebtedness derived from sources within one of the contracting States by a resident or corporation or other entity of the other contracting State, not having a permanent establishment in the former State, shall be exempt from tax by such former State.

(2) Bonds, bank deposits and trade balances beneficially owned by a resident or corporation or other entity of the United States shall be exempt from the Finnish property tax.

ARTICLE VIII

Royalties for the right to use copyrights or in respect of the right to produce or reproduce any literary, dramatic, musical, or artistic work (but not inclusive of rents or royalties in respect of motion picture films) derived from sources within one of the contracting States by a resident or corporation or other entity of the other contracting State, not engaged in trade or business in the former State through a permanent establishment therein, shall be exempt from tax imposed by such former State.

ARTICLE IX

(1) Income from real property (not including interest derived from mortgages and bonds secured by real property) and royalties in respect of the operation of mines, quarries, or other natural resources, shall be taxable only in the contracting State in which such property, mines, quarries, or other natural resources are situated.

(2) A resident or corporation or other entity of one of the contracting States deriving any such income from sources within the other contracting State may, for any taxable year, elect to be subject to the tax of such other contracting State as if such resident or corporation or other entity were engaged in trade or business within such other contracting State through a permanent establishment therein during such taxable year.

ARTICLE X

(1) (a) Wages, salaries and similar compensation and pensions, paid by the United States or by the political subdivisions or territories thereof to an individual (other than a Finnish citizen who is not also a citizen of the United States) shall be exempt from Finnish tax.

(b) Wages, salaries and similar compensation and pensions, paid either directly, or from funds or institutions created, by Finland or by the political subdivisions or communities thereof, to an individual (other than a United States citizen who is not also a citizen of Finland) shall be exempt from United States tax. The term "funds or institutions" shall not be deemed to include a corporation even if such corporation is owned, in whole or in part, by the Government of Finland.

(2) Private pensions and life annuities derived from within one of the contracting States and paid to individuals residing in the other contracting State shall be exempt from taxation in the former State.

(3) The term "pensions", as used in this Article, means periodic payments made in consideration for services rendered or by way of compensation for injuries received.

(4) The term "life annuities" as used in this Article means a stated sum payable periodically at stated times during life, or during a specified number of years, under an obligation to make the payments in return for adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

ARTICLE XI

(1) A resident of Finland shall be exempt from United States tax upon compensation for labor or personal services (including the practice of the liberal and artistic professions) if he is temporarily present in the United States for a period or periods not exceeding a total of 183 days during the taxable year and either of the following conditions is met:

(a) His compensation is received for labor or personal services performed as an employee of, or under contract with, a resident, or corporation or other entity of Finland, or

(b) His compensation received for labor or personal services does not exceed $10,000.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to a resident of the United States with respect to compensation for such labor or personal services performed in Finland.

(3) The provisions of this Article shall have no application to the income to which Article X (1) relates.

ARTICLE XII

(1) Dividends and interest paid by a Finnish corporation shall be exempt from United States tax except where the recipient is a citizen, resident or corporation or other entity of the United States.

(2) Dividends and interest paid by a United States corporation shall be exempt from Finnish tax except where the recipient is a resident or corporation or other entity of Finland.

ARTICLE XIII

A professor or teacher, a resident of one of the contracting States, who temporarily visits the territory of the other contracting State for the purpose of teaching for a period not exceeding two years at a university, college, school or other educational institution in the other contracting State, shall be exempted in such other contracting State from tax on his remuneration for such teaching for such period.

ARTICLE XIV

A student or apprentice, a resident of one of the contracting States, who temporarily visits the other contracting State exclusively for the purposes of study or for acquiring business or technical experience shall not be taxable in the latter State in respect of remittances received by him from abroad for the purpose of his maintenance or studies.

ARTICLE XV

(1) It is agreed that double taxation shall be avoided in the following manner:

(a) The United States in determining its taxes specified in Article I of this Convention in the case of its citizens, residents or corporations may, regardless of any other provision of this Convention, include in the basis upon which such taxes are imposed all items of income taxable under the revenue laws of the United States as if this Convention had not come into effect. The United States shall, however, subject to the provisions of section 131, Internal Revenue Code, as in effect on the date of the entry into force of this Convention, deduct from its taxes the amount of Finnish taxes specified in Article I of this Convention.

(b) Finland in determining its taxes specified in Article I of this Convention in the case of its residents or corporations or other entities may, regardless of any other provision of this Convention, include in the basis upon which such taxes are imposed all items of income taxable under the revenue laws of Finland as if this Convention has not come into effect. Finland shall, however, deduct from the taxes so calculated that portion of such tax liability which the taxpayer's income from sources in the United States (not exempt from United States tax under this Convention) bears to the taxpayer's entire income but not in excess of the income tax paid to the United States and to the political subdivisions thereof on or with respect to the income so taxable in the United States.

(2) The provisions of this Article shall not be construed to deny the exemptions from United States tax or Finnish tax, as the case may be, granted by Article X (1) of this Convention.

ARTICLE XVI

The citizens of one of the contracting States shall not, while resident in the other contracting State, be subjected therein to other or more burdensome taxes than are the citizens of such other contracting State residing in its territory. As used in this paragraph,

(a) The term "citizens" includes all legal persons, partnerships, and associations created or organized under the laws in the respective contracting States, and

(b) The term "taxes" means taxes of every kind or description whether nation, Federal, state, communal or municipal.

ARTICLE XVII

The competent authorities of the contracting States shall exchange such information (being information available under the respective taxation laws of the contracting States) as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of the present Convention or for the prevention of fraud or the administration of statutory provisions against tax avoidance in relation to the taxes which are the subject of the present Convention. Any information so exchanged shall be treated as secret and shall not be disclosed to any person other than those concerned with the assessment and collection of the taxes which are the subject of the present Convention. No information shall be exchanged which would disclose any trade secret or trade process.

ARTICLE XVIII

Each of the contracting States may collect taxes, which are the subject of this Convention, imposed by the other contracting State (as though such tax were a tax imposed by the former State) as will ensure that the exemption or reduced rate of tax granted under the present Convention by such other State shall not be enjoyed by persons not entitled to such benefits.

ARTICLE XIX

The State to which application is made for information or assistance shall comply as soon as possible with the request addressed to it except that such State may refuse to comply with the request for reasons of public policy or if compliance would involve violation of a trade, business, industrial, or professional secret or trade process.

ARTICLE XX

Where a taxpayer shows proof that the action of the revenue authorities of the contracting States has resulted in double taxation in his case in respect of any of the taxes to which the present Convention relates, he shall be entitled to lodge a claim with the State of which he is a citizen, or if he is not a citizen of either of the contracting States, with the State of which he is a resident, or, if the taxpayer is a corporation or other entity, with the State in which it is created or organized. Should the claim be upheld, the competent authority of such State may come to an agreement with the competent authority of the other State with a view to equitable avoidance of the double taxation in question.

ARTICLE XXI

(1) The provisions of this Convention shall not be construed to deny or affect in any manner the right of diplomatic and consular officers to other or additional exemptions now enjoyed or which may hereafter be granted to such officers.

(2) The provisions of the present Convention shall not be construed to restrict in any manner any exemption, deduction, credit or other allowance accorded by the laws of one of the contracting States in the determination of the tax imposed by such State.

(3) Should any difficulty or doubt arise as to the interpretation or application of the present Convention, or its relationship to Conventions between one of the contracting States and any other State, the competent authorities of the contracting States may settle the question by mutual agreement.

ARTICLE XXII

(1) The competent authorities of the two contracting States may prescribe regulations necessary to interpret and carry out the provisions of this Convention. With respect to the provisions of this Convention relating to exchange of information and mutual assistance in the collection of taxes, such authorites may, by common agreement, prescribe rules concerning matters of procedure, forms of application and replies thereto, conversion of currency, disposition of amounts collected, minimum amounts subject to collection and related matters.

(2) The competent authorities of the two contracting States may communicate with each other directly for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Convention.

ARTICLE XXIII

(1) The present Convention shall be ratified and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged at Helsinki as soon as possible. It shall have effect for the taxable years beginning on or after the first day of January of the year in which such exchange takes place.

(2) The present Convention shall continue effective for a period of five years and indefinitely after that period, but may be terminated by either of the contracting States at the end of the five-year period, or at any time thereafter, provided that at least six months' prior notice of termination has been given and, in such event, the present Convention shall cease to be effective for the taxable years beginning on or after the first day of January next following the expiration of the six-month period.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES DATED DECEMBER 22, 1952

* * * * * *

And whereas the Senate of the United States of America, by their resolution of July 4, 1952, two-thirds of the Senators present concurring therein, did advise and consent to the ratification of the aforesaid convention:

And whereas the aforesaid convention was duly ratified by the President of the United States of America on July 21, 1952, in pursuance of the aforesaid advice and consent of the Senate, and the aforesaid convention was duly ratified on the part of the Republic of Finland;

And whereas the respective instruments of ratification of the aforesaid convention were duly exchanged at Helsinki on December 18, 1952, and a protocol of exchange of instruments of ratification was signed at the place and on that date by the respective Plenipotentiaries of the United States of America and the Republic of Finland;

And whereas it is provided in Article XXIII of the aforesaid convention that the convention shall have effect for the taxable years beginning on or after the first day of January of the year in which the exchange of instruments of ratification takes place;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and make public the aforesaid convention to the end that the said convention and each and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States of America and by the citizens of the United States of America and all other persons subject to the jurisdiction thereof.

§ 511.102 Applicable provisions of law—(a) General. The Internal Revenue Code of 1954 provides in part as follows:

SUBTITLE A—INCOME TAXES

* * * * * *

SEC. 894. Income exempt under treaty. Income of any kind, to the extent required by any treaty obligation of the United States, shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from taxation under this subtitle.

* * * * * *

SUBTITLE F—PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION

* * * * * *

SEC. 7805. Rules and regulations—(a) Authorization. Except where such authority is expressly given by this title to any person other than an officer or employee of the Treasury Department, the Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this title, including all rules and regulations as may be necessary by reason of any alteration of law in relation to internal revenue.

(b) Retroactivity of regulations or rulings. The Secretary or his delegate may prescribe the extent, if any, to which any ruling or regulation, relating to the internal revenue laws, shall be applied without retroactive effect.

* * * * * *

(b) Internal Revenue Code of 1939. Any reference in §§ 511.101 to 511.123 to any provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall, where applicable, be deemed also to refer to the corresponding provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

(c) Effective date of regulations. Pursuant to sections 894 and 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, Article XXII of the convention, and other provisions of the internal revenue laws, §§ 511.101 through 511.123, are hereby prescribed effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952. All regulations inconsistent herewith are modified accordingly.

§ 511.103 Scope of the convention—(a) Purposes of convention. The primary purposes of the convention, to be accomplished on a reciprocal basis, are to avoid double taxation upon certain items of income derived from sources in one country by residents or corporations or other entities of the other country and to provide for administrative cooperation between the competent tax authorities of the two countries looking to the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion.

(b) Exemption from United States tax. The following items of income are not included in gross income and are exempt from United States tax for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952, subject to the respective articles of the convention:

(1) Industrial and commercial profits of a Finnish enterprise having no permanent establishment in the United States (Article III);

(2) Income derived by a Finnish enterprise from the operation of ships or aircraft registered in Finland (Article V);

(3) Interest derived by a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, if such alien, corporation, or other entity has no permanent establishment in the United States (Article VII);

(4) Copyright royalties, and other like amounts (but not including motion picture film rentals or royalties) derived by a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, if such alien, corporation, or other entity has no permanent establishment in the United States (Article VIII);

(5) Compensation and pensions paid by Finland to an alien individual, and to a citizen of Finland who is also a citizen of the United States (Article X);

(6) Private pensions and life annuities paid to a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland (Article X);

(7) Compensation, subject to certain limitations, for personal services performed in the United States by a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland (Article XI);

(8) Dividends and interest paid by a Finnish corporation except where the recipient is a citizen, resident, or corporation or other entity of the United States (Article XII);

(9) Remuneration derived from certain teaching in the United States by a professor or teacher who is a nonresident alien residing in Finland (Article XIII); and

(10) Remittances received from abroad for the purpose of maintenance or studies by a student or apprentice, a nonresident alien residing in Finland, who is temporarily present in the United States under specified circumstances (Article XIV).

(c) Reduced rates of United States tax. Dividends derived from a domestic corporation by a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, are subject to United States tax at reduced rates, if such alien, corporation, or other entity has no permanent establishment in the United States (Article VI).

(d) United States citizens, residents, and corporations. (1) Any citizen of Finland who is a resident of the United States is liable to United States tax as though the convention had not come into effect; however, such alien resident of the United States is entitled to a credit against United States tax for Finnish tax in accordance with Article XV and is also entitled to the benefits of Articles X (1), XVI, and XXI.

(2) A citizen of the United States, even though resident in Finland, or a domestic corporation, even though engaged in trade or business in Finland through a permanent establishment situated therein, is liable to United States tax as though the convention had not come into effect but is likewise entitled to a credit against United States tax for Finnish tax and, to the extent applicable, to the benefits of Article X (1).

(e) Other provisions applicable to Finnish residents and corporations. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the convention, the United States tax liability of a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or of a Finnish corporation or other entity, is determined in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 relating to nonresident alien individuals and foreign corporations.

§ 511.104 Definitions—(a) General. Any term defined in the convention or §§ 511.101 to 511.123 shall have the meaning so assigned to it; any term not so defined shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning which such term has under the internal revenue laws of the United States.

(b) Specific terms. As used in §§ 511.101 to 511.123:

(1) United States tax. The term

"United States tax" means the Federal income taxes, including surtaxes and excess profits taxes, and any other income or profits tax of a substantially similar character imposed by the United States after March 3, 1952.

(2) Finnish tax. The term "Finnish tax" means the State (National) income tax and any other taxes of a substantially similar character imposed by Finland after March 3, 1952.

(3) United States. The term "United States" means the United States of America; and, when used in a geographical sense, includes only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(4) Finland. The term "Finland" means the Republic of Finland.

(5) Permanent establishment — (i) Fixed place of business. The term "permanent establishment" means a branch office, factory, warehouse, or other fixed place of business, but does not include the casual and temporary use of merely storage facilities. It implies the active conduct of a business enterprise. The mere ownership, for example, of timberlands or a warehouse in the United States by a Finnish enterprise does not mean that such enterprise, in the absence of any business activity therein, has a permanent establishment in the United States. The fact that a Finnish enterprise maintains in the United States an office or other fixed place of business used exclusively for the purchase for such enterprise of goods or merchandise shall not of itself constitute such fixed place of business a permanent establishment of such enterprise.

(ii) Agency. A Finnish enterprise which has an agency in the United States does not thereby have a permanent establishment in the United States, unless the agent has, and exercises, a general authority to negotiate and conclude contracts on behalf of such enterprise or unless he has a stock of merchandise from which he regularly fills orders on its behalf. If the enterprise has an agent in the United States who has power to contract on its behalf, but only at fixed prices and under conditions determined by such principal, it does not thereby necessarily have a permanent establishment in the United States. The mere fact that an agent of a Finnish enterprise—assuming he has no general authority to negotiate and conclude contracts on behalf of his principal—maintains samples, or occasionally fills orders from incidental stocks of goods maintained, in the United States does not of itself mean that such enterprise has a permanent establishment in the United States. The mere fact that salesmen, employees of a Finnish enterprise, promote the sale of their employer's products in the United States or that a Finnish enterprise transacts business in the United States by means of mail order activities does not mean that such enterprise has a permanent establishment in the United States. A Finnish enterprise shall not be deemed to have a permanent establishment in the United States merely because it carries on business dealings in the United States through a bona fide commission agent, broker, or custodian, acting in the ordinary course of his business as such.

(iii) Subsidiary corporation. The fact that a Finnish corporation has a domestic subsidiary corporation, or a foreign subsidiary corporation which is engaged in trade or business in the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein, does not of itself constitute either subsidiary corporation the United States permanent establishment of the Finnish parent corporation.

(6) Enterprise. The term "enterprise" means any form of commercial or industrial undertaking carried on by an individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity. It includes such activities as manufacturing, merchandising, mining, processing, banking, and insuring. It does not include the rendition of personal services. Hence a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland and who performs personal services is not, merely by reason of such services, engaged in a Finnish enterprise within the meaning of the convention; consequently, his liability to United States tax is not determined under Article III of the convention, if he has not otherwise carried on a Finnish enterprise.

(7) United States enterprise. The term "United States enterprise" means an enterprise carried on in the United States by a resident of the United States, by a partnership of the United States, or by a United States corporation or other entity.

(8) United States corporation or other entity. The term "United States corporation or other entity" means a corporation or other entity created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States.

(9) Finnish enterprise. The term "Finnish enterprise" means an enterprise carried on in Finland by a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland, by a partnership of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity. Thus, an enterprise carried on wholly outside Finland by a Finnish corporation is not a Finnish enterprise within the meaning of the convention.

(10) Finnish corporation or other entity. The term "Finnish corporation or other entity" means a corporation or other entity created or organized in Finland or under Finnish law.

(11) Industrial and commercial profits. The term "industrial and commercial profits" means profits arising from industrial, commercial, merchantile, manufacturing, and like activities of an enterprise. It does not include investment income such as dividends, interests, rents, or royalties, or remuneration for personal services. In determining the industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States of a Finnish enterprise, no profits shall be deemed to arise from the mere purchase of goods or merchandise within the United States by such enterprise. Moreover, in determining such profits of the United States permanent establishment of such enterprise, there shall be allowed as deductions all expenses, wherever incurred, which are reasonably allocable to the permanent establishment, including executive and general administrative expenses so allocable. See sections 861 through 864, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and the regulations thereunder.

(12) Commissioner. The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or his authorized representative.

(13) Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance. The term "Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance" means the Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance of Finland.

§ 511.105 Industrial and commercial profits—(a) General. (1) Article III of the convention adopts the principle that an enterprise of one of the contracting States shall not be taxable by the other contracting State upon its industrial and commercial profits unless it is engaged in trade or business in the latter State through a permanent establishment situated therein. Accordingly, a Finnish enterprise is subject to United States tax upon its industrial and commercial profits, to the extent of such profits from sources within the United States, only if it is engaged in trade or business in the United States at some time during the taxable year through a permanent establishment situated therein.

(2) From the standpoint of the United States tax, the article has application only to a Finnish enterprise and its industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States. Thus, a nonresident alien individual who is a citizen of Finland, or a Finnish corporation or other entity, carrying on an enterprise which is not Finnish, is subject to tax on such income of such enterprise pursuant to section 871 (c) or section 882 (a), Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if such alien, corporation, or other entity has engaged in trade or business in the United States at any time during the taxable year, even though it has not had a permanent establishment therein at any time within such year.

(b) No United States permanent establishment. A Finnish enterprise is not subject to United States tax upon its industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States, nor shall such profits be included in gross income, if it has not at any time during the taxable year engaged in trade or business in the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein. For example, if during the taxable year an enterprise carried on in Finland by a Finnish corporation were to sell merchandise in the United States through a bona fide commission agent or broker acting in the ordinary course of his business, the profits arising from such sale would not be included in gross income and would be exempt from United States tax, assuming the enterprise does not otherwise have a permanent establishment in the United States. Similarly, if during the taxable year such enterprise were to secure orders in the United States for merchandise through its sales agents whose sole function in the United States is sales promotion, the orders being transmitted to Finland for acceptance, then the profits arising from such sales would not be included in gross income and would be exempt from United States tax.

(c) United States permanent establishment—(1) General. A Finnish enterprise is subject to United States tax upon its industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States to the same extent as are nonresident aliens or foreign corporations which are subject to tax pursuant to section 871 (c) or section 882 (a), Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if such enterprise has at any time during the taxable year engaged in trade or business in the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein. If it is so engaged, it is subject to United States tax upon its entire income from sources within the United States except to the extent otherwise exempt from United States tax.

(2) Allocation of profits. In the determination of the income taxable to such enterprise for purposes of the United States tax, all industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States shall be deemed to be allocable to the permanent establishment in the United States. Hence, if a Finnish enterprise which has a permanent establishment in the United States at some time during the taxable year were to sell in the United States, through a bona fide commission agent therein acting in the ordinary course of his business as such, merchandise which has been produced in Finland, the profits arising from such sale would be allocable to the permanent establishment to the extent they are derived from sources within the United States, even though the sale is made independently of the permanent establishment.

(3) Independent basis. The industrial and commercial profits of the permanent establishment in the United States shall be determined as if the establishment were an independent enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing at arm's length, or on an independent basis, with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment. Any profits so attributed to such permanent establishment shall, subject to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, be deemed to be income from sources within the United States.

§ 511.106 Control of a United States enterprise by a Finnish enterprise. In effect, Article IV of the convention provides that, if a Finnish enterprise, by reason of its control of a United States enterprise, imposes on the latter enterprise conditions different from those which would result from normal business relations between independent enterprises, the accounts between the enterprises shall be adjusted in order to ascertain the true taxable income of each enterprise. The purpose is to place the controlled United States enterprise on a tax parity with an uncontrolled United States enterprise by determining, according to the standard of an uncontrolled enterprise, the true taxable income from the property and business of the controlled enterprise. The basic objective of the article is that, if the accounting records do not truly reflect the taxable income from the property and business of the United States enterprise, the Commissioner shall intervene and, by making such distributions, apportionments, or allocations as he may deem necessary of gross income, deductions, credits, or allowances, or of any item or element affecting taxable income, between the United States enterprise and the Finnish enterprise by which it is controlled or directed, shall determine the true taxable income of the United States enterprise. The provisions of section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and the regulations thereunder, shall, insofar as applicable, be followed in the determination of the taxable income of the United States enterprise.

§ 511.107 Income from operation of ships or aircraft—(a) Exempt from tax. Under Article V of this convention, so much of the income from sources within the United States of a Finnish enterprise as consists of earnings derived from the operation of ships or aircraft documented or registered in Finland shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax, even though at some time during the taxable year such enterprise has engaged in trade or business in the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein.

(b) Prior arrangement superseded. Effective with respect to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952, the convention shall be deemed to have superseded the arrangement between the United States and Finland providing for relief from double income taxation on shipping profits, effected by exchange of notes dated June 6, 1946, and January 7, 1947 [Treaties and Other International Acts Series, No. 1596; 61 Stat. 2671]. Accordingly, while the provisions of Article V are in effect, no exemption from United States tax shall be accorded pursuant to, or by reason of, any agreement effected by the exchange of such notes. This paragraph shall not be construed, however, to restrict any exemption which, without reference to an exchange of notes, is accorded by section 872 (b) and section 883 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. See Article XXI (2) of the convention.

§ 511.108 Dividends—(a) General. (1) The rate of United States tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 upon dividends derived from a domestic corporation by a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, shall not exceed 15 percent under the provisions of Article VI of the convention, if such alien, corporation, or other entity at no time during the taxable year in which such dividends are derived has engaged in trade or business

(2) If, for example, a nonresident within the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein. alien individual who is a resident of Finland performs personal services within the United States during the taxable year, but has at no time during such year a permanent establishment within the United States, he is entitled to the reduced rate of tax with respect to dividends derived in that year from a domestic corporation, as provided in Article VI of the convention, even though under the provisions of section 871 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 he has engaged in trade or business within the United States during such year by reason of his having performed personal services therein.

(b) Dividends paid by related corporation. The rate of United States tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 upon dividends derived from a domestic corporation by a Finnish corporation shall not exceed 5 percent under the proviso of Article VI (1) of the convention if:

(1) The Finnish corporation controls, directly or indirectly, at the time the dividend is paid 95 percent or more of the entire voting power in the corporation paying the dividend;

(2) Not more than 25 percent of the gross income of the paying corporation for the three-year period immediately preceding the taxable year in which the dividend is paid consists of dividends and interest (other than dividends and interest received by such paying corporation from its own subsidiary corporations, if any);

(3) The relationship between the paying corporation and the Finnish corporation has not been arranged or maintained primarily with the intention of securing the reduced rate of 5 percent; and

(4) The Finnish corporation at no time during the taxable year in which such dividends are derived has engaged in trade or business within the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein.

(c) Dividends received from a foreign corporation. The reduction in the rate of United States tax granted by Article VI (1) of the convention does not apply to dividends received from a foreign corporation which are treated as income from sources within the United States under the provisions of section 861 (a) (2) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. However, see the provisions of § 511.115 for the exemption from United States tax applicable to dividends paid by a Finnish corporation.

§ 511.109 Interest. (a) Interest on bonds, securities, notes, debentures, or on any other form of indebtedness, which is derived from sources within the United States by a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax under the provisions of Article VII of the convention, if such alien, corporation, or other entity at no time during the taxable year in which such interest is derived has a permanent establishment in the United States.

(b) Interest on obligations of the United States and instrumentalities thereof, and on mortgages and bonds secured by real property, is included among the items to which this section applies.

§ 511.110 Copyright royalties. (a) Royalties for the right to use copyrights or in respect of the right to produce or reproduce any literary, dramatic, musical, or artistic work which are derived from sources within the United States by a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax under the provisions of Article VIII of the convention of such alien, corporation, or other entity at no time during the taxable year in which such royalties are derived has engaged in trade or business within the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein.

(b) Rents or royalties in respect to motion picture films are not exempt from United States tax under the provisions of Article VIII of the convention.

§ 511.111 Real property income and natural resource royalties—(a) General. (1) Income of whatever nature derived by a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, from real property situated in the United States (including gains derived from the sale or exchange of real property and rentals therefrom) and royalties in respect of the operation of mines, quarries, or other natural resources situated in the United States, is not exempt from United States tax by the convention. Such items of income are subject to taxation under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 generally applicable to the taxation of nonresident alien individuals and foreign corporations. See Article IX (1) of the convention.

(2) This paragraph does not apply to interest derived from mortgages and bonds secured by real property. See paragraph (b) of § 511.109.

(b) Net basis—(1) General. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or a Finnish corporation or other entity, who during the taxable year derives from sources within the United States any income to which such paragraph applies may elect for such taxable year to be subject to United States tax on a net basis as though such alien, corporation, or other entity were engaged in trade or business in the United States during such year through a permanent establishment situated therein. See Article IX (2) of the convention.

(2) Manner of electing. A nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland shall signify his election to be subject to tax on such a basis by filing Form 1040B clearly marked at the top of the first page thereof as follows: "Return of Resident of Finland Electing to File on a Net Basis Pursuant to Article IX of Finnish Income Tax Convention." A Finnish corporation shall signify its election to be subject to tax on such a basis by filing Form 1120 clearly marked at the top of the first page thereof as follows: "Return of Finnish Corporation Electing to File on a Net Basis Pursuant to Article IX of Finnish Income Tax Convention." The election so signified shall be irrevocable for the taxable year for which such election is made. All income from sources within the United States, including gains from the sale or exchange of capital assets or of other property, shall be disclosed on the return so filed. See sections 871 and 882 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 511.112 Government wages, salaries, and pensions—(a) General. Under Article X of the convention, any wage, salary, or similar compensation, or any pension, paid either directly, or from funds or institutions created, by Finland or by the political subdivisions or communities thereof, to any alien individual (whether or not a resident of the United States) or to any individual who occupies the dual status of a citizen of the United States and a citizen of Finland shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax, even though at some time during the taxable year such individual has engaged in trade or business in the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein. Under Article XV (2) of the convention the exclusion from gross income and exemption from United States tax provided in this section shall not be denied despite the provisions of Article XV. See § 511.118.

(b) Definition. As used in this section, the term "pensions" means periodic payments made in consideration for services rendered or by way of compensation for injuries received. The term "funds or institutions" shall not be deemed to include a corporation, even if such corporation is owned, in whole or in part, by the government of Finland.

(c) Cross reference. For the taxation generally of compensation of alien employees of foreign governments and the consequences of executing and filing the waiver provided for in section 247 (b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, see section 893 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 511.113 Private pensions and life annuities—(a) General. Private pensions and life annuities derived from sources within the United States and paid to a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax, in accordance with Article X of the convention, even though at some time during the taxable year such individual has engaged in trade or business in the United States through a permanent establishment situated therein.

(b) Definitions. As used in this section, the term "pensions" means periodic payments made in consideration for services rendered or by way of compensation for injuries received; and the term "life annuities" means a stated sum payable periodically at stated times during life, or during a specified number of years, under an obligation to make the payments in return for adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

§ 511.114 Compensation for labor or personal services—(a) Exemption from tax. Under Article XI of the convention, compensation received by a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland for labor or personal services, including the practice of the liberal and artistic professions, performed in the United States shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax in either of the following situations:

(1) Finnish employer. Where such individual is temporarily present in the United States for a period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate a total of 183 days during a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1952, any compensation received by him (irrespective of when received, if received in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952) for such labor or personal services performed in the United States during such year as an employee of, or under contract with, a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or a Finnish corporation or other entity, whether or not such resident, corporation, or other entity is engaged in trade or business within the United States, shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax.

(2) Other employers. Where such individual is temporarily present in the United States for a period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate a total of 183 days during a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1952, any compensation received by him (irrespective of when received, if received in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952) for such labor or personal services performed in the United States during such year shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax if such compensation does not exceed $10,000 in the aggregate. Thus, if a nonresident alien individual who is a resident of Finland performs personal services in the United States during the taxable year as an employee of a domestic corporation for which he receives compensation of $15,000 in the aggregate, none of such compensation shall be exempt from United States tax even though such individual is present in the United States during such year for a period or periods not exceeding a total of 183 days, since the aggregate compensation received is in excess of $10,000.

(b) Definition. For the purposes of this section, the term "compensation for labor or personal services" shall include, but shall not be limited to, the compensation, profits, emoluments or other remuneration of public entertainers, such as stage, motion picture, television, or radio artists, musicians, and athletes. For the allocation or segregation as between sources within, and sources without, the United States in the case of compensation for labor or personal services, see sections 861 through 864, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and the regulations thereunder.

(c) Exception. The provisions of this section have no application to income to which Article X (1) of the convention relates.

§ 511.115 Dividends and interest paid by a Finnish corporation—(a) General—

(1) Dividends. A dividend paid by a foreign corporation constitutes, in whole or in part, income from sources within the United States and is subject to tax by the United States when received by a nonresident alien individual or other foreign corporation, if 50 percent or more of the gross income of the paying corporation for the statutory period was derived from sources within the United States. See section 861 (a) (2) (B), section 872 (a), and section 882 (b), Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the regulations thereunder.

(2) Interest. Interest on bonds, notes, and other interest-bearing obligations of resident foreign corporations constitutes, in its entirety, income from sources within the United States and is subject to tax by the United States when received by a nonresident alien individual or other foreign corporation, if 20 percent or more of the gross income of the paying corporation for the statutory period was derived from sources within the United States. See section 861 (a) (1) (B), section 872 (a), and section 882 (b), Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the regulations thereunder.

(b) Exemption from United States tax. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, Article XII (1) of the convention provides that dividends and interest paid by a Finnish corporation shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax except where the recipient is a citizen, resident, or corporation or other entity of the United States. The exemption so provided shall apply even though the corporation paying the dividends or interest is a resident foreign corporation at the time of payment and without regard to the percentage of its gross income from sources within the United States.

§ 511.116 Visiting professors or teachers—(a) General. Pursuant to Article XIII of the convention, a professor or teacher, a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, who temporarily visits the United States for the purpose of teaching for a period not exceeding two years at any university, college, school, or other educational institution situated within the United States shall, for a period not exceeding two years from the date of his initial arrival in the United States, be exempt from United States tax with respect to his remuneration earned in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952, for such teaching during such period.

(b) More than two years. The exemption granted by Article XIII is applicable to remuneration earned during such part of the individual's visit as does not exceed two years from the date of arrival even though the total period of his presence in the United States may extend beyond two years, provided that during such entire period he may be considered to be temporarily visiting the United States and that the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section are otherwise satisfied.

(c) Nonresidence presumed. An individual who otherwise qualifies for the exemption from United States tax granted by Article XIII shall, for a period of not more than two years immediately succeeding the date of his arrival within the United States for the purpose of such teaching, be deemed to have the tax status of a nonresident alien in the absence of proof of his intention to remain indefinitely in the United States. See section 871 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 511.117 Students or apprentices—(a) General. Under Article XIV of the convention, a student, or apprentice, a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, who temporarily visits the United States exclusively for the purposes of study or for acquiring business or technical experience shall not include in gross income and shall be exempt from United States tax with respect to amounts derived by him in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1952, and received during such years from without the United States as remittances for the purpose of his maintenance or studies.

(b) Personal services. The exemption granted by Article XIV of the convention does not apply to amounts received as compensation for labor or personal services.

§ 511.118 Credit against United States tax for Finnish tax—(a) General—(1) Taxable as though no convention. Notwithstanding any other provision of the convention, the United States, in determining the United States tax of a citizen or resident of the United States or of a domestic corporation, may, under Article XV (1) (a) of the convention, include in the basis upon which such tax is imposed all items of income taxable under the revenue laws of the United States, as though the convention had not come into effect. For example, despite the exemption from United States tax granted by Article VIII of the convention with respect to a copyright royalty derived from sources within the United States by a resident of Finland, such royalty shall be included in gross income and is subject to United States tax when so derived by a resident of Finland who is a citizen of the United States, even though such resident has no permanent establishment in the United States.

(2) Exception. Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the exclusion from gross income and exemption from United States tax granted by Article X (1) of the convention with respect to wages, salaries, and similar compensation, and pensions, paid by Finland or any political subdivisions or communities thereof shall not be denied. See Article XV (2) of the convention.

(b) Application of credit—(1) General. For the purpose of mitigating double taxation, Article XV (1) (a) of the convention provides that a citizen of the United States, a citizen of Finland who is a resident of the United States, or a domestic corporation, deriving income from sources within Finland shall be allowed a credit against the United States tax for the amount of Finnish tax paid or accrued during the taxable year. This credit shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 131 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 as in effect on December 18, 1952, but subject to the provisions of Article XXI (2) of the convention.

(2) Similar credit requirement. By virtue of the provisions of Article XV (1) (b) of the convention, relating to the credit against Finnish tax, Finland satisfies the similar credit requirement set forth in section 901 (b) (3), Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the case of Finnish citizens residing in the United States, but only with respect to taxes paid to Finland and not with respect to taxes paid to another foreign country. This subparagraph shall not be construed, however, to prevent Finland from otherwise satisfying the similar credit requirement, in accordance with section 901 of the 1954 Code and the regulations thereunder, with respect to taxes paid to another foreign country. Thus, if pursuant to a convention between Finland and another foreign country, Finland were to exempt from its income taxes the income received from sources within such other foreign country by a United States citizen residing in Finland, or were to allow a credit against its income taxes for the income taxes of the other foreign country on such income, then Finland would, in accordance with such regulations under section 901, satisfy the similar credit requirement of section 901 (b) (3) with respect to income taxes paid to such other foreign country by a Finnish citizen residing in the United States.

§ 511.119 Exchange of information—(a) General. By Articles XVII, XIX and XXII of the convention, the United States and Finland adopt the principle of exchange of such information as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of the convention, preventing fraud, or for the administration of statutory provisions against tax avoidance in relation to the taxes which are the subject of the convention, but not including information which would be contrary to public policy or which would disclose any trade secret or trade process. The information and correspondence relative to exchange of information may be transmitted directly by the Commissioner to the Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance.

(b) Return of information by withholding agents. (1) To facilitate compliance with Article XVII of the convention, every United States withholding agent shall make and file in duplicate with the District Director of Internal Revenue, Baltimore 2, Maryland, an information return on Form 1042 Supplement, with respect to persons having addresses in Finland, which shall be filed for the calendar year 1955 and subsequent calendar years. This return shall be filed simultaneously with Form 1042.

(2) There shall be reported on such Form 1042 Supplement all items of fixed or determinable annual or periodical income (and amounts described in section 402 (a) (2), section 631 (b) and (c), and section 1235 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which are considered to be gains from the sale or exchange of capital assets) derived from sources within the United States and paid to nonresident aliens (including nonresident alien individuals, fiduciaries, and partnerships) and to nonresident foreign corporations, whose addresses at the time of payment were in Finland, including such items of income upon which, in accordance with the withholding regulations under the convention, no withholding of United States tax is required; except that any of such items which constitute interest in respect of which Form 1001–FIN or substitute Form 1001–FIN has been filed in duplicate with the withholding agent is not required to be reported on such Form 1042 Supplement.

(c) Information to be furnished in ordinary course. In compliance with the provisions of Article XVII of the convention, the Commissioner will transmit to the Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance, as soon as practicable after the close of the calendar year 1955 and of each subsequent calendar year during which the convention is in effect, the following information relating to such preceding calendar year:

(1) The duplicate copy of each available Form 1042 Supplement filed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section; and

(2) The duplicate copy of each available ownership certificate, Form 1001-FIN, and substitute Form 1001-FIN, filed pursuant to the withholding regulations under the convention, in connection with coupon bond interest.

(d) Information in specific cases. Under the provisions and limitations of Articles XVII and XIX of the convention and upon request of the Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance, the Commissioner shall furnish to the Taxation Department information available to, or obtainable by, the Commissioner relative to the tax liability of any person under the revenue laws of Finland in any case in which such information is necessary for carrying out the provisions of the convention, preventing fraud, or administering statutory provisions against tax avoidance in relation to the taxes which are the subject of the convention.

§ 511.120 Double taxation claims—(a) General. Under Article XX of the convention, where the taxpayer shows proof that the action of the revenue authorities of the United States or Finland has resulted in double taxation contrary to the provisions of the convention, he is entitled to lodge a claim with the country of which he is a citizen; or, if he is not a citizen of either country, with the country of which he is a resident; or, if the taxpayer is a corporation or other entity, with the country in which it is created or organized. The article provides that, should the taxpayer's claim be upheld, the competent authority of the country with which the claim is lodged shall undertake to come to an agreement with the competent authority of the other country with a view to equitable avoidance of the double taxation in question.

(b) Manner of filing claim. Such a claim on behalf of a United States citizen, corporation, or other entity, or on behalf of a resident of the United States who is not a Finnish citizen, shall be filed with the Commissioner. The claim shall be set up in the form of a letter addressed to "The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C." and shall show fully all facts and law on the basis of which the claimant alleges that such double taxation has resulted. If the Commissioner determines that there is an appropriate basis for the claim under the convention, he shall take up the matter with the Taxation Department of the Ministry of Finance with a view to arranging an agreement of the character contemplated by Article XX.

§ 511.121 Beneficiaries of an estate or trust—(a) Qualified beneficiary. If he otherwise satisfies the requirements of the respective articles concerned, a non-resident alien who is a beneficiary of an estate or trust shall be entitled to the exemption from, or reduction in the rate of, United States tax granted by Articles VI, VII, VIII, and XII of the convention with respect to dividends, interest, and copyright royalties and other like amounts, to the extent that (1) any amount paid, credited, or required to be distributed by such estate or trust to such beneficiary is deemed to consist of such items and (2) such items would, without regard to the convention, be includible in his gross income.

(b) Amounts otherwise includible in gross income of beneficiary. For the determination of amounts which, without regard to the convention, are includible in the gross income of the beneficiary, see subchapter J of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and the regulations thereunder.

§ 511.122 Members of a partnership—(a) General. Whether an individual, corporation, or other entity, a member of a partnership, is subject to United States tax upon such person's distributive share of the income of the partnership depends upon both the status of the partnership and the status of the member.

(b) Citizen partner. A citizen or resident of the United States, or a domestic corporation, is subject to United States tax upon such person's distributive share of the income of a partnership as though the convention had not come into effect, but subject to the provisions of § 511.118; even though other members, by reason of benefits granted by the convention, are not subject to United States tax upon their distributive share of the income.

(c) Noncitizen partner. In any case in which income is derived from sources within the United States by a partnership, any member of such partnership who has a permanent establishment in the United States or who is either (1) a nonresident alien not a resident of Finland or (2) a foreign corporation or other entity which is not Finnish is not entitled, with respect to such member's distributive share of such income, to any benefit granted by the convention solely to nonresident aliens residing in Finland, or to Finnish corporations or other entities, having no permanent establishment in the United States. Conversely, any member of a partnership who individually complies with the requirements for obtaining any such benefit will be entitled thereto with respect to such member's distributive share of such income. A member of a partnership which has a permanent establishment in the United States shall likewise be considered to have a permanent establishment in the United States.

§ 511.123 Withholding regulations. For regulations pertaining to the release or refund of excess tax withheld, and to exemption from, or reduction in the rate of, withholding of United States tax at source, in the case of dividends, interest, copyright royalties, private pensions, and life annuities received by a nonresident alien who is a resident of Finland, or by a Finnish corporation or other entity, see Treasury Decision 6030, approved July 10, 1953 (26 CFR (1939) 7.700 through 7.710).

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 8—NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE

APPLICATIONS

Immediately following § 8.114, a new centerhead and a new § 8.115 are added as follows:

APPLICATIONS FOR GOVERNMENT LIFE INSURANCE UNDER SECTION 623, NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE ACT, MADE BY PERSON IN ACTIVE SERVICE ON JANUARY 1, 1957, BUT FILED PRIOR TO THAT DATE

§ 8.115 Applications for National Service Life Insurance and United States Government Life Insurance under section 623 of the National Service Life Insurance Act, which are made by persons in the active service on January 1, 1957, but filed prior to that date. (a) Applications for reinstatement or issuance of permanent plan National Service Life Insurance or United States Government Life Insurance, under the provisions of section 623 (a) of the National Service Life Insurance Act, which are made on or after August 1, 1956, and prior to January 1, 1957, by persons who are in the active service on January 1, 1957, and who have had continuous indemnity protection since the date they cash surrendered their permanent plan insurance, shall, for the purposes of Public Law 881, 84th Congress, be deemed to have been made as of January 1, 1957. No insurance protection shall be granted under such applications prior to January 1, 1957, and protection shall be granted as of that date only if the applicant is eligible for such insurance and shall have met the monetary requirements for the reinstatement or issuance of insurance under section 623 (a) of the act by that date.

(b) Applications for issuance of National Service Life Insurance or United States Government Life Insurance on the 5-year level premium term plan, under the provisions of section 623 (b) of the National Service Life Insurance Act, which are made on or after August 1, 1956, and prior to January 1, 1957, by persons who are in the active service on January 1, 1957, and who have had continuous indemnity protection since the date their term insurance expired, shall, for the purposes of Public Law 881, 84th Congress, be deemed to have been made as of January 1, 1957. No insurance protection shall be granted under such applications prior to January 1, 1957, and protection shall be granted as of that date only if the applicant is eligible for such insurance and shall have met the monetary requirements for issuance of insurance under section 623 (b) of the act by that date: Provided, That if the date of the physical examination (showing the applicant to be in good health) is more than 31 days prior to January 1, 1957, no insurance shall be granted unless the applicant is in as good health on January 1, 1957, as he was on the date of the physical examination.

(c) The effective date of new insurance issued under this section shall be January 1, 1957, with the exception of those cases where the applicant requests that the new insurance be antedated. In such cases, the insurance cannot be antedated more than 6 months prior to January 1, 1957.

(Sec. 501(a), 70 Stat. 880)
(Sec. 608, 54 Stat. 1012, as amended, sec. 6, 65 Stat. 35; 38 U. S. C. 808, 855. Interpret or apply sec. 602, 54 Stat. 1009, as amended; 38 U. S. C. 802)

This regulation is effective September 18, 1956.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1337]

[72277]

OREGON

PARTIALLY REVOKING EXECUTIVE ORDER OF APRIL 17, 1926, WHICH CREATED PUBLIC WATER RESERVE NO. 107

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141), and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

The Executive order of April 17, 1926, creating Public Water Reserve No. 107, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 19 S., R. 33½ E.,
Sec. 21, E½NE¼;
Sec. 22, NW¼NW¼.

The areas described aggregate 120 acres.

The land is located in Harney County and is rough and mountainous with no portion being capable of cultivation. The soil consists of a sandy, clay loam and is generally stony. The land supports a sagebrush type association with a scattering of juniper. Annual precipitation is approximately 12 inches. The land is within Grazing District No. 3.

No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other non-mineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10 a. m. on October 18, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10 a. m. on January 17, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10 a. m. on January 17, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws, and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will be open to location for non-metalliferous minerals under the United States mining laws beginning at 10 a. m. on January 17, 1957.

Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Portland, Oregon.

FRED G. AANDAHL,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—Management of Wildlife Conservation Areas

PART 32—SOUTHWESTERN REGION

SUBPART—IMPERIAL NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, ARIZONA AND CALIFORNIA

HUNTING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, it has been determined that a revision of the public hunting areas can be authorized without interfering with the primary purpose for which the Imperial National Wildlife Refuge was established.

Inasmuch as the following regulation is a relaxation of existing restrictions applicable to the Imperial National Wildlife Refuge, notice and public procedure thereon are not required (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001, et seq.).

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, § 32.102 is revised to read as follows:

§ 32.102 Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States within the following-described areas of the refuge shall be open to hunting:

(a) Area I. That part of the refuge between River Station No. 1 and River Station No. 4.

(b) Area II. That part of the refuge westward and northward from River Station No. 7.

(Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i)

Dated: September 12, 1956.

PART 32—SOUTHWESTERN REGION

SUBPART—KOFA GAME RANGE, ARIZONA

DEER HUNTING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of a joint investigation by representatives of the Arizona Game and Fisk Commission the Bureau of Land Management, and the Fish and Wildlife Service, it has been determined that in order to safeguard and preserve the limited forage available for bighorn sheep inhabiting the Kofa Game Range, the removal of an overpopulation of competing deer from the range should be accomplished from time to time through public hunting.

Since the following regulation is a relaxation of existing restrictions applicable to the Kofa Game Range, notice and public procedure thereon are not required (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER the following subpart is added:

SUBPART—KOFA GAME RANGE, ARIZONA

DEER HUNTING

Sec.
32.211 Deer hunting permitted.
32.212 Joint survey.
32.213 State laws.
32.214 Hunting licenses and permits.
32.215 Entry.
32.216 State cooperation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 32.211 to 32.215 issued under sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i.

§ 32.211 Deer hunting permitted. Subject to the conditions and requirements of §§ 32.212 through 32.216, the Regional Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, after consulting with the Arizona Game and Fish Commission and the Bureau of Land Management, may open to deer hunting from time to time any or all of the lands of the Kofa Game Range by the suitable posting of such lands and by other appropriate notice when he has determined that such action is necessary to safeguard and preserve the limited forage available for bighorn sheep inhabiting the range.

§ 32.212 Joint survey. The propriety of permitting deer hunting on the Kofa Game Range in any year shall be determined by joint examination or consultation by and between the Fish and Wildlife Service, the Bureau of Land Management, and the Game and Fish Commission of the State of Arizona. If such annual examination indicates a surplus of deer which should be reduced, the number of deer to be removed shall be determined and agreed upon by the participating agencies.

§ 32.213 State laws. Any person who hunts within the Kofa Game Range must comply with all applicable State laws and regulations.

§ 32.214 Hunting licenses and permits. Any person who hunts within the Kofa Game Range shall be in possession of a valid State hunting license, if such license is required. Such license shall serve as a Federal permit for deer hunting on the Kofa Game Range and must be carried on the person of the licensee while so hunting. This license must be exhibited upon the request of any representative of the Arizona Game and Fish Commission authorized to enforce the State game laws or of any representative of the United States Department of the Interior, or other authorized official. Upon request of any of the aforesaid representatives, the permittee must present for inspection all deer killed by him or in his possession.

§ 32.215 Entry. Entry on and use of the Kofa Game Range for any purpose are governed by Parts 18 and 20 of this chapter, and strict compliance therewith is required.

§ 32.216 State cooperation. State cooperation may be enlisted in the regulation, management, and operation of the public hunting area, and the State may promulgate such special regulations as may be necessary for such regulation, management, and operation. In the event that such State regulations are issued, compliance therewith shall be a requisite to lawful entry for the purpose of hunting.

Dated: September 12, 1956.

LESTER BAGLEY,
Acting Director.

PART 34—SOUTHEASTERN REGION

SUBPART—WHITE RIVER NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, ARKANSAS

HUNTING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of reports and recommendations of representatives of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission and on the basis of investigations by representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, I have determined that the hunting of upland game may be permitted on certain lands of the White River National Wildlife Refuge without interfering with the primary purpose of the area.

Since the following regulation is a relaxation of the existing restrictions application to the White River National Wildlife Refuge, notice and public procedure thereon are not required (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER the following sections are added:

HUNTING

Sec.
34.271 Archery hunting permitted.
34.272 State laws.
34.273 Hunting licenses and permits.
34.274 Entry.
34.275 Firearms prohibited.

AUTHORITY: §§ 34.271 to 34.275 issued under sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i.

§ 34.271 Archery hunting permitted. The Regional Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, after an examination of the habitat and a determination of the animal populations, may, if he deems such action to be warranted, open to the hunting of deer, squirrels, rabbits, bobcats, and raccoons by the use only of bow (except crossbow) and arrow such areas of the White River National Wildlife Refuge, Arkansas, as may be designated by suitable posting. Such posting shall be accomplished under the direction of the refuge officer in charge.

§ 34.272 State laws. Any person who hunts within the refuge must comply with all applicable State laws and regulations.

§ 34.273 Hunting licenses and permits. Any person who hunts within the refuge shall be in possession of a valid State hunting license if such license is required, which license shall serve as a Federal permit for hunting on the refuge: Provided, That the refuge officer in charge may limit the number of persons hunting on the refuge and may require a special permit in addition to the required State license, which permit may limit the area within which the permittee may hunt and the period for which permission is granted.

§ 34.274 Entry. Entry on and use of the refuge for any purpose are governed by Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter and strict compliance therewith is required. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of hunting shall follow such routes of travel as may be designated by suitable posting by the refuge officer in charge.

§ 34.275 Firearms prohibited. The use or possession of firearms of any description on the refuge is prohibited.

LESTER BAGLEY,
Acting Director.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[10 CFR Part 83]

WAIVER OF PATENT RIGHTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the adoption of the following rules is contemplated. All interested persons who desire to submit written comments and suggestions for consideration in connection with the proposed rules shall send them to the United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C., attention: General Counsel, within 30 days after publication of this notice.

Sec.
83.1 Waiver.
83.2 Limitations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 83.1 and 83.2 issued under sec. 161, 68 Stat. 948; 42 U. S. C. 2201. Interpret or apply sec. 152, 68 Stat. 944; 42 U. S. C. 2182.

§ 83.1 Waiver. The Atomic Energy Commission waives its rights under section 152 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (68 Stat. 919) with respect to inventions and discoveries resulting from the use of the following materials and services:

(a) Source materials, special nuclear materials, and heavy water distributed by the Commission in accordance with the "Schedules of Base Charges for Materials Sold or Leased by AEC for Use in Private Atomic Energy Development and Base Prices Which the AEC Will Pay For Certain Products From Private Reactors."

(b) Radioactive and stable isotopes, irradiation services (this waiver does not include inventions or discoveries made by AEC or AEC contractor personnel in the course of or in connection with the performance of an irradiation service), and radioactive material resulting from the performance of an irradiation service sold or distributed by the AEC in accordance with the prices and charges established by:

(1) Oak Ridge National Laboratory Inventory and Price List of electromagnetically enriched and other stable isotopes.

(2) Oak Ridge National Laboratory Catalog and Price List of radioisotopes, special materials, and services.

(3) National Reactor Testing Station Catalog of Price and charges on irradiation services at the materials testing reactor.

(4) Argonne National Laboratory schedule of charges for irradition services at its irradiation facilities.

(5) Brookhaven National Laboratory schedule of prices and charges for irradiation services and radioisotopes.

(c) Radioisotopes distributed in accordance with prices established in Part 37 of this chapter.

§ 83.2 Limitations. (a) Nothing contained in this part shall be deemed to waive any rights in inventions or discoveries where a person or a group of persons acting on behalf of the person requesting the irradiation service works at the AEC facility in connection with the irradiation service. In such event, special arrangements are made.

(b) Nothing contained in this part shall be construed to affect the provisions of any written agreement to which the AEC has or may become a party.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of September 1956.

R. W. COOK,
Deputy General Manager.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 11]

[Docket No. 11822; FCC 56-873]

INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of Part 11 with respect to the availability of frequencies below 25 Mc in the industrial radio services.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matters.

2. The Commission proposes to amend Part 11 of its rules so as to stipulate that the selection and assignment of a frequency below 25 Mc, for use by a station to be licensed in the Industrial Radio Services, must necessarily be on a case-by-case basis, and that the individual frequencies in that range now listed in Part 11 are not, in every case, available for assignment, particularly in the territories and possessions of the United States.

3. As a basis for the proposal, it may be noted, that International Telecommunication and Radio Conferences were held in Atlantic City in 1947, at which the radio spectrum was reallocated among the several services. The regulations adopted at Atlantic City provided for the calling of a special Administrative Radio Conference at a later date and, for administrative and allocation purposes, divided the geographical areas of the world into three Regions. With the exception of certain minor dependencies or possessions which are in Region 3, the United States and its territories and possessions are included in Region 2, which embraces North, Central and South America, as well as the Hawaiian Islands, Greenland and the West Indies.

4. As a preliminary to the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference, which was held at Geneva, Switzerland, in 1951, an inter-American and a Region 2 Conference were held during 1949. These conferences dealt primarily with the allocation of frequencies below 4000 kc and as a result it became necessary for the Commission to rearrange many frequency assignments in the range or 1605–3500 kc which, under the Atlantic City Radio Regulations, were not in appropriate sub-bands. This was accomplished on a planned basis, first by asking for public comment with respect to the proposed plans of reassignment and second, by coordinating such planned reassignments with other countries in Region 2. These plans were coordinated on a station-by-station basis (1) to ensure that every existing station which was required to change frequency was assigned an appropriate new frequency, and (2) to ensure that those stations which were not required to change frequencies could continue on their existing assignments. This action resulted in the establishment of a Region 2 International Frequency List, which was adopted at the above-mentioned Geneva conference, and which contained all final or permanent assignments in the affected range for stations which were then in existence.

5. As a result of the interference protection accorded existing stations by the Region 2 International Frequency List, it has become necessary that all new assignments of frequencies below 25 Mc be considered on a case-by-case basis, so as to protect those assignments in the List which already exist even though some stations may not yet have been moved to operate thereon. In the case of Part 11 of the Commission's rules, it has not been found practicable to amend the Rules so as to show the particular areas in which the frequencies below 25 Mc listed therein are actually available for assignment or are already assigned in the Region 2 List. Inasmuch as there may be cases in which the old listed frequencies in this range cannot be assigned without creating an interference situation with respect to a co-channel or adjacent channel assignment of some other station, particularly in the territories and possessions, it is considered desirable to provide for the assignment of any frequency in appropriate bands which, on the basis of an engineering analysis, may prove useful to the applicant and will not result in creating or receiving interference to or from other services.

6. The proposed amendments, authority for which is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, are set forth below.

7. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before October 30, 1956, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to original comments may be filed within ten days from the last day for filing original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in these matters and, if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, a notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

3. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: September 11, 1956.

Released: September 13, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,

[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS, Secretary.

A. Section 11.252 is proposed to be amended in the following particulars:

1. In paragraph (b), delete the frequencies 2292 kc, 2398 kc, and 4637.5 kc, together with the footnotes 1, 3, and 4 referenced thereto.

2. Add a new paragraph, to read as follows:

(x) (1) Frequencies in the bands listed below may be assigned to Base Stations and to Mobile Stations in this service upon a satisfactory showing that use of frequencies above 25 Mc will not meet the operational requirements of the applicant: Provided, however, That due to the occupancy of the subject frequency bands by many stations in many services of this and other countries frequencies in the listed bands, in some cases, may be unavailable for assignment and, in other cases, may be available only with technical and/or operating limitations. In addition to the information routinely shown, each Base Station application should indicate the proposed transmitter output power; the type of antenna system and its approximate radiation pattern if not omnidirectional; the minimum necessary hours of operation; and the desired service area. A Mobile Station application should include the proposed transmitter output power and the minimum necessary hours of operation. The frequency bands are as follows:

Bands	Bands
1605–1750 kc	2505–2850 kc
2107–2170 kc	3155–3400 kc
2194–2495 kc	4438–4650 kc

(2) The following frequencies may be assigned to Base and Mobile Stations at many locations within the continental limits of the United States and, in some cases, in territories and possessions, in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph:

Frequencies
2292 kc
2398 kc
4637.5 kc

B. Section 11.302 is proposed to be amended in the following particulars:

1. In paragraph (b) delete the frequencies 1614 kc, 1628 kc, 1652 kc, 1676 kc, 1700 kc, 2292 kc, 2398 kc, and 4637.5 kc together with the footnotes 1, 2, and 3 referenced thereto.

2. Add a new paragraph, to read as follows:

(x) (1) Frequencies in the bands listed below may be assigned to Base Stations and to Mobile Stations in this service upon a satisfactory showing that use of frequencies above 25 Mc will not meet the operational requirements of the applicant: Provided, however, That due to the occupancy of the subject frequency bands by many stations in many services of this and other countries frequencies in the listed bands, in some cases, may be unavailable for assignment and, in other cases, may be available only with technical and/or operating limitations. 1605–1750 kc	2505–2850 kc
2194–2495 kc	4438–4650 kc

(2) The following frequencies may be assigned to Base and Mobile Stations at many locations within the continental limits of the United States and, in some cases, in territories and possessions, in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph:

Frequencies	Frequencies
1614 kc	1700 kc
1628 kc	2292 kc
1652 kc	2398 kc
1676 kc	4637.5 kc

C. Section 11.352 is proposed to be amended in the following particulars:

1. In paragraph (b), delete the frequencies 1676 kc, 1700 kc, and 2398 kc, together with the footnote 1 referenced thereto.

2. Add a new paragraph, to read as follows:

(x) (1) Frequencies in the bands listed below may be assigned to Base Stations and to Mobile Stations in this service upon a satisfactory showing that use of frequencies above 25 Mc will not meet the operational requirements of the applicant; Provided, however, That due to the occupancy of the subject frequency bands by many stations in many services of this and other countries frequencies in the listed bands, in some cases, may be unavailable for assignment and, in other cases, may be available only with technical and/or operating limitations. In addition to the information routinely shown, each Base Station application also should indicate the proposed transmitter output power; the type of antenna system and its approximate radiation pattern if not omnidirectional; the minimum necessary hours of operation; and the desired service area. A Mobile Station application should include the proposed transmitter output power and the minimum necessary hours of operation. The frequency bands are as follows:

Bands	Bands
1605–1750 kc	2505–2850 kc

[No. 9999]

FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN SYSTEM OPERATIONS

SALES COMMISSIONS

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Resolved that, pursuant to Part 108 of the general regulations of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (24 CFR Part 108) and § 142.1 of the rules and regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System (24 CFR 142.1), it is proposed that Part 145 of the rules and regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System (24 CFR Part 145) be amended by adding after § 145.4 a new section to be numbered § 145.5 reading as follows:

§ 145.5 Sales commissions. A Federal association shall not, directly or indirectly, pay any sales commission except a sales commission or sales commissions not exceeding in the aggregate one quarter of one percent of the amount received and credited by such association upon the opening or increasing of an account or investment (less the amount thereof prior to increase in the case of an account or investment increased). No Federal association shall allow to any salesman, solicitor, or other person, including any investor, any discount or rebate on the opening or increasing of investments or accounts in such institution. As used in this section the term "sales commission" means any commission, fee, or other compensation for soliciting or obtaining investments or accounts in a Federal association, or any commission, fee, or other compensation the amount of which is based in whole or in part upon the opening, increasing, or amount of investments or accounts in a Federal association.

Resolved further, that all interested persons are hereby given the opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments as to whether said proposed amendment should be adopted, should be modified and adopted as modified, or should be rejected. All such written data, views, or arguments must be received through the mail or otherwise at the Office of the Secretary, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Federal Home Loan Bank Board Building, 101 Indiana Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business of October 19, 1956, to be entitled to be considered, but any received later may be considered in the discretion of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In re applications of Sam Ferguson Musser and Gloria G. Musser, d/b as Musser Broadcasting Company, Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 11539; File No. BP–9698; Will Groff, tr/as Colonial Broadcasting Company, Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 11540, File No. BP–9759; H. Raymond Stadiem, Lester P. Etter and M. Leonard Savage, d/b as Radio Columbia, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 11541, File No. BP–9940; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of September 1956;

The Commission having under consideration (1) Petition to Enlarge Issues filed April 24, 1956 by Musser Broadcasting Company; (2) Response to Petition to Enlarge Issues filed May 3, 1956 by the Broadcast Bureau; (3) Opposition to Petition to Enlarge Issues filed by Radio Columbia on May 4, 1956; and (4) Reply to Opposition to Enlarge Issues filed by Musser Broadcasting Company on May 14, 1956;

It appearing, that good cause for the late filing of the instant petition exists for the reason that the contour predictions upon which the petition is based were not made available by Radio Columbia until April 23, 1956, and that petitioner exercised diligence in submitting its petition thereafter on April 24, 1956;

It further appearing, that on the basis of the data submitted by Radio Columbia, the transmitter site proposed by Radio Columbia may fail to satisfy the requirements of § 3.188 (b) (1) of the Commission's Rules;[1]

It further appearing, that the issues should be enlarged to determine whether the requirements of the rule will be satisfied, that the Commission can decide after hearing whether waiver of the rule would be appropriate, and that amendment of the issues to ascertain whether waiver of compliance should be granted is inappropriate at this time;

It is ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding are enlarged to include the following issue:

To determine whether the transmitter location proposed by Radio Columbia would comply with the requirements of § 3.188 (b) (1) of the Commission's rules.

TEXAS

DESIGNATION OF AREA FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making production emergency loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a-2 (a)), as amended, it has been determined that in the entire State of Texas, except the 57 counties listed in 20 F. R. 7054, production disasters have caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

Pursuant to the authority set forth above, production emergency loans may be made in the entire State of Texas, except in the 57 counties listed in 20 F. R. 7054, but after December 31, 1957, such loans may be made only to applicants who previously received such assistance and who can qualify under established policies and procedures.

United Gas Pipe Line Company (United), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at 1525 Fairfield Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed on April 4, 1955, in Docket No. G-8716, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the act, authorizing United to construct and operate as integral parts of its existing natural gas system, certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described, which are necessary to the transportation and sale of natural gas in interstate commerce, for the purpose of taking natural gas from Arkansas in Crescent Farms Field and Mecom in Crescent Farms and Hollywood Fields, Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated by United consist of two purchase meter stations, approximately 2.37 miles of 8-inch line and appurtenant facilities beginning at a point in the Crescent Farms Field and extending in a southwesterly direction to a point of interconnection with United's 24-inch pipe line near M. P. 30.0, all in Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana.

The estimated total cost of all facilities to be installed by United is $141,001, of which $110,974 is for the 8-inch pipe lines, $19,379 is for the meter stations and $10,648 is for separator installation. The cost will be financed from current working funds.

United's application states that the estimated total gas supply available in reserves to United from the Crescent Farms and Hollywood Fields is 93,496,000 Mcf and that connection with these reserves will help to assure the continued and uninterrupted flow of natural gas to United's customers.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations, and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Wednesday, October 17, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 28, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in ommission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

ARKANSAS-MISSOURI POWER CO. AND MIDSOUTH GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Take notice that Arkansas-Missouri Power Company (Ark-Mo) and MidSouth Gas Company (MidSouth), Arkansas corporations having their principal place of business at Blytheville and Little Rock respectively, filed companion applications on June 15, 1956, for certificates of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, directing physical connection and the sale and delivery of natural gas, and authorizing the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce and the construction and operation of natural gas facilities as hereinafter described, all as more fully represented in the respective applications now on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Ark-Mo proposes to construct and operate approximately 8½ miles of 8⅝ inch transmission line with appurtenances extending from the terminus of its present transmission facilities at Wilson, Arkansas to a proposed juncture with the existing transmission line of MidSouth at Turrell, Arkansas.

Ark-Mo presently serves natural gas at retail in a number of communities in eastern Arkansas and Missouri from its transmission lines in those states. The company receives its gas supply principally from Texas Eastern Transmission Corp. Some gas is also purchased from Texas Illinois Natural Gas Pipe Line Co. for an isolated system at Jackson, Missouri.

Ark-Mo proposes to meet an estimated peak day deficiency for the winter heating season of 1956-57 of 5,077 Mcf of natural gas through purchase of 5,100 Mcf per day from Texas Gas Transmission Corporation. It has included a request in its application for a 7 (a) order against Texas Gas.

Ark-Mo proposes that this gas be delivered by Texas Gas to an existing connection between Texas Gas and MidSouth near Lynchburg, Mississippi, whence MidSouth will transport the gas for Ark-Mo through its existing transmission line to the projected connection with Ark-Mo's proposed facilities at Turrell, Arkansas.

In its application MidSouth requests a certificate of public convenience and necessity to transport a maximum of 5,100 Mcf of Natural gas per day at 14.73 psia for the account of Ark-Mo through that section of its system extending from its point of interconnection with the facilities of Texas Gas at Lynchburg, Mississippi, to Turrell, Arkansas, and to construct and operate the necessary metering facilities to enable it to deliver the gas to Ark-Mo. The estimated total cost of the proposed facilities of MidSouth is $12,714, which MidSouth is capable of supplying from its cash reserves.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 12, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C. concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 27, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Take notice that Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas), A Delaware corporation with its principal place of business located at Owensboro, Kentucky, filed, on August 10, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity for the construction, installation and operation of certain facilities hereinafter described and as more fully represented in its application which is on file with the Commission and is open for public inspection.

Texas Gas seeks authorization to construct, install and operate approximately 13 miles of 20-inch O. D. pipeline extending from the end of Texas Gas' East Lake Palourde 20-inch line to the Thibodaux area, Lafourche Parish, Louisiana, and a gas purchase meter station in the Thibodaux area. The facilities will be used to receive additional gas reserves dedicated to Texas Gas. The proposed facilities are estimated to cost $1,459,000 and will be financed by temporary bank loans. Texas Gas does not propose in its application to serve any additional markets.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C. in accordance with § 1.8 or § 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 27, 1956.

TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Take notice that Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business located at Owensboro, Kentucky, filed, on August 10, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity for the construction, installation and operation of certain facilities hereinafter described and as more fully represented in its application which is on file with the Commission and is open for public inspection.

Texas Gas seeks authorization to construct, install and operate approximately 0.85 mile of 4½-inch O. D. pipe, 2 miles of 8⅝-inch O. D. pipe and 3 gas purchase meters, all in the vicinity of the South Bell City Field, Calcasieu Parish, Louisiana and South Lake Arthur Field, Jefferson Parish, Louisiana. The facilities are to be used to receive additional natural gas reserves dedicated to Texas Gas under contracts with producers in the South Bell City and South Lake Arthur Fields. The estimated cost of the facilities, which will be financed from corporation funds, is $108,500. Texas Gas presently pur-

[Docket No. G-10896]

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

On August 13, 1956, Cities Service Gas Company (Applicant) filed an application in Docket No. G-10896 for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale of gas to Panhandle Eastern Pipe line Company (Panhandle) in the amount of 40,000 Mcf per day, for a contract period of 10 months only, from September 29, 1956.

Applicant states that the proposed sale is a continuation of a sale of approximately 50,000 Mcf per day initiated August 1, 1956 for a 60-day period without certification, under emergency conditions for which such sales may be made pursuant to § 157.22 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

Applicant also states that the gas for the proposed sale will be supplied from Applicant's sources of supply in the Panhandle Texas Field and the Kansas and Oklahoma portions of the Hugoton Field, and that three meter and regulator settings are involved, located as follows:

NE¼, Sec. 24, Township 33 S., Range 34 W., Seward Co., Kansas; SE¼, Sec. 16, Township 4 N., Range 14 E., Texas Co., Oklahoma; SE¼, Sec. 79, Blk. 5, I&GN Ry. Co. Survey, Carson Co., Texas.

Applicant further states that the estimated cost of the above described facilities is $9,350, which will be paid for out of treasury cash, and that the proposed rate of 14.5 cents per Mcf (14.65 psia) is incorporated in Applicant's proposed Rate Schedule EF-2 filed with the Commission.

Applicant alleges that the necessity for the 60-day emergency sale of 50,000 Mcf per day to Panhandle is to extend to the sale of 40,000 Mcf per day for a 10-month period, for which certification is sought herein.

According to the application Panhandle advised Applicant that it (Panhandle) was over-produced in the Kansas and Oklahoma portions of the Hugoton Field and in the Panhandle Field, and that a shortage of supply for its system exists.

Applicant, on the contrary, was and is under-produced in these fields, has a supply exceeding its present requirements therefrom, and wishes to assist Panhandle in its emergency and help the cognizant state commissions maintain proration. Applicant states that if the excess allowables are not delivered to Panhandle, they may ultimately be cancelled by the respective state commissions, and the amounts represented thereby spread to others in the fields and their benefits lost to Applicant.

Circumstances contributory to Applicant's under-production in Hugoton and to its continuance are the acquisition of substantial reserves along the southern part of its system and the contemplated addition of new supply in the Eureka area adjacent to its Guymon-Blackwell line.[1]

The proposed sale to Panhandle appears to involve no detriment to Applicant's own customers, by reason of its representing only 0.0014 percent of total reserves. Applicant states it is unwilling to continue the proposed sale beyond the 10-month period.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 11, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 25, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G-11060]

UNITED FUEL GAS CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED SERVICE AGREEMENTS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

United Fuel Gas Company (United Fuel) on July 25, 1956, initially tendered for filing service agreements dated June 18 and 25, 1956, with The Ohio Fuel Gas Company and The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, respectively, its affiliates in the Columbia Gas System. Copies of these proposed service agreements were mailed on August 9, 1956, to Portsmouth Gas Company and the nonaffiliated wholesale customers of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation and Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company. The filing was not completed until August 13, 1956.

United Fuel's present service agreements for sales to Ohio Fuel and Manufacturers, which carry a 20-year term expiring January 31, 1970 and effective thereafter on a year-to-year basis, provide for maximum delivery obligations and entitlements of 256,000 Mcf and 204,000 Mcf per day, respectively, under Rate Schedule LS-1 or any superseding rate schedule. Following the Commission's decision on rate form in Docket Nos. G-2451, etc., In the Matter of United Fuel Gas Company, et al., issued May 11, 1956, United Fuel filed, and the Commission accepted, notice of cancellation of Rate Schedule LS-1, effective from the date of that decision. Thus the foregoing "delivery obligations" under the LS-1 schedule became "contract demands" under the superseding CDS-1 rate schedule approved by the aforementioned decision.

United Fuel, under the proposed service agreements (with expiration date of May 11, 1976 and thereafter on a year-to-year basis), seeks to effect reductions in the present maximum "delivery obligations" or "contract demands" from 256,000 Mcf to 225,000 Mcf per day for Ohio Fuel and from 204,500 Mcf to 149,000 Mcf per day for Manufacturers. United Fuel states that the proposed contract demands are determined from the maximum quantities it will have available for delivery to the two purchasers from November 1, 1956 through March 31, 1957 and by the requirements of such purchasers. It further states that any volumes in excess of these contract demands which may be delivered to Ohio Fuel and Manufacturers during the summer months would be billed under Rate Schedule AOS-1, authorized overrun service. Available data indicate that substantial volumes of gas, in excess of the newly proposed contract demands, have been and will be delivered to Ohio Fuel and Manufacturers under Rate Schedule AOS-1 during the summer months for storage purposes.

The use of the "contract demand" as proposed by United Fuel does not appear to be consistent with the industry concept and practice where the contract demand represents the maximum delivery obligation. In addition, the proposal to supply substantial volumes of gas regularly and over extended periods to Ohio Fuel and Manufacturers under Rate Schedule AOS-1 does not appear to be within the intent of the applicability and character of service provisions of that schedule as authorized by the Commission's order issued on May 11, 1956.

Comments and protests on United Fuel's filing have been received from Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company and Washington Gas Light Company.

The reduction in the maximum delivery obligations or contract demands proposed by United Fuel in its filing completed on August 13, 1956, have not been shown to be justified and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise unlawful.

[1] Docket No. G-10934.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing, pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 5 of such act, concerning the lawfulness of the aforementioned service agreements, sales and operations related thereto as proposed by United Fuel, and as referred to above, and that said service agreements be suspended as hereinafter provided and the use thereof be deferred pending hearing and decision thereon.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 4, 5, 15 and 16 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules and regulations, including rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR Chapter I), a public hearing hereby is set to commence on November 5, 1956 at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes in the contract demands of Ohio Fuel and Manufacturers as contained in the service agreemnts filed by United Fuel on August 13, 1956 and the sales and operations related thereto as proposed by United Fuel: Provided, however, That such hearing shall be limited to the issues herein set forth and shall, in no way, constitute a retrial of the matters decided by the Commission's order issued May 11, 1956 in Docket Nos. G-2451, etc., In the Matter of United Fuel Gas Company, et al.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon United Fuel's proposed service agreements for sale of gas to Ohio Fuel and Manufacturers hereby are suspended and the use thereof deferred until November 1, 1956, and until such further time thereafter as they may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f).

Issued: September 12, 1956.

IROQUOIS GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF NATURAL GAS PROPERTIES

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Iroquois Gas Corporation ("Iroquois"), a public-utility subsidiary of National Fuel Gas Company ("National"), a registered holding company, has filed an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 9 (a) (1) and 10 thereof as applicable to the proposed transaction, which is summarized as follows:

Iroquois proposes to buy, for a cash consideration of $450,000, all of the natural gas properties of Reservation Gas Company and Finance Oil Company, non-affiliates, located in Erie, Cattaraugua, and Chautauqua Counties, New York, consisting primarily of 49 producing wells, approximately 45 miles of 2, 3, 4 and 6-inch pipeline, 2 compressor stations, various parcels of real property, and gas producing and storage leaseholds covering approximately 27,850 acres.

Iroquois states that the purchase price was arrived at by arm's-length bargaining; that it regards the price as fair and reasonable for these assets considered simply as producing properties; that for the immediate future it intends to operate them only as producing properties; that the properties are suitable for eventual conversion into underground storage areas for natural gas, supplementing its existing storage pools in the same locality.

No fees or commissions will be paid in connection with the transaction except legal fees, estimated at $500. In the opinion of the company's counsel, no regulatory commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction in the matter.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 27, 1956 at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

OHIO EDISON CO.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF UTILITY ASSETS

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Ohio Edison Company ("Company"), a registered holding company and a public utility company, has filed with this Commission an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 9 (a) (1) and 10 thereof as applicable to the proposed transaction, which is summarized as follows:

Pursuant to a Sale Agreement dated August 27, 1956 between the Company and the Village of Huron, Ohio ("Huron"), the Company proposes to acquire, for a cash consideration of $335,000, the Huron municipal electric distribution system, including approximately 26 pole miles of overhead distribution facilities, 314 street lights, and 178 line transformers of approximately 2,424 Kva. aggregate capacity, and serving approximately 1,350 customers.

The Company presently supplies power to Huron for distribution over its system, amounting to 4,963,200 Kwh, with revenue of $74,950, for the 12-month period ended July 31, 1956.

It is stated that Huron is situated within the Company's service area and in close proximity to communities presently served by the Company; that, upon consummation of the acquisition, the property will become a part of the Company's integrated system; that such integration should make it possible to improve the service and increase the sales of electric energy over the acquired facilities; that the rates to be charged will be the Company's regular rates for comparable communities, and that a comparison of such rates with those presently in effect in Huron indicates that there will be an overall reduction in charges for service.

The Company proposes to record the property in its books on the basis of original cost, actual or estimated, and to dispose of the difference, if any, between the purchase price and such original cost in accordance with the accounting regulations and orders of The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and the Federal Power Commission, which will have accounting jurisdiction with respect thereto. It is stated that no commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed acquisition.

The Company estimates its fees and expenses in connection with the proposed acquisition as follows:

Commonwealth Associates Inc., for engineering services	$3,000
A. H. Heidenreich, independent consulting engineer	5,000
Winthrop, Stimson, Putnam & Roberts, for legal services	1,000
Company payroll costs and expenses	3,500
Miscellaneous	200
Total	12,700

It is requested that the Commission's order be made effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 27, 1956 at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed:

Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided by Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

[File No. 812-1926]

EQUITY GENERAL CORP. AND STERLING PRECISION CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER EXEMPTING TRANSACTION BETWEEN AFFILIATES

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Equity General Corporation ("Equity General"), a subsidiary of The Equity Corporation, a registered closed-end, nondiversified investment company, and Sterling Precision Corporation ("Sterling") have filed a joint application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act the partial redemption by Sterling of its debentures owned by Equity General.

Equity General, all of whose outstanding stock is owned by The Equity Corporation, owns securities of industrial companies. Sterling, organized under the laws of Delaware, is engaged directly and through subsidiaries in various manufacturing operations. Sterling's consolidated long-term debt as of April 30, 1956, consisted of $3,400,000 of 4½ percent convertible debentures of Sterling due 1971 (each $6 principal amount convertible into one share of common stock) and $877,709 of other long-term debt, principally of subsidiaries. Equity General owned $1,800,000 of the debentures of Sterling, and Schuyler Corporation, which is not affiliated with Equity General or Sterling, owned the balance of $1,600,000. Sterling's outstanding capital stock consisted of 97,286 shares of 5 percent convertible preferred stock, $10 par value, and 4,264,906 shares of common stock, of which 137,640 shares of common stock (3.23 percent) were owned by Equity General. Of the seven directors of Sterling, three are also directors of Equity General and an additional director of Sterling was suggested by Equity General. It is stated that Equity General controls Sterling within the meaning of section 2 (a) (9) of the act.

Sterling and Equity General have entered into a financing agreement pursuant to which short term loans in the net amount of $1,400,000 were made by Equity General to Sterling for the repayment of bank loans and other corporate purposes pending permanent financing through the issuance and sale by Sterling of preferred stock. Sterling will offer 379,974 shares of 5 percent convertible preferred stock, $10 par value (each share convertible into 3 shares of common stock), to the holders of its preferred and common stock at a price of $10 per share through subscription rights and an oversubscription privilege. Equity General will exercise its subscription privileges as a stockholder of Sterling to the extent necessary to assure the purchase by stockholders of an aggragate of 290,000 shares of new preferred stock. Proceeds from the sale of these shares will be used by Sterling to repay the short term loans owing to Equity General and for general corporate purposes.

If more than 290,000 shares of new preferred stock are sold by Sterling to its stockholders pursuant to the subscription offer, Sterling will apply the gross proceeds from such additional number of shares, but not in excess of the proceeds received from the sale of shares to Equity General pursuant to the subscription offer, to the partial redemption of debentures pursuant to their terms. The terms of the debentures provide that voluntary redemptions shall be at the principal amount plus accrued interest, with partial redemptions to be made pro rata on the basis of the principal amount held by each owner. Schuyler Corporation has indicated its desire to retain its holdings of debentures and has waived its right to partial redemption. Accordingly, Sterling will apply the available proceeds from the sale of preferred stock, up to the maximum of approximately $901,000, to the redemption of debentures held by Equity General.

The application states that the proposed transactions will be advantageous to Sterling in that they will result in an increase in its equity capital, the reduction of its indebtedness and the addition of nearly $3,000,000 to its working capital.

Section 17 (a) of the act prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliated person of such a person, from selling to or purchasing from such registered investment company or any company controlled by such registered investment company, any security or other property, subject to certain exceptions, unless the Commission upon application pursuant to section 17 (b) grants an exemption from the provisions of section 17 (a), after finding that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the act. Since The Equity Corporation, a registered investment company, controls Equity General which, in turn, controls Sterling, the application requests an order pursuant to section 17 (b) of the act exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) the partial redemption by Sterling of its debentures owned by Equity General.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 26, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

[File No. 812-1029]

MANHATTAN BOND FUND, INC.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER EXEMPTING PURCHASE OF SECURITIES DURING EXISTENCE OF UNDERWRITING SYNDICATE

SEPTEMBER 12, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Manhattan Bond Fund, Inc. ("Manhattan"), a registered open-end investment company, has filed an application pursuant to the provisions of section 10 (f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 10 (f) of the act the proposed purchase by the Applicant of debentures of Peabody Coal Company, during the existence of the underwriting syndicate, as more fully described below.

The application recites that Dick & Merle-Smith, an investment banking firm, expects to be among a group of underwriters of $35,000,000 principal amount of Peabody Coal Company Sinking Fund Debentures, due 1976 ("New Debentures") expected to be offered publicly on or about September 25, 1956. Mr. Julian K. Roosevelt, a partner of Dick & Merle-Smith is a member of the Board of Directors of Manhattan.

The Applicant is the owner of $612,000 principal amount of Peabody Coal Company 4⅞ percent Sinking Fund Debentures, due 1966, which are to be retired in connection with a refunding program that contemplates the issuance of the New Debentures, and, subject to a review of the offering price and the interest rate of the New Debentures, desires to replace the Debentures to be retired with New Debentures and proposes to purchase not exceeding $750,000 principal amount of New Debentures. It proposes to purchase the New Debentures from underwriters or members of the selling group other than Dick & Merle-Smith or any representative of the underwriters for the account of the several underwriters. The Applicant is not permitted under its Certificate of Incorporation to purchase any securities from a partnership with which any of its officers or directors are connected.

The Applicant considers it desirable to be in a position to purchase the New Debentures on the original offering in order to have reasonable assurance of being able to obtain the desired amount and to avoid the possibility of a higher price after the underwriting syndicate has been dissolved. If the Applicant were to purchase $750,000 principal amount of the New Debentures it would acquire less than 2¼ percent of the total offering and the purchase would represent an investment of not more than 3 percent of the Applicant's total assets as of September 10, 1956. The Applicant is advised that Dick & Merle-Smith's expected commitment in the underwriting group will be for $350,000, representing 1 percent of the total offering.

Section 10 (f) of the act provides, among other things, that no registered investment company shall knowingly purchase or otherwise acquire, during the existence of any underwriting or selling syndicate, any security (except a security of which such company is the issuer) a principal underwriter of which is an officer or director of such registered company. The Commission may exempt a transaction from this prohibition if and to the extent that such exemption is consistent with the protection of investors. Since a partner of Dick & Merle-Smith is a director of the Applicant, the proposed purchase is prohibited by the provisions of section 10 (f) unless the Commission finds that the proposed acquisition of securities is consistent with the protection of investors. The application states that Applicant believes that the requested exemption is consistent with Applicant's stated investment policies and with the protection of investors.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 25, 1956, at 12 Noon, submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 3155

ALEXANDER HAMILTON BICENTENNIAL

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

One hundred and sixty-nine years ago today, on Monday, September 17, 1787, the Constitution of the United States was signed by the Founding Fathers, and a crucial nine-month campaign for its adoption was begun. As we celebrate that momentous event, it is fitting that we take notice of Alexander Hamilton, who, at the age of thirty, was recognized as one of the principal architects and leaders of the movement for "a more perfect Union" of the States.

Five years earlier Hamilton's imagination had shown him the noble and magnificent prospect of a great Federal Republic, closely linked in the pursuit of a common interest, tranquil and prosperous at home, and respected abroad. His vision, together with that of other patriots, brought forth the United States of America under the Constitution.

Alexander Hamilton served his country well throughout his life—during the Revolutionary War as aide-de-camp and military secretary to General Washington, as commander of the American columns in the final assault on Yorktown, and, later, as Major General and Senior Officer of the Army; in the Continental Congress, in the Assembly of the State of New York, in the Annapolis Convention of 1786, which led to the momentous meeting in Philadelphia the following year, and in that meeting in 1787 during which the Constitution was framed. During the succeeding months he was untiring in his efforts to secure acceptance of the Constitution by the States, and his subsequent service as first Secretary of the Treasury under the new Government proved him to be one of the boldest and most far-sighted of the founders of our Nation.

The opportunity has now come to our generation to demonstrate our gratitude and our obligation to Alexander Hamilton by a fitting celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of his birth—a happy opportunity for all of us to think afresh of his sincere efforts and inspiring leadership in the work of the men who laid the foundations, raised the structure, and built the sustaining traditions of the Government of the United States.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, in accord with the purposes of the Congress, do hereby urge the Governors of the several States, and do call upon all officials and agencies of Federal Government, and upon all citizens, to observe the year commencing January 11, 1957, as the Alexander Hamilton Bicentennial, and to do honor to his memory during that period with appropriate activities and ceremonies commemorative of his inspiring role in our national life.

And I hereby direct that on January 11, 1957, the anniversary of Alexander Hamilton's birth, the flag of the United States be appropriately displayed on all Government buildings in the United States and all offices of this Government abroad.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 17th day of September in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-first.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

[Interpretation 21]

PART 362—REGULATIONS FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE FEDERAL INSECTICIDE, FUNGICIDE, AND RODENTICIDE ACT

INTERPRETATION CONCERNING LABELING CLAIMS FOR GERMICIDES, DISINFECTANTS, AND SANITIZERS RECOMMENDED FOR USE IN HARD WATER AREAS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by § 362.3 of the regulations (7 CFR 362.3) under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (7 U. S. C. 135–135k), Interpretation 21 concerning labeling claims for germicides, disinfectants, and sanitizers recommended for use in hard water areas is hereby issued as § 362.119 of Part 362, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, to read as follows:

§ 362.119 Interpretation concerning labeling claims for germicides, disinfectants, and sanitizers recommended for use in hard water areas. (a) There is some evidence which indicates that naturally occurring hard waters can act to slow down the rate of germicidal activity in certain products presently registered under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, such as germicides, disinfectants and sanitizers recommended for dairy and restaurant use, so that they may not perform satisfactorily in all hard water areas when speed of action is a primary requisite to effectiveness. Pending compilation of additional data which will clearly indicate the limiting effects of different naturally occurring hard waters on the various products presently registered, labeling which does not include specific directions for use in hard water areas will continue to be accepted for registration. On the other hand, if a manufacturer or distributor submits labeling which contains specific claims and directions for use in hard water areas, such labeling will be accepted for registration only if adequate experimental data is submitted to justify the claims and representations proposed.

(b) To be acceptable for registration, all claims proposed in this connection must be specific. Broad, general, and indefinite claims are likely to be misleading and cannot be accepted.

(c) Since there is considerable variation in natural hard waters, the precise evaluation of the effects of water hardness on germicides, disinfectants, and sanitizers can best be accomplished by the establishment of acceptable chemical standards of reference for hard water. Therefore, all products for which claims for effectiveness in hard waters are made in connection with registration, and all regulatory samples which may be collected in connection with the enforcement of the act will be evaluated in waters prepared according to the following procedure:

(1) Two stock solutions are prepared. One, solution A, is made by dissolving 31.74 grams of $MgCl_2$ and 73.99 grams of $CaCl_2$ in boiled distilled water and adjusting to a one liter volume. The other, solution B, is made by dissolving 56.03 grams of $NaHCO_3$ in boiled distilled water and adjusting to a one liter volume. Solution A may be heat sterilized. Solution B cannot be heat sterilized, but can be sterilized by filtration. The required amount of solution A is added to a sterile one liter flask and at least 600 mls. of sterile distilled water added. Then 4 mls. of solution D is added and the volume brought to one liter with sterile distilled water. Each ml. of solution A used will give the water a hardness equivalent to approximately 100 p. p. m. of hardness calculated as $CaCO_3$ using the formula:

Total hardness as p. p. m. of $CaCO_3 = 2.495 \times$ p. p. m. of $Ca + 4.115 \times$ p. p. m. of Mg.

(d) In preparing waters in accordance with the procedure mentioned in paragraph (c) of this section, the pH of all test waters up to 2,000 p. p. m. of hardness should fall between 7.6 and 8.0. Chemicals of reagent grade should be employed. If the hydrate of $MgCl_2$ is used, substitutions should be made on an equimolar basis. All synthetic hard waters prepared for use by this procedure should be checked chemically for hardness at the time the tests are made employing a procedure or procedures described in the 10th Edition Standard Methods for The Examination of Water and Sewage.

(e) In evaluating effectiveness claims for products to be used in waters of specified degrees of hardness according to the standard outlined in this section, a bacteriological test, such as the method described by Chambers in the publication Journal Milk and Food Technology, Vol. 19, No. 7, pp. 183–187 (1956), will be employed.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in this section, to be acceptable for registration, label claims relating to dairy, restaurant, and food plant utensil use must be based upon effective results, within 30 seconds, using the test named in paragraph (e) of this section in water of the degree of hardness indicated in the label claims and having a temperature of 70°–75° F. Results, to be considered effective, must meet the standard of effectiveness specified in the Chambers Method; that is, a 99.999 percent reduction in the count of the number of organisms. Results obtained by other testing procedures can be accepted as a basis for registration only after the specific procedure employed has been found to be acceptable by the Department after consultation with the U. S. Public Health Service. Supplemental claims for effectiveness at longer intervals of time or at elevated temperatures in dairy, restaurant, and food plant utensil use, or in other specified applications, will be given consideration, but should not be made in a manner to confuse the basic recommendation by the manufacturer. Labeling bearing any claims relative to effectiveness in hard water in any type of application must bear an equally prominent declaration based on the procedure specified above if any reference whatsoever is made thereon relative to dairy, restaurant, or food plant utensil use.

(g) To avoid misleading the consumer, claims for effectiveness in waters above 100 p. p. m. of hardness should be made in increments no less than 50 p. p. m. of hardness calculated as $CaCO_3$. For example, evidence of effectiveness in waters of 478 p. p. m. of hardness should be construed as supporting a claim for effectiveness in waters of 450 p. p. m. of hardness, and evidence of effectiveness in waters of 510 p. p. m. should be construed as supporting a claim for effectiveness in waters up to 500 p. p. m. of hardness.

(h) Section 362.14 of the regulations defines misbranding to include "any statement directly or indirectly implying that the economic poison or device is recommended or endorsed by any agency of the Federal Government." Therefore, any label claims relating to endorsement or recommendation of a specific product by the Department or the U. S. Public Health Service will not be accepted for registration. However, a claim such as "This product fulfills the criteria of Appendix F as revised March 12, 1956, of the Milk Ordinance and Code, 1953 Recommendations of the U. S. Public Health Service in waters up to ____ p. p. m. of hardness calculated as $CaCO_3$ when tested by the Method outlined by Chambers" may be accepted. In all statements of this type, it is necessary to be specific as to titles, dates, and methods upon which the claim is based.

The foregoing interpretation shall become effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 934—MILK IN MERRIMACK VALLEY, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and of the order, as amended, (7 CFR Part 934), regulating the handling of milk in the Merrimack Valley, Massachusetts, marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order", it is hereby found and determined that:

(a) The provisions of § 934.22 (a) which read: "more than 30 percent of its total receipts of fluid milk products, other than cream, after deducting Class I sales direct to consumers outside the marketing area, is disposed of directly to consumers in the marketing area as Class I milk or is shipped as milk to city plants at which more than 50 percent of the total receipts of fluid milk products, other than cream, is disposed of as Class I milk: Provided, That" do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act under current marketing conditions.

These provisions provide for additional requirements on country plants for pool plant status. Because of the wording of § 934.22 (a) of the order, a plant which is currently distributing milk in the Merrimack Valley marketing area finds difficulty in meeting these additional country pool plant requirements. Failure to suspend that part of the provisions quoted above will create undue hardship to a large group of milk producers supplying this plant which is also a supplier of other handlers in the marketing area and will disrupt orderly marketing conditions in the Merrimack Valley marketing area.

The principal cooperative associations representing milk producers, which are engaged in marketing the major portion of the fluid milk distributed by handlers in the marketing area, concur in the suspension.

(b) Notice of proposed rulemaking, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of the effective date hereof, are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest for reasons stated under (a) above and in that:

1. The information upon which this action is based did not become available in time for such compliance.

2. This suspension order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to its effective date.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective October 1, 1956.

It is therefore ordered, That the provisions of § 934.22 (a) which read: "more than 30 percent of its total receipts of fluid milk products, other than cream, after deducting Class I sales direct to consumers outside the marketing area, is disposed of directly to consumers in the marketing area as Class I milk or is shipped as milk to city plants at which more than 50 percent of the total receipts of fluid milk products, other than cream, is disposed of as Class I milk: Provided, That," be and they are hereby suspended effective October 1, 1956, until further notice.

[Lemon Reg. 658, Amdt. 2]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 19 F. R. 7175; 20 F. R. 2913; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 953.765 (Lemon Regulation 658; 21 F. R. 6814, as amended, 21 F. R. 6969) are hereby amended to read as follows:

[Lime Order 3, Amdt. 3]

PART 1001—LIMES GROWN IN FLORIDA

QUALITY AND SIZE REGULATION

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 101 (7 CFR Part 1001) regulating the handling of limes grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Florida Lime Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of limes, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based become available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than September 23, 1956. Shipments of designated varieties of Florida limes are currently subject to quality regulation pursuant to Lime Order 3, as amended (§ 1001.303, 21 F. R. 5033, 5821, 6159), and, unless sooner modified or terminated, will continue to be so regulated until May 1, 1957; determinations as to the need for, and extent of, continued regulation of Florida lime shipments must await the development of the crop and the availability of information on the demand for such fruit; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation of lime shipments subsequent to September 22, 1956, and in the manner herein provided, were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Florida Lime Administrative Committee on September 11; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were given an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this amendment are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions has been disseminated among handlers of Florida limes; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this amendment effective during the period hereinafter set forth; and compliance with this amendment will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the provisions in subparagraph (2) (ii) of paragraph (b) of § 1001.303 (Lime Order 3, as amended; 21 F. R. 5033, 5821, 6159) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) Any container of limes grown in the State of Florida, except the area west of the Suwannee River, of the group known as large fruited or Persian limes (including Tahiti, Bearss, and similar varieties) unless the limes in such container grade at least U. S. Combination Mixed Color, and are of a size not smaller than 1⅝ inches in diameter; Provided, That not to exceed 5 percent, by count, of the limes in any container may be smaller than 1⅝ inches in diameter; or Effective time: The provisions of this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 23, 1956.

Subchapter A—Test Fee Schedules

PART 203—TEST FEE SCHEDULES

VISCOMETERS

In accordance with the provisions of section 4 (a) and (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it has been found that notice and hearing on these schedules of fees are unnecessary for the reason that such procedures, because of the nature of these rules, serve no useful purpose. This amendment is effective from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Use of the National Bureau of Standards master Saybolt viscometers as standards was discontinued after June 30, 1956 and calibration services for Saybolt viscometers were discontinued thereafter. The Bureau no longer has custody of standards for these instruments and the Saybolt viscosity scales now rest solely on the relations to kinematic viscosity given in ASTM Standards D446 and D666.

2. Calibration of Saybolt viscometers may be made by their owner using oil standards available from the National Bureau of Standards and from the American Petroleum Institute.

3. Accordingly, § 203.401 Viscometers is amended to read as follows:

§ 203.401 Viscometers. (a) Cannon-Fenske viscometers for transparent liquids, and Ubbelohde suspended level viscometers are accepted for calibration in accordance with the fees below.

(b) Packages of instruments to be tested should be marked "Viscometers for Test", in addition to the usual markings required for shipment.

(c) Viscometers of the suspended level type should be accompanied by a metal holder of the type commonly used with these instruments for mounting them in the test bath.

Item	Description	Fee
203.401a	Calibration of 100° F. of Cannon-Fenske or of Ubbelohde viscometers for transparent liquids, per capillary.	$30.00
203.401z	For special tests not covered by the above schedule, fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45, 13) [Cease and desist order, Dolcin Corp., New York, N. Y., Docket 6569, August 31, 1956]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging a corporation engaged in the sale of "Dolcin" medicinal preparation, intended for the relief of pain accompanying arthritis and rheumatism, with paying cash promotional allowances to certain favored customers but not to others competing with them, and making promotional allowances to customers on conditions restricting their right to enter into promotional agreements with its competitors—and an agreement between the parties for a consent order.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on August 31 the decision of the Commission.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Dolcin Corporation, a corporation, its officers, employees, agents and representatives, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of the drug preparation "Dolcin" (or any product of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name) in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act as amended, do forthwith cease and desist from paying, or contracting to pay to, or for the benefit of any customer, anything of value as compensation or in consideration for advertising, display, demonstrator, promotional, or other services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the handling, processing, sale or offering for sale of said preparation unless such payment or consideration is made available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the resale or distribution of said preparation.

It is further ordered, That respondent Dolcin Corporation, a corporation, its officers, employees, agents and representatives, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of the drug preparation "Dolcin" (or any product of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name) in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from taking any course of action, making any agreement, paying, or contracting to pay, any allowance, in the form of money or otherwise, to any customer or purchaser, upon terms or conditions which are intended to cause, will cause or tend to cause said customer or purchaser, or said purchasers' or customers' employees or representatives, to refrain or abstain from accepting or using any promotional activity or allowance offered or paid by a competitor of respondent.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 31, 1956.

By the Commission.

ASSIGNMENT OR REASSIGNMENT OF NUMBER A PREREQUISITE TO ISSUANCE OF VISA

Part 44, Chapter I, Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended in the following respect:

Paragraph (b) Assignment of number a prerequisite to issuance of § 44.9 Procedure in issuing visa, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Assignment or reassignment of number a prerequisite to issuance of visa. No special nonquota immigrant visa shall be issued under the act until such time as the consular officer shall have received for such purpose an appropriate number from the Department. Numbers which are not used shall be returned to the Department. A number which has been used in issuing a special nonquota immigrant visa to an applicant who for any reason fails to proceed to a port of entry and make application for admission into the United States may be reassigned for the issuance of a special nonquota immigrant visa on or before December 31, 1956, to some other qualified applicant of the same class as the alien who failed to use his visa: Provided, That prior to such reassignment the unused visa shall have been surrendered to a consular officer and canceled.

(Sec. 4, 63 Stat. 111; 5 U. S. C. 151c)

Subchapter J—Heirs and Wills

PART 82—DETERMINATION OF HEIRS AND PROBATE OF THE ESTATES OF DECEASED INDIANS OF THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. In § 82.0, paragraph (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 82.0 Definitions. • • •

(c) "Area director" means the officer in charge of an area office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, or his duly authorized representative. The term "area director" is substituted for the term "superintendent" wherever the latter term may appear in this part.

2. A new § 82.33 is added to read as follows:

§ 82.33 Summary distribution. (a) Where upon preparing an inventory under § 82.1 it is disclosed from the records of the area director that an Indian died seized of no lands or the lands have since been lawfully alienated, and that the restricted estate of the decedent constitutes a sum of money, not exceeding $500, on deposit to the credit of the deceased Indian, such funds may be disbursed on the basis of the requirements stated in this section, and without regard to the other provisions of this part, except where made applicable specifically by the provisions of this section.

(b) Where the decedent's restricted estate consists of the sum of money as stated in paragraph (a) of this section, such funds may be disbursed on proof of death and heirship or bequest satisfactory to the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative.

(c) The transfer of funds disbursed under this section shall not be taxable. No claims shall be allowed against restricted estates governed by this section, except for debts owed to the United States.

(d) A copy of the order of distribution of funds shall be mailed to each party who was considered a possible claimant to any portion of the funds, as heir, legatee, or otherwise. Thirty days after the date of mailing of such copies, the order of distribution shall become final, unless within that period the officer by whom the order was signed shall have received a protest or request for reconsideration of the order. Upon receipt of a protest or request for reconsideration, the officer shall withhold distribution, issue an order either affirming or amending the previous order, and mail a copy of the affirming or amending order to each party who was considered a possible claimant. Thirty days after the date of mailing of such copies, the affirming or amending order shall become final, unless within that period the Area Director shall have received an appeal, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior. All protests, requests for reconsideration, and appeals shall state clearly and concisely the reasons upon which they are based. Distribution shall be made as soon as practicable after the order of distribution has become final.

NAVIGATION OF AIRCRAFT WITHIN AIRSPACE RESERVATION OVER CERTAIN AREAS OF SUPERIOR NATIONAL FOREST IN MINNESOTA

1. Section 251.28 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 251.28 Low flights. Any person making a flight within said airspace reservation for reasons of safety or for conducting rescue operations shall inform the Forest Supervisor within seven days after the completion of the flight or the rescue operation as to the date, place, and duration of flight, and the type and registration number of the aircraft.

2. The final sentence of § 251.29 Permits is amended to read as follows: "Upon request of the Forest Supervisor the reports, records, and other information as to any flights made pursuant to such permits shall be made available, Provided, That no such request shall be made after October 31, 1957."

(Sec. 1, 30 Stat. 35, as amended, 62 Stat. 100; 16 U. S. C. 551. Interpret or apply E. O. 10092, 14 F. R. 7637, 3 CFR, 1949 Supp.)

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed, in the City of Washington, this 14th day of September, 1956.

[SEAL] E. L. PETERSON,
Assistant Secretary.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1339]

UTAH

PARTIALLY REVOKING PUBLIC LAND ORDER NO. 565 OF FEBRUARY 25, 1949, WHICH RESERVED PUBLIC LANDS AND MINERALS IN PATENTED LANDS FOR USE OF ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION; REVOKING PUBLIC LAND ORDER NO. 1079 OF FEBRUARY 25, 1955

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

[38753]

1. Public Land Order No. 565 of February 25, 1949, withdrawing public lands and reserved minerals in patented lands for use of the Atomic Energy Commission, which was partially revoked by Public Land Order No. 939 of February 8, 1954, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 37 S., R. 21 E.,
Secs. 2, 4, 9, and 11;
Sec. 3, N½, SW¼, N½SE¼, SW¼SE¼, and W½SE¼SE¼;
Sec. 10, E½, N½NW¼, SE¼NW¼, N½SW¼NW¼, SE¼SW¼NW¼, E½SW¼, S½NW¼SW¼, and SW¼SW¼.

The areas described aggregate 3,794.64 acres, all of which is public domain.

[Utah 010351]

2. Public Land Order No. 1079 of February 25, 1955, which withdrew the following public lands in Utah for use of the Atomic Energy Commission, is hereby revoked:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 37 S., R. 21 E.,
Secs. 1 and 12.

The areas described aggregate 1,278.20 acres, all of which is public domain.

3. The lands are located in an arid part of San Juan County, Utah, and are composed mostly of steep slopes and canyons. None are suitable for agriculture.

4. No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other non-mineral public-land law unless the lands have already beeen classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

5. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10 a. m. on October 19, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10 a. m. on January 18, 1957, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10 a. m. on January 18, 1957, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The restored lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10 a. m. on January 18, 1957.

6. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Salt Lake City, Utah.

FRED G. AANDAHL,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—Management of Wildlife Conservation Areas

PART 31—PACIFIC REGION

SUBPART—DEER FLAT NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, IDAHO

HUNTING

Basis and purpose: On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, it has been determined to be necessary to revise the area that has been open to public hunting on the Deer Flat National Wildlife Refuge, Idaho.

Effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, § 31.94 is revised to read as follows:

§ 31.94 Areas open to hunting. All the lands of the Deer Flat National Wildlife Refuge, Idaho, within the following subdivisions shall be open to hunting:

T. 2 N., R. 3 W., B. M.,
Section 4, all within refuge.

T. 3 N., R. 3 W.,
Section 16, all within refuge;
Sections 17, 19, 20, and 30, all within refuge except the area known as the Military Restricted Area that lies northwesterly of a straight line extending from the northeast corner of the SE¼SE¼ of said section 17 to a point near the center of the NE¼NW¼ of the said section 30;
Sections 21, 28, 29, and 33, all within the refuge.

(Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 7151)

Dated: September 13, 1956.

PART 31—PACIFIC REGION

SUBPART—LOWER KLAMATH NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, CALIFORNIA AND OREGON

HUNTING

Basis and purpose. Observations and reports by representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service indicate a need for clarification of various phases of public waterfowl hunting and for a specific regulation to authorize and govern the use of boats for the purpose of hunting on the Lower Klamath National Wildlife Refuge.

Since the following amendments are in part relaxations of existing restrictions applicable to hunting on the Lower Klamath National Wildlife Refuge and in part definitive of existing administrative control, notice, and public procedure thereon are not required (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001, et seq.).

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, §§ 31.199 and 31.200 are added and §§ 31.193, 31.194, 31.195, and 31.198 are revised to read as follows:

§ 31.193 State laws. Any person hunting within the refuge must comply with the applicable State laws and regulations and must possess a valid State hunting license, if required, and if hunting migratory waterfowl, any such person who has attained the age of 16 years shall possess a properly validated migratory bird hunting stamp. The license and the stamp shall serve as a Federal permit for hunting on the refuge and must be carried on the person of the licensee while so hunting. The license and the stamp must be exhibited upon the request of any representative of the California Department of Natural Resources or of the Oregon State Game Commission authorized to enforce the State game laws, or of any authorized representative of the Department of the Interior. Upon request of the officer in charge, the licensee must also exhibit for inspection all wildlife killed by him or in his possession.

§ 31.194 Use of hunting blinds. Any person may construct and use a hunting blind in the public hunting areas except that entry for the construction of such blind shall not be permitted during the period from September 16 to the opening day of the waterfowl hunting season. Any blind not removed from the refuge on or before January 15 shall be deemed to have been abandoned, and it shall become the property of the United States. Where a blind is constructed in open water, such blind shall be placed at least 200 yards from emergent vegetation. The construction of a blind shall not be deemed to establish priority of use by the person who constructs such blind except that the construction of a blind by any guide under a special permit issued by the refuge officer in charge shall entitle such guide to the exclusive use of such blind. The digging of a pit for use as a hunting blind or for any other purpose is prohibited except in such areas as may be designated by posting by the refuge officer in charge.

§ 31.195 Use of boats. The use of boats for the purpose of hunting subject to the provisions of the regulations under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act is permitted only during the period from 2½ hours before sunrise to 1 hour after sunset, provided that the use of air-thrust and scull boats is prohibited.

§ 31.198 Use of artificial decoys. Artificial decoys may be placed on and used in the public hunting areas only during the period from 1½ hours before sunrise to ½ hour after sunset.

§ 31.199 Abandonment of personal property. The abandonment of boats, decoys, or other items of personal property on the public hunting areas or elsewhere on the refuge is prohibited.

§ 31.200 Access to the hunting areas. Hunters may not enter the public hunting areas earlier than 2½ hours before sunrise.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Commodity Stabilization Service

[7 CFR Part 728]

WHEAT

NOTICE OF FORMULATION OF REGULATIONS RELATING TO MEASUREMENT OF ACREAGE, MARKETING, COLLECTION OF MARKETING PENALTIES, STORAGE, AND RECORDS AND REPORTS, 1957–58 MARKETING YEAR

A national marketing quota proclamation for the 1957 crop of wheat was issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on May 16, 1956 (21 F. R. 3216), and the quota was approved by wheat producers voting in a referendum on July 20, 1956. Farm acreage allotments were established pursuant to section 334 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and notices thereof mailed to farm operators prior to the date of the referendum in accordance with section 362 of the act.

Pursuant to the authority contained in the applicable provisions of the act, as amended and supplemented (7 U. S. C. 1301, 1331–1340, 1372–1375), the Secretary of Agriculture is preparing to formulate and issue marketing quota regulations covering the measurement of farms, the determination of farm normal yields and farm marketing excesses, the issuance of marketing cards, the identification of wheat, the storage and delivery of wheat to avoid or postpone payment of penalties, the collection and refund of penalties, and the records and reports incident thereto with respect to the 1957 crop of wheat.

It is proposed that the regulations be substantially the same as the regulations in effect for the 1956–57 marketing year (20 F. R. 9475, 21 F. R. 1258, 3866, 5130).

Prior to the issuance of such regulations consideration will be given to any data, views, or recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Grain Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

All submissions must be postmarked not later than fifteen days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER in order to be considered.

Issued this 13th day of September 1956.

Acting Administrator,
Commodity Stabilization Service.

[7 CFR Part 730]

RICE

NOTICE OF DETERMINATIONS TO BE MADE WITH RESPECT TO MARKETING QUOTAS, NATIONAL, STATE, AND COUNTY ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS, AND FORMULATION OF REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO FARM ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR 1957 CROP

Pursuant to the authority contained in applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1301, 1352, 1353, 1354), the Secretary of Agriculture is preparing to determine whether marketing quotas are required to be proclaimed for the 1957 crop of rice, to determine and proclaim the national acreage allotment for the 1957 crop of rice, to apportion among States and counties the national acreage allotment for the 1957 crop of rice, and to formulate regulations for establishing farm acreage allotments and normal yields for the 1957 crop of rice.

Section 354 of the act provides that whenever in the calendar year 1956 the Secretary determines that the total supply of rice for the 1956–57 marketing year will exceed the normal supply for such marketing year by more than 10 per centum, the Secretary shall, not later than December 31, 1956, proclaim such fact and marketing quotas shall be in effect for the crop of rice produced in 1957.

Section 352 of the act, as amended, provides that the national acreage allotment of rice for any calendar year shall be that acreage which the Secretary determines will, on the basis of the national average yield of rice for the five calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year for which such national acreage allotment is determined, produce an amount of rice adequate, together with the estimated carry-over from the marketing year ending in such calendar year, to make available a supply for the marketing year commencing in such calendar year not less than the normal supply. Section 353 (c) (6) of the act, as amended, provides that the national acreage allotment of rice for 1957 shall not be less than the national acreage allotment for 1956, including the 13,512 acres apportioned to States pursuant to paragraph (5) of section 353 (c) of the act. Under this provision, the national acreage allotment of rice for 1957 will be not less than 1,652,596 acres. The Secretary is required under this section of the act to proclaim such national acreage allotment not later than December 31, 1956.

As defined in section 301 of the act, for purposes of these determinations, "total supply" for any marketing year is the carry-over of rice for such marketing year, plus the estimated production of rice in the United States during the calendar year in which such marketing year begins and the estimated imports of rice into the United States during such marketing year; "normal supply" for any marketing year is the estimated domestic consumption of rice for the marketing year ending immediately prior to the marketing year for which normal supply is being determined, plus the estimated exports of rice for the marketing year for which normal supply is being determined, plus 10 per centum of such consumption and exports, with adjustments for current trends in consumption and for unusual conditions as deemed necessary; and "marketing year" for rice is the period August 1–July 31.

Subsections (a) and (c) (6) of section 353 of the act require that the national acreage allotment of rice for the 1957 crop, less a reserve of not to exceed one per centum thereof for apportionment to farms receiving inadequate allotments because of insufficient State or county allotments or because rice was not planted on the farm during all the years of the base period, be apportioned among the several States in which rice is produced in the same proportion that they shared in the total acreage allotted to States in 1956 (State acreage allotments plus the additional acreage allocated to States under section 353 (c) (5) of the act, as amended). Section 353 (b) of the act requires that the State acreage allotment of rice for the 1957 crop, less a reserve not to exceed three per centum thereof for apportionment to farms operated by persons who will produce rice in 1957, but who did not produce rice in any one of the preceding five years, be apportioned to farms owned or operated by persons who have produced rice in any one of the five calendar years, 1952 through 1956, on the basis of past production of rice in the State by the producer on the farm taking into consideration the acreage allotments previously established in the State for such owners or operators; abnormal conditions affecting acreage; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of rice; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of rice. Provision is made that if the State Committee recommends such action and the Secretary determines such action will facilitate the effective administration of the act, he may provide for the apportionment of the State acreage allotment to farms on which rice has been produced during any one of such period of years on the basis of the foregoing factors, using past production of rice on the farm and the acreage allotments previously established for the farm in lieu of past production of rice by the producer and the acreage allotments previously established for such owners or operators.

Section 353 (c) of the act provides that if farm acreage allotments are established by using past production of rice on the farm and the acreage allotments previously established for the farm in lieu of past production of rice by the producer and the acreage allotments previously established for owners or operators, the State acreage allotment shall be apportioned among counties in the State on the same basis as the national acreage allotment is apportioned among the States and the county allotments shall be apportioned to farms on the basis of applicable factors set forth in subsection (b) of section 353.

Section 301 (b) (13) (D) of the act provides that the "normal yield" of rice for 1957 for any county shall be the average yield per acre of rice for the county during the five calendar years 1952 through 1956 adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and trends in yields. Provision is made therein that if for any such year data are not available, or there is no actual yield, an appraised yield for such year, determined in accordance with regulations of the Secretary, taking into consideration the yields obtained in surrounding counties during such year and the yield in years for which data are available, shall be used as the actual yield for such year.

Section 301 (b) (13) (E) of the act provides that the "normal yield" of rice for 1957 for any farm shall be the average yield per acre of rice for the farm during the five calendar years 1952 through 1956 adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and for trends in yields. Provision is made therein that if for any such year data are not available, or there is no actual yield, the normal yield for the farm shall be appraised in accordance with regulations of the Secretary, taking into consideration abnormal weather conditions, trends in yields, the normal yield for the county, the yields obtained on adjacent farms during such year, and the yield in years for which data are available.

Section 301 (b) (13) (F) of the act provides that if on account of drought, flood, insect pests, plant disease, or other uncontrollable national cause, the yield for any county or any farm for any year during the years 1952 through 1956 is less than 75 per centum of the average, 75 per centum of such average shall be substituted therefor in calculating the normal yield per acre; and if on account of abnormally favorable weather conditions, the yield for any county or any farm for any year during the years 1952 through 1956 is in excess of 125 per centum of the average, 125 per centum of such average shall be substituted therefor in calculating the normal yield per acre.

Section 377 of the act provides that in any case in which the acreage planted to rice on any farm in 1957 is less than the 1957 rice acreage allotment for the farm, the entire acreage allotment for such farm shall be considered for purposes of future State, county, and farm acreage allotments to have been planted to rice in 1957, but only if the owner or operator of the farm notifies the county committee on or before June 1, 1957, of his desire to preserve such allotment. Provision is made therein that if the amount of rice required to be stored to postpone or avoid payment of penalty has been reduced because the 1957 rice acreage allotment for the farm was not fully planted, the owner or operator of the farm will not be permitted to preserve such allotment.

Sections 106 and 112 of the Soil Bank Act provide that the acreage on any farm which is determined to have been diverted from the production of rice under the 1956 acreage reserve or conservation reserve program shall be considered as rice acreage for the purpose of establishing 1957 farm, county, and State acreage allotments under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

It is expected that the regulations pertaining to farm acreage allotments and normal yields for the 1957 crop of rice will be substantially the same as those for the 1956 crop of rice (20 F. R. 9021), except that (1) as required by the Soil Bank Act, the acreage diverted from the production of rice in 1956 pursuant to the acreage reserve or conservation reserve program will be considered as rice acreage for the purpose of establishing 1957 farm acreage allotments; and (2) as required by section 377 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provision will be made for the preservation of 1957 farm allotments.

Prior to making any of the foregoing determinations with respect to marketing quotas and national, State, and county acreage allotments for the 1957 crop of rice, including the sizes of the national and State reserves, and the formulation of regulations for the determination of farm acreage allotments for the 1957 crop of rice, consideration will be given to data, views, and recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Grain Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All written submissions must be postmarked not later than fifteen days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of September 1956.

Acting Administrator,

The Alaskan Airport Act, as amended, (62 Stat. 277),
Public Law 867, 81st Congress, dated September 30, 1950, (64 Stat. 1090) authorizing action to promote the development of improved transport aircraft,
Public Law 674, 76th Congress, dated June 29, 1940, (54 Stat. 686) as amended, to provide for the administration of the Washington National Airport,
Public Law 289, 80th Congress, dated July 30, 1947, (61 Stat. 678) as amended by Public Law 311, 81st Congress, dated October 1, 1949, (63 Stat. 700) to expedite the disposition of Government surplus airports, airport facilities and equipment, and to provide for the transfer of compliance functions with relation to such property.

.02 The Administrator of Civil Aeronautics shall also carry out the power and responsibility vested in and delegated to the Secretary of Commerce under the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, with respect to those portions of the defense production program relating to civil aviation not otherwise reserved or assigned.

.03 The Administrator of Civil Aeronautics may redelegate and authorize the successive redelegation of the authority granted herein to any officer of the Civil Aeronautics Administration and prescribe limitations, restrictions and conditions in the exercise of such authority.

SEC. 4. General functions. .01. The Civil Aeronautics Administration fosters and encourages the development of civil aeronautics and air commerce in the United States and abroad. Principal operations are the establishment of a system of airways, including the operation of air navigation facilities and the control of air traffic; technical development work in the field of aeronautics; collection and dissemination of information relative to civil aeronautics; registration of aircraft nationality and recordation of ownership; promotion of safety in flight through inspection and certification of aircraft, airmen, air agencies, and air carriers in accordance with standards prescribed under Civil Air Regulations; planning and coordinating the establishment of a nationwide system of airports suitable to the needs of civil aviation and national security, including the granting of funds necessary to assist in carrying out such a program; and operation of the Washington National Airport and public airports at Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska. In the performance of these functions the Civil Aeronautics Administration collaborates with public, military, private, and foreign or international agencies in the development of standards and policies intended to foster and facilitate the use of aircraft in air commerce and civil aviation.

The Office of Airports has an Airport Engineering Division and an Airport Operations Division;

(4) The Office of Flight Operations and Airworthiness plans, directs, coordinates, and controls the Civil Aeronautics Administration's activities for the examination, inspection, and certification of (a) the flight operations, operating methods and facilities, and aircraft maintenance of United States air carriers engaged in domestic and international operations, other aircraft operators, and air agencies, (b) operations of foreign air carriers over United States territory, (c) technical and physical competence of airmen, and (d) design, testing, manufacturing and airworthiness of civil aircraft and their components; develops, recommends, and enforces regulations relating thereto; registers civil aircraft and records documents affecting title to or interest in United States civil aircraft and their components; investigates, determines probable cause, and prepares public reports of aircraft accidents in categories for which such responsibility has been delegated by the Civil Aeronautics Board; investigates all accidents, incidents, and violations as necessary to determine factors for which the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics has a remedial or enforcement responsibility. The Office of Flight Operations and Airworthiness has an Air Carrier Safety Division, Aircraft Engineering Division, General Safety Division, and Medical Division;

(5) The Office of International Cooperation plans, recommends, and establishes coordinated policies, plans, and program requirements with respect to the responsibilities of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics for international aviation; provides for representation by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics in negotiations with other United States agencies, foreign governments, the International Civil Aviation Organization and other international organizations on international aviation matters; provides technical civil aviation assistance in foreign countries; directs the activities of Civil Aeronautics Administration employees assigned abroad under technical assistance programs; arranges for and coordinates the technical aeronautical training of foreign nationals in the United States; directs the Administrator's program for determining and evaluating deficiencies in air navigation aids and aviation services in international aviation and initiating action to eliminate specific deficiencies. The Office of International Cooperation has a Technical Assistance Division and an ICAO Division.

(6) The Technical Development Center, located at Indianapolis, Indiana, conducts development, applied research, experimentation, evaluation and testing programs and projects on electronic and other aids to air navigation, traffic control and communications, on airport surfacing, drainage, lighting and marking, on aircraft structures, powerplants, instruments, appliances, safety devices, and other aircraft components, and on aircraft flight analysis instrumentation and methods; prepares and issues formal reports on such projects; recommends, for initial procurement and installation on the Federal airways, new or altered air navigation, traffic control and communications equipment after development and evaluation, and furnishes basic technical data for the preparation of procurement specifications for such equipment; arranges demonstrations of newly developed equipment and methods.

SEC. 7. Functions of Staff Offices. .01 The functions of the Staff Offices are as follows:

(1) The General Counsel's Office, under the general policy guidance of the General Counsel, Department of Commerce, provides all legal counsel and advice to the Office of the Administrator and the heads of Program Offices, Staff Offices, and Major Field Organizations of the Civil Aeronautics Administration in all matters pertaining to the functions of the agency; develops, establishes, and supervises the administration of plans, policies, and standard operating procedures governing (a) the performance of all legal work of the agency, (b) the legal phases of the enforcement of the laws, rules, and regulations administered by the agency, (c) all phases of the legislative program of the agency developed after consultation with other interested Offices, and (d) the preparation, or examination for legal form and effect, of all documents for which legal clearance is required; evaluates and controls the execution of legal policies and activities; and develops and establishes the basic safety enforcement policies and procedures of the CAA;

(2) The Program Planning Office provides staff assistance to the Office of the Administrator in the development of long-range civil aviation policy and programs; identifies and analyzes basic program policy questions in civil aviation and their relationship to programs and operations of the Civil Aeronautics Administration; conducts studies to provide indices of long-range future trends for use in determining (a) future operational requirements and (b) specific programs, plans and procedures and policies for current needs and orderly transition to new developments designed to meet future needs; coordinates the planning activities of the Program Offices to ensure the development of integrated plans for all of the agency's programs; conducts statistical research and economic studies for the planning and evaluating of the Administration's programs; provides for or directs the collection, analysis, and dissemination of all statistical data for determining the needs of civil aviation, the development of appropriate plans for meeting those needs, and the conduct of the Civil Aeronautics Administration's programs; conducts or coordinates liaison with external planning organizations, such as the Air Coordinating Committee and the program planning staffs of other governmental organizations concerned with aeronautical problems, policies, and programs;

(3) The Personnel Office provides staff assistance to the Office of the Administrator in the development, application, and execution of personnel policies, and within policy decisions made by the Administrator, plans, develops, and provides direction to, and evaluates the execution of, the personnel program of the Administration, which includes recruitment and placement of employees, classification of positions, employee training, and employee-management relations;

(4) The Budget and Finance Office provides staff assistance to the Office of the Administrator in the development, application, and execution of fiscal and budgetary policies and procedures; preparation of regular and supplemental budget estimates, and presentation and justification thereof; allocation of funds for authorized activities controlled by definitive fiscal work programs; development, establishment, and maintenance of a system of accounts throughout the agency; the execution of CAA's financial responsibility under the Federal Airport Act; auditing of concessionaires' accounts at the Washington National Airport; and performs related fiscal and budgetary activities, including the preparation of financial reports, and the provision to Washington offices of accounting, payroll, individual earnings, leave, retirement, and bond purchase services; and

(5) The General Services Office provides staff assistance to the Office of the Administrator on all procurement and property management matters, aviation defense requirements, the control and utilization of CAA aircraft, reproduction and distribution of printed and reproduced material, and mail and telegraphic activities, machine tabulation and similar activities; in connection therewith, formulates policies and programs, establishes standards, and prepares instructions for both Washington and field offices, and performs general service functions for the Washington Office; operates an aeronautical library, prepares visual presentations as requested or directed, and answers general inquiry correspondence from the public; operates a system for the collection of flight facility information for use of airmen and others, and prepares publications containing such information and data.

SEC. 8. Functions of the major field organizations. .01 The functions of the major field organizations of the Civil Aeronautics Administration are as follows:

(1) The Regional Offices of the Civil Aeronautics Administration execute the various operations required to carry out the programs and policies established by the Office of the Administrator and the Program and Staff Offices; establish, maintain, and modify landing areas, facility structures, communications systems, electronic devices, air traffic control systems, and other aids to air navigation comprising the Federal Airways System; operate air traffic control and communications stations involved in the facilitation and control of air traffic; conduct activities relating to participation by public sponsors in the Federal-Aid Airport Program and granting of funds for such purposes, advise civic and other public agencies and private enterprises on airport site selection, planning acquisition, development, maintenance, and approach protection; conduct inspection and certification activities relating to airmen, aircraft, air agencies, fixed base operators, and air carriers, and other safety operations as are specifically assigned to the Region; conduct accident and regulation violation investigations; and promote the development of all phases of civil aviation;

(2) The Washington National Airport, located at Gravelly Point, Virginia, provides terminal airport facilities for the Washington, D. C. metropolitan area; provides, maintains and protects space and operating facilities for air carrier and other operations at the Airport; furnishes, or provides through concessionaires, various services required by air carriers, passengers, tenants, governmental agencies and the public using the Airport; and

(3) The Aeronautical Center, located at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, plans, and conducts such standardization and training courses for Civil Aeronautics Administration employees and other individuals as are required to establish or maintain personnel proficiency for the various programs of the Civil Aeronautics Administration; modifies, assembles, and distributes equipment and materials for installation or erection of Civil Aeronautics Administration facilities or aids to air navigation; and, in accordance with Washington policies and instructions, provides a central repair and modification service for aircraft owned and operated by the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

SEC. 9. Effect on other orders. .01 All orders, regulations, certificates or other actions issued by or relating to the Civil Aeronautics Administration or official thereof shall remain in effect until specifically amended or revoked by proper authority.

Effective date: July 1, 1956.

L. S. ROTHSCHILD,
Acting Secretary of Commerce.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 11741; FCC 56M-846]

CLAREMORE BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re application of Robert I. Hartley tr/as Claremore Broadcasting Company, Claremore, Oklahoma, for construction permit, Docket No. 11741; File No. BP-10306.

By order dated June 20, 1956, the above-entitled proceeding which was designated for hearing on June 13, 1956 was scheduled to begin on September 13, 1956. However, the applicant failed to file a timely appearance as required by § 1.387 (a) of the Commission's rules and his application was dismissed by order dated August 2, 1956. On September 5, 1956, the late appearance of the applicant was accepted and the order dismissing his application was set aside. Because of the above events, a new hearing date must be established.

It is ordered, This the 12th day of September 1956, on the Hearing Examiner's own motion, that the above-entitled hearing originally scheduled to begin on September 13, 1956, is continued to November 1, 1956.

It is further ordered, That a pre-hearing conference in the above-entitled proceeding will be held on Friday, October 12, 1956, beginning at 10 a. m., in the offices of the Commission, Washington, D. C. This conference is called pursuant to the provisions of § 1.813 of the Commission's rules and the matters to be considered are those specified in that section of the rules.

[Docket No. 11821; FCC 56-870]

GOOD MUSIC STATION, INC., AND RKO TELERADIO PICTURES, INC.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

In the matter of The Good Music Station, Inc. (assignor) and RKO Teleradio Pictures, Inc. (assignee), File Nos. BAPL-114, BALH-236, Docket No. 11821; for assignment of license and construction permit of Station WGMS, Bethesda, Maryland and license of Station WGMS-FM, Washington, D. C.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration (a) a "Protest and Petition for Reconsideration" filed on August 17, 1956, pursuant to section 309 (c) and 405 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, by Lawrence M. C. Smith, directed against the Commission's action of July 18, 1956 granting without hearing the above-captioned applications, and (b) separate oppositions thereto filed on August 27, 1956 by RKO Teleradio Pictures, Inc. and The Good Music Station, Inc., respectively.[1]

2. The above-entitled applications seek Commission approval of the proposed sale of the assets and assignment of the license and construction permit of Station WGMS and the license of WGMS-FM, for a total cash consideration of $291,250, plus an amount equal to the net quick assets at closing date. In addition, the applications are accompanied by a copy of a Consulting Agreement entered into on April 14, 1956, between RKO Teleradio Pictures, Inc., and M. Robert Rogers and Teresa Rogers. Mr. Rogers owns 12½ shares out of 30 shares of stock, issued and outstanding, of the licensee corporation. Under the terms of the Consulting Agreement, he and his wife, Teresa Rogers are to be employed by RKO Teleradio Pictures, Inc., for five years as consultants, at an annual salary of $30,000 per year, said Consulting Agreement to be cancellable within the first year upon payment of $70,000 lump sum. The assignee, RKO Teleradio Pictures, Inc., is licensee or permittee of Stations WOR-AM-FM-TV, New York, New York; WNAC-AM-FM-TV, Boston, Massachusetts; KHJ-AM-FM-TV, Hollywood, California; WHBQ-AM-TV, Memphis, Tennnessee; and KFRC, San Francisco, California. In addition, RKO owns 100 percent of the stock of Stations WGTH-TV, Hartford, Connecticut, and of WEAT-AM-TV, West Palm Beach, Florida. The protestant, Lawrence M. C. Smith, is the licensee of Station WFLN (FM), Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is an applicant (File No. BP-9633, Docket No. 11566) for a new standard broadcast station in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In addition, he is a director, vice-president and 30 percent stockholder of Station WAEB, Allentown, Pennsylvania.

3. In his protest and petition, Lawrence M. C. Smith alleges, in substance, that since 1952 he has been a stockholder of the assignor corporation and his shares represent 16⅔ percent of the outstanding stock thereof; that his wife has been and is a creditor of the assignor, and he has at all times managed and represented her creditor position; that he is also a creditor by virtue of a claim for a portion of funds to be restored to the corporation on account of the illegal diversion, by majority stockholders, including M. Robert Rogers and Pierson Underwood, of a corporate opportunity and assets in connection with a "High Fidelity Fair" and on account of the diversion of profits therefrom, which claim has been recognized by Rogers and Underwood, who have promised to make restitution and have brought suit to obtain restitution from certain former stockholders; that during the period of the transaction described in the protest, Smith was also a director of the assignor, although on July 10, 1956 without legal cause and in disregard of the corporation laws of Delaware, where the assignor was incorporated, M. Robert Rogers, 41⅔ percent stockholder, acting for himself and as proxy for Pierson Underwood, likewise a 41⅔ percent stockholder, purported to remove him as a director; that since its inception, the programming of Stations WGMS and WGMS-FM has been identical and has emphasized serious music; that protestant is the licensee of Station WFLN (FM), the only good music station in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is an applicant for a construction permit to establish an AM good music station in Philadelphia; that protestant is a 50 percent stockholder, vice-president and treasurer of Good Music Broadcasters, Inc., a corporation which arranges for rebroadcasting of good music programs by a number of stations, sells time for some 14 good music stations (including, until their assignment to RKO, Stations WGMS and WGMS-FM) and promotes good music stations generally; that Good Music Broadcasters, Inc., sells time to advertisers on the basis that a group of stations, all with good music format, will broadcast the advertisements contracted for; that advertisers have indicated that they will abrogate their contracts if either WGMS or WGMS-FM alters its good music format, is taken over by RKO and its network subsidiary, Mutual Broadcasting System, Inc., or otherwise becomes unavailable on the basis contracted for; and that the assignment to RKO deprives protestant of his ownership interest in WGMS and WGMS-FM, and of the operating benefits therefrom to the protestant's other enterprises without his consent.

4. The protestant further alleges, in substance, that on April 25, 1955, he was elected to the Board of Directors of The Good Music Station, Inc.; that in accepting the directorship, protestant stipulated, among other things, by an exchange of letters with M. Robert Rogers and Pierson Underwood, that no major policy decision would be made without a directors' meeting, and no action directly or indirectly involving the financial or stock interest or compensation of Rogers, Mrs. Rogers or Underwood would be taken without prior notice to and consultation with the protestant; that at the very time this agreement was being made, and without the knowledge or consent of the petitioner, Rogers and Mrs. Rogers, with the aid and assent of Underwood, in a meeting of the Executive Committee, voted themselves 5 year contracts at $25,500 and $5,200 per year, respectively; that this action was in violation of an express restriction in the delegated powers of the Executive Committee, in violation of the laws of Delaware, in breach of the fiduciary obligations of Rogers, Mrs. Rogers and Underwood as officers and directors, in breach of the express written agreement with the protestant; and that the contracts were thus a fraud upon the protestant and the corporation and were wholly invalid.

5. The protestant further alleges, in substance, that on February 25, 1956, Rogers, acting for himself as an individual and with a power of attorney from Underwood, entered into an agreement with RKO to deliver all of the stock or all of the assets of The Good Music Station, Inc. to RKO for $291,250 plus the excess of current assets over current liabilities at the time of closing and reduced to the extent that certain notes of the corporation were not discharged; that the agreement further provided for the employment of Rogers and his wife by RKO as part-time "consultants" at $30,000 per year for five years, cancellable within the first year upon a lump sum payment of $70,000; that this provision was not a bona fide employment agreement, but a subterfuge; that it was a pay-off to Rogers and his wife for delivering WGMS and WGMS-FM to RKO; that this agreement was made without a stockholders' meeting, without authority from the Board of Directors, in breach of the fiduciary obligations of Rogers and Underwood, without the knowledge or consent of protestant, and in violation of the prior written agreement with the protestant; that the majority stockholders, over protestant's objections, subsequently voted to dissolve the corporation; that on April 11, 1956, before the assignor corporation entered into any contract with RKO, Nathan Straus submitted an independent written offer, subject to certain stated conditions, to purchase 100% of assignor's stock for $400,000 in cash; that said offer amounted to approximately $50,000 more than the RKO offer; that Rogers nevertheless took no action on the Straus offer and made no further effort to negotiate with him; that thereafter, on April 14, 1956, without the knowledge of the protestant, Rogers and Underwood, for themselves and the assignor corporation, entered into a contract with RKO to sell the assignor's assets, and at the same time, Rogers and his wife entered into a "consulting agreement" with RKO; that said "consulting agreement", like the earlier provision therefor in the individual agreement of Rogers and Underwood with RKO, made February 25, 1956, is not a bona fide employment contract, but a subterfuge to cover up a special and improper payment to Rogers to induce the sale to RKO in fraud of The Good Music Station, Inc., and the protestant; that the transparency of the subterfuge is shown by the fact that within a few weeks after the consummation of the sale, Rogers has taken a leave of absence from his position as consultant to undertake an unrelated activity; that in the fall of 1955 and the early part of 1956, a representative of the Dumont radio and television interests sought to negotiate with Rogers for the purchase of WGMS and WGMS-FM and Rogers wrongfully failed to report these overtures to the Board of Directors or to the protestant, and failed to ascertain what advantages might accrue to the corporation and the stockholders through the pursuit of these negotiations; that in April, 1956, the protestant filed a lawsuit in the Delaware Courts to enjoin the sale of WGMS and WGMS-FM to RKO as fraudulent, null and void, and to appoint a receiver or trustee; and that said lawsuit is still pending and is being diligently prosecuted.

6. The protestant further alleges, in substance, that the assignee does not propose to continue to operate Station WGMS as a good music station; that while RKO does propose to operate WGMS-FM as a good music station, less than 50 percent of all radio homes in the area have FM receivers, and if the FM operation should prove unprofitable, there is no assurance that even this limited service would be maintained; that WGMS and WGMS-FM should be preserved as good music stations because of the cultural benefits of their operation in the nation's capital; and that the Commission's action granting the above-entitled application prejudices and frustrates the jurisdiction of the Delaware Court with respect to the protestant's lawsuit, despite the Commission's announced intention not to intervene therein.[2] Finally, protestant requests that the above applications be designated for hearing on the issues specified in the protest; that pending hearing and determination, the Commission stay or rescind the above grant; and that, in the alternative the Commission reconsider and vacate its action of July 18, 1956, and abstain from any further action in the matter pending the determination of the above litigation.

7. In their oppositions to the protest and petition, the applicants allege, in substance, that Smith was legally and properly removed as a Director of the assignor corporation by majority vote of the stockholders for the reason that he had been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury for alleged participation, through his Radio Station WFLM, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in an illegal combination in restraint of trade in connection with an agreement to fix rates among otherwise competing radio stations; that the position of Smith's wife as a creditor of the assignor has not been injured by the assignment of Stations WGMS and WGMS-FM to RKO, and in fact, on July 20, 1956, all creditors of The Good Music Station, Inc., were asked to send in their notes so that their claims could be paid; that, in any event, Mrs. Smith has not filed a protest or joined in the instant protest; that Smith's rights in connection with the claim arising from the

[1] On September 7, 1956, the protestant filed a "Reply to Oppositions to Protest and Petition for Reconsideration." Under § 1.730 of the Commission's rules and regulations, the last date to file said reply was September 4, 1956. Accordingly, said reply is untimely. However, we find nothing in the reply which would change the determination made herein.

[2] The protestant herein submitted objections to the above-captioned applications before the Commission acted thereon, which objections set forth substantially the same matters that are contained in the protest. The Commission, in granting the applications, took cognizance of Mr. Smith's objections and, on July 18, 1956, sent him a letter which stated in part that, "in its consideration of said applications, the Commission did not pass upon the matters involved in the pending litigation in the Delaware Courts, and its grant of the applications is not a determination with respect to the merits of the controversy involved in the proceeding."

"High Fidelity Fair" need no further protection at this time, and even if the funds involved are restored to the corporation, Smith will not become a creditor of the corporation and will have no claim against the fund except for his share as a stockholder which will be distributed to him in liquidating dividends as the dissolution of the corporation continues; that protestant's allegations concerning discussions with Rogers on behalf of Dumont, are irrelevant; and that while Mr. Rogers has become Executive Director of the Committee on the Arts and Sciences for Eisenhower, this activity is not inconsistent with the consulting agreement with RKO, and he has informed RKO that he will defer the formal date of starting his consulting duties until December, in accordance with the Agreement, and will, in the meantime, be available for a reasonable amount of advice and consultation without compensation.

8. The applicants further allege, in substance, that WGMS never signed an agreement to become a participating station in Good Music Broadcasters, Inc., so that all advertising it accepted through Good Music Broadcasters, Inc., or any other relationship the station might have had with that organization, was on a case-to-case basis, with no obligation on the part of WGMS to continue the relationship; that Smith cannot claim standing as a "party in interest" on the basis of the profits he might have made had WGMS continued as an exclusively "good music" station, because such profits are too speculative to be determined and the relationships upon which they would have to be predicated are too remote and indirect; that even assuming that Good Music Broadcasters, Inc., has such standing, Smith cannot assert the alleged rights of that corporate entity; that Smith's own station, WFLN, has been offered an affiliation with Mutual's proposed "good music" network, and has refused it; that WFLN now receives only one program from WGMS, which is 90 minutes in length and is broadcast weekly, 30 weeks per year; that since said program is furnished on a gratuity basis and is subject to cancellation at any time, WFLN can have no more standing that any other member of the public who receives programs gratuitously; that this case is not governed by the case of Granik et al. v. FCC, recently decided by the Court of Appeals, in which the Court found that the holder of an option to purchase a station was a party in interest to an application for Commission consent to the sale of the station to another party; that this case differs from the Granik case because there the protestants established prima facie that they had an ownership interest in the license of the station sought to be transferred, and were attempting to enforce a claim for specific performance of the option in the state Courts, whereas in this case, a majority of the stockholders of the assignor have voted to dissolve the corporation and transfer its assets to RKO and Smith can, therefore, have no further interest in the station's authorizations; that the injury Smith complains of in the Delaware Court is one that is fully compensable in damages that the cancellation by advertisers of agreements with stations which are not a party to this proceeding could not confer standing on the protestant; that Smith's damages in the Delaware action, if he was successful, would approximate $8,300 or less, for which the defendants therein could readily respond; and that, by virtue of all of the foregoing, Smith is not a "party in interest" or a "person aggrieved or whose interests are adversely affected" under sections 309 (c) or 405 of the Communications Act.

9. Finally, the applicants allege, in substance, that the pending litigation in the Delaware Courts involves a private dispute concerning the internal affairs of the assignor corporation, and is the type of dispute in which the Commission has held that it cannot and will not intervene; that similarly, with respect to changes in the station's programming, Smith seeks to raise an issue which the Commission should not consider; and that, once the Commission has determined that an applicant's program policy has been found to meet the standards of the public interest, as it has so found with respect to the instant assignee's proposals, it is precluded from giving further consideration as to whether some other type of programming might be preferable.

10. In light of the facts alleged in the protest, we find that the protestant is a "party in interest" and a "person aggrieved or whose interests are adversely affected" by the Commission's grant of the above-entitled applications, within the meaning of Sections 309 (c) and 405 of the Communications Act, respectively. Granik et al. v. FCC, Docket No. 12909, U. S. App. D. C., decided May 31, 1956; FCC v. Sanders, 309 U. S. 470; In re: General-Times Television Corporation, 13 Pike & Fischer RR 1049; Camden Radio, Inc. v. FCC, 94 U. S. App. D. C. 312, 220 F 2d 191. We find further that the protestant has specified with particularity the facts upon which he relies to show that the Commission's grant was not in the public interest. In view of these findings, a question is presented as to the type of hearing which is required with respect to the protestant's issues. In this connection, section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, states as follows: "The Commission shall, within thirty days of the filing of the protest, render a decision making findings as to the sufficiency of the protest in meeting the above requirements; and, where it so finds, shall designate the application for hearing upon issues relating to all matters specified in the protest as grounds for setting aside the grant, except with respect to such matters as to which the Commission, after affording protestant an opportunity for oral argument, finds, for reasons set forth in the decision, that, even if the facts alleged were to be proven, no grounds for setting aside the grant are presented."

The instant protest contains allegations of facts and conclusions drawn therefrom by the protestant. The facts alleged are, in substance, the same as facts which were alleged in pleadings filed by the protestant prior to the Commission's grant of the above-entitled applications. Upon consideration of these facts, the Commission then found that a grant of the applications would be in the public interest. We have given further consideration to the facts alleged in the protest and are not convinced at this point that even if these facts were proven, grounds are presented for setting aside our grant. Accordingly, oral argument will be held as on demurrer.

11. A final question is presented as to whether we should stay the effective date of our grant of the above-entitled applications. In this connection, section 309 (c) of the Communications Act provides that: "pending hearing and decision (of cases arising under this statute) the effective date of the Commission's action to which protest is made shall be postponed to the effective date of the Commission's decision after hearing, unless the authorization involved is necessary to the maintenance or conduct of an existing service, or unless the Commission affirmatively finds for reasons set forth in the decision that the public interest requires that the grant remain in effect, in which event the Commission shall authorize the applicant to utilize the facilities or authorization in question pending the Commission's decision after hearing."

No facts or arguments are set forth in the oppositions to the instant protest to show either that the grant of the above-entitled applications is necessary to the maintenance of the existing service provided by Stations WGMS and WGMS–FM, or that the public interest requires that the grant remain in effect pending determination of the questions raised by the protest. Nor are we able, on the basis of the facts before us, to conclude that we would be warranted in denying a stay in this case. Accordingly, the effective date of the grant must be postponed until a final determination is reached after the oral argument ordered herein.

12. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That, effective immediately, the effective date of the grant of the above-entitled applications is postponed pending a determination with respect to the protest of Lawrence M. C. Smith; that the petition for reconsideration herein is granted to the extent provided for below and is denied in all other respects; and that, pursuant to section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for oral argument at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C. on the question whether, if the facts alleged in the protest were to be proven, grounds have been presented for setting aside the grant of said applications.

13. It is further ordered, That the protestant and the Chief, Broadcast Bureau, are hereby made parties to the proceedings herein and that:

(1) The oral argument shall commence at 10 a. m., on the 1st day of October 1956, and shall be held before the Commission en banc;

(2) The parties intending to participate in the oral argument shall file their appearances not later than September 24, 1956.

(3) The parties to the proceeding have until the date of oral argument to file briefs or memoranda of law.

14. It is further ordered, That the applicants shall have until October 12, 1956 to effect a reassignment of the licenses and construction permit to the assignor.

Adopted: September 11, 1956

Released: September 13, 1956.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-10281, G-10282]

WESTPAN HYDROCARBON CO., AND SINCLAIR OIL & GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 13, 1956.

Take notice that Westpan Hydrocarbon Co. (Westpan), a Delaware corporation with principal office at 301 Amarillo Building, Amarillo, Texas, filed, on April 19, 1956, an application for permission to abandon service, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act (act), authorizing Westpan to terminate service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Concurrently therewith, Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. (Sinclair), a Maine corporation with principal office at Sinclair Oil Building, Tulsa 2, Oklahoma, filed, on April 19, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the act, authorizing Sinclair to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Westpan proposes to terminate and Sinclair proposes to take over and continue without any interruption in service, the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce from production of Westpan's entire undivided one-half interest in the dry gas operating rights down to and including the Mesa Verde formation under lands in Rio Arriba County, New Mexico, to El Paso Natural Gas Company for resale.[1]

The applications state that on April 18, 1956, the stockholders of Westpan voted to transfer to Jalco, Inc., certain of Westpan's assets and properties, including the aforesaid entire undivided one-half interest; that said transfer is scheduled to occur on April 30, 1956; that simultaneously, on April 30, 1956, Jalco, Inc., will sell and transfer said interest to Sinclair; and that the sale and transfer of the aforesaid interest will be made expressly subject to the existing contract dated March 8, 1954 between Westpan and El Paso.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Monday, October 15, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 28, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as a waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[1] The sale by Westpan to El Paso was authorized by order issued July 13, 1956, in Docket No. G-7001 (lead Docket No. G-6978 et al.). Sinclair is the present owner of the remaining undivided one-half interest and was authorized by order issued December 22, 1954 in Docket No. G-2690 to sell to El Paso.

[Docket No. G-10517]

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 13, 1956.

Take notice that Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware Corporation, having its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, filed on June 4, 1956 an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the construction and operation of natural gas facilities as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application now on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate a 4-inch tap at a point on its existing 24-inch main transmission line in Refugio County, Texas approximately 110 miles upstream from its existing Compressor station No. 2, in order to receive natural gas to be purchased from and produced by Dolphin Petroleum Company, Inc. from the Wyrick Field, Refugio County, Texas. The estimated total cost of the proposed tap is $2,500 to be financed from company funds.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 12, 1956, at 9:35 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 28, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS

SEPTEMBER 14, 1956.

Protests, consisting of an original and two copies, to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and a copy of such protest served on the applicant. Each protest must clearly state the name and street number, city and state address of each protestant on behalf of whom the protest is filed (49 CFR 1.240 and 1.241). Failure to seasonably file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding unless an oral hearing is held. In addition to other requirements of Rule 40 of the general rules of practice of the Commission (49 CFR 1.40), protests shall include a request for a public hearing, if one is desired, and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests containing general allegations may be rejected. Requests for an oral hearing must be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence cannot be submitted in the form of affidavits. Any interested person not a protestant, desiring to receive notice of the time and place of any hearing, prehearing conference, taking of depositions, or other proceedings shall notify the Commission by letter or telegram within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Except when circumstances require immediate action, an application for approval, under section 210a (b) of the act, of the temporary operation of Motor Carrier properties sought to be acquired in an application under section 5 (2) will not be disposed of sooner than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If a protest is received prior to action being taken, it will be considered.

No. MC 44605 Sub 4, filed July 23, 1956, JOSEPH J. MILNE TRUCK LINE, INC., 205 West First North, St. George, Utah. Applicant's representative: Wood R. Worsley, Suite 1501 Walker Bank Building, Salt Lake City 11, Utah. For authority to operate as a common carrier, over regular routes, transporting: General commodities, including Class A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and those requiring special equipment, but excluding articles of unusual value, between St. George, Anderson, and Cedar City, Utah, on the one hand, and, on the other, Glen Canyon Dam Site (located on the Colorado River approximately fifteen (15) miles upstream from Marble Canyon, Ariz., and points in Utah and Arizona within 25 miles of Glen Canyon Dam Site, (1) from Anderson over Utah Highway 15 to junction U. S. Highway 89, thence over U. S. Highway 89 to Kanab, Utah (also from Cedar City, Utah over Utah Highway 14 to junction to U. S. Highway 89), thence over U. S. Highway 89 to Kanab (also from St. George, Utah, over U. S. Highway 91 to junction Utah Highway 17, thence over Utah Highway 17 to junction Utah Highway 15, thence over Utah Highway 15 to junction U. S. Highway 89, thence over U. S. Highway 89 to Kanab), thence from Kanab over Utah Highway 136 to junction access roads to Glen Canyon Dam Site, Ariz., thence over access roads to Glen Canyon Dam Site (also from Kanab over U. S. Highway 89 to junction access roads to Glen Canyon Dam Site, near Marble Canyon, Ariz.), thence over access roads to Glen Canyon Dam Site, Ariz., and return over the same routes, serving no intermediate points, but serving points in Arizona and Utah within 25 miles of the Glen Canyon Dam Site as off-route points; and (2) from St. George over U. S. Highway 91 to junction Utah Highway 17, thence over Utah Highway 17 to Hurricane, Utah, thence over Utah Highway 59 to junction unnumbered highway, thence over unnumbered highway via Short Creek, and Pipe Spring, Ariz., to Fredonia, Ariz., thence over U. S. Highway 89 to junction access roads to Glen Canyon Dam Site near Marble Canyon, Ariz., thence over access roads to Glen Canyon Dam Site, Ariz., and return over the same routes, serving no intermediate points, but serving points in Arizona and Utah within 25 miles of the Glen Canyon Dam Site as off-route points.

NOTE: Applicant states it proposes to tack this authority with its authorized existing authority in MC 44605 and Sub 1. Applicant further states it does not seek authority herein to serve intermediate points between U. S. Highway 91 as shown above and the Glen Canyon Dam Site and points within 25 miles thereof. Under MC 44605, applicant has irregular route authority for the same commodities as in the regular route portion of such certificate (which are identical to those requested herein) to points in Mohave and Coconino Counties, Ariz., north of the Colorado River, which authority would be retained by applicant under this application since the shipping needs of this sparsely populated area in Arizona north of the Colorado River require such service.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

OVERTON INVESTMENT COMPANY OF AMERICA

ORDER FOR PROCEEDINGS AND NOTICE OF HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of September 1956.

In the matter of Albert Monroe Overton, a sole proprietor dba The Overton Investment Company of America, 164 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey.

I. The Commission's public official files disclose that Albert Monroe Overton, a sole proprietor, doing business as The Overton Investment Company of America, hereinafter referred to as registrant, is registered as a broker-dealer pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

II. The Records Officer of the Commission has filed with the Commission a statement, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof,[1] stating that registrant did not file with the Commission reports of his financial condition during the calendar year 1955 as required by section 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-17A-5 adopted thereunder.

III. The information reported to the Commission by its Records Officer as set forth in Paragraph II hereof tends, if true, to show that registrant violated section 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-17A-5 adopted under said section.

IV. The Commission, having considered the aforesaid information, deems it necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors that proceedings be instituted to determine:

(a) Whether the statement referred to in Paragraph II hereof is true;

(b) Whether registrant has wilfully violated section 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-17A-5 adopted under said section;

(c) Whether, pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, it is in the public interest to revoke registration of registrant; and

(d) Whether, pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, pending final determination, it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors to suspend the registration of registrant.

V. It is ordered, That registrant be given an opportunity for hearing as set forth in Paragraph IV hereof at 10 a. m. on the 11th day of October 1956 at the main office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, located at 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., before a Hearing Examiner to be designated by the Commission. At such time the Hearing Room Clerk in Room 193, North Building, will advise the parties and the Hearing Examiner as to the room in which such hearing will be held. The Commission will consider any motion with respect to a change of place of said hearing if said motion is filed with the Secretary of the Commission on or before September 27, 1956. Upon completion of any such hearing in this matter the Hearing Examiner shall prepare a recommended decision pursuant to Rule IX of the rules of practice unless such decision is waived.

It is further ordered, That in the event registrant does not appear personally or through a representative at the time and place herein set or as otherwise ordered, the Hearing Room Clerk shall file with the Records Officer of the Commission a written statement to that effect and thereupon the Commission will take the record under advisement for decision.

This order and notice shall be served on registrant personally or by registered mail forthwith, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER not later than fifteen (15) days prior to October 11, 1956.

In the absence of an appropriate waiver, no officer or employee of the Commission engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions in this or any factually related proceeding will be permitted to participate or advise in the decision upon the matter except as witness or counsel in proceedings held pursuant to notice. Since this proceeding is not "rule making" within the meaning of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it is not deemed to be subject to the provisions of the section delaying the effective date of any final Commission action.

By the Commission.

In the matter of Robert William McLaughlin, a sole proprietor, dba Wall Street Securities Company, Suite 1808, 19 Rector Street, New York, New York.

I. The Commission's public official files disclose that Robert William McLaughlin, a sole proprietor, doing business as Wall Street Securities Company, hereinafter referred to as registrant, is registered as a broker-dealer pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

II. The Records Officer of the Commission has filed with the Commission a statement, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof,[1] stating that registrant did not file with the Commission reports of his financial condition during the calendar year 1955 as required by section 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-17A-5 adopted thereunder.

III. The information reported to the Commission by its Records Officer as set forth in Paragraph II hereof tends, if true, to show that registrant violated section 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-17A-5 adopted under said section.

IV. The Commission, having considered the aforesaid information, deems it necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors that proceedings be instituted to determine:

(a) Whether the statement referred to in Paragraph II hereof is true;

(b) Whether registrant has wilfully violated section 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-17A-5 adopted under said section;

(c) Whether, pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, it is in the public interest to revoke registration of registrant; and

(d) Whether, pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, pending final determination, it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors to suspend the registration of registrant.

V. It is ordered, That registrant be given an opportunity for hearing as set forth in Paragraph IV hereof at 10 a. m. on the 11th day of October 1956 at the main office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, located at 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., before a Hearing Examiner to be designated by the Commission. At such time the Hearing Room Clerk in room 193, North Building, will advise the parties and the Hearing Examiner as to the room in which such hearing will be held. The Commission will consider any motion with respect to a change of place of said hearing if said motion is filed with the Secretary of the Commission on or before September 27, 1956. AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION REGARDING ACQUISITION BY REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANY OF COMMON STOCK OF PUBLIC UTILITY COMPANY AND PERMITTING EFFECTIVENESS TO DECLARATION BY REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANY REGARDING ISSUANCE OF ITS COMMON STOCK TO BE USED IN PAYMENT FOR ACQUISITION

SEPTEMBER 13, 1956.

American Gas and Electric Company ("American Gas"), a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission an application-declaration under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") pursuant to sections 6, 7, 9, and 10 thereof regarding certain proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

American Gas proposes to acquire all of the outstanding shares of common capital stock of Seneca Light and Power Company ("Seneca"), consisting of 1,000 shares, no par value, in exchange for an aggregate total of shares of the common stock of American Gas, par value $10 a share, equal to a market value of $500,000 (subject to adjustment for changes in net current assets up to the date of closing), the exact number of shares being determined on the basis of the average market price from August 15, 1956, the date of the acceptance by the stockholders of Seneca of the offer of American Gas, to the date of closing.

The 1,000 shares of Seneca's common capital stock are held by three individuals in a single family none of whom is affiliated with American Gas or any of its subsidiaries. The negotiations between Seneca and American Gas have been carried on at arm's length.

Seneca is an Ohio corporation which operates an electric power distribution system in the communities of Attica, Carrothers, Chatfield, Siam and adjacent territory, in Seneca and Crawford Counties, Ohio. This service area of Seneca is surrounded by the service areas of subsidiaries of American Gas and Seneca purchases all its electric energy from Ohio Power Company, a subsidiary of American Gas.

It is expected that the proposed transactions will be of benefit to the consumers of Seneca through contemplated rate reductions to be effectuated after acquisition and will be of benefit to investors through increased earnings by Seneca arising from economies growing out of greater efficiency in the operations of Seneca.

The filing also embraces a declaration on the part of American Gas to issue the number of shares of its common stock (the precise amount of which is not presently determinable) necessary to effectuate the above described acquisition. On the basis of the current market price of its common stock, American Gas has estimated that the number of shares of common stock to be issued by it will not exceed 13,000 shares. The precise number of shares issued will be set forth in the Certificate of Notification to be filed with this Commission pursuant to Rule U-24.

Notice of the filing of this application-declaration having been duly given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 and no hearing having been ordered by or requested of the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied; and that the application-declaration should be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

as amended (21 U. S. C. 117), § 76.27, as amended, Subpart B, Part 76, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations (21 F. R. 3, 417, 786, 1165, 1461, 1743, 2230, 2611, 3005, 3923, 4339, 5043, 5435, 5861, 6748), which quarantines certain areas because of vesicular exanthema, a contagious, infectious, and communicable disease of swine, is hereby further amended in the following respects:

1. New subdivisions (xi), (xii), (xiii), (xiv), (xv), (xvi), (xvii), (xviii), and (xix), are added to subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b), relating to Hartford County in Connecticut, to read:

(xi) The Town of Avon;
(xii) The Town of Burlington;
(xiii) The Town of Canton;
(xiv) The Town of Hartford;
(xv) The Town of Hartland;
(xvi) The Town of Newington;
(xvii) The Town of New Britain;
(xviii) The Town of West Hartford; and
(xix) The Town of Windsor Locks.

2. New subdivisions (vii), (viii), (ix), and (x), are added to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b), relating to New Haven County in Connecticut, to read:

(vii) The Town of Cheshire;
(viii) The Town of Hamden;
(ix) The Town of North Branford; and
(x) The Town of Madison.

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective upon issuance.

The amendment excludes certain areas in Connecticut from the areas heretofore quarantined because of vesicular exanthema. Hereafter, the restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of swine, and carcasses, parts and offal of swine, from or through quarantined areas, contained in 9 CFR, 1955 Supp., Part 76, Subpart B, as amended, will not apply to such areas. However, the restrictions pertaining to such movement from non-quarantined areas, contained in said Subpart B, as amended, will apply thereto.

The amendment relieves certain restrictions presently imposed, and must be made effective immediately to be of maximum benefit to persons subject to the restrictions which are relieved. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and the amendment may be made effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended, secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, secs. 1, 3, 33 Stat. 1264, as amended, 1265, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 111–113, 117, 120, 123, 125)

Done at Washington, D. C. this 14th day of September 1956.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

A notice regarding proposed changes in the navigation and vessel inspection regulations was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated March 1, 1956 (21 F. R. 1350–1356), as Items I through XVI on the Agenda to be considered by the Merchant Marine Council, and a public hearing was held on April 24, 1956, at Washington, D. C. This document is the second of a series of documents covering the regulations considered at this hearing. This document also supersedes the miscellaneous amendments contained in Coast Guard Federal Register Document 56–21 published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated May 25, 1956 (21 F. R. 3535, 3536).

All the comments, views, and data submitted in connection with the items considered by the Merchant Marine Council at this public hearing have been very helpful to the Coast Guard and are very much appreciated. This document contains amendments to the regulations which are based on Item XIII in the Agenda.

The various amendments to the Dangerous Cargo Regulations in 46 CFR Part 146 have been necessitated by corresponding changes made in the regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission governing the land transportation of the same commodities. The provisions of R. S. 4472, as amended (46 U. S. C. 170), require that the land and water regulations governing the transportation of dangerous articles or substances shall be as nearly parallel as practicable. These amendments include provisions for water shipment of new articles of commerce, additional shipping containers, marking and labeling requirements for certain commodities, and editorial changes. These amendments include changes based on the Interstate Commerce Commission change orders Nos. 18 through 20.

A new section designated 46 CFR 146.03–39 defines abbreviations used in descriptions of ammunition.

The amendment to 46 CFR 146.04–5 brings the commodity list up to date and adds the shipping names of new articles of commerce subject to the regulations.

The amendment to 46 CFR 146.05–5 revises the requirements concerning certain ICC specification containers and will permit certain single trip metal drums to be continued in use until further orders are issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The amendment to 46 CFR 146.05–16 (b), regarding labels for mixed packing, is editorial in nature to clarify the requirements.

The amendment to 46 CFR 146.09–6, regarding portable magazine chest and portable magazine containers, changes the section title, and adds a new paragraph (d), which will permit the use of portable magazine containers in the transportation of explosives.

The amendments to 46 CFR 146.09–11, regarding chutes and conveyors for handling explosives, changes the title, designates the present wording as paragraph (a), and adds the new paragraphs (b) and (c) which permit manual and powered conveyors for loading explosives. Powered conveyors before being used must be of a design approved by the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

The amendments to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Explosives (46 CFR 146.20) include a revision of the list regarding prohibited or not permitted explosives (46 CFR 146.20–3 (h), (r)); new definitions for certain classes A, B, and C explosives (46 CFR 146.20–7, 146.20–9, and 146.20–11); revise the stowage chart of explosives and other dangerous articles with respect to detonating fuses (46 CFR 146.20–90); and provide for the shipment of new explosives by water, use of additional shipping containers, marking requirements, and editorial changes in the tables regarding the various classes of explosives (46 CFR 146.20–100, 146.20–200, and 146.20–300).

The amendments to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Inflammable Liquids (46 CFR 146.21) revise the list of certain inflammable liquids which are not subject to exemption (46 CFR 146.21–65), and provide for the shipment by water of new inflammable liquids, use of additional shipping containers, marking requirements, and editorial changes (46 CFR 146.21–100).

The amendments to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Inflammable Solids and Oxidizing Materials (46 CFR 146.22) provide for the shipment by water of new inflammable solids and oxidizing materials, use of additional shipping containers for certain items, and "tween deck readily accessible" stowage for chromic acid (46 CFR 146.22–100).

The amendments to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Corrosive Liquids (46 CFR 146.23) provide for water shipment of new corrosive liquids and the use of additional shipping containers (46 CFR 146.23–100).

The amendments to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Compressed Gases (46 CFR 146.24) revise requirements for exemptions for compressed gases (46 CFR 146.24–20); change requirements regarding valves, fittings, and accessories on tanks carrying anhydrous ammonia in bulk (46 CFR 146.24–85 (b) (1)); and provide for shipment by water of new materials and additional shipping containers (46 CFR 146.24–100).

The amendments to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Poisonous Articles (46 CFR 146.25) provide for exemptions of certain radioactive materials (46 CFR 146.25–25 (b)); additional packing and shielding requirements for radio-active materials (46 CFR 146.25–30); shipment by water of new poisons and additional shipping containers for class B poisons, class C poisons, and radioactive materials (46 CFR 146.25–200 (rewritten), 146.25–300, and 146.25–400). The amendment to 46 CFR 146.25–200 includes the requirements regarding stowage of tank cars containing motor fuel anti-knock compound which is permitted "under deck away from heat."

The amendment to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Combustible Liquids (46 CFR 146.26) provides for the shipment by water on passenger vessels of certain compounds possessing a flash point above 80° F. and below 150° F. (46 CFR 146.26–100).

The amendment to Subpart—Detailed Regulations Governing Hazardous Articles (46 CFR 146.27) permits the carriage of calcium carbide in special type railroad cars on railroad car ferries (46 CFR 146.27–100). This amendment also restates the change regarding water shipment of oakum in fiberboard boxes previously published on May 25, 1956, in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The amendments to Subpart—Rules and Regulations for Military Explosives (46 CFR 146.29) restate the interim requirements for stowage of chemical ammunition, class II–D, WP or PWP filled (solid), and provide that, except for wooden barrels or boxes and fiberboard containers used for packaging, the stowage of class X, explosive bombs, mines, torpedoes, etc., shall not be in a hold or compartment containing inflammable or combustible material. The interim instructions regarding stowing of chemical ammunition, class II–D, WP and PWP filled (solid), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 5, 1955, were on the agenda considered at the public hearing. No comments were submitted with respect thereto.

No comments were submitted nor appeals taken with respect to the emergency amendment to 46 CFR 146.29–39 (a), permitting the sliding or dragging of heavy containers of military explosives in the holds of vessels when the containers are provided with pulling bar assemblies and skids, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 29, 1956.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F. R. 6521), and Treasury Department Order No. 167–14, dated November 26, 1954 (19 F. R. 8026), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments are prescribed and shall become effective on the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

The authority for the regulations in this part is amended to read as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 146.01–1 to 146.29–100 issued under R. S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended, 4472, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 416, 170. Interprets or applies sec. 3, 68 Stat. 675, 50 U. S. C. 198; E. O. 10402, 17 F. R. 9917, 3 CFR, 1952 Supp.

SUBPART—DEFINITIONS OF WORDS AND TERMS CONTAINED WITHIN THE REGULATIONS IN THIS SUBCHAPTER

Subpart 146.03 is amended by adding a new § 146.03–39 as follows:

§ 146.03–39 W or W/O. The abbreviations "w" or "w/o" mean "With" or "Without" (i. e. Ammunition for cannon w/o projectiles).

SUBPART—SHIPPER'S REQUIREMENTS RE: PACKING, MARKING, LABELING AND SHIPPING PAPERS

1. Section 146.05–5 is amended by adding a new entry to the table in paragraph (b), and a new paragraph (f) as follows:

§ 146.05–5 I. C. C. specification containers. • • •

(b) • • •

6B---------- 20A---------- Metal drum.

• • • • • •

(f) Where the regulations require ICC–37A and 37B single trip metal drums, ICC–37D, 37E, 37F, 37G and 37H single trip metal drums may be continued in use for commodities and gross weights for which they were previously authorized until further order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

2. Section 146.05–16 is amended to correct a typographical error by deleting the present wording in paragraph (b) and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

§ 146.05–16 Labels for mixed packing. (a) • • •

(b) Use white acid (alkaline caustic liquid or corrosive liquid) label only when white acid (alkaline caustic liquid or corrosive liquid) and yellow or poison labels are prescribed or poison labels (class B) are prescribed, except when poison gas label or radioactive materials label is prescribed, then both the white acid label and the poison gas label or white acid and radioactive materials label must be used.

SUBPART—CARGO HANDLING AND STOWAGE DEVICES, U. S. COAST GUARD CONTAINER SPECIFICATIONS

1. Section 146.09–6 is amended by changing the title and adding a new paragraph (d), as follows:

§ 146.09–6 Portable magazine chest and portable magazine containers. • • •

(d) Portable magazine containers may be used in the transportation of explosives packaged in specification containers, under such conditions of construction, handling and stowage that meet the approval of the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

2. Section 146.09–11 is amended by changing the title, designating the present wording as paragraph (a), and adding new paragraphs (b) and (c), as follows:

§ 146.09–11 Chutes and conveyors for handling explosives. (a) Chutes for loading and unloading explosives shall be constructed as follows: Of smooth planed boards not less than 1" thick. Side guards of the same material 4" high. Assembly shall be with brass screws only. D-shaped wooden strips or runners not more than 6" apart and running lengthwise of the chute shall be fastened to the upper surface of the slide by means of glue and wooden dowels extended through the bottom of the chute. No metallic means of construction shall protrude beyond the inner face of the chute. Four lashing rings shall be provided, one at each outside corner of the chute for purposes of securing during use. No specification marking required.

(b) Roller conveyors constructed of aluminum or other non-sparking material may be used for loading or unloading explosives. The conveyor shall be grounded when in use, and suitable brakes provided when the angle of descent is such as to make them necessary.

(c) Powered conveyors may be used when the design, construction and specifications are approved by the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

SUBPART—DETAILED REGULATIONS GOVERNING EXPLOSIVES

1. Section 146.20–3 is amended by changing paragraph (h), and adding a new paragraph (r) as follows:

§ 146.20–3 Prohibited or not permitted explosives. • • •

(h) Firecrackers, flash crackers or salutes, the explosive content of which exceeds 12 grains each in weight, or pest control bombs, the explosive content of which exceeds 18 grains each in weight.

• • • • •

(r) Loaded firearms.

2. Section 146.20–7 is amended by changing subparagraph (g) (3) to read as follows:

§ 146.20–7 Class A explosives. • • •

(g) Type 7. • • •

(3) Detonating fuzes, class A, are used in the military service to detonate the high explosive bursting charges of projectiles, mines, bombs, torpedoes, and grenades. In addition to a powerful detonator, they may contain several ounces of a high explosive, such as tetryl or dry nitrocellulose, all assembled in a heavy steel envelope. They may also contain a small amount of radioactive component. Those that are so made and packed that they will not cause functioning of other fuzes, explosives, or explosive devices in the same or adjacent containers are classed as class C explosives.

3. Section 146.20–9 is amended by changing paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 146.20–9 Class B explosives. • • •

(c) Special fireworks are manufactured articles designed primarily for the purpose of producing visible or audible pyrotechnic effects by combustion or explosion. Examples are toy torpedoes, railway torpedoes, some firecrackers and salutes, exhibition display pieces, aeroplane flares, illuminating projectiles, incendiary projectiles or incendiary bombs and smoke projectiles or smoke bombs fuzed or unfuzed and containing expelling charges but without bursting charges, hand or rifle grenades with ignition elements but not containing bursting charges, flash powders in inner units not exceeding 2 ounces each, flash sheets in interior packages, flash powder or spreader cartridges containing not over 72 grains of flash powder each and flash cartridges consisting of a paper cartridge shell, small-arms primer, and flash composition, not exceeding 180 grains all assembled in one piece. Fireworks must be in a finished state, exclusive of mere ornamentation, as supplied to the retail trade and must be so constructed and packed that loose pyrotechnic composition will not be present in packages in transportation.

4. Section 146.20–11 is amended by adding new paragraphs (s), (t), (u), (v), and (w) to read as follows:

§ 146.20–11 Class C explosives. • • •

(s) Detonating fuzes, class C, are used in the military service to detonate high explosive bursting charges of projectiles, mines, bombs, torpedoes and grenades. They contain a detonator and a quantity of a high explosive. Detonating fuzes, class C, must be made and packed so that they will not cause functioning of other fuzes, explosives or explosive devices if one of the fuzes detonates in a shipping container or in adjacent containers.

(t) Explosive auto alarms are tubular devices containing a small amount of explosive composition and igniting compound which is ignited by an electric spark. These devices must be so designed that they will neither burst nor cause external flame on functioning.

(u) Toy propellant devices and toy smoke devices consist of small paper or composition tubes or containers containing a small charge of slow burning propellant powder or smoke producing powder. These devices must be so designed that they will neither burst nor produce external flame on functioning.

(v) Oil well cartridges are tubular devices consisting of a thin fiber, metal, or composition shell containing not more than 200 grains of propellant powder and having no ignition device or element.

(w) Fire extinguisher actuating cartridges consist of a small metal or fiber housing containing a small amount of initiating explosive and a propellant and are used to actuate the valves on remotely controlled fire extinguishers.

5. Section 146.20–90 is amended by changing the descriptions of Items "7" and "14" in the vertical and horizontal columns and footnote 2 to read as follows:

§ 146.20–90 Stowage and Storage Chart of Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles. • • •

"7" Detonating fuses, class A, with or without radioactive components.

"14" Time combination, or detonating fuses, class C.

[2] Explosives, Class A, and explosives, Class B, must not be loaded or stowed with chemical ammunition containing incendiary charges or white phosphorus either with or without bursting charges. Chemical ammunition of the same classification containing incendiary or white phosphorus may be loaded and stowed together.

6. Section 146.20-100 Table A—Classification: Class A; dengerous explosives is amended as follows:

Ammunition chemical, explosive. Includes such explosive ammunition as: gas projectiles, smoke projectiles, incendiary projectiles, illuminating projectiles, gas bombs, smoke bombs, incendiary bombs, gas grenades, smoke grenades, and incendiary grenades. Also miscellaneous apparatus, such as: cloud-gas cylinders, smoke generators, etc., used to project chemicals.	Chemical ammunition used in warfare is all kind of explosive chemical projectiles, shells, bombs, grenades, etc., loaded with toxic, tear, or other gas, smoke or incendiary agent; also such miscellaneous apparatus as cloud-gas cylinders, smoke generators, etc., that may be utilized to project chemicals. These articles must be shipped in accordance with the requirements for "Ammunition—Projectiles, grenades, bombs, mines and torpedoes."		When chemical elements of ammunition are shipped assembled with their detonating fuzes or bursting charges, they must be shipped in conformity with the regulations prescribed for "Ammunition projectiles, grenades, bombs, mines and torpedoes", Class A. For shipment of these articles assembled with their ignition elements or expelling charges but without detonating or bursting charges see "Fireworks, special," section 146.20-200—Table B—Class B explosives. For shipment of these articles not containing ignition elements, bursting charges, detonating fuzes, or other explosive components, see "Chemical ammunition (containing class A poisons, liquids, or gases.)" "Chemical ammunition (containing class B poisons, liquids, or gases.)" or "Chemical ammunition (containing class C poisons, liquids, gases, or solids)."

Black powder. Low explosives. May include: Black blasting powder. Black pellet powder. Black rifle powder. Blasting powder. Flash powder cartridges exceeding 72 grains each. Flash powder in inner units exceeding 2 ounces each. Flash powder sheets in bulk. Low blasting explosives. Rifle powder. Spreader cartridges exceeding 72 grains each. Sporting powder.	Black powder and low explosives are solid explosives which can be caused to deflagrate by contact with sparks or flame such as produced by a safety fuse or an electric squib, but cannot be detonated by means of a No. 8 test blasting cap. Flash powder sheets in bulk, flash powders packed in inner units exceeding 2 ounces each, and flash powder or spreader cartridges exceeding 72 grains each are classed as low explosives. Observe "This Side Up" stowage of boxes bearing such legend. Each outside package must be plainly marked with the appropriate descriptive name of the contents as "Black powder" or "Low explosives," and may also show "Blasting," "Rifle" etc. as "Black blasting powder," "Black rifle powder," "Low blasting explosive," or "black pellet powder." Boxes with inside containers packed filling holes up must be marked "This Side Up."	No label required.	Stowage: Magazine Outside containers: Wooden barrels or kegs (ICC-10B) not over 200 lb. gr. wt. Metal kegs (ICC-13) not less than 7 inches long and not less than 6¼ lb. net wt. nor over 150 lb. net wt. Bundles of metal kegs (ICC-13) firmly tied together with rope and strong burlap, canvas or similar material, securely sewed and roped, not over 100 lb. net wt. Wooden boxes: (ICC-14) WIC, not over 140 lb. gr. wt. (ICC-15A, 16A) WIC, not over 200 lb. gr. wt. Fiberboard boxes: (ICC-12H, 23F, 23H) WIC, not over 65 lb. gr. wt. Blasting caps—more than 1,000. Blasting caps with safety fuse—more than 1,000. Electric blasting caps—more than 1,000.	Blasting caps are small tubes, usually made of an alloy of either copper or aluminum, or of molded plastic, closed at one end and loaded with a charge of initiating or priming explosives, Class A—Type 4, either with or without other suitable explosives. The total weight of explosives per unit shall not exceed 150 grains. Blasting caps which have been provided with a means of firing by an electric current, and sealed, are known as electric blasting caps. Do not stow blasting caps with any high explosive. Do not handle blasting caps at the same time as high explosives are being loaded. Each outside box must be plainly marked with the appropriate descriptive name of the contents as: "(number) Blasting caps—Handle carefully;" "(number) Electric blasting caps—Handle carefully;" "(number) Blasting caps with safety fuse—Handle carefully." Boosters (explosive). Bursters (explosive). Detonating fuzes, class A, with or without radioactive components. Detonating fuze parts containing an explosive. Supplementary charges (explosive).	Boosters and supplementary charges consist of a casing containing a high explosive and are used to increase the intensity of explosion of the detonator of a detonating fuze. Bursters consist of a casing containing a high explosive and are used to rupture a projectile or bomb to permit release of its contents. Detonating fuzes, class A, are used in the military service to detonate the high explosive bursting charges of projectiles, mines, bombs, torpedoes and grenades. In addition to a powerful detonator, they may contain several ounces of a high explosive, such as tetryl or dry nitrocellulose, all assembled in a heavy steel envelope. They may also contain a small amount of radioactive component. Radiation on the surface of any detonating fuze having a radioactive component shall not exceed 100 milliroentgens per hour. Detonating fuzes that are so made and packed that they will not cause functioning of other fuzes, explosives, or explosives devices, in the same or adjacent containers are classed as class C explosives. Do not stow detonating fuzes with any high explosives; and Do not load at the same time that high explosives are being loaded. Each outside container must be plainly marked "Boosters (Explosive)—Handle Carefully," or "Bursters (Explosive)—Handle Carefully," or "Detonating Fuzes, Class A—Handle Carefully—Do Not Store or Load With Any High Explosives," or "Detonating Fuzes, Class A, Radioactive—Handle Carefully—Do Not Store or Load With Any High Explosives," or "Supplementary Charges (Explosive)—Handle Carefully," as the case may be.	No label required.	Stowage: Magazine. Outside containers: Strong tight wooden or metal boxes, not over 100 lb. gr. wt. for detonating fuzes. § 146.20-300 Table C—Classification: Class C; relatively safe explosives

Descriptive name of article	Characteristic properties, cautions, markings required	Label required	Required conditions for transportation
			Cargo vessel	Passenger vessel	Ferry vessel, passenger or vehicle	R. R. car ferry, passenger or vehicle
Blasting caps—1,000 or less. Blasting caps with safety fuse—1,000 or less caps. Electric blasting caps—1,000 or less.	Blasting caps are small tubes, usually made of an alloy of either copper or aluminum, or of molded plastic, closed at one end and loaded with a charge of initiating or priming explosives, Class A—Type 4, either with or or without other suitable explosives. The total weight of explosives shall not exceed 150 grains. Blasting caps which have been provided with a means for firing by an electric current, and sealed, are known as electric blasting caps. Do not stow blasting caps with any high explosive. Do not handle blasting caps at the same time high explosives are being loaded. Each outside box must be plainly marked with the appropriate descriptive name of the contents as: "(number) Blasting caps—Handle carefully." "(number) Electric blasting caps—Handle carefully." "(number) Blasting caps with safety fuse—Handle carefully." In addition each box must bear the marking "Do not store or load with any high explosive."	No label required.	Stowage: Portable magazines or metal lockers. Outside containers: Wooden boxes: (ICC-14, 15A, 16A) WIC, not over 150 lb. gr. wt. Fiberboard boxes: (ICC-12H, 23F, 23H) WIC, not over 75 lb. gr. wt. NOTE: Blasting caps in any quantity shall not be stowed in the same magazine with any other explosive or in any locker in which fireworks are stowed. They may be stowed in portable magazines or metal lockers provided such are located in cargo carrying compartments away from all sources of heat and in which no inflammable liquids, inflammable solids or oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids or inflammable compressed gases, are stowed. Fuzes Percussion fuzes. Combination fuzes. Detonating fuzes, class C. Time fuzes. Tracer fuzes. Tracers.	Percussion fuzes, combination fuzes, and time fuzes are devices used to ignite the powder charges of ammunition or the black powder bursting charges of projectiles. Tracer fuzes and tracers are devices which are attached to projectiles and contain a slow-burning composition to show the flight of the projectiles at night. Detonating fuzes, class C, are used in the military service to detonate high explosives bursting charges of projectiles, mines, bombs, torpedoes and grenades. Do not stow in the same compartment with any inflammable liquids, inflammable solids and oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids, or inflammable compressed gases. Each outside box will be plainly marked with the appropriate descriptive name of the contents as: "Percussion fuzes—Handle carefully." "Combination fuzes—Handle carefully." Motion-picture film, old and worn out (nitrocellulose base).	Old and worn out (not scrap) film, no longer exhibitable and with value only for reclamation of material. Characteristics and hazards are the same as for "Motion-picture film (nitrocellulose base)." See above.	Yellow	Stowage: "On deck protected." "On deck under cover." "Tween decks readily accessible." Outside containers: Steel barrels or drums: (ICC-6A) not over 55 gal. cap. (ICC-6H, 6C, 6J) not over 110 gal. cap. (ICC-37A, 37B) STC, not over 55 gal. cap. Fiber drums (ICC-21A, 21B) not over 55 gal. cap. Metal boxes (ICC-32A, 32B) not exceeding core cap. Metal boxes (ICC-32D) not over 250 lbs. net wt. of film. Wooden boxes (ICC-15A) WIML, not over 450 lb. gr. wt. (ICC-15A, 15B, 15C, 16A, 19A) WIMC, not over 450 lb. gr. wt.	Not permitted	Not permitted	Not permitted.

Oxidizing materials, N. O. S.	May be any substance classifying as an oxidizing material in accordance with the definitions contained in these regulations, provided such oxidizing material is not otherwise specified by name in these regulations. Involved in a fire, will greatly intensify the burning of all combustible materials. Do not stow with combustible materials, explosives or acids (white label).	Yellow	Stowage: "On deck protected." "On deck under cover." "Tween decks readily accessible." Outside containers: Steel barrels or drums: (ICC-6A) not over 55 gal. cap. and not exceeding 880 lb. gr. wt. Perchlorates: Ammonium perchlorate. Barium perchlorate. Magnesium perchlorate. Perchlorates, N. O. S. Potassium perchlorate.	Colorless crystals or white crystalline powder; strong oxidizing agents. Perchlorates mixed with organic matter form very inflammable compositions, and frequently act as high explosives when mixed with finely divided organic material or finely divided metals somewhat the same as chlorates, but to a lesser degree. Soluble in water. Do not stow in the same compartment with explosives, acids (white label), or combustible material such as cotton, charcoal, sulfur, etc.	Yellow	Stowage: "On deck protected." "On deck under cover." "Tween decks readily accessible." "Under deck but not overstowed." Outside containers: Steel barrels or drums: (ICC-6A) not over 55 gal. cap. and not exceeding 880 lb. gr. wt.
